An Address Was Given By The Pastor

An Interesting Meeting of Charlotte Street Young Men's Guild Was Held—Rev. W. J. Jolliffe Spoke on "Success"—The Characteristics of a Successful Life—Labour, Not Luck, That is Needed.

BUSINESS SESSION OF THE GUILD

The regular meeting of the Young Men's Guild of Charlotte street church was held last night in the Guild Room. There was a good attendance, and a very profitable evening was spent. The feature of the meeting was an address by the pastor, Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, on "Success." Mr. Jolliffe's address was an inspiring one, and was listened to intently by the large number of young men present. He said that every man should have an ideal in life and should try to live up to it.

He advised the young men to cultivate habits of industry, without which it would be impossible to succeed in life. Labour and not luck brought success. Luck waited for something to turn up, while labour turned it up. The speaker gave instances of men who by hard work had attained places of prominence in the world, such as Wellington, Nelson, Franklin and Roberts.

He counselled his hearers that they would not find success an easy matter. Money should not be the object of life, he said. The discipline which one underwent in attaining money was much more valuable than the money itself.

Many of the strong men had come from the lowly walks in life; George Stevenson, Shakespeare Carey, Wellington, David Livingston and Garfield.

He advised his young hearers to measure up to the perfect man, Christ, for without a desire to do this no life could be a success. Character was one of the greatest assets which a young man could possess.

The routine business of the meeting was transacted, and it was decided to hold a concert on Dec. 8th, when the trophy won by the Baseball team will be presented. The intention is to hold a concert which will be one of the best given in the school room in a long time.

The question of hockey was discussed, but nothing definite was arranged. The meeting was well attended and there was a satisfactory enthusiasm evidenced by the members of the Guild.

Four new members were last night added to the strength of the already large membership, making a total of over sixteen that have joined the Guild this month.

How Other Cities Conduct Hospital Work

Replies Received to Questions Submitted to Various Cities by City Clerk—Many Have Arrangements Similar to Those of Peterborough—Will Isolation Hospital be Built? Is Question Now Being Considered.

MUCH INFORMATION IN THE REPLIES

Dr. Bruce Smith, Inspector of Prisons and Charitable Institutions, during his recent visit to Peterborough, stated that some provision for an isolation hospital was imperatively necessary, and, in view of this, a number of questions with regard to hospital conditions in various cities whose population ranges in the neighbourhood of that of Peterborough, have been submitted by City Clerk Armstrong.

The replies received were submitted at last night's meeting of the Committee of the Whole. They were as follows:—

Treatment.

Guelph, yes, all except small-pox; Brantford, no; St. Catharines, no; we take typhoid, but not tuberculosis; Stratford, no; St. Thomas, no.

Isolation.

Have you an isolation hospital?

Guelph, yes; Brantford, yes; St. Catharines, no, but now taking steps to secure money to build one; Stratford, no; Belleville, no; St. Thomas, yes.

Management.

Is it managed by the general hospital; or under separate management?

Guelph, by Boards of Health and officers; Brantford, general hospital; St. Thomas, under the direction of the Board of Health.

Officials.

Is there a matron, or house keeper and assistants in the hospital all the time?

Guelph, no, only when required for small-pox; Brantford, yes; St. Thomas, no; a capable lady superintendent or matron, with full staff of trained nurses. We have a Nurses' Home and Training School, as an adjunct to the hospitals. Many graduates hold important positions elsewhere.

How Nursed:

If not, how are they arranged for when patients are sent to the Isolation Hospital?

Guelph, immediately made ready for the purpose; St. Thomas, under care of a man and his wife who live in a house on the grounds; special nurses provided when necessary.

Cost.

What does it cost to maintain it? Guelph, nothing, except in small-pox cases, which cost from $500 to $1000 each; Brantford, expenses included with that of general hospital; Belleville says that in case of small-pox tent is used, other cases are treated in general hospital; St. Thomas, varies, according to cases. Brantford city clerk states that the city has nothing to do with the general hospital except to make an annual grant of from $1600 to $1800.

DR. HUGO'S Health Tablets for Women

THEY MAKE HEALTHY WOMEN

B.N. Robinson & Co. Confidential

A Medicine Just for Women.

It is common sense that women need different medicine than men. Their peculiar organism requires it.

Medicines, sold alike for men and women, never contain what will do a woman the most good, that is, the uterine and other female tonics. Such medicines may relieve for a little but that is all. They do not cure, because they do not reach the cause of nine-tenths of the ills of women.

This is a special remedy, compounded by a specialist for a special purpose. The specialist is Dr. Hugo, of Paris, who perhaps knows more about the needs of women to-day than any other living physician. Its special purpose is to cure the ills of women and them alone. It is not for men.

Any sick or run-down woman, no matter what the cause, will positively get more benefit from one box of these tablets than from a dozen boxes or bottles of any remedy sold indiscriminately for men and women both, which does not contain the special uterine and other female tonics her system requires.

And it takes but one box to prove our statement. Improvement is noticed the first week.

Business Men To Give Addresses

The programme for November of the People's Popular Sunday evening services at the Park street Baptist church have been very favourably received. Large congregations have gathered, and much good resulted.

To-morrow night a platform meeting will be held, when addresses will be given by hard-headed consecrated men, interspersed by choruses by the choir. The pastor will be in charge. This is a slight departure from the ordinary routine, and promises to be attractive and profitable.

Editor of Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—Could not some person devise a more appropriate and becoming advertisement for a certain non-union man's barber shop window on George street than the one now there. It is certainly disgraceful. Actually it is a more suitable sign for some place of ill repute. Of what use are the different sermons preached on modesty and our earnest endeavour to establish that sweet and Holy virtue in the minds of our young folks and instill a love for it in their hearts, when such a picture is placed in a public window where they all can gaze upon it? Such a thing might be in the low and corrupt portions of some American City where morals are seldom taken into consideration, but have we to tolerate it in our own fair city?

Yours truly,
MORALITY.

Vestments For St. Luke's Choir

The choir at St. Luke's church, at a recent meeting, passed a resolution requesting the rector and the church wardens to allow them to wear vestments at all services, and to co-operate with them in procuring these vestments. This adds another to the list of choirs in the city in which this question is being discussed, and by the members of which it has been approved.

Cash Register An Evidence Of Modern Methods

Mr. F. A. Clark, the George Street Furrier, Owns One of the Most Modern Cash Registers in Existence—A Multiple Counter Which Tells All About Business Transactions—Takes Place of Cashier.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS MAN ENDORSES IT

The possession and use of a National Cash Register is regarded in the business world to-day as an evidence of progressive business methods, and the merchant who has one of these machines in his store is, as a general rule looked upon as a safe man to do business with. The scope of usefulness of these machines has very largely increased during recent years, until to-day they have been brought to a state of perfection which would have been thought impossible a few years ago.

During the last few months a number of these registers have been placed in this city, among the mercehants buying them being Mr. F. A. Clark, the well known furrier on George street. Mr. Clark's register is the most modern in the city, and, it is stated, is one of the very latest turned out from the factory in Dayton, Ohio. It embraces a number of entirely new features which greatly increases its value. In short, it takes the place of a human cashier, and, in this function alone it would very soon pay for itself. To one unacquainted with the working of a cash register, and with this machine, in particular, a realization of the work which it will perform gives the impression that it is almost human. In fact in some respects its work is superior to that of a human being, because it cannot possibly make a mistake.

These registers are becoming an important factor in the modern business world, and their general adoption by the most progressive business men of this and other countries is proof of the fact that they have demonstrated their commercial value.

The register which Mr. Clark received a short time ago, and of which since its reception he has had an opportunity of testing the value, is known as a multiple counter, as distinct from the ordinary cash register, and, while it embraces all the ordinary functions of the register which has for years been in use, it also possesses some new features, in which its chief value lies. One of the advantages possessed by this machine is the fact that every clerk has a separate till, so that if a mistake is made only the one guilty of it will be blamed, for, each clerk can arrange his till so that no one but himself will have access to it. This feature, however, is not peculiar to the multiple counter.

On this register there are keys which will record any transaction that it will ever be necessary to make in any ordinary business, including C. O. D., Approval, Received on Account, Charge and Paid Out. No keys are necessary for cash sales, the mere pressing of the amount of the sale recording the fact that it is a cash transaction. The whole details of the transaction are recorded not only on a roll on the register itself, but they are printed on a coil of paper which, if it is a cash sale or received on account is given to the customer as a receipt, or if one of the others is deposited in the till as a memorandum for the clerk. One cannot possibly open the till for any purpose without it being registered. The multiple counter features are the ones which are the most valuable, however, and with this attachment the proprietor can tell at any hour of the day how many customers have been waited on, the amount of money that has been taken in by each clerk during the day, and the total amount of money received. These are the distinctive features of this particular machine, and their advantages will at once be apparent to every business man. There is another attachment by which the total cash sales for the week or month, as may be desired, are registered, so that at end of the week the proprietor can untock the totalizing counter and see at a glance just what his receipts for the week have been.

For a man who wants to know all there is to know about his business there is nothing which will tell him as satisfactorily as a cash register, and it would seem that there is hardly anything in connection with a record of transactions that a business man would want to know which the register will not tell him.

Mr. Clark is greatly pleased with his machine, which he had long enough now to test thoroughly, and believes that it will pay for itself in a short time. Naturally he feels proud of the fact that his machine is the very latest design, no others in this part of the country possessing all the newest features embraced in it.

The business of this store has been steadily increasing, and, although Mr. Clark has been in business here only five years, his trade last year was four times as large as it was the first year. He has a staff of seven girls constantly employed, and there is an air of prosperity about the store which fits in well with the enterprise evidenced by his purchase of the National Cash Register.

"For three years I suffered more than I can tell with terrible pains in the small of my back. When I stooped over, it seemed as though I would never be able to straighten up. I tried Kidney Pills for a year and a half, but was getting worse all the time, until advised by my neighbor to try "Gin Pills," as she had been almost similarly affected, and had been completely cured by them. I took three boxes of Gin Pills, and almost from the first dose I began to feel better. Now I am pleased to say I can do as good a day's work as ever in my life without feeling tired out. Before getting Gin Pills I had to have a girl to do my housework, but now I can do it all myself, including the washing. I will always recommend Gin Pills for kidney trouble.

Found Drunk In Hotel Yard

Young Man Allowed To Go On Suspended Sentence.

This morning at the police court a well known young man was charged with being drunk in a public place. He was found in an hotel yard in a deplorable condition, and removed to the police station, where he was locked up.

"You have been advised, pleaded with, warned and reproved, for your conduct, but it seems to have no effect on you. I feel sorry for your family, very sorry," said His Worship H. Bush, who, in the absence of the Police Magistrate, occupied the bench. "I think if you were put away for about three or four months, in a place where you could not obtain liquor, it would be the best thing that ever was done for you," said the court. "What do you think about it yourself?"

"I don't think it would do," was the reply.

"You don't, eh! Well, if you ever come before me again, I will give you at least three or four months. You may go this time on suspended sentence."

In the first place the prisoner pleaded not guilty, but upon the chief asking for a week's remand he changed his mind, and entered a plea of guilty, apparently not relishing the idea of going up the hill.

Before the Railway Commission, G. T. R. Solicitor Cowan asserted that it was impossible to buy a single car in Canada to-day for delivery in 1905, and he took that as an instance to show that manufacturing industries as well as railways were unable to keep pace with these exceptional times. He claimed that the New York Central, Pennsylvania Central and Lehigh Valley were all in a worse position in this respect than the Grand Trunk.

Were Honoured Before Leaving For Peterboro'

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Johnston of Victoria Harbour, Presented With Marble Clock --Are Leaving That Town For This City--Mrs. Johnston is Sister of Hon. Geo. A. Cox--Members of the Methodist Church.

WILL RESIDE IN FUTURE IN THIS CITY

The Orillia Packet has an article from its Victoria Harbour correspondent as follows:

On Saturday evening, November 11, the members and friends of the Methodist church tendered a farewell and presentation to Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston, who leave to-day (Tuesday) for their new home in Peterborough. On behalf of the congregation Mr. C. Quitell and Miss Nellie Roberts presented Mr. and Mrs. Johnston with a handsome mantle clock finished in bronze and marble, and a silver card tray inlaid with gold; and Mrs. Waugh on behalf of the Ladies' Aid (in which Mrs. Johnston has been an earnest worker) presented her with a fine linen set. The following address was read by Mr. Mark Vasey: Dear Mr. and Mrs. Johnston,—We, the members and friends of the Methodist church, Victoria Harbour, having learned with deep regret that you intend to leave our town to reside in Peterborough, feel that we cannot let you go without indicating our appreciation of the faithful services you have both rendered in connection with our church. The results of your untiring efforts and fidelity are seen in every department of church work, and the present wholesome condition of our finances is largely owing to your energetics, zeal and courage; but while we appreciate you for what you have done, you may feel assured that we value you even more for what you are. Your quiet, unassuming manner, your kindly and helpful disposition, your strong, Christian character, the high motives by which you have been actuated in every good work, have endeared you not only to our congregation, but to the entire community. As a slight token of our appreciation and esteem we ask you to accept these gifts, hoping that they may not only add to the comfort and convenience of your new home, but also serve to remind you of your many friends in Victoria Harbour. Signed on behalf of the congregation, Mrs. C. Quitell, Mrs. M. Vasey, Mrs. A. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston made appropriate replies, referring feelingly to the many tender associations formed while here, and thanking the people for their kindness. Complimentary speeches were made by the Rev. Geo. Waugh, pastor; Mr. Mark Vasey and Mr. Hughes. A pleasant social evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God be with you till we meet again." Mrs. Johnston is a sister of the Hon. G. A. Cox, Toronto.

Mr. G. W. Johnston and his estimable wife were greatly surprised on the evening of the 11th when about forty members of the Methodist church took peaceful possession of his residence. Having made themselves at home, they presented Mr. Johnston with an address and a beautiful clock, also a pretty card basket. The members of the Ladies' Aid presented Mrs. Johnston with a handsome set of table linen, as a slight token of the high esteem of their co-workers in the church. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, who were completely taken by surprise, expressed their thanks in their usual modest way. This pleasant part of the programme having been carried out, refreshments, instrumental and vocal music, and speeches by the Rev. G. Waugh, Messrs. M. Vasey, M. Hughes and C. Quitell brought a delightful evening to a close.

Oil Region Was Visited

Mr. R. J. Munro Returned From Trip to Pennsylvania.

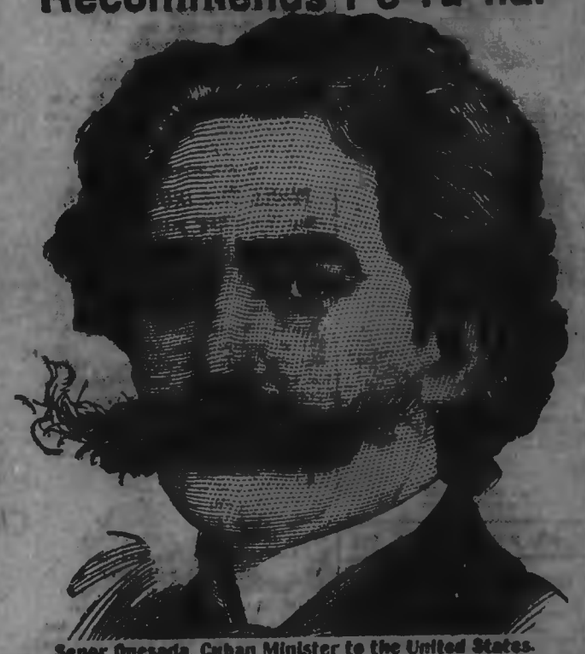
Mr. R. J. Munro, of the Munro House, returned last night from a trip, which combined business with pleasure, to Pennsylvania. A number of leading cities in the State were visited, including Oil City, and Franklin.

Mr. Munro, who left Peterborough on Tuesday morning states that the trip was a most enjoyable one, and much information of value and interest with regard to the oil fields and the mode of operation in vogue was gleaned by observation.

As To Choir Vestments

The question of rested choirs has become a live subject in many of the churches. St. John's has adopted the idea. The George street Methodist church will put the choir in vestments on the completion of the rebuilding of the organ. The members of the Charlotte street Methodist church choir, of St. Luke's, and of St. Paul's, are all in favour of the change, and in respect to the latter the Examiner is informed that a large committee of the congregation, to which the matter was referred, were in favour of putting the choir in vestments.

CUBAN MINISTER TO THE U. S.
Recommends Peruna.



Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States, is an orator born. In an article in The Outlook for July, 1899, by George Kennan, who heard Quesada speak at the Esteban Theater, Mantanzas, Cuba, he said: "I have seen many audiences under the spell of eloquent speech and in the grip of strong emotional excitement; but I have rarely witnessed such a scene as at the close of Quesada's eulogy upon the dead patriot, Marti." In a letter to The Peruna Medicine Company, written from Washington, D. C., Senor Quesada says:

"Peruna I can recommend as a very good medicine. It is an excellent strengthening tonic, and it is also an efficacious cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh."—Gonzalo De Quesada.

Congressman J. H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., gives his endorsement to the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words:

"Your Peruna is one of the best medicines I ever tried, and no family should be without your remarkable remedy. As a tonic and catarrh cure I know of nothing better."—J. H. Bankhead.

There is but a single medicine which is a radical specific for catarrh. It is Peruna, which has stood a half century test and cured thousands of cases.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

This Season's Last Cheese Shipment

The last shipment of cheese for the season was made from Peterborough yesterday. The shipment comprised ten factories out of the nineteen purchased by Mr. Wm. Kerr at the last meeting of the board, and amounted to three carloads. The cheese was subjected to a test-weighing on the city market scales by Mr. James Brown, market clerk. This shipment concludes, so far as Peterborough is concerned, perhaps one of the most successful cheese-making seasons in the history of the industry in this county.

THE INDEMNITY INCREASE.

Mr. A. E. Kemp, M.P., Toronto, does not quite see, eye to eye with those Conservatives Associations who are putting through stock resolutions condemning the increase of sessional indemnity with the inference that the wicked "Grits" are responsible for it and that the incorruptible Conservative members did not vote for nor accept the increased allowance—whereas every Conservative member to a man voted for and accepted the increase. Mr. Kemp told the First Ward Toronto Conservatives that the indemnity outrage was not as black as it was painted. He explained that under the old plan, members received $1,500 per session and ten cents per mile for travelling allowance. For failure to attend any day of the House $7 or $8 was deducted from the indemnity, but a member could attend a morning meeting of a committee and be counted as present, although he did not come near the House any more that day. Under the new indemnity act there were no mileage allowances, and for failure to attend a session of the House a member forfeited $15 per day. From his own personal knowledge he could say that previous to the last general election the Conservative party in Ontario had great difficulty in securing just the class of men the party desired. Many candidates and members were professional men, probably because they were so well known in their constituency, and during the last and previous sessions men on both sides of the House had stated to him that they must retire from politics because of the loss of business. These men could not stand the strain on their resources. The whole conditions in this country had changed. The opportunities for good men to get on were greater, money was more plentiful as the country grew, and good men felt they could not continue to sacrifice themselves at Ottawa. "Think," said Mr. Kemp, "of the late Mr. E. F. Clarke. What was the result of his devotion to the public service? Did not going to Ottawa prevent his success in other business? I approve of the indemnity bill and I cannot understand the opposition to it."

These be brave words, and have considerable reasonableness about them. The sessional indemnity increase is evidently a discussable subject, and fairly permits difference of opinion, as to its enormity, or its merits. Mr. Kemp voices the sentiments of many men in public life, but it is to be observed that his position places the matter upon a very practical, if not sordid, basis, and leaves little room for the entrance of patriotism into the influences that attract men, into the arena of public affairs. No doubt many persons make sacrifices in serving their country. But, if they give good and effective service, they have their reward in the gratitude, or execration, of their fellow countrymen — depending upon the point of view, politically. If men desirous of serving their country, decide to keep a profit and loss account, and fail to permit the honour and privilege of performing a public duty constitute an item in balancing the account, but demand cold cash, then patriotism is not an embarrassing possession.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, speaking in Wentworth on Thursday night, said that members for many years, though they had passes, were paid in addition to their indemnity, twenty cents per mile for every mile between their homes and Ottawa. This mileage amounted in some cases to $400 or $500, and would average $200 a each member. That has been taken away, with the increased indemnity. Formerly $8 per day, as Mr. Kemp pointed out, was deducted from the indemnity for every day absent from the House. Under the increased indemnity, this deduction has been advanced to $15 per day — practically a penalty, making for better attendance of legislators to their duties. It is a peculiar question that has two sides; and though the increased indemnity is unsparingly condemned, this condemnation is made without knowledge, or consideration while the mileage allowance is taken away, and the deduction for absence of the countervailing conditions. Members get an increased indemnity, is increased from $8 to $15. These considerations, added to the fact, that the greater a member's sessional indemnity, the greater amount he will be expected to subscribe to charities and church building funds, and that financially a member under the new conditions may not be any better off at the end of the term than he would be under the old indemnity of $1500.

WHILE THE IRON IS HOT.

The prevailing policy of the city council is dilatoriness—neglect to do the right thing at the right time. Sewer construction is delayed year after year so that the time of beginning such work is deferred to the time the work should be completed. The Aldermen seem to have been napping while the elsewhere widely known preparations for dredging the river channel were in progress. It was only after a letter on the subject stirring the aldermen up to a sense of duty that any action was taken—as last night. Now that the aldermen have seemed to realize the importance of the occasion, there should be the promptest possible action. It would be the height of folly, simply criminal neglect, to permit the material from the dredging, that will serve admirably for filling in the crib work that should be erected along the river front, to be shipped away down the river. This will only necessitate the procuring of other material, and at a very greatly increased expense—to replace that which was on the spot and was allowed to be removed. Such a course would only be matched by the action of a man, who had grounds to fill up, allowing the earth from the excavation for a house to be removed, and afterwards purchasing and drawing new material. The aldermen should permit, or commit, so to speak, no delay. They should strike while the iron is hot. The opportunity of securing the needed material to treat our river front is the chance of a life time.

CONSERVATIVE CHIVALRY

"One of the cheerful features of the Tariff Commission is Sir Richard Cartwright when awake. The gallant Knight has all the buoyancy of a man who has reaped in three offices for three sons, one $7,000 sinecure for himself, a $2,500 Senatorship, and a $3,500-a-year pension. There is nothing small about Sir Richard. When he makes a grab at the public treasury he takes a good handful."—The Mail.

This is the urbane manner, the Globe points out, in which the leading Conservative newspaper of the Province refers to one of the most respected men of this country, a man who gave to the service of Canada for nearly two score years, without fee or reward, save his sessional indemnity of $1,000, intellectual gifts which may have been equalled but were never surpassed in the Parliament of Canada. Sir Richard is in his seventieth year, and for the last year or two has been much afflicted by a distressing rheumatic affection, which has greatly impaired an unusually fine physique. All things considered, therefore, it will not be deemed that there is much good taste or the most ordinary generosity in the Mail's paragraph. It will be the general judgment of the community that, even asleep, Sir Richard would be more than a match for the fat-witted persons who cast a darkness that may be felt on the columns of our contemporary.

Mr. Deakin, the Australian Commonwealth premier, has announced that the question of granting bonuses in order to initiate new agricultural and manufacturing industries, and the readjustment of the tariff, would occupy the first place in the attention of the Government.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Toronto has annexed North Rosedale. Now, the Toronto News and Telegram, should call for the annexation of Northwest Ropebud, the only Conservative constituency their firebrands left unconsumed in Alberta.

According to Conservative authorities, nine stalwart Conservative leaders, "brainy members" of the Conservative party, including Mr. Borden, are to invade Wentworth on a stumping campaign. Now, why this great array to overcome poor Mr. Sealey, who was only elected by a majority of twenty, leaving Mr. Maclean, to fight single-handed, the "brainiest" of cabinet ministers, in a riding — North York — where the Liberal majority, last election, was close to the thousand mark? We are proverbially informed, that it takes nine tailors to make a man. Can it be that Mr. Maclean's estimate is accepted by the Conservative party — that it takes nine of the "brainiest" leaders of the Conservative party, according to the Ottawa Citizen, to make a man of Mr. MacLean's mental calibre, and fighting powers?

Chief Bond's Body Is Not Yet Recovered

Further Details of the Sad Drowning Accident Which Occurred in Haliburton--Boat Sank in Crooked Lake --Chief Sank Trying to Save Miss Grice--Mr. Patterson Succeeded in Reaching Shore.

THE CHIEF SANK IN 100 FEET OF WATER

The Port Hope Guide gives some additional particulars on the drowning of Chief Bond and Miss Grice. It says:

The remains of the late Miss Grice were brought to town to-day by the 12.40 train and taken to Mr. George's undertaking parlors. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bond and daughter, Mr. Bond, of Toronto, brother of our late chief, and Mr. R. H. Holland, P.M.

The only further particulars that can be learned of the accident are that the party, consisting of Chief Bond, Miss Grice and Mr. Paterson, left the camp about 7 o'clock Monday morning. They rowed up the river into Crooked Lake, and the boat being overloaded, the water washed over the sides. The Chief, seeing the danger, called to pull hard for the shore, but suddenly the rowlock pulled out and the boat was swamped. Chief Bond caught Miss Grice, and with her head resting on his shoulder, he endeavoured to swim to shore on his back. Their clothing was very heavy and it was almost impossible to keep above water. The Chief, however, bore up nobly and was only a short distance from shore, when, benumbed from the icy water and exhausted, they both sank.

Mr. Peterson, who is sixty-four years of age, tried to grasp the upturned boat, but it was one mass of ice. He succeeded, however, in catching the gunwale of the boat, and drifted over to the shoal. Mr. Peterson was suffering greatly from the cold and exposure, and being without oars, had no means of returning to the camp. It meant death if he remained on the shoal in this state, and after picking up an old branch he started down the lake in his boat. After paddling about the lake and river for nearly three hours he was sighted by Mr. Holland, Police Magistrate of the town, and his party. They suspected that something was wrong, and they set out in their boat to assist him. He was taken over to their lodge and was almost in a state of collapse. There is no doubt whatever, that had he not been noticed by the party he would have died in his boat. He related the news to the party, and the wife of one of the campers conveyed the sad tidings to Mrs. Bond.

A search party was at once formed, and the remains of Miss Grice were found Tuesday morning washed ashore. It is supposed that Miss Grice was dead before Chief Bond sank, and the large military coat which she wore floated her. Their lunch basket and oars and a rubber coat worn by the Chief were also found near the body. The remains were taken to camp and remained there until the arrival of Mr. Alf. George on Wednesday evening. There are a couple of bad bruises on the nose. The remains will likely be taken to Aurora for interment.

Mr. Alf. George accompanied the remains to Haliburton, but afterward returned with Mr. Bond, the late Chief's brother, and a party of ten men, and will keep up the search until they have found the remains of Chief Bond, or as long as weather conditions permit.

It is estimated that where the Chief went down there is a depth of one hundred feet of water and the party expect a difficult task in recovering the body.

It is supposed that the accident occurred about 8 o'clock Monday morning, and if such is the case Mr. Holland and his party had only passed that point about fifteen minutes previously.

At the time of the accident the launch owned by Mr. Charles Nixon, of this town, was in the boat, and was afterwards found in the woods caught fast by the chain drawn to the rocks.

Coats enough came into Peterborough last winter to coat every woman, man, girl and boy. "That's a lot." We shared in this big lot. We have got to lose money on them, and we want to sell about 200 Coats at a price that every lady will feel satisfied she has saved money. "You can make use of a warm Coat now." You have the choice of 200 Good Coats, and you are sure to get a Coat to fit you. All regular sizes—32, 34, 36, 38, 40.

These Coats are all from 24 to 28 inches in length, in tight fitting back and loose back styles, comprising Black Kersey Cloth Coats, Navy and Fawn Coats, Light and Dark Tweed Cloth Coats. Nearly all have the Leg-o'-Mutton Sleeve—THAT'S THIS YEAR'S SLEEVE—and nearly every coat is lined, so you have warm, comfortable dressy coats, at a fraction price, only they are shorter than the required length for Dame Fashion this year.

THE Cressman's

Ice Area is Contaminated;

PROBABLE PROHIBITION

Of Ice Cutting Operations

Examination Reveals Presence of Colon Bacilli in a Dangerous Quantity—"Should Not Be Used for Ice-Production to Be Used in Food or Drink," Says Dr. Amyot, Provincial Bacteriologist—Local Ice Men Have Serious Problem to Solve—Chemong is Considered to be an Impossible Location.

Local ice men will now have a hard problem to wrestle with, in the probable prohibition of ice-cutting operations in the Little Lake this winter. The question was discussed at a special meeting of the local Board of Health held at the City Clerk's office, and it has been established beyond the shadow of a doubt that the water area, used as a source of ice supply is dangerously contaminated with colon bacilli, and is wholly unfit for use for drinking purposes. Though no definite action has as yet been taken the consensus of opinion of the members of the Board of Health appears to be strongly in favour of the prohibition of the cutting of ice.

The following members were present at this morning's meeting: — Messrs. R. Neill, chairman; William Eyres, Geo. Schneider, Dr. Bingham, Medical Health Officer, Chief Rossel, and City Clerk Armstrong.

Samples of city water taken from various points in the river were recently submitted to Dr. Amyot, provincial analyst, and the results of a bacteriological examination by the latter are embodied in the following letter received by Dr. Bingham, the local Medical Health Officer:

Dr. Bingham, Peterborough:—

Your specimens of water from the proposed ice supply pond arrived here on November 4th, 1905.

It shows colon-bacilli, intestinal bacteria, in one cubic centimeter quantities. This means that they are present in a dangerous quantity. Water so infected should not be used for ice production, when the ice is to go into either food or drink It is not surprising that this pollution does exist, with the drainage into the creek or lake at that place. Without analysis this condition should condemn the source.

Yours truly,
JOHN. A. AMYOT.

The gravity of the question of the ice supply will at once be apparent, affecting, as it does, almost every citizen, and the question which arises is as to the location for the cutting.

Mr. Allin, of the Allin Ice Company was present at the meeting this morning, and expressed the opinion, based, he said, upon a careful calculation, that the cost of cutting at Chemong would be at least twelve times that at Peterborough, which would render it almost prohibitive. Asked as to the availability of Lakefield as a location for the purpose, Mr. Allen said that the question had arisen so quickly that the local dealers had not yet had an opportunity to give it a full consideration. Lakefield would be preferable to Chemong though the facilities for handling and the question of freight would have to be considered.

The ice, it is considered by members of the Board, should not be used for other than cooling purposes, and concerns using it in large quantities for refrigerating purposes will probably be allowed to cut.

The Board adjourned until Wednesday morning next when the matter will be further discussed with the local ice-dealers, who, it is expected, will have representatives present.

A Practical Appreciation

Peterborough's Importance is Recognized by Toronto Firm.

Peterborough's remarkable growth and activity in the building line has attracted the attention of former residents of our town. Messrs. Roberts & Hetherington, painters, decorators, etc., of Toronto, are thinking of opening a branch shop here in the near future. As their business in Toronto demands their own personal attention it is their intention to put a capable man in charge here who will thoroughly understand the trade in all its branches. With the hearty co-operation of the citizens of the city one is sure they should make a success of their undertaking.

Both young men are well known here and their many friends will be pleased if they should finally decide to locate a branch here. They have worked up a good business in the Queen City in a remarkably short time and their prospects for the future are very bright.

Mr. Roberts is in town looking around and was surprised at the growth of Peterborough in the last few years. The Examiner joins heartily in wishing them every success in their undertaking. Their Toronto address is 371 Sackville street.

Radial Railway Company Elects Officers for Year

At the Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon--The Officers of Last Year Were Re-elected---Mr. Stewart, President--Change Date of Annual Meeting---Will be Held the Third Week in February.

EXTENSION QUESTION NOT DISCUSSED

Yesterday afternoon the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company was held in the office of Messrs. Dennistoun, Peck & Kerr. All the stock was represented. The Board of Directors, was re-elected, viz., Messrs. Robt. Stewart, J. C. Shook, H. P. Crowell, T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., and J. H. Larmonth. These were also present at the meeting, and in addition Messrs. D. Davidson and D. Hall, representing the stock held by the Dickson Company. The bylaws of the Company were passed. These provided for changing the date of the annual meeting of the Company to the third week in February.

The reports of the operations of the Company for the year were not presented at this meeting. They will be given at the next meeting in February, at which the operations to the close of the year will be reported on.

At a meeting of the directors held subsequent to that of the shareholders the officers were elected. They are: Robt. Stuart, President; J. C. Shook, Vice-President; J. H. Larmonth, Secretary and Manager. These are the same as held office last year.

"The Crossing" at The Grand Opera House Next Wednesday Nov. 22.

"The Crossing" has proven to be one of the best hits of the season. One of the novelties of the play is a hardwood floor, built in twelve sections, that will be used to cover the stage in the third act. This is the first time that an actual covering has been used upon the stage; heretofore polished floors being represented by painted cloth. The flooring will be carefully fitted together, and will be laid upon the stage as soon as the company arrives, where it will remain in place until after the last performance.

This will not be the only realism in "The Crossing," however. When Louis Evan Shipman, who, with Mr. Churchill, made the dramatisation of the book, was in New Orleans last winter, he obtained some wonderful old Louis XV candelabra, and these will be used in the play. As a matter of fact everything that is used in the play will be historically correct. A special load of furniture made from Louis XV designs, will be brought here for the production; this in itself requiring a large baggage car for transportation.

Mr. Shipman is a well known dramatist. He made Winston Churchill's book, "The Crisis," into a play, and his own piece, "D'Arcy, of the Guards," has been well received for several seasons. Like Mr. Churchill, Mr. Shipman has many friends here, and is being entertained at the residence of one of them.

Prices are the same as at the "Princess," a few weeks ago, when it was first presented in Canada: 25, 35, 50, 75 cents, $1, $1.50.

Plan opens at 10 a.m., on Monday next, at the box office of the opera house. Telephone No. 568.

A Daughter's Dream Literally Realized

Dreamed That She Saw Her Father, Absent in a Distant Place, With a Broken Arm--He Returned Home Yesterday With His Arm in "Splints."

From a home in this city, the father was absent — out of town. During the night his daughter, sixteen years of age, dreamed a dream. She dreamed that she saw her father, with his arm bandaged — as if it had been broken, and bound up. The dream so impressed her, by its vividness, that she awoke her mother, and related her dream, with the remark that she was sure that her father would come home, with his arm broken, as he did yesterday.

Impressed, in turn, with the earnestness of her daughter on the subject, the mother in the morning got, or caused, to be got, telephone communication with the village, where the father was known to be. In verification of the daughter's dream -created forebodings. The information was given, that the father the night previously, had met with an accident, by which his arm was broken, as told in the daughter's dream, and that the father had left for home, where he arrived in due time in the condition his daughter had so firmly asserted her conviction that he would return. "There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamed off in your philosophy."

Local Capitalists Are Interested In Project

The Examiner is informed that there is every probability that a new opera house will be erected in Lindsay in the near future. It is understood that some local capitalists are interested in the project, negotiations for which are already under way. Lindsay is one of the best show towns in the province, and, with a modern opera house, such as it is intended to erect there, the patrons will have the privilege of seeing the best plays on the road, plays which now are not shown in that town at all. In the course of a short time some definite announcement may be expected in reference to the matter.

Protestant Home Matter Will Be Discussed

The Committee of the Whole Council met last night in the City Clerk's office, the following being in attendance: Mayor Best, chairman; Aldermen Adams, Crowe, Leary, Tovey, Johnston, McIntyre, Mason, Hicks.

Mayor Best referred to the question of the construction of the proposed new wharf, and also the construction of crib-work along the river front, where the present dredging is being carried on.

The Mayor favoured the foot of King street as a suitable location for the dock, in view of its easy accessibility.

Ald. Mason thought the building of the dock was inadvisable till navigation was possible, by the building of a swing upon the C. P. R. bridge.

A communication was received from Mrs. Miller, secretary of the Peterborough Protestant Home, requesting that a committee of the City Council be appointed to meet jointly with committees of the County Council, the resident clergy, and the Protestant Home, on November 20, at which time the County Council will meet. The object of the joint meeting is to consider regarding the proposed House of Refuge. The over-crowded condition of the Home was also referred to.

The following committee was appointed: Mayor Best, Ald. Johnston, Ald. Mason and Ald. Adams.

Ald. Johnston inquired if some means could not be devised whereby the various water troughs in the city could be kept from freezing during the winter months.

After some discussion all appeared unanimous in the view that this could only be accomplished by a system of drainage to allow the water to flow out continuously, and Mr. Henderson will be requested to look into the matter.

BOXING AND WRESTLING.

The Ottawa Free Press contains the following graphic description of the recent wrestling bout between Dellvuk and Bush, that has created interest all over Canada:—

Those who missed taking in the "rassling" bout at Harmony Hall last night, will have a long patient wait before such another struggle rolls around. Dellvuk, the Austrian mountaineer, succeeded in inflicting on Karl Bush, the latter's first defeat since he reached these shores two and a half months ago. The battle was a fierce one in every particular and sensational throughout. Dr. Gadbois, who edits the wrestling columns of Montreal La Presse, referred the bout and pronounced it equally as strenuous as the Rodgers-Maugas go in Buffalo, N.Y., some time ago.

It was certainly a battle of human ironclads. In strength both men are giants. From a scientific standpoint the palm must be conceded to Dellvuk. He wrestled on a systematic plan from the very commencing. He had an object in every move. Combine his power with grey matter and it was really through this combination of forces that he won. And at that Bush gave his best performance since his successful sojourn in the Capital. He exhibited considerable skill in pulling holds from chancery and bar holds which looked good for falls. He was also as aggressive as his opponent. In fact his offence work was ill timed toward the finish when he tugged for fully twenty minutes on Dellvuk's 190 pounder, while the Tyrolean patiently rested. In this effort Bush sapped much of his strength, which his opponent stored up a reserve to bring into play at the crucial moment.

The dry plays in the contest were just about as entertaining as the actual wrestling. In the third round, after each man had secured a fall, the work became furious. Both men resorted to crooked tactics. Bush charged his man repeatedly with his elbow, while Dellvuk would come back across the face with his forearm. It was plain to be seen no love was being lost between the two. Now and again short arm jabs were delivered and Dr. Gadbois had to warn the men repeatedly to wrestle on the square. Neither man is an adept at the English language and a rather funny pantomime followed. The referee called on the audience to produce an interpreter who could explain to Bush in German that he must not use his elbow. Fortunately an interpreter was found and the meaning explained. He would cut out the objectionable work. His opponent would do likewise.

"No, no" said Dellvuk, "me no rough. He rough! Look! Look!" and he exposed a bare looking abrasion on the side of his neck. A delay of several minutes was occasioned before the two started in once more.

Dellvuk took the first fall with a hold that is practically unknown in this country. It is a single arm lock with a roll and took him twenty minutes to secure it.

But the prettiest fall of the evening was that obtained by Bush after fifteen minutes hard going. It was a double wrist hold in which both men were on their backs. A roll over was all that was necessary to pinion the shoulders of the Austrian to the mat, once the vice-like grip was obtained.

With one fall each, the two men went at one another with determination for the final effort. Bush exhausted himself in a substantial manner from hammer-locks and rolls, full-Nelsons, half-Nelsons, and bar holds. The men strained and struggled and actually fought, when, after three-quarters of an hour Dellvuk resorted to a straight throw which proved the undoing of Bush. He suddenly went on the defensive, while Bush worked like a Turk for the remainder of the hour to get his man. After the sixty minutes had expired a five minutes' reprieve was granted the gladiators.

On resuming, Dellvuk looked fresh as ever and darted right into his opponent. Bush's strength gradually ebbed away and after one hour and nine minutes Dellvuk, with a masterful full-Nelson pinned both shoulders of his man to the mat for the winning fall.

The scene remained throughout the struggle and pronounced it the finest piece of skill and strength ever witnessed. It was announced that Dellvuk would wrestle Maugas here next Thursday, but a return match between Dellvuk and Bush would prove a great drawing card.

THE TURF.

Mr. H. A. Cooke left last night for Barrie and Orillia on important turf business. He will return to-day at noon.

Mr. Geo. Lamott has sold his splendid three year old iron grey colt to Mr. Wheeler, the Bond City butcher. The colt is about 15.2 hands in height and gives promise of being a good one. Mr. Wheeler has a splendid mate for it and the pair should make one of the best matched teams in the city. Trainer Cooke has been engaged to break in the recently purchased colt both single and with the other horse.

Three well-known horsemen, of new York state may bring their horses here to train them for the Eastern Circuit next this winter. They have not yet decided to come but when they do the Examiner will devulge their names.

X The last number of the Canadian Sportsman contains the following paragraphs of interest to followers of the turf:—

The entire stable of horses belonging to Sidney Paget were sold and excellent prices were realized. The best of the sale was Kinleydale, a stake winner and a son of Kinley Mack-Berrietta. He was bought by N. Dymont, of Buffalo, for $11,400.

Frank Taylor, the sensational half-mile track pacer, was quite badly injured in a railroad wreck last week. The boiler of an engine pulling the train the horse's car was in exploded, causing the train to buckle, injured his back badly and causing a cut to appear on each hind leg.

BASKET BALL.

The Harriers Won.

They defeated the Arrows last night in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium by a score of 32-17. The Harriers led at half-time by 23-17. While the game was a good exhibition of basketball, the new rules hampered the players noticeably. For the Harriers the work of Campbell was all-round, while for the losers Fred. Richardson was conspicuous. Prior to the game, an exhibition of apparatus work was given by the senior class, under the competent instruction of Mr. E. H. Lord. The return game will be played next Wednesday night. The Harriers out-played their opponents throughout the entire game, and the result was never in doubt. Mr. John Laing who refereed gave the greatest satisfaction to both teams.

Following is the line-up:—

Forwards.
Dobbin	Cressman
Robertson	Laing
Backs.
W. Richardson	Darling
Campbell	Loomis and F. Richardson
Centre.
Hodgson	Miller

The Brewers should challenge the winners of the recently formed Canadian League. But in the meantime the team should get into the pink of condition.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. McWilliams Again President.

At the Charlotte Street Guild Meeting held last night, Mr. N. B. McWilliams was again elected chairman of the sports committee by acclamation. He chose as the other members of the committee, Mr. H. Carr, I. D. Moore, and Wilbert Thornton. A novel feature of the concert that is being arranged to take place in the first week of December, will be a baseball match in tableau form. The match will be played upon the stage and promises to be a unique and very entertaining attraction. The Sunday School where the concert will be held since it has recently been refitted up, affords a first-class place to hold an entertainment, as a good view can be obtained from all parts of the building. The gallery, particularly, is a splendid place to obtain a view of what is going on and avails, as far as an obstructed view is concerned, the balconies of many first-class opera houses.

BAG PUNCHING

Mr. Jack McDonough, the well-known and popular local athlete will probably give a bag punching exhibition at the coming T. A. S. smoker. Mr. McDonough is an expert punisher of the elusive horsehide, and can hit the slatter with any of them. His part of the performance will be undoubtedly worth the price of admission alone. What with the wrestling, boxing, singing, dancing, and bag punching, the concert should be an "eye opener". It is not intended that this last word should be offensive to the "cold water" boys, but as the sporting editor's vocabulary is rather limited, he chose the most expressive word he could think of.

SPRINTING

Knox, formerly of Orillia, has defeated Mitchell at Nelson B.C. for the championship of British Columbia. The time was 9 4-5 seconds. Mitchell won the championship from Smith, of Winnipeg, two years ago in Rossland, B. C. Knox is well known to local sportsmen, having raced here a couple of years ago with Dave Belland. Knox won but the judges declared all bets off, saying that Belland threw the race. The case ended in a lawsuit but nothing was gained from this.

COLD CURE

MUNYON, Philadelphia

Demise Of Mr. W. Clarke

Native of Grays, Essex, Died at Nicholls Hospital.

At the Nicholls Hospital yesterday afternoon at six o'clock, there passed away Walter Clarke, a native of Grays, Essex, after an illness of about three months. The cause of the death was blood poisoning or abcess of the brain, the doctors in attendance being unable to determine the exact nature of the ailment. The late Mr. Clarke was removed to the hospital about five weeks prior to his demise. He was 21 years of age, and had only come to Canada six months ago. His parents and several brothers and sisters reside in Grays, his father being a foreman in the employ of an English barge company.

The remains will be interred in the Little Lake Cemetery, the funeral leaving Bellegham's undertaking rooms at 2.30 o'clock, p.m., Monday. The friends of the deceased have asked the Examiner to state that all the Englishmen in Peterborough who can possibly be present, are requested to attend the funeral. Rev. Mr. Jolliffe, pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church, will conduct the burial services.

The Duty On Implements Discussed

Massey-Harris Company Would "Even Up" to 25 Per Cent.

COUNTER-BLAST TO FARMERS

Tariff Commissioner Brodeur Announces That Government Will Prosecute Manufacturers of Adulterated Spices—Artists Ask Protection—Heavy Day's Work by the Tariff Commission.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—A counter-blast to the demands of the farmers that the duties on agricultural implements be lowered, if changed at all, came yesterday, when the Massey-Harris Co., the largest manufacturers in that business in Canada, asked the Tariff Commission to "even up" all the duties on that branch of industry to 25 per cent. Senator Lyman M. Jones, president, and Mr. J. Kerr Osborne, vice-president, appeared before the commission, and occupied nearly an hour in presenting their case. The memorial read by Mr. Osborne "respectfully submitted that it would be advantageous to the people of Canada to have an evening up of the agricultural implement duties to 25 per cent." by transferring the articles now under item 318 to item 315. The former are liable to a duty of 20 per cent., and comprise the principal items of farm machinery, namely, "mowing machines, harvesters, reapers, cultivators, ploughs, harrows, horse-rakes, seed drills, manure spreaders, and weeders." The group in item 315, now dutiable at 25 per cent., includes steam engines, windmills, horsepowers, grain crushers, fanning mills, and farm wagons.

A Heavy Day's Work.

Tariff Commissioners left Board of Trade Council Chambers at ten minutes past twelve this morning. They had been hard at it — putting aside very short intervals for eating—from 10 o'clock in the forenoon yesterday.

Speakers were long-winded.

The morning session was not remarkably thrilling. The question of the importation of cheap organs and pianos from the United States was yet another count in the indictment against Uncle Sam, against whom speakers asked for redress in the form of stiff enforcement of the anti-dumping clause.

Adulterated Spices.

Other parties sought a uniform tariff on spices, to close the doors against the importations of the tons of adulterated spices. Commissioner Brodeur intimated that the Inland Revenue Department contemplated the prosecution of Canadian manufacturers who thus touched up their spices.

The most interesting item of the afternoon was the application concerning thre tariff on all knitted goods, a topic that led to a rose-colored picture of the Canadian lass who is better off than her sister the other side of the ocean.

The Artists of Canada in the evening made an earnest plea for protection whereby a higher standard of art will prevail in a country offering such possibilities, and whereby the Dominion may not be the dumping ground for all the wretched, spurious daubs from Europe.

Mantels, Grates and Tile.

The Coughlin Monumental Works have added mantels, grates and tile to their business, and have already filled quite a number of orders. Parties requiring anything in this line for new or old residences are invited to call at our showrooms, 214 Hunter street, where several modern styles of mantels, etc., may be seen. Prices the lowest. dstf

Propose To Put An End To The Great Strike

Russian Workmen Will Vote On the Question To-Day.

ST. PETERSBURG "DEAD" CITY

Aim of the Extreme Leaders of the Workmen In Presence of the Breaking Away of Many of the Workmen by Reason of the Employe's Ultimatum and Their Wives' Pleadings—Russian Interior.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—Though according to surface indications yesterday the outlook for the ending of the strike was gloomy, the revelations made at a meeting last night of the council of the workmen's delegates showed that a large portion of the workmen were breaking loose from the control of the leaders and were anxious to return to work, and a plebiscite, which will be taken to-day in the various factories, probably will result in a decision to abandon the strike Monday.

At the meeting of the council, which was held in the same hall where Father Gapon, Maxim Gorky and other leaders denounced the Emperor on the eve of Jan. 22 ("Red Sunday"), delegate after delegate from different factories arose and reported that the workmen, under the influence of the ultimatum issued by the employers announcing that the factories would be shut down indefinitely unless work was resumed on Monday, and with the pleading of their wives and of the conservative workmen ringing in their ears, were demanding that the strike should be ended.

After a long discussion, a motion to call off the strike was rejected, and it was decided to call meetings of workmen in the factories to-day to lay the situation before them and to abide by their decision.

To Stop Business.

The leaders, however, were determined not to permit the strike—to die without a final demonstration of their power to render St. Petersburg a "dead city." After the adoption of the resolution calling for a referendum, it was decided to bend every effort to close every store, market and office, beginning at 11 o'clock this morning, and to stop all street car and carriage traffic in the streets, so as to bring the life of the Russian capital to a complete standstill.

Another resolution called for demonstrations to effect the release of four delegates who had been arrested. It was decided to mass 3,000 men in front of each prison where the delegates detained and to hold them there until they are liberated.

The prefect of police has published an appeal to the well-disposed classes, warning them that the strike leaders intend to take aggressive action today and asking them to co-operate with the police against the agitators. "who are making life unbearable."

In the meeting the advocates of the strike laid stress on encouraging news from the interior, which they said they would be able to place before the workmen to-day, but last night's despatches showed little confirmatory evidence of such news.

Mutiny in Russ Army.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—A mutiny in the Manchurian army is the latest sensational rumor in this city. According to the report the Emperor has received a despatch from Gen. Linevitch, telling him of a revolt among the troops, which was only suppressed after a regular fight, in which many soldiers were killed or wounded. Forty-two officers are reported to have been shot for participation in the conspiracy.

New York, Nov. 18.—Jacob H. Schiff of this city received the following cablegram from Lord Rothschild in London:

"Russian catastrophe according to details from Russia of yesterday far greater than expected: outrages, murder and wholesale robbery, and incendiarism in eighty-four towns; no relief fund has huge task to grapple with."

Troops Seize Railway.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—Troops have taken possession of the Moscow Railroad station and the road will be reopened by means of the railroad battalions. The resumption of traffic on this road insures supplies for the capital.

Assassin's Deadly Shot.

Kutais, Transcaucasia, Nov. 18.—The assistant manager of the railroad station here was shot and killed yesterday. The assassin escaped.

Military Trains Collide.

Dzerula, Caucasus, Nov. 18.—A railroad switch was thrown open here yesterday, resulting in a collision between two military trains. Fifteen soldiers were wounded. After the collision the trains were fired upon from the hills, the soldiers defending themselves behind the railroad embankment.

Tried to Kill Governor.

Riga, Nov. 18.—An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate the Governor of Riga. While he was riding in a carriage through the streets a shot was fired at him from an alley, but the bullet missed its mark. The would-be assassin escaped.

Polish Papers Prohibited.

Warsaw, Nov. 18.—The Governor-General has prohibited the publication of three more Polish papers and has prohibited the sale on the streets of all hand bills printed in Polish.

Paralyzed by Fall.

Hamilton, Nov. 18.—Last night Harold Lambe tripped and fell down stairs. His body from the waist down is paralyzed, and his condition is regarded as being very serious.

Police Chief Missing.

Paris, Nov. 18.—Chief of Police MacFarlane is missing. He has been engaged in collecting poll and dog taxes, but the council is secured by a bond in a guarantee company.

The Rake-off Of Plumbers Looked Into

Interesting Details Throw More Light On Combine.

THE CASE AT THE ASSIZES

Why Supply House Refused to Sell Goods to Builder — A London Witness—I.O.U.'s Given to Members on Contracts They Had Nothing to Do With Filling—Supplies Secured in Roundabout Way.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—At the opening of the trial of the Central Supply Co. of Canada, Limited, and the Master Plumbers' Association of Toronto, before Mr. Justice Clute, in the Criminal Assizes, yesterday, without a jury, on the indictment for conspiracy in restraining trade in plumbers' supplies, it was brought out that the master plumbers were bound by oath to preserve the secrecy of the doings of their association. The document was signed by 166 master plumbers.

The Understanding.

Thomas A. Stevens, manager of the Empire Manufacturing Co. of London, admitted that he was a member of the Supply Association and had been since its incorporation, and of the Central Supply Co., which was not incorporated, and before that the Plumbers' Supply Association. The books for these three associations were produced as having been found in the offices of the present supply company's offices.

"What was the written agreement between the Master Plumbers and the Supply Co.?" asked Mr. DuVernet.

"There was no agreement of that kind that I knew of," answered the witness.

"Will you say there was no understanding?"

"No."

"What was the understanding then?"

"It was that if we supplied non-association master plumbers we were likely to lose the trade of the Master Plumbers. Our name would be struck off their list and they would buy supplies elsewhere."

Joseph Harrison, one of the dissenting master plumbers, said that his joining the association caused a reduction in his business from $121,000 in 1902 to $52,000 in 1903. In the first year 35 per cent. of his work came from outside points, which was prevented by rules of the association.

Rake-Off System.

Harrison gave some instances of the rake-off system practiced by the association. In the contract for the Clark Lithographing Co., all those tendering received "I.O.U.'s" for $110; for the Guelph Sanitarium, four plumbers received "I.O.U.'s" for $200; on the Isolation Hospital, fourteen plumbers got rake-offs of $25; on the Annesley contract, ten plumbers got $25 each; on the Nerlich house fourteen men got $15 each; plumber got $150 on the Dignum, Moneypenny building. These were only a few of the instances cited.

In describing the customer claims, Mr. Harrison said that he got the worst of it because he was a new member. A plumber was entitled to claim a person as his customer if he had done his work continuously for two years. This prevented competition, and stopped him from making bids for the work for men claimed by other plumbers as customers.

Hard to Get Supplies.

James A. Berridge, a builder, told the same story as he told in the Police Court. He told of his difficulties in obtaining supplies from William Harris, James Robertson Co., James Morrison Co., Ontario Lead and Barbed Wire Co. on April 12. At that time Mr. Porter of the latter company said he wished the Master Plumbers' Association was broken up as he was getting tired of it.

"A few days after this," continued Berridge, "after I had made a complaint to the Minister of Customs, I attempted to get some goods. The men I sent were told that the companies were out of all they asked for. An hour later I secured what I wanted in a roundabout way from James Morrison Co., which was one of those asked."

Mr. Watson refused to cross-examine the witness, holding that his evidence was inadmissable. This stand the judge refused to support, holding that the actions of members of the Supply Co. was evidence against the indicted company.

The trial will go on this morning at 10 o'clock.

INVESTIGATING INSURANCE.

A Fruitful Week—Gage E. Tarbell's Work For the Policyholders.

New York, Nov. 18.—With the end of the morning session yesterday, the Armstrong Insurance Investigation Committee finished a week that has not been eclipsed since the inquiry began.

Early in the week James Hazen Hyde was examined, and he made charges against E. H. Harriman and Former Governor Odell, who successively appeared and denied Mr. Hyde's statements. Mr. Hyde, on being recalled, reaffirmed his former testimony. Then United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew was heard.

Gage E. Tarbell, second vice-president of the Equitable Society, told of his twenty-five years' connection with the Equitable Society, and his activities in the interest of the policyholders. He started as a solicitor in Greene, N.Y., and later was given a general agency for the southern tier counties, with headquarters at Binghampton.

Opposed Yellow Dog Fund.

He was opposed to moneys being spent for legislative purposes, and thought the policyholders in a body could defeat any legislation inimical to their interests. He said he had tried to interest the New York Life and the Mutual Life Insurance Companies in an agreement to appoint a committee to look after such matters, but the officers of the Mutual Life said it was impracticable. Mr. Tarbell knew of no money expended for campaign purposes.

Mr. Tarbell was on the stand when the adjournment was taken until Tuesday.

Explosion Kills Fifteen.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 18.—A special from Marion, N.C., reports that 15 men were killed near there yesterday by the explosion of a powder magazine located just outside of the town. The shock of the explosion was so great that it was felt at Morgantown, 21 miles away.

How Red Rose Tea is Grown

TEA is a native plant of Northern India. Transplanted to Ceylon it lost much of its strength and richness, but gained in fragrance and delicacy. That is why Ceylon tea is not a strong tea.

That is why I blend Indian and Ceylon teas together—that is how the strength and richness, fragrance and delicacy of Red Rose Tea are secured—that is why Red Rose Tea has that "rich fruity flavor."

Red Rose Tea is good Tea.

900,000 Bricks Made This Season

A Kincardine paper of recent date says:—"Jos. Christo, brickmaker of Kincardine, who had the contract of making brick and tile for Wm. Wright, has finished his work here. He has made Mr. Wright 900,000 of first-class brick and tile, and says that Mr. Wright has one of the best and most up-to-date yards north of Toronto."

A LITTLE TYRANT

There is no tyrant like a teething baby. The temper isn't due to original sin; the little one suffers worse than the rest of the family. He doesn't know what is the matter—they do. But baby need not suffer longer than it takes to make him well, if the mother will give him Baby's Own Tablets. They ease the tender gums and bring the teeth through painlessly and without tears. Mrs. C. Connolly, St. Laurent, Man. says: "Some months ago my little girl's health became so bad that we felt very anxious. She was teething and suffered so much that we did not know what to do. I was advised to try Baby's Own Tablets, and from almost the first dose she began to improve, and there was no further trouble. She is now in the best of health, thanks to the Tablets." The Tablets cure all the minor ailments of children and are a blessing to both mother and child. They always do go—they cannot possibly do harm. Try them and you will use no other medicine for your little one. Sold by all druggists or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Hard Lines For Warkworth Boys

Two of our young men were spending a Sabbath evening in the vicinity of Warkworth, their horses, as they supposed, being securely stabled, and everything seemed lovely. When preparing for their departure they were surprised to find that one of the horses had been taken from the stable, hitched to a buggy, and, whether driven away or let go loose could not be determined. But horse and buggy were found near Centreton, both fill straps were unbuckled and the buggy considerably disfigured. Fortunately the horse received no injury. Whoever did the deed cannot pride himself upon performing a manly act, and if found out will likely serve a term behind the bars.—Journal.

Robbed Rooms Of A Dying Man

A Man Worth $30,000 Had Clothes Stolen While He Died.

John H. Macan, of Perth Amboy, N.J., died Sunday night in the City Hospital of Perth Amboy. Yesterday morning when friends went to his rooms, No. 8 Smith street, to set them in order for the funeral, they found that, while Macan lay dying, thieves had entered and carried off all of his clothing, even his shoes, leaving not so much as a suit in which to bury him.

The robbery has stirred the town, not only because of its coincidence with his death, but because his friends believe it was done by some one having knowledge of his affairs, in an effort to complicate the settling of his estate.

It is said that Macan wrote his will six months ago, deeding all of his property to the City Hospital. He counted in his property $30,000 which his mother, Elizabeth Comfort, left on her death three years ago. Other children began a contest over the estate, which is still in the courts.—N. Y. World.

'Want Ad' Brought This Man a Wife

Omaha, Nov. 13.—A six-foot Swede and a four-foot German maiden, the one from Falls City, the other from the little town of Elkhorn, met in the Union Station yesterday through a "Want" advertisement, and after two hours' earnest conversation they left together for the man's home, where they were married this morning. The advertisement was inserted by Eric Nelson, a well-to-do farmer down on the Kansas line, who took that method to get a wife. It was answered by Anna Gentsch, and they arranged to meet.

Nelson reached the station first, and when Miss Gentsch's train arrived she stepped from the car rived she looked over her head in his search for her. She recognized him by the handkerchief he carried in the left hand, this being the signal agreed upon. She told him who she was. He stepped back, grinned, and then they shook hands.

Nelson is forty, and his bride is thirty-five.

Longer Term For Aldermen Is Advocated

Proposal Made That Members of the Council Should be Elected for Two Years—Plan Which Has Met With Considerable Support Locally—The Proposal Has Already Been Made That Aldermen Serve Longer.

WILL PETERBOROUGH MAKE EXPERIMENT?

There has been considerable discussion recently in this city on the proposal to lengthen the term for aldermen to two years, and in view of this fact the following article from the Municipal World will be of interest:

The length of a municipal councillor's term of office should be determined by consideration of securing popular control, and maintaining an experienced capable council. Under the present system of election for one year, township councillors do not have an opportunity of displaying their ability for carrying on the business of their municipality in an economical manner. No institution, whose affairs are as large as those of a modern township, would run the risk of placing the control of those affairs in the hands of an inexperienced board of directors. The progressive councillor always finds it necessary before introducing a reform, to educate his colleagues and constituents, and so slow are the people to adapt themselves to new ideas, that the present term of office is hardly sufficient for the education of the members of the councils, let alone the ratepayers of the municipalities, to any appreciation of new ideas. This fact, together with the necessity of presenting oneself for annual election, deters many able men from accepting a nomination.

The proportion of re-elections in township municipalities, is usually about 80 per cent., indicating that a two year term would meet with popular support. If an election for more than one year is thought desirable, it will be necessary to consider whether the members should retire at different times, or all at the end of the term, as the county councillors do; either system provides for popular control. In townships owing to the large amount of detail work, under the direction of the council, there is a greater necessity for continuity of procedure. This suggests that the reeve and two councillors should retire each year, but be eligible for re-election. If this plan were adopted experienced men would always be found at the council board. A new member would have men of experience to advise. A councillor desiring to bring about a reform in the township administration would have time to demonstrate the correctness of his proposals and economical administration of municipal affairs would be the result.

TWO MINUTES NOT LONG.

But In That Time Nineteen Hundred Dollars Was Carried Away.

Ingersoll, Nov. 17.—Between $1,800 and $1,900 in notes, checks and money was taken from the residence of H. George, Dorchester Township, Wednesday night, about 13 o'clock.

The theft was one of the most daring. J. W. Johnston and H. George were engaged during the night adjusting matters in connection with an auction sale of stock, and, completing their work, left the room to go out the back door.

They left the notes, checks and money lying on a table. After an absence of two or three minutes they returned and were surprised to find that all the papers and money had disappeared.

The front door was unlocked at the time, and it is supposed that the thief or thieves must have been watching the men from the outside, and when they left the room entered and easily carried off the spoils.

CHEWERS AND BOLTERS

Professor Osler, the celebrated, divides humanity into two great classes, the Chewers and the Bolters, by which he means the people who masticate their food properly and those who swallow it as soon as it will go down. The fact that a man of the standing of Dr. Osler has seen fit to draw attention to a matter of this kind is significant. It is not improbable that the sum of human happiness depends on the development of a race of Chewers to a much larger extent than is at first apparent. A man's happiness depends in a large measure on his outlook on life. His outlook on life is determined to no slight extent by his physical condition, which, in turn, depends largely on his digestion. The recognized relationship between the proper mastication of food and good digestion completes the chain. Wherever you see a confirmed pessimist the chances are that he is a Bolter. It is this view of things that gives importance to Dr. Osler's saying, that it should be the great aim of dental practitioners to convert the enormous percentage of bolters into Chewers.

SIMPLE DISEASE SIMPLE REMEDY

Cockburn Island Lady tells how she Cured her Stomach Troubles by using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

How many people are simply "troubled with their stomachs." They hardly recognize their complaint under the pretentious title of Dyspepsia, but they do know beyond a doubt that they have hours of discomfort and that the stomach is the cause. To those the experience of Mrs. B. S. Remborough, Cockburn Island, Ont. She says:

"I was troubled terribly with my stomach. I got some of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and they did me good. I think they are a good Tablet, and I would recommend them to all who are troubled with their stomach."

Now that is a simple statement regarding a simple remedy for a simple trouble. It simply tells all who have stomach troubles that they can find relief in Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Went Over the Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 17.—Eric Anderson, a contractor and builder from Kane, Pa., committed suicide, if circumstantial evidence is to be credited, by going over the American Falls shortly before noon hour yesterday. A coat was found close to the river bank. Two letters were found in the pockets, both written in the Swedish language. Translated, one line gave the clue. It was: "My burial place will be the roaring Niagara," was easily deciphered. The unhappy man bid farewell to his brother and mother, and begged them not to mourn his loss. The letter was written to Andrew Anderson of Kane, Pa.

Old Trapper Returns From The Far North

William Miller Returned to His Home After 30 Years Absence—Was in Employ of Hudson's Bay Company at Mistessinee—Only White Man in Settlement—A Life of Varied Experiences—One Trip Out in 25 Years.

MILLER GOES BACK TO OLD ENGLAND

London, November 16. — No longer an explorer of the unknown Antarctic, but a prosaic sailing vessel in the service of the Hudson Bay Company, the famous Discovery has been berthed in the West India Dock, after her first voyage to the Arctic regions.

The Discovery brought home an interesting personage in William Miller, a man of nearly seventy years of age, who has spent half a century in the employment of the Hudson Bay Company, and returned home to live in retirement in his native Orcadian town of Stromness.

Miller has had charge for nearly thirty years of the post named Mistessinee, on Rupert's River. He was the only white man in the Indian settlement of forty or fifty souls, yet the life was thoroughly congenial, and only failing eyesight has compelled him to give it up. His life was that of the hardy pioneer of the wilds of unknown Canada. The nearest settlement was twelve days march, or three hundred miles distant.

In winter, journeys were accomplished on snowshoes, or by sledges, drawn by teams of Eskimo dogs. Black bears, reindeer and numerous other kinds of game, provided abundance of work for the rifle and food for the settlers. Miller made an annual journey down Rupert's River to Rupert's House, on the shores of Hudson Bay. The produce of this district was conveyed in a dozen large Indian canoes, manned by Indians, and on the return journey these were loaded up with stores for the coming winter.

With the exception of this brief interval, Miller rarely saw a white man from one end of the year to the other; and until this week when he arrived in London, he had not set foot upon the streets of a civilized town for nearly half a century, except for one visit to Montreal.

Under the command of Captain Gray, one of a well-known Peterhead family of whaling masters, the Discovery left the Thames on June 15, bound for the company's trading station on Charlton Island, at the extreme south end of James Bay, an arm of the great Hudson Bay. A fairly good passage was made across the Atlantic, but when one hundred miles from the entrance to to Hudson Strait, the vessel entered a vast field of ice floes.

The Discovery, though she is specially constructed for ice work, found the floes impenetrable. Captain Gray availed himself of every "lead" and rammed and butted with all the skill and daring he commands, but while the ship took no injury, she was firmly beset, and progress became almost impossible.

In this unfortunate position she remained for five weeks, when at last the movement of the floes permitted her escape.

INTERCOLONIAL IS AHEAD.

Result of Economies Required By the Minister of Railways.

Ottawa, Nov. 17.—Since September last Hon. Mr. Emmerson and his deputy, Mr. Butler, have been enforcing a policy of retrenchment, and the net result of the operations is a surplus of $24,659. For a month previous there was a deficit of $71,512, so that in gaining the surplus referred to there has been a betterment of nearly $100,000. For July the deficit was $30,963, and the average for three months was $25,938.

Months.	Working Expenses.	Earnings.
July	$ 665,572	$ 634,611
August.	746,361	674,748
September	661,612	685,291
Totals..	$2,073,447	$1,995,632

The satisfactory improvement for September, it will be noticed, has been brought about by a reduction of $84,649 in the working expenses and an increase of $11,995 in the earnings. The indications are that this improvement will be maintained, but it depends upon what kind of weather the coming winter has in store for the Intercolonial. The unprecedentedly cold weather of last winter was responsible for eating up nearly $500,000. It can be easily seen, therefore, that the best financial railway outlook may be marred by a series of heavy snowstorms.

Castro Causing Trouble.

Paris, Nov. 17.—The Foreign Office is advised that President Castro yesterday refused to pay the second instalment of the arbitration award. The judgment was in favor of France which was awarded about $650,000 and President Castro paid the first installment of the award three months ago. The second payment is not paid, apparently on the ground that diplomatic relations between France and Venezuela were interrupted.

Leaves All to Charity.

Cornwall, Nov. 17.—Rev. Dean Desaunbrac, who died on April 4, 1904, left $4,000 to the Hotel Dieu, Cornwall; $2,000 to St. Paul's Home for the Aged and Indigent; $300 to the congregation of the Church of the Nativity for the purpose of erecting a suitable memorial to the deceased. After the various bequests, the residue of his estate, upwards of $500, goes to the poor of the town of Cornwall and vicinity, irrespective of creed or nationality.

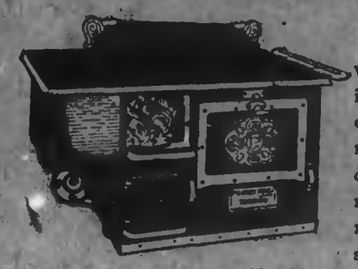
Oxford Chancellor Range



One of the troubles with most wood-burning ranges is the lack of hot water. The usual reservoir is of small capacity and not placed near enough the fire to raise the water to a sufficiently high temperature, and it takes considerable time and fuel to heat the water at all.

The Oxford Chancellor wood-burning range is fitted with a large reservoir of planished copper, which is easily kept clean. This reservoir is placed next the fire-box, and therefore the water heats very quickly and to a high temperature. The reservoir may be detached or attached to the range in five minutes by anyone.

Write us for booklets about the Oxford Chancellor Range, and the address of the nearest dealer who can show it to you. A post card will do.

Headaches

When the Head aches and the Tongue is Coated

it is Biliousness or Constipation. Torpid Liver is at the bottom of the trouble. And it takes Fruit-a-tives to make that lazy liver work.

Fresh fruit is fine for these troubles, but one can't eat enough fruit to do much good. The medicinal elements are in too small proportion in the ripe fruits.

A clever Ottawa physician discovered a method by which fruit juices could be combined so that their medicinal action would be increased many times.

Fruit-a-tives are these fruit juices in tablet form. They sweeten and tone the stomach and liver, cure Constipation and remove all blood impurities. One Fruit-a-tives tablet has the same curative effect on liver and bowels as dozens of oranges, apples, figs and prunes. And this action is as gentle as the fruit juices themselves.

"I have been suffering with Torpid Liver and Constipation, and find that Fruit-a-tives are just what my system requires to relieve these complaints. I hope many more sufferers will try them."

ONTARIO FRUIT GROWERS.

Report of Transportation Committee—Officers For 1905-6 Elected.

Toronto, Nov. 17.—The great lack of equipment and the difficulty experienced in getting refrigerator cars, which occasions great loss, was dealt with in the report of the transportation committee, submitted by Mr. Bunting of St. Catharines at the convention of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association yesterday afternoon. Some hope of relief was expressed. The report further took up the necessity of a reduction in rates on carriage of apples, the present charges being considered excessive. A material reduction was also required on the express rates on fruit and the committee recommended that this matter be brought before the railway commission.

It is recommended that an expert officer be appointed to take charge of the work of the Ontario fruit experiment stations and horticultural work of the province.

"What Shall We Buy From Britain?" the Question Thursday.

Toronto, Nov. 17.—It is not expected that the Tariff Commission will be through here before to-morrow. After their Sunday rest, the Tariff Commissioners begin again on Monday and Tuesday next in London. On Wednesday next sessions will be held in the afternoon and evening at Windsor. On the following day the commission proceed to Chatham, at the special request of the farmers of that district. Sessions will be held on Friday and Saturday, 24th and 25th insts., at Hamilton. Brantford will be visited on Monday, the 27th inst, Guelph the 28th, Berlin the 29th, and Peterboro the 30th. Thus the commissioners have the work cut out.

The British Trade.

Probably the most wholesale demand for tariff advantages so far presented at Toronto by any manufacturing interest came to the Tariff Commission yesterday from the jewelry manufacturers and gold and silver smiths. They requested an advance of 5 to 10 per cent. on their finished products, reaching sometimes 40 per cent., while, on the other hand, they asked that the duty be reduced or removed on several items of their raw materials.

The appeal brought from Hon. Mr. Fielding, the Chairman, a protest that if trade was to be encouraged with Britain, our largest customer, how was it to be done if the doors were to be gradually shut against her. Mr. M. C. Ellis, who was the witness at the moment, said he thought many articles now bought from the United States might be bought in Britain.

PATERSON AND AYLESWORTH.

Stouffville, Nov. 17.—Hon. Mr. Paterson, Minister of Customs, was the chief speaker at a meeting held in the Auditorium here last night in the interest of Hon. Mr. Aylesworth. In the course of his address he defended increased indemnity and clearly explained the motives actuating the introduction of the bill providing pensions for ex-Ministers. That Mr. Paterson's attitude on both points was satisfactory was evidenced by the frequent and hearty applause which greeted his remarks.

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth also made an able speech and was received with the warmth that has been a feature of all the meetings he has addressed since the campaign started. That North York will send him to Parliament to carry on the work of Postmaster-General is the only conclusion possible from the tone of the meetings and the success of his canvass. His opponent, Mr. A. McCallum, who was invited to be present at last night's gathering, did not appear.

SETTLED WITH THE INDIANS.

Indian Treaty No. 9 Signed By the Province of Ontario.

Toronto, Nov. 17—Hon. Frank Cochrane yesterday signed Indian Treaty No. 9 on behalf of the province, who acted in conjunction with the Dominion in effecting a settlement with the Indians north of the height of land, and east of the territory covered by Indian Treaty No. 3. The Dominion Government has been very anxious that an understanding with the Indians should be reached on account of the G. T. P. being projected through that part of the country. In order to appease the claims of the red man $5 per head will be paid during the first year, and $4 per head during succeeding years. Also a square mile of land for each family of five has been set apart as a reserve.

Treaty No. 3, which the new treaty borders, covers the stretch north of the height of land, north of Lake Superior, up to Rat Portage, and for some distance eastward.

The commission, composed of one member from the Ontario Government, and two for Dominion, explored the region and report fewer Indians than expected. Only 1,666 could be dealt with instead of the estimate of 3,000. The territory covered by the treaty comprises 90,000 square miles. The reserves are subject to the approval of the Ontario Government.

"It is quite probable they will be found satisfactory," remarked Hon. Col. Matheson yesterday.

The Province of Ontario will pay its share over to the Dominion, and the latter will bear all the expense of surveys, and the expenses of paying the Indians, which will be large.

BAD KIDNEYS

Can Only Be Cured Through The Blood.

Bad backs—aching backs—come from bad kidneys. Bad kidneys come from bad blood. Bad blood clogs the kidneys with poisonous impurities that breed deadly diseases. And the first sign of that fatal trouble is a dull, dragging pain in the back. Neglect it, and you will soon have the coated tongue, the pasty skin, the peevish temper, the swollen ankles, the dark-rimmed eyes, and all the other signs of deadly kidney disease. Plasters and liniments can never cure you. Kidney pills and backache pills only touch the symptoms—they do not cure. You must get right down to the root and cause of the trouble in the blood—and no medicine in the world can do this so surely as Dr. Williams Pink Pills, because they actually make new blood. This strong, rich, new blood sweeps the kidneys clean, drives out the poisonous acids, and heals the deadly inflammation. That is the only way to rid yourself of your backache and have strong, sound kidneys. Mrs. Paul St. Onge, wife of a well known contractor at St. Alexis des Monts, Que., says:—"I suffered for upwards of six years from kidney trouble. I had dull, aching pains across the loins, and at times could hardly go about. I lost flesh, had dark rims below my eyes, and grew more wretched every day. I was treated by different doctors, but with no apparent result. I despaired of regaining my health, and was becoming a burden to my family. I was in a deplorable condition when one of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking them, and after using three or four boxes, I began to feel better. I continued the treatment for nearly three months, when every symptom of the trouble had vanished and I was again a well woman. I feel justified in saying I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life."

New blood—strong, pure, rich blood which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make, cures not only kidney trouble but a host of other ailments, such as anaemia, indigestion, rheumatism, erysipelas, St. Vitus dance, locomotor ataxia, paralysis, and the secret ailments women do not like to talk about, even to their doctor. But only the genuine pills can bring health and strength, and these have the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" printed on the wrapper around each box. If your dealer does not keep the genuine pills you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PLUMBERS' PICKINGS.

$17,000 in Commissions on Members' Work in Nine Months.

Toronto, Nov. 17.—After two days and a half in the box W. H. Meredith, secretary of the Master Plumbers and Steamfitters' Association, was allowed to stand aside yesterday. His evidence dealt chiefly with the struggle between his association and the supply houses, which resulted in a new agreement quite recently, by which the latter are at liberty to sell to all master plumbers at an advance of 7 1-2 per cent., and Mr. Curry asserted that he would prove the increase was to be paid to the masters' association.

Witness detailed the negotiations between the committee of the association and a similar deputation from the local Plumbers' Union, No. 46, in Sept. last, and while he could not remember that the names of Reeves, Gray or Harrison were mentioned at the conference, he admitted that it was well known by all those present that these stated that Reeves had paid the initiation fee of his employes to the union on the understanding they were not to be called out.

A perusal of the accounts of the Master Plumbers' Association discloses the fact that for nine months, ending July 31st last, the toll levied by the association upon work done by its members amounted to upwards of $17,000.

TRAMS AND TRAINS.

The Financial Side of the Railways of the United Kingdom of England and Scotland.

A report recently issued by the British Board of Trade on the working of the railways of the United Kingdom shows that the total gross receipts amounted in 1904 to £111,833,000, including eight millions received from hotels, steamboats, canals, and other sources. The total working expenditure reached £69,173,000; the net receipts, therefore, amounting to £42,660,000, as against £42,327,000 in the previous year.

The proportion of net earnings to capital was very slightly less than in 1903, namely 3.36 per cent., as compared with 3.40 per cent., but average rates of dividends paid on different classes of capital were practically the same as in the previous year, with the exception of the average rate of interest on loans, which fell from 4.46 in 1903 to 4.11 in 1904.

The proportion of net earnings to capital during the past 20 years showed a general tendency to decline, but this was partially accounted for by nominal additions to capital. The total length of running track of the railways in the kingdom was 37,900 miles, with 13,700 miles of sidings. The increase in the number of third-class passengers was rather greater in 1904 than in the previous year, but it was still small as compared with annual increases shown by returns for years previous to 1902.

That this falling off in the rate of interest is due in a great measure to the increasing competition of tramways may be deduced from the following comparative statement of passengers by third-class rail and by tram:

Year.	Railway.	Tramway.
1900	1,633,873,000 ..	1,065,374,000
1901	1,645,919,999 ..	1,198,227,000
1902	1,630,625,000 ..	1,264,453,000
1903	1,686,205,000 ..	1,651,949,000
1904	1,692,549,000 ..	1,799,343,000

It will be seen that the number of tramway passengers carried in 1900 was greater than the number of third-class railway passengers carried in that year, and that the increases in subsequent years have been proportionately much greater in the case of the tramway passengers than in the case of the railway passengers.

The increase in tramway passengers in the year ending June 30, 1903, is somewhat abnormal, owing to the inclusion, for the first time, in the returns for that year of particulars relating to public road lines authorized under the Light Railways Act, 1896.

There was a further considerable increase, following on those of previous years, in the receipts from third-class season tickets, the increases in this class of receipts having been in 1902, £79,000; in 1903, £128,000; and in 1904, £171,000. First-class showed an increase last year of £19,000, and second-class a decrease of £54,000.

Not many years ago third-class season ticket holders were unknown. They now, for the first time on record, produce more income than the first-class, the amount in each case being: First, £1,497,000; third, £1,513,000. The second-class last year contributed £1,038,000 to the coffers of the companies, and are a decreasing source of revenue.

The millions of tons of goods carried over the railways last year were 448.9, an increase of 6.2 on the previous year. The increase was mainly in "minerals," which accounted for 349.6 millions of tons. The efforts to reduce goods train mileage resulted in a decrease of 4,500,000 miles, following a decrease of 10,000,000 in 1903. This result has been achieved in the face of the increased tonnage of goods carried, amounting to 6,000,000 tons. The passenger train mileage increased by 7,600,000 miles.

On the Mantel-Piece.

The etymology of "mantel-piece" has often puzzled philologists. Col. Maceroni, on this subject wrote in his "Memoirs" (1838) that "around the spacious cupola over the French and Italian fire-places is a ledge, to which are affixed pegs on which the postilions hang their wet clothes to dry; we call the shelf over our fire-places mantle-pieces, or mantle-shelves, but we no longer hang our mantles upon them to dry." And later, Prebendary Jackson describing certain old Yorkshire houses says: "Heavy beams of wood crossed the chimney, in which were suspended hams in process of curing, and shepherds and travelers hung their rain and sleet-soaked coats and mantles to dry within the chimney. Hence the shelf over the fire-place is still called the mantel-piece." Many etymologists, however, demur at this derivation, and insist that the mantel-piece is so called because it mantles, or screens, the juncture of the wall and the fire-place.

"Ah, no! Do not let that hurt you for an instant. My hurt is because I know it hurts you to feel that I have hurt myself by hurting you."

"No, my precious. My hurt is because you are hurt over feeling that I am hurt because you feel that you have hurt me and are therefore hurt yourself and"—

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—The Railway Commission has issued an order dealing with tolls and charges for carriage of beans. The effect of the order is to cause a reduction in rates on beans. At one time beans were carried by the railways at the same rates as grain. The new rates on beans were substituted, which were considerably higher than the grain tolls. The present reduction will not, however, be down to the same basis as the grain rates, as the latter are much below what they were at the time beans and grain took the same charges.

Hon. C. S. Hyman states that new regulations to secure better attendance from members will be adopted at the next session of Parliament. The crew of the Earnford were saved.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

A LONG SUFFERING INDIVIDUAL.

The man who calls trains in the grand union station
Must answer a question or two.
His tongue very seldom can go on vacation,
At least, till his day's work is through.
What time does the train
Get in from Champlain?
Which one do we take
To get to the lake?
Is the "Cannon Ball" late?
Which one is its gate?
Oh, say, do you think
I'll have time for a drink?
And when do we start
For Wellington Mart?
Well, if you don't know,
Why can't you say so?
'Tis these are the questions that pile up vexation
For the man who calls trains in the grand union station.

The man who calls trains must be patient and willing
To all kinds of folks to reply,
Though some of the questioners seem to need killing
And some on good manners are shy.
May, does my rebate
Expire if I'm late?
Does that train come back
That ran down the track?
I'd like to know why
It's ten cents for pie.
Has that train went yet
That runs to Willimette?
Please, when are we due
In Kalamazoo?
Pray, where can I check
My trunk for Quebec?
'Tis questions like these that they fire in rotation
At the man who calls trains in the grand union station.

Easy.

"What's the matter with your thumb, Tommy?"

"Aw, it's jes' been Fourth of Julyed."

Time at a Discount.

"Time may be money, but it isn't very much."

"That depends on people."

"No, it doesn't. It is true of any one who tries to raise money by hocking his watch with his esteemed uncle."

Chilly.

Oh, what a lovely fall we'll have,
If we have one at all!
That is to say, if we live through
The weather that is now in view.
The fall will need be warm and clear
To halfway average up the year.

Allowable.

"No gentleman will strike a woman."

"Dat's right, pardner, unless he strikes her for a meal or sompin like dat."

The Simple Life.

Man wants but little here below.
He may be happy minus pelf.
A mug, a pipe, a chunk of pie;
He'll tell the world to chase itself.

Much Easier.

"He made a killing at the race track today."

"Real money?"

"Oh, no; just mosquitoes."

Just His Infirmity.

"Was the deaf and dumb beggar angry when you refused to give him a coin?"

"I should say so. He was so mad he couldn't speak."

Patriotic.

"What makes you boys so noisy?"

"Aw, say, don't yer know that this is the month that Fourth of July comes in, an' we ain't done hollerin' yet?"

Wife-Beating in England.

Henry Labouchere has been discussing the matter of wife-beating in the London press. He says that a strap is preferable to either the hand or the poker, as, while it causes much pain and has therefore good corrective qualities, it leaves little mark and is never likely to lead to trouble with the coroner's jury. The whole moral effect of the correction is lost, says he, if the police are called in. "Magistrates," he concludes, "to do them justice, are nearly always kindly and sympathetic to husbands who do their work with a reasonable amount of tact and discretion. They are not too particular about a black eye or a little blood or an occasional broken rib."

Life Would Have More Happiness

If The Liver Were Kept Active By the Use Of

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Most people realize that, if they could only avoid the suffering of indigestion and keep the bowels regular and active life would have for them much more of comfort and happiness.

We believe that these results are best accomplished by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and let us tell you why.

It is the liver, which, by filtering bile from the blood and passing it into the intestines, ensures good digestion, and the natural, healthful action of the bowels. Keep the liver active, and you are sure of the proper working of the digestive and excretory systems.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have a direct and specific action on the liver. By invigorating this great filtering organ they guarantee the collection of bile from the blood, where it is poison, and the passing of it to the intestines, where it is necessary for digestion and a proper action of the bowels.

It is not as a mere relief from indigestion and constipation that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are recommended, but as a thorough and lasting cure. Put them to the test. The dose is one pill at bed time, as often as is necessary to keep the bowels regular.

Mr. J. Edwards, of Colborne, Ont., and who is employed by the Kennedy and Davis Milling Company, Madway, Ont., states:—"I have been taking Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for some time, and can positively say that they are the best medicine I ever used. I was troubled very very much with my kidneys and had dreadful pains in my back, which were increased by leaning over.

"I can testify to the exceptional merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills because they have cured me, and shall gladly recommend them to anyone enquiring about them."

THE HEROES OF 1812.

United Empire Loyalist Association Asks For Monumental Recognition of Macdonell and Tecumseh.

To the Ontario Government the United Empire Loyalist Association commends the patriotic duty of rendering provincial honors to the memory of Macdonell and of Tecumseh, heroes of the War of 1812. In resolutions adopted on the 93rd anniversary of the Battle of Queenston Heights, the association rehearses from the public chronicles the services of these two defenders of Upper Canada, and calls upon the Government to raise fitting monuments to them. It is a reproach to the province that after the lapse of almost a century it has to be reminded that this office of gratitude has yet to be performed. Inscriptions in brass or marble are not required to make the fame of the young Attorney-General of Upper Canada or the great Shawnee chief enduring. The names of both are fixed imperishably in our history. But the more that great men and great deeds impress themselves upon the country's annals, the more binding is the obligation upon the state to show suitable tokens that it holds them in honored remembrance. To do so is agreeable both to the sentiment of patriotism and to the dictates of sound policy. Rear memorials to the men who fell fighting for their country, and the youth of the land will be more likely to emulate their virtue.

Lieut.-Col. Macdonell.

Lieut.-Col. Macdonell was of the famous Glengarry family of his name, which has given so many of its members to the service of the country. Though only 25 years of age when the war broke out, he was then Attorney-General of Upper Canada, holding his seat in the House as member for Glengarry. He was selected by Brock as provincial aide-de-camp. Before going into the action in which he lost his life at Queenston Heights Lieut.-Col. Macdonell, made his will in favor of his god-child. Mr. John A. Macdonell, of Alexandria, has the gold medal sent by King George III. to commemorate the capture of Detroit. It was by Lieut.-Col. Macdonell and Capt. Clegg that Brock's demand for the surrender of Detroit was borne to Gen. Hull. Hull refused to see the officers, but after the attack was begun he sent a flag of truce and an offer to yield. Macdonell and Clegg went back to Fort Detroit with Hull's messenger, and there Macdonell drew up the articles of capitulation.

Queenston Heights.

Richardson who himself fought in the war and is its historian, renders one tribute to the gallantry of Macdonell. Gen. Robinson's recently-issued "Life of Sir John Beverley Robinson" contains an account of the engagement at Queenston Heights, which Sir John who took part in that fight, himself wrote. It contains this passage:

"Lieut.-Col. Macdonell was mounted and animating his men to charge. • • • The enemy were just in front, covered by bushes and logs. They were in no kind of order, and were three or four hundred in number. They perceived us forming, and at about thirty yards distance fired. Lieut.-Col. Macdonell, who was on the left of our party, calling upon us to advance, received a shot in his body and fell. His horse was at the same instant killed. Capt. Williams, who was at the other extremity of our little band, fell the next moment, apparently dead. The remainder of our men advanced a few paces, discharged their pieces, and then retired down the mountain. Lieut. McLean was wounded in the thigh. Capt. Cameron, in his attempt to save Col. Macdonell, was exposed to a shower of musketry, but most miraculously escaped. He succeeded in carrying off his friend."

Tecumseh.

Of Tecumseh's exploits against the troops of the United States, of his assistance to Proctor at Detroit, of his differences with that general, and of his death at Moraviantown, it is unnecessary to remind readers of Canadian history. He was the greatest of the red men who ever came in contact with the white race. Loyalty to his people and his statesmanlike scheme for uniting and preserving them and securing a territorial independence for them brought him into collision with the United States, and finally into alliance with King George. Richardson has this to say of him:

"Ever merciful and magnanimous as he was ardent and courageous, the voice of the supplicant seldom reached him in vain; and although war was his idol, the element in which he lived, his heart was formed to glow with all the nobler and more generous impulses of the warrior; nor was his high character less esteemed by ourselves than reverenced by the various tribes over which, in his quality of brother to the Prophet, he invariably presided. In any other country and governing any other men, Tecumseh would have been a hero; at the head of this uncivilised and untractable people he was a savage: but such a savage as civilisation might not blush to acknowledge for his child."

In Osgoode Hall, Toronto, there is a brass tablet to the memory of Lieut.-Col. Macdonell. Brass tablets would scarcely be adequate memorials to such men by a province like Ontario. Something more conspicuous that will attract the notice of all who resort to the historic scenes on which Macdonell and Tecumseh acted is required.

DEATH OF WM. McCLEARY, EX-M.P.

Sudden Collapse While Apparently Improving After Operations.

Thorold, Nov. 16.—Wm. McCleary, a life-long and highly esteemed citizen of Thorold, ex-M.P. for Welland, passed away at the St. Catharines Hospital yesterday morning. Mr. McCleary underwent an operation at Toronto a few weeks ago and a second one at St. Catharines. He apparently was doing well and his friends hoped for his early recovery, but the trouble went to his lungs causing a sudden collapse. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family. Mr. McCleary was a public-spirited citizen and his death will be deeply regretted by the citizens of his native town and the county generally.

An Ancient Belief.

The still prevalent notion that when a person has a pimple on his tongue it is evidence (or a "sign") that he has been guilty of a falsehood is referred to in documents written considerably over two thousand years ago. The ancients attributed the tiny, but annoying, protuberance to an infliction by the gods to indicate their displeasure at a mortal's untruthfulness.

BY ROYAL WARRANT, MILLERS TO H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES

What Flour Granulation Means in Bread-Making

To make good bread these granules must be uniform in size.

The small ones absorb yeast, "rise" and "ripen" before the large ones—the result is bread of coarse, poor texture.

The large granules are not developed into "sponge," they bake into heavy hard particles, spoil the texture of the bread and make it harder to digest.

ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR is perfectly milled—all the flour granules are uniform in size—the sponge rises uniformly—the bread is even in texture — perfect in flavor — good-looking, appetising bread — easily digested.

Militia Orders From Ottawa

The Boundaries of No. 3 Military District Are Defined.

Yesterday another batch of militia orders were issued at Ottawa, and one division of the military districts is given. That affecting the local regiment is:

Removal of Officers.

Commanding officers are required to call upon all divisional officers who have not qualified in accordance with paragraph 4, King's Regulations and Orders for the Militia, 1904, to state their reasons why their names should not be removed from the list of officers of the active militia. No recommendations for the removal of an officer from the militia will be accepted unless it is shown that he had been notified of the proposed action, and has been called upon to show why the removal should not take place. The notifications must be either delivered to the officer in person, or else mailed to his last known address. The officer's written reply must accompany the recommendation for his removal. If he fails to reply, a copy of the notification and a statement showing the time of its delivery or mailing must be attached to the recommendation.

Burglars At Hall's Glen

According to recent reports the little village of Hall's Glen has again been visited by burglars. It appears they broke into Mr. D. Little's residence during the night, getting access through the cellar, and, after ransacking the house for some time in search of the safe, which contained some valuable papers, notes, checks, documents, etc., were obliged to depart disappointed. Before leaving they helped themselves to what they could get in the fruit jars. The Hallow E'en thieves made their unwelcome visit a little earlier than usual, and it is evident that they are not yet weaned from the bottle. It is suggested that a night watch be appointed and a reformatory (for big boys) built for the good of these fellows. A detective who is employed at present has got a clue to the act and some of the guilty parties are already suspected.—Lakefield News.

The Young People Were Entertained

A large number of the young people of the Parkinson Street Baptist church were entertained Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Smith at their farm, "The Elms," Monaghan. The evening was spent very pleasantly in innocent games, and ample justice was done to the sumptuous spread after the long drive.—Com.

ANGEL CHILDREN.

Is there any happier woman in this world than that mother whose each successive little one seems to her but one more darling angel to continually lift her thoughts toward the sunshine of perfect happiness? But sorry is the lot of that poor mother to whom motherhood has ceased to be a cause of rejoicing, but has become instead a burden to be dreaded and looked forward to with melancholy and apprehension.

"About three months before our last baby was born (which is our fourth), writes Mrs. Nellie Carl, of Myrtlepoint, Coos Co., Oregon, "my health was very poor. I had been troubled for about eight years with female disease. I doctored with good physicians but obtained no relief, so I wrote to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, and was advised to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so, and am happy to say my health began to improve and I did my work up to the last, and felt splendid.

"I got along finely during confinement, and have the healthiest baby I ever saw. When he was three months old he weighed eighteen pounds; he is now seven months old and weighs twenty-four pounds. I can say I have had no return of my old troubles. I thank you very much for the good you have done me."

Any woman may write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., a statement of her case, which will be considered in absolute confidence by this physician who stands among the foremost specialists of the century in the treatment of women's diseases. He will send her (in a plain, sealed envelope) sound, sensible, valuable advice free of all charge.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page, illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps.

A New Indian Treaty Signed

90,000 Square Miles Reserved in Northern Ontario.

An Indian treaty, designated as No. 9, has been signed by Hon. Frank Cochrane, Ontario Minister of Mines and Lands, with the Dominion Government. It deals with 90,000 square miles of land, lying north of the height of land and east of the land specified by treaty No. 3, which itself lies north of the Lake Superior region.

By the terms of the treaty, the Indians in the territory specified receive $5 per head the first year and afterwards $4 yearly. Each family of five gets a reserve of one square mile. The commissioners, two appointed by the Dominion Government and one appointed by the Province, journeyed through this territory, beginning at Demorwig, on the C.P.R., north to the Albany River, thence east to Fort Albany, Moose Factory and Lake Abitibbi. They found far fewer Indians than they anticipated, and were able to reserve only 106 square miles, which provides for 1,666 Indians.

The Province pays the per capita grants, while the Dominion pays the expenses of the commissioners survey, also the cost of delivery of the money, which is a heavy item.

NO DOUBT ABOUT ROBT. BOND'S CASE

He was Cured of Bright's Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills

Doctors Said there was no hope for him but he is a Well Man Now.

Mount Brydges, Ont., Nov. 17.—(Special)—That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Bright's Disease completely and permanently has been clearly shown in the case of Mr. Robt. Bond, a well-known resident of this place. Mr. Bond does not hesitate to say he owes his life to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"My attending physician," Mr. Bond states, "said I was in the last stages of Bright's Disease, and that there was no hope for me. I then commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and no other remedy. I used in all about twenty boxes, when my doctor pronounced me quite well. I have had no return of the trouble since."

The Burden Of Billigerency

The German Government is finding the burden of the struggle for what is considered the necessary, or desirable, degree of sea-power, increasingly heavy; and it would now appear that Germany is being left behind altogether, in spite of the efforts made, and the burdens unwillingly borne by the German people. The great increase in the size of the individual battleships gives the German Government the very awkward option of either undertaking the enormous expense of very considerably deepening and widening their strategic canals, or being content with battleships so inferior in power to their possible opponents, that it would be madness to send them into action. In the matter of cruisers, too, the times have changed and left the German fleet stranded. The Naval Act of 1900 provided for thirty-eight small cruisers. These are now completed and the vessels range from 1580 tons to 5650 tons. Under the new conditions of naval warfare this large and expensive fleet would be almost useless. They are just such ships as are being altogether discarded by the British Admiralty, and only placed on the emergency list as vessels of comparatively small fighting value. With the new programmes it will be seen that Germany is following the British lead and will in future build nothing but armoured cruisers. Even here, Germany is again hopelessly behind, having, so far, been content with ships of 9500 tons, while England is constructing cruiser-battleships of over 15,000 tons displacement. Upon this basis, the fight for supremacy becomes more and more a question of money, for the new British cruisers run into more than a million and a quarter apiece — considerably more than the German battleships cost when that power entered the running, while German building, ton for ton, is a good percentage dearer than the cost in Great Britain. Even were all these difficulties overcome the new policy of extremely rapid building adopted by the British Admiralty, if adhered to, will put that country in the position of having the very latest designs, armaments and improvements in the line, against the enemy's vessels of two or three years' earlier design — a very great advantage, when things are moving at the present rapid pace.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

BABY CAME NEAR DYING

From an Awful Skin Humour—Scratched Till Blood Ran—Wasted to Skeleton—Hands Like Claws—Cuticura Brings Blessed Relief and Speedy Cure.

"WOULD HAVE DIED BUT FOR CUTICURA"

"When my little boy was three months old his head broke out with a rash, which was very itchy and ran considerable watery fluid. We tried everything we could, but he got worse all the time till it spread to his arms, legs, and then to his entire body, and he came near dying. It itched so he would scratch till the blood ran, and a thin yellowish stuff would be all over his pillow in the morning. I had to put mittens on his hands to keep him from tearing his skin. He got so weak he took fainting spells, and we would think him dying. He was almost a skeleton and his little hands were thin like claws.

"He was bad about eight months when we tried Cuticura. I had not laid him down in his cradle in the daytime for a long time. He had got so that he just slept in our arms all the time.

"I washed him with Cuticura Soap and put on one application of Cuticura Ointment and he was so soothed that I put him in the cradle. You don't know how glad I was when he felt better. It took one box of Cuticura Ointment, one cake of Cuticura Soap, and about half a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, to cure. I think he would have died only for the Cuticura. —Mrs. M. C. Maitland, Jasper, Ont."

No return in 14 years: Mrs. Maitland writes, under date of Feb. 24, 1903: "It affords me pleasure to say that it is fourteen years since my boy was cured of the terrible skin disease. He has been permanently cured and is hearty and strong."

The Unfortunate Trio

toring birds awakened them to light and life, recalling them from happy dreams of home and friends to an aching sense of loneliness and desolation.

They arose from their leafy beds full of youthful hope and in entire trustfulness in His mercy, into whose hands they had commended their souls and bodies before they retired to rest.

But now what were they to breakfast on? True, they had the little basket which was well filled with berries, but their keen appetites demanded something more substantial.

Louis went out into the woods and soon returned with a dozen partridge eggs and two partridges. Now the question arose, how are we to cook them?

Alfred quickly recollected his father describing the way in which they used to start fires before matches were in use, by gathering some flint and a handful of dry sedge, and by the use of his knife, a fire was soon kindled and the eggs and fowl cooked.

Lucile selected a shady recess where a pure spring of cold, delicious water welled out from beneath the twisted roots of a hoary birked oak, and here their little spread was laid, which consisted of fowl, eggs, berries and the crystal water, and the children thought they had never relished any meal so well.

But let us return to that little log hut which we have seen them leave that morning, and we shall meet their mother with a careworn look and glistening anxious eyes, surveying the distant landscape and calling plaintively for her children, while her husband, accompanied by Alfred's father, is eagerly following every track which they think the children might have taken through the forest.

How often did they raise their voices in hopes that the loud hallooing might reach the hearing of their lost ones?

How often did they check their hurrying steps to listen for some replying call? But naught save the echoes of their own voices or the sighing of the breeze met their anxious ears.

But the children were far out of reach of their voices, and were pursuing their course directly opposite to the way by which they could return home.

They travelled on until they reached a little brook which went babbling on its course. Lucile, being worn out by the long walk, suggested resting here on the bank, while the boys lighted a fire and pick took of a scanty meal which was composed of the different fruits which they had collected on their journey, and the remains from breakfast.

In this uneventful manner several weeks had flown past, and one morning as these three were conversing as to how they should build their winter home, there came stealing up through the woods a faint sound of distant music, which rose and fell with the winds, and whose soft, prolonged notes were solemn and beautiful.

The birds hushed their songs for an instant, then, as if pleased with the melody, broke forth in louder strains and flew as if in ecstacy from bough to bough.

Louis stole to the brow of the hill and, perched high up in a tree, surveyed the surrounding country in the direction from whence proceeded the music.

There, on the left bank of the Otonabee, was an encampment of Indians, but, being veiled in the long branches, he was completely hidden from their view; after having watched their movements for perhaps half an hour he stealthily returned to the hut and related what he had seen.

After about two weeks the encampment was broken up, and on the following morning Louis informed his friends of his intention to go down to the Otonabee to survey the ground which the Indians had vacated.

After many useless remonstrances by Lucile and Alfred, he set out, promising to be back by sunset.

Sunset came, yet no Louis appeared, so Lucile and Alfred mounted the brow of the hill to survey the surrounding country, and see if they could see their returning companion.

As they stood on this high summit, the lake calmly reposing at the foot of the hill, with the long golden rays of the setting sun playing on its bosom, the high hills which communed with the heavens, with fertile valleys intervening, aptly might the following lines of Irving describe it:

"Het mighty lakes, like oceans of liquid silver, her mountains with their bright aerial tents, her valleys, teeming with wild fertility; her tremendous cataracts, waving with spontaneous verdure; her broad, deep rivers, rolling in solemn silence to the ocean; her trackless forests, where vegetation puts forth all its magnificence; her skies kindling with the magic of summer clouds, and glorious sunshine. No, never did a Canadian look beyond his own country for the sublime and beautiful of natural scenery."

The birds had long retired to their nests, and as they waited for the first gleam of the rising moon, a painful and oppressive sense of loneliness and desolation came over their minds as they sat together at the foot of the old pine which cast its lengthened shadows upon the ground.

They talked of the days of their happy childhood, the perplexing present and the uncertainty of the future.

At last Lucile, worn out by watching, fell into a deep sleep, while Alfred, walking up and down, strained his ear to catch the first sound of the approach of his cousin. Alfred envied the condition of the unconscious sleeper, who lay in happy forgetfulness of all her sorrow, so seating himself beside her, he, too, was soon lost in pleasant dreams.

Nor, did they awake until the sun was well in the heavens, the birds joyfully singing their sweet notes while butterflies and humming birds flitted about, with the sun glancing on their wings, on their way to cheat the many flowers of their sweets.

They returned to the hut, and broke their fast on some dried venison, and fruits, which they had collected. While they were thus employed they heard the whistle of Louis, and they hurried to meet him. But what was their surprise, when, they found that he was not alone, but accompanied by a young Indian girl, about the same age as Lucile; her hands were bleeding and on her head was a deep cut, as if inflicted with a knife.

Louis had found her bound by her long raven hair to a tree, her hands and feet were fettered, and then bound to a stake; thus those cruel savages had left this poor girl to perish, or perhaps become the prey of some wild animal which inhabited the woods.

Under Lucile's gentle hand, Indiana—as they named the little heathen—grew better, and she and Lucile, became as sisters, she teaching Lucile much useful knowledge, which served to make their forest life less severe, but her one source of delight was in twining Lucile's sunny locks with her own, which were as dark as night, making a strange contrast.

When she had sufficiently advanced in English she told the children that she was of the tribe of Ojibwas, who inhabited the northern shores of Rice Lake, while the Mohawks, their deadly enemies, claimed the southern shores. She had been captured by the Mohawks, and left in the position in which she was found, to die.

The rice was now fit to pick on the lake and as rice season and duck shooting are closely associated, Indiana advised getting their supply of fowl and rice for the winter. This being done, they moved their few belongings to Sugar Island, and here built an ample-sized hut, which Indiana designed.

The greater part of the winter had flown past, Lucile teaching Indiana the English language, weaning her from her heathen practices to the Christian, and teaching her to adore and offer up her prayers to the same God which she adored.

At last the season of flowers arrived, and June, with its fragrant store of roses and lilies, was now far advanced, the anniversary of that time, when they had left their beloved parents' roofs.

One day while the boys were out hunting, and Indiana had gone down to the shore to fish, as Lucile sat on the doorstep, an unaccountable fear took hold of her, a fear which told her some one's eyes were on her, although she had heard no approaching step. So looking around she assured herself that it was only a fancy, and again resumed her position. What then must have been her surprise, when the next moment, on lifting her eyes, they encountered the black, fiendish eyes of an Indian.

He approached, and taking a firm grip of her arm, led her to the shore; here was a boat, the occupants of which were an elderly Indian woman, and a young Indian girl.

Soon the boat was flying over the waters, and as Lucile beheld the island, where all her loved ones were, become as a speck on the water, and as she thought of the feelings of those loved ones, when they would return, and find her gone—as these thoughts chased each other through her mind, she raised her eyes, streaming with tears, to the faces of those Indians. Yet no softening look o'er spread their countenances, and no eye gave back a look of pity.

At last the boat was moored, and here was a collection of Indian wigwams. Lucile was taken inside. There she met the inquiring look of several Indian men, while she shrank, with maidenly modesty, from their rude gaze.

It was now some three months since Lucile had been carried off; as the boys were sitting on the bank of the Otonabee they saw a canoe approaching. It proved to be an old fisherman and they related their troubles to him, telling of the capture of Lucile; as he was on good terms with the Indians, he said that he was sure he could with very little difficulty, secure her release.

So he started up the Otonabee and soon reached the encampment. He was greeted very cordially by the chief, and, after much discussion in the Indian tongue, Lucile was permitted to return home.

In a few moments the little skiff was launched in the waters, on the homeward voyage. The air was soft and mild, a soft, blue haze hung on the bosom of the glassy waters, which reflected on its waveless surface every passing shadow; now and again, the stillness of the air was relieved by soft, sighing wind, which rustled the leaves of the forest, but now they have reached the little hut, and, dear reader, I will leave you to picture the meeting of that brother and sister—with what words of welcome and love was she greeted. It was late before they thought of rest, but, at last, Lucile and Indiana retired to their apartments, and were soon fast asleep. The dark cheek of the Indian girl pillowed on the arm of her fairer companion, her thick tresses of raven hair mingled with the silken ringlets of the white maiden. They certainly presented a lovely picture, one, fair as morning, the other, dark as night.

On the following morning they commenced their journey homeward. It is now the hour o fsunset, and as they come in sight of that dear old home, their hearts bound with joy home, their hearts bound with joy.

But who is that care-worn figure that appears in the doorway, whose jet-black hair has been replaced by silver threads? It is the heart broken mother of Lucile and Louis.

And who is that manly form, with the premature furrows on his broad, sun-burnt brow, that also speak of inward care? It is the father of Lucile and Louis.

But they start, as they hear the quick step of the approaching children, and with tears of joy they are enfolded in the arms of their loving parents.

Many were the questions that were asked them, and many were the interesting incidents they related while the family were seated around the blazing hearth, nor did they think or retiring until the old clock on the mantel proclaimed the "wee sma' hours of the night;" and now, dear reader, we will leave them, safe in the home of their parents, and surrounded by all that earth holds dear to them.

Peterboro's Drinking Water.

The recent test of the water supply in the Town of Peterborough makes it advisable that all water for drinking purposes should be boiled. To make assurance doubly sure it would be better to use for drinking some of the good mineral waters, such as the Sanitaria Water, bottled in Arnprior, for which A. Rountree is agent.

To further the education of the natives of Central Africa, a scheme has been drawn up by the missionary bodies, embracing such subjects as reading, writing, English history and a technical training which will enable the Central African black to qualify for such trades as carpenter, printer and stonecutter.

Feeling That The City Council Should Act

The letter of "Sentry," published in yesterday's Examiner, in reference to the question of the city taking some steps to induce the Government to co-operate with the city, in constructing a system of docks along the bank of the river, south of the Hunter street bridge, has aroused considerable interest in the city, and a number of citizens have expressed themselves as being decidedly in favour of the proposal made in the letter.

One of those who referred to it, said that he was strongly of the opinion that the city council should at once take steps to have the suggestion carried into effect. His idea was that sheet piling could be placed along the bank of the river and that it could be filled in with the dredgings, and later the permanent crib-work could be placed.

The Mayor, however, does not feel that it is the duty of the council to take the matter up, but believes that it might be advisable to take some steps to erect a dock at the foot of King street, where there is an easy approach to the water's edge.

Bancroft Minerals Are Attracting Attention

The mineral wealth of the Bancroft region is attracting attention, not only in this country, but it has spread to the United States financial circles as well. Mr. T. H. Crowley, who recently made some rather startling discoveries there, was in the city last night, and he had just returned from New York, where he had been to interest some of the Wall street capitalists in the minerals of that district. He was very optimistic over the prospects, and brought back with him an agreement to purchase an option on some mining claims, comprising 1140 acres. The purchase price of these claims is $40,000, and Mr. Crowley states that the capitalist who agreed to take this option, further agreed to buy all the mineral which he could discover. A clause in the agreement also provides for the advance of a liberal sum to promote development work on this property.

This capitalist, whose name Mr. Crowley does not care to announce at the present time, will come with a mining expert to make a tour of the district mentioned, and to investigate the claims, with a view of ascertaining the value of the property, on which they have agreed to take the option.

Gun Discharged and Shot Entered the Hunter's Arm

Mr. Wm. Westall, of Cavan, Was Seriously Injured on Saturday—Shot Gun Accidentally Discharged and Entered His Right Shoulder—May Lose the Arm—Injured Man in Hospital—How the Accident Occurred.

GUN WAS LYING IN THE BUGGY

On Saturday afternoon Mr. Wm. Westall, of Cavan, a farmer living near Cavanville, met with a very narrow escape from death. As it is, he owes his life to the merest chance. He was out in the woods near his home Saturday afternoon, and on his way home he was overtaken by a neighbour, who was driving, and who invited Mr. Westall to ride with him. He got into the buggy, placing his shot gun butt first into the back of the buggy on the floor. When they reached the place where Mr. Westall got out, the driver stopped and the farmer took his gun by the barrel to remove it from the buggy, but just as he was taking it out the horse gave a sudden jump, and the hammer caught, discharging the contents of the gun into Mr. Westall's right shoulder.

The upper part of the bone of his arm for three or four inches was almost totally destroyed. Dr. Turner, of Millbrook, was sent for, and the injured man was brought to this city and taken to the Nicholls Hospital, where his injuries were attended to. The physician hopes to save the arm, but the injury inflicted is very serious, and it will be some days before the danger of losing the arm will be passed.

Kings' Daughters Require Funds

There is said to be considerable suffering in the city at the present time from poverty, and the work of the King's Daughters is, as a result, being made extra heavy. A number of calls upon the resources of that excellent organization are being made, and, unfortunately, it is being found that the funds at its disposal will not be sufficient to meet all the calls which are being made.

Yesterday in St. John's church the matter was referred to, and it was pointed out that any contributions of clothing or money would be very acceptable.

Opportune Presentation Of Clothing

Bridgenorth Missionary Society Makes Highly Appreciated Donation to Children's Aid Society—Large Assortment of New Clothing—The Society Contines Its Efforts to Local Work—The Society is Out of Funds.

THE GIFT WAS MUCH APPRECIATED

The Missionary Society, of the Bridgenorth Methodist church, is not given to looking far a-field for a worthy cause towards which to direct their efforts, neither do they indulge in the ostentation, or house-top proclamations in regard to their "efforts," which are observable in many organisations seeking to fasten white collars and "bil'd" shirts upon the natives of Zanzibar, or other non-laundry countries. But even though "circumlocution office" methods are not applied in the prosecution of the work, the net results can scarcely be regarded as less satisfactory.

The Children's Aid Society were this morning the recipients of a large and varied assortment of children's clothing from the organization mentioned, and which, coming at such an opportune time, will be of greater service than ordinarily would be the case. As has been repeatedly pointed out in the columns of the Examiner, the society is inadequately financial circumstances, the funds being now entirely exhausted. The number of cases of destitution now in prospect is greater than at any previous period in the history of the Society. The clothing donation, which is, needless to say, highly appreciated by the officials of the society, was sent in this morning by Mrs. W. B. Kelly of Bridgenorth, president of the society. They are all new garments and will be of great service to the inmates of the institution.

Charming Wedding Was Solemnized

Nuptials of Miss Katharine Bolin and Mr. John J. Doherty.

Amid the sunshine which proverbially smiles upon the happy bride, a quiet though charming wedding was solemnized this morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, when Miss Katherine Bolin, of this city, and Mr. John J. Doherty, of Asphodel, plighted their troth in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Galvin at six o'clock.

The bride was charmingly attired in a travelling suit of blue broadcloth, with hat to match. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret J. Heffernan, niece of the bride, was similarly gowned. Mr. Edward J. Doherty of Hastings was groomsman.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the residence of the bride, 206 1-2 Charlotte street, where a dainty and recherche wedding breakfast was served, after which the bride and groom left upon the eight o'clock C.P.R. train for Toronto, Niagara Falls, and western points, and upon their return, a few days hence, will take up residence in Asphodel.

Mr. and Mrs. Doherty were the recipients of a large and sparkling array of wedding gifts, and many congratulatory favours from their large circle of friends both in Peterborough and out-of-town, including a number of substantial cheques.

Junior Chapter Was Organized

A junior chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was organized yesterday at St. John's church after the session of the Sunday school. About twenty boys were enrolled as members of the chapter in the organization, in which Mr. N. A. Howard Moore has taken an active part.

The officers elected were: Director, Mr. John Hogan; vice-director, Mr. Charles Ray; Secretary, Evans Bradburn.

An executive committee was appointed. The meetings of the chapter will be held each Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Guild room.

Joint Meeting of Church Auxiliaries

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. John's Guild room the Woman's Auxiliary will meet, and at 4 o'clock a general meeting of the branches of St. John's, St. Luke's and All Saints' will be held, at which Mrs. Davidson, of Toronto, will give an address. This meeting will be held in the schoolroom, and all the ladies in these congregations are invited to be present.

Carlos Greene Died Suddenly This Morning

Prominent Member of the Salvation Army Passed Away Unexpectedly—Deceased Had Been in Good Health—Only Suffered a Couple of Days With Stomach Trouble—Was Member of the S. A. Band—Sad Break in Ranks.

WILL BE GIVEN MILITARY FUNERAL

A very sudden death was that of Carlos S. Greene, the Charlotte street grocer and butcher, who passed away this morning at 4 o'clock. The deceased had only been ill since Friday with stomach trouble. This morning about 4 o'clock he complained of not being able to breathe and got up and was sitting on a chair, when he suddenly collapsed and fell to the

The late Carlos Sidney Greene was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Greene, 328, Downie street and was twenty-six years of age. He was born in Sterling, but had lived in Peterborough for nearly fourteen years. He was a prominent worker in the Salvation Army, and for years played in Salvation Army band, of which his brother J. M. Greene, is leader. He was greatly loved and respected by his comrades in the work and by the community at large.

The late Mr. Greene was a musician of more than local reputation. On several occasions he has been connected with travelling musical bands which have toured the country under the auspices of the Army. His favourite instrument was the euphonium, of which he was a master.

He leaves a wife and an infant son. Mr. J. M. Greene is a brother, of deceased and Mrs. R. C. Braund is a sister.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, from his late residence, 350 Charlotte street, and proceed to the Salvation Army barracks, where a special service will be conducted by Brigadier Turner, of Montreal, provincial officer. Major Morris, of Toronto, staff band master, will have charge of the band, and the funeral music.

Interment will be made in Little Lake Cemetery.

This is the first death among the members of the Salvation Army here in a number of years, and the deceased was looked upon by all who knew him as likely to live many years yet, so that his sudden death will come to them as a great shock.

Lamented Death of Mrs. E. Hair

Demise Occurred at Family Residence, Otonabee, Yesterday.

A life-long and widely-respected resident of Otonabee, in the person of Margaret Jane Easson, wife of Evans Hair passed away on Sunday morning, about 7.30 o'clock, at the family residence, lot 30, concession 10, Otonabee.

The late Mrs. Hair, whose demise was the result of pneumonia, with complications, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easson, of Otonabee township, both of whom pre-deceased her by a number of years. She had been ill but for a short time previous to her death, although in the spring she suffered a serious illness.

A sister of the deceased, Annie Easson, died in Otonabee some years ago. Surviving brothers are William, of Peterborough; Henry, of Haliburton, Allan, of Otonabee, and and James of Duluth. One daughter, Annie, and two sons, Herbert and John, all residing in Otonabee, remain to mourn her loss.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday, November 21st, at 1 o'clock from the family residence, lot 30, concession 10, Otonabee township, to the Little Lake Cemetery, for interment. The services will be conducted by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, rector of St. Luke's church, of which the deceased was a member.

Meeting At S. A. Barracks

The services yesterday in the Salvation Army Barracks were conducted by Staff Capt. Creighton, and were very largely attended. At the three meetings the Staff Captain gave addresses, which were listened to with deep interest by the large congregations. Last night there were four converts.

The service of commissioning the local officers and bandsmen, which was to have taken place to-night, has been postponed indefinitely on account of the death of Bandsman Greene.

Members Draw Efficiency Pay

Men in the 57th Reg. Receive Money for Year's Work.

Saturday was a busy day for the local branch of the Bank of Ottawa. The members of the 57th Regiment were receiving their pay through that bank, and the clerks were kept busy during banking hours, handing out the cash. This year for the first time the men drew efficiency pay, which in the case of first year men amounted to $2.40; second year, $4.80, and third year, $6.00. The efficiency pay was drawn by the men this year. Their regular pay going into the regimental fund as in the past. This is used to provide the trip for the regiment during the summer, the officers allowing all their pay to go into this fund.

Any members of the regiment who have not yet received their pay may obtain it at the Bank of Ottawa.

The British channel fleet is a knot slower than the German fleet, and is three units weaker, while three of its ships are armed with a weak type of gun. The British ships on the whole carry heavier guns, but they are not so well protected by armour as the German ships. In armoured cruisers England has six in commission to the German three, so that each navy has seventeen armoured units of modern type in Northern waters.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention.

Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some uterine derangement. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the ablest specialists agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for woman's ills known to medicine.

The following letters from Mrs. Oakes and Mrs. MacNamee are among the many thousands which Mrs. Pinkham has received this year from those whom she has relieved.

Surely such testimony is convincing.

Mrs. J. P. Oakes of Prince of Wales Hotel, Head of St. Margaret's Bay, near Halifax, Halifax County, Nova Scotia, Canada, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After what your Vegetable Compound did for me, I am a firm believer that it is a wonderful medicine, and that any woman who is troubled with any of the ills we suffer from should try it and she will soon be convinced of its worth. Six bottles changed me from a peevish, despondent, sickly, ailing woman to a sweet tempered, healthy one, who rarely ever has a pain now, and who before was rarely without one. As a regulator, strengthener and a tonic, I think it has no superior and I certainly endorse it."

Mrs. Anna R. MacNamee of corner Queen and Wellington Streets, Kingston, Ont., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done all the good in the world for me. I suffered with irregularities, backache and severe pains all through my body, and was very nervous and blue. I think I used a dozen different kinds of medicines, some prescribed by the doctor and some recommended by friends, but one bottle of Vegetable Compound was worth more to me than all the other medicines put together. My general health began to improve as soon as I began to use the Compound, and in three weeks I was a perfectly well woman."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Remember, every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., her advice is free and cheerfully given.

The Inspector's Report on Gaol and Court House

Dr. R. Bruce Smith Inspected the Local County Buildings This Month—Copy of This Report Received--Regrets That County Has No House of Refuge—Hopes One Will Be Erected — Report Otherwise Favourable.

THE MANAGEMENT IS COMPLIMENTED

The report of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities, Dr. Smith, on his inspection of the Peterborough Court House and Gaol, has been presented, and a copy has been sent to the Sheriff. As was to be inferred from the remarks the inspector made when he was in the city, his report deals with the question of the House of Refuge, and he expresses regret that this county has not yet provided one. It is probable that when his report to this effect has been presented to the Provincial Secretary's Department, the county may receive some communication from the Government calling attention to the fact that the law in this respect is not being lived up to.

In general, the report of the inspector is favourable, distinctly so, as far as the management of the gaol is concerned.

The report is as follows:

I made an official visit of inspection at the Peterborough Gaol, November 2nd, 1905, when I found twelve male prisoners in custody; one for manslaughter, one for obstructing the railway, one for horse-stealing, one for larceny, one for assault, two for drunkenness and disorderly, and the remaining number charged with vagrancy. I was sorry to find four old men in gaol, who should be cared for in a House of Refuge, but I sincerely trust that during the coming year suitable provision will be made so that these old people can be taken care of, without having to be sent to a place that should be reserved for the criminal classes.

I visited all parts of the gaol and premises. The floors in many places in both the gaol and court house, were found to be badly worn, and should be renewed at once. There is no provision made at this gaol for giving the prisoners employment. Painting is required in many parts of the gaol, and I would strongly urge that a supply of paint be purchased and given in charge of the gaoler, who would put the prisoners to painting the interior of the gaol, and also the halls and passageways of the court house. A new bath is required for the prisoners.

The beds and bedding, corridors and cells, yards, closets, drainage and ventilation, and water supply, were all found quite satisfactory. None of the prisoners were on the sick list. The dietary is according to gaol regulations, and the quality of the food supplied is good. There were thirty suits of clothing on hand, in a good condition of repair.

The closets in the court yard were found in a very unsanitary condition, and I would recommend as they are now no longer required, that they be removed altogether. The heating of this gaol and court house is much more expensive than it should be if provision was made for heating from a central plant from which radiation might be taken for the whole court house and gaol.

I examined the books and found that they were very well kept, and that the entries were up to date. The minute book of inspection should be kept in the gaoler's office.

My visit of inspection impressed me favourably in regard to the discipline and management of this gaol.

R. W. BRUCE SMITH,
Inspector.

Confirmation Service at St. Luke's Church

Last Night His Lordship Received Forty-nine Candidates Into the Church—The Bishop of Toronto Pays the City a Visit—Conducted Service in St. Luke's in the Afternoon—An Impressive Ceremony.

NAMES OF CANDIDATES FOR CONFIRMATION

Last night in St. Luke's church forty-nine candidates for confirmation were received into the church, the rite of confirmation being performed by His Lordship, the Bishop of Toronto, who yesterday paid his first visit to this city since his return from his trip to England, in search of better health. It was a deep regret to his hundreds of friends in Peterborough to learn that his trip had not achieved the results looked for, and that His Lordship was still very far from being well.

His visit to Peterborough yesterday was for the purpose of performing the rite of confirmation upon the candidates in St. Luke's and St. Mark's, and although he was in poor health he officiated at the two confirmation services and took part in the morning services at St. John's.

St. Luke's church was crowded to the doors last night and at five minutes before the hour for service persons who wished to attend were turned away, every available seat being occupied, and many stood during the entire service.

The service of confirmation was the usual impressive ceremony, and His Lordship in his address to the candidates referred to its solemn import and sought to instill into their minds a true conception of its meaning. He said that nothing gave greater pleasure to the Bishop than to receive those seeking confirmation, into church membership. The rite was a holy one, instituted by the Apostles, it is believed under the direct instruction of our Blessed Lord.

The speaker referred to the first confirmation recorded in the Holy Word, when the Apostles laid their hands upon the converts. It is a very simple service, but it is a matter of great seriousness.

To fully understand the importance of this service, it is, said the Bishop, necessary to go back to the very beginning, when God "breathed into man the breath of life, and he became a living soul." Of all the creatures which God had made none but men were called living souls. It was only a short time, however, until the fall, and when Adam yielded to the temptation to eat of the forbidden fruit, then he lost the spirit which made him a living soul, in confirmation of God's word that if he ate of the fruit that day he should die. He thus forfeited the great gift of the Holy Spirit.

Then Christ came into the world after long ages, and He restored to man the gift which had been forfeited through sin. He promised that after His ascension the Holy Spirit would come upon them, and that promise was redeemed.

This gift is one which may be lost, however, by straying again into sin or by neglect. Therefore there is great need to use every means of grace to keep the spiritual life alive.

The speaker pointed out that there was a great difference between the natural life given by our parents and the spiritual life, and the means to retain it are, consequently different. As there are foods necessary to sustain natural life, so there are spiritual foods. There are three kinds of food, the first of which is the privilege of prayer. It is one of the chief supports of the spiritual life. But it must be offered in sincerity. The second is His Holy Word, which is designed to be food to our souls.

The Holy Communion is also instituted to supply spiritual food. There are mysteries in the spiritual life as there are in the natural life, but we do not refuse to believe in the latter because we do not understand it.

The speaker sought further to impress upon the candidates for confirmation the importance of the step which they were taking. The names were afterwards called by the rector, each responding. Those who were thus received were:—

Say "Yes"

To This Offer, and See the Good You Will Get.

Write us if you are ready to try Liquozone. Let us buy the first bottle for you. Let the product itself prove the good it can do.

You who are waiting don't know what you miss. There are plenty to tell you if you would ask; for millions have already used it. Some use it to get well; some to keep well. Some to cure germ diseases; some as a tonic. You will use it as they do, when you learn what the product does. And you will then regret that you delayed so long.

What Liquozone Is.

The virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

Contact with Liquozone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquozone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poison when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so helpless in a germ disease. Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalising, purifying; yet no disease germ can exist in it.

We purchased the American rights to Liquozone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved, again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. Today there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquozone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones —at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquozone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—we offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. Dr. Thos. Sullivan Died Suddenly In Springfield

Deceased Was a Native of Peterborough—Two Sisters in This City Survive Him—Late Dr. Sullivan Was a Large Practicioner in Springfield, Minn. —Leo Clancy, a Nephew, Attended Funeral — Death Occurred in His Drug Store.

A HIGHLY RESPECTED RESIDENT DECEASED

The Springfield, Minnesota, Advance, of last week, contains the following article giving more complete details of the death of Dr. Thomas Sullivan, notice of which was made last week. The Advance says:

The announcement of the sudden death of Dr. Thomas Sullivan, which for years has carried on a successful practice in the city, came as a great shock and surprise to our citizens. Apparently enjoying good health but a few hours before the final summons came, the Grim Reaper ruthlessly, and without apparent warning, took from our midst a husband, father and one of Springfield's prominent professional men. The sad and untimely death occurred in his drug store Thursday morning, at about 11.00 o'clock.

For some days the doctor was not feeling well, but no one had the slightest intimation that his earthly career was to end so abruptly, and during his last days much of his time was spent in the drug store. On the morning of his death his son John went as usual to the drug store to do the sweeping, and upon arriving there found that his father was quite sick, and that he complained particularly of having severe chills. He was sitting in a chair at the time, and in order to make him as comfortable as possible John threw an overcoat over him. Even at this time nothing was thought of the seriousness of his ailment, and it was not till several hours afterwards that John noticed that his father was gasping for breath. Dr. Rothenburg was at once summoned but by the time he arrived nothing could be done in the way of medical attendance, and he expired shortly after.

The family was at once informed of the sad occurrence as was also Coroner Bayley of Sleepy Eye. The coroner arrived as soon as possible, and after viewing the remains decided that an inquest was unnecessary as the cause of death was a clear case of heart failure.

Dr. Thomas Sullivan was born in Peterborough, Ont., on the 7th day of September, 1857. He graduated from a medical college in Toronto, and, after practicing two years in Sharon, Pa., he came to this city in May, 1883. On the 28th of the following February, he married Martha Regen, and as a result of this union six children were born to them. They are Mary, Helen, Margaret, John, Emmet and Addis. Three sisters also survive him, two of whom reside at Peterborough. For twenty-two years he was one of Springfield's prominent professional men, and during these many years of practice he administered alike to the poor and the rich. For a number of years he was a member of the board of education, as well as the chairman of the board of health.

The funeral was held from St. Raphael's church Monday morning, at nine o'clock. Father Gmeiner celebrated high mass, after which Father Gleason of Comfrey, delivered a sermon which was both eloquent and impressive. Father Haas of Glencoe, also assisted in the burial ceremonies.

Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery and fully eighty teams were in line. The Catholic Order of Foresters turned out in a body and marched to the cemetery.

There were many exquisitely beautiful floral contributions, many of the pieces being worked out in beautiful artistic designs, and as a whole were representative tokens of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Among the contributions were a wreath from the physicians of New Ulm, and also one from the local physicians, and the various orders of which the deceased was a member also paid a fitting tribute of esteem in the way of appropriate floral designs.

The deceased carried life insurance to the amount of eight thousand dollars, two thousand of which was in the Foresters' Lodge, two thousand in the M.W.A., two thousand in the United Workmen, and two thousand old line.

Among the out of town relatives who attended the funeral of the late Dr. Sullivan were Mrs. White of Marysburg, Le Seur county, Mrs. Vaughn and daughter Gertie of Marysburg, Michael Gamble and daughter, of Mankato, and Leo Clancy, a nephew of the deceased, residing at Peterborough. Mr. Clancy will remain here for about a month to assist Mrs. Sullivan in arranging business affairs.

Michael Fawcett Died in Detroit

Deceased Was Formerly a Resident of This City.

The many friends of Mr. Michael Fawcett, formerly of this city, will regret to hear of his death, at the residence of his son-in-law, Dr. Curran, 4th avenue, Detroit, Mich., on Nov. 10th.

Mr. Fawcett was for many years employed as superintendent by the late Mr. Dalton Ilyott, when the latter gentleman was so extensively engaged in lumbering operations in Victoria and Peterborough counties.

After completing his engagements with Mr. Ullyott, Mr. Fawcett moved to this city and lived on Antrim street. He was for a long time engaged in the livery business in Peterborough. Mr. Fawcett, with his family, subsequently moved to Toronto, where they have resided ever since.

Mr. Fawcett leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. S. G. Parkin, Lindsay, and Mrs. Curran, Detroit. The interment, which was private, was in Mount Pleasant cemetery, Toronto.

2,100 Bushels in Nine Hours

Mr. R. Darling, of Smith Township, reported to-day a heavy day's threshing which McManus Brothers did for him recently. In nine hours 2,100 bushels of grain were threshed, and thirty loads of peas, included in the lot, were run through the machine in two hours. The balance of the grain was oats. Mr. Darling looks upon this as a most satisfactory record for the nine hours.

Art Culture's Club Meeting

Interesting Programme Presented Friday Night.

On Friday night the regular fortnightly meeting of the Art Culture Club was held at the Conservatory of Music. The programme was an interesting one, and the large number of members present showed their appreciation of the excellent papers read.

The musician studied was Schubert, and Mrs. (Rev.) J. G. Lewis read the paper. Miss Clara Bellet ghem sang, "Who is Sylvia?" from Schubert, while Mrs. Mowat played two piano solos.

An interesting paper on Tennyson was given by Rev. J. C. Davidson, and a sketch of his life was read by Rev. F. J. Scott. Miss Hurley sang, "Crossing the Bar." The artist was Burne-Jones, and Mrs. Mowat read the paper. Miss Hazel Dean and Miss Florence Coveney read each a paper on the life and work of this famous artist.

Mrs. Macfarlane Wilson, the president of the club, presided at the meeting.

Parry Sound Hunters' Return

Nine Deer and Three Bears Were the Net Result of Trip.

The Parry Sound Hunt Club returned Friday night, after spending the hunting season most enjoyably at Gladman's camp, about 40 miles north of Parry Sound. The party was composed as follows:—Messrs. J. E. A. Fitzgerald, Dickson Best, G. Milne Hamilton, Geo. Dawson, Larry Steele, R. G. Kingan, J. D. Collins, Sam Ray, Joseph Pentland, Arthur Head, Chas. Curtis, Joe Gibson and G. Baptie, chef.

The party travelled to and from camp by special car and tug. They were successful in slaughtering eight deer and three bears, two of the former being exceptionally fine bucks. Members of the party spoken to all state that they enjoyed excellent sport, and that game abound in much greater quantity in the Parry Sound District than in our north country. A serial story, it is expected, will be published by the official truth-distorter of the club, and will make it's appearance shortly.

Local Option To Be Debated

At the meeting of the Literary and Debating Society of the Baraca Bible Class, which will be held at the Murray street Baptist church on Friday evening, there will be a debate on the question — "Resolved, that local option is the only solution of the liquor problem."

The meeting promises to be a most interesting one.

Lalloo, The Freak, Died in Mexico

Those who saw the Norris & Rowe shows when they were here last summer will be interested in the following item, in the New York, Clipper regarding the death of Lalloo. The Clipper says:—"Lalloo, the famous double bodied freak, died at Agouscalientis, Mexico, on Oct. 23nd, from a complication of diseases. He was connected with the Norris & Rowe shows at the time of his death. Lalloo was born in India, and was for years a celebrated freak with many of the big travelling shows and in local museums. He was a fully developed man, but to his body was joined, just below the waist a similar body, which was perfect in every way, but which was without a head."

USED UP AND TIRED OUT

MEN AT THE OFFICE WOMEN IN THE HOME CHILDREN AT SCHOOL

Every day in the week and every week in the year men, women and children feel all used up and tired out.

The strain of business, the cares of home and social life and the task of study cause terrible suffering from heart and nerve troubles. The efforts put forth to keep up to the modern "high pressure" mode of life in this age soon wears out the strongest system, shatters the nerves and weakens the heart.

Thousands find life a burden and others an early grave. The strain on the system causes nervousness, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, faint and dizzy spells, skip beats, weak and irregular pulse, smothering and sinking spells, etc. The blood becomes weak and watery and eventually appetite declines.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

are indicated for all diseases arising from a weak and debilitated condition of the heart or of the nerve centres. Mrs. Thos. Hall, Keldon, Ont., writes: "For the past two or three years I have been troubled with nervousness and heart failure, and the doctors failed to give me any relief. I decided at last to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and I would not now be without them if they cost twice as much. I have recommended them to my neighbors and friends.

ENJOYING THE SPOILS.

Dr. Reaume in a speech in his own constituency has confirmed the report that the Government will not dismiss a public official without cause. This is right, and back of the Government will be that great majority of its party.—Kingston News and Times. This sounds very nice, but Dr. Reaume may preach out the system, but so long as Premier Whitney practices the slaughter of Liberal officials to make room for his own spoilsmen, so long will such preaching be a mockery. Everybody who is in the least conversant with the conditions knows that as rapidly as it can be done with what is considered a decent show of reluctance, "Grit" officials are being dismissed upon one excuse or another except incompetence and their places supplied by Conservatives. Mr. Whitney has the power, and, if he can justify his action to himself, the right to deal at his own sweet will with Provincial Government officials, but for heaven's sake let us have no sickening palaver about the determination of the Government to dismiss officials without misconduct or partizan conduct. If the Whitney Government wants a place for a supporter, and a "Grit" is in the way let it use the axe, without any hypocritic mumbling about his course being uninfluenced by consideration of spoil, in its accepted sense in relation to change of officials.

THE CONSERVATIVE POSITION

Toronto News, (Conservative.)

There is a curious avoidance of serious public issues in the bye-elections now in progress in Ontario and Nova Scotia.

The Opposition is inert and disorganized, and Government speakers confine themselves mainly to feeble defence of Tory practices by a so-called Liberal Government.

The truth is, that since its defeat in 1896, the Conservative party has shown neither purpose, unity nor energy.

It seems still to be mourning over its defeat, and to be railing at Providence for the extraordinary dispensation which gave power and patronage to the Liberal leaders.

It cannot get rid of the notion that it has a divine right to rule, and that Liberals in office are invaders and usurpers.

During these nine years of opposition it has failed to develop a constructive policy, nor has it ever been able to attack the work of its opponents, with consistency, moderation and sanity.

Its attitude towards the British preference was neither frank nor courageous.

It baulked at the exposure of jobbery in the extension of the Intercolonial Railway to Montreal, because certain Conservatives were threatened.

It gave practical sanction to the great public robbery effected by the Davis contract on the Cornwall canal because some of its own rascals were involved.

It was timid, half-hearted and divided in its support of Mr. Borden's declaration for public ownership of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

Its heart was broken because London and North Oxford supported coercion candidates in the bye-elections of a few months ago.

Now, in North York and Wentworth and West Lambton and Antigonish, it has no distinct constructive policy, nor even any common ground of attack, upon the Government.

If the Conservative candidates succeed in any of these elections, it will not be because the people are eager to send the Conservatives back to office, but because they have come to recognise the Laurier Government as the most insolent, the most unscrupulous, and, perhaps, the most corrupt government which has held offies in Canada since Confederation.

Angry with such a Government the people may be; in love with the Opposition, they are not.

The Conservative party must lay down a constructive policy, and stand by its platform, whether it wins or loses elections, if it hopes to regain public confidence, and to show that it is worthy of party traditions.

It will be interesting to read what Mr. Borden has to say in Wentworth. He has shown consistency, capacity and courage beyond any of his colleagues. We should think he has more confidence in the country than to believe that attack upon the indemnity and pensions, for which both parties, and, indeed, every member of Parliament, were responsible, constitutes a national policy for the Conservative party.

The News can speak with authority, as to the conditions of Conservative family affairs, and speak with the freedom of a member of the family. Its curtain lecture, delivered to the Conservative party, is a fair one, for it gives reasons for its condemnation, but the News, in order to show that it once made claims to being independent, must also have a rap at the Liberal Government, which is conceived in quite a different spirit. It denounces the Liberal Government, apparently on the principle that misery loves company, but without, as in the Conservative curtain lecture, giving reasons—it is a mere scold. Has the News ever in its boyhood days, chased a hen, which, brought to bay, thrusts its head under a broad leaf, under the delusion that because it can't see anybody, it must be hidden? Does the News entertain the delusion that because it tries to make itself believe in its independence the sensible public is likely to underwrite shares in the same delusion.

A DIPLOMATIC ADMIRAL.

(London Advertiser.)

Probably the selection of a prince to command the British squadron visiting American waters is another exhibition of King Edward's astute diplomacy. He knows by experience that our American cousins dearly love a royal personage, and there is a shrewd suspicion that he whispered a few things in the ear of his relative, Prince Louis of Battenburg. At any rate Prince Louis has played his role to perfection. He is what the Americans call "a good mixer," and has thrown himself into the social whirl of New York with all the zest of a jack tar on shore leave. He has been interviewed by the reporters and assures them that words fail to express his admiration of everything he has seen in the United States. His genial bearing and free and easy ways are contrasted by the press with the haughty exclusiveness of Prince Henry of Germany, who consented to meet only official reception committees on his flying trip through the country. Prince Louis, instead of standing on a pedestal, has come down to earth and thrown himself into the broad bosom of the plain people. He is proving himself a prince of jolliers, and is quite the lion of New York. He goes to the horse show and ten thousand sturdy democrats rise as one man and cheer themselves hoarse. The prince is too good a fellow to remain isolated in a box, but steps down and rubs elbows with Demos on the promenade. He goes to Coney Island, where British and Yankee tars are floating the good ship of Anglo-American concord on a tidal wave of beer, and he orders the waiter to bring him a stein, waving aside the sybaritic wine-glass. From daylight till all hours of the night he is working like a dervo to keep up with the pace set for him by his entertainers, and he assures the newspapers that he is having the time of his life. New Yorkers vow he is the most intelligent and appreciative prince that ever set foot on the shores of the Republic. The Anglo-American entente is greatly strengthened, and Prince Louis is probably longing for a good night's sleep.

Mr. J. W. Garvin as Musical Composer

The Examiner has to acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt, from Mr. J. W. Garvin, of a copy—words and music—of a new song—"Dead Leaves," published by Whaley, Royce & Co. Mr. Garvin has added to his repertoire of versatility, the role of composer. He has been very successful in giving a sympathetic and melodious musical setting to the dainty little poem of Miss Ethelwyn Wetherald, "Dead Leaves in the Bird's Nest." The melody of the setting moves in a parallel of pathos with the simple beauty and tender sentiment of the words. "Dead Leaves" is written in a key adapted to the capacity of voices of medium range, and, this, with its intrinsic merit and pleasing sweetness, should give Mr. Garvin's maiden song, what it is hoped it will reach, a wide popularity.

Missionary Sermon By Rev. Mr. Coon

Bobcaygeon Clergyman Preached Last Night at Mark Street Methodist Church—A Large Attendance at the Service—Special Missionary Contribution—Able and Convincing Sermon—Missionary Work of the Church Discussed.

APPEAL WELL RESPONDED TO

The special missionary service held last night at the Mark street Methodist church was attended by a large congregation. A convincing and eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Coons, Bobcaygeon, who dealt with the missionary side of church work in a comprehensive manner. At the conclusion of the service a special missionary contribution was requested, and a most gratifying response was forthcoming.

Rev. Mr. Coons chose as his text St. Mark xvi: 15,—"And he said unto them! Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

This great commission is to us today, said the preacher, just what it was to our Lord's disciples, and the church should not mistake its force and meaning—that the gospel of Christ was intended for all the world. The great agency for the setting up of the universal kingdom Christ in His gospel. The church needs more or less rousing with regard to the scope and meaning of the great commission set forth in the text. At the same time it should be remembered that it is not altogether sleeping with regard to it. At the present time we believe that the church has now, perhaps, the clearest conception of this command that she ever had in her history.

The commission was laid upon eleven ordinary weak men, none who could not be called a very extraordinary group in social status or in other respects. If they had stopped to think of their difficulties and disadvantages they would have given up in despair. They were a organization—divinely organized—and this meant a great deal for them. In the course of a very short time they were to start out, prominent among men—unique in that personality.

They had a gospel that was adapted to every rank of mankind, and every conceivable condition of life, and which was bread to the hungry, and the means of redemption to those in sin. First among the motives by which these men were impelled was love—love for mankind as well as their Master. A second motive was that of joy which was unbounded, and filled their hearts after the removal of the sorrow which had a short time before been suffered by the death of their Master. A further motive which they received was the power of the Holy Ghost, which descended upon them in Pentecostal fires. They thus went forth to conquer. There was a very great zeal to the advantage of those men.

Centuries went on, and through them the work went on, and to-day we find ourselves in the same position with regard to the commission as were the eleven disciples.

How are we to carry out this great duty? In one way only—by each member doing his best as a part of the great organization. What a record the church has had! After the day of Pentecost at its first introduction we find it had 120 members. To-day we find 300,000,000 actual communicants, and about 500,000,000 adherents of the Christian church. She has gone forth and done a great work throughout history, and what she has done in the past she can do in future. Vicious systems have been overcome, and the church goes on triumphantly. The days that are to come will be better days.

St. Peter came to the Saviour and said, "What will we have for to follow Thee?" People sometimes ask a similar question to-day. If we consecrate our lives and give our services we will be amply recompensed without entering into a bargain with Him. If you devote your love and energies to the welfare of your children you receive recompense in the reciprocal love and assistance which comes with their growth; and so between the Father and His children love is in the same way reciprocal. Service for love is service for God, and service for God will always be repaid. God's rewards are multifarious. We hope that this year will be looked upon as a year of larger opportunity than we have ever before enjoyed. The day of prosperity that God has given us means a large responsibility.

Speaking with regard to missionary work the preacher said that there are in all 536 different missions, and the income last year was $370,541. The church has been labouring in China and Japan—in the latter place about thirty-two years, and the result is a strong growing church. There are also the aborigines of the continent which constitutes a large field of work. It would be a shame and a crime to neglect their interests. "May God hasten the time," the preacher concluded, "that the church may enter more 'open doors,' leading in the forefront of the battle for the advancement of the cause of Christ."

Song Service In Memory Of The Y.M.C.A. Founder

At the Men's Meeting Yesterday Sir George Williams' Death Was Referred To—Mr. G. M. Roger Spoke on Life of the Man Who Was Being Honoured—The Story of the Founding of the Association—Large Attendance.

GREAT GROWTH OF THE MOVEMENT

The song service which preceded the popular Men's Meeting at the Y.M.C.A., yesterday was in memory of the late Sir Geo. Williams, the founder of the Young Men's Christian Association. The hymns sung included "Hark, Hark My Soul," "Jerusalem the Golden," "Some Day the Silver Cord Will Break," and "For All the Saints Who From Their Labours Rest." This was followed by a brief reference to the life of the founder which was given by Mr. Geo. M. Roger, a charter member of the Peterborough Y.M.C.A.

Mr. Roger pointed out the magnitude of this world wide institution, which had originated from the Christian activity of this one man. He was a young country fellow who in 1855 asked eleven of his fellows to join him in organizing the first Association in Old London.

He has been honoured by the late Queen and now his remains had been given a place in St. Paul's Cathedral beside the ashes of the great Queen of the nation.

Sir Geo. Williams' monument was a living one for it was in nearly every city in the world and in the hearts of millions of young men who had been helped and others who should come after them.

Mr. Roger said that two things appeared strong in his life:

(1) A yearning to do something for his fellows—his responsibility to others, and (2) His unbounded faith in God. The lesson to us was to do our duty to our fellows—and to help make the world better. We will not likely fill so large a place but should be faithful in the lot that falls to us. Young Geo. Williams had no conception of the results, but he did what he could.

Christian Science And Mesmerism

This Subject Was Dealt With in an Address Yesterday.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, or Mesmerism and Hypnotism" was the subject of a very interesting discourse at both morning and evening services in First Church of Christ Scientist yesterday, and was listened to with the greatest attention. The many passages read from the Bible showed clearly that necormancy, divination, witchcraft, sorcery, etc., are all evil and there use forbidden by God. The references read from the text book of Christian Science, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Rev. Mary B. G. Eddy, all went to show, that the sorcery and necromancy of the past, foreshadowed the mesmerism or hypnotism of to-day, all of which is the action of the human will, or carnal mind, and is the antipodes of Christian Science, which is the reflection of the divine mind, the mind that was in Christ Jesus.

The references also showed that the action of will was detrimental to health and integrety of purpose, and must be guarded against. The march of mind will eventually overcome and destroy this seeming power of hypnotism through Christ as it did in the case of Simon the sorcerer, Acts 8th chapter, 13th verse, and the damsel possessed with the spirit of divination, Acts 16th chapter, 16th verse. As proof of this was a reference from Rev. 11th chapter, 15th, 16th and 17th, verses, while the text book went on to show that neither animal magnetism nor hypnotism enters into the practice of Christian Science. And in proportion as we understand Christian Science we are freed from the belief of mind in matter or animal magnetism, because it has no foundation, God being Almighty the only power, which was clearly taught and proven in the early life of Jesus the Christ, and who says to all in this and every age: "Follow thou Me."

The Case Was Withdrawn

A Serious Charge Against Two Local Men.

There was no police court this morning. The only case, that of a young boy snowballing an elderly man, was withdrawn.

The old lady who complains regularly of repeated attempts to poison her, gave the police office her regular call this morning.

"My chief," she said, "the sheets in my bed were saturated with chloroform."

"I'll send McGinty up," said the chief, "and he'll fix them."

She began to tell about people stealing her rocking chair, threatening her life, and doing various other outlandish things.

"It's all imagination," said the chief.

"Yes, all imagination," she giggled in cheerful corroboration.

A young girl charged a couple of residents of the city with a very serious offence.

The chief was of the opinion that a case had not been made out, but told the girl's parents, who accompanied her, to see the Crown Attorney about the matter. They left the station with the avowed intention of doing so.

Peterborough One Step Nearer the Championship

Rugby Team Played a Great Game on Saturday--Tied the Clever Dundas Team On the Latter's Grounds---Score Was 4—4---Only One More Game in the Series.

Dundas, November 18th. — The first game of the finals for the intermediate championship of the O. R.F.U. was played here to-day between the home team and Peterborough, resulting in a tie—4 to 4. Peterborough brought about 150 rooters with them. The game was very closely contested, the opposing wing lines being evenly matched. Martin, Wilson, Nelson and Kelly played the star game for Dundas, while Shaw, at centre half, for Peterborough, played a fine punting game, his splendid kicking being responsible for many of the points scored. Peterborough played a kicking game throughout, seldom attempting to buck the strong Dundas line. Dundas played a strong backing game and was successful in breaking through the Peterborough lines a number of times and gaining their yards. However, had Capt. Nelson kicked more in the first half when the sun was at their backs, Dundas would have likely gained more points. While the game was very close there was not a great deal of rough play, only two Dundas men and three Peterborough men being ruled off for rough play. The referee was impartial and gave general satisfaction. The umpire, however, was not quick enough to give his decision on offside plays. Dundas won the toss and decided to kick with the sun at their backs. Shaw's kick-off was returned by Nelson, and the play was in midfield for some time. On Nelson's kick Mulhern was forced to rouge. The balance of this half was very evenly played, ending four to one in favour of Dundas. In the second half Peterborough scored three more points, making the total score 4 to 4. Two of Peterborough's points in this half were given for interference behind the Dundas line. Kelly got out with the ball, but the referee gave Peterborough the points. Quinlan of the Peterborough team, was hurt in the first half, and was replaced by Fitzpatrick. In the second half Ford of Peterborough was hurt, and Grafton went off to even up. The teams lined up as follows:

Peterborough — Mulhern and Nelson, backs; Ford and Quinlan, halfbacks; Gillespie, quarter; Hurtubise, snap; Regan, Dillon, Craig, McDonald, Gilbert and Craig, wings.

Was Tie Game In Dundas

Splendid Showing of the Locals on Saturday.

Dundas, although very confident of victory, as is shown by the fact that the people of the western burg were heavily backing their team to win, at odds of 7 to 1, struck a snag when the fast Peterborough twelve closed with last Saturday. The game from start to finish was most strenuous and while it was not rough by any means, every minute of the play saw a desperate battle between the leading teams of the intermediate O.R.F.U. The half-time score, 4-1, shows that Peterborough must have played a whirlwind of a game in the second half. A large crowd saw the game about half of those present being from Hamilton. The Hamiltonians cheered for the wearers of the blue and white.

The work of the "Twin City" aggregation was good throughout and while the boys played well, if a little more running had been done a touch-down would probably have been secured. But there's no kick coming. The locals acquitted themselves admirably and deserve the greatest praise. The back division played well together, Shaw's punting as usual, being a noticeable feature. Mulhern also tore off some good runs. On the wing line Regan played the game of his life. He never appeared in better form and did brilliant and effective work throughout. About fifteen minutes after play had started, Quinlan received a hard tackle and had to retire for the rest of the game, Fitzpatrick taking his place.

Peterborough scored two points on rouges and two on an offside behind the Dundas goal line. Another point was disputed, but the referee would not allow it. Shaw was responsible for the rouges.

Eczema Known By Intense Itching

IF NOTOURED IT SPREADS AND BECOMES CHRONIC—WHAT TO EXPECT FROM

Dr. Chase's Ointment

The stages of eczema are marked by redness of the skin—heat and inflammation—swelling—watery discharges—formation of a crust or scale and a most constant itching varying from that which is simply annoying to that which is positively beyond human endurance.

The beginning is often neglected chaffing and skin irritation, or a small pimple or sore which has been poisoned by the clothing.

Too frequent washing is to be avoided but the affected parts should be thoroughly cleansed with Packer's Tar Soap and tepid water. After careful drying (not rubbing) with a soft towel, apply Dr. Chase's Ointment plentifully.

The ointment may seem a little severe at first but this is necessary to thoroughly cleansing of the sores for relief from the dreadful itching will come after the first few applications and thorough cure will be the reward of persistent treatment.

One thing you can be certain of, and that is that you are not experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema, salt rheum, psoriasis, tetter and similar skin diseases. It has acquired its world-wide reputation by the positive cure of these very diseases, and while using it you can see that gradually and certainly it is allaying the inflammation and healing up the annoying and distressing sores.

Mr. Ebram Fry, Norwood, says: — "I was troubled for ten years with eczema on the leg. The itching was terrible and when scratched the blood would come. The doctors said they could not cure me. Fortunately I heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and its persistent use has completely cured me. There is now no trace of the disease left.

"My little girl, two years old, has also been cured of eczema by Dr. Chase's Ointment. Her face was a mass of sores and we had to bandage her hands to keep her from scratching it. To-day her face is clean of even the scars which the ugly sores made and she is thoroughly cured. I am glad of an opportunity to let people know what a blessing Dr. Chase's Ointment has proven itself to us."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

RUGBY.

The Game Next Saturday

Surely after the great showing of the team in Dundas the grandstand at Riverside Park will be crowded next Saturday until the boards fairly creak. The Dundas people are talking of running an excursion here and if they do a good sized crowd of rooters will probably accompany them. The citizens of the western town are very enthusiastic and stand by their team and there's no reason why they should not, for they have a twelve that can play the game right from the drop of the hat. But here's one thing that level-headed followers of rugby won't deny:—barring accidents Peterborough will clinch the intermediate championship next Saturday. And then they'll make a great effort to land the laurels representing the highest place in Canadian intermediate rugby.

Three cheers and a tiger for the blue and white! Did you hear the echo? Not yet, eh? Well its loudness depends upon the jingling of the coin at the gate next Saturday. And your money is just as good as anybody else's.

Had Crowley played Peterborough would have won. That's a bold assertion, but its perfectly true. He has expressed his intention of playing out of the game for the remainder of this season, but he'll have to play here next Saturday and that's all there is to it.

• • • •

Hurtubise did not play his usual game. He was not feeling very well and consequently could not put the usual vim into his efforts.

• • • •

The Majority of the players come home on the midnight last night. Most of them stayed in Toronto over Sunday. Quinlan, who it was feared at first had sustained a severe injury, came with them and while his shoulder is sore, was not at all seriously hurt. The boys speak very highly of the treatment accorded them at Dundas.

• • • •

At Belleville on Saturday in the semi-final for the O.R.F.U. junior championship Victoria II. beat Gananoque 5-1. There was no scoring in the second half. This is the first genuine rugby match ever witnessed in Belleville. Hugh Hayes, referee, and F. C. Hobbins, umpire, the same couple that acted here when Brockville played here, two weeks ago Saturday, to the entire satisfaction of both teams and the spectators, were all right.

• • • •

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Wisconsin's hopes of beating Michigan at Ann Arbor Saturday secured a wrench yesterday, when Captain Vanderboom, left halfback, broke his arm in practice. Either Clark or Weisbelt will take his place. This is Vanderboom's second injury this season. In the first game played, back in September, against the company I eleven, he had his jaw broken and was off the team for some time. All of the regulars who took part in the game with Beloit Saturday came out of it in good condition.

A Boston despatch says:—It is reported that Bill Reid, Harvard's football coach, is paid $7,000 a quarter, or at the rate of $28,000 a year. He is not the only coach receiving big money. Dickinson of Pennsylvania, Yost of Michigan, King of Wisconsin, and Williams of Minnesota, are drawing $3,500 or better for three months' work.

BOXING AND WRESTLING.

An Unfortunate Date.

Next Wednesday seems to be a bad time to hold the T.A.S. smoker on account of the counter attraction of "The Crossing". It's not too late yet to postpone it until Thursday or some other more suitable night. A great many would like to take in both these attractions and under the circumstances is impossible.

Wm. Madden, the well-known tainer, says that the over-training puts more prize fighters out of business than drink or other dissapation. This is a new theory and one that won't be well received by the majority of the knowing ones. In spite of Madden's statement booze and fast living are the cause of more break-downs among prize fighters than anything else.

• • • •

The Hamilton Herald says:—"Harvey Parker's manager arrived in the city on Sunday to arrange all details with Conkie regarding the match which takes place at the drill hall a week from to-day. Little trouble is expected in selecting a referee, as both Conkie and Parker have been before the public long enough to know who is a capable official and who is not. Conkie is training diligently for the contest, and is working out every day with some of the local wrestlers. He seems to think that in Parker he is to meet the hardest opponent he ever had at his own weight. According to reports from Buffalo, Parker will have plenty of backing on the night of the match, and people who are looking for "Parker money" will no doubt be accommodated."

• • • •

The Soo Hockey team of the International League, are apparently anxious to secure the services of Harry McRobie. Yesterday he received another offer to go, this time an inducement—of $30 per week being held.—Brockville Recorder.

McRobie is a fast man, and did splendid work on the Brockville hockey team in the Federal League last winter. He broke into rugby for the first time this year. He played both games against the locals and on these occasions his playing was all-edged.

• • • •

Not much stock can be placed in the rumour, that "Artie" Boyce, of the Foreign Falls team, will play with Lindsay this year. It is not a settled thing as yet, so go slow.—Lindsay Post.

• • • •

The Port Hope Guide says:—The advisability of placing a junior team in the O.H.A. is at present being discussed. There is nothing like bringing along the juniors, but then it is felt that they could receive as good training with the seniors in the O.H.A. Even the Manager of the juniors frankly admits that the team this year would have no chance to win the championship or even the district. All the junior players available at the present time would be eligible for next year, and with the experience and the training they would recive from the seniors, would have them in good shape for next year. The senior hockey club will need all the support possible and as the juniors have nothing to lose by dropping out this year, it might be just as well for them to withdraw.

• • • •

News in the sporting line this morning is very scarce. The hockey management are following the example of other towns in keeping everything to themselves. With all the old players available and some new ones from our factories, Port Hope should be represented by a fast seven.—Port Hope Guide.

• • • •

Con. Corbett, of last year's Victoria Harbour seven and "Reddy" McMillan, who has played "amateur" hockey in Belleville, will be found on the American Soo line-up this winter.

THE TURF.

Mr. Frank G. Smith, the able turf writer of the "Horse World" is well known here. Mr. Smith is always engaged by the Peterborough Turf Club as starter and his work has in every instance proved to officials of the club and the spectators as well, highly satisfactory. Besides writing for the Horse World, Mr. Smith contributes to other leading sporting sheets and acts in the capacity of starter at many of the large American race meets. What he says about matters relative to the turf generally goes.

BASEBALL.

Mr. Fred. Whitcroft, who claims to be the best second baseman in Canada, says he will be seen with the Peterborough nine next season.

Does Your FOOD Digest Well?

When the food is imperfectly digested the full benefit is not derived from it by the body and the purpose of eating is defeated; no matter how good the food or how carefully adapted to the wants of the body it may be. Then the dyspeptic often becomes thin, weak and debilitated, energy is lacking, brightness, snap and vim are lost, and in their place come dullness, lost appetite, depression and langour. It takes the great knowledge to know when one has indigestion, some of the following symptoms generally exist, viz.: constipation, sour stomach, variable appetite, headache, heartburn, gas in the stomach, etc.

is constantly effecting cures of dyspepsia because it acts in a natural yet effective way upon all the organs involved in the process of digestion, removing all clogging impurities and making easy the work of digestion and assimilation.

Mr. R. G. Harvey, Amelisburg, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with dyspepsia for several years and after using three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured. I cannot praise B.B.B. enough for what it has done for me. I have not had a sign of dyspepsia since."

Do not accept a substitute for B.B.B. There is nothing "just as good."

A Disaster Is Reported To Steamer

Str. Hilda Wrecked and One Hundred Lives Lost.

STRIKES ROCKS OFF ST. MALO

Passengers Were Asleep, and Were Mostly French Onion Men From St. Briac—A Number of English People in the Death List—Only Six Were Saved, One an English Seaman—A Dangerous Reef.

London, Nov. 20.—The Southwestern R. R.'s cross channel steamer Hilda foundered off the French coast yesterday morning with a loss of more than 100 persons on board. The Hilda left Southampton Friday night for St. Malo on the north coast of France. The crew numbered 26, and there were about 100 passengers all Frenchmen, the majority being onion dealers from St. Briac and neighborhood.

Few Available Particulars.

A telegram from St. Servin, adjoining the town of St. Malo, gives the few particulars yet available. The Hilda was near St. Malo Saturday morning delayed by a fog and bad weather. She struck the rocks at 4 o'clock Sunday morning in the roadstead off the Island of Cesambre.

The majority of the crew and passengers were asleep at the time. Two boats were lowered, one of which, containing five men, arrived at St. Servin. The second boat was picked up empty at St. Cast, where 13 bodies were washed ashore. The top of the Hilda's funnel and her mast are visible at low tide according to a telegram from St. Servin.

The Hilda was built at Glasgow in 1883, and registered 848 tons. She was a screw steamer of iron construction, and was 235 feet in length.

English People Drown.

St. Malo, France, Nov. 20.—The exact number of lives lost on the Hilda is unknown here. It is understood that there are about twenty first-class passengers, including several English people. Among the latter were Hon. Mrs. Butler, sister of Lord Lanesborough, and Col. Follet. Though it is not certain that these actually were on board, they were expected to travel by the Hilda, and it is known that all the first-class passengers were drowned. These passengers were English officers and others who were coming to rejoin their families or to spend the season at St. Malo and Dinard (opposite St. Malo.)

It appears to be certain that only six were saved, these being five onion sellers and an English seaman named Grinter, belonging to Guernsey, and that the total on board, including the crew, numbered 105.

A Treacherous Reef.

The disaster was first suspected through the washing ashore of a body, and the port authorities immediately sent out a tug. It was then learned that the Hilda was wrecked on a treacherous reef close to the Island of Cesambre, called Les Porte.

She apparently had struck, broken her back, and immediately sunk, leaving no time to launch the boats. The Jardin light is quite close to the spot. It cannot yet be explained at what time, or how, the disaster occurred. The entrance to St. Malo is dangerous, the currents and rocks needing the exercise of considerable caution at all times.

HOLOCAUST AT GLASGOW.

Thirty-Nine Lives Were Lost in a Cheap Lodging-House — Naked Men Fight to Escape.

Glasgow, Nov. 20.—The most terrible fire that has occurred in Great Britain for many years broke out here yesterday morning in a cheap lodging-house for men in Watson street, and resulted in the loss of thirty-nine lives and the severe injury of many others.

The flames were first noticed at 6 o'clock in the morning on the fourth floor of the building, which was occupied by 230 men. An alarm was raised and the firemen were speedily in attendance, but flames and smoke were then issuing from most of the windows on the fourth floor.

An extraordinary scene was created by a procession of almost naked men issuing from the door of the building, and against their frantic efforts to escape the firemen had actually to fight for admission.

Dropped to the Floor.

Reaching the upper floors the firemen found that the narrow passages were becoming congested with men who dropped to the floor overcome by smoke.

Fortunately the fire was confined to the fourth floor, and as soon as the firemen were able to get to work it was speedily extinguished. The flames had been fed by the wooden partitions of the cubicles, which threw off volumes of smoke, resulting in the suffocation of the inmates. Many being brought to the street, rallied in a few minutes, but others had to be taken to the hospitals.

The dead were mostly workmen in the prime of life. They presented a horrible spectacle, their blackened faces bearing evidence of terrible struggles to escape.

By 10 o'clock a search of the building was made, and a complete list of the victims obtained, which showed that thirty-nine were dead and thirty-two injured.

Child's Awful Death.

Amherstburg, Nov. 20.—During the absence from the house of her mother, six-year-old Corine Martin in some way set her clothing on fire, there being no one in the house except smaller children. Assistance was not given the child until she was so terribly burned that the flesh literally fell from the bones. She died two hours later.

Section Man is Killed.

Komoko, Nov. 20.—William Stewart, section foreman for the Grand Trunk at Komoko, while crossing the track east of Komoko station Saturday afternoon, was struck by a special passenger train and knocked to one side of the track. He was picked up unconscious and taken to London Hospital, where he died shortly afterwards.

Two Men Were Killed.

Belleville, Nov. 20.—A double fatality occurred in the station yard here about 7 o'clock Saturday. William Dick and David Wrennick were riding on the front platform of a pilot engine, which had a box car in front of it, when the engine collided with another pilot. Both men were instantly killed, Dick's head being completely severed from his body. Dick was a married man and leaves a widow and three children. Wrennick was single.

Witte Succeeds And Russian Strike Is Over

Revolutionaries Lose After Seven Hours Debate.

ZEMSTVO CONGRESS MEETS

Half of Vladivostock Burned in Recent Riots—Six Hundred of the Garrison Were Killed and Damage is Estimated at $25,000,000 — Russian Prisoners in Japan Show Signs of Revolt.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 20.—After the severe reverse which they suffered early yesterday morning when at the end of a seven-hour debate the Council of Workmen decided to abandon the industrial strike, the leaders of the extremist Socialist factions of the St. Petersburg workmen engaged in a hard and losing fight in defence of a resolution for an eight-hour day, which was the slogan of last week's strike, but which was abandoned at the last moment in favor of an appeal for the lives of the mutineers at Cronstadt and the liberty of Poland.

The strike, by alienating public sympathy and opening the eyes of intelligent Liberals and Moderates, aided greatly in the reformation of the new "law and order party," which now has sprung into formidable being.

Zemstvo In Meeting.

Interest is now shifted to Moscow, where the Zemstvo Congress opened yesterday. The members of the new party from all parts of the country, have gone there to make a fight in the congressional union of all the Conservative and Liberal elements to hold up the hands of Count Witte, to condemn the political strike and to seek further political salvation through the doors opened by the manifesto.

Half Vladivostock Burned.

Tokio, Nov. 20.—An eye-witness of the recent riot at Vladivostock, who has arrived at Nagasaki, reports that nearly half the city was burned and that 600 of the garrison were killed; that the jail was thrown open, and that Gen. Kappeek is missing. The damage is estimated at $25,000,000. Soldiers from Harbin appear to have joined the rioters.

Use Armies in China.

London, Nov. 20.—Chao Erh Heun, the Viceroy of Manchuria, has demanded information concerning the probable date of the departure of the Japanese troops from that part of the Chinese Empire, and the answer is that it is Japan's intention to recall her men with all possible expedition.

Showed Signs of Revolt.

Nagasaki, Nov. 20.—Five hundred Russian soldiers who were taken prisoners by the Japanese during the late war, and who are bound for Vladivostock on board the Russian volunteer fleet steamers Vladimir and Bornenji have shown signs of mutiny. The Russian officers applied to the Japanese Government for troops, and a police officer and 150 constables boarded the Bornenji. Four Japanese torpedo boat destroyers surrounded the two vessels. Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky is on board the Bornenji.

Finland's Constitution.

Helsingfors, Nov. 20.—At a meeting here Saturday of a thousand representatives of the constitutional party from all parts of Finland a resolution was adopted in favor of a single chamber Diet, the members to be elected from all citizens over 21 years without distinction of sex.

Jewish Relief Fund.

New York, Nov. 20.—The National Jewish relief fund yesterday reached a total of $498,651.

Yesterday At The Y. W. C. A.

Following the week of prayer, the subject for the Sunday afternoon meeting at the Y.W.C.A. yesterday was "Consecration." It was taken by Miss Coleman.

To be fully consecrated, she said, we must give our whole selves to God; we must be careful to give what will be the most acceptable. Consecration will bear fruit for others, for we will try to bring others to Christ. Life in Christ gives inner liberty. It will give us the power to perform our daily duties, as unto God. It will give us a desire to attend God's house for the one purpose of worshipping Him. Prayer and study of God's word are necessary to the consecrated Christian. Let us consecrate ourselves to Christ that He may abide in us.

Miss Knox sang a solo very acceptably. Next Sunday Mrs. Kilgour will speak on "Service."—Com.

Cheese Market Remains Steady

Not Much Cheese Coming Into Montreal This Week.

Montreal, Nov. 17.—The market for cheese has been fairly steady during the past week. A moderate demand developed, but holders had previously put their prices up to such a point that they prevented an active trade. Country boards show a considerable decline in many cases this week, this being due to the fact that November cheese is now offering and is not worth nearly so much as Octobers. The market, however, is as firm as ever, the highest price of the season, 12 1-2c, having been paid on country boards in Ontario. The dullness of trade is shown in the fact that total shipments for the season are now behind, last week's shipments of 41,763 boxes being 63,216 less than those for the corresponding week last year, making the total shipments since the beginning of this season about 2,000,000, or 16,000 less than those for the corresponding period of last year. Shipments should now pick up again. Holders of Quebec Octobers are asking 12 to 1-8 for them. Townships being 1-8 to 1-4, and Ontarios being 1-4 to 3-8 and 1-2.

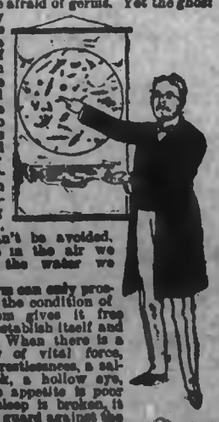
Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon.



Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a sick man's friend," writes Geo. N. Turner, Esq., (Ex. Financial Secretary International Brotherhood of Teamsters), 333 California Street, Denver, Colo. "For the past seven years my health gradually failed. I lost my appetite, became nervous and debilitated, very despondent and unable to sleep. No medicine helped me until I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It put new life into my veins and increased vitality until I could once more enjoy life and attend to my business. Eight bottles affected a complete cure and gladly do I recommend it."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets—only one or two a day will regulate and cleanse and invigorate a foul, bad Stomach, torpid Liver, or sluggish Bowels.

Rev. Dr. Marvin Was the Preacher

In the George street church yesterday Rev. Dr. Marvin, of Bethany, preached in the absence of Rev. Dr. Crothers, who was at Bethany preaching Missionary sermons. The congregations were large. The music was of an especially interesting character, in the morning Kipling's Recessional being sung by the choir, Miss Daisy Sawers taking the solo. In the evening service a mixed quartette composed of the Misses Chasty and Messrs. Browne and Cunningham sang, and a duet by Misses Parnell and Gray was much enjoyed.

Rev. Dr. Symonds Preaches at St. John's Church

Very Large Congregation at the Evening Service—Characteristically Excellent Sermon by Former Pastor of St. Luke's—Impressive Service and Excellent Singing—Mrs. Charles Amys, Solo Vocalist.

MAN AS CO-WORKER WITH THE CREATOR

The presence in the city of Rev. Dr. Symonds, of Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, formerly rector of St. Luke's, is an event not only of ecclesiastical, but also of more inclusive import. During his residence in Peterborough his many-sided relations to the church communities of the town of all denominations as well as the public generally, expressed in the multifarious character of his activities in the area of religious, moral, intellectual and altruistic movements, his Christian liberality, broad and expansive, without being latitudinarian, his rare ability in the sacred desk or on lecture platform—all these as well as many unenumerated good qualities won for him no shallow or ephemeral popularity, but a solid respect and enduring esteem, shown on the occasion of his present visit, not only by warmth of personal greeting, but by the crowded congregations which gathered in the churches where he took part in the services and preached yesterday.

Last night St. John's was filled to its utmost capacity with a congregation which joined in a beautiful service with musical features of unusual excellence, and listened to an earnest, logical and effective presentation of gospel truth, appealing to the best in our human nature, and setting forth in beautiful simplicity the duties arising out of the relations represented by the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

The preacher took for his text a passage from the third chapter of St. Paul's first Epistle to the Corinthians,—"I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase." After a lucid presentation of the circumstances leading up to these words of the apostle, which revealed the ultimate and final character of his greatness—a readiness to sacrifice himself for the great cause he had at heart, the speaker pointed out that there were three phases of man's co-operation with God in the world of spiritual life—the part that God played, the part that man is called upon to perform, and the results of this combination of action. The work of God was creative — man could not create—could not make a grain of wheat or a handful of earth, but he could use them and other gifts of spirit, mind or body with which God had endowed him, which were useless and vain unless he turned them to good account—to improve the talents He had intrusted to us. Man could co-operate in the world of nature, he could scatter the seed, but God alone could send the sun and shower that gave the harvest that men reaped. So in the world of spiritual life God gave the raw material, for man to cultivate and improve—so Paul planted, and Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. God creates and endows, and man must co-operate, and an earnest appeal was made to man to realize the gifts of God, and give them proper use. The central idea of man's co-operation with the Creator was the realization of the fatherhood of God. All should remember, whatever their creed or church, they must as believers in His son, realize God as their Father and His relation to the kingdom of God—God and Son in co-operation bound up into a family—a kingdom whose law was justice and charity, whose observance was eloquently and earnestly insisted upon, in order to realize St. Paul's characterization of the kingdom of heaven—not as meat and drink, but righteousness which involved our relations with our fellowmen, and peace which involved charity, and the fruit thereof; joy.

The musical portion of the service, which was unusually good, was led by a most effective choir. At the offertory, Mrs. Arthur Amys, wife of the manager of the Bank of Toronto at Omemee, sang in a beautiful manner Braga's' melodiously beautiful "Angels' Serenade," whose expressiveness was much heightened by the artistic accompaniment of a hidden violin obligato on muted strings, given with ethereal daintiness and sympathetic feeling. Mrs. Amys has a charming voice, very pleasing in all its compass, but especially effective in the upper register. Her sister, Miss Kathleen Jenkins, of Petrolea, who provided the violin obligato to the offertory number, performed in addition, as a concluding voluntary, a cavatina by Bhom, given to organ accompaniment, with exquisite tone, musicianly finish and large appreciation of its spirit.

Apsley Party Shot a Bear

The Beaver Lodge Hunt Club Had a Successful Camp.

The Beaver Lodge Hunt Club, composed principally of Apsley men, has just returned from their annual hunt at Crab Lake, Anstruther. This Club was very successful, getting ten deer. In addition to the deer they also got a bear weighiong 288 pounds, Mr. C. Coons succeeded in bringing bruin to earth, and the carcass is at Mr. J. Merrin's butcher shop. A number of red foxes were also shot by the party.

A most enjoyable hunt is reported, and they remained in the woods the time limit. The weather, of course, was not as favourable as they would have liked, but in spite of this drawback they enjoyed their outing.

Those comprising the party were: W. Nash, Toronto; C. Coons, Apsley; T. W. Eastland, Apsley; Albert Smith, Apsley; Earl Eastland, Apsley; Rev. A. O. Fritz, Apsley; J. E. King, Lasswade; Jos. Hornby, Apsley; J. W. Stewart, Lakefield, and T. Lavoir, cook.

The Weir party from Keene was camped near the Beaver Lodge, and they also reported having had a successful hunt.

Mr. Coons was not the only one who succeeded in getting a bear this year. Mr. Norman Lane, of Apsley, who was hunting in the woods near the Beaver Lodge party, shot one in the same neighbourhood.

Madame Melba's fee for three songs at the Bristol festival, England, the other day, was $1,575.

Large Counter Petition Was Presented

At the Special Meeting of Lakefield Council Last Night Against the Proposal to Submit Local Option By-law--112 Citizens Signed It--A Tie Vote in the Council—Reeve Voted for Submitting By-law—Large Attendance of Citizens.

PROSPECTS ARE FOR A WARM FIGHT

Special to The Examiner

Lakefield, Nov. 21.—Last night at a special meeting of the village council the question of local option was again discussed. This movement has created considerable interest in Lakefield, and at the meeting last night there was a large attendance of the citizens.

At the last meeting held a week ago a petition was presented, signed by 142 persons, asking that the council submit at the next municipal elections a local option by-law to the people.

At the meeting last night a counter petition, signed by 112 persons, was presented. Mr. W. Leahy making a short address in presenting it.

Councillor Cornish moved, seconded by Councillor Kidd, that the local option by-law be submitted to the people at the next municipal elections. An amendment was moved by Mr. Burgess, seconded by Mr. Lennox, that the by-law be not submitted. The votes were taken on both the motion and the amendment, and the reeve gave the casting vote to break the tie.

He stated that, while personally not in favour of the passing of the local option by-law, he felt that in view of the fact that the larger petition had been presented in favour of the by-law, he would have to vote in favour of submitting it to the people in response to the request of the larger number of citizens. The motion therefore carried.

There were no addresses by the citizens at last night's meeting beyond that made by Mr. Leahy in presenting the petition.

Feeling here on the question is pretty well divided, and the probabilities are that the fight on the by-law will be a warm one.

All Canadian Business to be Handled Here

A Radical Change Being Made in the Plans of the American Cereal Company—Commencing Last Saturday All Business Affecting Local Mills Will be Transacted in This Office—A New Policy to be Adopted.

MR. T. H. G. DENNE SALES MANAGER

The Examiner understands that a radical change in the business operations of the American Cereal Company is taking place. Formerly the business of the company, both American and Canadian, has been handled from the Chicago office of the company, but in future the entire Canadian business will be handled at the Peterborough office. This means a very great change, but one which will be appreciated by all who do business with the company. In the past all decisions affecting the company have been made in Chicago, but, commencing on Saturday, November 18, the entire management of the Canadian business has been transferred to Peterborough.

Mr. T. H. G. Denne, who for some years has been the head buyer for the company, and has made a great success of the department, is now sales manager for Canada, and will have full charge of the selling end of the business. In this department a new line of policy will, it is expected, be adopted in future, and an enlarged force of salesmen will be on the road.

Mr. A. C. Stevens, who has been handling the selling end of the business locally, will go to the Maritime Provinces to take charge of the sales department there, and Mr. W. G. Cochrane, who has been on the road, will be in the office here altogether in future, as correspondent, Mr. Denne's assistant.

Some of the officials from the Chicago office are here at the present time assisting the local officers in having the changes effected. On Saturday the full staff of salesmen in Canadian territory was in the city, when a demonstration on flour was made for their benefit. The company will push the sale of their new product, and it is very probable that with the new arrangement the business of the local mill ment the business of the local mills materially increase. Mr. Stevens will leave in a few days for the Maritime Provinces, where he will live in future.

Cross-Country Chase After His Wife

CHILD PLACED IN THE SHELTER

It was an unfortunate looking trio which appeared before Judge Edmison this morning at the Court House. Charles Herman, his alleged wife, Hattie Herman, and their alleged daughter.

Weak, woe-begone, and stained with the indelible imprint of a life of vagrancy, the countenances of the former pair stood out in marked contrast with the ruddy cheeks, golden curls, and happy innocent smiles of the child, with, as yet, no understanding of the life of degradation enforced upon her.

The man, Herman, and his wife, were arrested a few days ago in Bridgenorth by Constable Cullen, upon a charge of vagrancy, and were placed at once in the county jail. Upon the day of their arrival in Bridgenorth a quarrel appears to have disturbed the calmness and serenity of their alleged marital relations. Hattie, who represents the female section of the alleged matrimonial merger, it appears has the habit of taking sudden and frequent departures from the side of her liege lord, in fact, as the latter explained to the court this morning, "This running away was born in her; it's a birth mark on her." Giving her due credit, in an after thought, he explained, that he "didn't think she ran to be mean."

Their advent into the dizzy whirl of metropolitan life in Bridgenorth was peculiar. Hattie, it apears, was at the time, upon one of her periodical flights, and had tramped, and "chanced it," as she explained, from the shores of Rice Lake, her husband the while being in pursuit. The woman, evidently not wishing to sever all means of communication with her pursuing husband, scattered along her trail a "blaze," in the way of definite information, by means of which Herman was enabled to follow. "I kept a-goin'," he said, "until I ketched up with her." At this exciting juncture his spouse had sought refuge and, incidentally, something to allay the fangs of hunger, in the house of a resident of the village. An angry and heated debate ensued in which their respective vices were freely canvassed.

Upon enquiry by the court, Herman confessed to having accused the woman of dipping in more or less to the scarlet life, though, he admitted, that he "didn't know that he ever ketched her. It looks doobus sometimes though, when she goes away." The magisterate gently insinuated his grave doubts of the actual solemnization of the nuptial ceremony, upon which the stories of the two were widely convergent, one being that it had taken place in Shannonville some fourteen years since, while the other affirmed that their period of compound bliss was but of two years' duration. "You look to me," continued the court, "like two professional tramps."

"I will try to get a job with the Dickson Co., and if I can't I will go to Belleville, if you will give me a chance," quoth the husband. The magistrate was not particularly impressed with the Belleville proposition, remarking that if he could see just how he was going to reach Belleville he might be induced to let him go. "How much money have you?" "Thirteen or fourteen cents," replied the paterfamilias, as he furtively juggled with this colossal fortune in his pocket.

"But what is to become of the woman?"

"She's a good big woman," replied he of the unlucky thirteen cents, as he surveyed her admiringly, "and ought to be able to earn as much as anyone."

The main question at issue,—the issue of this problematical marriage the disposition of the child, still remained undecided. It was a pathetic sight, as the bright, rosy-cheeked little one, smiling and unconscious of the significance of the circumstances, wiped the tears from the face of the alleged father, or caressed him, fondly stroking the straggling black hairs which represented a chin whisker. The quick, nervous fetch of the little form and the furtive scratch of the head all told their tale. The woman, clad in a gown torn and ragged, which might have served for protection from mosquitoes, sat with expressionless eyes transfixed, and with countenance immobile, through the whole. The picture was a sad one indeed.

The magistrate, after some consideration, and the administration of much sound, practical advice, decided to enlarge the case for one week to allow Herman and his wife an opportunity to secure a means of subsistence, and the child will, in the meantime, be placed in the Shelter.

Ministerial Association And License Reduction

This morning a special meeting of the Ministerial Association was held in the Y.M.C.A. parlours, when there were present, Rev. J. C. Davidson, in the chair; Rev. F. J. Scott, Rev. Dr. Torrance, Rev. J. G. Potter, Rev. A. H. Brace, Rev. J. G. Lewis, Rev. Dr. Crothers and Rev. W. J. Jolliffe.

The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the question of the proposed reduction of the number of liquor licenses in the city. This matter was given special consideration by the members of the Association and after a thoughtful discussion the line of definite action still remains under consideration, the Association deeming it advisable to take no definite action at the present time.

Contracts For Snow Ploughing Were Awarded

One Extra District Arranged for This Year—Cost of Which Will be $162 in Excess of Last Year--Contractors Will be Made Clear the Walks Clean This Year—The Successful Tenderers—Work Must be Well Done.

PROPOSAL TO MAKE CLEANING COMPULSORY

The Board of Works held a lengthy session last night, when a number of important matters were discussed, among theem being that of the snow-ploughing on the sidewalks.

Those present were Ald. Adams, chairman; Mayor Best, Ald. Batten, Hicks, Tovey, Johnston and Hall.

The tenders for snow-ploughing were opened, and the contracts awarded. This year one new district was formed, and the districts more evenly divided, as far as length of walk to be cleaned, is concerned.

The cost of cleaning the walks this year, according to the accepted tenders, will be $162 more than last year.

Considerable discussion took place over the matter of snow-ploughing a general feeling of dissatisfaction being evidenced at the results which had been achieved in former years, and a suggestion was made that this year a bylaw should be passed making it compulsory upon all to clean the walks in front of their property. No action was taken along this line, however.

The tenders submitted were as follows:—

On behalf of Knox church Mr. W. G. Ferguson asked for permission to connect with the Park street sewer from the church with a drain from the cellar. The request was granted on condition that the cost of connection be paid, and that 3 1-4 cents frontage for 60 feet be paid for thirty years.

Mr. J. Z. Rogers was given permission to make sewer connection with the outfall sewer in the fifth ward, at the west side of his property on Hunter street.

Ald. Scott applied for permission to connect his warehouse with the outfall sewer, which was granted; petitioner to pay $25 for the use of the same, and to pay the cost of the connection.

It was decided to pay H. Evans, street commissioner, at the rate of $3.25 per day, while he was engaged at the work on bridges and surface drains up to Nov. 2nd

Torpid Liver Cause of Fevers

The Surest Way to Prevent Disease is to Keep the Liver Active with

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Too frequently an external cause for fever is looked for, when the real source of trouble is from within the body itself.

To begin with the liver becomes torpid, sluggish and inactive, and poisonous bile in left in the blood to corrupt the whole system. The result is the overworking of the kidneys and the clogging up of the organs of excretion.

Food which should be digested is left to ferment and decay in the intestines, and inflammations and fevers are set up.

In such a condition the body is a regular hotbed of disease and is most susceptible to any ailment of an infectious or contagious nature.

The best insurance against disease is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to keep the liver active. This great medicine has a direct and specific action on the liver, and is wonderfully prompt and effective in awakening and invigorating this important filtering organ.

A healthy liver means pure blood, good digestion and the proper working of the bowels. A healthy liver ensures the onward passage of the food through the intestines and excretory organs, and so removes all chance of poisonous waste matter remaining in the body to produce pain, suffering and disease.

Mrs. R. C. Webster, Glenarm, Victoria, Co., Ont., writes: —"I gladly state my experience with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in order that others may profit by it. About a year ago I was almost entirely used up with severe pains in my back and side the result no doubt of deranged liver and kidneys. Having tried several remedies which did not seem to do much good and hearing Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills highly recommended I sent for several boxes and can freely state that they did me a world of good. As I feel no need of further treatment, the cure seems to be thorough."

POST CARD CORRESPONDENCE.

In this column will be published communications upon post cards only. It will remain open for the use of readers, who are invited to contribute suggestions. Inquiries or replies. Anything of a scurrilous personal nature will be prohibited.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I noticed in Saturday's issue, a rather far-fetched criticism of a cigar store picture. Apropos is the following story: — Lord Byron, with a party of ladies was passing through the gallery of statuary, where was the celebrated nude statue of "The Dying Gladiator". One of the two ladies in front on seeing this masterpiece of sculpture, exclaimed, "What an indelicate statue!" Lord Byron said gently to the lady with him, "The indelicacy's in the remark, not in the statute."

Yours truly,
ANTI-HUMBUG.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I would like, through the columns of your valuable paper, to call the attention of the authorities to the way that a number of young men are in the habit of congregating almost every Sunday afternoon on the corner of Mark and Albert streets. While on my way to Sunday School on Sunday 19th, there was about one dozen of these young fellows on the sidewalk and a lady and little boy wanted to turn on the sidewalk to go down Park street and they did not attempt to make room and, of course, they had to take the road. Now I think it is time that people had a little protection given them. I think the police ought to visit this vicinity and disperse those that obstruct the sidewalk.

I remain,

Yours truly,
FOOT PASSENGER.

P S.—If you speak to them they only give impudence.

Editor Post Card Column:

Sir,—Will you kindly allow me a few lines of your valuable space, to refer to "Morality's" wholesale condemnation under the heading, "A Suggestive Picture", in your issue of Saturday, of a beautiful picture exhibited in a respectable barber and tobacconist's window. I for one certainly consider the words "suggestive" a misnomer, the picture being a reproduction of one of Ange's most beautiful studies.

Although many of Ange's pictures have been reproduced and given as premiums by cigar and other manufacturers, he is recognized as the foremost colour artist, making a specialty of feminine heads and busts in America to-day. None of his pictures are suggestive to an ordinarily pure mind; but on the contrary appeals to all lovers of the beautiful in nature, of which the beauty of the human form is justly considered the highest type.

I venture to think that if "Morality" had spent as much time studying the art centres of the larger cities, where morals, "are taken into consideration" he would not associate the picture with the other portions of these cities to which he refers; on the whole, however, it seems to me that the motive of "Morality's" letter is shown by his special designation, "a certain non-union, etc." for pictures and statuary of a much greater degree of nudity are constantly on exhibition [illegible] Framery and other art stores "in our own fair city" without any cavil by "Morality".

New Departure At Park Street

A Platform Meeting Held Addressed by Laymen.

The new departure in conducting the Sunday evening services at Park street Baptist church as a platform meeting instead of the regular preaching service proved very popular and the results of the first of the services held Sunday were satisfactory. The church was crowded and the overflow occupied the school room.

The first address was given by Mr. G. Haddow, whose subject was "Human Depravity," contrasting the disease of leprosy in the body with the disease of sin in the soul. The only recognized cure was Divine interposition, the only sin pardoner is Jesus.

He took as his premises the leper falling down before Christ and the words, "Lord if Thou wilt Thou canst make me whole."

Mr. Richard Wilkinson gave the second address. His subject was "Trying and Trusting." The text chosen was 68h. 50, 10.—"Who is among you that feareth the Lord. That walketh in darkness and hath no light. Let him trust in the name of the Lord and stay himself upon his God." Mr. Ed. Rowe, of South Devon, England, gave the third address on "The Positive side of Religion," laying emphasis on the statement of John III. "He that believeth on the Son hath life."

The pastor closed with a tender appeal for all to accept it and confess the Lord Jesus and many responded. There was a full choir led by the cornet and the bass violin assisted by the large and and instrument in the hands of Mr. Robt. Wright.

This kind of service will surely be repeated in the near future.

You have No Reason for Not Using Zutoo

Some people think that all headache cures are alike—that they all undermine the health, even if not perceived at the time of taking them.

Well, we'll admit that the drug cures do this, but that is no reason why you should not take Zutoo.

Zutpo is a harmless vegetable remedy. One ingredient is soda—just old-fashioned soda that our grandmothers used to take to settle the stomach, when they had sick headache. And there is nothing better.

The principal ingredient—the one that stops the headache, is a vegetable ingredient, imported for us from Japan. It wont hurt you any more than will the soda.

There is absolutely no reason why you should not use Zutoo.

If you suffer from headache there is every reason why you should.

Taken in time, two tablets will ward off a headache. Taken later, they will stop it in twenty minutes, and leave you feeling good every time.

If you are using a drug remedy, why not discard it?

Zutoo will cure just as quickly and will save you the penalty, that all must sometime pay, who take the drugs which these cures contain.

If you will give Zutoo one trial, you will never take any other headache remedy again.

Prospects For Brock St. Rink Are Very Bright

First Meeting of the Season of the Directors Held Last Night —Improvements to the Rink Were Decided On—Floor to be Levelled, Making Early Ice a Possibility—Many Applications for Hockey Practice Hours.

INTERESTS OF SKATERS WILL BE PROTECTED

The first meeting of the directors of the Peterborough Hockey Club Limited, for the season was held last night in the office of Mr. W. H. Hill, vice-president, when plans for the coming season were discussed. The prospects for a successful season are said to be bright. The popularity which the rink attained last season has influenced the directors to adopt measures which will make it even more popular this year, and one of the things which will be done first is to have the floor surface of the rink levelled in order that it will be possible to make ice at the earliest possible moment after the cold weather arrives. Other improvements are under contemplation, and will be announced, it is said, in the course of a short time.

The directors never had as many applications from hockey organizations asking for practice and playing hours, and, judging by present appearances, the number of hockey clubs in the city this year will be considerably in excess of that of any preceding year.

It is probable that there will be little or no change in the personnel of the rink staff this season, that of last year having given good satisfaction to the public.

The price of season tickets this year will be the same as in the past, and they will be placed on sale in the course of a short time.

Everything now, according to the directors, points to a most prosperous season for the Brock street rink, both from the standpoint of skating and hockey. If the present cold weather continues there will be skating much earlier than last year, and for those who enjoy hockey games there will be plenty of this sport provided. The senior team will be one which, according to present indications, will be able to put up some fast exhibitions, and there are a number of junior teams in the city, guild and other leagues as well as the bankers' team which will put some fast aggregations on the ice.

Taken altogether, the probabilities are that those who are patrons of this rink this season will receive even more enjoyment than they have had in the past, the determination of the directors being to give their patrons the very best of service, and, judging by the results which have attended their efforts in this direction in the past, their expectations for this season will be fully realized.

Chief's Body Is Not Recovered

Mr. Alf. George, undertaker, Port Hope, and Mr. Bond of Toronto, a brother of the late Chief Bond, of Port Hope, were in Lindsay yesterday. They report that the most persistent search has failed to locate the body of the Chief, and that, as a last resort, they have engaged the services of Mr. Deintmeil, of the Burnt River quarries, who accompanied them north to try the power of dynamite in raising the body. They will explode some thirty pounds, and is unsuccessful further search will have to be deferred till spring, owing to the formation of ice. — Post.

Thought He Was Sent For

Strange Experience of a Loca Railway Man.

The other day a well-known railway man received a terrible fright in a local hotel bar. He had just put himself outside of what he called a "short" Scotch, when he turned around and, lo, some quivering, shaking creature of frightful mien was standing before him convulsively clutching at the air for imaginary supports, nervously going through all the fantastic movements of an Arabian can-can dancer, or a whirling Dervish. The quavering railway man gave a gasp of terror and let his glass drop with a bang upon the bar.

"What's the matter with you?" said the bartender.

"Why, wh—y—y—y I thought it was the devil," he exclaimed.

At this a boisterous laugh rent the air, and the frightened one slinkingly made his way to the shoe-shiner's chair.

The nervous wreck, for it was none other than a man in the "blues," apparently unconscious of the alarm at first, and then the merriment afterward that he had caused, stepped up and asked for a "Collins." And a genial traveller, still shaking like a jar of jelly on a freight train, threw down a half a dollar and implored the reluctant bartender to give the "imp" the best in the house.

"He may get over it, but he'll never be the same," said a bystander, referring to the railway man.

Chas. Scriver Got "Ginned Up"

"Chas. Scriver, you are charged with being found drunk in a public place. Are you guilty of not guilty?"

"Guilty," said the accused.

"Have you the money to pay your fine?"

"Not now, but I'll have it at the end of the week."

"Two dollars, to be paid in ten days, or ten days in jail," was the judgment of the court.

Scriver seemed to enjoy his situation very much. He went into the prisoners' box with a benignant smile upon his countenance and left the court room as affableas an American candidate for political honours.

A man, McDonald by name, next stood up to take his medicine if he needed it.

"Mac" has been taking a good deal of medicine lately, but a physical culture treatment would certainly have been much better in his case. The charge against him was one of vagrancy. He pleaded guilty and was given thirty days in the big stone building on the hill. He will be given a chance to try the physical culture cure there.

A Street Car Jumped Track

Car No. 16, on the Street Railway met with a slight mishap this morning, when she jumped the track at the curve near the southern end of the line. The car had a narrow escape from falling over the embankment, but fortunately it was brought to a standstill before any particular damage was done. The wrecking crew was soon on the spot and the car was replaced.

An "Inquirer" Is Answered

Conditions of the Prize Story Competition Are Given.

Peterborough Nov. 18.

Dear Sir,—Will you kindly publish particulars and conditions of your prize story contest in your paper on Monday or Tuesday evening and oblige,

"INQUIRER."

In answer to the above the writer is informed that the particulars of this contest were given in the issue of this paper in which the offer to donate the prizes was made. Briefly stated, however, this paper chronicled Hon. Mr. Stratton's offer to give three prizes to the students in the Collegiate Institute, who wrote the the best stories, such stories to be founded on some historical fact in connection with the County of Peterborough. These stories were to be from 1,000 to 2,000 words in length, and had to be submitted not later than Nov. 15th. The efforts of the youthful authors are to be published in the Examiner, two each week until they have all been published, when the judges appointed by the Examiner, their names to be announced this week, will award the prizes.

This offer is made to encourage and develop the literary talent of the pupils in the Institute, and the response which has met the offer has been very gratifying to the donor of the prizes. The next story will be published to-morrow.

The Wornout Nerves, The Weak Heart, The Tired Brain, The Wasted Strength.

What a multitude of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case. From early morn until late at night they have been on the go, year in and year out, attending to the daily household duties, looking after the wants of her children and spending the rest of her time attending to social and church work. Is it any wonder then that sooner or later there comes a general collapse? The action of the heart becomes weak and palpitating, the nerves become unstrung, the brain feels in a whirl half the time and the usual force of vitality is lacking.

It is at this time a woman should look after herself. If she does not, serious female disorders may set in and often cause weary months and years of helplessness and miserable suffering. What she wants is something to build up her system. For this purpose there is nothing to equal

They are the woman's friend in every sense of the word.

They will strengthen the weak heart, tone up the shaky, starved nerves, make the brain clear, and restore the lost vitality.

Mrs. George Lohnes, Stanley Section, N.S., writes: "I was greatly troubled with weak and dizzy spells and was so run down I could not attend to my household duties. I bought two boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after taking them I found that my trouble had all passed away. I am now strong and healthy again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25. If your dealer does not handle them, send direct to The Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Robt. J. Baker Passed Away In Toronto

Well Known Resident of This City Died in St. Michael's Hospital Deceased Was in Toronto to Undergo Operation Had Been Ill for Twenty Weeks--Was Highly Respected Resident—The Funeral.

SAD CIRCUMSTANCES OF HIS DEATH

Robert J. Baker, after an illness of twenty weeks, passed away yesterday morning at four o'clock, at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. His death was due to an abscess on the brain. Although the late Mr. Baker had been ill for the length of time stated above, he had only been confined to the hospital for a little over a month prior to his demise.

The father of the deceased requests the Examiner, to express his sincere thanks for the kind and skilful manner in which his late son was treated by the Sisters in charge, and the entire staff, and Dr. Bingham, the specialist in charge, as well. Everything in the power of medical skill was done to save his life, but the case was hopeless, and the most scientific and careful treatment proved of no avail.

The late Mr. Baker entered the hospital six weeks ago next Monday, and an operation was performed the following Thursday. The patient rallied sufficiently to be able to be removed to the residence of his sister, Mrs. Charles James. Though he was weak after the operation, which apparently was successful, strong hopes for his recovery were entertained. The trouble returned in a short time, however, and the attending physician found it again necessary to operate, the operation being performed at the home of his sister. From this time till the day of his death he seemed to grow worse and last Tuesday was again taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where he was to have undergone another operation on the afternoon of the day of his death.

The late Mr. Baker, who was a machinist by trade, was born in East City, near Ashburnham, thirty-one years ago. He was a former employee of the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, and the Canadian General Electric Company; he was also employed by a firm in Toronto this year for about two months, but was forced to give up his employment on account of the disease to which he finally succumbed.

His father, Mr. Robert Baker, a young wife, and two brothers and two sisters, George and Samuel H., both of Peterborough; and Mrs. John Biggs of Peterborough, and Mrs. C. B. James, of Toronto, are left to mourn his irreparable loss. The late Mr. Baker was pre-deceased by his mother thirteen years ago.

At the time of his death his father and sister, Mrs. Chas. B. James, Mr. W. D. Stonehouse a Toronto merchant, and the physicians and nurse, were at his bedside.

Many beautiful wreaths are being sent to the residence of the deceased, showing the popularity and high esteem in which he was held during his life time.

The funeral will take place from the family residence on Thursday, the 23rd of November, at 3 o'clock, and proceed to the Little Lake cemetery, where the remains will be interred.

The sympathy of the entire community is tendered the bereaved family in the time of their grievous trouble.

The bride was dressed in a suit of brown lady's cloth with hat to match, and Miss Nora Sinderbrook, of Port Hope, who was also attired in brown, acted as bridesmaid and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations. Mr. Albert Embleu, of Campbellford, acted as best man. After the nuptial knot was tied a number of the most intimate friends of the bride and groom partook of a sumptuous supper, after which the happy couple left for Port Hope and other points south amid showers of rice and congratulations.

An Interesting Lecture At The T.A.S. Hall

Rev. Father Galvin Spoke on "The Monasteries of the Middle Ages"--The Regular Fortnightly Meeting of Literary Society--The Monks and Their Mode of Life Described--A Musical Programme Rendered --Pleasant Evening Spent.

A DEFENCE OF THE MONKS WAS MADE

St Peter's T.A.S. Literary Society held its regular semi-monthly entertainment last night, and it proved one of the most successful of the season. There was a large attendance and the evening was a most enjoyable one, the programme being composed of several musical numbers and an interesting lecture by Rev. Father Galvin on the monasteries of the middle ages. Rev. Father McColl made a most acceptable chairman.

The programme opened with an instrumental duet by the Misses Dorris and Trombley, rendered in clever fashion by the young performers. Mr. Frank Pope sang in excellent voice, "Where the Silvery Colorado Wends its Way."

Rev. Father Galvin was then called upon to give his lecture, which was most interesting and instructive. In beginning he referred to the condition existing in the middle ages. It was the age of chivalry, of heroism and of valour. Here Rev. Father Galvin quoted the example of Pope Leo I., who had turned back Attila, King of the Huns, from Rome, and Thomas a Beckett, who, when the servants of Henry II., asked "Where is the traitor Becket," replied "Here I am, but I am no traitor, but a priest of God." Fiction also portrays the men of the middle ages, as for example Roderick Dhu in the "Lady of the Lake," of whom it is said:—"Neither for clan or kindred cause Would he depart from honour's laws." Roderick Dhu is a true type of the man of the middle ages.

It was a divine precept to follow poverty, to be obedient and to live a life of chastity. In the earliest centuries we find hermits retiring to the desert, there to lead a life of self-denial. As their numbers increased, they began to form communities, where still they could live the life of self-sacrifice they desired. Among the earliest examples were St. Paul and St. Anthony in the third century. Women also retired to the desert and afterwards united in communities.

The speaker commented on the rapid growth of these monasteries. In the time of St. Basil, the patron of the monks of the east, as St. Benedict was of the monks of the west, there were 50,000 monks, while not long before there were only 5,000. St. Basil was born in the year 480 and lived a long and useful life, during which he founded the renowned abbey in Cluny.

The benefits derived from Monasteries was next dealt with by Rev. Father Galvin. He showed that they were instrumental in promoting manly virtues. In the monasteries the monks overcame the weaknesses of human nature. They were of great assistance to the church. While he knew that the church could exist without monasteries, the fact remains that it never did exist without monasteries.

Rev. Father Galvin spoke of the moral, physical and intellectual strength of the monks, and of the connection between monasteries and the church. He said that indeed been the case that when the monasteries were most flourishing, the church was also most flourishing. In the eighteenth century when the monasteries had many of them been suppressed, the enemies of the church had said that it was no more. Although the church could exist without monasteries, they have shown themselves to be of great benefit.

One of the chief occupations of the monasteries was prayer, and it was one of the first duties of the monks. Even pagans have recognized the necessity of prayer. It was the chief weapon of the monks.

Rev. Father Galvin spoke of the almsgiving of the monks, and said that if the monasteries were in existence in England to-day there would be not so much groaning heard. The monks also encouraged literature. They did not live an idle life. Some tilled the land and others lived a life of study. The schools, colleges and universities established by the monks were referred to showing that at Padua there were 13,000 students, while at Oxford in the reign of Henry II., there were 30,000 students, and at Paris 25,000. These universities had produced many noble men.

Rev. Father Galvin next discussed the work done by the monks in tilling the soil. They selected, for the most part, barren soil, which, by their labours they made fruitful. They often leased their lands to tenants, and were gentle landlords. The speaker remarked that if they were oppressors of the poor you would think that these people would rejoice at their suppression, but this had not been the case. The people looked upon them as friends, and benefactors.

The question was often asked, were they happy in leading such a life? He thought that they were and as a proof, said that after the suppression of the monasteries the Pope had given permission to the inmates to live as other people, but not one in a thousand had availed themselves of the opportunity.

Rev. Father Galvin brought his lecture to a close by defending the monks against certain charges made against them. As to the charge that they were indolent and useless to the world it was needless to answer that. Another charge against them was that they were rich. The speaker remarked that if that were a sufficient cause for their suppression, the great, rich men of the present day should be made to disgorge their riches, which were in some cases, gained by improper means.

At the conclusion of the lecture a hearty vote of thanks, moved by Ald. Begley and seconded by Rev. Father Kelly was tendered to Rev. Father Galvin. Rev. Father McColl and Rev. Dr. O'Brien, also made appreciative references to Rev. Father Galvin's lecture.

Miss May Callaghan sang a solo very sweetly and in fine voice, and was forced to respond to an encore, after which a well rendered piano duet by Misses Dorris and Trombley concluded the programme.

The next meeting of the society will be held two weeks from last night, and will be in aid of the T.A.S. Band.

City Council to Send Deputation To The Capital

To Interview the Minister of Railways and Canals on Proposition to Build Wharves on Otonabee—"Sentry's" Letter Had Desired Effect--Estimated Cost is $50,000—Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., Addressed the Council.

A COMPLETE SYSTEM OF WHARFAGE PLANNED

Acting on the advice of "Sentry," whose strong letter appeared in these columns a few days ago the council will in all probability take action in reference to inducing the Government to co-operate with the city in erecting docks along the water front of the Otonabee River from Hunter street to the C.P.R. bridge. At the meeting of the Board of Works last night it was decided to recommend to the council that a deputation be sent to Ottawa to submit the proposal to the Minister of Railways and Canals.

Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., was present at the meeting of the Board of Works and discussed with the members the objects and probabilities of the dredging now going on in the Otonabee River between the C.P.R. and Hunter street bridges. Mr. Hall produced a blue print showing the plan of the proposed channel. The channel itself is to be 117 feet wide between the two bridges, and above the Hunter street bridge the whole river bed is to be dreged for a turning basin. The work that is being done now is to dredge a 25 foot channel to furnish a foundation for a retaining pier. This is what is termed the first cut and will extend from Hunter street to King street. The present work is being carried on by the Public Works Department.

Mr. Hall's idea, and his suggestion to the Committee was to appoint a strong deputation to go with him to Ottawa and interview Hon. Mr. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals in reference to that department taking up the other end of the work. He thought it would be better to go to the department of Railways and Canals, because Mr. Emmerson had recently visited Peterborough and was acquainted with the location of the land and knew the necessity of these piers, and also that greater encouragement would be received from this department than from the Department of Public Works on account of the latter constructing the channel.

What Mr. Hall and the Council are after is a wharf extending from Hunter street through to King street. This wharf to have a timber foundation with a concrete top. It will serve two purposes, viz., a retaining wall to prevent the bankings sliding or washing into the channel and also as a wharf for the city. When the retaining wall is built all the dreggings from the channel will be dumped behind it to level up the banks. It is proposed that the Government build and retain the wharf, and in exchange for this it is suggested that the city agree to vest its property on the front in the Government.

The idea of the Aldermen for a wharf for the city is at King street although the city would have access to the dock from King street, Charlotte street, Simcoe street and Hunter street.

Mr. Hall expressed himself as confident that the proposal would go through, and he holds out every encouragement to the city. When asked what he thought the work would cost he said that Mr. R. B. Rogers had made a rough estimate to cover the whole thing at probably $50,000. The wall alone, he said, would cost in the neighbourhood of $15,000.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson will return from his western trip on Nov. 30th, and Mr. Hall said that it would be advisable to write at once and get an early date for an interview with the honourable minister. In preparation for that interview he suggested that the committee secure all the information available as to the estimated cost, etc., and be able to present a strong case.

Mr. Hall's suggestion with reference to a deputation was acted on and the following committee will be recommended to the council as members of the deputation: Mayor Beat, Ald. Adams, chairman of the Board of Works; Ald. Hicks and Ald. Hall and Mr. T. A. S. Hay, the City Engineer.

It was also decided to request Hon. Geo. A. Cox to accompany the deputation to Ottawa, and to write the Board of Trade to select three members to go with the Committee from the Council.

Rev. Dr. Symonds Gave

EXCELLENT ADDRESS

Last Night at Y.M.C.A. Hall

"Some Leading Ideas of Lord Beaconsfield's Novels," Was the Subject Treated With Scholarly Finish and a Broad, Comprehensive Grasp—Large Audience in Attendance—Chair Was Occupied by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun.

Broad and comprehensive in its scope and scholarly in its treatment, the address delivered last night at the Y.M.C.A. hall by Rev. Dr. Symonds upon "Some Leading Ideas in Lord Beaconsfield's Novels" was a thoroughly enjoyable and instructive intellectual treat. The hall was comfortably filled by an audience representative of the circles of highest culture and finest literary discernment in the city.

In dealing with the subject the speaker did not, as might have, perhaps, been expected by some, treat at any length upon the political aspect of the life of the great statesman or novelist, or of his attitude with regard to journalism, inasmuch as they did not bear direct relation to the view of the address, and its main purpose. Reflecting as they did the views of the author with regard to the social, political and religious conditions of his age, any discussion of his literary productions could scarcely fail to omit, or to comprehend on a large measure his personal relationship with contemporary events. The speaker, in dealing with the subject thus presented, rendered more complex as it was by the enforced brevity, revealed a knowledge extensive and profound.

The multiform and many-sided knowledge, the amplitude of grasp, the logical power, and above all the fine literary discrimination, which are well remembered of Dr. Symonds since the time of his residence in this city, were all brought to bear upon the subject. The result was an address of very abundant variety in its interest, whether regarded from the viewpoint of the student of political, social, or religious conditions, or of the lover of literature.

The chair was occupied by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, who, instead of an unnecessary introduction to the audience, briefly addressed to the speaker of the evening, a few words of cordial welcome.

Rev. Dr. Symonds prefaced his address with a few brief remarks, explanatory of the nature and scope of the subject which he proposed to treat. Dealing in his introductory remarks in a few broad truths and generalities concerning the novels of the Earl of Beaconsfield, the speaker passed on to an analysis of his character, which, instead of being that of a "superb Hebrew conjurer," as he was termed by Carlyle, was in most respects a simple one. His aims and objects were much less tortuous than those of Gladstone and other contemporaries, and it was, in the speaker's opinion, no mark of inconsistency that he cared little by what party affiliation he secured power. He may be said to have created a new type of Conservatism. The man fully reveals himself in his public thoughts.

It is in Beaconsfield's early works that we find his real thoughts upon society, religion and politics. All people have high ideals at some period in their lives, and these in many cases disappear before the stress of circumstances, and for other reasons. By understanding these facts we may understand something of the inner life of Beaconsfield. The latter, the speaker remarked, he did not present as a heaven-born hero. He did not possess the material of which martyrs are made. The extreme difficulties which beset his path were pointed out by the speaker. These should be given due consideration in forming an estimate of the man.

The three great novels of Beaconsfield, Coningsby, Sybil, and Tancred, written respectively in 1844, 1845 and 1847, were then taken up by the speaker, the trio forming, to a large extent, the basis of his succeeding remarks. The figures in the works of the author do not represent imaginary men, he remarked, though in this work we discern much of his prophetic powers. The main figures are portrayed in the period of youth, in which the contrasts of life are most accentuated. What the speaker termed a "divine discontent" was apparent in their characters, along with which goes a noble ambition. In Lord Beaconsfield this was never entirely quenched, though it was degraded from its high position.

Beaconsfield's profound disgust with the age in which he lived—the "Tapers" and the "Tadpoles" of perverted Toryism was pointed out by the speaker. In Coningsby spoke the real Beaconsfield. From the latter's early studies we gather that he took a broad and comprehensive view of the conditions of the age, and throughout his career he was never a radical, and had no desire to root up the established institutions of the land. In the preface to Lothair his aims and ideals are set forth.

"Sybil, or the Two Nations," which in the speaker's opinion was his most powerful work, presents a series of violent contrasts. The conditions of which it treats were by no means imaginative, the author claiming that he had seen with his own eyes actual conditions similar to those depicted. The book belongs to the period of the first Chartist disturbances, which arose from the disturbing conditions of 1837, when many questions of immense significance formed the subject of widespread public discussion.

Had Beaconsfield been a mere Whig or a mere Tory he could never have written Sybil. He found in England not only dissatisfaction and discontent, but infanticide and kindred crimes, of which he had the necessary courage to draw a lurid picture. In Coningsby, in order to draw attention to the conditions which existed, he, like a true seer, appealed to the rising generation. The gulf between the aristocracy and the people was, in his opinion, and he allegorically set forth in this work, not too wide to be bridged. In the union of Egremont and Sybil we perceive the allegory of the union of the "Two Nations,"—the rich and the poor.

"Tancred" was next discussed by the speaker. This work, it was pointed out, was written about the time when modern thought first appeared upon the horizon, and though Darwin had not yet come, the first dawnings of the doctrines of evolution had made their appearance. In this work, it was pointed out, that as in all Beaconsfield's works, allowance must be made for the Jewish nativity of the author, which, to a large extent, accounts for what might otherwise be classed as a somewhat high-coloured style.

Beaconsfield was a genuine idealist, who considered necessary analyses of the social, political and religious problems of the day. Why did they fail? asked the speaker. Because the author never succeeded in impressing the world of the sincerity of his purpose. He had not the steadfastness of purpose of the true martyr to abandon the hope of fame and dread through the rugged and thorny path of the reformer. We may read him with admiration and credit, but never regard him as a hero. He failed to impress his religious views because he lacked the spirit of the martyr or the saint, though he believed in the necessity of religion. His failure in a political sense was also due to reasons akin to these.

Was Lord Beaconsfield a great man? was the question with which the lecturer dealt in the concluding portion of his address. The opinion of his biographer, Froude, who, in his work upon Beaconsfield, discussed the question with the keen analytical insight of a discriminating mind, conversant with the conditions of the age. "Those who are great men," he remarked, "are those who have done something good and permanent for humanity. . . . . We measure their greatness by what they have achieved." One universal condition of true greatness is that a man has forgotten himself in the achievements of his life. In this sense Lord Beaconsfield could not be called great, either as a politician or as a man of letters. He had great opportunities, but was lacking in the quality of courageous self-sacrifice. Though he was not a great man in the highest sense of the world, he nevertheless was a man of high principles and possessing many of the highest traits of character. That he harboured no malice, was pointed out by the speaker, who cited in illustration of the point many instances of the kindliness and generosity which characterized his actions toward many to whom he had throughout his life been in violent opposition. Beaconsfield should be remembered for many reasons, though he could not be considered a hero. In the spirit of his three great books he saw the sordidness and meanness of the social conditions of his age, and spoke as if endowed with a prophetic vision.

A vote of thanks to Rev. Dr. Symonds was moved by Mr. K. Eardley Wilmot, seconded by Mr. C. Fessenden, both making a brief and appreciative reference of the excellence of the address and the pleasure with which they had listened to it.

NO ACCIDENTS IN NATURE

Every Calamity, No Matter How Great, Has a Definite Beginning.

There are no accidents in nature. The avalanche that without a moment's warning rushes headlong down the mountain side is not an accident.

For years previous tiny atoms have been crystalizing and adding their minute weight to the mass which left its base when the accumulation reached a certain point.

Neither is baldness an accident. The infinitesmally small germ which is the cause of Dandruff and Baldness, feeds silently and long before the result is seen.

The small germs which thrive on the scalp and which are the cause of Baldness and Dandruff cannot exist, however, when Newbro's Herpicide is applied.

Many O.H.A. Men Signed With Canadian Soo

The Hockey Team to Represent That City This Year Has Been Chosen—Regan, of Victoria Harbour, Plays Goal—Other Amateurs Who This Year Join Professionals—The Team Promises to be Strong—High Prices Paid.

SPITTAL WILL CAPTAIN THE TEAM

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 21st.—The team that will represent the Canadian Soo in the international hockey league this season will line up about like this:—

Goal—Regan.
Point—Spittal (Captain).
Cover Point—Milne.
Rover—Hollingsworth.
Centre—Clifton.

The above is subject to slight change but as near as can be told now the positions will be filled as given. The team was completed yesterday afternoon when acceptances of terms were received from Spittal and Hollingsworth. In working to make up the team the management has been negotiating with a couple of other first-class defence players and should offers that have been made be accepted it will result in the above line-up being slightly changed. Ward and Decorie are the candidates for left wing. Both will be kept with the team and whichever does not play the position regularly will be spare forward.

D'Arcy Regan who will play goal was with the Victoria harbour team which won the intermediate championship of the Ontario Hockey association. As the intermediate champions are recognized as being of senior quality and Regan being one of the best men he should make a good guardian of the nets for the local team.

Spittal needs no introduction to Soolites. He played point with the Pittsburg team last season and his work in games here was such that he became one of the most popular of visiting players. As a substitute for Roy Brown he is about the best that could be procured and the club will benefit by his knowledge of the duties of captain. "Baldy," as he is known among the fraternity, has had much experience in handling teams on the ice. He will be made captain and should be able to give the team the best of coaching. He will come to town from Ottawa, where he spent the summer, at once. The local club has had to put up a high price for Spittal, but he is a good man and will doubtless prove worth his salary.

Milne comes from Arnprior where he played in the Ottawa Valley league. Everything that has been heard about his playing has been complimentary.

Hollingsworth is from the Prescott senior O.H.A. team. He is a six footer and is said to be very fast on his skates.

Clifton is one of last year's team. The hockey public is pleased to see him with the local sextet again this season as he is fast and fearless and a hard worker.

Kennedy, who is slated for right wing is a Pembroke man. He was with "Grindy" Forrester's team at Thessalon last year. He weighs 178 pounds. Those who recommended him to the local club say he is very fast and and an exceptionally clever wing man being able to play the board to perfection.

Edmund Decarie, who will try to beat Jack Ward out of the left wing position is from the "Nationals" of Montreal. Last winter he played with Hawkesbury in the Ottawa Valley league. Decarie is an all round athlete and holds medals for speed skating. He is a fellow who takes great care of himself and even now is in training to get into condition for the opening of the season. The management of the club is very much pleased with the way he is handling himself and feel that if they had a team filled with the enthusiasm he exhibits in his present preparations for the season's work the annexing of the league championship would not be a difficult matter. Besides being able to play left wing he can play rover or centre and it is just possible that he may be seen in one of those positions. Such will be determined when it is seen how the team shapes up on the ice.

HOCKEY

The Examiner has been requested not to publish any further communications religious or sporting, personally concerning any of the players of the Silkworms or of other teams in the northern professional leagues.

Galt will put an unusually strong team on the ice this winter, and it is apparent that a very strong one will be necessary if they contemplate making any showing in senior circles. With Pete Charlton on the defence, Berlin has been strengthened in a crucial point, and it will take three fast forwards to lose the former Marlborough star. Stratford, Preston, Berlin and Galt will form a very speedy district, the winner of which will make things interesting in senior O.H.A.—Galt Reformer.

RUGBY.

There was practically no wind at any stage of the game, so the ends did not favour either team. The Peterborough team took the north end. Soon after the kick off by Dundas, Nelson put in a run for nearly 30 yards. The ball was snapped back to Grafton, who punted from midfield to Peterborough ten yard line, when it was returned. Grafton caught, and sent it back into touch behind the goal line, thus making the first score of the day, 1 to 0.

The second score came shortly after. Nelson kicked sideways to Kelly, for a fifteen-yard gain. Then on the scrimmage he punted over the Peterborough line, and Mulhern was forced to rouge. Martin tackling. Score, 2 to 0.

After the kick off it looked as if Peterborough was waking up and was going to return the compliment, Kelly tried to catch a punt, but was crowded by the Peterborough wings, and the pigskin was taken back to centre by the referee. Ford was hurt in being tackled by Quackenbush, who accidentally hit him with his knee, and this delayed the game about five minutes. On the next down Peterborough punted to the Dundas line, and Kelly and Nelson both went after the ball, with the usual result that neither got it. It rolled behind the line and Brady picked it up and carried it out ten yards before he was downed. Peterborough lost ten yards by an offside, and securing possession of the ball, Shaw punted. Again it looked as though Peterborough would surely score, but Kelly caught it on the goal line and ran out two or three yards. Nelson punted, after the usual two bucks, and Quinn muffed. Before he could pick the ball up Martin dribbled it up the field, and shoved Quinn, who was after it, out of the way, falling on it. The gain was for 60 yards, and Dundas had possession on their opponent's 40-yard line. However, Peterborough was given the oval because Dundas was unable to make the ten yards by backing, and Shaw relieved by a kick. Nelson returned to the goal line, and it was again scrimmaged. Angus Martin was sent off for three minutes, but even to-day he has no idea what it was for. Exchanges followed and Dundas gained. Nelson punted over the Peterborough line, and Cameron tackled Mulhern for a rouge. Score, 3-0.

It was nothing but buck the line for some minutes following. Dundas usually making the ten yards. Quinn muffed Nelson's kick, and was downed. When the ball came into Dundas' possession, as it did shortly, Nelson booted it over Peterborough goal line, and Ford rouged. Score, 4-0.

That was the last score for Dundas; and Peterborough took a hand. Nelson attempted to pass to Kelly at Dundas' 35-yard line, and sent it away over his head, losing the oval to Peterborough. It was booted over, on the next down, and Brady rouged. Score, 4-1.

Ford was hurt and Grafton had to go off with him. Quackenbush going back to full, and playing quarter when necessary. He made a good run of about 40 yards. Kelly who was playing a strong game, was the first to be knocked out. He ran along the touch-line for 25 yards, when tackled. He came down so hard that he was out of business for some minutes, and when he got to his feet he staggered around like an overloaded man. Half time was called.

Play soon moved to Peterborough territory, when it was resumed. The Peterborough's being rather hard pressed for a time. Kelly and Craig were sent off for scrapping, and Smith was kicked in the face. Peterborough gained by trying the backing proposition, and advanced the ball into Dundas' territory. Shaw kicked to the Dundas line, but Kelly succeeded in getting out, though it seemed for a moment as if he had been tackled behind the line. A penalty touch, counting two points, was given for interference behind the line, and this made the score 4-3. Peterborough again pressed, and Shaw kicked a touch-in-goal, making it a tie, 4 to 4.

In regard to the intermediate championship the semi-final between Ottawa II., winners in the Quebec Union, and R.M.C., the college champions, will be played next Saturday in Brockville. If Ottawa wins the final game will be played in Brockville on December 11. If R.M.C. and Dundas are in the finals the game will take place in Peterborough, and if R.M.C. and Peterborough are the contendors, at Brockville. This arrangement will hold good unless the teams agree otherwise.

BOXING AND WRESTLING.

The Woodstock Sentinel Review says:—"Grandpa Fitzsimmons is dodging Marvin Hart. Robert the Red always had a pretty good head on his shoulders. We don't hear anything more about the scrap one J. Sullivan had arranged with Fitz. They fought to let them get together, the winner to keep on telling what he can do, and the loser to be dragged off to the Home for Old Men."

The Sentinel Review Sporting man has another think coming to him. Instead of giving Fitzsimmons credit for displaying such marvellous vitality and for fighting like a Trojan at an advanced age, he sneeringly calls him "Grandpa". By saying that he is dodging Marvin Hart, he further insinuates that good old Fitz is "yellow". The only dodging that Fitz ever did was in the prize ring, and then he dodged a little too well for most of the world's best fighters. As to the Cornishman being yellow—well, the Sentinel Review man must have had a horrible nightmare. And he insinuates that Fitz is afraid to meet John L., the notorious old "booze-fighter". Now that's really a good joke. Away to the madhouse with this wild man of the west.

• • • •

Jack Madden, former lambam-weight champion of the world, and Jake A. Skidman, known as "Young Choynski" were arrested here charged with violating the anti-prize fighting laws of Texas.

These men were to give what they termed "Scenes in a Gymnasium," and and fought the first round when the police took the men into custody and locked them up this morning. They were admitted to bail on bond for their appearance in court later.

Under the statutes one found guilty of prize fighting may be sent to the penitentiary for not less than five years.

THE TURF.

TURF CLUB.

Mr. A. Rountree received a communication from Mr. H. Rice, proprietor of the Hotel Welland, Welland, Ont., asking him to arrange for stalls for the coming winter race meet. Mr. Rice will probably enter Flora Hunter, a fast mare well known in the west part of Ontario.

• • • •

The Hamilton Spectator thinks Dundas has a good chance of winning the round. Wonder if its sporting scribe was really a "spectator" at last Saturday's game.

• • • •

Local turfmen are making great preparations for the winter meet of the Eastern Circuit. Everyday trainers are to be seen exercising their horses, which are fast rounding into good condition. The track is covered with snow and racing cutters are the prevailing vehicles. This morning Mrs. Cooke was working out Jap. Expelled and Gradicator, while Mr. Martin Connor's trainer, Mr. John Neville was speeding Lady Gothard and Blumber. The local meet will be the greatest in the history of the Turf Club.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Winnipeg Tribune says:—James Bell, manager of the new Arena Rink, made an important announcement this morning, in that the new rink will be open for skating in two weeks' time. In size the new Arena will outstrip anything in the West. It is 116 x 221, and will be two and one-half stories in height. It will have a seating capacity of 7,000, with 2,000 general admission. The ten club rooms are in place, and will soon be completed. There are two baths and eleven hot and cold water basins. The ladies' and gentlemen's waiting rooms are 30 x 116. When completed the new venture will have cost in the neighborhood of $50,000.

A Kind Act by Rev. Langfeldt

A very kindly action on the part of the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, took place at Little Lake Cemetery yesterday afternoon. An Englishman who had died in the Nicholls Hospital was to be buried, and arrangements had been made to bury in the poor lot. The reverend gentleman expressed his opinion that it was hardly fitting that he should be buried there and offered to pay the difference in cost necessary to avoid having the remains interred in the poor lot.

This was, however, arranged by a friend. The reverend gentleman may feel assured that his kindly thoughtfulness will be appreciated by all Englishmen in Peterborough.

THROWING LIGHT ON THE SUBJECT OF Home Dyeing.

Home dyeing is a fascinating and money-saving work, when Diamond Dyes are used. Home colouring has an attraction for ladies in all ranks of society, and the wonderful results achieved by the Diamond Dyes for women, have made them the popular home dyes in all parts of the world.

One ten cent package of the Diamond Dyes will do the same work that a steam-dyeing establishment charges one dollar for.

All faded and dingy looking dresses, skirts, suits, blouse, jackets, ribbons, stockings, coats, vests and trousers, can be re-coloured at the home and made to look as good as new, at a cost of from ten to twenty cents, with the never-failing Diamond Dyes are used.

It is well to bear in mind that direct money saving can only be guaranteed when Diamond Dyes are used. Have a care that you do not buy the worthless imitations sold by some dealers. Refuse such deceptive dyes if you would avoid trouble and loss of money and temper. Ask for DIAMOND DYES, and refuse all others that may be offered to you.

The Red Rose Flavor and Strength

NO Ceylon tea nor Indian tea alone can have the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea, because neither variety in itself possesses all the qualities of strength, richness, delicacy, and fragrance. Each has its own peculiar qualities, but each has its weaknesses.

By combining the two in the Red Rose proportions, I produce a tea with the "rich fruity flavor" and strength of Red Rose Tea, a flavor and strength found in no brand of Ceylon alone.

INSURANCE INVESTIGATION.

Senator Domville Announces His Intention re Canada Business.

Montreal, Nov. 21.—Senator Domville yesterday morning announced here that at the next session of Parliament he would formally demand a thorough parliamentary investigation into Canadian insurance matters, and will make particular reference to the standing and security offered by American companies doing business in Canada.

Senator Domville states that he tried to bring this matter up at last session, but it was set aside through a hitch in the proceedings.

This time, however, he states that he is determined to force it through to a finish, as in view of the revelations in the States public opinion demands that the standing of insurance companies in Canada should be thoroughly sifted.

According to the North Bay Times, the interest of the C. P. R. connection is due to the rush of Manitoba wheat. No. 2 passenger has been known to take siding and allow six wheat drains to pass at one time.

Who would exchange the merry noise of children at play, with the childless home where the clock tick can be heard hour after hour in the dull silence? But there are a great many who would like to people the silent house with the children that fate has refused them. Fate is often in this case only another word for ignorance. Many a glad mother dates her happiness from the day she first began the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It often happens that with the cure of female weakness and the establishing of the delicate womanly organs in sound health, the way is opened for the joy of motherhood. "Favorite Prescription" is a specific for the chronic ailments peculiar to women. It cures them perfectly and permanently.

No other medicine can do for women so much as "Favorite Prescription." Do not therefore let any other medicine be palmed off on you as "just as good."

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium, cocaine or other narcotic. It is strictly a temperance medicine.

"I can truly say your medicine is a friend of mine," writes Mrs. Arthur Brax, of Amherstburg, Ontario, Canada. "I am mother of four children and suffered greatly at time of birth of first three. When three months along with the last one I began to think of trying some medicine to ease those terrible pains, and asked our doctor whether there was anything he could give me to lessen labor pains. He said there was nothing that could help me. I then thought I would write to Dr. Pierce. He advised me to take his 'Favorite Prescription.' I started to take it at fourth month. I was very weak, had heart trouble and would faint away two or three times a day. Our doctor could not help me and life was a drag. I would often say, oh, if I could only die in one of these spells; but I took five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and felt better every way. Got along well at the time of delivery. I had heard of pain-less childbirth, and I thought it must be a good medicine that would help those pains, but I know now for myself, and can not tell it plain enough. Your 'Favorite Prescription' is the best medicine as we mothers know. I advise my friends to try it. Baby is now four months old and is a strong healthy boy."

Acceptance Of A Throne From Norway

King Christian of Denmark Takes Norway For Grandson.

ADVISES KING AND QUEEN

Tendered by Deputation From Norwegian Parliament the Formalities Attendant to Historic Incident Occupied Only 20 Minutes—What the King Said In Reply—Commends New Ruler and Land to God.

Copenhagen, Nov. 21.—The throne of Norway was formally tendered to Prince Charles of Denmark yesterday by a deputation of members of the Norwegian Parliament, and was accepted by King Christian in behalf of his grandson. The whole function only lasted 20 minutes, but the scene was brilliant, as it was attended by all the princes and princesses and their suites, the diplomatic corps and the high court officials.

President Bernier in a brief speech invited Prince Charles to become King of Norway and King Christian with similar brevity accepted the offer. The old King was much affected as he blessed and embraced his grandchildren, King Haakon VII. and Queen Maud. The close of the ceremony was signalled by the firing of a royal salute.

An enormous crowd gathered in front of the palace and gave a rousing reception to the new King and Queen of Norway as they left the palace in a state chariot.

King Christian's Acceptance.

King Christian read the speech of acceptance which was as follows:

"It has pleased us to agree to the desire of the Norwegian people that we accept the ancient Crown of Norway for our dear grandson, Prince Charles. We cherish full confidence that the Norwegian people in common with him have a happy future in store for them. The young King does not come as a stranger to Norway, for he claims relationship to former Norwegian Kings. Nor will the Kingdom of Norway be strange for him, for everywhere in the land common recollections of the history of the kingdom and the history of his race will meet him. It is our hope that the ties which even now unite the young King to the old land and people may be more firmly knit by the co-operation of the King and people for the welfare of the land and its future, and it is our belief that thereby not only will the welfare of the Norwegian people be furthered, but also the welfare of their kinsmen. We pray the almighty God that this step may bring happiness and blessing to the whole north and unity, peace and concord may increase between the two nations. We are confident that our whole house and the Danish people share this wish.

"With this, I commend you to God, and beg you to convey our hearty greetings to the Norwegian people, which you here represent."

Friendly Advice.

Turning to the new King and Queen, King Christian said: "To you, my dear grandchildren, I address myself with the hope that God may lend you power and strength to serve your country and people with righteousness. In this way you will win for yourselves the love of your people and will feel yourselves Norwegians in your work for the happiness and future of your country.

"You, my dear grandson, have here served your fatherland and King with loyalty. Therefore, I am convinced that you will enter on your new responsible task with good intent. Fill worthily your place, and your father and mother, your whole race, the land of the Danish people, and I, your old King and grandfather, will all celebrate this solemn hour with warm feelings.

"Go with God, my dear grandchildren, from the land and race that bore you to the land and people which have called you and take the blessing with you of your old King for your race and your deeds now and forever. Herewith I commend you to God."

Deceased Was Related In Peterboro'

Late Ex-Ald. Scrim, of Ottawa, Was Cousin of Residents of This City—One of the Most Prominent Citizens of the Capital—One of Originators of Canadian Horticultural Association — Alderman For a Number of Years.

SHORT SKETCH OF HIS CAREER

The Ottawa Journal of Nov. 6th, had the following reference to the death of Ex-Ald. Chas. Scrim, who was related in this city. Deceased was a cousin of Misses Jennie and Katie Menzies, and Messrs. John, Daniel and William Menzies, all of this city. The Journal says:—

Ex-Ald. Chas. Scrim died this morning at his residence, 172 Argyle avenue, of pleurisy. Mr. Scrim was one of the best known citizens of Ottawa and was most popular with all. He was the pioneer florist of Ottawa, having been in business over twenty-five years. He always kept up with the general progress that horticulture has made and was always ready and willing to adopt new methods and new inducements.

Starting in a small unpretentious manner his business grew until he built on Catherine street as fine a range of greenhouses as are to be found in Canada. He also erected a handsome store on Sparks street which is one of the finest in the city. He was one of the originators of the Canadian Horticultural Association and was one of the first members and officers of the Ottawa Horticultural Society.

Mr. Chas. Scrim was born at Beauport 53 years ago and was educated there. He moved to Arnprior where he resided for about six years, and about twenty-five years ago came to Ottawa. He soon became one of Ottawa's foremost business men and in 1889 was elected to the city council to represent Wellington ward. He represented Wellington ward from 1899 to 1902, one of which years he was chairman of the property committee.

He was always known as one of the best hearted men in the city and always toiling to help any one in time of trouble. His charitable acts were numerous but his works were done quietly and unostentatiously. He was a member of the Presbyterian church.

He leaves a widow and three children, one daughter, Miss Scrim, and two sons, Charles and Norman. He also leaves a brother, Mr. Robert Scrim of Arnprior, and one sister, Mrs. Lamont, of Welland, Ont.

Some thirteen or fourteen weeks ago Mr. Scrim was taken ill with pleurisy and despite the best medical aid passed away this morning. He was a member of a number of societies, and was a prominent member of the Oddfellows.

The funeral will be held Wednesday from his late residence, 172 Argyle avenue, to Beechwood cemetery. Rev. Dr. Herridge and Rev. Dr. Moore will conduct the funeral service.

Lindsay People Are Satisfied

The Board of Trade of our neighbouring town of Peterborough have been humping themselves, and, as a result, have had a day set for the Tariff Commission to meet in that town. They have sent out invitations to all the surrounding towns, to send its deputations and state their grievances, if they have any. It speaks well for our own community, we think, that, as far as we know, we have nothing serious bothering us that requires our presence before the Commission. Still, in case there should be anyone who feels that he has a grievance, or who thinks a readjustment of the tariff would benefit matters, we would advise them to take advantage of the meeting and appear before the commission.—Lindsay Post.

LONG ago we realized that the baking and roasting qualities of the oven of a range are of greatest importance to the range user. We brought our knowledge, gained by years of experience, to bear on this one point. The result was the Imperial Oxford Diffusive Oven Flue. With this exclusive feature, the Imperial Oxford stands to-day the most perfect baking and roasting range on the market.
After getting this most important feature of a range to such a point of perfection we naturally did not neglect any other improvement which could add to the working of the range. These improvements were incorporated in the
because they added to the life of the range, simplified its operation or economized fuel.
Of these improvements the draw-out oven rack is one which will instantly appeal to the cook. The handle of this rack is outside the range—always cool enough to hold with the bare hand. By pulling this handle forward anything roasting in the oven may be drawn out onto the oven shelf to be basted, without touching the hot pan or reaching into the oven. The same applies to the testing of bread, cake or pies.
We would like you to see the Imperial Oxford Range. If your dealer doesn't handle it, write us for illustrated literature and the address of the nearest dealer who does.

An Important Business Change Is Announced

To Prepare For a Partnership Agreement the $45,000 Stock of W. A. Sanderson & Co. Will be Reduced at Once—This Great Sale Will Commence on Saturday—Genuine Reduction Sale.

GOODS OF QUALITY REDUCED IN PRICE

An announcement is made to-day of an important business change in this city. Mr. W. E. Wasson, who, since the death of Mr. W. A. Sanderson, the well-known jeweller, has conducted the business, has taken a partner, Mr. F. J. Metheral, and before the new member of the firm takes an active part in the business there will be a great stock reduction sale, commencing on Saturday. A stock of $45,000 will be reduced in price, and a turn-over of at least half the stock is aimed at in this sale.

It should be understood that in this reduction every article in the store which for years has been the synonym for quality and value will be affected, and the immense stock will be brought down to a basis required by the terms of the partnership. This is a particularly opportune announcement for the public in view of the fact that the time is approaching rapidly when the great majority of people will be looking for something in the line of jewellery, and the fact that the reduction sale will be on makes the question of Christmas gifts a much simpler one.

The management states that in this sale the prices of all catalogue houses will be met, and the goods will be the regular stock, the quality of which has made this store successful in the past, and has given the public confidence in its business announcements.

This promises to be one of the most important sales in Peterborough in a long time, and the fact that the announcement comes from a firm with such a reputation as that enjoyed by the one in question gives it an additional weight with the public.

To-morrow the Examiner will contain the announcement of this great reduction sale, and those who contemplate making any purchases in the line of jewellery will do well to wait for the opening of this sale.

Will Discuss- Fire Protection

To-night in the City Clerk's office, the joint committee of the Fire-Water and Light Committee and the ritizens, will meet to consider further the question of fire protection, and to devise means, if possible, of some solution of the problems to give the city better protection in case of fire.

Proposed Tax On Bachelors Was Discussed

At the Meeting of the Mock Parliament Last Night—The Premier, Mr. R. F. McWilliams, Introduced the Bill—The Proposed Amendments to the Liquor License Act Were Considered—The Bribery Charge Elucidated.

OPPOSITION MEMBERS SCORE GOVERNMENT

The second sitting of the Mock Parliament in connection with St. Paul's Young Men's Guild, was held last night, there being a good attendance of members.

The Speaker, Rev. Mr. MacKay, took the chair and the first order of business, that of asking questions, brought out some rather humorous inquiries, and equally humourous replies.

The Bribery Charge.

A feature of the evening's proceedings was the direct charge made by the member for Brockville that he had been offered a bribe by the Hon. Premier to resign his seat in the House. The nature of the bribe was that he was to be appointed King's Printer. The hon. member gave in detail the history of the plot, and produced letters signed by the Premier, which were of a very damaging nature. He asked for a committee of the House to investigate the matter.

The Hon. Premier made a reply in which he denied the charge, and produced telegrams to show that the hon. member for Brockville made offers in the direction named, but they had not been entertained by the Government.

A committee of the House was appointed to investigate the matter.

The Attorney-General, Hon. J. H. Latmouth, introduced his Bill providing for an amendment to the Liquor License Act. The provisions of this Bill appeared in the Examiner some days ago. In support of the Bill the Attorney-General made a lengthy argument in his endeavour to show that the interests of temperance were being greatly advanced by the adoption of the Bill.

Mr. Downey for the Opposition, made a severe attack upon the Government for the manner in which they had treated the temperance people of the province. The Bill, if enacted, would not in any way, advance the cause of temperance, and could not meet the approval of the liquor party more, had it been framed by that party themselves.

Mr. Hodson, the Government member who followed, made a capital speech. He was called to order, however, for rambling all over creation and not confining his remarks to the provisions of the Bill as much as to the history of the great philosophers.

Mr. Jas. Consul moved the adjournment of the debate.

Tax on Bachelors.

The premier, Hon. R. E. McWilliams, outlined the provisions of the bill, which will receive its second reading at the next sitting of the House.

In an exceedingly clever speech, Mr. W. S. Davidson, the chief lieutenant of the Opposition, ridiculed the action of the Government in introducing such legislation. Mr. Davidson spoke at some length, and with great vigour. His speech was interspersed with lively passages of humour, which kept the House in good spirits.

Use of Dogs in Hunting May Be Abolished

Mr. A. C. Pratt, M.P.P. for South Norfolk, who has returned to Toronto from his annual deer hunting expedition in the Parry Sound District, says he is more than ever convinced that the use of dogs for deer hunting should be prohibited, and he intimates that he will introduce a bill to that effect at the next session of the Legislature. Mr. Pratt says that after ten years' experience in deer hunting, he is convinced that the continued use of dogs will do more to make deer as extinct as the buffalo than anything else, hence his objections.

Bible Reading Will Be Held

At Gospel Hall on Friday Night Next.

On Friday night there will be a public Bible reading in the Gospel Hall, corner George and Brock, at 8 o'clock. The Scripture to be taken up is the tenth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. After the reading of the chapter an open discussion (or interchange of thought) will be conducted. As this is the first time we have any account of St. Peter preaching to Gentiles it is interesting to know whether Cornelius and his company were saved before or during Peter's sermon—this will be gone into, and any questions or answers from any one in the audience, or any verse or any subject in the chapter will be quite in order. All Bible students and any who would like to hear the discussion are cordially invited. Christ said to Peter, "I give unto thee the keys (notice plural) of the kingdom of heaven." We will see how he used one of them in opening the door to the Gentiles.—Com.

Observance Of St. Andrew's Day

St. John's Brotherhood is Now Making Arrangements.

At a largel meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held last night in the Bible Class room of St. John's church, arrangements were made for the observance of St. Andrew's Day.

Mr. N. F. Davidson, barrister, of Toronto, who for twelve years was president of the Brotherhood in Canada, has accepted an invitation to address a mass meeting in St. John's School House.

A special service for men under the auspices of the Brotherhood will be held on Sunday week, December 3rd. It is expected that the congregation generally will co-operate in this large undertaking, and a short meeting will be held next Sunday evening after the service to make arrangements for vigorous work.

At the close of last night's meeting the members and visitors, some 25 in number, were entertained to supper by the Girls' Guild.

First Meeting Of Big Dipper Directors

50,000 Shares of Stock Will be Placed Upon the Market—Officers and Board of Directors Elected at Meeting Held Yesterday—New President is Mr. John M. Fletcher, of Buffalo—Other Business Transacted.

DEVELOPMENT WORK WILL BE RUSHED

The first Stockholders' and Directors' meeting of the Big Dipper Mining Company was held yesterday at the office of the Company, Water street.

Considerable business of importance was transacted, the first matter considered being the election of officers and a Board of Directors for the newly incorporated Company.

The following officers were appointed:—

President—John M. Fletcher, Buffalo, N.Y.

Vice-President—J. J. Tisdale, Buffalo, N.Y.

Secretary-Treasurer—J. S. Waldron, Peterborough.

Superintendent — John Jamieson, Myer's Cave, Ont.

Board of Directors—S. Sager, Peterborough, Alva J. Reid, Erie J. Wilson, Benj. F. Haywood and Geo. H. Bradley, of Bolivar, N.Y.

The property of the Company situated in Barrie Township, was turned over free and clear of all encumbrance, this including the buildings and all development work since the commencement of operations in March last.

The Company intends to push forward rapidly their development work, and a new saw-mill will be in operation in a few days for sawing lumber for shaft and boiler houses and stamp mill.

Mr. Gession, of the Calumet and Hackler, has just returned from a visit to the property and reports in terms of high satisfaction with regard to it.

He took 20 lbs. of ore from what is known as the Iron Capped Vein which was assayed by Mr. John Kline, of the Buffalo Laboratory. The assays are stated to show as follows:—

No. 1.—20lbs. crushed and sampled, assays $2282.69.

No. 2.—Sample schist from between wall rock and vein, $3.49.

No. 3.—Quartz sample, $118.49.

No. 4.—Quartz sample, $692.08

The Company has decided to put 50,000 shares at twenty-five cents per share upon the market, and when this block has been sold, to advance the price. A large number of American visitors went through to the mines, and the statement was made to the Examiner that the stock is selling rapidly in New York and Pennsylvania.

Mr. S. Sagar, who has filled the position of acting president, will, as will be observed, remain upon the Board of Directors, and his removal to Buffalo will not affect his connection in this way.

Steamer "City" Was Floated

The City of Peterborough, which has been sunk at her moorings at the Ashburnham wharf, was floated yesterday. The water in the Little Lake was lowered twenty inches for this purpose yesterday, and the "City" was soon riding on the water as usual.

Indication Of Early Winter Near Lindsay

It is a somewhat unusual circumstance, says the Lindsay Post, for the river and lake to be covered with thick ice at this time of year. But such is the case. Yesterday after dinner, Mr. Carew started his two steamers for Bobcaygeon. The river was frozen over, but as the leading boat had been fitted up with an ice breaker, Mr. Carew believed they would get through. About 6 p.m. the steamers returned, having only made a distance of four miles.

Passengers from Bobcaygeon this morning by train reported the lake frozen completely over from McConnell's Island to the village.

Contributions To Children's Aid

Several Have Been Received by the Secretary.

As the Examiner has several times pointed out, the financial conditions of the Children's Aid Society, are at present of a most stringent character, and, in response, a number of contributions towards the depleted funds have been received by Mr. Peter Campbell, treasurer of the society, which the officials wish to gratefully acknowledge.

Among the contributors were Messrs. E. Elcome, Alex. Dawson, John Butcher and R. M. Dennistoun.

It is probable that further donations will be forthcoming in view of the fact that the funds are completely exhausted and for this reason donations at this time are particularly appreciated.

Bridges Over Trent Canal Closed To-day

Signal Men have Been Removed From the Railway Bridges—Railway Companys' are Notified That Navigation Has Been Closed—Water at Dams is Higher Than Ever Before at Close of Season.

POWER OWNERS ARE SATISFIED

To-day the railway bridges on the Trent Canal will be closed for the winter, and the signal men will be relieved of their duty. The railways have been notified that there will be relieved of their duty. The railways have been notified that there will be no further navigation on the canal until spring. The bridges affected are those at Hastings, Peterborough, Nassau, Fenelon Falls and Orillia, and the C.P.R. bridge at Peterborough.

This morning the signal man at the C.P.R. bridge here, was taekn off his post.

This year at the close of navigation the height of water is in a most satisfactory condition. The head at the dams at Fenelon Falls, Balsam Lake, Bobcaygeon, Young's Point and Buckhorn being as high now as it was last May, which fact must be particularly gratifying to the power users of Peterborough. This condition of affairs is unprecedented in the history of the Trent Canal. Last year the water at the Young's Point dam was 5 feet 2 inches on the sills, and this year it is practically 8 feet, and the same proportionate increase in the head of water is shown at all the other dams on the system.

The result will be that this winter there will be absolutely no danger from low water, and the flow during the whole winter will remain practically what it is now.

At the present time all the lakes in the system are frozen over, except Clear Lake, which is almost frozen, the depth of water preventing it from being altogether covered with ice.

In connection with the height of water in the canal system, it is interesting to notice that while there is a heavy flow of water the wells along the river and lakes are very low, and the farmers will have to haul water, some of them, at least, five miles. It will thus be seen that while nature this year has been sparing with her rainfall, the systematic conservation of the water has resulted in the flow of water being maintained. This indicates that while the rainfall may be small, the water may be maintained at a proper height and is an evidence of the fact that it is only necessary to a proper conservation of the water to adopt a systematic method of managing the dams on the waterway.

Teh dams on the system are all in perfect condition and are well prepared to stand the winter and the spring rush of water.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew's.

—The meeting to organize the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in connection with St. Luke's, will be held to-night at nine o'clock at the close of the week-night meeting.

A Peterboro' Hockeyist Is In Demand

The Sault Ste. Marie News, referring to the situation in the International League says: The complete personnel of no team in the league has yet been published. The public knows how the Pittsburg forward line will go on ice but the defence is an unknown quantity. Houghton has not yet announced its point player. Whitcroft has been spoken of but the club has been looking for another, and it may be that if a fast forward should be procured, Forrester will go back of the line. Calumet has yet to procure a point and cover point. Four men are mentioned in connection with the positions.

Many Street Lights Wanted

Fire, Water and Light Committee Receives Applications.

The principal ordinary business of the Fire, Water and Light Committee last night was the consideration of application for street lights. There are a number of streets on which the residents want lights, but it is not probable that the present council will feel like incurring the necessary expense to order the lights placed.

Those present at the meeting were Ald. Johnston, Tovey, Crowe and McIntyre.

Applications were made for an electric light at the corner of Smith and Bethune streets; at the corner of London and Division streets; on the corner of Water and King streets; opposite the Peter Hamilton Company's works, and on the west end of Bolivar street, near the boundary. A 32-candle lamp at the corner of Reid and Murray streets, the last request being granted. In reference to the other applications it was decided that for the present no action would be taken, and the chairman was instructed to go over the ground and investigate the conditions.

The application for the C. P. R. Company for an alarm box to be placed at or near the station on George street was left over until after the by-law to raise the money to improve the fire protection had been passed next year.

Rev. R. McKnight Returns From Hunt

Bringing Two Fine Trophies of the Chase.

Rev. R. McKnight, who was a member of a party in quest of the festive "antlered monarchs," near Bancroft, returned to the city to-day, bringing with him two extremely fine trophies of the chase in the way of a large buck and a doe.

Rev. Mr. McKnight states that the party had excellent success, and a most delightful outing.

Another Peterborough member was Mr. Arthur Mitchell, who returned some time ago. The deer will be on view at Mr. M. W. Porter's butcher shop.

Opening Of Local Option Campaign

A Meeting Was Held in Warsaw Last Night--To Abolish the Bar in Dummer—Town Hall Was Well Filled at the Meeting—Rev. J. G. Potter Spoke on the Question of Local Option and its Benefits--Other Speakers.

WORK OF THE T.A.S. IS REFERRED TO

At Warsaw last night the opening meeting of the local option campaign in Dummer, was held, the town hall being well filled. Among those present were Rev. Mr. Nickle, Rev. W. L. Atkinson, and Rev. Mr. Steadman of Warsaw, as well as a number of tober prominent temperance workers.

Rev. Mr. Steadman, pastor of the Baptist church, was unanimously elected chairman. Mr. Steadman referred to the very enthusiastic services of Sunday last throughout the township of Dummer, and spoke particularly of the large and intensely sympathetic union service at Warsaw. He had every confidence that the bylaw would pass by a very handsome majority, but it needed everyone to help to this most desirable end. He then called upon Rev. J. G. Potter of Peterborough, who explained that local option was the proper solution of the liquor problem, as it dealt with the individual conscience rather than with a political party of combination. There was no reason why the most rabid prohibitionist should not take a hearty interest in this movement, especially when ninety-two other municipalities were determined to submit the question to a vote of the people. It was the place of least resistance, since it was far removed from the arena of party politics. It was also a system that could be adapted to temperance sentiments, as this advanced in any community, and at once removed the argument of the crafty procrastinator, that public opinion was not ripe enough.

Looking at the matter from the commercial aspect, it was giving investors in the liquor business constant notice that the traffic in strong drink is doomed. It had been stated that large sums had been invested in the business throughout the province. Local option would be a constant reminder that it was very unsafe to invest further.

Mr. Potter then referred to the excellent work done by the Roman Catholic priests in the townships of Douro and Enniamore, and what it had meant to these farming communities. He made a kindly reference to the good work of the T. A. S. of Peterborough, and what they were doing for practical temperance. Eulogies were expressed for the way in which Smith township had carried local option last year, and how, by a strong vigilance committee violation of the law had been reduced to a minimum. He regarded the unprecedented success of the Chemong Park Hotel, and Purser's Hotel at Buckhorn, as a testimony to the financial as well as the moral value of local option. The stores at Bridgenorth, he asserted, had actually done a better business during the past summer than in previous years. This should convince the farmers in Dummer that with a growing tourist trade with American families, who preferred places without liquor, that supplies of poultry, beef and all produce, would

"THE CAVAN BLAZERS."

WRITTEN BY MISS KATE LEARY,

Miss Kate Leary, who is twelve years of age, is a daughter of Ald. R. H. Leary. She received her preliminary education in the Public Schools of Peterborough, having passed the Entrance Examination at mid-summer. She is in the Lower Form I of the Collegiate.

During the winter of the year 1845 an incident in real life happened in the form of a romance, in the County of Peterborough, which I will relate to you in story form.

In Cavan at this time dwelt a set of young men who styled themselves the "Cavan Blazers," capable, as they thought, of doing all sorts of chivalrous deeds and dare-devil bravery.

Two wealthy match-making old farmers of Smith and Cavan respectively, (I may mention here Cavan at that time was included in the County of Peterborough), both of the same name, yet bearing no relation, one having two daughters, Jane and Eliza, the other family consisting entirely of sons, met and arranged a match between Jane and the eldest son of the other farmer, which would unite the families and hold together their property, which seemed to be the one idea of these greedy, grasping men. The son was quite willing that the whims of these old gentlemen should be gratified, but not so our fair friend, Jane, who openly rebelled, and was carried forthwith and closed in the attic until such time as she should alter her decision and comply with their wishes, while all arrangements for her approaching marriage were being made.

But Jane, still in the attic, remained obdurate; and here the "Cavan Blazers" come into my story, the ringleader of whom, happened to be the son of the minister who was to perform the clerical duties next day, and who has but recently passed away in the Old Country, having first attained the honour of becoming one of the foremost judges in America. On the eve of Jane's wedding day, a number of these so-called Blazers appeared below the attic window with their ladders and harness, and transported Jane to the little village church, where she was united in marriage to the man of her own choice; and together they travelled to Bethany, not the Bethany we read of in the Bible, but the little village lying southwest of Peterborough, which still retains and bears its name, where they lived until the death of her husband some years later.

Next day the interested parties were assembled; minister A—— had arrived, bearing the marriage license, when, everything being in readiness, a messenger was sent to summon the bride, but thanks to the "Cavan Blazers," Jane was by this time far away, and safely beyond the reach of the mercenary plotters, who, despite this apparent conclusion to the whole affair, still continued their work. Here the old Scotch clergyman's ready wit came to the rescue, when he suggested that Eliza, the younger sister, should be brought forward and inserted in the vacant place. The old farmer, glad to find such an easy way out of his difficulties, was quick to act upon this suggestion, and in less than an hour, poor Eliza, looking the picture of distress, appeared, attired in her sister's garments, and sacrificed her young life to satisfy the worldly ambition of this pair of match-makers.

Eliza's husband then moved her to a lumbering camp in Asphodel, where, although he was kind to her in a rough way, she, being but a young, frail girl of sixteen, and unaccustomed to the rude life of a lumber camp, fretted and pined, until her father, when taking furniture up for her home, found her thus, and was obliged to bring her back with him to save her life. Thus she and her husband parted, never again to meet.

Eliza then spent the next twenty years of her life in caring for her father, who at his death bequeathed to her two hundred acres of very valuable land; and, not caring herself to live on it she let it to a man who proved to be a rather troublesome tenant. In the meantime, having met her old time suitor who was still unmarried, she became his wife.

Then unpleasantness arose over Eliza's property, her tenant having refused to pay his rent, the outcome of which was a lawsuit, to be held in Cobourg, at that time the only place where court could be held. This spiteful tenant (not being one of the "Cavan Blazers), thinking himself more than a match for Eliza, brought up a charge of bigamy against her.

There being no railways through these parts at this time, when the case was called, Eliza would, indeed, have been in despair had not a friend come forward and offered his services and fleetest horse to drive her to Cobourg.

During their drive, Eliza clearly explained the case to her friend, who firmly assured her that, could the trial be postponed until the next day and were his horse capable of carrying him back into Cavan that night, he could procure papers which would certainly clear her. Although very reluctantly, the judge held the case over until the following morning.

When next morning came, Eliza's case looked very doubtful, as no witness in her favour had as yet appeared on the scene. Court being called, the judge was beginning to think he had quite a case of bigamy on hand, when her friend and sole witness, after an all night stormy drive of eighty miles or more, stepped into the courtroom and faced a "Cavan Blazer," the lawyer handling the case for the plaintiff, and produced an affidavit of the certificate under which Eliza had been married, it being no less that the license, signed and witnessed, drawn up for her sister, Jane, who, through the kind efforts of the "Cavan Blazers," was at this time peaceably living with the man of her own choice.

Eliza, on being acquitted, left for her home to join her husband, with a heart full of gratitude to her deliverer, who proved to be no less a person than my grandfather, from whom the facts of this story were elicited, and who at the present day still lives, a grand old patriarch of eighty-five years, to chronicle plenty more just such tales as this, which happened long ago in the earlier days of Peterborough.

Successful Social Evening At St. Luke's

STRONGLY FAVOURS CHOIR VESTMENTS

To classify the pleasing function given last night at St. Luke's school house as a "social evening" would be by no means to use a misnomer. But even this would fail in many respects to comprehend the diversity of charm afforded by the programme arranged by, and delightfully presented, under the auspices of the Girls' and the Men's Guilds.

The functions arranged and carried out by the members of St. Luke's church are invariably both pleasing and successful, and in the variety of charm which went to make up the success of last night was included a feature of more than ordinary interest in the warm welcome accorded to Rev. Dr. Symonds, of Montreal, formerly rector of St. Luke's.

The attendance of last night was large and the schoolroom was crowded to its utmost capacity. St. Mark's church, Otonabee, sent a large quota to swell the throng.

After a period of pleasant social intercourse a number of delightful orchestra selections were rendered by the Wilson Brothers Orchestra. Several pleasing graphophone selections also served to charmingly add to the general enjoyment.

The chair was occupied by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, who, in a few brief introductory remarks, extended a hearty welcome to the large audience assembled. He felt deeply gratified in considering himself the father of such a large family. "Small mercies gratefully received," he added facetiously. Reference was also made by the speaker to his pleasure in having Rev. Dr. Symonds present at the morning service on Sunday. The affection and general esteem of the congregation for their former rector had been warmly cherished since his departure.

Rev. Dr. Symonds briefly addressed the audience, expressing in his opening remarks the feeling of gratitude and pleasure he felt in being present. Not for many years had he addressed an audience with greater fear that many things which he wished to say might be forgotten. The pleasant memories of past events which had arisen since his return were spoken of. If Rev. Mr. Langfeldt might lay claim to the spiritual fatherhood of the congregation he felt that he was likewise entitled to that of grandfather.

The speaker then passed on to make a few remarks with regard to his observations since his return. Since his departure many new faces were observable in the congregation. Many of his old parishioners had gone to enter upon new spheres of labour, while others had passed beyond the vale of mortal life. The warmth of welcome to the newcomer which had always characterized St. Luke's parish was commented upon. Opportunities were offered for work in one or other of its many activities. There are some of those present to-night, he remarked, who remember the very beginning of the church. Their thoughts as his must be mingled thoughts. There must be thoughts of sadness of the, comparatively speaking, few who remain of the original congregation, but the uppermost feeling should be one of joy at the continual progress and improvement which had attended the efforts of the church.

One thing which had particularly impressed him at the Sunday morning service was the volume of response and the volume of congregational singing. In his own church in Montreal, which was one of the finest specimens of architecture upon the continent, the singing was largely confined to the choir. He was fond of congregational singing, and St. Luke's church was noted in this respect, as it was also for its unity and volume in devotional response. This is, the speaker remarked, a distinguishing feature of the Anglican service, offering, as it does, a very large place to the people. People who say the service is dull, fail in their own lot and duty.

I am not uninformed, continued Rev. Dr. Symonds, as to the parish life and work of St. Luke's. He had read with deep interest both letters and the Parish Magazine, which was, in his opinion, much more ably edited now than formerly. There had been no diminution in the offertory of the church. This might, in many respects, be regarded as a true index to the spiritual and moral condition of the congregation. That the auxiliary organizations of the church had grown steadily, and were all in a flourishing condition, had afforded him great pleasure.

There are two conditions, the speaker insisted, upon which stable and external success in church work depends — continued loyalty of the old members, and the earnest building up of the new. What we are aiming at is not simply the building up of one church, at the expense of another. There is a great difference between the machinery and the product of manufacture. It is the product which we must most keep in mind.

Our exertions should be in the direction of going forward daily in diligence and virtue. We should look more steadfastly and clearly upon the example of our Master, Christ, not only for ourselves, but for generations to follow after us.

The speaker, in his concluding remarks expressed the hope that the day might not be far distant when he might be once more enabled to visit the congregation, and to express once more his congratulations upon the many evidences of progress observable in the work.

The Choir Vestments.

Rev. Mr. Langfeldt then followed with a few remarsk with regard to the vestments for the choir, with regard to which a request had been forwarded to himself, and the Wardens, by the members of the choir.

Rev. Dr. Symonds, being requested to state his opinion with regard to the proposed innovation, expressed himself as strongly favourable to the adoption of the vestments.

A vocal solo, "My Love, my Thoughts are of Thee," was rendered with charming musicianly interpretation and in exquisite voice, by Miss Kathleen Wilson, with flute obligato by Mr. J. Butcher.

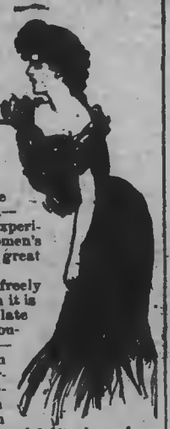
This was followed by one of the pleasing features of the evening's enjoyment — the serving of delightful and recherche refreshments, this portion of the programme being introduced in a novel manner by the sudden entering of a "Chef's Parade," the young gentlemen adorned with the white headpieces of the profession, entering and making a circuit of the room, in a sudden and unexpected manner.

The arrangements for the event were in charge of Miss Mamie Rogers, representing the Girls Guild, and Mr. W. H. Andrews, representing the Young Men's Guild. The hall was beautifully decorated with flags and streamers, kindly loaned by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons.

The delightful pleasure of the evening was brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT



That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I see in photographers' windows a picture of stalwart men astride of poor deer, which they have killed. I am told that the hunters hound a deer till it takes to the water and then surrounding it with canoes they shoot the helpless animal in cold blood. Now being a woman, perhaps I don't know what sport is. It may be sport, but it is not manly sport. I do not believe the most brutalized prize-fighter would strike in the face an opponent whose hands were bound.

Yours sincerely.

Steam Engine In Competitive Public Test

The Canadian Fire Engine Company's Engine Which Was in This City May Compete With Waterous--Selling Agents of Both Engines Make an Offer --Conducted by McGill Professor.

AN INTERESTING PROPOSAL MADE

The steam fire engine which the Canadian Fire Engine Company had in this city giving a public test, is at present in Montreal, and it appears, from the following letter published in the Montreal Gazette, that the Waterous Engine Company, is anxious to make a competitive test in that city, though it was refused in this city. The letter to the Canadian Company from Hugh Cameron & Co., follows:—

(Montreal, Nov., 16th, 1905.

G. G. Pritchard, Esq., president Canadian Fire Engine Company, London, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—Although we have had no direct communication with your company, we have heard a good deal about your statements made to different corporations, expressing a desire to meet us in a competitive test at Halifax, Vancouver, Montreal and other places.

On our arrival here we learned you had a second size engine in No. 5 Station for the purpose of giving a public test.

As you seem very anxious to have a test with the Waterous engines, we have come to the conclusion that if the two engines were tested by McGill University, it would settle the question of their merits.

We therefore beg to make you the following proposition:—

We hereby propose to you a competitive test of your second size Steam Fire Engine against our Waterous second size Steam Fire Engine, for the object and under the conditions hereinafter mentioned.

Objects.

Efficiency.
Design.
Workmanship.
Material.

Conditions.

Test to be made in the City of Montreal.

The two engines to be entirely in the hands of Professor Durley, of McGill University.

Each Company to deposit Five Hundred Dollars (500) in the Bank of Montreal for the purpose of defraying all expenses, the balance of the said One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), if any, to be returned to each Company, share and share alike.

If within 10 days from this date you do not accept the above proposition, we will consider that it is not your intention to make a comparative test of the Engines.

By accepting above friendly proposition, and having same take place under the direction of Professor Durley, of McGill University, Montreal, we feel it would give universal satisfaction to the people of Canada. Believe us, gentlemen,

Yours respectfully,

Latest Intelligence In Railway World

The railways are experiencing considerable difficulty in securing cars with which to handle the traffic offering, and as a consequence there is some inconvenience being caused to shippers. Both local agents of the railways report that it is difficult to get sufficient cars to supply shippers, and the trouble here is no any more acute than it is in any of the other cities and large towns. The difficulty is that just at this time of the year there is a demand for cars from all parts of the country, and the result is that there is a shortage. Not only is there a demand for cars for the shipment of wheat from the west, but all through Ontario the demand is heavy, grain, apples and other products being shipped in large quantities this fall. The local shippers are finding it difficult to get cars promptly, but the fault does not lie with the agents, who fill the orders for cars as promptly as possible. With the close of navigation some relief will be afforded.

Lindsayite Saw 'Wheels go Round'

Close Range Observation of the Sweeper in the Slushy Season.

He was from Lindsay. As he peered from beneath the shadow of a fur cap, plentifully endowed with earflaps, at the street railway sweeper as it approached, his whole attitude was of eager curiosity. Bending forward, as he unconsciously chewed with more vigour upon the end of a straw, and the hayseeds dropped from his flaxen whiskers, he excitedly murmured an expressive "Gosh!"

The large range view apparently did not suit him, and as the sweeper approached and stopped directly opposite him upon the track, he plunged boldly into the slush upon the street. The exterior of the machine apparently suited him, but a vague curiosity as to the interior mechanism yet lingered in his breast. Advancing a step nearer to the object of his investigation, he stooped low and was gazing earnestly at the interior system which "made the wheels go 'round," when, biff!!!—it the sweeper got busy, and the open-countenanced Lindsayite was lost to public view for an instant, and as he emerged from the unexpected shower of concentrated extract of "Spotless Town," he swiped the aforementioned drawn appendage with a red bandana, and muttered another "Gosh," adding with the recovery of his breath, "Th' Lindsay horse-ain't fitted up like that!"

A Run-down Woman Cured by Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women.

Mrs. W. H. Graham, of Halifax, N.S., writing to us about the great benefit she received from Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women, says:

"If I had gone to Paris and consulted Dr. Hugo himself I could not have got more benefit that I did from his tablets."

And Mrs. Graham was right, for according to her statement, she was suffering from a run-down condition brought on by overwork. These tablets are just what Dr. Hugo would have given her.

Women are realising more and more the value of a prescription of this great specialist, sold now in tablet form.

These tablets put within their reach the skill and experience that come from Dr. Hugo's forty years' treatment of diseases of women, and the latest and best in medical research and discovery.

They make healthy women. Improvement is noticed the first week.

Latest News Of Fall And Winter Sports

RUGBY.

Peterborough's chances are indeed bright.—Brockville Recorder.

Thank you, Brockville, for your optimistic outlook. Yes, they are so bright that the local enthusiasts can see in them the reflection of the intermediate trophy.

• • • •

The game next Saturday will probably be witnessed by an overwhelming crowd. Now that the boys have shown their ability to play fast rugby, as fast as the majority of senior aggregations dish out to patrons of the grand fall sport, a deeper interest than has hitherto been shown has been awakened in their welfare. That the little town of Dundas gives its team good support is shown by the fact that they will run a special train down here for next Saturday's game. And it's pretty safe betting that the large crowd of rooters will be here to cheer on the wearers of the red and white to win the intermediate championship. According to the Hamilton Herald "Dundas is noted for playing stronger game away from home than in the suburb," and if this is the case, a battle royal will result. Yes, and no doubt, a battle royal will result, although the local fans have no doubt in the ability of the home team to land the trophy. The gates, so far this year, have been very unsatisfactory and as the club is at big expense something material will have to be done to help it out of the hole. The team has done admirably under adverse circumstances and deserves unstinted praise for its splendid work. Even if you take no interest in rugby as yet, the game next Saturday from a purely spectacular standpoint will be worth twice the price of admission. Surely you're not considering the matter yet. Go out and buy your ticket right away and clap yourself on the back for your excellent investment of a quarter. The local rugby stock needs boosting and its up to you to make this part of the Peterborough athletic market more bullish.

• • • •

The players looked very "nifty" in Dundas, wearing the blue and white toques presented them by Mr. Fred. Clarke. The donor certainly takes a deep interest in amateur sport, and his kindness towards the rugby team is very very much appreciated.

• • • •

A splendid practice was held in the Brock street rink last night about nine men being out in uniform. With Crowley in the game next Saturday the locals' chances for winning the championship are much brighter. But even if the team does trim Dundas, which is it at without the currency? The price of admission is only twenty-five cents and four quarters make a dollar.

• • • •

Under the heading of "Puntings" the Hamilton Herald says:—

Close game.

Dundas has to get to work to win.

Fifteen hundred people witnessed the contest.

Dundas expects to run a special to Peterborough next Saturday.

Shaw, Peterborough's centre half, has not a superior in the O.R.F.U. so far as punting is concerned.

Dundas is noted for playing a stronger game away from home than in the suburb.

There was plenty of Dundas money around, and the tie saved lots of it from changing hands.

Dundas supporters are still betting even money that their team will win the championship.

Shaw and Hurtubise of Peterborough, and Nelson and Martin, of Dundas, have few superiors even in the senior series.

• • • •

Last night's Star contains a good out of the Varsity rugby team intercollegiate champions. MacPherson is a prominent figure in the group, and what's better he is prominent on the gridiron, and it might be mentioned, incidentally, that he is prominent in his medical studies. He's easily seen that Mac's quite a prominent man.

• • • •

Peterborough held Dundas down to a tie game, four all, on Saturday, at the latter place. Peterborough have now almost clean sailing to the championship. The return game will be played at Peterborough next Saturday, when the home team should win out. Fitzpatrick and Ford, of Peterborough, were hurt, and had to be replaced.—Lindsay Post.

• • • •

There are now in the race for the intermediate championship of Canada, R. M. C., Kingston, Rough Riders II., Ottawa, and the winners of the Peterborough-Dundas game to be played here next Saturday.

• • • •

Chicago University overwhelmed the University of Illinois to-day in the annual football game winning by a score of 44 to 0. Michigan recently defeated Illinois 68 to 0. At no time during the contest was the Chicago goal threatened and Illinois during the ball only for a short time during the game. Eckersall kicked five goals from the field, scored a touchdown after a twenty-yard run, and repeatedly made long runs for Chicago. Michigan and Chicago play here Thanksgiving Day for championship of the west.

It will be remembered that, as recorded in a previous edition of the Examiner, Mr. Eckersall, referred to in the above paragraph was in this city a short time ago.

• • • •

Several of the American Colleges and High Schools have decided to cut out rugby; and its not a bad move either, considering the danger of the American game.

HOCKEY

The Guild League is practically a certainty, about five or six teams declaring their intention of entering. Mr. McWilliams, chairman of the sports committee is making arrangements with Mr. M. J. Hutchinson, secretary of the Peterborough Rink Co., for the use of the Brock street rink this winter. There are some fast puck chasers in the different guilds of the city and some very interesting matches should be witnessed in the Guild League this winter. Hustle up, City League! What's the matter, anyhow?

• • • •

Bracebridge's rink has been thoroughly overhauled and re-modelled. A despatch from Bracebridge says that that town will have one of the fastest intermediate sevens in the O. H. A. Rather early for a forecast, isn't it?

• • • •

Berlin, Preston, Stratford and Galt, will probably all play senior this winter. They should make a district, the winners of which will make any of them hustle.

• • • •

The Examiner hockey team does hereby, and on this twenty-second day of November, challenge the seven pursuers of the black rubber, or will a hockey puck, representing this office's back door contemporary, to wit, hockey team of the Peterborough Evening Review. The Examiner wishes it to be understood that the reason for challenging the aforesaid Review team, so early in the season, is to give the aforesaid team abundance of time to get into proper condition.

Last season the aforementioned Review aggregation did deliberately flunk when challenged by the noble Examiner seven, claiming that it was not in condition to play the game of hockey mentioned in the said challenge. But this season no subsidge of this nature will be tolerated as manager Fred. Craig, sometimes known as Joshua, has the team of the aforesaid Review out for a run every evening, up and down an alleyway, known as Chambers street, upon the corner of which alleyway and Hunter street, the aforesaid Review Printing Office is situated.

And it is rumoured that the morning journal of this town, to wit, the Morning Times, will furnish an oyster supper for the winner of the aforementioned match.

Tom Phillips may not play in Kenora after all. Winnipeg wants his services. Being so close to the boundary the professional dollar has probably been caught by the people in the west. But the O.H.A. is purely amateur. So was Arthur Duffy.

THE TURF.

A regular boom in trotting is now evident in the Midland District horse news circuit. Take this as an instance:—The Examiner publishes an article clipped from the "Horse World" and invariably gives that valuable paper credit for the same; an up-to-date scrupulous morning journal copies the same article word for word and gives nobody credit; a Lindsay paper does likewise, and last but not least a local evening news journal takes it from the Mudville sporting columns. Australian methods are certainly being favourably received in this part of Canada.

A POINTER WORTH HAVING.

The merits of Ozone are well known, but in buying it one must be sure to get the purest form. Also, Ozone should always be taken along with "Celery King" the famous tonic laxative. The purest form in which Ozone is put up is "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind) and each bottle of this brand contains a coupon entitling you to a package of "Celery King" free.

No other firm in the world can give "Celery King" with Ozone. We give because our Ozone thus brings the highest results. In addition, you get just about twice as much "Solution of Ozone" for your money as of other kinds, and you also get it in the purest and most concentrated form. You also get "Celery King" free, instead of having to buy it which you would need to do in order to have full benefit from the use of Ozone.

Your druggist should have "Solution of Ozone" (the coupon kind). If not, write to the Public Drug Co. Bridgeburg. Sold by W. D. White Prominent Charity Worker A Victim of La Grippe.

PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

Miss Alicia Newell, 6 Stanley street, Montreal, Can., charter member Societe Francais Bienfaisance, writes:

"We had a siege of la grippe in the family and I, as well as some of my friends, was a victim to the malady.

"Three bottles of Peruna assisted me to perfect recovery and some of my friends regained their health by using even less.

"La grippe, as a rule, leaves one debilitated and nervous, but I noticed in every case where Peruna was used the recovery was not only complete, but the medicine itself seemed to infuse new life and vigor."

La grippe is acute epidemic catarrh. In many instances it leaves the mucous membranes lining various organs of the body in an inflamed and catarrhal condition. Peruna at once cures this condition.

BOXING AND WRESTLING.

The Toronto Star says:—"The match between Hilding Arashi and Frank Gotch, which resulted in the latter pulling the former's arm out of its socket is unique in that it is generally the limb of the public instead of the wrestler that is pulled."

Now that's no dream but if you are at the T.A.S. smoker on Wednesday night you'll be more than satisfied with the bill. You won't get your arm pulled there, nor your leg either, and for that matter you won't have to pull the lining out of your purse to find the wherewithal to secure admission to what promises to be the best smoker that ever was held in Peterborough.

SPRINTING

All the records of Arthur Duffy, who holds the world's championship in the 100 yards dash have been declared null and void. Duffy doesn't care anyway. He has secured a good position on the writing staff of Physical Culture and will tell the people all about the present day amateur professional sprinters. If Duffy is suddenly dropped into eternity it won't be the "Black Hand" that's to blame this time.

CURLING

All members of the Peterborough Curling Club are invited to attend the annual meeting of the club, which will be held at the rink, Charlotte street, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

BASKET BALL.

The Arrows and Harriers will play their return game to-night in the Y. M.C.A. at 8.15. All are welcome. Admission free.

D. Cameron Struck It Rich In Cobalt Mines

Interesting Story of the Discovery of the Mine of Which Mr. Wm. Vincent, of This City, is Manager—A Finch Township Man Who Made $20,000 in One Day—The Company Paid a Dividend of 200 Per Cent.

EARLY DIFFICULTIES OF THE COMPANY

A few days ago the statement was made in these columns that Mr. Wm. Vincent, of this city, had gone to Cobalt to take the management of the silver mines of the Temiskaming and Hudson Bay Mining Company. To-day a despatch from Finch Township, Stormont County, tells the story of the discovery of that mine, the owners of which recently paid a dividend of 200 per cent. The despatch is as follows:

There arrived in Finch a few days ago one of the lucky prospectors of the Cobalt region, Duncan D. Cameron, of the town of New Liskeard, formerly of Finch, was a poor man on Thursday morning, and by noon of the same day was worth $20,000. It is a good find, and sufficient to warrant a visit to old friends, such as Duncan Cameron is now enjoying. Cameron is one of a three ground-hog-ers who struck riches last June in Cobalt. He and James Whyte discovered the vein of native silver which but a few days since enabled the Temiskaming and Hudson Bay Mining Company to declare a dividend of 200 per cent. The find was made on property belonging to the company and a settlement was made on Thursday last by which the concern pays to these poor men the handsome sum of $60,000.

Cameron left Finch, near Ottawa, less than three years ago to strike into the then almost unexplored Temiskaming country. He worked in the lumber camps and at anything that would return him a living. In the course of his travels he fell in with Whyte, whose mother kept a boarding-house in Liskeard. Mrs. Whyte is a widow and took boarders. She had been in the country about two years. Cameron came to board as the Cobalt district was coming to light. The young fellows decided to try their luck in the woods. They had formed their rough and ready partnership when John J. McEwan, a prospector, took up his abode in the boarding-house. He had come to the country from the Klondyke upon receiving word of New Liskeard, informing him that finds were being made in New Ontario.

The partnership was made three-cornered on April 12, and the trio set out for the woods. Two months passed in hunting and prospecting and they found themselves into the first week of June. The experienced miner was convinced that the claims of the Temiskaming company, some 400 acres in extent, were rich.

It was agreed that Cameron should attempt to make an agreement with the company while the other two followed the beckoning hand over the company's preserves. At 9 o'clock on Monday morning the boys set off with shovel and hammer, two hours after they had struck the "lead," which will sell now for about a million dollars. The plan of search was to dig through the earth to the rock below to expose it to the prospector's hammer.

The lucky hole that has made all three rich was just 8 inches deep. Cameron was digging listlessly down with his spade when he saw native silver. The little cleft was but a lead to the parent vein, and before the day was done the pair had unearthed a nugget of silver 90 lbs. in weight. That evening the earth was piled carefully back upon the rock and all traces of the excavation hidden under leaves and logs.

The rest was plain sailing. The company agreed to pay 20 per cent. of the net proceeds of any find the three might make and the discovery was accordingly divulged.

Temiskaming and Hudson Bay prospects were far from bright; 8000 shares had been sold at par but the money had melted away in fruitless development. There was less than $600 remaining in the treasury. The shares were selling at $1 each in the market when the rumour started that Hudson Bay had struck it rich. Next morning shares were selling at $10, and two days after at $25. Liskeard went wild. Every sale brought a higher price till they touched the maximum at $70. Those in the secret made a good thing. Whyte bought one hundred shares at $1 each and later sold fifty at $50 each. To-day the paper is being held at $60.

But the company wanted the three to sell out and for this the lads demanded a good stiff price. The whole summer and the fall was whiled away in bargaining and finally legal proceedings.

At last the company made the offer of $60,000, $2,500 each in cash, and the balance at the rate of 25 per cent. of the mines net earnings. It was welcome news all through the town when on Friday the boys accepted the offer.

With $2500 each in their pockets the trio dissolved partnership. Whyte is already building a house. McEwan has gone in for a winter's holiday, and Cameron took the train for Toronto, when, after spending a short time with old friends there he went to his old home in Finch.

Proposal Was Made at Last Night's Meeting at St. Paul's.

A proposal emanating from St. Paul's Guild has been made which if carried out should form a new source of enjoyment, as well as profit to the various Guilds throughout the city during the winter months.

The proposal as was briefly outlined by Mr. R. F. McWilliams at last night's meeting is the organization of a debating league, for the purpose of holding a series of debates during the months of January and February. A committee composed of the President and secretary was appointed and the suggestion was made that a meeting be arranged between similar committees representing the various city guilds to consider the practicability of the scheme, and refer the matter to the next meeting of the organization.

A successful debating league has been in existence among the various colleges in Toronto, and has since it's organization been eminently successful. It is carried on under a system similar to that proposed for the local one. A series of "home and home" debates being arranged.

There can be little doubt that in the event of the formation of the league that it will prove both interesting and beneficial to those engaged.

Birthday Party Was Enjoyed

A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Geo. Sloan of 74 Chamberlen street this night. A crowd from the Park [illegible] Church [illegible] carrying baskets and cake to the surprise of Mr. and Mrs. Sloan. The whole affair was well managed. Mr. H. Judell was the first to arrive with his graphophone and before the surprised occupants could take their breath the house was full. Peals of laughter and many happy returns were in the air and this was the happiest of all happy crowds for a few hours. Superb coffee and some of the choicest viands were served and each one seemed to vie with the other in making this a memorable birthday. Some choice selections were sung. The pastor read the scriptures, Deacons Barrie, Inkpin and Mr. Burtch offered prayers.

Mr. Sloan gave a most interesting address and on behalf of his wife thanked the friends for this evidence of good feeling.

The party broke up singing "Won't we have a happy time."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Several white deer have been shot in the woods this season—so have several white men. Deer hunting seems to be well up in the running for moralsty honours with Yankee football.

There seems to be a fatsy plumbers' combine in Ontario with the head of the octopus in Toronto and the feelers sprawled out in all directions. This is a plumber's "joint" that must be "wiped"—out.

Our Yankee cousins boast of their enterprise and pre-eminence in all things. In one thing, however, they are a generation behind the times. The Chicago clergymen have begun a campaign for the closing of saloons on Sunday. We slow-going Ontario people have done that years and years ago, and if perchance some unfortunate man with a mighty thirst succeeds in getting admission to a saloon on Sunday, there is a ruction raised as if the heavens were falling. We yield the palm to Chicago for wickedness, but are ages ahead of that city in regard to all that makes for advanced morality, higher civilization and solider citizenship.

DR. BARNADO'S SUCCESSOR.

From the last number of the weekly edition of the London, England, Times, the following is taken in regard to Dr. Barnardo's successor in the great work he laid down at the bidding of death:

A special meeting of the members of the Association of Dr. Barnardo's Homes, was held on Tuesday afternoon, in the council chamber, Exeter hall. The chief business of the meeting was the appointment of a new director, a successor to Dr. Barnardo. The unanimous choice of the meeting fell upon the chairman of the council, Mr. William Baker, M. A., LL.B., barrister-at-law, who was nominated by Mr. Howard Williams, treasurer and late chairman, seconded by Mr. William McCall, vice-chairman.

From 1886 Mr. Baker was closely associated with Dr. Barnardo, and for most of that period acted as vice-chairman, and latterly as chairman of the council. Mr. Baker, in taking up his new position, which he does in an honorary capacity, is resigning a lucrative Chancery practice. Mr. McCall, in supporting Mr. Baker's nomination, said the days of chivalry were not yet over, and Mr. Baker's action in entering upon that new and arduous task was a magnificent piece of self-abnegation.

A suggestion from the council that the title of the homes should be altered, was referred back, a strong view being expressed that the existing title, "National Incorporated Association for the Reclamation of Destitute Waif Children, (otherwise known as Dr. Barnardo's Homes,)" should be retained.

Having an important branch of the Dr. Barnardo Homes in Peterborough, gives us a more direct and, so to speak, personal interest, in the future of the great institutions, operating under the general designation of Dr. Barnardo's Homes. The above article from the Times, gives promise that the work will go on, without impairment of its efficiency, or surcease of the zeal of the late founder, whose unquenchable, and indomitable spirit of work, knew no obstacle and evaded no sacrifice. Dr. Barnardo, with his abilities and energy, might have achieved a success, and a distinction, or what the world calls by these names, in his profession, and earned a position of ease in his advanced years. He, rather, preferred a life of good works, with only the reward that comes on earth with the consciousness of a duty faithfully done, and a great good accomplished. As remarked there is a prospect that the great work will continue, for in Dr. Barnardo's successor we have a man who sacrifices a princely income, and hopes of human preferment, to give himself, without fee or emolument, to the work of the Homes. In a field of work like this, or in any field of altruistic endeavour — self sacrifice is the inevitable condition, and the man who has the zeal, earnestness, faith in his work, to make the sacrifice Mr. Carter has made, will, under divine Providence, make a success of the great organized humanity movement instituted by the late Dr. Barnardo, whose place and spirit he inherits.

MR. WM. BAKER, L.L. B.,
Who Abandons a Lucrative Chancery Practice, to Continue, Without Remuneration, the Work of Dr. Barnardo, Whom He Succeeds.

THE SASKATCHEWAN ELECTIONS.

(The Globe.)

The Opposition press is beginning to make a grievance of the fact that the elections in Saskatchewan are delayed. The reason given is that it has been thought proper to wait until the thrashing season is over and the farmers have time to attend to politics. That being the case, there can can not be much further delay, as there will not be much more thrashing weather this year. It will be asked why the thrashing season did not postpone the elections in Alberta. The pursuits in the two Provinces are not identical. Alberta up till now has been a pastoral rather than an agricultural Province. It is true that this is changing, but the change has not gone so far as to remove the broad difference that characterizes the main employment of the people of the two Provinces.

It a number of the people of Saskatchewan would be unable to take much interest or to lose any time attending to their civic duties during the thrashing season, surely it is only rational to wait a week or two until they can be free. What interest will suffer in the meantime? The Opposition is doubtless as anxious for a full vote as the Government. If Mr. Haultain has a good cause, time, within reasonable limits, will only help him to convince the people of it. There, however, cannot be much room for controversy, for within a very few days, no doubt, we shall have the announcement of the dates of nominations and elections.

Good Practice of Choral Society

Last night's rehearsal of the Peterborough Choral Society was again gratifying. The music practiced was Bishop's fine part song and solo "Now Tramp O'er Moss and Fell;" Garratt's "Good Night, Farewell," and Barnby's "Lullaby," the ladies who were present in great force especially distinguishing themselves. The tenors and basses also did excellent work, but are yet hardly numerous enough to balance the other two parts. The musical men of the city possessing the necessary qualifications are cordially invited to communicate with the conductor, Mr. Alfred Davies, 198 McDonel street, telephone 463, with a view to joining the society at once. The number of members enrolled up to the present is seventy. The practices are held on Tuesday evenings at 8 o'clock in the Central School, Murray street.

Thorn Plumbing Company's Success

A Prosperous Concern Makes Additions to its Staff.

The business of The Thorn Plumbing Company, Limited, No. 187 Simcoe street, has been growing to such an extent that additions to the staff of expert workmen have become quite frequent of late. The principal new workmen have been selected by Messrs. Thorn & Co., of Toronto, who are interested in the Peterborough business, and who know the best class of men to select for this trade.

The office staff has also received and important addition, Mr. R. J. Jackson, from the head office, Toronto, has arrived to take official charge as secretary-treasurer of the newly incorporated company. His only experience will be a valuable assistance in the management of the rapidly increasing business here.

Mr. Lefave, who has been the company's right hand man here since spring, and who deserves credit for the gratifying success which the firm has made in a comparatively short time, will be absent from Peterborough for a month or more on important business for the company. He left last night for Alberta to take charge of a big heating job in that Province.

FROM SKINS TO FURNISHED GARMENTS UNDER ONE ROOF

Farrie's Fur Factory is a busy spot these days — everybody on the hustle. The burning of the "midnight oil," on the top floor, has been in evidence for some time past. On inquiry, we found an exceptionally busy season, and increased demands for Christmas furs necessitated working over-time in order to keep up with orders. The show rooms on the ground floor, and first floor, present a very attractive appearance with their fine and extensive stock of furs, men's furnishings, and hats. Everything around this establishment — stock, methods and style— are well represented by their new front—"The finest to be found in Canada." 1wld

Two Ivory Dice Were Found In The Far North

Mr. Geo. Stethem Received a Novelty in Shape of Two Carved Dice—Found by Prospector 1000 Miles North on Saskatchewan River—Were Eveently Carved From Whale or Walrus' Tooth--Fine Workmanship.

A VERY HIGHLY PRIZED CURIOSITY

Mr. George Stethem, of Fort Frances, formerly of this city, and at present here on a visit, yesterday received from his son, Mr. Archie Stethem, of Fort Frances, a great curiosity in the shape of two ivory dice, which were found by Mr. Fred Blanchard, and presented to Mr. Stethem through his son. Mr. Blanchard is a prospector from Fort Frances, who last spring went one thousand miles north on the Saskatchewan River, with three companions, to discover, if possible, the sources of the gold supply. It was on this trip that the dice were found. On the six faces of the dice are carved the crown, the heart, the spade, the club, the anchor and the diamond.

In sending the letter to his father Mr. Stethem writes as follows:

"He found the dice at an old camp on the Mudgytyck (or some such name) River, in the far north. It is supposed to be a camp of Franklin's on his last trip. There was nothing left but the remains of a stone chimney, and the camp was grown up with large timber and grass. He searched for the third dice but failed to find it. He thinks they are carved with a pocket knife from a whale's tooth, and probably were brought down from the Arctic Ocean."

In a post script he adds that they did not come from an Indian camp. The are supposed to be the work of a sailor. Mr. Blanchard, who made the discovery, is one of the best prospectors in Canada. He discovered on this trip an immense gold-bearing property, said to be richer than the Klondyke. That the presence of gold in this part of the country is known to a large number is evident from the fact that on their return trip from the north they met a number of persons going north to the scene of the gold supply. The parties avoided the Hudson Bay posts and travelled quietly, evidently not wishing the fact that they were in search of gold, known.

On this trip Mr. Blanchard was in a section in which no Indian nor Esquimaux, as far as was known, had ever been before.

"The Crossing" To-night.

Great interest is being shown here in the coming production at the Grand Opera House to-night, of "The Crossing." Winston Churchill's best book, which has been made into a stirring play by Mr. Churchill and Louis Evan Shipman, and which will be seen here then for the first time. Much is expected of the play by local theatre goers for its fame had preceded it and everyone is anxious to see how the most readable book of modern times will appear in stage form.

The opportunities presented by "The Crossing" for the art of the dramatist were exceptionally strong, as every reader of Winston Churchill's best book will readily remember. Mr. Churchill and Louis Evan Shipman, in making the play have selected the strongest and most dramatic pages from the novel and have turned out a piece of rare merit that is full of action during the entire four acts and that sparkles with wit and bright lines. Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Mr. Matthew's Fire Resolution Passed Committee

The Proposal to Submit a By-law for $25,000 Was Endorsed by Joint Committee Last Night—No One Opposed to the By-law—The Addition to Tax Rate Would be Only 1-3 of a Mill—A Needed Improvement.

COUNCIL ASKED TO SUBMIT BY-LAW

The resolution introduced at the meeting of the Joint Committee of Fire, Water and Light Committee and citizens, representing the Retail Merchants' Association, the Water Commissioners and the Board of Trade, held on October 25th, when Mr. T. F. Matthews, gave a notice of motion, was passed at the meeting of the committee which was held last night. There was a perfect unanimity of opinion as to the desirability of securing an improved fire protection, and the resolution found none opposed to it. It was as follows:—

"Resolved,—That this joint committee recommend the expenditure of $25,000 in order to provide better life protection appliances, such as:

"1.—New fire hall.

"2.—New steam fire engine.

"3.—New chemical engine.

"4.—New ladders and additional hose.

"5.—A new fire alarm system, believing that improvements are absolutely necessary, taking into consideration the risks in, and the size of, the city; and that a bylaw be submitted at the time of the next municipal elections for the above amount and the committee pledges itself to support the council in their endeavours to carry the bylaw."

Sub-Committee Reports.

Those present at the meeting were, Ald. Johnston, chairman; Ald. Tovey, Crowe, McIntyre, Leary and Hall, and Messrs. Dennistoun, Matthews, Fair LeBrun. The chairman, in opening the meeting explained that in the interval between the last meeting and that held last night the sub-committee had met and had considered the matters referred to it, and the opinion reached was that by lopping off some of the items in the list of improvements proposed it might be possible to reduce the amount required from the ratepayers to $25,000. They had considered that as far as the building was concerned by not finishing the second story $1,000 could be saved on it, which would bring the cost of the building to $9,000.

It was felt too, that the cost of the chemical engine might be reduced. The general impression, however, at the meeting last night was that the original sum should be asked for. It developed that in all probability the site for the fire hall would cost considerably more than had been figured on in the previous by law, when the property which had been intended to purchase at that time could have been procured for $2,600, but this had since been disposed of. A number of alternative sites were discussed, but nothing definite was decided about them further than to appoint the chairman to secure options on a number of available sites, and to submit the options to the committee at a subsequent meeting.

Improve Present Hall.

Mr. Robt. Fair suggested that the present hall might be improved and used as a permanent hall, but this was not looked favourably upon, as it was explained that the condition of the building at the present time was not such that it would pay to spend the money necessary to put it in such shape that it would be suitable for the requirements of a modern hall.

The chief advised the committee that in his opinion the amount estimated for the purchase of a chemical engine was much more than was required, and that $500, would be an outside figure for a chemical engine and hose wagon, combined. He believed that a thirty gallon chemical cylinder was sufficiently large to meet all ordinary requirements, and that when the chemical in that cylinder had been used it was time to resort to the water if the fire was not under control. He pointed out that the last hose wagon the brigade had was manufactured in Peterborough, and had cost much less than it would have cost had it been bought from an outside firm, and an evidence of its effeciency was the fact that it had been copied all over Canada.

Revised Figures.

In view of this statement by the chief, the figures were revised somewhat, and the proposal now for the different items in the expenditure will be as follows:—

Chemical engine and hose wagon, $600.
Fire hall, $9,000.
Site for hall, $5,000.
Fire alarm system, $3,000.
Steam fire engine, $5,000.

This will give a total expenditure of $22,600, giving $2,400 for incidentals.

Ald. Tovey pointed out that in his opinion it was very necessary that the ratepayers should be taken into the confidence of the council, and those interested in the proposal, because unless they understood the plan the bylaw would be defeated again. He advised holding a number of meetings in the different parts of the city and having some of the aldermen and business men address them and be prepared to answer any questions which the ratepayers might put to them concerning the bylaw.

It was pointed out that for 20 year debentures, such as would in all probability be issued, the annual cost for interest and sinking fund would be in the neighbourhood of $2,000. This would mean an addition to the tax rate of about one-third of a mill. A ratepayer, with an assessment of $1,000 would pay about 30 cents a year for the 20 years of the life of the debentures.

The resolution was then introduced as a motion. It was moved by Mr. T. F. Matthews and seconded by Mr. Robt. Fair, and was unanimously passed.

Non-Coms. May Arrange For Entertainments

Important and Largely Attended Meeting Last Night of Non-Commissioned Officers of 57th Regiment—Spirited and Practical Addresses by the Chaplain, Rev. J. C. Davidson—Other Matters of Business.

A COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED

An important meeting of the Non-Commissioned officers of the 57th Regiment was held last night at the mess rooms with the object of reviving interest in the mess and in regimental matters, and to arrange for some co-operation during the winter.

The meeting has been arousing much interest, and Sergeant-Major Brittain and about thirty Non-Commissioned officers, including a number from the class, were in attendance. The chair was occupied by Sergeant S. Sharp, president of the mess.

Sergeant Cottrell (presented a highly satisfactory financial statement of payments and receipts. There had been stringency in the past, but the financial outlook was now bright. Considerable discussion upon this and other matters followed, and a number of other items of business were left over for consideration at a future meeting. The chairman then called upon Rev. J. C. Davidson to address the meeting.

Rev. Mr. Davidson.

Rev. Mr. Davidson began by speaking of the great importance of the Non-Commissioned officers to the regiment, this being generally conceded. It depended upon them not only to give an example of correctness of drill, but to infuse military spirit and set an example of correct military deportment in the different sections of the regiment.

This necessitated the cultivation of these qualities before the drill season began, and the chaplain strongly urged attendance at the classes of Sergeant-Major Brittain, whose soldierly bearing and military efficiency he highly praised. General gratitude and admiration were due to everyone who made himself proficient.

With a view to promoting esprit de corps there should be occasional gatherings at the mess rooms, but not too often, owing to the other duties that pressed upon them. It was also absolutely essential that the committee should keep up a high tone in the mess rooms, and wherever they were gathered, as members of the regiment, whose honour and high standing at the present time it would be the act of a traitor to tarnish.

To further promote esprit de corps and keep the regiment in evidence the chaplain suggested two or three entertainments of a strictly military nature during the winter, and gave some suggestions with regard to them. Fancy drills and other features required would be of advantage to the regiment.

The address was received with unmistakable approval, and a warm vote of thanks to Rev. Mr. Davidson was given by all standing. A general discussion followed on matters referred to in the chaplain's address. Sergeant Cottrell spoke of one stringent regulation adopted by which liquors, gambling and late hours were absolutely prohibited in the mess.

The Sergeant-Major and others discussed the question of suitable entertainments, and a committee, of the colour-sergeants was appointed to bring in a report at the next meeting. It was decided that the mess rooms should be open only on certain evenings, and arrangements were made for these.

The general result of the meeting was to give a decided impetus to the life and activity among the N.C.O.'s, and some pleasing results may be looked for.

"The Crossing" Company To-night

Mr. Wilfrid North, manager, and the Crossing Company, have arrived in the city, and will present Shipman's dramatization of "The Crossing," at the Grand Opera House to-night. The play is of a high class character, and will be presented by a company of matropolitan calibre, one of the best travelling companies on the continent, whose production has everywhere received well deserved commendation. The scene is laid in Louisiana, when it belonged to Louis, in the days of French occupation,—and the story is highly dramatic, without being offensively sensational. The press everywhere "The Crossing," has been played, has spoken of it in the highest terms of commendation, so that those who visit the opera house to-night are assured of a fine dramatic treat. Mr. North says that learning that we had a fine new opera house in Peterborough, he cancelled a night in Hamilton to present a first-class play to an appreciative Peterborough audience.

Port Hope Is The Scene Of a Burglary

Port Hope, Nov. 21.—Two burglaries were committed early this morning, and at one residence over $80 was secured, while at the other place the parties were scared away. The first one occurred about 1.30 a.m., when the thieves, by means of a ladder, got up on the roof of Mr. J. Wickett's store, and climbed along to a skylight, where one dropped down into the bedroom of two ladies. Their cries of fright drove him away, and nothing more was heard. The second burglary occurred at 2 a.m., when the residence of Mr. N. Pethick was entered, and over $80 secured from the trousers of the two gentlemen visitors. Five dollars was taken from the purse of Mrs. Pethick, which hung in the globes closet down stairs. No trace of the parties has been found.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff and Falling Hair with irritants or oils upon which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ. Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Question Of Local Option

certainly be very much more in demand.

He reminded the people of Warsaw that the village hotel stood for something and that in their effort to remove the objectionable saloon, they should be prepared to establish a well stocked reading room, and recreation room, and for Saturdays, he believed that hot chocolate and coffee would add to the enjoyment and fellowship of the large number of young people that crowded into the village on Saturday night.

Regarding the question of increased taxation he quoted from the financial statement of a successful township like Smith, when the last printed report showed that they had secured from license $110, while $434 had been spent in charity.

Assuming that a large percentage of this is due to drink traffic as so often stated by Premiers Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. G. W. Ross, there would be saved to the township some $160. But the speaker felt that the gain in moral character, as well as in increased comfort, happiness and prosperity throughout the township would more than pay any amount of needed revenue.

As an illustration of the moral value to a community of protecting and preventing from crime any one individual, he cited two authenticated cases. The first was that of Jonathan Edwards, born in 1703. In 1900 there were 1,394 of his descendants identified—295 were college graduates, 13 presidents of leading colleges, 65 professors and teachers, 75 officers in the army and navy, 60 prominent authors and writers editing 18 magazines, 100 lawyers, of whom one was the most eminent professors of law this continent has produced; 30 were judges, 80 held public office, one being vice-president of the United States; 8 U. S. senators, several governors and ministers to foreign countries, and 15 responsible positions in railway insurance and banking institutions.

The second case was that of the notorious Max Jones, born in 1720, who was a drunkard who would not work. In 1874 his descendants had the following history:

310 were in poor houses.
440 were viciously corrupt.
7 were murderers.
50 were profligates, many of them women.
60 were habitual thieves.
130 convictions of different crimes stood against his offspring.

Mr. Potter closed his appeal by quoting the R. C. Archbishop of Westminster, who, in a recent address, said: "There is an evil in our midst which probably overshadows all the rest, and which is directly or indirectly the cause of so many of the ills which we are striving to cure. It affects the whole nation alike, and we must sadly confess that our own people, in spite of Catholic training and all the religious helps which their faith affords, are too often unable to withstand it. Were it not for this curse our position in the country would be far different from what it is. The Catholic church should be foremost in the noble attempts which the best in the nation are making to check this very tide of sin. Our religion is built on self-denial for our Master's sake; and for our own safety, and as a help to others, perhaps weaker than ourselves, we should practice great restraint in this matter, and strive to establish round about us a sound public opinion, which will be a safeguard to the strong and a protection to the weak. It is, therefore, our duty, in so far as our opportunities permit, to take some part in the public efforts which are made to advance the cause of temperance."

Meetings will be held throughout Dummer next week to be addressed by speakers from Norwood.

Country's Laws Were Influenced Says a Senator

Senator Platt Tells of Crooked Insurance Methods.

BIG MONEY WAS PAID TO HIM

Republican Political Fund Richer by $10,000 a Year From the Funds of the Equitable Company—What Mutual Life and New York Life Subscribed For This Purpose—Senator Depew's Friend.

New York, Nov. 22.—The identity of Senator Depew's "cantankerous friend from up the river" was disclosed in the session of the Armstrong committee of insurance investigation yesterday, by the testimony of John A. Nichols, a lawyer under retainer by the Equitable Life. Mr. Nichols had written Senator Depew a letter referring to an individual in the above terms, which letter was read at the session of the committee Friday, when Depew was on the stand. The senator said he was unable to recall who was meant, but yesterday Nichols disclosed a series of payments to W. S. Manning of Albany, a former actuary connected with the investigation of insurance companies in 1877. Nichols detailed the payment of sums of money over a considerable period to Manning as an inducement to give up his business as actuary, in which capacity he believed Manning was a menace to the Equitable. Nichols said he was paid a retainer from the Mutual and the New York Life for the same duties, that of "taking care of Mr. Manning," as Mr. Hughes characterized it. The payments by the Equitable for Manning were made to Nichols on vouchers bearing false names, which Nichols said was done to protect Manning.

Senator Platt a Witness.

Aside from this testimony, the feature was the appearance of Senator Thomas C. Platt, who was carried upstairs in a chair. He told of the contributions of the insurance companies to the campaign fund of the Republican state committee. The Equitable, the Mutual Life and the New York Life were the only insurance companies that made such contributions, he said. The Equitable Life contributed regularly $10,000, the Mutual Life the same sum frequently, and the New York Life a sum not as large, and only occasionally. These moneys always were delivered in cash to Senator Platt's office by messenger, and he turned them over to the state committee. The senator said he supposed he was expected to influence legislation favorably to the insurance companies.

An Assemblyman's Story.

Assemblyman James K. Apgar of Westchester was called to explain the finding of his cards with the words "Mr. Hyde says to pay him," attached to a voucher for $1,000 which the Equitable paid Thos. P. Husted. The voucher bore Husted's endoresment. Apgar said he knew nothing about the money, nor did he know how his card came to be used for such a purpose. He knew A. C. Fields, but never knew of his receiving money for political purposes. Fields was politically active in Westchester, where he also lived. Apgar said, and generally elected whoever he set out to elect. Apgar talked with Fields in Albany while a member of the insurance commission, and had called on Fields socially in the house maintained by the latter. Apgar said his relations were somewhat strained with Thos. D. Husted, and as the latter is dead, he asked to be excused from going into an explanation of the matter.

A Farmer Is Heard By The Commission

Mr. McLean of Huron Before the Tariff Commission.

PROTECTION NO BENEFIT

Ministers Listen to His Address With Attention, As It Was Remarkable For Its Moderation and Fairness—Advocated a Give and Take Policy—Objections of the Fruit Dealers Heard.

London, Ont., Nov. 22.—"It is a question, you know, if those manufacturers who make a poor story about the condition of their industry have any intention of closing up. Ask them what percentage they have been making in recent years. Of course, if you find an industry that will be a benefit to this country and that is going back, a man would be almost unreasonable to say, 'Don't help it'; but don't help it too much at the expense of other people." In these words Mr. R. B. McLean, a prominent Huron County farmer, living at Kippen, concluded a strong appeal to the Tariff Commission yesterday in the interests of agriculture. Mr. McLean's address was remarkable for its moderation and fairness, and he was listened to with attention by the Ministers. "We do not say," said he, "that the manufacturers should not have any advantage in building up their trade, but to protect them for 20 or 30 years at the consumer's expense is not just to the consumer. The protection policy that has favored manufacturers is very largely accountable for the increase in their wealth. In Canada we should endeavor to get along with a revenue tariff. I can see a prohibitive tariff staring us in the face at the rate money is spent by our Government to-day. It is not a pleasing outlook for the agriculturist. I know of many men who have spent their whole life on the farm, and they have nothing to show to-day but the rise in the value of their farms."

Fruit and Vegetable Dealers.

The London fruit and vegetable dealers presented counter-demands to those of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association at Toronto for increased duties. Mr. G. G. Steele, as chief speaker, took much the same line as the Toronto wholesale and retail dealers. He asked for the following changes: Tomatoes, 25 cents per bushel instead of 10 cents and 10 per cent.; potatoes, reduction from 15 to 10 cents per bushel; melons, reduction from 25 to 12 1-2 per cent.; onions, reduction from 25 per cent. to 10 cents a bushel; cranberries, restoration of old duty of 30 cents a bushel, as they are not grown successfully in Canada; grapes, reduction from two cents to one cent per pound, or, failing that reduction, to one cent on grapes from Spain and California; peaches, reduction from one cent to half a cent a pound from December 1 to August 15.

"If you were on the commission," asked Mr. Paterson, "how would you reconcile your views with the views of the fruit men?"

"I think I would consider all parties, or the largest numbers in the country, I understand you have a hard problem," Mr. Steele replied; "but I do not think those importations interfere with the fruitmen in any way. I think they are taking a limited view of the case. Fruit dealers are educating the people to use more fruit. There is 500 per cent. more fruit consumed in Ontario now than there was ten years ago. We only ask that when the farmers have not the goods to sell they will not prevent other people from burying them." Mr. Steele contended that the earliest shipments of southern fruit each year are unprofitable; that the dealers in reality stimulated the appetites of the people for the Canadian fruit when it is ready.

Enameled ware manufacturers and stove men were also heard.

ENGINE BADLY DAMAGED.

Passenger Runs Into Freight, But No One Badly Hurt.

Quebec, Nov. 22.—Local express No. 153 on the Intercolonial, which left Levis at 4.20 yesterday afternoon for Montreal ran into a special freight train standing at De Lotbiniere Station.

The only person reported injured is Conductor Gauvreau of the freight train, who received slight bruises.

The engine of the express train was thrown off the track and badly damaged, and two or three cars on the freight caught fire and were burned.

The accident blocked the line for two or three hours.

Borden In North York.

Aurora, Nov. 22.—Mr. R. L. Borden was the principal speaker at a well-attended meeting held in the Mechanics' Hall here last night in the interest of Mr. Arch. McCallum, Conservative candidate for North York. The gathering was harmonious, and at times quite enthusiastic. The Opposition leader's speech was largely a repetition of his addresses in North Wentworth.

Montreal Trolleys Collide.

Montreal, Nov. 22.—Two St. Denis street cars were damaged in a collision yesterday, and five people sent to the hospital to have wounds dressed. A baker's cart was struck by one car which stopped suddenly and caused the following car to run into its rear.

Bavarian's Pilot Suspended.

Quebec, Nov. 22.—The court which investigated the cause of the running ashore of the Allan steamer Bavarian thirty miles below Quebec on the 3rd inst., rendered judgment yesterday morning. Pilot Paul Lachance is held solely responsible for the accident, but the court taking into consideration his previous good record dealt leniently with him and only suspended his certificate for the space of two years. The captain and officers of the ship are completely exonerated from blame.

A Charge Of Conspiracy Is Being Laid

James Hardy in the Toronto Police Court On Tuesday.

"IN RESTRAINT OF TRADE"

Secretary of Trade Associations and "Other Persons Whose Names Are at Present Unknown" Subjects of a New Information—Accused Does Not Elect Nor Plead, and Case Was Remanded For a Week.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—Crown Attorney Curry continued his search in the alleged combine offices all day yesterday. A large carload of books was taken from the office and placed in No. 1 Police Station, where they will be kept until he finishes his search and brings the matter before the magistrate. He will continue taking away such documents as he requires to help out his case. "There is six weeks' work ahead of me," said the Crown Attorney.

Another Information.

In the Police Court yesterday a new information was sworn to by Detective Black. It is against James Hardy "and other persons whose names are at present unknown," and states "that they did, contrary to law, conspire, agree and arrange, the one with the other or others of them, to restrain and injure trade in relation to enameled ware and other such goods, and to unreasonably enhance the price thereof, and to unduly prevent and lessen competition in the production, manufacture, purchase, barter, sale and supply of said enameled ware and other such goods, contrary to the statute."

Police Court Proceedings.

The proceedings in the Police Court were extremely short. D. E. Thomson, K. C., appeared for Mr. Hardy, but did no talking. In fact, no one spoke on behalf of the combines. Crown Attorney Curry, when the case was called and the new information laid yesterday was read, announced that he wanted a week for a remand.

"There is no election in this case, is there?" asked Magistrate Denison.

"None without pleading," answered Mr. Curry, and the magistrate remanded the case until next Tuesday.

Mr. Hardy, who had been standing at the back of the court during the earlier proceedings, pushed to the front and was informed of the remand, after which he left the court in company with his lawyer.

Plumbers' Case Goes Over.

The plumbers' conspiracy case was enlarged by Magistrate Denison in the Police Court for a week. Mr. Curry said that he thought it likely that he would be ready to go on then.

One feature of the day was the announcement that different firms intend to sue the master plumbers for the money out of which they have been defrauded. Warwick Bros. & Rutter, one of the firms forced to build in a hurry after the big fire, may sue the firm installing their plumbing and steamfitting for $1,500. Among the other firms "soaked" on their plumbing contracts were: W. R. Brock, A. Ainsley, Cockburn & Rae, Gordon, Mackay & Co., R. G. Dunn, Allcock, Laight & Westwood, Brown Bros. and A. Bradshaw & Sons. The W. R. Brock plumbing cost in the neighborhood of $15,000.

Homeward Sanitarium Sues.

The first municipality to take action is Guelph. The solicitor for the Homewood Sanitarium has received instructions to proceed against the Master Plumbers to recover $300 alleged overcharge by the Toronto association.

The Montreal Master Plumbers' Association have issued a positive denial that any attempts have been made by their association to prevent honest competition. In Hamilton the association quit business two weeks ago.

"We did not do things as they were done in Toronto," says one member, "It seems to have been a case of graft there. But when question came as to the legality of our operations we quietly went out of business."

MANY LIVES IN DANGER.

A Barrie Baker Is Accused of a Very Serious Offence.

Barrie, Nov. 22.—Alfred S. Carscadden, a baker and restaurant keeper, is under arrest on a charge of incendiarism. Yesterday morning fire was discovered in his shop, but luckily was extinguished before it had got any headway.

Had the fire got a good start the loss would have been heavy and perhaps attended by loss of life, as the store is in the Queen's Hotel block and the hotel was crowded with guests.

Justice Teetzel, who was presiding Monday at the non-jury sittings, occupied a room on the first floor, immediately over the burning store. Carscadden a few years ago was a farmer in Oro Township, and had been in business in Barrie only a year, coming here from Orillia.

He was arraigned before Police Magistrate Radenhurst yesterday, pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by jury.

For Suffering Jews.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—M. E. Greenbaum, treasurer of the Jewish Relief Association committee, sent a cheque for $20,000 to Jacob H. Schiff of New York Monday, making $40,000 that has been forwarded from Chicago for the alleviation of the suffering of the Russian Jews.

DEATH OF MR. J. W. HENDRIE.

One of Hamilton's Business Men Passes Away After a Brief Illness.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—The death took place yesterday morning in Grace Hospital of Mr. James Walker Hendrie of Hamilton. Mr. Hendrie, who was at Sturgeon Falls on business, took suddenly ill at that place on Thursday last, uraemic poisoning developing, which was complicated with pneumonia. He was removed to Grace Hospital, and the family physicians from Hamilton, Dr. White and Dr. Edgar, called into consultation.

Mr. Hendrie gradually sank, dying yesterday morning. Deceased was 46 years of age. He was the second son of Mr. William Hendrie of Hamilton and a brother of the Hon. John W. Hendrie, M. P. P. All the members of the family were present at the deathbed, including his sister, Mrs. A. D. Braithwaite of New York, and Mr. George M. Hendrie of Detroit.

Mr. Hendrie started out as a railway contractor. He built the last 40 miles of the Northern Pacific into North Bay, and the old belt line around Toronto. During the past summer he acted as purser on the Northern Belle, of which he was part owner, a steamer which ran on Lake Nipissing.

A Brutal Hold-Up.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—A case of hold-up was reported last night. It was of such a brutal character that the victim is in the Emergency with a broken nose and jaw. Charles Hayles is the man so badly beaten. He is a C. P. R. section man and lives in Bolton. About 7 o'clock he met a stranger on the street and had a drink with him. They took a walk and wound up at the beginning of the lane in rear of Windsor street. There three other men took hold of Hayles, rushed him up the lane, and commenced to go through him. He resisted, and was knocked down, and kicked on the head and face. Although Hayles had his $15 in his shoe the thieves got it.

The Half Century Mark in Norwood High School Passed—The Golden Jubilee Was Celebrated Last Week—A Concert and Presentation of Prizes—Temperance Sunday in Methodist Church---Lecture on Missions.

ALL THE LATEST NORWOOD NEWS

Special to The Examiner.

Norwood, November 21st. — On Friday evening last the fiftieth anniversary of the Norwood High School, was celebrated by the holding of an "annual" and jubilee in the town hall. Mr. J. L. Squire, the chairman of the Board of Education, was the chairman for the evening, and in his opening address spoke very interestingly of the many improvements which have been made in every respect during the last fifty years --how the fathers of fifty years ago wondered what changes would take take place in the last half century.

Chairman's address'... ....
Mr. J. L. Squire.
Humorous song, Welcome ... ...Hand
Mr. H. M. Bennett.

PART II.

Recitation... ... ...Selected
Mr. H. M. Bennett.

Mrs. J. Davidson.
Comic selection, I'm Going to be Married..... ....Bennett
Mr. H. M. Bennett.
Solo, Asleep in the Deep... ...Petrie
Rev. G. A. MacLennan.
Address..... ... .
Dr. Ford.
Solo, Nelson song, "'Tis a Hundred Years Ago"... ... ...Everard
Mr. H. M. Bennett.
Presentation of Prizes... ... ...
God save the King.

Mr. Bennett's selections were received with hearty applause, and each time he cheerfully responded to the encores. His last solo, Nelson song, "'Tis a hundred years ago," was one which could not help but arouse the patriotism of all true British subjects and was rendered in excellent style. The solos by our local talent were very much appreciated. A disappointment for all was the inability of Dr. Ford to deliver his address to which so many looked forward, as he had been called away on professional duty, and was unable to return in time. Dr. Ford for several years has been writing the history of Norwood, its schools, etc., and he was to have given a history of the High School since its beginning. However we have the assurance that if we do not hear the address sometime in the future we shall see it in print. Much credit is due Miss Sherry, the accompanist of the evening.

The prizes were as follows and were given to the pupils who secured the highest marks in certain subjects at the junior leaving examinations in July:

For General Proficiency — $10, in books, given by Dr. Pettigrew.

For Mathematics — $10, in books, given by Dr. Robertson.

For French. — $5, in books given by Miss Archer, M.A.

For English — $10, in books, given by Dr. Ford.

F. Lamey stood first in General Proficiency and also in Mathematics; W. Evans stood second in General Proficiency, and first in French; Edith Campbell stood third in General Proficiency. As no pupil was to receive more than one prize Mr. Lamey chose the one in Mathematics in preference to that in General Proficiency, and Willie Evans the prize in French. Miss Campbell was then given the prize for General Proficiency. Helen Fowlds secured the prize for Latin, and Nellie Murphy for English.

After the prizes had been awarded Mr. O'Reilly moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to the chairman. Mr. Cuffe seconded the motion, which was carried. Mr. Squire replied in a few well-chosen words.

Mr. D. N. King, who has sold his hotel business to Mr. Scales of Markham, is moving into the old parsonage.

Misses Ghurey and Kelly of Campbellford, are visiting friends in town.

Mrs. J. Belleghem, who has been the guest of Mrs. A Greenbank, has returned to her home in Havelock.

The Perils of Deer Hunting

The following experience of Mr. J. P. Hobson of Huntsville, shows that there is sometimes as much peril to the hunter as to the hunted:

Mr. Hobson took a position on a leading runway, and after a long wait was rewarded by the sound of approaching deer. In silence he waited until the buck was about to bound within range. He raised his rifle. "Bang! Bang!" and the expectant hunter heard a shower of bullets whiz past his head. The buck fell a prize to another party, and Mr. Hobson congratulated himself he had not met a similar fate. "There were eighty hunters within a radious of two miles and I concluded my safest place was home," he told a friend.

MANY CONSUMPTIVES HELPED.

State Hospital in Adirondacks Shows Encouraging Figures---105 Patients Discharged.

The trustees of the New York State Hospital for Incipient Pulmonary Tuberculosis in the Adirondacks have issued their completed statistics for the first year, which is as follows: There were admitted 207 patients, more than half of whom were incipients. There were no deaths. Of the 105 patients discharged, fifty-two were apparently recovered. Twenty-six arrested cases are reported. Sixteen improved, while eleven left without any improvement. The treatment consists mainly of outdoor air, wholesome food and rest. Patients have three full meals and two or three luncheons a day, and 90 of the 105 gained an average of 10.57 pounds each. This is certainly most encouraging and shows that incipient consumptives at least can be cured. There is another treatment perhaps almost as good. Stay home, use cold baths in the morning, get as much outdoor exercise as possible, a generous diet and the continuous use of Scott's Emulsion will doubtless check the progress of the disease and may permanently cure. At any rate it is easy to try it.

Marriage Of George IV. Has Been Proved

Established Fact Now That He Was Married to Mrs. Fitzherbert-Discovery in Coutt's Bank of Marriage Cerlificate Has Proved This--The Marriage in Reality an Illegal One--King Denied His Alliance.

DUPLICITY OF ROYAL RASCAL

The recent discovery at Coutts bank in London of a package containing the marriage certificate and other proofs of the marriage of George IV and Mrs. Fitzherbert will doubtless revive a good deal of ancient gossip about the episode in the career of "the first gentleman in Europe." The fact of the marriage has long been established, although it was once doubted and was positively denied by George himself.

As Prince of Wales, as Regent and as King, George had many love affairs. His connection with Mrs. Fitzherbert was the least discreditable of them all. There is no doubt that, so far as it was in the power of his cold and selfish heart to love anybody but himself, he loved this woman whom he clandestinely made his wife, and it is certain that he was fondly beloved by her. For eighteen years they lived together as man and wife, though for eight years of that period the Prince had a legal wife—the unfortunate Caroline of Brunswick.

It was in 1785, when George was in his 24th year, that he met Maria Fitzherbert, a beautiful widow, his senior by six years. The Prince was smitten with her charms and paid his addresses to her. He was then handsome, accomplished and amiable, and he found it easy to win the affections of the lady. But she was virtuous as well as beautiful, and the Prince soon discovered that the only connection he could form with her was one sanctioned by religion. So they were married by a priest of the Roman Catholic church, the lady being a member of that communion.

It the marriage had been a legal one, the Prince would have forfeited his succession to the throne, for by the act of succession an heir to the throne who marries a Roman Catholic forfeits his right to wear the crown. By some of George's apologists it has been claimed that his affection for Mrs. Fitzherbert must have been as unselfish as it was tender, seeing that for her sake he imperilled his chance of becoming King. But George knew that there was no danger. When he went through the form of marriage with Mrs. Fitzherbert he knew that the marriage was illegal, for by the Royal Marriage Act of 1772 no member of the Royal family could legally contract a marriage without having first obtained the King's consent. He tricked the lady into marrying him; but she was content to live with him as his wife; the sanction of the church to their union was sufficient to satisfy her conscience.

The marriage took place in December, 1785. In April, 1787, a motion was made in the House of Commons for raising a large sum of money to pay the Prince's debts. An objection being raised on the ground that he had married a Catholic and thereby placed in doubt his right to the succession, Charles James Fox, leader of the Opposition, went to George and put the question to him straight whether or not he had married Mrs. Fitzherbert. The Prince told Mr. Fox that there never had been any marriage ceremony and authorized him to say so in the House. This Mr. Fox did, and the money for the relief of the Prince was voted. Afterwards, to his intimate friends, he declared that he had never instructed Fox to deny the marriage, and to his wife he pretended to be indignant at Fox's statement.

Such was the duplicity of this royal rascal. However, it may well be believed that, although his real character was revealed in the history of this love affair, he would have been a far worse man than he was but for his union with Mrs. Fitzherbert. The influence she exerted over him was an influence for good. She stimulated what possibilities of good there were in his nature, and inspired in him a pure affection which ceased only with his life. When he died, twenty-seven years after their separation, her portrait in miniature was found lying next his heart. She survived him years.

Sir Frerick Treves, speaking at Brighton, England, praised the reform already introduced into the army and medical service, but greatly criticized the army council for not carrying them further. The service, he maintained, was not prepared for another great war.

The Hong Kong branch of the British Naval League in China has obtained, the Governor's recommendation to the colonial office to grant lease of seventy-five years of the land required for the erection of a permanent naval recreation building in celebration of the Nelson centenary.

Charles F. Staine of Mercer, Me., on whose evidence his father was sent to prison for life, for the murder of Cashier Barren of the Dexter Savings Bank, over a quarter of a century ago, on the witness stand under cross-examination, admitted that he gave false evidence against his father.

A claimant for Professor von Behring's laurels as the discoverer of a cure for consumption has come to the fore in the person of Dr. Karl von Ruck, of Asheville, N. C. Dr. Von Ruck asserts that he discovered the cure which Prof. von Behring told about at the congress of scientists held in Paris.

Mrs. Hubbard Has Arrived At Ancient City

The Brave Labrador Explorer Has Reached Quebec on Her Way Home to New York—Had Succeeded in Reaching Ungava Bay—Declines to Give Out Full Information--Did Not Discover Gold.

FORMER PETERBORO' LADY'S EXPERIENCES

Quebec, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Leonidas Hubbard arrived in Quebec this afternoon from Newfoundland by the steamer King Edward en route to New York. She was met on her arrival by the Globe correspondent, who sought an account of her exploration experiences in the wilds of Labrador. Mrs. Hubbard, who went to Labrador to carry out the mission of her husband, who perished from starvation in the attempt, is a delicate-looking woman, who probably does not weigh more than 110 pounds. Mrs. Hubbard declined to give out her experience for publication. She said she was in the newspaper business herself, and would retain her interesting knowledge until she reached New York to sell it. She admitted, however, that she had accomplished the object of her journey, which was to reach Ungava Bay. She did not go in search of gold, or any other minerals, consequently did not locate any. Speaking of the route followed, she said she went to the northeast river, thence up the Nasoupee to Michikamou, and from there to the height of land, reached the head of the George River, and went down it to Ungava Bay, her destination. She said the country is very sparsely populated, and she met only two bands of Indians, who were encamped in tents, but would give no further information about them. She saw game, but not in plentitude. Speaking of her husband, Mrs. Hubbard traced the spot where he lost his way, he having turned in the wrong direction at the Northeast River, and wandered into barren land, where he died from exposure and starvation. Mrs. Hubbard, who was accompanied by an Indian guide, George Elsen, left for Montreal tonight.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines written on the death of W. W. Meacham, M. D., who died July 27, 1905, aged 44 years.

A brother beloved and highly esteemed
Is taken away from our midst
To live with the Angels in Heaven above
Where the King in His beauty now sits.

He lovingly spake to the people while here
And advised them Salvation to seek
And walk in the footsteps of Jesus their Lord
The Saviour so lowly and meek.

He remembered in youth his Creator and Lord
And his heart unto Jesus he gave
Whom he found a true friend in whom he could trust,
The Saviour the mighty to save.

His troubles and trials are all over now,
He has entered the bright Spirit land,
To meet with the loved ones that's gone on before,
And to join the celestial band.

Our brother is missed in the church here below
And also in the Sunday School,
Where he earnestly sought the youth to instruct
And to teach them the Golden rule.

May the lessons he taught in the Sunday School
To the pupils not soon be forgot
But may they bear fruit to the glory of God
Who our pardon and freedom has bought.

Our brother is missed in the family home,
By his children and wife so dear,
Where he frequently prayed to God whom he loved
That His blessing might rest on them there.

To the House of the Lord he loved to repair
"To hear the sweet story of old"
How Jesus went home a place to prepare,
In that land where the streets are of gold.

May we from our brother some lessons here learn
Of faithfulness unto the Lord
And follow his footsteps as he followed Christ,
And with him gain at last the reward.

Farewell, now dear brother, we'll see thee no more
In this world of sickness and pain
But hope when the trials of life are all o'er
To meet thee in Heaven again.

The Toronto Telegram says it is understood that the situation between company and the representatives of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen who are in Montreal, has become so serious that Mr. McGuigan will take a hand in the fight, with a view to bringing about a settlement. The members of the brotherhoods are becoming restless and want something definite. They think they might use the $1,000 that it is costing them each week in Montreal for a committee to some better advantage.

"For God's Sake Sign This Letter"; Strong Request

Grayling, Mich., Nov. 16.—Admitted in evidence against Mrs. Naomi Aldrich, of Frederic, on trial here for the murder of her sons for their insurance, was the letter written by the prisoner since her arrest to her sister. Mrs. Louisa McColman, whom she urged to take the blame for poisoning the boys. There was also introduced and admitted the letter which Mrs. Aldrich asked her sister to sign, making out that Mrs. McColman was the real murderer. Mrs. McColman, on the advice of her husband, turned the letter over to the prosecutor.

Mrs. Aldrich's letter to her sister read as follows:

"Grayling, Monday.

"Well, Louise, here it is on Monday night and I have not seen you yet and you have not come. For fear that you do not come I will send. I want you to send one written just the same, and sign your name. Now do sure and write just the same. Remember and not say anything do anyone about it. Above all remember the letter; be sure and destroy this one. Will write it on a separate sheet. Now remember and not say anything about it. Send the one sure and I will destroy it. For your sake be sure and send the letter part as I write it, and sign your name. I hope you can come in the morning. If you don't, send the letter sure. I will be in bed if you don't. Be sure and destroy this letter, and I will destroy yours sure. For God's sake be sure and send it."

Frederick, Mich., Oct. 18, 1905.

To whom this may concern:

Mrs. Aldrich is perfectly innocent of the crime she is accused of, for it was myself who administered the poison, and she is innocent.

LOUISA McCOLMAN.

Mrs. Aldrich took the stand yesterday afternoon in her own behalf. She seemed quite composed, except when questioned about her dead children, when she was overcome with tears. She said she is 28 years old, and had been married once to a Mr. Soule, but that she hadn't been married to Aldrich, although she assumed that name on the birth of a child.

The defence rested its case at the adjournment of court last night. Arguments were started at 9 o'clock this morning. Each side is allowed two hours to address the jury.

POWERS AND TURKEY.

Demonstration Fleet Due to Arrive at Piraeus Thursday—Will the Sultan Cave?

London, Nov. 22.—The British armored cruiser Lancaster and the scout ship Sentinel have been despatched to Piraeus.

Vienna, Nov. 22.—The first section of the Austrian squadron which will form part of the combined fleet of the powers, under Admiral Von Jedina of the Austrian navy, in the proposed demonstration in Turkish waters, is due to arrive at Piraeus at daybreak Thursday morning.

The Italian warships will probably arrive at Piraeus after the Austrian vessels, and the French contingent will follow.

Hopes are still entertained here that the Sultan will accede to the demands of the powers regarding Macedonian reforms, and thus obviate the necessity of a demonstration.

Will Yield to Demand of Powers.

Constantinople, Nov. 22.—The frequent and prolonged conferences of the Council of Ministers at the Yildiz Palace are believed to indicate preparations to yield in principle to the demand of the powers for the acceptance of the financial reforms decided upon for Macedonia. Probably, however, the Turkish Government will make further attempts to secure modifications of the plans before finally accepting the full program.

ONTARIO'S FINANCES.

Hon. Col. Matheson Says Provincial Receipts Are Mounting Up.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—Hon. Col. Matheson, has an encouraging tale to tell regarding the revenue of the province. The ordinary revenue is in excess of last year. The financial year ends with the calendar year. Bonuses on timber, which come under the head of extraordinary revenue, are less than last year because those of 1904 were swelled by the 1903 payments. Instead of the estimate of $450,000 from succession duties there is already $500,000 which does not include extras from the Fulford, Gooderham or other estates which may contribute before the end of the year. The share of Dominion taxes on Chinese emigrants, amounting last year to $6,000, has not been received. Hon. Mr. Matheson is beginning to see a surplus coming.

The estate of the late Alex. Lumsden has contributed succession duties amounting to $49,199. Returns from several old estates in dispute for some time are being made.

HELD UP A NEWSPAPER.

Socialist Editors Compel Novoe Vremya to Run Off Their Sheet.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 22.—The Novoe Vremya was the victim of a remarkable hold-up by social revolutionaries Monday night. Three editors of The Workmen's Gazette, the official organ of the workingmen's council, boldly entered the composing-room of The Novoe Vremya, with revolvers in their hands, and compelled the compositors to set up their paper, and also compelled the pressmen to run off 30,000 copies of it.

Zemstvo For Witte.

Moscow, Nov. 22.—The sentiment of the Zemstvo Congress is veering distinctly to the side of Count Witte, and it now seems probable that a large majority of delegates will favor a resolution to come to the assistance of the Government against the forces of revolution.

Glasgow, Scotland, Nov. 21.—The French ship Berengere, from Tchio for Glasgow, landed at Grenock yesterday. The crew of the British ship Garsdale, from Shields June 26 for Portland, Ore., which was dismasted Sept. 7 and abandoned Sept. 12. Her crew were rescued with difficulty.

The Wornout Nerves, The Weak Heart, The Tired Brain, The Wasted Strength.

What a multitude of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case. From early morn until late at night they have been on the go, year in and year out, attending to the daily household duties, looking after the wants of her children and spending the rest of her time attending to social and church work. Is it any wonder then that sooner or later there comes a general collapse? The action of the heart becomes weak and palpitating, the nerves become unstrung, the brain feels in a whirl half the time and the usual force of vitality is lacking.

It is at this time a woman should look after herself. If she does not, serious female disorders may set in and often cause weary months and years of helplessness and miserable suffering. What she wants is something to build up her system. For this purpose there is nothing to equal

They are this woman's friend in every sense of the word.

They will strengthen the weak heart, tone up the shaky, starved nerves, make the brain clear, and restore the lost vitality.

Mrs. George Lohnes, Stanley Section, N.S., writes: "I was greatly troubled with weak and dizzy spells and was so run down I could not attend to my household duties. I bought two boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after taking them I found that my trouble had all passed away. I am now strong and healthy again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25. If your dealer does not handle them, send direct to The Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Thirteen Steamers Icebound.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 22.—The weather is so exceptionally severe that thirteen steamers are icebound between St. Petersburg and Cronstadt. London, Nov. 22.—The Marquis of Downshire has agreed to sell his agricultural lands in County Down, Ireland, to the tenants. The estate is the largest in Ireland, and is valued at about $10,000,000.

WHY CANADA FLOURISHED.

Because of Sir John A. Macdonald's Protection Policy.

London, Nov. 22.—Dr. Renaltne Dawson, prospective Conservative candidate, East Division, Edinburgh, in the course of an address to his constituents, said he remembered Canada in free trade days, when he saw the very similar state of affairs as existed in this country at the present time. He saw the remedy applied by Sir John Macdonald, whose policy of modified protection swept the country.

That policy, which Macdonald's political opponents, though holding long leases of power, had not attempted to alter, was responsible for the flourishing position of Canada at the present day. There was no reason to suppose that a similar remedy would not apply to this country.

Chamberlain Says Onward.

London, Nov. 22.—(C. A. P.)—Mr. Chamberlain addressed a mass meeting in the Colston Hall, Bristol, last night. Though making few references to Mr. Balfour's Newcastle speech, he practically ignored the Premier's advice and urged a forward policy. He warned his hearers against their policy being whittled down by a timid or half-hearted minority of their party.

Editor Burned in Effigy.

Montreal, Nov. 22.—Some days ago Le Canada intimated to the Laval students who had disturbed Evangelist Magee's meetings, that they were making fools of themselves, and last evening several hundred of the students burned Editor Langelier, M. P. P., in effigy, before his own house. Several arrests were made.

Then There'll Be None.

Winnipeg, Nov. 22.—It is rumored in Calgary that Hibbert, the only Conservative elected in Alberta, will not be able to hold his seat on account of not being naturalized. The Alberta Legislature will not meet until next March.

Bennett Gains 15.

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 22.—The contested election case in Calgary opened yesterday. Five polls were counted up to 6 o'clock, and Bennett got 15 votes. This cuts Cushing's lead down from 31 to 16.

$2,000 For Jewry's Relief.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—The Hebrew Relief Committee will to-day send $2,000 to Jacob H. Schaff of New York, who is treasurer of the national fund. This is in addition to $400 already sent.

The Quebec Legislature.

Quebec, Nov. 22.—It is said the local Legislature will be convened for business on either the 12th or the 19th of January.

Torpid Liver Cause of Fevers

The Surest Way to Prevent Disease is to Keep the Liver Active with

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Too frequently an external cause for fever is looked for, when the real source of trouble is from within the body itself.

To begin with the liver becomes torpid, sluggish and inactive, and poisonous bile is left in the blood to corrupt the whole system. The result is the overworking of the kidneys and the clogging up of the organs of excretion.

Food which should be digested is left to ferment and decay in the intestines, and inflammations and fevers are set up.

In such a condition the body is a regular hotbed of disease and is most susceptible to any ailment of an infectious or contagious nature.

The best insurance against disease is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to keep the liver active. This great medicine has a direct and specific action on the liver, and is wonderfully prompt and effective in awakening and invigorating this important filtering organ.

A healthy liver means pure blood, good digestion and the proper working of the bowels. A healthy liver ensures the onward passage of the food through the intestines and excretory organs, and so removes all chance of poisonous waste matter remaining in the body to produce pain, suffering and disease.

Mrs. R. C. Webster, Glenarm, Victoria, Co., Ont., writes: —"I gladly state my experience with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in order that others may profit by it. About a year ago I was almost entirely used up with severe pains in my back and side the result no doubt of deranged liver and kidneys. Having tried several remedies which did not seem to do much good and hearing Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills highly recommended I sent for several boxes and can freely state that they did me a world of good. As I feel no need of further treatment, the cure seems to be thorough."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

FATAL PLAY AT WAR.

German Torpedo Boat Goes Down Before Cruiser With One Officer and Thirty-Two Men.

Kiel, Nov. 20.—The torpedo boat "S"-126 was in collision Friday night near Buelk with the small German cruiser Undine. The torpedo boat sank, and one officer and thirty-two of her seamen are missing. The disaster occurred during the manoeuvres in the Kiel Bay.

Helmsman Confused.

A torpedo division was making an attack upon the Undine, which had blinded her lights. Later she suddenly used her searchlight, which confused the helmsman of the "S"-126, and the torpedo boat got under the Undine's bow and was struck amidships, causing her boiler to explode. The suddenness of the catastrophe explains the great number of victims.

All Killed or Drowned.

It is believed that all the missing members of the crew were killed or drowned. Several wounded officers were rescued. The accident occurred in the midst of a blinding snowstorm, and the night was very dark. The torpedo boat sank in four minutes.

Emperor William, who arrived here at noon for the swearing in of the naval recruits, was immediately informed of the accident.

He Bounded Several Feet.

Belleville, Nov. 20.—Harry Osborne of Marmora fell from the outside scaffolding of Hubbell's new building, 27 feet, striking on his shoulders on a pile of scantling. He was busy sweeping snow from the wall. The force of the fall caused his body to bound several feet, and his head was cut open on a brick. Strange to say, he had not a bone broken, and was conscious in a few minutes. Though suffering very severe pain, and the horror of the shock, he will likely recover.

Lachance has been a pilot for 27 years, and this is his first accident.

He asked before leaving for the Bavarian if they were any reports regarding the buoys, and was told there was not.

Other witnesses stated that the light on St. Margaret's buoy was out on Wednesday, and had not been re-lighted on the Friday following, the night of the accident.

CURSE CHARITY, WANT WORK.

Poverty Parades on Thames Embankment Display Red Flags.

London, Nov. 21.—There was another "poverty parade" in the streets of London yesterday. Five or six thousand unemployed men and a sprinkling of women marched along the Thames embankment to Hyde Park, where they listened to speeches and adopted resolutions condemning charity as a cure for lack of employment and demanding the summoning of Parliament to initiate work of national utility.

Red flags were seen, and banners bearing such devices as "Curse your charity, we want work!" and "There is a limit to human endurance!" indicated the temper of the processionists. The march, however, was quite orderly, and the strong force of police on duty had little to do.

SICK HEADACHE

Many varieties of headache exist, those most prevalent being sick or bilious headache, nervous headache, headache from constipation, etc.

Headache is an effect of disease, the cry of the suffering body for relief from some oppressing disorder.

Undoubtedly the cause must be removed in order to cure the headache permanently. Wrong action of the stomach, liver or bowels is responsible for nine out of ten cases of headache.

In sick headache (a very common form) there is sometimes nausea and vomiting and usually constipation.

In nearly all forms of headache

has proved itself a specific—a medicine that has cured where all others failed.

Keep the stomach, liver and bowels in perfect working order by the use of nature's regulator and tonic, Burdock Blood Bitters, which cures all forms of headache by removing the cause.

Miss L. Smith, Morrisburg, Ont., writes: "I desire to let you know how much good Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I was troubled with headaches all the time, and could get no relief, until a friend told me of your Burdock Blood Bitters. After taking two bottles of it, I can say that I am completely cured."

A Shadow On Throne Of Corea

Corean Emperor to Govern Under a Jap Administration.

HIS CABINET HAS YIELDED

Emperor Orders That His Ministers Who Consented to Jap Domination Be Assassinated—The Four Japanese Demands Which Have Sent His Majesty Into Retirement With Two Ministers.

Seoul, Nov. 18.—(Delayed.)—The conference of nearly a week between the Japanese envoys, headed by Marquis Ito, and the Corean Cabinet ended yesterday and was followed early this morning by a nine-hour sitting at the palace with the Emperor.

At the beginning of to-day's session, Baron Hayashi declared his determination not to withdraw until the four demands made by Marquis Ito were signed. The suspense was ended at 1.30 o'clock this morning, when the Cabinet, with the exception of the Minister of Agriculture and Minister of Foreign Affairs Pakchisun, having yielded, sent for the Imperial seals and signed the desired agreement. The four Japanese demands were as follows:

(1) The appointment of a Japanese administration to govern Corea under the Emperor.

(2) The appointment of Japanese administrators at all treaty ports.

(3) Transfer of Corean diplomatic affairs to Tokio.

(4) No arrangements to be made with other powers without the consent of Japan.

Demonstration by Jap Troops.

Three thousand Japanese soldiers maintained a demonstration all yesterday on the esplanade before the old palace. Japanese troops patrolled the streets all night. The Emperor's palace was also surrounded by troops and the Japanese soldiers and police were lodged in the grounds of the palace. Minister Pakchisun and the Minister of Agriculture continue to hold out with the Emperor against the action of the Japanese. Minister Pakchisun, in leading the opposition against the signing of the demands of Marquis Ito, adjured the Emperor with the most powerful argument possible to a superstitious, benighted sovereign, namely, that his consent would affront and outrage all the spirits of his Imperial ancestors.

It resulted in Pakchisun and the Minister of Agriculture dramatically denouncing the proceedings and withdrawing to the palace, where they secluded themselves with the Emperor.

Ministers' Lives In Danger.

The Emperor then ordered that the Ministers who consented to the Japanese demands be assassinated.

After the signatures and seals were attached, the Japanese military paraded through the city. Baron Hayashi, after securing the consent of the majority of the Cabinet, went from the legation to the palace, where he attempted to convince the Emperor and the two remaining Ministers of the justice of his mission, but failed. He then secured the seals through other Ministers.

Conflict of Authorities Expected.

A conflict between civil and military authorities is now expected, and Minister Hayashi has already sent a strong circular to all Japanese Consuls in Corea to administer justice impartially. After the presentation of the Mikado's gifts to the court, it is reported that substantial sums of money were used to satisfy the Ministers who consented to the Japanese demands.

About 30,000 Japanese soldiers, billeted on the people or in barracks, are at the service of the Japanese, but no disturbances are expected. The court and Cabinet are still closely guarded and protected.

Something of the pathos of the South African war was revealed at a meeting in aid of the South African Graves fund of the Victoria league, London, Eng. There are 25,000 graves to care for. It was explained that in future the public works department is to be responsible for the erection of memorials and inspection, while the guild will have a receiving depot for memorials and crosses, and will deal with the correspondence of the friends and relatives of the lost.

BAD STOMACH MAKES BAD BLOOD.

You can't make sweet butter in a foul churn. Every farmer's wife knows this. Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat, and if foul, torpid or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poisoning. You will have foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and a whole train of disagreeable symptoms. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is not a beverage composed of whisky or alcohol; being entirely free from intoxicants, is a great regulator and invigorator of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

"About a year ago I was ill with blood poisoning," writes Miss Evaline Louis, of 38 Walter Street, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had what seemed to be a small cold sore on my lip. It became very angry in appearance and began to spread until it nearly covered my face. I was a frightful sight and could not go outside the house because of my appearance. I used a blood medicine which did not give me any relief. Then I began to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I was greatly benefited with the first bottle and after taking the second bottle was completely cured. The erysipelatous eruption disappeared and my blood was cleansed. My complexion is clear and fresh and I have felt better this year than I did for some time before. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is certainly a most remarkable medicine."

Don't accept a substitute for a medicine which performs such cures and which has a uniformly successful record of nearly forty years to its credit. It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to try by over-persuasion to palm off upon you in its stead some inferior article with no record to back it up. You know what you want; it is his business to meet that want.

Steamer Hilda's Boilers Exploded and Passengers Had No Chance—Captain Mistook the Light.

London, Nov. 21.—The London and Southwestern Railroad Company yesterday received an official report from St. Malo, France, stating that the total number of persons aboard their steamer Hilda, which was wrecked off that place Saturday night, was 129, of whom only six have been saved. The bodies of fifty-one victims of the disaster have been washed up on the beach at St. Cast, near St. Malo. All of the crew of twenty-six men belonged in Southampton, and only three of them were unmarried.

Boilers Exploded.

Paris, Nov. 21.—Special reports received here of the wreck of the Hilda give graphic description of the disaster. Owing to the rough sea, together with a thick snowstorm, the captain of the Hilda probably took the buoy-light on the rocks for St. Malo lighthouse. He gave signals which were not seen by harbor employes, and then the steamer proceeded slowly towards the light. When she struck the rocks the steamer's boilers exploded and she was cut in two, giving the passengers no time to save their lives.

Two-thirds of the passengers were French farmers, returning to France with the proceeds of the sale of their yearly harvest of onions and potatoes. The others were English families, who were going to spend the winter at Dinard.

A Survivor's Story.

St. Malo, France, Nov. 21.—James Gunter, the only seaman saved of the wrecked steamer Hilda, says there was no panic on board. Attempts were made to lower the boats, but the rough sea rendered it impossible. Gunter clung to the fittings of the topmast, with nine others below him, including the chief mate and three Bretons who died during the night of exposure. The Hilda first struck at 10 o'clock Saturday night. She was going dead slow at the time. Seven minutes later the shop broke amidships, and her decks were swept bare, with the exception of the few survivors who clung to the mast. They were rescued by the steamer Ada, after having endured 12 hours of agony.

British Sailors Wept as the Squadron Sailed Without Them.

New York, Nov. 21.—About 200 sailors from the British squadron, commanded by Prince Louis of Battenberg, were missing from their ships when the squadron made ready to sail yesterday. Several of those who had overstayed their leave were turned away when they tried to board their ships. As it was within a few hours of the fleet's sailing time when they made their belated appearance, the officers treated them as deserters. The officers said that they were willing to lose these men, on the principle that they are worthless and their loss a good riddance. Many of the rejected sailors cried.

Commissioner Watchorn said that a fine of $2 a head would be levied on the prince's fleet for every sailor who appeared to have been left stranded in Nw York, the same as imposed on captains of transatlantic steamers for every immigrant smuggled into the United States without due examination.

The British ships weighed anchor shortly before noon and proceeded down the Hudson River, bound for Gibraltar.

Before sailing, Prince Louis paid an official farewell visit to Admiral Evans on board the battleship Maine. As the prince and his party left the Maine to go on board the flagship Drake the American sailors cheered him.

As the squadron passed Governor's Island, the headquarters of the army of the east, a salute was fired from the island, and each cruiser as it passed replied with an equal number of its guns.

The squadron passed out by Sandy Hook before 1 p. m. In passing, the Drake signalled: "Farewell; hope to return."

"Arrant Nonsense."

London, Nov. 21.—The Spanish embassy says there is absolutely no truth in the statement of The Correspondencia of Madrid, to the effect that King Alfonso is to marry Princess Ena of Battenberg, niece of King Edward. The Foreign Office describes the report as "arrant nonsense."

Ex-P. C. Gummerson Stabbed.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—Word was received in the city yesterday that ex-Policeman Alf. Gummerson had been severely stabbed by an Italian. Gummerson for some weeks has been acting as a guardian of the peace in the Copper Cliff District. The full extent of the injuries are not known here.

Refused to Open Vault Door.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—When Crown Attorney Curry and a posse of detectives visited the office of Jenkins & Hardy at 15 1-2 Toronto street yesterday morning to take charge of the books and documents which the Crown Attorney seized on Saturday with a view of searching for evidence against trade combines, Mr. Jas. Hardy refused to open the door of the vault. Mr. Curry threatened to have it opened by force, but finally he secured the services of an expert, who succeeded in opening the door. Mr. Curry then proceeded to make an examination of the books and documents in the vault.

24 POLISH DELEGATES.

Not After Independence From Russia—They Issue Manifesto—The Reds Revolutionary Program.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 21.—The delegation of twenty-four prominent Poles which came here to plead the cause of Poland issued a manifesto to the Russian people, reviewing the sad history of Poland in the last century, declaring that the Poles have no thought of separation or of independence, and asking the support of all parties in Russia.

With the collapse of the strike the leaders of the "Reds" say they will now devote their energies to the preparation of a universal political strike to sustain the revolutionary program when the National Assembly meets. The propaganda among the soldiers and sailors will be pushed energetically. The leaders will urge the proletariat everywhere to secure arms and be prepared to fight for their rights.

The struggle in progress in the Moscow zemstvo congress is watched with intense interest.

It is significant that a delegate to the zemstvo who presented himself as the representative of the Jewish population of Vilna, Lithuania, was excluded.

Cannot Agree.

Moscow, Nov. 21.—The zemstvo congress yesterday devoted two sessions to the discussion of the attitude it should adopt toward the new Government and late last night adjourned without coming to a decision.

The debate indicated quite clearly, however, the existence of two apparently irreconcilable parties, as well as the lines on which the decision ultimately will be made.

The Sand-Lime Products and Their Uses

An Interesting Description of the Qualities of Sand-Lime Brick Tests Made by the U.S. Government Engineers and Others—Destined to Revolutionize the Building Trade—Durability and Strength of the Products.

A FIRST-CLASS BUILDING MATERIAL

The Examiner to-day concludes its review of the merits of sand-lime brinks, the new building material, which is rapidly taking the place of the old clay brick:

That artificial stone could be produced out of sand and lime is a fact that has been known since the olden times. The cisterns of Salomo, near Pyrus, and other hydraulic works of that time, consist of this kind of artificial stone. In the ruins of Salomo Temple, near Jerusalem, well preserved remains of artificial sand-lime masonry are found, and particularly noticeable are the four colossal courses of this masonry in the ruin, which are made of this material. Thousands of years have not been able to destroy these masses of sand-lime stone, but, on the contrary, they have become harder and firmer in the course of time; while the old buildings of burnt brick have long since succumbed to the influence of the weather and have fallen to pieces.

Facts About Sand-Lime Brick.

In addition to other facts, already published, concerning sand-lime brick it may be said, by way of summary, that they:

Compete in price with common red brick.

Need no paint.

Always retain their colour.

Make a more even joint than other brick.

Take less mortar to lay.

Eighty per cent. less bats than other brick.

Are made any colour, size or shape.

Do not deteriorate. Inclement weather hardens them.

Extreme heat or cold does not affect them.

As durable as stone for foundations or other underground work.

Sand lime brick are chlorine proof and are but slightly affected by acids.

Sand-lime brick are full standard size; 18 will lay the same amount of wall as 22 red brick.

Tests.

The following well-known laboratories have made tests of sand-lime brick:

The United States Government Laboratory, Watertown Arsenal, Mass.

Pittsburg Testing Laboratory, Pittsburg, Pa.

Booth, Garrett & Blair, Philadelphia, Pa.

Laboratory of applied Science, University of Illinois.

Columbia University, New York.

Henry Spackmann Engineering Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Engineering Department, Iowa State State College.

Robert W. Hunt & Company, Chicago, Ill.

Engineering Department, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.

Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N.Y.

McGill University, Montreal, Canada.

Laboratory at Zurich, Switzerland.

Experimental station, Boulogne, France.

W. R. D. Lockie, Liverpool, Eng.

Wisconsin University, Madison, Wisconsin.

Colorado School of Mines, Golden, Colorado.

The Association of Manufacturers of Sand-Lime Products, recognizes the fact that no set of tests will be the criterion for bricks made at any one point, and furnishes these results merely to show what can be done, and to provide a guide for requirements of the architects, engineers and builders. A table of clay bricks in the Philadelphia market is given as a comparison for standards. The bricks from the Philadelphia market were selected as they are known to be one of the best clay bricks in the country.

The Association realizes that sand-lime bricks will be used in the place of common bricks as well as face bricks and also for special purposes, and that the requirements for each will be different.

Sand-lime brick, from common to front brick, is being manufactured regularly in the United States, and the class of brick produced depends only on the quality of the raw materials and the care in manufacture.

Expert Opinion.

In order to have expert opinion on the quality and virtue of Sand-Lime Bricks, Mr. G. C. Schultz, of "Schultz Bros. Co., Limited," Brantford, was sent to the United States to inspect plants in operation and to see buildings constructed of this brick. The following is a copy of his report:

"Brantford, Ont., Feb. 24, 1905."

To whom it may concern,—

We, the undersigned, have made a thorough personal examination of the system of making sandstone brick, and visited the headquarters of a Company at Saginaw, Mich., inspected many large buildings and private residences constructed of sandstone bricks made at the Saginaw plants, and also visited the machine shops and Foundry where the presses and other machinery for making the bricks are made.

We saw bricks being laid in the foundations and walls of the large car storage barns of the Saginaw Street Railway Co., and talked with the Masons and Contractors who had had long experience with sandstone bricks. We also saw the large Court House at Flint, Mich., constructed of sandstone bricks, and visited the plant at Saginaw, Mich., and saw many buildings there and in that vicinity, and also in Detroit. We were given every opportunity to investigate every feature of the sandstone brick business, and our conclusions are:

First; That in quality the bricks are superior to any common clay brick in use at the present time anywhere, and are equal to any high grade pressed clay brick on the market.

Second: That in appearance they are equal to the highest grades of pressed clay brick.

Third: That on account of their uniformity in size, colour and quality, and the ease of cutting and trimming, they are cheaper to lay in a wall than any other kind of brick.

Fourth: That owing to the ease and cheapness of colouring any shades desired, or of making intricate ornamental shape required, they open a very wide field for the architect and builder which enables a plant, making these bricks to fill orders for bricks of any size, shape or colour, a thing impossible for any clay brick plant to do.

Fifth: Owing to the cheapness of the raw material used in the manufacture of these bricks, and also to the fact that the entire process is automatic, and needs no skilled labour, these bricks can be made for about one half the cost of the cheapest grades of clay brick.

Sixth: The operation of manufacturing these bricks can be carried on at all seasons of the year.

Seventh: Only common labour being required and the work being easy to learn, a plant for making these bricks avoids all labour difficulties such as are experienced in trades requiring specially trained or skilled workmen.

At the plant at Sibley we saw a stock of 1,200,000 bricks piled in the yard with no protection of any kind from the elements, and though they were frozen in a solid mass and covered with ice, we could not find a single broken brick, nor a brick that showed any evidence of bad effect from the action of frost.

Our Mr. Trenton inspected a Sand-Lime Brick plant at Lancaster, N.Y., and his investigations there led him to corroborate what we found at Saginaw and Sibley, Mich.

Therefore, we believe that a plant for making these bricks in Ontario would be a very profitable business, and have no hesitation in recommending it to investors.

Yours respectfully,

(Signed.) G. C. SCHULTZ.

The Schultz Co. are large Contractors and Lumber dealers, and a few years ago they built the "Woman's Residence" and the "MacDonald Institute" in connection with the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, Ont., at a cost of $160,000.00. They also built the Massey Hall and Library at same Institution.

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA

"I had suffered terrible agony and pain for eight long years from a terrible eczema on the scalp and face. The best doctors were unable to help me, and I had spent a lot of money for many remedies without receiving any benefit. My scalp was covered with scabs, my face was like a piece of raw beef, my eyebrows and lashes were falling out, and sometimes I felt as if I was burning up from the terrible itching and pain. I then began treating myself at home, and now my head and face are clear and I am entirely well. I first bathed my face with Cuticura Soap, then applied Cuticura Ointment to the afflicted parts, and took Cuticura Resolvent for the blood. I was greatly relieved after the first application, and continued use of Cuticura soon made a complete cure.—Miss Mary F. Ray, Westboro, Mass."

Great Crowds

ATTENDING THE RED TICKET REDUCTION SALE AT

Merrell & Merediths

THANKS! THANKS! THANKS!

There has been no standing still inside these walls during the first four days of this Electrifying Sale. Saturday especially was without a parallel, the great crowds making it impossible to serve all. Before next Saturday comes round we will have engaged salespeople enough to prevent a recurrence of such disappointments, which we much regret.

We have to express our thanks for the hearty response which the public have made to our invitation to attend our BONA-FIDE REDUCTION SALE. The Bargains totally eclipse anything we have ever offered.

Funeral Of Carlos Greene

Impressive Service Conducted by Salvation Army.

The funeral of the late Carlos Greene took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, Charlotte street, to the Little Lake Cemetery. The funeral was largely attended and the services of a most impressive character.

After a short service at the late residence of the deceased, the cortege moved to the Salvation Army Barracks, the band being in attendance and with muffled drums rendered the Dead March in Saul.

A most impressive service was held at the Barracks, being conducted by Brigadier Turner, of Montreal, and Major Morris, of Toronto.

Major Morris, Ensign Owen, Adjutant Jennings and Rev. W. J. Joliffe, of the Charlotte street Methodist church, gave brief addresses in which reference was made to the sterling qualities of the departed, and voicing the general sorrow at his demise.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, including a wreath from his associates in the C.O.F. A beautiful "Gates Ajar" bearing the motto "Our Comrade" was sent by the members of the local corps of the Salvation Army.

The cortege moved from the Barracks to Little Lake Cemetery in the following order:—

Conveyances containing the family of the deceased and chief mourners, members of the Army with draped flag, and a large number of private conveyances containing friends, and sympathizers with the bereaved family. The pall bearers were, Messrs. Dickens, Vanetto, Hobbs, H. Edmison, Rawlings and W. Edmison. A service was conducted also at the graveside.

Gates ajar, from the Army Band, Army corps, junior corps; spray of roses, from Major H. Morris, Emigration Department, S. A. Headquarters, Toronto; wreath, from Merchants' Association; anchor from J. J. Turner & Sons, spray from Mrs. Brundrette, Mrs. R. E. Layfield; anchor, from Court Littlejohn, No. 92, C.O.F.; spray from Miss Bertha Lytle; basket from neighbours; wreath, from Charles Rishor; spray, from J. J. State Council In Session In Peterborough

Special Session of the Knights of Columbus of Ontario Being Held in the City—Mr. D. O'Connell, State Deputy, Presiding—A Number of Prominent Members Here—Two Meetings Being Held—Hon. Mr. Latchford Among Visitors.

DOMESTIC BUSINESS BEING DISCUSSED

To-day an important meeting of the State Council of the Knights of Columbus of Ontario is being held in the hall on Hunter street. This session is a special one called to consider routine business in connection with the Order, and is presided over by Mr. D. O'Connell, State Deputy, who informed the Examiner to-day that the business under consideration was purely of a domestic nature, and was not out of the ordinary routine of business. The meeting was held not for any special reason beyond the fact that Mr. O'Connell, the State Deputy lives here, and because it was Peterborough's turn to secure the meeting, which is held at the different towns and cities in the province where there are Councils of the Order.

The session opened this morning at 10 o'clock, and the first meeting continued until 1 o'clock. The meeting this afternoon practically concluded the session, which was very harmonious.

Among those in attendance were, Messrs. W. J., Gorham, Ottawa; C. P. Monaghan, and R. J. Robins, Sault Ste. Marie; Jas. Morrison, S. J. Cotton, J. F. Brown, J. A. Cummings, Toronto; P. McCool, North Bay; J. McGlade, North Bay; A. F. Wheaton, P. J. Woods, W. J. J. Colgan, J. J. O'Donoghue, M. J. Quinn, J. F. T. Lee, J. J. Ryan, Toronto; T. J. Hurley, Belleville; Thos. Hart, Deseronto; F. Campbell, Toronto; Hon. F. W. Latchford, Ottawa; D. R. McDonald, Cryster; A. G. F. McDonald, Alexandria; J. R. Devereau.

The majority of those attending the meeting will leave the city to-night or in the morning.

Lift Lock Leak; Is It Or Is It Not?

No Leak—Only a Place for Leakage—When There is No Water in the Canal Above.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—In the Evening Review of Tuesday I notice the report of an interview with a certain engineer regarding the leak at the lift lock.

Now, Mr. Editor, there appears to be in this interview a direct contradiction to your article of some weeks ago, in which you stated in the strongest possible terms that there was a leak in one of the banks at the lift lock, and that the bank was wearing away. I think that in view of the direct charge made by your paper and the direct denial made by the engineer as quoted by your evening contemporary, that there is owing to the public some further explanation. The engineer, as quoted by the Review, states that he visited the lift lock quite recently and positively saw no leak. It appears to me that if there was a leak it would be quite visible. Therefore I say an explanation is certainly due the public as to the apparent mis-statements of either your paper of the engineer quoted in the Review.

Yours truly,
"SENTRY."

Peterborough, Nov. 23rd, 1905.

In regard to the above both statements are correct. When the water was in the reach above the lift lock there was a serious leak; when the water was withdrawn from this reach—from the Norwood Road to the lift lock—of course there was no leak for there was no water to make a leak. When the "engineer" quoted by our contemporary's correspondent visited the lift lock, he naturally found no leak—because there was no water in the reach. If "Engineer" would visit the lock and have the water let into the upper reach, he would unfortunately discover that a serious leak exists.—Ed. Examiner.

Typhoid in the Water.

The recent investigation of Peterborough's drinking water by the health authorities of Toronto shows that we are not entirely free from the dangers of typhoid. To avoid all danger some good mineral water should be used, such as Sanataria Water. The cost will be small and in addition to absolute protection from a disease of this kind, it is also beneficial to the general health.

An Assessment Commission Is Advocated

Ald. Johnston in an Interview Expresses His Views on the Situation—Believes That Time Has Come When One Man Should be Held Responsible—A More Equitable Assessment—A City Comptroller is Suggested.

PRESENT SYSTEM IS UNSATISFACTORY

Ald. W. J. Johnston, during the early part of this year, was a warm advocate of the appointment of an Assessment Commissioner to whom the work at present performed by the two assessors would be assigned.

The movement has again been revived and to-day Ald. Johnston gave the Examiner an interview on the question. He pointed out that the work of assessing is the most important factor in municipal life because it affects the citizens personally, and there is perhaps no department of civic government which in the past has given such trouble. This is not the fault of the assessors, but is the disadvantage of the system. Under the present system, he says, the assessors have not the time to devote to the work to give it proper attention, and, to convince the ratepayer that he is not wrongly assessed. Ald Johnston's idea is that there should be an equalization of the assessment, something that is very difficult when the work is performed by more than one man. His idea is to take all the properties valued at say $300, $500, 600, or any other figure, in the city and classify them, and the same with the buildings and improvements, and by adopting this method the Commissioner can readily see whether he has one property too high, or too low, as the case may be, and under the present system, time at the disposal of the assessors will not permit this to be done. He is of the opinion that it would be a financial saving to the city, as well, to adopt the system expounded by him. Not only this but the assessing will be placed upon a more systematic basis. The idea of the Alderman, too, is that the Assessment Commissioner could have charge of the issuing of building permits, and that no building, no matter in what part of the city should be erected without the owner first filing a plan and an estimate of it's cost. This will naturally assist the Commissioner in his work, because for every new building that is erected he will have an estimate of its cost. It will also be a means of ascertaining exactly the amount of new building carried on each year in the city, and this is also very desirable. The Assessment Commissioner being a public officer would be held responsible for his work all the year around, and he could employ what help was necessary to have the work performed. Ald. Johnston referred to the experience of Fort William, a town much smaller than Peterborough, where an Assessment Commissioner was employed, and the system there had worked most satisfactorily.

The Examiner's informant was of the opinion that the assessors who this year did the work, and who found their task an ardous one, would agree with him that there is a considerable quantity of work which should be prepared now, and which would place the system on a better basis, and which would give a more equal valuation on the property of the city.

He is strongly of the opinion that the council should at once take steps which would result in the assessing of the city being placed in the hands of one man.

Funeral Of Late R. J. Baker

A Large Attendance and Lovely Floral Contributions.

The funeral of the late Robert J. Baker, which took place this afternoon, was very largely attended, the members of the Machinists' Union, No. 286, the 'Prentice Boys, and the Canadian Order of Foresters, turning out in a body.

The floral contributions were very beautiful and included wreaths from the 'Prentice Boys, Machinists' Union, upon which was designed "Fellow Workman," the Wm. Hamilton Company Works, Canadian Order of Foresters, and a floral star from the Canadian General Electric Company tool room. There were about twenty-five floral tributes from personal friends of the deceased.

Rev. J. G. Lewis, pastor of the Mark street church, conducted the burial service.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. A. W. Tibby and Frank Turner, of the 'Prentice Boys; Willis Garrow and Edward Cookson, Machinists Union; Walter Hooper and H. H. Hillier, Canadian Order of Foresters.

The bearers walked on each side of the hearse, carrying large bouquets of white flowers. The procession was led by a long line of members of the societies with which deceased was associated, and the long cortege of carriages which followed the remains testified to the high esteem in which he was held.

Semi-ready tailors do but one thing—but they do that perfectly.

Merchant tailors cannot tailor by the Semi-ready method ----clothing manufacturers won't, it would cost them too much.

Semi-ready garments are tailored by teams of experts. Each tailor is a specialist, working only on that part of a garment at which he is a master.

Thus each Semi-ready garment passes through the hands of about 35 different experts. Each tailors only that part which he can do best, so that the completed garment is the perfection of high class tailoring in every detail. 514

Pretty Wedding In East City

Nuptials of Miss Eleanor Courtney and Mr. James A. Young.

Last evening the home of Mr. Edward Courtney, East City, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when his daughter, Eleanor, was united in marriage to Mr. James A. Young, of Smith township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. G. Lewis, of Mark street Methodist church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride and groom were unattended, and the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Reid, of this city. The bride was attired in a gown of silver grey tamaline over blue taffeta with trimmings of white silk and applique, and carried a beautiful bouquet of cream roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold chain with diamond setting.

After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper, the table decorations being a lovely combination of white chrysanthemums and smilax. A large number of costly and useful favours were received from friends in Ottawa, Toronto, Detroit, Port Dover, Stratford, Cornwall, New York, South Bend, Manitoba and England. Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside on the fourth line of Smith. The bride, who has been a faithful member of the choir of the Mark street Methodist church, will be much missed in this capacity as well as in social and church circles, where she was very popular and highly esteemed.

A Deserted Town Discovered Miles From Civilization

Men Just Back From the Canadian Wilderness Say That They Discovered a Group of Houses, Well Made, But Empty—Railroad Surveyor's Queer Story.

Lachine, Canada, Nov. 22.—The locating of the new transcontinental railway has opened up vast stretches of wild land territory hitherto unknown to all but a few of the most adventurous of explorers or sportsmen, and the reports of the engineers, many of whom are only now returning after a year in the wilds, are of great interest.

Some of the most interesting of their discoveries will never appear officially, since they have no bearing upon the subject of their expeditions, but the story that follows was told the writer by trustworthy, reliable men, who have lately returned from a locality 250 miles north of Ottawa, extending 80 or 100 miles due east and west.

There is a good deal of open, swampy land there, alternating with stretches of timber, sometimes large and valuable, but often stunted and worthless varieties. Settlements, of course, they could not expect to find, and though wild animals were fairly plentiful, it did not appear that the Indian population had ever been extensive.

Their surprise, therefore, was great when one clear summer afternoon they discovered lying before them a broad, far spreading expanse of cleared land, with houses scattered here and there, and fields of grain, alternating with patches of meadow land.

They were still more surprised, however, as they noticed the forsaken appearance of the nearest house and saw the grass growing undisturbed right up to the rough wooden steps. No one answered their rapping at the door, and when they gently pushed it open there was nothing within to show that the rooms had been inhabited for months.

At the next house the same state of affairs existed, nor could any sign of life be seen in the whole settlement. The axman at once reported to the engineer in charge, who called off work for the day and with his whole party went forward to investigate.

It was noticed by the countrymen of the expedition that the grain fields had not been reaped the year previously and that the grain was growfrom where it had been self-sown. The haying season was past, but no one had put scythe to the grass. Twenty houses were visited, but not a single living thing was found in any of them. All were comfortably though roughly furnished. The furniture appeared to be all home made, though by no amateurs at the joining trade.

The houses themselves were not the usual first settlers' shanties with log setops for roof, but regularly gabled two-story dwellings, with the walls plastered with a very coarse lime mortar. The investigators discovered two saw pits, containing quantities of sawdust, showing where hand sawyers had labouriously ripped tree trunks into boards.

Limekilns were also found, where someone had done his best to turn the hard limestone rock into serviceable lime. The one feature lacking to the houses was glass for the windows. One or two of the owners had procuired mica, and had made rough attempts at lighting the rooms. The others had simply cut and framed the openings for windows and fastened stout shutters on wooden pivots to open inward.

The cooking had been done on stone hearths, opening into stone chimneys, of very good construction. Probably the heating in cold weather had been done in the same manner, it indeed these dwellings were intended to be inhabited in the winter. There were only four or five stables in the settlement, and these were fitted up for horses only.

Several little mounds in a remote corner of one field gave it the appearance of a graveyard, and these looked as though they had been rounded up at least not later than the summer before. Not a scrap of paper could the men lay their hands upon. In fact, there did not appear to be any means of identifying the former occupants of the desolate houses.

The principal narrator of these unique experiences said that what appealed to his feelings touchingly, was a baby's cradle with the clothes turned down as though the mother had taken up her baby a moment before. In the little pillow was the hollow where a wee head had nestled, and one shoe, about three inches long, still lay half under the bed clothes, with a button missing from its strap. The material used in its manufacture was rabbit skin, with the fur turned inward, nicely tanned in the Indian fashion inthe smoke.

The bed clothes were chiefly made from waterfowl skins, tanned with the feathers on, and were incredibly light. In some of the houses tanned wolf skins and one or two bear hides, were also found.

The material of which the hinges of some of the doors were made puzzled the engineers at fiorst, but was declared to be a raw horsehide, scraped and well greased before being used. Men in the party who were used to the settlers' life were surprised at the ignorance of these house builders, who, they thought, should have known how to scrape and prepare the raw horsehide to serve as a substitute for window glass.

There were, indeed, many things to show that these people had not been ordinary Canadian folk, accustomed to life in the bush. The fact that in most cases tree stumps had been extracted at the expense of very great labour, instead of being left to rot away, seemed to show that these people must have been emigrants from some older land, who knew nothing of this country's ways.

In some of the attics was found a quantity of raw flax and in one or two dining rooms were snowy plain linen tablecloths, perhaps of native manufactuire. Rough looms were also found, the comb work of which, made of reed or cane, had evidently been imported from a distance.

The location of the little settlement was excellent. The clearings stretched down to wide plains of beaver grass. Beyond this the ground was moist, and wild cranberries were abundant. There was a little swampy lake at the edge of this, where wild fowl in abundance nested. Flocks of young geese and families of many varieties of ducks played about, and in a couple of streams running into it fine trout were seen.

The survey party made a couple of the empty houses headquarters for a few days while prospecting thereabouts, and many were the attempts made to unravel the mystery of the deserted homes. In the woods nearby several ingenious traps of the dead fall or of the up springing lever variety were found. Under one of them lay the bones of a bear, under another what was probably the skull of a horse. These were all gnawed by the teeth of wolves.

Some of the men declared they had sighted a pair of horses wandering in the brushwood on a rocky mohntain. They may, however, have mistaken a couple of cow moose or of moose whose horns had not yet grown, for horses.

Game was plentiful, and what convinced the men of the absence of owners to all the real estate discovered was the presence of three or four large herds of red deer in the fields of ripening grain, where they seemed to be quite at home.

There were no roads leading into the settlement from the bush, though wood roads penetrated it for some distance from the clearings. But it was significant that no boats of any kind were found about the muddy lake, and it is not improbable that there is a canoe route to the settlement, a couple of hundred miles to the south.

A Clergyman's Kindly Act

The Examiner was requested last night by a representative Englishman, one of the many hundreds of that nationality in the city, to express to Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, on half of the Englishmen of Peterborough, their thanks for his kind offer made at the time of the burial of one of their deceased countrymen, who was about to be interred in the "Potter's field." His offer to meet the expense of a burial, which would not stamp the deceased as a pauper, was one which the fellow countrymen of the deceased most fully appreciate, and they take this means of expressing their appreciation.

Dillon Wallace First White Man Across Iceland

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 22.—Letters to-day from Dillon Wallace, the Labrador explorer and New York lawyer, contained the news that he had successfully crossed Labrador. Mr. Wallace is the first white man who has ever crossed Labrador without either guides or Indian assistance. Wallace, the lawyer was one companion, named Easton. The letters said that both were well, and had plenty of provisions when they reached the Province of Ungava on October 16.

In 1904 Mr. Wallace went with Leonidas Hubbard's unlucky expedition. Mr. Hubbard, whose purpose was also to cross Labrador, lost his life from starvation, and Mr. Wallace was found by the rescuing party after he had fallen exhausted in the snow.

A Winter of Travel.

Although the most perilous part of the New York lawyer's trip is completed he still has before him a winter of travel by snowshoes before he reaches civilization. He and Mr. Easton at the time when the letters were written were planning to start westward through Ungava for George's River post, and thence to reach Fort Chimo, which is one of the most northerly points on the mainland of North America. Here the two will wait until the coast waterways are frozen over. Then they intend to start southward toward Quebec on the frozen rivers, travelling with dog sleds and snowshoes. Mr. Wallace said that he expected to reach Quebec in April.

For the Long Winter Nights

No little trick of figures that we know of will give more fun to a company than this:

Ask Tommy Jones, for instance, to set down the year in which he was born; then have him add 4 to it, and then his age at his next birthday, if his birthday comes before the next following January first; if it comes after that let him add his age at his last birthday.

Now, let him multiply the result thus obtained by 1,000, and from the product subtract 694,423. Finally let him substitute in this result letters of the alphabet for the figures, and we will have his name as most persons know it. In substituting the letters A is 1, B is 2, C is 3, D is 4, E is 5, etc.

The year here given applies to the year 1905; if the test is made in 1906 the sum 695,423 should be deducted, instead of 694,423.

Try this with your own age and see how it works.

AT THE PLAY.

"THE CROSSING."

The success in all respects, of the second bill — presented last night at the Grand Opera House — indicates an important future for the dramatic and entertainment art in Peterborough. If the new opera house management maintains the high standard set by the character of the first two performances, its existence will be amply justified.

It would be difficult to secure for Peterborough, which must, necessarily, depend upon travelling organizations, a more artistic and more generally satisfying dramatic presentation, than "The Crossing," a clever dramatisation of Winston Churchill's book, and the hearty applause of a very large audience was significant of its pleasure. The scene is laid in Louisiana, in the days of French occupation, and one of the chief motifs of the drama turns on French hostility to American invasion. An American mother deserts her husband and child, and she, and her betrayer, after many wanderings, find themselves in Louisiana, where they appear, like Abraham and Sarah of old, as brother and sister. The deserted child, grown to manhood, in search of his mother and her betrayer, comes to New Orleans, and son and mother meet, the latter being the first to suspect the relationship, which circumstances forbid her to recognize. The interest culminates in a scene between mother and son—the strongest in the play—in which the repressed emotions of the mother, struggling with her yearning to clasp her son, unconscious of the relationship, in her arms, constitutes as clever a piece of acting—though it was not acting, but real life—as one could wish to see. The mother was Mrs. Temple—Mabel Bert—was splendid throughout, and the work of Mr. John Blair, as Nicholas Temple, was a fine example of stage art. A conspicuous tribute to the work of Miss Violet Houk, as Antoinette St. Gre, is well merited. In the love-making scenes she was deliciously ingenuous and life-like, while in her two "good nights"—one to the mother and one to the son—the coy, conscious and charming change, when she bade good night to the lover, was a veritable gem. The other characters of the play, were excellently taken, and these combined with specially effective staging and rich and becoming scenic effects, constituted a most satisfying dramatic treat. 'The Crossing," as presented by an artist like Mr. John Blair, and his equally artistic support, must meet with the success it merits, both in the character of the play and manner of presentation. If the management of the opera house hits upon such luck in future engagements the question of success will be effectively solved by the public.

Will Be Adequate Accommodation

For Those That Attend the Game Next Saturday.

One section of the grandstand will be reserved for ladies and their escorts and another for the excursionists from Hamilton and Dundas. A number of the members of the Hamilton Tigers will be down to see the game and a crowd of two or three hundred people or more will probably be here from Hamilton and Dundas.

Ben Simpson, the former Peterborough player, who is now left half-back for the Tigers and Ballard, Captain of the Tigers, will probably officiate as referee and umpire, respectively. The prospects are that the crowd will by many hundreds be the largest one of the season and the management is to highly commended for its thoughtfulness in making prepafations to have it as convenient as possible for those that attend the game.

The semi-official North German Gazette, Berlin, outlines the new taxes which are intended to meet the ever-increasing expenditure of the army, navy and other imperial charges. The bill will be submitted to the Reichstag next week. It imposes an additional tax of 60,000,000 marks (about $16,000,000) on beer, and forty million marks on tobacco and cigarettes. A tax will also be placed on cigarette papers. It is estimated that the new tariff will yield 126,000,000 marks.

The latest addition to the lists is a blind deer, a specimen of which was brought from the north last week. That the animal was totally sightless there is no doubt, when the circumstances relative to its capture are considered.

The Payne-Hamblin party, consisting of twelve men, were very successful, having secured fifteen deer. The Miller and Tedford parties also met with much success.

Since the beginning of the Boer war all the public schools in Auckland, New Zealand, have been provided with large flagstaffs, and the scholars follow the American custom of saluting the flag at stated intervals.

So serious is the subsidence of the Northwich public library, England, caused by salt mining operations that the authorities have decided to condemn the building, which was presented by Sir J. Brunner, M.P., in 1885.

KIDNEY DISEASE AND ITS DANGERS CAN BE QUICKLY CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Kidney disease comes on quietly, it may have been in the system for a long time before you suspected the real cause of your trouble. There may have been backaches, swelling of the feet and ankles, disturbances of the urinary organs, such as, brick dust deposit in urine, highly colored, scanty or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent urination, stone in bladder, etc.

Perhaps you did not know that these were symptoms of kidney disease, so the trouble kept growing worse, until Neuralgia, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Dropsy, and worst of all, Bright's Disease have taken hold of your system.

Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken at the first sign of anything wrong. There is no other safe way, (plasters and liniments are useless), as the trouble must be eradicated from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills go to the seat of the trouble, strengthen the kidneys, and help them to filter the blood properly and flush off all the impurities which cause kidney trouble. Mr. Thomas Mayhew, Smith's Falls, Ont., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with my kidneys, and my back got so lame I felt miserable all over. After taking five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was as well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

LIBERAL VICTORIES.

Winning victories seems to have become a Liberal habit which was not shaken off in yesterday's bye-elections. There were four elections held and of these the Liberals carried three with splendid majorities, and another, Wentworth, is still in doubt, the Conservative candidate, Mr. Smith, having, at the latest advices a precarious majority of eight. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Post-Master-General, was returned by a majority of 500 in North York. Mr. T. B. Pardee, former representative of Lambton in the Ontario Legislature, got a majority of nearly 400, and in Antigonish, Sir John Thompson's old constituency, the Liberal candidate is handsomely elected. Whatever else is involved in these results, it is quite evident that the people are by no means dissatisfied with the Liberal policy and administration.

BRAVE WORDS.

A prominent local Conservative, called upon the Examiner this morning to say in regard to the election of Hon. Mr. Aylesworth in North York, that "it would have been a disgrace to have defeated Mr. Aylesworth." He added that while their might be differences of opinion in matters of policy, the country could not afford to have men of brains, ability and honourable record excluded from Parliament or the councils of the nation. This attitude on the part of the gentleman referred to represents a fine, patriotic political sanity. In spite of the low estate to which the Conservative party has been brought by incompetent leadership, rendered more incompetent by the intrigues and self-seeking of rivals, there are thousands of good, honest, patriotic Conservatives who set more value upon country than party, hold patriotism more highly in esteem than place; and it will be the work of these men to infuse new vitality into their party and bring it to an enjoyment of the important place it can play, as it has done in the past, in moulding the destines of Canada.

TAKE THE MEDICINE.

There are some people, and they are not confined to one political party, who know their own minds so little that they begin to let go of their opinions just as soon as half a dozen others beg to differ. A fine example of this is afforded in the present day talk about the indemnities and pensions provided for at the last session. A lot of those who were agreed about the propriety of the measures when they came up, now find themselves unable to call their souls their own when somebody out on the side-lines attack the measure. Instead of honestly and manfully telling the truth about the situation, they almost invariably beg to have the blame put on the other fellow. It is a hollow-backed performance that is enough to make Canadians ashamed of their public men.

Mr. Aylesworth, to do him justice, was not in the house when the measure passed; but, on the other hand, that fact might have stayed his judgment until he had a chance to look over the situation at close range. There is no such excuse, however, for Mr. Borden, who, scared by the row Mr. McLean has managed to make, now weakly pleads that the proposals were sprung on him too suddenly. He thinks that if more time had been taken to it he might have decided differently. Now he wants all the measures reconsidered. And yet here is his positive language on the question of Ministerial pensions:

"I am heartily in accord with the principle of granting pensions to Ministers of the Crown who have served for a certain period. I have thought a good deal over the suggestions of the Administration and have endeavoured to find some provision which will more nearly accord with my views of how this matter ought to be worked out. But I am bound to say, after careful consideration, that I do not know that I could propose anything which would be better or more in the interests of the country than that which the Government have now submitted. I did think that a shorter term of service might be fixed and the number of pensions limited and left to the Governor-in-Council upon recommendation of a Parliamentary committee; but upon reflection and consideration I am inclined to think the proposition the Government have brought down is better than anything I have been able to work out. . . . There are men who have served the country for a period of less than five years whom I would be very glad to see in receipt of a recognition of this kind from the country. — Montreal Herlad.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

As there is only one member of the Conservative Opposition in Alberta elected, the caucus of the Opposition when the House meets, will easily be able to secure a full attendance We may assume that there will be complete harmony and no trouble about electing a leader.

There should be no increase in tariff protection, at any rate, says the Toronto Star, until some more watchful and sure method is devised for putting out of business those combines that spring up to take the last cent of advantage that a high tariff can be made to yield to them.

An example of the way in which the plumbers' combine has made money at the expense of their patrons, it is pointed that the Ontario Government, as the evidence seems to show, has been the sufferer to the extent of $2,000 in respect of the School of Science contract. If this be so, it is high time that something should be done to not only mend, but end the conditions that make this form of public and private robbery possible.

Canada's export of domestic produce last month was $30,092,699, an increase of $10,585,544 over that of October, 1904. This country is doing fairly well under Liberal rule, the people seem fairly well satisfied in spite of the ravings of the Opposition journals. If there were the bad Government and bad administration the Opposition papers urge, the people would have something to say about these things in the bye-elections, but the fact that all the bye-elections yesterday sweepingly endorsed the course of the Government, shows that the people take no stock in the ghost stories of Opposition sensationalists.

The Brockville Recorder, in commenting upon an Examiner paragraph, indicating how Peterborough was crowding Brockville as a cheese-producing district, says: — "Having licked us at football, the Examiner wants also to rob us of our reputation as the greatest cheese producing district in Canada for quantity and quality. The Examiner should not forget that it is possible to offer a big price on a cheese board for a purpose, without doing much business. Salesmen could also refuse 12 3-8c., as has been done, because the offer came from the wrong fellow, and the right fellow might get it even a little less. But to settle all doubt in the Examiner's mind as to the continued supremacy of Brockville district as a producer of fancy cheese, let this piece of information filter into its brain. On Saturday last a quantity of cheese sold on the Brockville board at 12 1-2 cents, and tons of it at 12 3-8 cents.

BOOMING CANADA.

Canadians have not always had reason to bless the touring correspondent of Old Country newspapers who has sent home his "impressions of Canada." Frequently what these gentlemen have supplied to the London journals with which their connection is often somewhat hazy, is pure rubbish. Usually they come to Canada with a self-imposed mission to doom the peculiar brand of "Imperialism," which happily is affected by a dwindling few in this country. Their condescending "write-up," it naturally often follows, either provokes resentment or excites amusement among Canadians. The only apprehension is that Englishmen may form their estimate of us from the effusions of these self-opinionated envoys of "Imperialism."

But of quite another stamp is Mr. J. A. Hobson, Liberal economist and special commissioner of The London Daily Chronicle, who apparently has not confined his inquiry as to the sentiment of the people to the congenial spirit met at the club. He has had his eyes and his ears and his mind open, and he finds Canada "a bracing experience for the torpid Britton. For Canada is conscious, vocally, uproariously conscious that her day has come. * * * The poor relation has come into her fortune. A single decade has swept away all her diffidence, and has replaced it by a spirit of boundless confidence and booming enterprise. The breeze of exhilaration blowing from the whole country. * * * Every able-bodied man can find a job: there is no reserve army of unemployed. * * * All Canada is on a wave of rising prosperity. * * * Now her population and prosperity will swell until she becomes the corner-stone of the temple of the British Empire."

Everywhere from the Atlantic to Pacific Mr. Hobson finds this spirit breathing in Canada to develop the natural resources in field, forest, fishing and mine, "among a people of tough, sturdy individualists with the powerful physique of a farm-bred folk and the personal independence of a race of men owning the land they till." The new Canadian boom, he emphasizes, is simply another large local outburst of the energy which has made the United States what it is to-day. The Twentieth Century belongs to Canada.

But better still, Mr. Hobson has been quick to perceive the growth of the national spirit and the consequent breaking down of the old prejudices and animosities: "This faith in Canada," he writes, "is visibly unifying the diverse sections, races and religious, and is taking shape in a 'nationalism' which at present mainly economic, is certain to have important political bearings when Canada has leisure to think out her political career. The old French colonists of Quebec, the Scotch and English of the Maritime Provinces and of Ontario, and of the rich new blends of American, British and mid-European races forming in the North-west and along the Pacific are now being subjected to the fusing heat of a stronger, wider feeling of nationality, which is breaking the barriers that once seemed well-nigh impassable between the French of the Ancient Regime, the United Empire Loyalists, the hustling Scotch trader, and German, Slavonic and Scandinavian settlers in the West."

Mr. Hobson has certainly taken a good line, and as a result Englishmen will likely know Canada a little better than in the past.—Hamilton Herald.

ENDORSED BY ROSEBUD

(Toronto Star.)

There are twenty-five constituencies in the Province of Alberta, and in the elections the Conservatives have carried one—the sweet young riding of Rosebud.

Our contemporaries of the Toronto press did not rage and storm altogether in vain on the subject of the Autonomy bills and the schools question, for perhaps, had they not indulged in their gigantic labours, the result in Alberta might have been very different, for the wicked "Coercionists" might have swept the board, and carried even Rosebud. Lest they should quarrel as to which of them did most to carry Rosebud, let it at once be admitted that they all share in the credit. The marked copies they sent into Alberta, the copious extracts taken from their columns and republished in that Province, their splendid fury that the oppressed West contributed to the result, but, to the credit of our contemporaries, they are doing no boasting. When one Western Liberal meets another and asks, "How is it that we did not carry Rosebud?" the answer will be, "Oh, the Toronto press done it."

It is not what the Toronto press set out to do—to carry one constituency for the Conservatives out of the twenty-five in Alberta. They had planned to give the huge bouquet to the Conservative party, and not a Rosebud, nothing but a sprig of forget-me-not-next-time, to the Liberal party. But it is a long way from Toronto to Alberta, and the parcels got exchanged in transit. Hart is a tendency on the part of our contemporaries to say that the people of Alberta are Poles or foreigners of one kind and another, unfamiliar with the cry of freedom that arose from Toronto. They mistook it for a partizan outcry. But not so the fine, bold, free people of Rosebud! They knew. No doubt it may be considered a hopeful sign that the last rose of summer, when plucked, should prove to be a rose-bud.

THE ANT.

Facts About One of Natures Most Industrious Creatures.

When spring comes with all its wealth of opening buds and new flowers, the ant is preparing for a season of profitable industry.

It comes out of its winter quarters and locates a new home where it can store away, during the summer months, the sustenance for the long winter days.

Just as industrious as the ant—but in a different way, are the countless infinitesmal germs which burrow into the scalp and eat away at the roots of the hair.

As they burrow away, Dandruff forms, and if the germs are not all killed, Baldness results.

TEA FACTS.

The rapid advance of Ceylon as a tea-producing country is one of the most noteworthy features of the tea business of the present day. For many years China was the storehouse for the supply of this article of universal consumption. Then Japan came to the front as a tea-growing country, and by means of their extensive advertising boomed their output. Now, however, these countries have taken a back seat, and the teas of Ceylon have to a great extent superseded those from both China and Japan. This is largely owing to the greater purity and superior delicacy of flavour of the Ceylon growth. The modern way of buying tea in packages is the best method to insure getting it properly blended and of equal quality, and only when the tea is packed in lead packages is the aroma and delicate flavour preserved. There are many package teas now on the market, but the best known and most largely used is the brand known as "SALADA," which can be obtained from all grocers at prices varying from 25c to 60c per lb. This brand of tea received the Highest Award and Gold Medal at the recent exposition at St. Louis.

No Decision Yet Reached
WITH REGARD TO Ice Cutting At Little Lake

Board of Health Met This Morning—Resolutions Were Introduced Providing for Stringent Precautions—No Definite Decision Yet Arrived At—Industrial Consumers of Ice Were Present.

The ice question was the subject of another verbal threshing out this morning at a meeting of the Board of Health held in the City Clerk's office. The net result of the threshing operations cannot be said to have been very great, in respect to the yield of definite consequences, although the relative proportion of oratorical chaff was large.

The members present were: Wm. Eyres, acting chairman; Dr. Burnham, A. Parker, Chief Rossel, George Schneider, Dr. McNulty, and Dr. Bingham, Medical Health Officer.

A number of representatives of the local ice companies, and manufacturing institutions, which are large consumers of ice, were present. Among these were Messrs. T. F. Matthews, of the George Matthews Company; Ald. William Scott, of Scott & Hogg; Mr. Jas. Drain, of the Calcutt Brewing and Malting Company; and T. A. Rehill and J. F. Allin, ice dealers.

Much discussion took place upon the dangerous condition of the ice-cutting area of the Little Lake, and several plans were suggested to overcome, or partially so, the difficulties of the situation. Mr. Wm. Eyres read the provisions of the bylaw in force in the city of Toronto. This provides stringent restrictions with regard to the cutting of ice in Ashbridge's Bay, and other areas which are considered menacing. The ice is stored and delivered separately from that in use for domestic purposes and is allowed for cooling only, with stringent restrictions. It is sold upon the warrant of the Medical Health Officer.

Dr. Boucher, of the Provincial Board of Health, who was present, took a strong view with regard to the matter. The cutting of ice in the Little Lake for domestic purposes, should by all means be prohibited, otherwise, in his opinion, the city would be in very great danger of being subjected to a serious epidemic. Sedimentation, it was true, would, during the frosty weather, diminish considerably, but by no means remove, the danger.

Dr. McNulty thought that it was too late in the season, to compel ice-dealers to secure their supply from other sources than the Little Lake. He thought, however, that in allowing the cutting, unless the sale was placed under the most stringent precautions, the Board was taking a large risk. His views were embodied in the following resolution:

Moved by Dr. McNulty, seconded by A. Parker, that the ice from the Little Lake must be used for cooling purposes only, and that the Medical Health Officer prepare a notice warning users of ice from the Little Lake that it must not be put into food or drink, and that the ice-dealers be requested to have a copy of the notice put up in the refrigerator of each customer.

Mr. William Eyres was opposed to allowing the ice to go broadcast over the city, by the Board taking a risk which was unwarranted. He concluded by moving the following resolution:—

Moved by William Eyres, seconded by George Schneider, in amendment, that we allow ice to be cut in the Little Lake for cooling purposes only; and that it shall not be sold to householders, hotels, restaurants, milk dealers or dairymen, and that the receptacles containing the ice be locked and sealed, and opened with the permission of the Medical Health Officer, and that a bylaw be prepared for this purpose, including a penalty for its infraction, and that at a later meeting the matter of ice for domestic purposes be considered.

The views of the representatives of the different industrial concerns present were heard, the consensus of opinion appearing to be in favour of the cutting of ice for cooling purposes in the Little Lake.

Mr. Allin pointed to the difficulty which would be experienced in making a distinction between the large and the small concerns using it in this way. Much difficulty would be experienced even under the most stringent regulations of prevention of carelessness, or of the wilful violations of the conditions imposed.

Mr. T. F. Matthews, one of the largest users of ice in the city, explained to the board the manner in which it was used by his company, this being entirely in refrigerator cars. Five to ten cars per week were supplied, the amount used being two to four tons per car.

An important feature of the meeting was embodied in the resolution to adjourn, moved by Dr. McNulty. In this was included a provision for the examination of the water of Chemong, Clear and Katchewanooka Lakes. Samples will be secured by the Medical Health Officer and submitted to the provincial bacteriologist, and a report will probably be submitted at the next meeting, which will assemble at the call of the chair.

OTONABEE WEDDING
HENRY-SHAW.

"Fairview," the residence of Mr. Wm. Shaw, Otonabee, was this afternoon the scene of an interesting social event, when his eldest daughter, Iva May, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Norman Maxwell Henry, son of Mr. Maxwell Henry, of Millbrook, in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties, a great many being present from Millbrook, Port Hope and other towns.

At 4 o'clock the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, M.A., rector of St. Luke's, of which church the bride is a member, assisted by Rev. W. Johnston, of Millbrook. The bride who was given away by her father, was married under a bell of evergreens and flowers, and in front of a bank of palms and evergreens. The wedding march was played as the bridal party entered the drawing room, by Miss Ina Cummer, of Owen Sound, cousin of the bride.

The bride looked charming in a gown of cream silk eolienne, over silk taffeta, with lace and chiffon trimmings. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. There were two bridesmaids, Miss Ada Shaw, of Clark, cousin of the bride, and Miss Olga Brand, of Port Hope. They were dressed alike in champagne coloured eolienne over silk, and carried pink roses. The groomsman was Mr. Jas. Henry, of Millbrook, brother of the groom.

After the ceremony the party with the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast, of which Mr. H. Long was the caterer, and at which the health of the bride was proposed, and fittingly honoured.

The bride and groom will leave on the 5 o'clock G.T.R. train to-night for Port Hope and will visit in Western Ontario cities. The bride's going away gown was a prune coloured broadcloth suit, and velvet toque trimmed with foliage, to match.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Henry will reside in Millbrook. The bride, who has been a resident of Otonabee for only about three years, lived formerly in Cavan, where, as well as in Otonabee, she was very popular. She was the recipient of a large number of very handsome presents, the quantity and value of which testify to the universal esteem in which she is held. The gift of the groom to the bride was a cheque, while to the bridesmaids he gave pearl rings and to the groomsman, a pearl pin.

Among the invited guests from a distance were:—Miss Marion Lethbridge, Port Hope; Miss Edna Brand, Port Hope; Mr. and Mrs. J. Leatch, Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Clarke Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnstone, Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. Denny, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hambly, Millbrook; Miss Lina Cummer, Owen Sound; Mr. Herb Armstrong, Millbrook; Miss Clara Reynolds, Bethany; Miss Beatrice Smith, Miss Mattie Smith, Toronto; Messrs. Wm. and Arthur Lamb, Toronto; Mr. B. Reid, Orono; Miss Millie Aikin, Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Aikin, Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cooks, Peterborough; Mrs. Thexton, Peterborough; Dr. and Mrs. Grey, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Jameson, Peterborough, and many others.

Will be "Canned Up" for Six Months

—Ernest Gorham, an Englishman, 26 years of age, seems to have no inclination to walk in the straight and narrow way. He had just completed a ten day term in gaol, not having had the money to pay a fine, when he again turned his attention to the cup that cheers, and as a result, got beastly drunk. P. C. McGinity locked him up, and this morning he faced Police Magistrate Dumble on a charge of vagrancy. Ernest was sent to the Central Prison, Toronto, for six months, and when he sees his friends upon his release he will be able to tell them that he hasn't tasted a drop for six months. Outside of his partiality for whiskey, Ernest, like a great number of other unfortunates, seems to be all right.

THE RING.

A curious feature of the big amateur boxing tourney in Chicago last week was the overwhelming preponderance of Bohemians, Germans, Hebrews, and other tribes, as compared to the races which used to furnish all the boxers—the Irish and the English. Not an Irish boy won a first prize, writes Lou Houseman. Of sixty odd fighters in the tourney, ten or more were Bohemians. Several Swedes took part, a few Italians, and a numerous string of Germans, while the Hebrews were much in evidence. Love of the ring is evidently seizing all of Chicago's polyglot peoples, and champions of unpronounceable names will be a probability in the near future.

BASKET BALL.

The return game between the Harriers and Arrows at the Y.M.C.A. last night resulted in a win for the Arrows by 31 to 27. The game was fast and exciting from start to finish. The Arrows, however, outplayed their older and heavier opponents and showed quite a superiority in combination work. For the losers Emmerson played a gilt-edged game and for the winners Darling was always prominent. The teams were:—

A Petition To Amend the Game Law Circulated

Movement Inaugurated by Mr. H. P. Dwight is Gaining Ground—A Petition Asking Government to Extend Hunting Season to One Month Being Signed Well—Proposal is to Have October the Hunting Month.

PRESENT SEASON IS TOO SHORT

The movement inaugurated in this Province by Mr. H. P. Dwight, of Toronto, president of the Great North Western Telegraph Company, for an amendment to the game laws by which the hunting season for deer could be extended to one month instead of fifteen days only, and the period fixed for the month of October instead of as at present, November, seems to be meeting with considerable favour among the hunters of the province, and a petition is being circulated with a view of securing as many hunters' signatures as possible to it. The following letter, which was sent to a local gentleman, and the accompanying copy of the petition, which is being circulated in this district, explain the the situation:

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 17. 1905.

The president of the Game Commission, who is in sympathy with us in the desired change in the law respecting deer hunting, has suggested that we should get petitions for the proposed change, in order to strengthen the hands of the Commission in making their recommendation to the Government, and in order to meet their suggestion I am sending to a number of places through the country the form enclosed for this purpose. You will greatly oblige myself and others interested if you will get this petition signed by the deer hunters and others conversant with the matter in your town—as many as possible—and return to me before the end of the month. Your attention to this matter will greatly oblige,

Yours truly,
(Signed) H. P. DWIGHT.

The petition is as follows:

Petition Respecting Deer Hunting.

To the Ontario Game Association:

The open season for deer hunting in the Province of Ontario, after being shifted about a number of times, was fixed a number of years ago at fifteen days—from the 1st to the 15th of November—while the open season in the adjoining Province of Quebec is four months—from the 1st of September to the 31st of December.

The undersigned are of opinion that the restricted season of fifteen days has the effect practically of compelling all law-abiding deer hunters, if they go at all, to be in the woods together, which is not only dangerous to the hunters personally, but far more destructive to the game than would be the case if the open season were made longer with fewer hunters in the woods at the same time. The present open season is also objectionable from the fact that November is the rutting season, when the flesh of the bucks is rank and unfit for food, venison being in its best condition much earlier in the season.

While the undersigned do not recommend that the open season should be made as long as it has been fixed in the Province of Quebec, they would suggest that it would be made for one month, and for the month of October—licenses to be issued for the first or last half of the month at the option of the applicants. The undersigned respectfully urge this change in the game laws respecting deer hunting, in the confident belief that, so amended, it will meet the approval of the great majority of law-abiding deer hunters in the Province of Ontario.

Those to whom the above has been presented here have gladly signed it as there is among the hunters generally, it is believed, a feeling that the change suggested is one in the right direction.

With New Blood In the Arteries

YOU WILL FEEL NEW VIGOR AND CONFIDENCE THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE BODY.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Do you know what it is to feel well — to feel young and hearty and vigorous—to feel full of energy and ambition—to enjoy work and to look forward hopeful and confident of the future.

This is the natural way to feel when your blood is pure and rich and your nerves are a-thrill with life and vitality.

This is the way you will feel if you revitalize your wasted and depleted nervous system by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Not in any miraculous way—not after the first dose or the first box, it may be, but when your system has been gradually built up — your blood enriched and new vim and vigour instilled into the nerves.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful medicine, but its wonders are accomplished in nature's way, by thoroughly restoring the elements lacking in a run-down body.

No other treatment for the nerves acts in exactly this way. Some relieve by deadening the nerves — some by excessive stimulation.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food brings about lastingly beneficial results by forming new, rich, red blood, and creating new nerve force.

Mr. George W. Lawson, a farmer living near Consecon and well and favourably known throughout Prince Edward County, Ont., writes:—

"About one year ago I was taken sick and felt myself failing every day. I consulted and doctored with several eminent physicians, but received no permanent benefit. In fact they told me they could do nothing for me except afford temporary relief, as it was a general breaking up of old age. My nerves were exhausted and my whole system completely broken up.

"I was just at death's door, and, thinking my time to die had come I gave up hope and resigned myself to fate. At this time my wife read in the papers about some of the wonderful cures being brought about by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I began using it.

"This treatment helped me from the first, and I continued to keep it up for about six months, when I was fully restored to health. To-day I am a well man and made so by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at a trifling cost. All this in spite of the fact that I spent a large sum of money with physicians only to be pronounced incurable. Though in my 75th year I feel as well as I did at twenty, and can walk as smartly as any of the boys."

There is lots of evidence of what this great food cure has done for others. Ask your neighbours about it. Fifty cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

BLUE MARBLE IN ONTARIO.

Mr. Gilbert Allom, an Englishman is in New York as the representative of a company having control of a very valuable marble quarry in Western Ontario.

This commercial exploitation is the result of a piece of luck which befel the Princess of Wales on her visit to Canada four years ago. In a collection of minerals presented to her was a specimen of blue marble. On her return to England the Princess gave this to Mr. Allom, pointing out that if the material could be found in large quantities it would be no doubt of great value in decorating public buildings, hotels and private residences. Last fall Mr. Allom sent out a mining engineer to prospect the region where the blue marble had been discovered. After three months' exploration he found a hill the upper half of which contained a large vein of marble of purer blue than the original specimen. He purchased 3,000 acres of land on which the hill was located and returned to England. He states that about twenty tons of the marble have been sent to London and have excited great curiosity among masons, as it was the first time blue marble had ever been seen there in large quantities. It is a sodalite and very hard. The marble has to be sawn like granite.

Who Gets the Most Out of Life?

Not the wealthiest, not the most learned, nor the idler—but the man who has good health and works for his living. This truth is trite, but not trivial.

Every man should guard his health as his most valuable possession. The more so because health is easier to retain than regain.

Keep your grip on health by regular exercise, reasonable care in eating and requisite sleep. Take Beecham's Pills occasionally, to tone the stomach and keep the liver and bowels in good working order. And don't worry.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, sickness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very roots of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY. 25 Years in Detroit. 250,000 Cured.

Defiant Attitude Of The Porte Is Alarming

HOSTILITIES ARE IMPENDING

Absolutely Refuses to Grant Reforms in Macedonia—Says All Islam is Behind Him—Proposals Rejected at All Points — Fleet Gathered in Piraeus to Bring the Sultan to Terms.

Constantinople, Nov. 23. — The Porte has rejected the proposals of the powers for the international control of the finances of Macedonia.

He Rejects Every Demand.

Vienna, Nov. 23.—A despatch from Constantinople says that the reply of the Porte, which was handed to Baron Von Calyo, the Austria-Hungarian ambassador last night, rejects the proposals of the powers on all points and declares that the public opinion of Turkey would not countenance their acceptance. The Porte agrees to extend to two years the terms of the civil agents of the powers in Macedonia.

Warships Are All Ready.

Athens, Nov. 23.—The warships of the powers which propose to make a demonstration against Turkey arrived at Piraeus yesterday and exchanged salutes and official visits. The commanders of the vessels are awaiting instructions.

Sultan Asks For Delay.

London, Nov. 23.—The Vienna correspondent of The Times says it is reported there that the Sultan of Turkey appealed to Emperor Francis Joseph to postpone the naval demonstration on Turkish waters and that the Emperor replied that further delay was impossible.

BURDENSOME.

Canadian Bridge Co.'s Evidence Before the Tariff Commission.

Windsor, Nov. 23.—The Tariff Commission began its session at the City Hall here yesterday afternoon. A second sitting took place in the evening.

Keen competition and flagrant dumping by American manufacturers was shown by representatives of several local firms. Testimony was offered by Kerr Bros., of Walkerville, manufacturers of engines; the Canadian Bridge Co., also of Walkerville; Hiram Walker & Sons, Limited, the distillers; the Standard Paint and Varnish Co.; and Penberthy Injector Co. of Windsor; Brown, Wigle & Co., woollen manufacturers, of Kingsville, and others.

The evidence of the Canadian Bridge Co. was, perhaps, the most radical given. Secretary Colburn of the company asserted that the present tariff agreement had become so burdensome that unless relief was speedily forthcoming, they would be forced to remove their extensive plant.

THREE SHIPWRECKS.

With Not One Survivor Left to Tell the Tale.

Halifax, Nov. 23.—Capt. A. Allen of the steamer Kilkeel, which arrived here Tuesday night, reports having seen a large two-masted steamer go to the bottom off Beaver Harbor last Thursday afternoon.

It was concluded that she had struck a shoal and the seas coming aboard the boilers had exploded and all had gone to the bottom.

Upon the Kilkeel resuming her voyage, Capt. Allen thought he saw the funnel of a steamer on the shore. Capt. Allen believes the unknown steamer to have been the Turbin, reported wrecked off Mud Island, as he does not think she could have arrived there so quickly.

It is believed that not a single survivor has been saved from either of the three wrecks.

Colonization Conference.

Montreal, Nov. 23.—A special from St. Jerome, says Hon. Dr. Beaume, Ontario Minister of Public Works, addressed the convention yesterday on the question of colonization.

BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to your sex it will be well for you to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you feel from its use is not the delusive exhileration from a tippling beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining strength," writes Mrs. Seneth Kinny, of 65 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I doctored with our family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I know it was good for any one suffering with female trouble. Have taken only one bottle and am gaining strength very fast. I could not eat nor sleep when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' Heart troubled me and I had cold and numb spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Have had one child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment am positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps the bare cost of mailing; or, send 50 stamps for cloth bound. Three Liberals Were Elected Yesterday

Aylesworth, Pardee and Chisholm Victors On Wednesday.

ONE CONSERVATIVE, SMITH

Postmaster-General Has a Big Majority—Finish in Wentworth Remarkably Close — Seat Claimed For Smith by 8, But Liberals Not Disposed to Concede This—The Figures in Antigonish.

Newmarket, Nov. 22.—Aylesworth by 500 was the gratifying news which the wires carried to all parts of the riding of North York last night. From every polling subdivision came the cheering news of material gains, until when the last poll had been heard from it was found that the adverse majority of 268 which Mr. E. W. Lennox succeeded in obtaining last January in the Provincial election had not only been wiped out, but that Aylesworth was elected by half a thousand, and North York had once more resumed her place in the Reform column. The celebration of the victory will long be remembered in North York.

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth, who had gone down to Aurora just before the polls closed, addressed a rousing meeting of his supporters there, thanking them for the magnificent victory they had given him. A special car then brought the party up to Newmarket. When the Toronto contingent arrived a procession, headed by the 48th Highlander's band, was formed, and to the accompaniment of the brass band, horns, bugles, cowbells and other "musical" instruments, the town was paraded. A bodyguard of Young Liberals, mounted and armed with brooms, acted as escort for the Postmaster-General.

Cheers For the Victor.

A meeting was afterwards held in the Town Hall, which was jammed to the utmost capacity. When Mr. Aylesworth entered the audience shouted and cheered for some minutes.

The Minister's Speech.

Mr. Aylesworth's rising was the signal for another great outburst of cheering, which lasted some minutes while the newly-elected member bowed his acknowledgments. When at last permitted to speak he said in part: It is said that to every man is given the right to have a proudest moment of his life, and I to-night have that happy experience, for I am not merely member of Parliament for North York, but I am member by a majority of over half a thousand. (Cheers.) I owe it to the exertions of my friends, to the efforts of the stalwart supporters in every polling subdivision of this riding, that I am able to give to myself that proud satisfaction to-night. We have fought a brief campaign, it is true, but we have fought a hard and strenuous battle. We have done our best and victory crowns our efforts. We have redeemed North York, and, having done that, what we have we'll hold. (Cheers.) Our majority may be small, but it will grow. (Laughter.) Upon an occasion such as this I certainly should not wish to exult in any respect over an honorable though defeated enemy. This campaign has been fought on our part openly and in a manly way, and in such a way as to leave to us no cause for any regret. Least of all on this occasion should I or anyone say anything at all derogatory to my opponent. He is, I am sure, an honored citizen among you, and no one will regret to-night more that he must do the false position in which he has throughout this contest been placed.

A Rebuke to One Man.

"The result at the polls to-day of having improved our position at every single poll throughout the riding is the most fitting rebuke to the one man who has forced this contest upon us, and who had the audacity to think he could impose his will upon the independent electors of North York. (Cheers.) On this occasion I am quite well aware that I am indebted to many respectable, honest Conservatives of this riding for the magnificent majority that the polls have shown. To these men I express my thanks; they have by their votes in my behalf upon this occasion done something which was truly in the interests of the Conservative party, for if the one man who has been our principal antagonist by his newspaper utterances, by his scurrilous articles and cartoons, could have had his own way he would have driven in the thin end of the wedge, which might have driven the Conservative party asunder. He has been repelled. And to the honest-minded Conservatives of North York who have joined with them the Liberal party owes a debt of gratitude. To-night finds Mr. Maclean exactly where he was a month ago, the leader of the third party, said to consist of a magnificent party of one."

Imperial Proclamation to Close Peasant Payments on Land on Jan. 1, 1907, When They Will Own It—Finland's New Governor—Zionist Movement to Palestine Grows—300 Sail From Odessa.

Kursk, Nov. 23.—The agrarian disorders in the district of Subzhh have assumed such violence that the troops are unable to cope with them. The whole northern half of the district is in the hands of peasant rioters, who are pillaging the estates and burning the harvested crops.

Mobs Want Food.

Vladimir, Nov. 23.—In the Jurieff and Alexandrovsk districts of this Government, peasant mobs are demanding the surrender of the stocks of provisions, and are threatening to set the torch to the whole locality, and to storm the county treasuries.

LANDOWNING PEASANTS.

Payments Will Cease Entirely at the Beginning of 1907.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The State Department yesterday received the following cablegram from the United States charge d'affaires at St. Petersburg: "The Imperial proclamation yesterday states that during the year 1906 the payments on land granted to peasants will be diminished by one-half and will cease entirely on Jan. 1, 1907, the peasants then becoming owners of the land. For peasants who have not taken up land, the Emperor will afford increased facilities to his peasants' bank to advance them money so that they may profit by the new arrangement."

Finland's New Governor.

London, Nov. 23.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says that Emperor Nicholas has ratified the nomination of Privy Councillor Gerard as Governor-General of Finland, adding that his election will be most acceptable to the Finnish people.

Zionist Movement Grows.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 23.—Despatches from southwestern Russia indicate that the Zionist movement has been given a powerful impetus by the anti-Jewish disorders. Hundreds of Jewish families are leaving, or preparing to leave, for Palestine. Three hundred sailed from Odessa on one steamer yesterday.

Freight Trains Collide.

Montreal, Nov. 23.—A head-on collision occurred early yesterday morning between two heavy I. C. R. freight trains at Villeray. A west-bound engine and four cars were ditched while three cars of the eastbound train were burned.

THE most important part of a range is the oven. Any kind of a fire will boil potatoes, but it takes an evenly distributed, dry heat to bake light bread and flakey pastry.

The Imperial Oxford Range is the result of over sixty years of work along the lines of oven improvement. When we had produced the perfect oven with the Imperial Oxford Diffusive Flue, we worked on the other improvements that make it the most economical and easiest-managed range on the market.

Mrs. Jane Clark, Aged

WOLSLEY STREET RESIDENT,

Disappears Mysteriously

Left Home Three Weeks Ago and No Trace Can be Secured o Her Whereabouts—Stated Her Intention of Visiting a Friend Residing Just Outside the City—All Efforts to Secure Information Regarding Her Have Been Fruitless.

Mrs. Jane Clark, a widow, who has resided with her son, Mr. Thomas Clark, on Woolesley street, near Barnardo avenue, has disappeared in a most mysterious manner, which has baffled the most diligent efforts upon the part of her relatives to locate her.

The last seen of Mrs. Clark was three weeks ago yesterday, when she left her home, stating her intention of visiting Mrs. William King, a friend, residing in Douro Township. Her intention was to walk, the distance being about a mile and a half, the house being situated about half a mile from the Auburn Woollen Mills.

Since leaving home three weeks ago Tuesday no trace of her whereabouts has been obtainable, though every effort in this direction has been made by her son, other relatives and friends.

Mrs. King, who is about 68 years of age, has been in good health, and though she has been known to wander slightly in her thoughts, the condition of her mental faculties was normally sound. She has upon previous occasions left home and visited for a period of a week or two with friends and relatives at, and in the vicinity of Lakefield, without giving any notice of her intentions prior to her departure. Hence no alarm was occasioned during the first fortnight of her absence, but within the past few days her son, becoming alarmed at the length of her stay, instituted inquiries at various places where there was a possibility of her going. Inquiries at Lakefield and Norwood have both failed to bring any information.

Mr. Clark last night notified the local police of the circumstances, and should any information be secured with regard to the missing woman it should at once be communicated to the police or to Mr. Clark, who is an employee of the G. T. R.

Writ Claiming Damages For

LIBEL ISSUED BY

R. Hill Against J. H. Dewart

Libellous Statements Alleged to Have Been Made in Letter Published in The Examiner at Request of Mr. Dewart—Letter Was Apropos of Gow Case, and Entered Into Explanations of the Past Relationship of Hill and Dewart Families.

An action for unstated damages has been instituted by Robert Hill, of Dummer Township, against James H. Dewart, also of that township, on a charge of libel in connection with a letter which appeared in the Examiner in September last, in which statements, it is alleged, of a libellous nature were made. A writ was issued some days ago at the instance of Mr. E. B. Edwards, K.C., who is acting for the plaintiff.

The letter which forms the basis of the claim, was published in the Examiner on or about September 7th, at the request of Mr. Dewart. The date of it's publication was a short time after the Hill tragedy in Dummer Township, and in it Mr. Dewart entered, to a considerable extent, into an explanation of the circumstances surrounding the relation of the Hill and Dewart families, respectively, which formed at the time in it's connection with the tragedy, the subject of considerable comment.

Mr. John Dewart, father of the defendant, was in the city to-day, and when questioned regarding the matter by the Examiner, stated that his son had been notified of the intention of Mr. Hill to enter suit for slander. The latter would, Mr. Dewart stated, defend the suit, as he considered that the statements made in the letter were substantially correct, and contained nothing of a libellous nature, or any statements which could not be proven.

The case will arouse more than usual attention by reason of it's connection with the Gow case, and it is probable that the testimony which will probably be adduced, will be of a most complicated nature owing to the anything but amicable relations between the two families for some years. It will probably be heard at the Spring Assizes.

Roarin' Game Will Flourish;

ENTHUSIASTIC RE-ORGANIZATION

Meeting Of Curling Club

Strong Protest is Entered Against Characteristic "Hogtown" Tactics in O. C. A. Grouping—Annual Meeting Held Last Night at Curling Rink—Bonspiel Will be Held—Everything Points to a Bumper Season—Election of Officers and Other Business.

There was all kinds of enthusiasm in evidence at the annual meeting of the Peterborough Curling Club held last night at the rink, and if the coming winter isn't a hummer, "Tee-high," among the local "Knights of the Besom and the Stone," it will not be the fault of the thirty-five or forty members in attendance at the meeting, and their seventy or eighty associates who were not present. All the old veterans of the game in the city were out in force, and it didn't need any "skirl" of the bagpipes to work up the enthusiasm.

The reports of last year were received, and were generally satisfactory and gratifying.

The character of the discussion was throughout of a most optimistic character as to the prospects for the bonspiel, which will henceforward be held upon a fixed date, in order to allow outside clubs an opportunity to make necessary arrangements in order to enter.

Wigs on the Green.

But there were "wigs on the green," with a vengeance, when the matter of the new groupings, as arranged by the Ontario Curlers' Association, arose for discussion, and the local club will be heard from, in no uncertain tones, with regard to it, and it was unanimously decided that though the club's membership in the Associatioon will be continued, no rinks will be entered in the Tankard Competition.

In the grouping, as arranged in previous years, the clubs in this district, known as Group 5, were scheduled to play in Peterborough. Through the representations made by Mr. Flavelle, of Lindsay, this order of things was altered, and, despite the protest of the local representative, a new arrangement was made, whereby the group will play in Toronto. A vigorous protest is a natural consequence of this characteristic action upon the part of Hogtown, the clubs in this district having been grouped together for years, this arrangement having proved most satisfactory. At the recent meeting of the O.C.A. Executive, the groups were thus arranged:

Group 1.

Lindsay, Cobourg, Umbridge, Granites, Queen City, Port Hope, Richmond Hill, Toronto, Prospect Park, Umpire, Dr. Russell.

Play at Toronto.

Group 5.

Oshawa, Colborne, Bobcaygeon, Toronto, Parkdale, Brampton, Peterborough, Aberdeens, (East Toronto), Caledonians, Lakeviews.

Umpire, J. W. Corcoran.

Play at Toronto.

The chair was occupied at last night's meeting by Mr. W. G. Morrow, retiring president of the club. After the reading of the minutes the reports of the secretary-treasurer was presented as follows, by Mr. W. G. Morrow, in the absence of Mr. Robt. Kerr:

Secretary-Treasurer's Report.

"I am pleased to report that the last winter was a very successful one and although the Peterborough Club did not capture the Ontario Tankard, and other important local trophies, the members generally enjoyed a great deal of curling.

"On the Tankard draw our rinks' skips, Mr. Neill and Mr. Giroux, were defeated by our old-time adversaries, the Lindsay club. In the Neill-Sheppard cup our club lost the cup for the year to Orillia by a very small margin, and although sorry to have the cup leave it will perhaps make it a more interesting match this winter, and encourage our club to try to re-capture it for the next year. We have also arranged a fixed date for this match, and in future it will be played on the third Tuesday in January of each year.

"In the Lindsay-Peterborough competition I am sorry to say that Lindsay was again victorious, and would urge the Peterborough curlers to make a determined effort to win this competition this year, as it has been won continuously for some years by the Lindsay club. We have also arranged a fixed date annually for the Peterborough-Lindsay competition, which in future will be played on the first Thursday in February.

"The Peterborough Bonspiel has now become a yearly fixture, and from the way the visiting clubs have responded to our invitation to visit our club, they have seemingly enjoyed that annual outing. The Peterborough Club has succeeded in making this the premier curling event in Eastern Ontario, and the club is indebted very much for the success of this event to Mr. J. S. Knapman, who has been such an able and energetic secretary, and also to Mr. G. H. Giroux for the energy exercised in collecting the necessary finances."

Financial Statement.

The financial statement showed receipts of $795.79, with an expenditure of $496.18, leaving a balance on hand of $289.61; this amount when deducted from the rent, expense (not included in the foregoing statement) leaving a deficit of about $70, which was wiped off by subscription.

Report of the 1905 Bonspiel.

"The Bonspiel Committee have pleasure in reporting that the 1905 Bonspiel was the best of its kind ever held in Peterborough, and long before the notices were sent out many inquiries were received from outside clubs wanting to know if it was the intention of the club to hold it, and already this year, many of a similar nature have been received.

"Thirty-eight rinks were entered in the competition, and great interest was taken until the last stone was thrown. In the semi-finals, the following rinks were left in: Myles Hamilton, S. Ray and T. F. Matthews, Peterborough, and W. Davis, Bobcaygeon. The finals were between S. Ray and T. F. Matthews, and were won by the former by a score of 21—6.

"In the Consolation the following rinks were in the semi-finals: G. H. Giroux, T. Rutherford and M. Hamilton, Peterborough; and Dr. Walters, of Lindsay. The finals were between T. Rutherford and M. Hamilton, the latter winning.

"If a bonspiel is decided upon for 1906, we would advise that it be arranged early in the season so that the

Italians Going To Native Land For The Winter

Eighteen Natives of 'Sunny' Italy Left This Morning to Spend the Winter Months — Many Will Return With Italian Wives —Like Canada so Well They Will Induce Others to Come—All of Them Are Flush With Money.

AN INTERVIEW WITH ONE OF THE TOURISTS

This morning eighteen Italians, who have been making their home in this city for some time, left on the G. T. R. for New York, where they will sail for Italy, their native country, to spend the winter, their intention being to return to Canada again with the re-appearance of spring.

They formed a very happy party, and their pleasure at the prospect of returning again to sunny Italy was evident. The departure from the city was the occasion for a gathering of the majority of their fellow-countrymen in the city, which took place last night, when a general jubilation was participated in, and the fortunate members of the party were wished "bon voyage."

This morning a large number of their friends were at the station to see them away, and many were the good wishes expressed.

The Examiner had a conversation with one of those who left the city in this party, and he freely expressed his gratification at the opportunity afforded of paying a visit once more to the land of his birth.

Asked as to the intentions of himself and his comrades, he said that they all would return to Canada in the spring. They simply intended to visit the scenes of their childhood. Some of the men had been in Canada for several years, and the majority of them had amassed, what, to an Italian in Italy, would be a fortune, and few will go back with less than one thousand dollars of good Canadian money.

The Examiner's informant stated in confidence, that he understood a number of his comrades would, before their return to Canada, take to wife some of the fair daughters of their sunny home, and, as far as he was concerned personally, he hoped that he, too, would be one of those fortunates.

These dozen and a half men will no doubt prove excellent immigration agents for Canada. They have done so well themselves since they came here, that their return to Italy will resemble that of heroes.

To their countrymen at home they will be like millionaires, and no doubt the good fortune that has befallen them, will give others the desire to share in the good things which Canada provides.

They are travelling second class to New York, and steerage to Italy.

Government To Appeal To The Country

Special Wire to the Examiner

London, Eng., Nov. 24.—The Central News says it understands that as a result of to-day's meeting of the Cabinet, it was decided to make an appeal to the country. It is not known whether or not any date for the election was definitely fixed. The suggestion that the Cabinet should resign did not meet with much favor, because of the attitude assumed by the Liberals in declining to act as a stop-gap to tide over the Government until the election can be held by forming a new Cabinet at this time.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH

—MR. WM. EYRES BELIEVES—

OF GREATER IMPORTANCE

Than Monetary Consideration—Thinks That it Would Greatly Endanger Public Health to Use Ice for Domestic Purposes From the Little Lake—Quotes From the Toronto By-Law.—Board of Health to Take Action After Report is Received.

The question of the domestic ice supply for the city is one which is creating considerable interest among the citizens, and the action of the Board of Health will be waited with interest. The Board will not take any definite steps until the report on the condition of the water above Lakefield has been received. The present attitude of the Board is divided. A section of the members are inclined to absolutely prohibit the use of ice from Little Lake for domestic purposes, while others are of the opinion that it would be a hardship to the ice dealers to prohibit them cutting ice there, and favour issuing instructions to the consumers, asking them not to use the ice for other than refrigerator purposes.

Mr. Wm Eyres, a member of the Board of Health, yesterday produced a copy of the by-law adopted by the Toronto Board of Health, governing the ice supply of that city. While he did not wish to be understood as endorsing the bylaw as a whole, or advocating its adoption in its entirety for Peterborough, it covered generally his ideas on the subject. The bylaw is as follows:—

1.—No person shall cut, harvest, or in any way obtain any ice within or without the limits of the city of Toronto, which is intended either for domestic use or for cooling purposes within the said limits, or shall sell, store or distribute within the said limits, any such ice, without having first obtained a permit therefor from the Medical Health Officer of the said City, for which a fee of one dollar shall be paid.

2.—No ice shall be sold, delivered or stored within the City of Toronto for Domestic use or for cooling purposes (except as hereinafter specially provided), which shall be produced by the freezing of water which, on analysis, shall be shown to be other than that of absolute chemical purity, and upon bacteriological examination shall show more than 20 colonies of bacteria per cubic centimetre.

3.—All ice cut, harvested or intended for cooling purposes only, shall be housed forthwith, after being cut, and when the ice house to which said ice is consigned shall be filled, or shall in the opinion of the Medical Health Officer, have received its consignment for the season, the said house shall be closed and sealed by the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, and it shall not be opened, nor any ice removed therefrom, save and except with the consent in writing of the said Medical Health Officer.

4.—No permit shall be granted in pursuance of these regulations to cut, harvest, sell, store, deliver or obtain ice for domestic use or for cooling purposes (except in cases provided for in section 5 of these regulations), from any portion of Toronto Bay, Ashbridge's Bay, the River Don, the Humber, or in or from any pond, bay, or body of water which has not first been approved of by the Medical Health Officer.

5.—The said Medical Health Officer may grant permission for ice to be cut and stored for cooling purposes only from Toronto Bay, and other water in such places and parts as he may select, the said ice to be cut and harvested under the direction of the said Medical Health Officer, and to be housed and stored in houses to be approved of by the said Medical Health Officer, the said houses, immediately after receiving such ice, to be closed and sealed by said Medical Health Officer, and to be opened with his permission and under his inspection.

6.—The Medical Health Officer may

The Silver Ores Of Hastings Are To Be Utilized

A Plant to Cost a Million and a Half Will be Erected--Probability of Tweed Getting It--A New Process to Manufacture Sulphuric Acid--An Important Announcement Made Yesterday--Means Much for Mining Industry.

ENGLISH COMPANY TO OPERATE PLANT

The important announcement was made at the meeting of the Canadian section of the Society of Chemical Industry yesterday, that in the spring a company would invest $1,500,000 in a plant to utilize the silver ores of Hastings county, and to extract sulphuric acid by the contact process. Mr. Nieghorn, manager of the Canadian Chemical Company, London, made the statement, which was greeted with applause. The construction of such a plant which, it is understood, will be located near Tweed, will greatly stimulate the mining industries of Eastern Ontario, as it is expected to render available commercially large bodies of ore which are not now worked. The members of the association dined at the National Club, and afterwards listened to papers and discussions upon subjects of active interest to them.

Knights Of Columbus Held Social Function

Pleasing and Fitting Termination of the Deliberations of the State Council's Session Held Yesterday—Outside Delegates Were Entertained—About 100 Were Present, Including Lady Friends of Members—A Delightful Evening Spent.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS ENJOYED THEMSELVES

The session yesterday of the state council of the Knights of Columbus was pleasingly concluded last night by a charming social function arranged by the members of the local council.

The afternoon sederunt of the assembled delegates was confined to routine business of the order, and, as was mentioned yesterday, many prominent members were present from outside points.

In the evening the sombre business aspect of the rooms of the society, Hunter street, were transformed into a scene of mirth and enjoyment, the visiting delegates being charmingly entertained by their local associates of the Order, who were accompanied by their feminine friends. The affair was of a delightfully informal nature, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the hundred or more who were in attendance. The evening was spent in cards and dancing, refreshments afterwards being served.

An Investigation Will Be Made As To Alleged Imperfect Construction

Mr. R. B. Rogers, Superintending Engineer Trent Canal, states to The Examiner that "on behalf of those responsible for the construction of the hydraulic lift locks at Peterborough and Kirkfield, he has applied to the Department of Railways and Canals for a thorough investigation into the published statements made as to the defective condition of these locks. The Deputy Minister," he adds, "promised him that his request will be granted."

Mr. Rogers, in taking this action, is only anticipating what could have been done, if it has not already been done from another quarter, and justifying the action of The Examiner in calling attention to conditions, which existed requiring remedy, and which were the subject of much rumor and comment. The object aimed at was official investigation with a view of arriving at a remedy. This was the only desire of The Examiner in calling attention to the condition of the lift locks, which it seems is to form the basis of an investigation.

Mischievious Boys Cause An Injury

Some boys—for mischief, we suppose—played a nasty caper at the east end of the village last Sunday evening, which resulted in serious injury to one of our citizens. They tied a rope across the sidewalk in front of Mrs. Charles Stephenson's place on Belmont street. About 9 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rogers were returning home when Mr. Rogers fell over the rope, and came down with great force upon the hard icy sidewalk, and Mrs. Rogers narrowly escaped a serious tumble by catching hold of the fence. Mr. Rogers fell so heavily upon the sidewalk that the breath was almost knocked out of him, and he lay on on the ground for a short time unable to move. Mrs. Rogers ran over to Mr. Packenham's, whose residence is opposite, and Mr. Packenham came over and assisted him into the house, when it was found that in addition to the severe shaking up, he had received a wound on the temple and a cut on the chin. A pair of spectacles which he had purchased during the week at a cost of five dollars, and which he was wearing at the time, were smashed to atoms. An effort is being made to discover the perpetrators of the trick, and if they are found out it is hoped that ample punishment will be meted out.—Norwood Register.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

THE electric lights went out last night at a dance at Government House, Toronto, and five hundred fashionable guests were left groping in the darkness. This will probably lead certain Hamilton journals to remark that the retrogression of Toronto to the pre-historic candle-light, is upon a par with their otherwise benighted condition.

IN PORT HOPE they are in a quandary whether to attach the fire-alarm to the bell of the Methodist church, or to the village bell. It should be easy guessing. The church is a sort of fire alarm anyway.

A CHURCH CENSUS will be taken in Toronto on Wednesday next for the purpose of locating people with reference to church preferences. Probably some of the local churches will, at a later date, come to their "census."

BROOM MEN and sweepers on Toronto streets stirred up such a dust yesterday that it rose in dense clouds above the city. Peterborough, sad to relate, would scarcely have built up its reputation in an industrial centre if dependent upon this means of securing it.

A BELGIAN LUNATIC named Brassine recently murdered his wife and afterward went to the office of the gendarmie, declaring that he had just killed a devil. Probably the thought two in one family was too many.

Sin of Commission Easily Condoned

The City Commissioners have committed one sin of commission that can be easily condoned. They have put a new roof on the market building and brightening and preserving it with paint. They seem to be administering the property well, for they obtain for one of the shops recently vacated, from a new tenant, $100 net per year more rental than the previous tenant paid. Of course, some improvements have been made, but the increased rental is a clear gain.

Third Story To-morrow

The third of the series of stories in the competition will be published in the Examiner to-morrow, when the names of the judges will be announced. Great interest has been aroused in this competition and the papers to which the stories have been published have had large sales. An effort will be made to have the publication of the stories completed by Christmas, and the prizes awarded.

Big Excursion From Dundas

The Wearers of the Red and White Will Come Here With Large Crowd.

The excursion from Dundas will leave that town at 8.30, next Saturday morning and will arrive here at 12.30. There will no doubt be a very large crowd take the opportunity of seeing the game, and other attractions of Peterborough; among them that magnetic structure the ever interesting lift lock. While Peterborough tied the visitors on their own grounds last Saturday, the Dundasites come here full of hope and confidence and are still of the opinion that they will win the intermediate championship of the O.R.F.U. The management of the local colub has very thoughtfully done everything in its power to facilitate matters, particularly as far as seating accommodation goes, for the visitors. This game will be a splendid exhibition of the Burnside rules and will no doubt prove to the satisfaction of the spectators that under the new rules the game is much faster and more interesting than it was when the old scrimmage game was played. With the large crowd of out of town enthusiasts and the hundreds of supporters of the blue and white, with two of the fastest intermediate teams in Canada lined up on the gridiron, ready to do or die, and with the air full of the shouts of victory and groans of defeat, Riverside Park on Saturday should present a picture that will do credit to the scenes of strife and excitement witnessed in the olden days in the arenas of Rome and Greece.

A Story Of Pioneer Life.

Prepared by the Daughter of an Early Settler at the Solicitation of Col. H. C. Rogers, for the Peterborough Historical Society.

The following story of pioneer life was told by one of the early settlers in his old age to his daughters who kindly prepared it at the solicitation of Col. H. C. Rogers, President of Peterborough Historical Society, for the archives, the latter thinking it would be interesting to a large circle and stimulate others to do likewise to help the work of the Society.

William Foley, the narrator of the story was born in Cork, Ireland, January 1st, 1813, and died September 30th, 1904, being 92 years old. Living on his farm near Foley's Point, Rice Lake at the mouth of the Indian River in the township of Otonabee, since 1826, he was married to Mary Kylie, who bore him 12 children, nine of whom are living. John Kylie, Hunter street, is a brother-in-law; Mrs. John Ryan, 275 Reid street, city, is a daughter. Four of the family still live on the homestead.

The James Foley spoken of as the eldest brother was at one time a merchant in Peterborough and afterwards moved to Norwood, where he died many years ago, after having accumulated a large property which he left to his wife, Almira Grover, who, at her decease, left the interest revenue of the estate—some $40,000 — in annuities to relatives, at whose decease the interest passes to the poor of the County of Peterborough:—

My uncle James was the first of the Foleys to come to Canada. He lived in London, England, and came over in 1817, buying "Foley Point" and adjacent lands, also property at Belleville. He built a shanty on the point, but it was not finished when he returned after a year in Canada.

Then in 1826 he came again, bringing our entire family with him. My father and mother, with six of a family, sailed from Cork, the city where we lived at home, to Bristol, England, and from there to the city of New York, being six weeks, four and a half days on the ocean. We took a canal boat from New York to Utica. It was late in fall, and after staying here a short time the canal became frozen. We chanted a covered sleigh, a team of horses and a driver, and drove from the town of Utica, N.Y., to Stewart's Clearance. (Stewart's Clearance was in Otonabee, at Keene, now Burnham's farm.) Here the sleigh returned to Utica. We drove up the United States side till opposite Kingston, where we crossed, keeping along the front to Cobourg. We struck Rice Lake, where Harwood is now, crossing the lakes on the ice about Hiawatha. From there we drove to Mr. Stewart's. Here, the snow being so deep, we remained six weeks. Then young Dave Stewart ditched up his oxen and drove us to the "old clearance" (the farm occupied for years by Mr. Wm. West). On this farm lived two old English gentlemen, Websteads, friends of my uncle. Here we remained until spring, when the house on Foley's Point was fit to live in.

Shortly after my father died and James, my eldest brother, moved us off my uncle's place and built a shanty in the "Old Orchard," the present Foley farm. There was no village of Keene then, not a single house. We found the mosquitoes and black flies a dreadful pest. I was blind for three days once with black flies' bites.

The first place I worked was at Mr. Birdall's. He had a government contract to supply rations of provisions, etc., to the immigrants.

While the men were at the woods, I, a small boy, kept on the fires to warm the poor immigrants (while they waited for their supplies. Tommy Hope was Mr. Birdsall's best help then, being a boy of 17 or 18 years, Tommy Hope now being 94 years.

A Bear Hunt.

One cold November morning, when I was a little chap, I was sent with the boat to row my brother Pat back to Keene, where he had work. I wanted to take the gun, but Pat said "No." The duck were so plentiful he would get shootin them and lose his whole day. The rice beds were already frozen, only the different channels being opened. When we were in the Big Bay, near the mouth of the Indian River, we saw something dark among the rice and weeds. Thinking it was duck, we sailed close, breaking the thin ice, and found it was a large bear. Pat got between him and Foley's Point, keeping him from the shore. In the open channel we sailed close, Pat beating him over the head with the oar until he broke it. The bear was getting tired and tried to climb on the thin ice, but it breaking away, gave us a chance to get close to him. At last my brother got his oar over his head, sunk it under the water, and held it there until it was drowned. It was a big one. He got eleven dollars for the hide, and the bear weighed over four hundred pounds.

Rice Lake in the Twenties.

Rice Lake was not as it is now. When we came here, years ago, there was no dam at Hastings, and the water being much lower the lake was a bed of weeds and rice.

The rice grew much taller than it does now, and on a fine evening we would watch the deer come down to get a drink; many a time large numbers of them. Then, if allowed to stand in the water they would remain for some time, wading in and out among the tall rushes and rice to escape the black flies and mosquitoes. Poor things, they were slaughtered in great numbers those days. The first few years the settlers were too scarce to diminish their numbers, but we could easily kill four or five every morning or evening we wished. As the summer advanced the flies and mosquitoes became terrible; the deer sought the lake in great numbers. Here they were safe from the flies and mosquitoes, standing under water all but their heads and necks. But the splashing of the water by the feet and tails revealed them on a dark night to the wary Indians, who were out on what they called a still hunt. The darker the night the better. They would slip along quietly in their birch canoes, until close up to the place where the deer stood splashing. Then, quickly drawing up their light, a kind of dark lantern, they shot the deer dead without any difficulty. Many and many a fine deer lay dead at the camp fire in the morning sun-light.

During those first years the deers' worst enemy was the wolf. A large pack would start back north, their dismal howl sending the few settlers to places of safety. Spending out they would go along until they came to the lake. Here one would spy a deer, and, with a long howl, would spring on it. That dismal yell would probably be a call for twenty or more other wolves. I have seen the wolves in large numbers run from island to island on the ice.

No; I never shot a wolf. We were given ten dollars bounty for a scalp for many years by the Government.

"Were there many guns?" Yes. Along the lake, plenty. The Government supplied the Indians with guns every three years. They traded or sold them to the whites when they were in need of blankets, etc., during the cold weather.

A Night Alone in the Woods.

My brother James had secured work in a shanty with a few men, in the place where the village of Hastings now stands. I used to take his washings to him every week from home. I knew the wood path well and enjoyed the run through the deep forest. I had no fear but one day I was great-frightened.

Running along the path I came to where a tree had fallen across it. There, among the brush, was an old man lying, almost hid by the weeds and leaves. He was stone dead. He was the old man who had charge of the shanty while the men were away at work. I ran as fast as I could to the shanty where I found one man; told him, and he got three other men and they brought the old man to the shanty. Having laid him out they all went away to different places to see magistrates; at that time they had to notify four of them. They told one to remain, as they would be away all day, but some one would be there by night. I was to keep the door locked against all animals, and to wait until they returned. Very frightened, I sat all day with the dead man, but night came, no one returned. I bolted the old door, trembligly heard the wolves howl in the woods and prayed for some one to come to me. Worn out with fatigue and fear I wrapped a pile of blankets around me and over my head and fell asleep. They returned some time near morning and found a thoroughly frightened child, who when daylight broke, scampered back to his mother, the 10 miles through the woods.

No, I do not know the old man's name, or of any the proceedings afterwards, but I remember my night alone with a corpse in the shanty where the village of Hastings now stands.

A Belleville Bride

DUPRAU-BAILEY.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at 12.30 to-day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bailey, Lewis street. The bride was their only child, Miss Allie, who became the wife of Dr. Oliver Duprau, of this city, only son of the Rev. S. A. Duprau, who is at present stationed at Roseneath. The immediate relatives, and a few intimate friends, were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the father of the groom, assisted by the Rev. R. H. Leitch, pastor of Holloway street church. The young couple were unattended. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of cream silk, trimmed with cream taffeta and chiffon. She carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. The drawing room where the wedding was solemnized, was prettily decorated for the occasion with smilax and carnations. After the nuptial knot had been tied the company were handsomely entertained, the caterer being Mr. Jas. Wallace. The bride, who was very popular in the city, was the recipient of many costly and handsome gifts. Dr. Duprau and his wife left on the evening train for a trip to Detroit and other places. On their return they will take up their residence on Hillside street in this city. — Belleville Intelligencer.

The groom is well known in Peterborough, where his father has frequently occupied the pulpits of the Methodist churches, supplying in the George street church for Rev. J. P. Wilson, two years ago, while the latter was on his holidays.

Representatives Were Appointed

Wednesday night after prayer meeting of George street Methodist church the representatives from the congregation met the Quarterly Board. They were as follows: Messrs. T. M. McFadden, J. Nugent, Wm. Switzer, Geo. Robertson, G. M. Main, A. R. Kidd and J. Lang.

"J. S. KNAPMAN,
"Secretary Bonspiel Committee."

Election of Officers.

The election of officers was then proceeded with resulting as follows:—

Patron and Patroness—Mr. and Mrs. C. McGill.

Hon. President—Mr. W. G. Morrow.
President—Mr. T. Brightman.
Vice-President—Mr. T. F. Matthews.
Secretary-Treasurer — Mr. R. M. Waddell.

Representative Members — Messrs. W. G. Ferguson and E. B. Edwards.

Executive Committee—Messrs. R. Neill, W. H. Denham, J. S. Knapman, F. H. Dixon, G. H. Giroux.

Membership Committee — Messrs W. G. Morrow, T. F. Matthews, A. Moore, R. Neill, T. Brightman, J. S. Knapman, W. E. Talbot, F. H. Dixon, J. E. A. Fitzgerald and C. N. Brown.

General Discussion.

Mr. W. G. Morrow, the efficient President, of last year, expressed briefly his gratification at the splendid progress of the Club during the year, when more men were upon the ice than ever before, and the present prospects warranted every confidence in a continuance of this during the coming season.

Mr. T. Brightman was then escorted to the chair while the rafters rung with the greeting, tantamount to an ovation, which he received. The opinion of many leading members of the Club were heard with regard to the matter of the grouping as arranged at the recent O.C.A. Executive meeting.

Mr. W. G. Ferguson stated that while it had been originally arranged that clubs in the vicinity were to come to Peterborough to play off in the primary competition, the abolition of this arrangement was unfair to surrounding clubs.

Mr. J. S. Knapman also protested against the Hogtown "gerrymander." While he favoured remaining in the Association he was opposed to entering any rinks in the Tankard Competition. He concluded by moving, seconded by W. G. Ferguson, a motion embodying the decision of the club not to enter rinks in the Tankard Competition, which, after discussion, was unanimously carried.

Mr. John A. Cameron thought that while there was no doubt as to Mr. Flavelle's ability as a curler, Peterborough does not require anyone outside to say what is best for them. He was strongly in favour of withdrawing from the Tankard series this year. Peterborough is surrounded by Clubs which would rather come to Peterborough than to Toronto. It was, in his opinion, "up to" the Curling Association to consider the claims of Peterborough.

Mr. Thos. Rutherford was in favour of even stronger measures, and moved a resolution in which it was suggested that the local club should withdraw from the Association. The motion was, however, subsequently withdrawn.

Mr. G. H. Giroux also took this view, expressing the opinion that since the Association had arranged a group according to Mr. Flavelle's liking, without consulting the local club, with a membership of over 100, the Association should be ignored.

Mr. T. F. Matthews considered that it would be unwise at the present time to withdraw, and favoured remaining in the O.C.A. though no rinks should be placed in the Tankard Competition.

Mr. W. H. Denham looked upon the Club's entry in the O.C.A. as in one sense a sort of advertisement, though he, like all the previous speakers favoured the withdrawal from the Tankard Competition.

Upon motion by Mr. W. G. Morrow it was decided to extend to the press and the clergy of the city the same courtesies as in past seasons.—Carried.

The President was, on motion, authorized to make arrangements with regard to the rink.

The Bonspiel.

Considerable discussion followed upon the matter of the arrangements for the bonspiel.

Mr. J. S. Knapman stated that many inquiries had already been received from outside towns with regard to it. The following have inquired about it:—Uxbridge, Lindsay, Norwood, Keene, and Bobcaygeon.

Upon motion by Mr. W. G. Morrow, it was decided to hold it, and the following Schedule Committee was appointed:—Messrs. G. H. Giroux, R. M. Waddell and Thos. Brightman.

Mr. J. S. Knapman, last year's energetic secretary, who worked so enthusiastically for the success achieved, was re-appointed to the position.

A committee consisting of Messrs. C. N. Brown and T. Rutherford was appointed to perform the arduous duty of locating the Club's trophies. A meeting will be held on Dec. 7th to arrange the rinks for the season.

Police Will Get After Them

Clownish Tricks of South End Funny Fellows.

A resident of Sherbrooke street has complained to the police of the boys ringing his front door bell for no other reason than to annoy the occupants of the house. Last night the bell was fixed so that it was impossible for anyone to ring it, and the boys, on finding out how matters stood, opened the door and threw in a chair. P. C. Stewart went down this morning to investigate the matter. The chief says conduct of this kind has to be stopped at once. The pranks of mischief-makers of this calibre are a source of perpetual annoyance and are a source of perpetual annoyance to the citizens who are preyed upon.

A term upon the hill would be the best means of cooling the ardour of some of these "smart Alecs." And they'll get it too, if they can't find some other sphere, the vaudeville stage for instance, for executing their "brilliant" stunts.

In Natal labour is plentiful, and no one—except female servants— is recommended to go there now, unless to obtains a nominated passage, or has a little capital.

Women in Our Hospitals

Appalling Increase in the Number of Operations Performed Each Year—How Women May Avoid them.

Going through the hospitals in our large cities one is surprised to find such a large proportion of the patients lying on those snow-white beds women and girls, either awaiting or recovering from serious operations.

Why should this be the case? Simply because they have neglected themselves. Ovarian and womb troubles are certainly on the increase among the women of this country—they creep upon them unawares, but every one of those patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, leucorrhœa, dizziness, flatulency, displacements of the womb or irregularities.

When these symptoms show themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from surgical operations

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, 412 N. 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was in a very serious condition when I wrote to you for advice. I had a serious womb and ovarian trouble and I could not carry a child to maturity, and was advised that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I could not bear to think of going to the hospital, so wrote you for advice. I did as you instructed me and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and I am not only a well woman to-day, but have a beautiful baby girl six months old. I advise all sick and suffering women to write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Miss Lillian Martin, Graduate of Training School for Nurses, Brantford, Ont., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"While we are taught in the training schools through the country to look down upon patent medicines, and while the doctors in the hospitals speak slightingly of them to patients, I have found that they really know different. I have frequently known Physicians to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to women suffering with the most serious complications of ovarian troubles, falling of the womb, leucorrhœa and other disorders. They would, as a rule, put it in regular medicine bottles and label it "tonic" or other names, but I knew it was your Compound and have seen them fill it in prescription bottles. Inflammation and ulceration have been relieved and cured in a few weeks by its use, and I feel it but due to you to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proper credit."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice and medicine have restored thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Many Cases Of Destitution

Very Sad Plight of a Galway Family.

Mr. George Cochrane, agent of the Children's Aid Society, states that a number of cases of destitution have arisen in various parts of the country.

A particularly sad case is one in Galway Township, from which place two children will be sent in to the Shelter in the course of a few days. The name of the family is Mountenay. The family consists of an aged stepfather, and his wife, the mother of the children. The former is in a most infirm physical condition, but owing to the lack of any facilities, nothing can be accomplished towards his relief.

New Fire Alarm For Port Hope

The Port Hope Times this week tells of the decision of the council to purchase a fire alarm. Reporting the meeting of the council, when it was discussed, it says: Mr. Burnham said it was proposed to instal a first-class fire alarm system at a cost of about $100. The alarm could be rung direct from the firehall. It consisted of a hammer and motor to be attached to the bell of the town hall or of the Methodist church. When sounded the alarm would go off like an alarm clock and would continue until shut off. He thought, in addition, telephone alarms should be connected with the firehall. It was a question as to whether the alarm should be attached to the town bell or to the Methodist church bell. He favoured the town bell.

A Baptism at Indian River

The revival services in the Baptist church at Indian River have been concluded. They were most successful, and as a result a large number of new members received baptism and were accepted into full membership in the church, while many were deeply impressed. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Steadman, and Rev. Mr. Bruce, of Peterborough, performed the baptismal ceremonies.

Howell Signs For American Soo

The Toronto Telegram last night had a despatch from Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., which says:—"Secretary T. L. Ferguson said yesterday afternoon that "Ted" Howell will probably be the man signed to complete the Soo team. He received a letter from Howell yesterday saying that he would coach when he received transportation. He is now at Peterborough.

"Howell will play a defence position and from the view of the field now presented it looks as if the Soo will have as fast a team as any in the league. Some of the local puckeys pick the Soo and Pittsburg as the two best teams in the league.

"It seems a pity, however, that the copper country will not have such a walkaway as in previous years and thus will doubtless serve to create a greater interest in the game.

"The new provision which will allow exhibition games with teams outside the league will probably work well financially, as the outside games will draw well in case some of the well-known teams are secured."

Mr. Howell was seen last night by the Examiner, and he stated that the report was true. He had signed to play with the American Soo this season and will leave in the course of a short time for that city.

T. A. S. SMOKER

Say did you ever see "Buck" Quinlan dance? No? Well, he will shake his feet in the sand to the tuneful air of "The Monkey and the Weasel" at the T.A.S. Smoker on Monday night—that is providing his beautiful tenor selection, "My Daffodil Now Sleeps in Dummer" is encored. Voice from the gods:—"Let the wrestling go on."

• • • •

Hurtubise should be in good shape for his bout with Grady. He's been doing some "tall" wrestling on the gridiron this fall.

• • • •

Jack McDonough has the punching bag scored to death. He'll give it an awful "hiding" on Monday night. Tick tack, tick tack, tick tack. Listen it pound up against the platform. Bang! It'll strike four time's now before he touches it again. He has Phil Morris, of the Police Gazette, beaten a block. Biff, bang, biff! Tick, tack, tick, tack, tick tack.

CURLING

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Curling Club held last night at the rink conservatory, was a hot one—that is the temperature of the room was high, as was also the enthusiasm. Whether that was due or not to the spice lent to the occasion by the oratory of a well-known curling enthusiast and well-known grocer, it seemed to be that his optimism was responsible largely for the feeling that seemed to prevail that the curling season would be a banner one in curling.

• • • •

With a Brightman as President and with a good Morrow assured there is every reason to hope for a good curling future.

• • • •

In the appointment of delegates last night the club go "representative" men in a double sense. Col. Edwards and Mr. Ferguson are veteran stone pitchers able now as they have been for years and years past to uphold the curling credit of the town either on the ice or in the council chamber. They have stood by and with the game since it was "tee high to a grasshopper".

• • • •

Curling should boom this winter, for it is a splendid winter medium for letting off the enthusiasm of sporting men, generated in summer games, which the weather has closed out—especially golfers and bowlers, whose form of amusement naturally slides into curling. Golf seems to be a natural ally of curling—one has its "tee" and the other its "caddy".

THE BEST IS CHEAPEST

"Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind) is the purest and best form in which Ozone is put up. Each bottle of it contains a coupon entitling you to a package of "Celery King", the well known laxative which should always be used with Ozone.

By buying "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" you get Ozone in its most efficient form and you get about twice as much of it for your money as of other brands. You also get the package of "Celery King" without charge.

No other brand of Ozone offers this advantage because no other firm can give you the "Celery King." This is the only way to procure the full value of your Ozone purchase.

"Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" is fifty cents and one dollar at your druggists and if he hasn't it the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg Ont., will see that you are supplied. Sold by W. B. WARNE. 13

The weather has not quit to a "spin" for the winter. The frosty weather and local option in Stoke and its possibly spotless shaving in Lakefield and Dummer, Trent Valley and, a step to "no-liking" each morning, is a splendid substitute.

Curling is "Scotch" though that may be no reason why the club made advancements for a supply of Scotchmen. Mr. McIntosh has been a faithful enthusiast of the rink and when he saw him at the front door on Charlotte street last night he gave a twinkle of the eye up and down and knew that the curlers contest was on.

Curling may be "Scotch" but it needs no Aberdeens, bikers of any Caledonian build for the club has spirit enough of its own. This was shown last night when the meeting strongly and properly repented the high-handed action of the Ontario Curling Association in grouping Peterborough for the Dominion, out of its proper latitude.

The Association showed itself a poor curling outfit, for it couldn't get over the "hog"—the centralizing spirit of the city in which the meeting was held sooner to accuse in the Association the "Hog-town" spirit. The action of the local curlers was dignified and self-respecting as well. While they did not withdraw from the Association they decided not to enter into the Dominion competition.

In spite of this the local curlers mapped out a fine programme of winter sport including a grand bonspiel, such as the local club has always made such a "clearin'" success.

The action of the club in deciding to extend the usual courtesies to the clergy and the press shows that it looks not only to sporting enjoyments, but also has an eye for moral and intellectual standing — the parsons and the press representing piety and brains, but which represents which is left to the reflective faculty of the reader.

It is not expected that the action of the Board of Health limiting the supply of ice will not tend to prevent any scarcity from "taking ice" enough to meet the skips' ideas of strategy.

Altogether the meeting last night was a most successful and encouraging one and gives colour to Mr. J. A. Cassidy's optimistic forecast of one of the most successful seasons in the history of the Peterborough curling club.

HOCKEY

A meeting of the members of the Port Perry Ladies' Hockey Club will be held to-morrow night for the purpose of organizing for the coming season. Remember the year when "Goosie" Taylor managed a team of Bloomer Girls in Lindsay? It's about time leap year came around again.—Lindsay Post.

• • • •

The Alert Hockey Club will hold a meeting to-night at seven thirty. All are requested to be present.

THE TURF.

A well-known local doctor has purchased a half interest in a fast pacer now in Michigan. The horse will probably arrive in Peterborough a week from to-morrow. It will be entered in the $1,000 stake race at the Ottawa ice rack meeting, and will probably appear here and in some other places in the Eastern ice circuit.

RUGBY.

Listen to the yells to-morrow! There'll be some new ones that will put the college slogans back to the time of the civil war.

• • • •

The Toronto Star says:—"Ben Stange can still find how unpopular he is in his native town on Saturday night. He was consented to referee the Rugby match with Dundas at Peterborough on that day. From the hour of his appointment all friendship ceases.

• • • •

The following will be the line-up of the team to-morrow:—

Full back—Ruthern.

Halves—Cowley, Shaw, Gillespie.

Quarter—Mosher.

Inside Wings—Crate, Dillon.

Middle—McDonald, Reggs.

Outside—Gilbert, Cooper.

Spares—Quinlan, Fitzpatrick, Hall, Simson.

• • • •

It was not like this last Saturday.
It was not like this at all;
In the rare old, fair old Valley Town,
When the score there stood four all,
With our full wing line and our time half back,
With our full wing and our half back,
We'll certainly miss them well,
And when Dundas goes home again,
Will it not?

Hear the concluding words at the game to-morrow.

This song will be sung by the post bon chorus of the Canadian General Electric boot room to-morrow at the match.

Havelock Gold Mine For Sale

Mr. John Seabrook, of Francoeau, Ont., is advertising in the Toronto papers a gold mine property for sale. The property, as it is stated, a valuable one, situated three miles from Havelock station. It is said to assay $42.86 per ton, and consists of 307 acres. Mr. Seabrook is anxious to dispose of this valuable property evidently, for he offers anyone a free option on it.

A KINGSTON despatch states that the Royal Military College cadets "must grow moustaches, or die in the attempt." The "dying" usually comes at a later date.

Successful Concert At Ennismore

An Entertainment Was Given in St. Martin's T. A. S. Hall—A Debate on Relative Merits of Napoleon and Wellington—Local Clergy Were Present—Rev. Dr. O'Brien Gave Address—A Musical Programme—Good Prospects for Society.

OTHER NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Special to the Examiner.

Ennismore, Nov. 23.—The concert at St. Martin's Hall on the evening of November 16 proved most interesting and instructive. The large hall was well filled, and on the stage were Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Father Brethenton, P.P., of Hastings; Fathers Galvin and Kelly, of the Cathedral; the parish priest, Rev. M. F. Fitzpatrick; the four debaters, Misses Galvin and Guiry and Messrs. O'Donoghue and McDonald, besides Mr. Chas. McDonald, a former teacher in Ennismore. The musical portion of the programme was under the direction of Miss Agnes Spillard, and the clever manner in which each number was rendered, reflects much credit on the young lady. A very marked improvement in the orchestra was one of the pleasing features of the evening. The subject of debate was, "Resolved, that Napoleon was a greater general than Wellington." Affirmative, Mr. Stephen McDonald and Miss Lettie Galvin. Negative, Mr. J. A. O'Donoghue and Miss Celia Guiry. The four debaters are teachers in the township, and as a result the subject was ably handled, and a thorough knowledge displayed, not only of the two men, but of that portion of European history, to the making of which they so largely contributed.

The greatest enthusiasm was manifested by the audience, and the debaters received pounds of applause in their able defence of their respective men.

While the second portion of the programme was being run off, the clergy present retired to an anteroom to consider the relative merits of each set of arguments, and at the close Dr. O'Brien announced that they had decided to award the debate to the affirmative. He briefly reviewed the whole debate, pointing out wherein one surpassed the other, and making clear the justness of the decision given. He also addressed a few words of fatherly advice to the members of St. Martin's T. A. S., urging them to be faithful to their pledge and to use their influence to induce others to join the society. Rev. Fathers Galvin and Kelly also made brief addresses, pointing out the great benefit that must in time accrue to the pupils of Ennismore from such intellectual treats as they had just listened to, and from the able work that was being done in the matter of higher education. The pastor added a few words of thanks to the visiting clergy, to the chairman, Rev. Father Brethenton, and to the debaters of the evening, of whom he said he was justly proud.

The concert closed by the orchestra playing the National Anthem.

Mr. Mac. Donoghue returned home last Saturday from the Northwest, where he spent the last six months.

Miss Gertie Moher spent last week in Ottawa visiting her brother, Stanley, and her aunt, Miss Annie Creagh.

Mr. Chas. McDonald, at present engaged as teacher at Killarney, paid a short visit to his friends here, and was present at the concert on the 16th.

A special fine, not exceeding five dollars, will be imposed on anyone, native of erin, who hoists flags on "Dan" after December 15.

Miss Maggie O'Donoghue left last Monday on a visit to her brother in San Francisco.

BE READY FOR GROUP

AND INSIST ON HAVING THE TRIED TESTED REMEDIES.

It is not a question of whether you will need a treatment for coughs, colds and croup in your homes, but the question is will you select the most effective medicine or simply be satisfied to take whatever your druggist happens to hand out to you? Time and experience have proven that you can depend on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine at all times.

It is only necessary to remember this when the critical time comes and to insist on getting what you ask for.

Should you have children that are subject to croup you had better keep a bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house for, when the choking spasm comes on there is little time to send for doctor or medicine.

It seems scarcely necessary to dwell on the merits of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a cure for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, etc. Most of us have known it from childhood up. It is almost as familiar as Dr. Chase's Receipt Book.

Mr. G. N. Morrison, 34 Fuller street, Toronto, Ont., writes:

"Gentlemen, — If it should be of satisfaction to you to know (as it certainly has been to me in the past) permit me to say that I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in my family for years, and have found it from experience to be the best cough medicine. I suppose that I have used eight bottles this past winter; my children will have nothing else, and the best of results invariably ensue. I have also recommended it strongly. If this unsolicited testimonial be of any service to you the pleasure is mine in transmitting it."

Being pleasant to the taste, it is readily taken by the children. Because it brings quick relief to the suffering from asthma, bronchitis, whooping cough, and all the more serious disease of the throat and lungs, it is invaluable as a household medicine. 25 cents a bottle at all dealers.

grant permission for ice to be delivered for cooling purposes, to tradesmen and others, excepting milk-dealers, dairymen, hotel and restaurant keepers, who need dates or receptacles for the storing of the same, which have been approved by the Medical Health Officer, or a Sanitary Inspector of this Board, and who do not retail or sell ice; provided that any dealer in ice supplying ice to such party or parties for such purposes, shall, before delivering to deliver the same, inform the said Medical Health Officer of the names, addresses and occupations of all parties to whom such dealer is desirous of delivering such ice.

7.—All ice to be delivered for cooling purposes shall be carried for delivery in waggons to be approved by the said Medical Health Officer, and which shall be used for no other purposes.

8.—All dealers supplying ice to such persons shall, on delivering the same, place and store said ice in the receptacles or safes approved as aforesaid by the said Medical Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector, and shall immediately thereafter secure and seal the same, and the said receptacles or safes shall not, without the consent in writing of the said Medical Health Officer, be opened except by the dealer or dealers supplying the said ice when making their next delivery.

9.—All dealers in such ice, before obtaining a permit to deliver ice for cooling purposes, shall enter into bond and sufficient bonds, to the satisfaction of the said Medical Health Officer, that no such ice shall be delivered to any person or persons than those named and approved by the said Medical Health Officer, and that these regulations shall be faithfully observed and performed.

10.—No person shall store in the same building, ice which has been cut or harvested for cooling purposes only, with ice intended for domestic use.

11.—Any ice obtained from a source not approved of by the Medical Health Officer, and stored or used, or intended to be stored or used, within the limits of the said City of Toronto, shall be liable to seizure and confiscation by the Medical Health Officer or by any Sanitary Inspector.

12.—Any person convicted of a breach of any of the provisions of these regulations shall forfeit and pay, at the discretion of the convicting Magistrate, a penalty not less than five dollars and not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars for each offence, and in default of payment of the said penalty and costs forthwith, the said penalty and costs, or costs only, may be levied by distress and sale of goods and chatels of offender, and in case of there being no distress found out at which such penalty can be levied, the convicting Magistrate may commit the offender to the common jail of the City of Toronto, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one calendar month, unless the said penalty and costs be sooner paid.

This bylaw was adopted in 1903, and, Mr. Eyres believes, if it had been found to work a hardship, it would have been amended.

Combatting the statement that to bring ice to Peterborough from outside the city for domestic purposes would make its prices prohibitory, Mr. Eyres quoted from a rate card of the Grenadier Ice Company, of Toronto, in which the following prices were given:—

10 pounds, daily, $1.65 per month.
15 pounds, daily, $1.85 per month.
20 pounds, daily, $2.10 per month.
30 pounds, daily, $2.50 per month.
40 pounds, daily, $3.00 per month.
50 pounds, daily, $3.50 per month.

He did not believe that these prices were much higher than those charged in Peterborough, and, in case they were, he did not want to weigh the health of the people against any monetary considerations.

Contributions To Children's Aid

A Number Were Received During the Week.

A generous public interest has been manifested in the regrettable circumstances arising from the famine and stringency experienced by the Children's Aid Society, and during the past few days this has assumed a tangible form in the donation by various contributors of a sum which is received by the officers with especial appreciation, coming at a season when it is so urgently required. Among the contributors yesterday were:—Mr. Frank Hardy, Mrs. Thomas Henderson and Mrs. J. F. Dennistoun. A handsome contribution of $10.00 was also received from "a friend."

An Invitation to Young Women

The secretary of the Y.W.C.A. has addressed the following to the young ladies of Peterborough: "You are invited to spend Saturday evenings at the Y.W.C.A. You will find easy chairs, a grate fire and a cosy room. Bring your Christmas work, and, while having a social chat you can make your presents and receive ideas from your friends."

RELATIVE PURITY OF WATER SUPPLY.

In these days, when doubts of the purity of city water supplies from lakes and rivers rise in the public mind, a cue is given to many persons to insist on the greater purity of supplies from wells — simply, it would seem, because a visible source of contamination or pollution does not exist. One can only arrive at some intelligent estimate of the relative purity of water from these respective sources by actual experiment and careful analysis, and consideration of circumstances. Official information will be interesting: One hundred samples of well water were received for examination last year by Mr. F. T. Shutt, chemist at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. Sixty-six of these were submitted to analysis, and reports given on the character of the water. Twenty-seven were found to be safe and wholesome, eighteen were most dangerously polluted, and sixteen were suspicious. Commenting on these results, Mr. Shutt says there are far too many shallow wells in existence, and most of them are situated so that they may receive soakage from the barnyard, or similar contaminating source. The barn yard and back door wells should all be filled up, for they are a menace to the farmer and his family, and, further, it should be emphasized, that water which is dangerous to use in the house cannot be used for stock. The soil is an excellent purifying agent, but it has its limitations, and once it has become loaded and choked with organic filth it cannot longer perform its beneficial function. When once the soil surrounding a well has become so charged, no amount of cleaning the well will prove effective; the well should be abandoned. The same remarks, with the conditions changed, apply to water from wells in towns and cities. It is thus seen that if water from open streams, or lakes, is subject to contamination, that water from wells, especially in congested urban districts, is much more susceptible to pollution.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"The Laurier Government is the most insolent, the most unscrupulous and perhapst he most corrupt Government which has held office in Canada since Confederation," says the Toronto News. Mr. Willison, remarks the Winnipeg Free Press, is undoubtedly real angry because the Liberal House refused to fall down when he removed his shoulder from its support.

The Scottish American is, as a rule, not given to big-headedness, nor ignorance as to Canadian matters. Yet in its last issue, in an article on "Thanksgiving Day," in the United States, it permits itself to say, in reference to President Roosevelt fixing a day for national thanksgiving that "it has often been remarked that the custom of so fixing a day for national thanksgiving, is peculiar to this country," that is, the United States. Such ignorance is inexcusable. Why, Canada has annually declared and set apart by Royal proclamation, a day for national thanksgiving, time out of mind. We don't care very much about the matter, but it seems worth while to rebuke the first tendency to bumptiousness we have noticed in the generally well-informed and steady-going Scottish American.

WHY A PLEBISCITE?

Hamilton Herald.

A movement has been started by the Hamilton Ministerial Association in favour of having the city council submit to the people at the January elections the question of license reduction. It is reported that a large deputation will wait upon the council at its next meeting to ask that this be done.

What object can the Ministerial Association have in getting another plebiscite sprung on the public? Such an expression of public opinion would be useless, because it would have no binding effect. No matter what the result of the plebiscite might be, the vote would still be perfectly free to act on their own judgment.

Very probably a majority of votes would be given in favour of license reduction in a fair expression of public opinion. The question submitted to the people of Ontario in 1902, involved the existence of the retail traffic in liquor, and on that occasion Hamilton gave its verdict in favour of the abolition of the bar-rooms. The vote stood 3951 for the liquor act, and 3361 against — a majority of 590 in favour of the drastic change provided for in the act. It is not likely that the majority in favour of a mere reduction of the number of licenses would be any less. It would probably be much more.

But no matter what the favourable majority might be, it would after all be nothing more than an expression of public opinion; and aldermen are not in the habit of respecting expressions of public opinion, unless they have reason to believe that the people will vote in accordance with the opinions they express. There is only too good cause to know that, in Hamilton, at least, few people are sufficiently in earnest on the temperance question to make it the test question. Witness the failure of the "moral reform" campaign of last year. Only one of the moral reform candidates was elected, and he would not have been elected if his name had not appeared on the Conservative ticket.

If the Ministerial Association and other moral reformers want the licenses reduced they are not going the right way about it. They will find no difficulty in getting people to vote for license reduction; but that will do no good. What they should do is to induce people to vote for those aldermanic candidates, and for them only, who declare themselves in favour of license reduction. Not until they can succeed in doing this will there be much prospect of getting a substantial reduction in the number of liquor licenses in Hamilton.

WHAT THEY SAY.

The American and the Englishman say: How do you do?

The German: How do you find yourself?

The Frenchman: How doo you carry yourself?

The Italian: How do you stand?

The Spaniard: Go with God, senor.

The Russian: How do you live on?

The Hollander: Have you had a good dinner?

The Chinese: Have you eaten your rice?

The Egyptian: How do you perspire?

The Mohammedan: Peace be with you.

The Persian: May thy shadow never grow less!

Arabs of eminence kiss each other's cheeks and say: God grant His favour and give health to thy family.

DOMESTIC DRUDGERY.

Mrs. Russell Sage says there is an immense amount of feminine talent and energy wasted in the world every day, not because of the indifference or laziness of women—for she is eager to do, to accomplish, to get out into the field of life, and achieve for herself and her kind—but because she simply does not know how. Mrs. Sage contends in a magazine article, that one of the most important movements of the day is the re-awakening of woman, the building her upon a new basis of self-help and work for others.

"It is absurd," she says, 'to suggest that women who have a talent for music, or literature, or art, should be enslaved by domestic drudgery, while the struggle for the civilization of the world is going on."

There is a chance that Mrs. Sage is in error. The wife of a multi-millionaire, whose idea of doing good in the world, consists chiefly in giving away money that she does not know what else to do with, can hardly be in full sympathy with, and have a thorough understanding of, woman in general.

The average woman is not so anxious about getting out into the world and doing for others, as she is about doing, with insufficient means and strength, all that needs to be done for her own family.

"Enslaved by domestic drudgery," has a hard and forbidding sound, but the fact remains that the vast majority of people are so "enslaved," voluntarily, and gladly, finding in the manifold domestic duties, upon which the happiness of the home is founded, not only their highest pleasure and profit but their highest, truest mission.

The woman who does faithfully and cheerfully the duties of her home need not worry about her "mission."

She is at the very source of civilization and human development.

She who makes a happy home—a living spring of honour and right endeavour—does more for the world than she who establishes a great art institute.

She may not see the full result of her work. Like the cloud that is dissipated in rain, like the rain that disappears in the stream, and like the stream that is lost in the ocean, she may feel that her mission has been nought, but such are the missions that are worth while, and the good results of which never end, while time endures.

A FINANCIAL REVIEW.

A prospectus emanating from the Albert Soaps, Limited, has fallen into our hands and has been perused with great interest. It is not often that companies take the public into their confidence so completely as has been the case in this instance. A more unreserved statement of facts than is usually given is much to be desired. This company, however, has clearly given the status of its business. The reader is struck at once with the fact that the vendors are taking their compensation by means of scrip in the company, and have agreed to continue the management practically free, the only consideration being a nominal royalty on their "Baby's Own Soap," whilst the only cash payment they appear to be entitled to will be the value of the stock and the amounts due from their customers, which latter the vendors guarantee. This arrangement on the face of it has every appearance of a sound commercial transaction.

Continuing further, a most satisfactory showing is revealed by the list of profits for the past four years. At January, 1901, the net annual profit was $11,549, whereas at the financial year of 1904 it had reched $15,374, an amount which would be sufficient to clear the mortgage interest and carry six per cent. interest to common stock. The amount of trade done in their special "Baby's Own Soap" is also excellent reading. From a 'moderate turnover of 27,000 boxes in 1898, it had risen in 1904 to the magnificent total of 233,000 boxes.

The directors' intention is to give the preference in allotment to their many trade clients, and by this means to insure increased interest in their sales, and at the same time securing to the shareholders an apparently safe and profitable investment.—The "Canadian Grocer," Toronto, Oct. 6, 1905.

It is not certain that this stock will be offered to the public as it may be reserved exclusively for sale to the soap trade, but doubtless should any readers of the Examiner communicate with the Albert Soaps, Limited, 109 McCord street, Montreal, full information will be supplied.

A GREIVANCE RECTIFIED.

The Railway Commission has made an order which demonstrates the possibilities of the great practical usefulness of the Commission as a means to securing fair and equal treatment to all patrons of the common carriers. The Dominion Millers' Association alleged against the Grand Trunk Railway Company delay in the shipment of lake grain from the Georgian Bay and Lake Huron elevators, and discrimination in favour of exporters as against the Ontario millers in the allotment of empty cars. That is to say, the company could find more cars for the men who wanted to ship western grain out of the country altogether than it could find for the men who desired to carry grain to the Ontario mills, where it would be ground into flour.

The chief traffic officer of the Commission made enquiry and on his report the Commission gave judgment. Its finding is that the Grand Trunk has been discriminating unjustly against the Ontario flour milling industry in favour of the export industry at Montreal and Portland, the latter port, of course, being in the United States. The Commission proceeds to make an order to provide means for a fair and equal distribution of cars in time of congestion at Midland, Collingwood, Meaford and Point Edward. The cars are to be apportioned in the order of the filing of shipping orders, one car to each applicant at first, and thereafter a pro rata apportionment according to the order of application.

That looks like a decision which should give all shippers an equal chance. It may balk one of the many little plans by which railway companies are enabled to advance their own interests at the expense of the general interest, but there is no public evil in that. The Railway Commission must be congratulated on having gone to the root of an important matter and applied a remedy for a great public inconvenience. —Ottawa Journal.

Sunday Funerals Discountenanced

At Monday's session of the Ministerial Association of London a resolution was adopted discountenancing Sunday funerals except in cases of absolute necessity. A letter on the subject will be read in the pulpits and published in the newspapers, urging the co-operation of the public in this matter. The association also decided that something should be done to suppress the circulation in Canada of objectionable coloured supplements to newspapers and a committee was appointed to lay this matter before the Government.

Expenditure For Good Roads

Township Municipalities Will Expend $750,000.

About $150,000 will this year be expended by county councils on leading roads under the good roads act. About $250,000 has been expended on colonization roads and bridges. Township municipalities will have expended about three-quarters of a million. Mr. A. W. Campbell, Commissioner of Highways, on Wednesday attended a conference of county and township councils at Renfrew, the object being to form a system of county roads for that county. The meeting was also addressed by Warden Jupp of Simcoe and ex-Warden Rogers of Lanark. Each of the lower counties has adopted the county roads act. Next week Mr. Campbell will attend a similar convention for Waterloo at Berlin, and the following week will address Councillors of Middlesex in conference at London. Middlesex is one of the largest counties in the Province, having 2,250 miles of road to maintain. The united counties of Lennox and Addington have just adopted a county roads system: the by-law to go into effect on May 1st, next.

New Telephones Of Bell Company Are Popular

Many Requests for the New Style of 'Phones—The Central Energy Equipment Installed Works Well—Nearly All the Old Blake Transmitters Being Replaced—New Subscribers to the System—Instructions to Use New 'Phones.

CUT OUT THE LIST OF NEW SUBSCRIBERS

The workmen employed by the Bell Telephone Company are busily engaged making the change in telephones from the old styles to the new sets, and the present prospects are that in the near future the great majority of the 'phones in the city will be the new style. It is stated that almost every day orders are received from those having the old Blake 'phones to have them replaced by the automatic sets.

For the benefit of those who are making the change, the following instructions on the way to use the new telephones may be of interest. "To call the Central office remove the telephone from the hook. When you have finished talking, hang up the telephone, placing the small end up. The act of hanging up the telephone gives a positive signal to the operator to disconnect your line. BE SURE, THEREFORE, NOT TO HANG UP YOUR TELEPHONE UNTIL YOU HAVE COMPLETED YOUR CONVERSATION. If the attention of the operator is wanted in order to make another call, or for any other purpose, move the hook up and down slowly (three of four times), speak close to the transmitter."

County Council May Be Asked To Help City

In the Erection of the Proposed Isolation Hospital — Victoria County Receives Request for Assistance From Lindsay—Majority of Patients Are From Outside the Town—Conditions Here Are Identical—County Council Considers Matter.

DEPUTATION MAY WAIT ON THEM

The question of the Isolation Hospital is agitating the minds of the good people of Lindsay, too, and at the session of the Victoria County Council this week, a deputation from the town waited on the members in session to lay the case before that body.

The Lindsay Post in reporting the visit of the deputation says:—

"Mr. Staples, chairman of the Board of Health, at once came to the point and in a few pithy sentences stated how the Lindsay Board of Health had for years been handicapped because there was no isolation hospital for persons afflicted with contagious diseases. At present they were using a tent, and this was no time of the year to use a tent; and again, after an outbreak of smallpox or other contagious disease, everything had to be destroyed, involving a lot of expense. If a proper isolation hospital were built, persons having the disease would receive proper treatment. The Board of Health had long felt the need of some to ask the County Council to act with them in the interests of the County.

Mayor Ray then spoke on behalf of the citizens of Lindsay. He thought it was in the interests of the public generally that the right measures be taken to stamp out all diseases. There were cases in Lindsay, and the sore part of it was that they had always been brought in from the outside — from north, south, east and west. They were anxious to do their share in getting rid of this defect and the best way to do it was to do it effectually. The Town Council had been asked by the Board of Health to build an isolation hospital, but unfortunately they were unable to do it. They might have erected one, but it would have been a very cheap one, and the speaker thought the Board of Health did right in asking the County Council to act with the Town Council.

Mr. Keith said they (the Board of Health) had frequently discussed this question of an isolation hospital, even when he was chairman of the Board some years ago, but now the difficulty had grown acute—they had to place patients in a tent, which did not afford proper protection in winter weather. There was quite a bill of expense in connection with the keeping of men to tend the patients, etc., and he hoped the County Council would see their way clear to assist them in this matter. They already had a site, as the field in which the tent is pitched would answer admirably.

County Councillor Shaver made a remark as to patients having the disease being allowed to leave Lindsay without being wholly cured, and Mayor Ray replied that the statement was not correct. "There had never been one occasion when a man with a contagious disease ever left Lindsay without being cured." On the other hand, the speaker gave an instance where a man from near Victoria Road, who had smallpox, was recommended to be sent to Lindsay and had been sent to town and cured at the town's expense.

Mr. Mills endorsed Mayor Ray's remarks re the case from Victoria Road, and said that when he did arrive they had no place to put him, and the medical health officer, Dr. McAlpine, had placed him in the tent on his own lawn. He didn't believe in considering the cost, but believed in stamping the disease out at once. He understood the disease had been in existence all summer in the Township of Mariposa, and that very little had been done to check it.

Mr. Staples said it would not be a big expense to erect a hospital. They could erect a building and enlarge it in after years.

Alderman Rae thought that in the interests of humanity and the fame of the Town of Lindsay and the County of Victoria something should be done to abate the disease at once, and the County Council should meet the Town of Lindsay half way.

Dr. Vrooman then gave his opinion. He had lived in the County for some years and had realized the advantages and disadvantages, and also the dire necessity, of the erection of an isolation hospital. The Dr. then gave an instance, by way of illustration, of a family he had attended—eight children and two parents. Diphtheria had visited the home, the neighbours would not go near them, and there was no place to take the affected ones. Finally the family was divided and two girls and two boys had been carried away. Every municipality ought to provide a shack of some kind, and money had nothing to do with it at all. It was all right to say that Lindsay got everything, but he believed if the people of the County understood the thing they would very quickly agree to erect an isolation hospital, and he thought it would be for the general good.

The conditions prevailing in Lindsay, are, in the main, identical with those in this city. A large proportion of the cases of contagious diseases brought to the local hospitals, come from outside the city limits, and it would therefore seem reasonable to expect that the county should contribute to the erection of an isolation hospital.

It is probable that the matter may come up at the session of the County Council next week.

James Maloney Again Fined For Selling Liquor

A Border Joint Raided by Provincial Officers—Maloney is Caught Again Disposing of Liquor Illegally—Has Been Convicted Several Times Before—History of the Illicit Liquor Business Conducted by Him—Promises to Reform.

HAS ALREADY SERVED TIME IN LOCAL GAOL

The James Maloney mentioned in the following story from the Marmora Herald is well known, by reputation, to many Peterborough citizens. His evident determination to sell liquor without a license on the borders of Peterborough and Hastings counties, has again got him into trouble. The Herald says:—

Don't expect you are to get a testimonial on this favourite brand of tobacco for it is "tag juice" of "swamp water" that is to be the theme.

Some years ago James Maloney opened out a little grocery at Cordova and whether he wished to draw trade by giving "free drinks to customers" or not, he got in the way of selling a tremendous lot of wet goods. The mines were then running and Jim evidently made some money. He was fined several times and at last was kept from going to jail by promising to quit and by the people signing a petition asking for merciful treatment. Jim then went to work and moved "the plug" across the road to be out of Peterborough County and continued doing business in the same old way. It wasn't long before he was taking a seven months rest from labour in the jail at Peterborough, do upon his return, well, he just put Everybody wondered what he would do on his return. Well, he just put in a stock of soft stuff and cigars and tried to make an honest dollar. On Monday Mr. G. E. Morrison, a detective of the license department at Toronto, called on him and found the goods "hard." A fine was imposed and Maloney promised faithfully to close up the place.

Maloney was always a straightforward sort of fellow and belongs to a well-respected family. The trouble seems to be that he has got it in his head that he can win out against the authorities which he surely should know by this time that he cannot do.

Havelock Will Have Two Rinks

Havelock citizens will have no lack of skating opportunities this year, judging from the fact that two first-class open-air rinks will soon be running in full operation. Mr. A. McIntyre will conduct one on the north two lots on Alexander street, west. The ice area will be 80 x 175 feet, lighted with arc lamps, and two separate waiting rooms will accommodate the patrons. The ice will be flooded by a gasoline engine. Mr. McIntyre assures the public that they will be provided with first-class ice and every accommodation. He expects to have the ice ready this week, if the weather continues cold. The other rink will be managed by Mr. Jos. Frost. It will be located on the sheet of water commonly known as the "Frog Pond", and will be about 70 x 190 feet in area. It too, will be lighted by electric lights, and comfortable waiting rooms erected. Mr. Frost also expects to have things running in first-class shape this week.—Havelock Standard.

The total number of paupers in England and Wales at the end of August, was 758,892, being 22.2 per 1,000 inhabitants. In Lancashire the number was 77,878, and in London, with almost the same population, it was 116,507.

"Charity" Anxious To Help Shelter

A correspondent writes to the Examiner as follows:—

Editor Examiner:—

I would like to send a contribution to the Children's Aid Society, will you kindly tell me where I will send it?

CHARITY.

For the benefit of the writer be it said that Mr. Campbell is the proper person to receive the contributions. They may, however, be handed to the secretary, Mr. H. M. Donnelstown, the agent, Mr. Geo. Cochrane, or if left at the Examiner office they will be acknowledged and handed to the treasurer of the Children's Aid Society. It is a great pity that anyone anxious to contribute to such a worthy object should be prevented from doing so by the fact that they did not know to whom to give the money.

T. A. S. Smoker On Monday

The Examiner regrets very much a mistake made last Wednesday regarding the date of the T. A. S. smoker. In the article it was stated that this attraction would take place on Wednesday next, but the proper night is Monday next, November 27, at the hour of 8 o'clock. Keep that date open if you wish to see a fine night's athletic programme.

Powers Agree And Events Take A Warlike Tone

On First Seizing Turkish Harbors and Customs Houses.

FLEET HAS ORDERS TO SAIL

Will Proceed at Once Either to Turkey's Asiatic Island in Grecian Archipelago, Mytilene, Or to Beslka Bay, Near the Entrance of the Dardanelles—A Threat to Massacre Christian Residents.

London, Nov. 24.—The powers are said to have agreed, as the first part of their procedure, on the seizure of the harbors and custom houses of the Island of Mytilene, the Island of Lemnos, in the northern part of the Aegen Sea, and the Island of Tenedos, on the west coast of Asia Minor.

Orders Fleet to Sail.

Vienna, Nov. 24.—Baron Von Calice, the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador at Constantinople, has telegraphed Admiral Ritter Von Jedina for a portion of the International fleet to sail immediately, proceeding either to Mytolene, an island of the Grecian Archipelago belonging to Turkey, in Asia, or for Besika Bay, near the entrance of the Dardanelles.

Prepares For Fight.

Constantinople, Nov. 24.—The Sultan yesterday issued an irade approving the decision of the Council of Ministers to reject the demands of the powers for international control of the finances of Macedonia. Whether the rejection is absolute or conditional has not yet been definitely ascertained.

Vice-Admiral Huani Pasha has started in a special steamer for the Dardanelles, presumably with instructions for the commander of the forts regarding the latter's conduct in the event of the appearance of the international fleet. Similar instructions have been sent to the governors of the Turkish islands in the Archipelago.

Hints at Christian Massacre.

Paris, Nov. 24.—Turkey's note in reply to the ultimatum of the powers contains a warning that the action of the powers in resorting to a naval demonstration may precipitate an internal uprising of Mussulmans against the Christian population of Turkey.

This is considered to be a threat, as it is known that no demonstration of Mussulmans against Christians can occur unless it has the silent acquiescence of the Turkish authorities.

Bulgaria Will Act.

London, Nov. 24.—The correspondent of The Daily Chronicle at Vienna, says that the Bulgarian Government has notified one of the signatory powers of its determination to march troops into Macedonia if the powers fail to carry out their measures for Macedonia reforms.

Austria's Plan.

London, Nov. 24.—The Vienna correspondent of The Standard thinks that Austria may re-open the question of the conversion of her occupation in Bosnia and Herzegovina into actual possession.

Fraud to Obtain Diplomas.

Montreal, Nov. 24.—Dr. Lachapelle, president of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Quebec, has laid information against Dr. Amelie Roy and several medical students, charging them with fraudulently securing diplomas at medical examinations last September by the use of false names, etc.

Five Men Are Killed.

Albion, Ind., Nov. 24.—Five men were killed and one was fatally injured yesterday in a head-on collision near here between a work train and a gravel train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Mr. A. Balfour To Resign The Premiership

Party Abandons His Leadership and He Must Appeal.

HAD CONFERENCE WITH KING.

Cabinet Meeting Will Be Held To-day to Discuss the Situation—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman Neatly Sizes Up the Whole Matter — Balfour Afraid of His Friends—Resignation Must Come Soon.

London, Nov. 24.—There was tremendous activity in political circles yesterday consequent on the circulation of a well-founded report that Premier Balfour had decided to bring his Ministry to a close and to directly or indirectly appeal to the country. Rumors regarding the resignation of the Cabinet and the dissolution of Parliament have been thick for three months past, but when two of the leading Government organs yesterday almost in the same terms "suggested" the immediate resignation of the Premier on account of the unmendable breach in the Unionist party over the 'fiscal question, the "suggestion" was looked upon as having been inspired by Mr. Balfour himself. This was strengthened by the knowledge that prior to the publication of the editorials, Mr. Balfour met certain influential persons at his official residence in Downing street. These two facts, when coupled, led to the belief that the Premier had intimated at the conference his intention to resign, and as he had just returned from a visit to King Edward at Windsor Castle, it was believed that His Majesty had been informed of Mr. Balfour's intentions. Beyond this, however, there is not the slightest official confirmation of the report.

Meeting of the Cabinet.

All political interest now centres in the Cabinet meeting to be held to-day, at which it is understood the situation will be discussed. Some well-informed persons go so far as to say that Mr. Balfour will go from the meeting to King Edward with the resignations of himself and the other members of the Cabinet.

Conservative and Unionist papers are in favor of the resignation of the Cabinet, which will place the Liberals on the defensive in case Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman consents to form a Cabinet, but the Radicals say that the resignation will only mean dissolution as Sir Henry, if requested to form a Ministry, would certainly decline to do so until the verdict of the people became known.

Resignation Means Dissolution.

The Liberal papers point out that while Mr. Balfour may attempt this "tactical move," they are confident it will fall on every side and that, therefore, the dissolution of Parliament is believed to be imminent. There is no thought, however, that the political campaign will be forced prior to the beginning of the year with the elections somewhere about the end of January.

Election Next Year.

(C. A. P.)—Speaking at a house dinner in the Edinburgh Conservative Club, Sir Edward Clarke, K. C., said it would be expedient to have no general election till next year, when the issues raised by the Colonial Conference should go before the country. Canada at this moment was settling her tariff and in two months the question of the Canadian tariff, so far as manufactured and partly manufactured goods were concerned, would practically be settled. Then there was the question whether Canada would ask concessions, and what concessions from the mother country. If Canada did not ask concessions he did not think any party in this country would propose to grant advantages to Canada which she had not asked for, to which she attached no importance.

Stanley Howled Down.

West Houghton, Lancashire, Eng., Nov. 24.—Lord Stanley, the Postmaster-General, was booked for a speech to his constituents here last night. On entering the hall he found it packed with members of the Labor party and was unable to find a place on the platform. The meeting unanimously passed a resolution of want of confidence in the Government. Lord Stanley later endeavored to deliver an address from the balcony of the Conservative Club, but was howled down.

Afraid of His Own Friends.

Stirling, Scotland, Nov. 24.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, leader of the Liberal party, speaking here last night, said that the air had been cleared to some extent by Premier Balfour when addressing the National Union of Conservative Associations at Newcastle-on-Tyne, Nov. 14, he said: "I am not afraid of the Opposition, but of my own friends," and by Joseph Chamberlain at Bristol, when he said, "Away with all lame ducks and blunt swords."

The Liberals, said Sir Henry, might have had sympathy for Mr. Balfour if they knew his policy, but no one knew if that policy was to deliver the Conservative party from or to Joseph Chamberlain.

Sir Henry plainly outlined his attitude toward Home Rule for Ireland. He said that the only way to heal the difficulties of the Irish Government, and to make Ireland strong instead of weak was to give the Irish people the management of their own domestic affairs. He said that opinions regarding Ireland in this respect were becoming stronger.

During the first quarter of the financial year the revenue of the Transvaal amounted to $5,280,000, as compared with $4,962,580 during the corresponding period of last year.

A labourer was fined $2.50 at Yarmouth, England, for stealing seven swede turnips from a field. He said he took them because he was hungry, intending to cook and eat them.

A Suicide Epidemic Sweeps The Country

Many People Tired of Life End It By Various Means.

AN OVERWORKED CANADIAN

Dies From Atropia Poison Hypodermically Injected In London, Eng.—An Englishman Commits Suicide In Galt With Cyanide of Potash—A Hull, Quebec, Girl's Attempt —Wife Cuts Her Throat.

London, Nov. 24.—(C. A. P.)—Robert Douglas Sproat, aged 26, who lodged at 17 Torrington square, committed suicide. It transpired at the inquest Wednesday night that he had been overworked of late and suffered from insomnia. An autopsy revealed that death was due to atropia poison and it had been hypodermically injected. Deceased left a letter for the coroner, saying: "It is a straight case of suicide, my reasons were my own, and implicate no one; any small debts I may have will be paid by them," meaning his solicitors. The jury returned a verdict of suicide whilst temporarily insane. Sproat was from Mansewood, Ont., where the body has been shipped yesterday per Virginian. He was a medical student.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Robert Douglas Sproat appears on the list of Upper Canada College pupils for the years 1893-96, when he left to enter on his medical course at Toronto University. He was a football player on the college team, and later on the University team.

By Cyanide of Potash Route.

Galt, Nov. 24.—Seated at a table in one of the small waiting-rooms of the Imperial Hotel yesterday afternoon, Frederick John Vall took a dose of cyanide of potash, and in five minutes was dead. He first got a glass of water at the bar and poured the poison into it. Enough of the drug was left in the glass to kill half a dozen families, according to Dr. Vardon.

Vall was a well-born Englishman, 30 years old, who came here a year ago from Cambridge, England, and took a job in Goldie & McCulloch's works, where he was regarded as a steady workman. His father is said to be the Rev. Canon Vall of Cambridge. Young Vall was the black sheep of the family and was packed off to Canada to tone down. His English relations sent him regular remittances. He had a fairly large circle of friends in town.

Almost a Suicide.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—Rosie Groulx, of Hull, aged 21 years, attempted suicide yesterday morning by jumping from the Interprovincial bridge. Just as she leaped from the railing she was caught by Joseph Hurtubolse, who ran and clutched her arm in the nick of time. She was handed over to the Ottawa police.

Farmer's Wife Cuts Throat.

Brighton, Nov. 24.—A fatality occurred at the home of Malcolm Redner, a respected farmer, living about seven miles east of this town, on the Kingston road. Redner had left his house to go out to the barn to do his chores for the night, and returned to the house in about an hour, and on going to his room found his wife in bed with her throat cut from ear to ear by her own hand. Mrs. Redner had been in poor health and despondent.

Took Acid.

Pugwash, N. S., Nov. 24.—Rufus F. Black suicided here yesterday morning by taking carbolic acid. He was 60 years of age.

May Have Ended Life.

Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 24.—Charles Carey, employed by the Algoma Steel Co., has been missing since Sunday, when he was last seen at the locks. He may have committed suicide by jumping into the river, as he had been worrying over the illness of relatives at Southampton, Ont. He is 28 years of age and single.

Body Found Floating.

Halifax, Nov. 24.—The body of Michael H. Keefe, a carpenter, was found floating near Power's wharf yesterday morning. On Nov. 13 Keefe was last seen alive. Deceased was about 55 years of age. For years he was a sergeant in the 63rd Rifles, and in the Northwest rebellion served as a corporal.

Mysterious Disappearance.

Windsor, Nov. 24.—William Millard, a bailiff, president of the Windsor School Board, and one of the best-known residents, left his home Thursday morning of last week, and as far as is known has not been heard from since.

Toronto Mail-Carrier Missing.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—The disappearance of Robert Loudon for nearly twenty-five years a postman is causing considerable speculation among his friends. Last Saturday night Loudon, with a friend named Crozier, went out for a walk together. About 11 o'clock Loudon said he was going to his boarding-house, and they parted. He never arrived at 328 West Richmond street, where he had a room, and he has not been since seen. The postoffice authorities took the case up and commissioned Inspector Robert Durston to see if Loudon could be found. There was nothing against him at the central office. Loudon is 45 years of age and a widower. His wife died two years ago, and since that time he has lost interest in life. He was well off.

The market this morning was only fairly large, either inside or outside. Eggs were rather scarce, but otherwise there was plenty of produce to meet the demands. The following prices prevailed:—Butter, 22c to 25c; eggs, 24c to 27c; chickens, per pair, 75c to $1.00; turkeys, $2.00 to $2.50; apples, per bag, 75c; potatoes, 90c. Hay brought $9 to $10 per ton, and oats went at 36c. per bushel.

Crescent Brand Raisins. Large, meaty fruit, very superior, 3 lbs. for 25c.

Crossman's

MURDERS CHINAMAN.

Lionel Terry, Author, Gives Practical Proof of Hatred of Yellow Race.

London, Nov. 24.—A despatch to The Evening Standard from Christchurch, New Zealand, says that Lionel Terry has been sentenced to death for deliberately killing a Chinaman in the streets of Wellington, N.Z. Terry is a traveler and artist. Recently he wrote a book entitled "The Shadow of the Empire," in which he attempted to show that the danger of the British Empire lay in the influx of Chinese.

At the trial Terry admitted that he had killed the Chinaman, saying he wished to test the question of whether the law really protected aliens. The jury recommended mercy on the ground that his hatred for the yellow race had crazed him.

Premier Roblin's Solution of the Telephone Question.

LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIE.

Italians Taken From Montreal to St. John, N. B., to Load the Outbound Vessels There.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 23.—The strike at this port between the shipping firms and the longshoremen is serious, and it is difficult to tell what the outcome will be. The shipping men in the combine declare they'll have no more to do with local labor, and are using every effort to get men here from Montreal to handle all their freight.

Thirty-seven Italians reached here yesterday morning from Montreal, and were taken at once to Sand Point. At first some refused to go aboard the Parisian, fearing they were to be taken back to Europe, but by 5 o'clock most of them were at work. A large detachment of police were on hand to prevent trouble, but only a few local longshoremen showed up, and they looked idly on. Barricades had also been built to keep the crowds back. Three more carloads of men will arrive to-day from Montreal to work on two or three ships about due.

Tuesday Hugh Allan, with representatives of other lines, met officials and longshoremen, but refused to grant the latter's request to have the matter submitted to arbitration. Local workmen also offered to work for the wage being paid at Portland, or on guarantee of $10 a week, but Hugh Allan refused to discuss the matter any further. He would pay the old rate or nothing, preferring to withdraw his ships from this port rather than give in.

The idea of the three companies—the C. P. R., Allan and Donaldson—is to work out a federation such as exists in Montreal. In all about 250 men will be brought here. The men will work in shifts of no regular hours, but as long as there is work to be done. On whatever boat or boats of these companies may be in port, all expenses will be posted, and men will be fed and housed on the ships.

As far as the Allan Line people are concerned, they say that it would pay them to take men to Halifax on one steamer and bring them back on the next. However, the federation deal, the steamship people say, will go through. The Allan Line people have deposited $375 with city officials for fifty licenses.

Work is now going on on the Donaldson liner Natalia and Furness liner Florence under the summer agreement, which does not expire until the end of the month. After that the companies will refuse to pay the increased rate.

The Gentle Kidney Cure.

Don't think that Bu-Ju is not effective because it does not "tear things loose." The man, who talks most, does least. Kidney remedies that purge—and over-stimulate the kidneys—upset the stomach—are going to do you mighty little good.

Bu-Ju

goes about curing you gently, mildly, correctly. You never know you are taking medicine—except that you begin to get better and keep on getting better. Bu-Ju heals inflammation in the kidneys—takes away that sharp pain in the back and the dull ache through the hips—stops excessive urination—and enables the diseased portions of the kidneys to heal and strengthen.

Cures Rheumatism Too.

THE CLAFLIN CHEMICAL CO., LIMITED, WINDSOR, ONT.—N.Y. AGT.—NEW YORK.

LONG STR'KE SETTLED.

Kingston Locomotive Works Makes Peace With Machinists.

Kingston, Nov. 23.—A. H. Champion, Toronto, second vice-president of the International Association of Machinists, visited Kingston, and had a conference with Mr. Birmingham, managing-director of the Canadian Locomotive Co., and as a result the Kingston strike is called off. The firm agrees to apply its policy of absolute non-discrimination to the members of the International Association of Machinists, as well as to all others. The strike has been on since April, 1903.

The company intimates that no man, whose conduct and services are satisfactory, will be dismissed to make room for others. This means that those taking the place of the strikers will not be removed.

Pummelled by Strikers.

Stratford, Nov. 23.—On Saturday, Nov. 11, Stanley Telford, a machinist, working at the Grand Trunk shops, was set upon and badly handled by some of the striking machinists. Two of them, Robert Moorehead and Christopher Wilson, were yesterday morning found guilty, the former of wounding and doing bodily harm, and the latter of common assault. Sentence was deferred.

CARSCADDEN DESPERATE.

Would Rather Die Than Live to Face Trial For Arson.

Barrie, Nov. 23.—Shortly before the hour appointed for the preliminary trial of Alfred Carscadden for arson yesterday morning he was found in a dying condition in his cell, where he had been placed a few hours after the fire in his restaurant.

Carscadden has been in Barrie only a few months having previously been in business in Orillia and his home is in Ore.

He has a wife and three small children. He severed his windpipe with a piece of the toilet set, and made a most determined effort to end his life. Very little hopes are entertained for his recovery.

In his Bible on the table was found a note, in which he bade a tender farewell to his wife and three little ones, and stated that he was not responsible for his actions. Carscadden has always borne a good reputation, and it is thought that the deed was committed in a fit of mental aberration, due to the disgrace felt at his arrest, together with the intense grief at the loss of his mother, who died ten days ago.

SEARCH AFTER COMBINES.

Crown-Attorney Curry of Toronto Seizes Papers, Documents, Books and Affidavits In Hardy's Office.

Toronto, Nov. 23.—Crown Attorney Curry has finished his work in the office of Jenkins & Hardy. He has taken away all the papers, documents and books that he thinks will be of assistance to him in his onslaught on the many combines supposed to exist. The police guard has been removed, and Jenkins & Hardy and staff are once more doing business at the old stand without being supervised by officers of the law.

The books, etc., removed by Mr. Curry will be carefully examined. He has a great quantity of work in front of him. It is not likely he will make any decided move until he has thoroughly familiarized himself with the contents of his seizure.

The attack on the plumbers and the supply company will be continued on Monday next in the assize court, and on Tuesday in the police court. In the meantime several more informations will be laid against those supposed to be in the conspiracy.

In the vaults of Jenkins & Hardy, the Crown Attorney found stacks of affidavits that were made almost daily by members of industries supposed to be in a combine of some sort or another. These affidavits were declared before notaries who have offices in the vicinity.

What Affidavits Will Show.

It is supposed that these affidavits will show that associations are in existence to regulate the sales of the following lines:

White lead, building paper, iron pipe, tin and tin plates, all plumbing goods, iron pipe, soil pipe and fittings, lead pipe, linseed oil, turpentine, range boilers bar iron and steel, hoop steel, tire steel, sleigh shoe steel, conductor pipe, eavestroughs, stovepipe elbows, factory milk cans, glass, enamelled ware, matches, woodenware, wire, tacks and brads, stovepipes, stapes, hinges, stoves, harvest tools, hollow ware, horseshoes, lanterns, shovels and spades, screws, cordage and rope, rivets and burrs, sugar and tobacco.

The Dominion association has its headquarters in Montreal, and is also associated with the board of trade organizations.

PUBLICITY IS SECURITY.

Gage T. Tarbell Submits Recommendations to Benefit Policyholders.

New York, Nov. 23.—After being on the witness stand before the committee on insurance investigation for the greater part of three days, Gage T. Tarbell, second vice-president of the Equitable, finished his testimony yesterday and just before adjournment submitted a list of suggestions to remedy existing abuses in the management of insurance companies, and for legislation designed to give the state proper control over the companies, and to insure the confidence of the policyholders. Prominent amongst these suggestions was absolute publicity. While admitting that wrong had been done by life insurance officials, Tarbell said he had no apologies to make for any of them and hoped they would be punished.

SEALEY AWAITS COUNT.

May Be Beaten, But Wants the Official Figures.

Hamilton, Nov. 23.—As nearly as could be ascertained last night, Ernest D. Smith, Winona, was elected in Wentworth by a majority of 8. Early returns indicated the probable election of W. O. Sealey by over sixty majority, but this proved a mistake.

Mr. Sealey came to the city at 10 o'clock and went to the Liberal Club's quarters, where he addressed a large gathering of friends. He admitted the returns, as far as known, showed Mr. Smith elected, but thought the returns later on might show differently. He thanks his supporters and intimated that the fight was not over yet, but

UP TO RUSSIAN CABINET.

After Four Days' Debate Zematvo Congress Passes Endorsation.

Moscow, Nov. 23.—At the end of four days' debate the executive committee of the Zematvo Congress yesterday brought in the following resolution in favor of supporting the Government, the reading of which was greeted with tremendous applause:

"Considering that the Imperial manifesto satisfies all the demands voiced since the Zematvo Congress of a year ago, and that the liberties accorded by the manifesto are indispensible to the tranquillization of the country, the congress declares itself in complete solidarity with this constitutional basis.

"The responsibility for the realization of the program rests upon the Cabinet. The congress is convinced that the Cabinet can count on the support of the great majority of the Zemstvos and municipalities so long as it follows the path for the accomplishment of the liberties promised by the manifesto, but every deviation will encounter decisive opposition.

"The congress believes that the sole means of guaranteeing the authority of the Government, the pacification of the country and the support of the people's representatives are the immediate promulgation of universal suffrage in elections to the Douma, the transformation of the first Douma into a constituent assembly for the elaboration with the approbation of the Emperor of a constitution for the Russian Empire and the organization of territorial reform.

"But measures for the realization of the liberties granted by the manifesto are regarded as immediately imperative."

"It must devolve on the Douma to establish a fundamental basis for land reform and to decide any momentous question in the domain of labor legislation."

The resolution concludes by enumerating various measures which it says must be carried out before the Douma meets. These include investigations into the recent occurrences in various parts of the country, the trial of local officials and police who became culpably involved in the disorders, the maintenance of public security, the proclamation of full amnesty for political and religious offences up to the date of the Imperial manifesto and the abolition of capital punishment.

She had been dead some hours. She was 47 years of age and the wife of Benjamin Smith, wholesale butcher. An inquest will not be held.

"There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup absolutely in one night. AN EVENING IN JUNE.

Oh, the glories of an evening
In the balmy month of June!
When, as all the poets tell you,
Heaven and earth are quite in tune,
When the silent stars blink slyly
At the lovers young and fair
And great chunks of joyous rapture
Float serenely through the air.

Seated on a bank of moonlight,
Underneath a trysting tree,
There you loll beside the lady,
And you show her how to spoon,
Calling her your bunky dory
And most every kind of pet,
Telling her about the money
That you think you're going to get.

There serenely in the twilight,
Far from the electric light,
You go bughouse, as the boys say,
O'er the beauties of the night,
And you spout about the glories
That the starry heavens disclose,
While the girl sits by and wonders
If you really will propose.

But you work round to the question
Wary as a diplomat,
Till at last you whisper softly,
"Mamie, tell me where I'm at."
When she says it is so sudden,
Then her answer you can guess,
And you boldly keep insisting
Till she has to answer, "Yes."

Picnics would be much more enjoyable if there were no next day.

Chairs were made to sit on, and most men know it.

"On his pocketbook."

COD LIVER OIL.

It almost makes you sick to think of it, but it isn't nearly as bad as it used to be. The improved method of refining it makes it much easier to take, and when made into Scott's Emulsion almost every one can take it. Most children like it and all children that are not robust are benefited by it. When the doctor says "Take cod liver oil," he generally means Scott's Emulsion; ask him if he doesn't. They know it is more easily digested and better than the plain oil.

THE NEWS OF WATERLOO.

How It Was Received Away Up in the Arctic Circle.

The Hudson's Bay factor of the great lone land of the north is a good story-teller. In the far-off places of the earth the power of narrative is given to men who live apart from their fellows, apart from libraries and daily newspapers. The long nights of the northern winter foster the story-telling quality in the brains and hearts of a body of men the majority of whom are of the imaginative Celtic race of the Scottish Highlanders, and many of them with a gift of eloquent speech, derived it may be from the Indian strain in their blood.

When the upright poplar logs are glowing bright in the corner fire-places of the Hudson's Bay Co.'s forts along the Athabasca, Peace and Mackenzie Rivers, and pipes are alight, the stories of three centuries of life over half a continent are given with a sense of reality that the pages of magazines can't never give.

The anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, last June, recalls a story I heard some years ago in a little fort overlooking the Peace River, which controlled a district larger than a European kingdom, writes Charles Lewis Shaw, in The Globe. It was the story of how the news of the success of the allied armies, under the Duke of Wellington, at Waterloo first came to Fort Resolution, at the mouth of the Mackenzie River, on the borders of the Arctic circle, a year and a half after the report of the last shot fired had died away in the ears of the fugitive Emperor of the French, and nearly a year after the proud heart of the Corsican conqueror had begun to fret itself in twain at Longwood, his prison house in the Island of St. Helena.

It seemed a stronger, old-world story as it came from the bearded lips of the strong-faced Highland Scotch officer of the Hudson's Bay Co., told in an English and in a manner free from the vernacular and tricks of modern expression. Told with the spirit of the limitless land of silence pervading our every sense, for the spaceliness of everything is the great northland's most impressive influence, it seemed as if the story of Waterloo was but of yesterday, and not a century-old turning point in the history of the world.

"The company's ship," said the Hudson's Bay factor — for to its officers there is only one company in this wide, wide world of corporations and trusts — "had sailed from London early in June, while the fate of Europe was hanging on the result of the meeting between the allies under Wellington and the great Napoleon and his veteran troops in the low countries. The papers and letters received in the scattered forts in the far north of what was then known as Prince Rupert's Land told of the pending event the following winter, and for one long year the officers of the Hudson's Bay Co., the most of them old-countrymen, waited in prolonged anxiety in the silence of the north for news of the result.

"The factor in charge of Fort Resolution, near the mouth of the Mackenzie River, was a gentleman called Macpherson, a near relative of the chief of his clan, Cluny Macpherson, distinguished in the Jacobite rising of '45 in Scotland, and for his devoted adherence to the cause of the House of Stuart. That adherence had brought ruin to the fortunes of his family, and had exiled his father to St. Germains, in France. Politically banned and attainted, like the majority of Highland gentlemen of the time, for the world of conventional commerce, he was attracted by the promise of the wild, free life of the huntsman and explorer given by the Hudson's Bay Co. to Scottish youths of family, and late in the eighteenth century he entered the company's service as an apprenticed clerk. He followed, with the intense eagerness of the clansman, the formation of the Highland clans by the politic Pitt into regiments for service on behalf of the Empire and their prowess in the four corners of the globe during the Napoleonic wars. Letters had told him that many of his kinsmen were in the regiments then facing the great Emperor of the French in the Netherlands.

"One can only conceive of the thoughts of Chief Factor Macpherson during that long winter, the succeeding summer, and the first few months of the following winter, as he waited for the flying dog-trains that would bring the message of the fate of country and kinsfolk down the frozen surface of the great Arctic River.

"In those early days the ships of the Hudson's Bay Co. sailed from England early in June to York Factory, on Hudson Bay, and through them was obtained the last communication from the old country by the inland forts of the company scattered throughout the great frozen north, for a year.

"The mails for the different forts were first taken to Fort Garry, now the populous city of Winnipeg, and returned there until the snow had fallen and the river had frozen, to permit of their transportation by dog-train to their several destinations.

"The dog-runner of the northern mail packet in those early days was an important personage throughout Rupert's Land, and many are the stories yet told in the northland of their undaunted pluck and sense of duty.

"One can only try to understand the feelings of the chief factor of Fort Resolution as, he looked from his ice-covered fort on the high bank of the Mackenzie up the ice-bound gorge, day after day and night after night, as the northern lights lit up its snowy surface during the month of December, 1815, for a sight of the straining dogs, or listened in the quietness of the silence of the white world about him for a sound of the tinkling bell of the leader of the dog-train.

"The news came, it is said, on one of the shortest days of the year, a few days before Christmas, and as the factor of the Peace River post rehearsed up the story in his deep voice, that hadn't lost the sibilant accent of the Highlands: 'The old chief factor ordered that a salvo of victory should be at once fired from the bastion of the fort from the little brass cannon that had been brought with great trouble years before to the fort from York Factory. And as the fur-clad clerks and principal hunters, with rum-diluted water in their musk-ox horn drinking cups, stood on the bastion, and the last shot had died away, Macpherson, the son of the exiled Jacobite, gave the toast:

"'The Duke of Wellington and His bridle,' and 'If thou hast heard a word let it die with thee.' Taciturnity, a discreet silence, is a virtue little cultivated in these garrulous days when the chatterer of the Banderlog is everywhere about us, when as some one has remarked, speech has taken the place of thought. To talk of disease is a sort of 'Arabian Nights' entertainment, to which no discreet nurse will lend her talents.

"Marriage is the natural end of the trained nurse, who is a choice selection from the very best women of the community, who knows the laws of health, and whose sympathy has been brightened by contact with the best and the worst of men. She has not acquired immunity from that most ancient of all diseases, that malady of which the Rose of Sharon sang so plaintively, that sickness 'to be stayed not with flagons nor comforted with apples.'

"In public life the trained nurse has become one of the great blessings of humanity, taking a place beside the physician and the priest and not inferior to either in her mission.

"The religion of humanity is this stuff for women whose souls ask for something more substantial to feed. There is no higher mission in life than nursing God's poor. In doing so a woman may not reach the ideals of her soul, she may fall far short of the ideals of her head, but she will go far to satiate those longings of the heart from which no woman can escape. Romola, the student, helping her blind father, full of the pride of learning, we admire; Romola the devotee carrying in her withered heart woman's heaviest disappointment, we pity; Romola the nurse, doing noble deeds amid the pestilence, rescuing those about to perish, we love."

THE LONGEST BRIDGE.

That Being Built at Quebec Has No Equal in the Wide World—Single Span 1,800 Feet.

A record-breaking cantilever bridge is being built at Quebec. It will be a record-breaker in that it will have a single span of 1,800 feet, no other bridge in the world being comparable to it in this respect so far as can be learned.

The river span of the Brooklyn bridge is 1,595 feet, that of the Williamsburg bridge being 1,000 feet. Excepting suspension bridges, the longest span of which is 3,640 feet, the longest span bridge yet completed is the Forth double-track railway bridge, with two spans of 1,710 feet each. Others are the Lansdowne bridge, India, with a span of 820 feet; the Wabash bridge, across the Monongahela River at Pittsburg, with a span of 812 feet, and the bridge across the Kentucky at Metropolis, Tenn., with a span of 790 feet.

The St. Lawrence is a mighty river and demands a large bridge. At the present time passengers going to Quebec from Montreal by the Grand Trunk Railroad cross the St. Lawrence by the Victoria Jubilee bridge, and continue along to the south of the river, to Levis, where they alight and cross over to Quebec by ferry. In view of the immense quantities of ice being swept to and fro by current and tide in the early spring and late fall the passage across the river is at times attended by some inconvenience. All this will be obviated by the building of the new bridge, which will form a part of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway route from Moncton, N. B., to the Pacific coast and by which trains from the east and south will make their approach to the city of Quebec.

At the point at which the bridge is being built the banks are 200 feet high, precipitous and of sandstone. The depth of the river is 200 feet for a long distance each side of the centre line, and the current runs at the rate of about eight miles an hour. The channel piers for the bridge are 1,800 feet apart, giving the long span referred to, while the shore piers are situated 500 feet farther inshore on each side. This gives a distance of 2,800 feet between centres of shore piers. The river here is 2,000 feet wide at low tide and 2,800 at high tide, the tide being about 15 feet. At low tide the sites of the shore piers are exposed, while the channel piers are in about ten feet of water. It was to avoid the enormous fields of ice which destroy the St. Lawrence each spring that the long span was necessary.

The Quebec bridge will have a clear way of 150 feet above water level. Its towers will be 360 feet above the river, while those of the Brooklyn bridge are 276 feet and those of the Williamsburg bridge 335 feet. The height of the banks of the St. Lawrence permits of the length of the Quebec bridge being less than that of the two New York structures. Its width also is less, being only 80 feet, against 85 feet for the Brooklyn bridge and 118 feet for the Williamsburg bridge. The superstructure for the two 500-foot anchor arm spans and the single 1,800 foot cantilever span over the channel will weigh 40,000 tons. The weights of the anchor and cantilever arms of the suspended span are about 12,500,000, 15,000,000 and 6,000,000 pounds, respectively, while the floor system will add about 8,000,000 pounds to this.

The bridge is being built for the Quebec Bridge Co., of which the late Premier of the Quebec Provincial Government is president. The total cost of the undertaking is estimated at $3,000,000, and it is to be completed by the end of 1908. Already $1,000,000 has been expended at the site, the substructure is completed, the designs for the superstructure are far advanced, 6,000 tons of steel work have been fabricated at the bridge shops and work has been begun for the installation of a $250,000 plant.

The construction will be according to the most modern methods, no part of the structure being erected at the shops dependence being placed on accuracy of design and workmanship. An American firm has the contract for the steel work and its construction. The heaviest member to be erected at great heights will be the 43-foot lower chord pieces weighing 160 tons each. The power for the work at the bridge will be electricity, the use of steam being entirely eliminated on the work.

When completed the bridge will have two railroad tracks, two highways and two electric car tracks on the single deck 120 feet above the pier tops between the trusses, besides which provision is being made for sidewalks should such be desirable in future.

Author of "The Mother."

William Wilfred Campbell, five hundred copies of whose collected poems have just been ordered by Mr. Andrew Carnegie, developed the literary spirit at an early age. He was born in Berlin, Ont., on June 1, 1858, and was educated at the University of Toronto and at Harvard. He was ordained to the Church of England ministry in 1888, but retired from the church in 1891, and secured a position in the civil service in Ottawa. His poems on the lake region earned him the title of the "poet of the lakes." One of his poems, "The Mother," is said to have received more notice than any single poem that ever appeared in the press. It was published in Harper's Magazine in April, 1891. Mr. Campbell is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.

Cinchona.

Cinchona was originally called "countess powder," from the fact that it was said to have been introduced into Europe by the Countess of Cinchona, wife of the Viceroy of Peru. It was also called Peruvian bark and Jesuits' bark, from the country where it was originally discovered and from the Jesuit fathers who used it in medical practice. It was first used in the cure of intermittent fevers about 1640. The tree from which the bark is procured grows in Peru, Bolivia, Venezuela, New Granada and many other parts of South America and has been planted, with success, in India and Ceylon. There are said to be over a dozen varieties of the cinchona producing plant, all of which yield bark of different quality. Quinine, or quinia, an alkaloid contained in the bark, was discovered by Pelletier and Caventou in 1820. It is believed to be a probable constituent of all the yellow cinchona barks.

Irish Types.

Three types at least are observable in the south of Ireland—first, the tall, Rabbit-looking Celt, who is found in Donegal; secondly, the tall, yellow-haired Danish type, and, thirdly, the aboriginal Aryan of the Volta, with red or auburn hair and blue or green eyes, who may also be found in Connaught.

The dark aborigines of Wales differs considerably from that of the Irish, and the Irish language is nearer akin to Cornish than to Welsh. The traditional Irishman of caricature is not often seen in the south, though this type is not unknown even among the upper classes.

The soft features and bright eyes of the modest peasant women present many varieties of beauty, and the mingled race of Cork and Kerry—fairer, as a rule, than that of the far west—is as vigorous as any in Scotland or in Yorkshire.—Blackwood's Magazine.

English as She Is Written.

Some persons of newly-acquired wealth recently engaged a French chef. He was satisfactory in every respect save that he wrote the menus in his own language. One day Mr. Newrich said: "Alphonse, I wish you'd write the menus in English after this. I'd like to know what I'm eating."

"Very well, monsieur," said Alphonse; "if you will lend me a dictionnaire I will do my best."

That night when they sat down to dinner they read the following bill of fare:

Soups at the tail of the calf.
Salmon in curl papers.
Meat of mutton to the little peas.
Potatoes jumped.
Duck savage at sharp sauce.
Charlotte at the apples.
Turkey at the devil.
Fruits variegated.

Schoolboy English.

Here are some choice specimens of "associated ideas" drawn forth from the schoolboy mind during the tortures of examination: "Queen Elizabeth was never married. She was so fond of dresses she was never seen without one, and she was beautiful and with a red head and freckles." "The provisions of Oxford were butter, eggs, cheese, bread and beer." "The constitution of Clarendon was so shattered through grief that he died quite a young man before he had time to grow old." "Lord Alfred Tennyson was a celebrated poet, and he wrote a lot of beautiful poems with long hair, and studied so much that he used to say to his mother, 'Call me early, dear.' His greatest poem is called 'The Idle King.' He was made a lord, but he was a good man and wrote many ends."—London Tatler.

Governor of Newfoundland.

Sir William Macgregor, Governor of Newfoundland, is one of the most remarkable men of the British Colonial service, both physically and intellectually, and, indeed, his Herculean strength has contributed in no small degree to impress the savages over whom he has been called upon to rule in the past with a sense of the power of the British Empire. He is the only Colonial Governor to wear the Albert medal, which is the civilian counterpart of the Victoria Cross, which he received for a wonderfully heroic rescue of the crew and passengers of the steamship Syria when it was wrecked at the foot of a precipice near Suva, the capital of the Fiji Islands.—Marquise de Fontenoy.

The Test.

Say, did you ever meet a man
Whose head was swelled a mile,
Who, when you came to size him up
And look into his tile,
You found his hat not overgrown,
But really smaller than your own?

Would Know Better.

"A man never should tell a story that he would be ashamed to repeat in the presence of his wife."

"Yes, but suppose she was along when he caught the fish?"

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

TO MARRY, AIM OF WOMEN.

Minister of Agriculture Deplores Rush of Country Youth Citywards.

Hon. Nelson Monteith, Minister of Agriculture, is somewhat concerned over the apparent lack of interest in the science of agriculture as exhibited by the young of the province. There is no noticeable diminuation, he says, in the rush citywards of the young men and women, who at an early age, began to find farm burdens irksome, and long for the pleasures and excitements they fondly imagine await them when they set foot in the magic city, they hear so much about.

"The farm and the farming industry is the backbone financially of our nation," said the Minister recently, "and we will be in a bad way indeed, if the time comes when the tilling of the soil is regarded as menial or excessively laborious. Thinkers in the United States express the conviction that the influx of women into the professons and even the clerical trades formerly monopolized almost entirely by men, is now having the effect of driving the men, young and old, back to the farm to obtain a livelihood.

"I cannot say that we notice this effect in Canada yet, and it will be some time before we do, as we are a young country compared with the United States. But all our towns tell the same story. The young people are flocking to the cities. They are dazzled with what they believe is there, and they find when they do go that the realization is not the same as the anticipation. The best influences are lacking in the city. The city is not the place to foster and develope the ideal home life, even in Canadian cities. The country affords the most natural scope for that. I gather that the aim of the majority of our young women, whether they live in the city or country, is towards matrimony, and the training afforded by the city environment is not the best training for a wife and mother,—not as good and helpful at any rate as that found in the country. The press of this country should wield its great influence in an educative capacity, towards keeping the country ideal strong and vigorous, and to remove from the minds of the young the thought that they may be wasting time by staying on their fathers' farms.

"Farming is not what it was. Of old it was all work and no play, and very little financial gain as a reward. Nowadays it is different. The modern farmer exercises a much keener business instinct in running his farm. Labor-saving machinery takes away the manual toil formerly an unavoidable adjunct of his work. Prices are better, and he handles a great deal more money than his grandfather was able to do. In fact it takes a good business man to be a farmer with success nowadays.

"I would like to see our boys and girls content to stay in the country. The outlook for farming is good now, and better in the future. If a wholesale exodus from our farms takes place, it will mean either serious trouble for us as a nation, or the invention of labor-saving machinery to entirely take the place of the former workers, who have adopted some other calling."

Related As a True Story.

The curious legend of how the foxes in the olden days succeeded in catching birds after they had sought refuge in the trees is borne out by a story told of a settler's dog in Northern Ontario. The story is looked upon with a smiling eye by all the friends of the tourist who tells it, but he swears it is the truth, and the story does not differ in any material sense in any of the large number of times that he has been called upon to repeat it.

"I was talking to Joe, an old settler in Muskoka—I don't know his name—about hunting," states the story teller. "After some time the conversation fell upon dogs. He remarked that I had a pretty fair setter. He immediately asked me whether it could catch birds. I said no, because I shot all I could see and draw a bead on. He immediately said his little yaller dog was better than mine. I told him to prove it, and he led the dog and myself out into the bush.

"Within a few moments after commencing the hunt, the dog treed a partridge," continued the tourist. "He waited for us to come up nearly under the tree; then he commenced his antics. Starting some distance away from the tree, he made a rush at it, and then began to run around an eight-shaped figure as fast as he could go. With his eyes on the ground and his tongue hanging out, the cur seemed suddenly to have gone mad.

"The bird, perched on a limb above him, cocked a supercilious eye on him as if to say, 'What is that little beast doing, anyway?' However, the bird kept a sharp watch on the yaller streak flying around on the ground. If closely watched, its eye was seen to follow the movements of the dog very closely. The bird became more interested, and its head began to sway, keeping time with the motion of the animal on the ground. The motion of its head became more pronounced, and suddenly it overbalanced and fell to the ground with a flutter of wings. Before it could recover from its dizziness the dog had it in his mouth.

"Now, this may seem like a fairy tale," concluded the tourist, "but I've got the proof of another reliable witness in Toronto, who will hold me out, and if you don't believe either of us, see the caretaker of one of the islands in Lake Joseph, Muskoka."

The New Terror.

There is a difference of opinion as to whether the man is a public benefactor who causes two automobiles to blossom where there was but one before.

If a man has a lot of poor relations that he wants to dispose of and still not run foul of the law, an automobile is a handy thing to have about the place. He starts them off blithely in the morning with a song in their hearts and a few gallons of gasoline in the tank, and when they come back at night they don't come back. See?

As a quiet, refined sport automobiling is all right for the man of strong nerves who doesn't mind getting killed occasionally, but as a family conveyance the old reliable wheelbarrow has it beaten three ways from the sprocket if there happens to be any women about who are unkind to hens.

THIS ISOVITCH ABOUT 'ALLSKI.

The czar is full of moldy prunes,
Puffed out like some important toad;
The "Little Father" now communes
Apart and weeps about his load—
And, ten to one, ere many moons
He, like ripe ragweed, will be mowed.

Once in the hollow of his hand
The czar held mighty things of state,
But Nick is likely to be canned,
And though he kicks against his fate,
He's routed for the better land
And measured for his final crate.

How sad to play a fallen boss
Who doesn't know that he is dead,
Who cannot see his double cross
Or read his finish just ahead,
Who thinks he's still a bright tin joss
When to the wolves he'll soon be fed.

Perhaps it is from habit's force
He blows out heat inflated air
And talks about the winning horse
As though he owned the county fair,
Although his old friend R. E. Morse
Is waiting for him on the stair.

It must be owned that he dies hard;
In dreams once more he leads the trek,
But with his hopes of empire marred
By Togo from his quarter deck,
He soon, all bruised and battle scarred,
Will find the Jap upon his neck.

A Bright Future.

Nearly every other man you meet has a gold mine that is just ready to pour out its riches in a golden stream if he can just get enough money to erect a mill.

Did you ever dream it possible that generous nature could have scattered so many gold mines over the face of the boundless west that are butting up against some dividend paying mine and waiting for the mill to enrich the stockholders far beyond the dreams of avarice?

Hope springs eternal in the human breast, but mills do not spring up that way. They cost money. That is where the promoter comes in and where the trusting, breathless investor too many times gets off.

Diplomat.

"It must be embarrassing," said the man who was trying to find out all about the census taker's business, "to walk up to a woman and ask her how old she is."

"I should think it would be," replied the man of statistics.

"But you have to do it."

"Oh, no, not me. I am too gallant for that. I get the same information by asking her how young she is."

Cheaper.

BOILS ALL OVER HIS FACE AND NECK

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS DID FOR HIM WHAT FOUR DOCTORS FAILED TO DO

KENWATH, ONT., July 28th, 1905.

MESSRS. THE T. MILBURN CO., LTD., TORONTO, ONT.

DEAR SIRS:—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a year ago last March I began to feel dull and sick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out on my face and neck, mostly on the latter. I would no sooner get rid of one than I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

I had four doctors trying to cure me but they had very little success. They would stop them for a month or six weeks and then they would be as bad as ever again.

Almost every patent medicine advertised to cure boils, I could get hold of, I tried, but still without success. At last one day, last spring, someone happened to say; "why not try taking Burdock Blood Bitters for your blood?" I was willing to try anything and immediately sent for a bottle, but at the time was doubtful if it would be of any use. However, I used that bottle and while I was taking it I began to feel better, although I still kept having a few boils but not nearly such bad ones. I did not miss any work, while otherwise, I used to miss, sometimes, a week out of every month. I kept on taking the medicine until I had taken six bottles, and needless to say, I was not sorry I did so when I tell you I have not had a boil appear for the past three months. Every body was surprised when they heard that Burdock Blood Bitters had done for me what four doctors failed to do. If any sufferers are afflicted with boils, I would strongly advise them to use B.B.B. It makes you feel like a new man. I always keep a bottle in the house, now, as I think it is a medicine that should be in every household.

Yours truly,
HENRY A. SMITH.

ZANGWILL HOPEFUL

Continues Efforts to Establish Autonomous Jewish State in British Uganda—The World's Jews.

Israel Zangwill, by no means discouraged by his failure to induce the delegates to the recent Zionist conference in Switzerland to accept the English Government's offer of land in Uganda, is back in London eager to continue his efforts to found an autonomous Jewish state. Speaking of his future plans, he said:

"My ideal of the solution of the Jewish problem is now, as before, a thriving, populous and autonomous Jewish colony under British protection. Its basis must be agriculture, but at the same time commerce will flourish and it will be a city of refuge for all the oppressed Jews of the world.

"What we want is a virgin territory in the British Empire capable of receiving an immigration of a hundred thousand persons a year. It is quite possible that this new state may have small beginnings, but before I plant the acorn I must have room for the oak.

"Three elements are necessary for the success of the project—the people, the patrons and the philanthropists. All these we have.

Good Agriculturists.

"The current idea that the Jew is essentially a financier is a myth. Naturally he is an agriculturists. Moreover, they are not tied in the soil. There is already an annual stream of a hundred thousand Russian immigrants whose one wish is to find a home where they can live in comfort.

"There is, too, a large shifting middle class population, always anxious for fresh fields to invest its money. The idea of an autonomous Jewish state—a real home where there will be insiders not outsiders, is bound to appeal to their patriotic instincts.

Remarkable Facts.

The active reappearance of Israel Zangwill as propagandist-in-chief for the Uganda Zion, and the appearance in London of the latest edition of the "Jewish Year-Book," have combined to make the Israelite a leading topic in the papers. Some remarkable facts have been brought out.

It is stated for example, that notwithstanding the immense influence of the race the total Jewish population of the world is but a trifle over 11,000,000, divided in this way:

Europe..	8,786,122
Asia	342,432
Africa	382,422
America.	1,574,022
Australasia	17,403
Grand total	11,102,389

In London and New York.

Another segregation shows that in Greater London, out of a population of six and a half millions, there are only 139,860 Jews; in the British Isles, 227,-166, and in the entire British possessions, 240,971. Against these figures stands the interesting fact that in Greater New York there are nearly twice as many Jews as in the British possessions, the figures being 672,776.

New York, then stands easily in the first rank as the home of the Free Jew. Interesting figures of the Jews in other cities are as follows:

Lods (Poland)	150,000
Vienna	150,000
Amsterdam	60,000
Philadelphia	75,000
Constantinople	60,000
Berlin	86,152
Chicago	60,000
Paris	65,000
Rome	7,121
St. Petersburg.	15,270
Dublin	2,700
Jerusalem	41,000

Jewish Influence.

But mere figures do not convey any idea of the influence of the Jews, since the importance of the work they have done and are doing in the world is out of all proportion to their numbers. Putting aside the great financiers like the Rothschilds, Sir Samuel Montagu, and the rest, and disregarding the numerous philanthropists, of whom the late Sir Moses Montedore was a conspicuous example, the lists of celebrities published in "The Jewish Year Book" are full of unusual interest.

In the world of music we find the names of Offenbach, John Braham, Goldmark, Henry Russell, Dr. Cowan, Mendelssohn, Joseph Maas, Sir Julius Benedict, Rubinstein, Joachim and Sir Arthur Sullivan. The appearance on the list of this last name, it is believed, will be a surprise to many people.

The theatre has largely attracted the genius of the Jew. Judith, Rachel, Sarah Bernhardt, Ada Menken, Senita Dolaro, David James are among the names included in the official lists, with, among dramatists, Alfred Sutro, Ludwig Fulda and D'Ennery.

But there might have been added Arthur Collins, the manager of Drury Lane, and many talented English players, including Miss Julia Neilson, Miss Lily Hanbury, and Lewis Waller. H. J. Byron, the author of "Our Boys," Mrs. Keeley, the famous comic actress, and Halevy, the French dramatist, each had one Jewish parent.

Distinguished Jewish Writers.

The list of famous Jewish writers is long and distinguished. It includes Sidney Lee, the editor of the Dictionary of National Biography; Israel Golanez, the scholar; Mr. Zangwill, Mr. Lucien Wolf, well known as a political writer under the name of "Diplomaticus"; George Brandes, the Danish critic; Lombroso, the Italian; Catulle Mendes, the French novelist and critic; Jean de Bloch, the Russian writer on war; Vambery, Max Nordau, the late M. Blowitz, and many others. Sir F. C. Palgrave, the historian, was a Jew, as was Baron Reuter, the founder of the Reuter News Service.

Josef Israels, the Dutch painter, was a Jew; Rosa Bonheur was a Jewess, and the art tradition is carried on by Solomon J. Solomon, Ludwig Mond, the great chemist, and Sir Felix Semon, the physician, are Jews. There have been many well-known Jewish chess players, of whom Steinitz is perhaps the most famous name.

The Jew has been prominent in the recent annals of the English law, Sir George Jessel, master of the rolls, was a Jew; while another master of the rolls, Sir A. L. Smith, and a Lord chancellor, Lord Herschell, had each one Jewish parent.

It is mighty hard to unlearn bad habits if a man doesn't want to.

YOU MEET THEM, BUT WHERE?

I know a very charming boy,
Good hearted, not too prim,
Who'd rather hoe the onion bed
Than duck his job to swim.
He wouldn't leave the lawn unmowed
To paddle in the brook.
Where did I meet this lad so sweet?
Oh, in a story book!

I know a bright, angelic girl—
In fact, a model child—
Who'd rather dust and sweep the floor
Than in the woods run wild.
Just leave the dishes to be washed,
And she will never fail,
This little lady that I met—
Well, in a fairy tale!

I know a lady sweet and wise,
A beauty and a wit,
Who under every circumstance
Makes everywhere a hit;
She leads in charity and art
Or in the merry dance—
Oh, yes; I met her in—I'm sure—
A paper back romance!

I know a frank and honest man,
As gentle as a child,
But, oh, a scourge most terrible
When people get him riled.
With sages he is wise and grave,
With little children gay—
At least, he struck me so that time
I met him in a play.

I also know a cranky man,
Ill mannered, part and bold;
A lady who is sweet abroad,
At home a regular scold;
Some boys and girls who will not mind
And spend their days in strife.
Where did I meet these people strange?
I reckon, in real life!

MISS EUGENIE RAYE.

Her Career Shows What a Girl With Pluck Can Accomplish.

Miss Eugenie Raye is one of the brightest of the bright young women of Greater New York, and a brilliant future is undoubtedly to be her portion. Miss Raye was educated in the public schools of Brooklyn, being a graduate of grammar school No. 3 and of the girls' high school, where she won the highest honors in her class. After finishing her course at the high school Miss Raye, who excels in the French tongue, was anxious to obtain an appointment as teacher of that language, but she could not obtain a position because she had not taken a course in a college. She then got an appointment as a teacher in the grammar school from which she graduated, and, though teaching during the day, this ambitious young woman decided to study law. She took the course in the woman's law class of the New York university and won the scholarship of $200 in a competitive examination. Miss Raye then entered the regular law school of the university and won the Elliot F. Shepard prize scholarship of $100, standing at the head of her class of men and women. Her first degree was that of LL. B., after obtaining which she took a postgraduate course, which resulted in her having the degree of LL. M. conferred upon her. In 1900 she was admitted to the bar and has been practicing ever since, her office being in her home.

Miss Raye is still single, but expects in a year or two to abandon that profession and devote all her time to the practice of law. Her especial branch is real estate and surrogate's practice. For the past four winters Miss Raye has been lecturing in the evening course of the woman's law class of the New York university.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Teach Your Girl to Cook.

Cooking should be taught to girls when they are three or four years old and under. The rudimentary principles may be learned in play when they are at the "mud pie" stage of life.

Many mothers make a mistake in refusing to cater to the housekeeping instincts as they develop in the child. The baby sees mamma making pie and wants to help. If the mother would give a little time and patience to directing the child's desires right then, later she would not have difficulty in getting the child to take an interest in household duties, but she tells it to run away and play and not bother her, and so gradually the child's thought is directed elsewhere and it grows up unwilling to work.

When there are two children in a family and neither knows how to prepare a meal to manage the house, and mother awakens some morning to find she is ill and unable to attend to the daily duties great confusion reigns. If in the emergency the girls endeavor to prepare the meals and the weary mother gets from the kitchen the smell of burned toast and burned bacon and vile smelling coffee, she is likely to be angry with the girls and with herself and fate.

Yet why should she when she has not taught her girls to cook? They cannot learn the science and art of cooking in one meal and with no assistance, and so it becomes necessary to send out for a cook, when, had the children of the house been educated properly in the homely arts, the household regulations would have proceeded undisturbed during the unforeseen changes.

Economical Cooking.

At the Paris exposition in 1807 the so called Norwegian automatic kitchen was exhibited. This was a wooden box lined with felt and wood. In it slightly boiled food could be cooked slowly and was ripe to eat in two or three hours. In German shops cooking boxes with tight fitting covers and partitions and linings of felt are for sale. But tight covered boxes filled with sawdust, paper or hay, preferably the last, are said to be better. You make a hole or "nest" in the hay, clap in your pot hot from the fire; stuff the hay tight around and under. Then the food cooks itself. You can put out your fire, shut off the gas from the gas range and save money. Too many Americans scatter the golden grain to the winds and deem it "mean" to save. But think of the pleasure of taking money out of the pockets of those two arch enemies of the human race, the coal man and the gas man!—Everybody's Magazine.

Study Your Hair.

Beauty is greatly affected by the way the hair is arranged. Bad points may be softened or even obscured, while good ones are brought into prominence. Of course, no universal mode can be followed if a woman wishes to emphasize her best facial expressions. She must find out the style that most becomes her and adopt it as her own with variations. For example, a round face needs hair arranged on the top of the head, or at least it should be brushed off the forehead, and the part in the middle should be avoided. A woman should take no notice of what the fashionable coiffure may be, but just dress her hair to suit her face. Any one with a broad brow should wear as little hair as possible on the temples and dress it high. One with a low brow, when the eyes are not set too high, should keep the hair off her forehead in front and arrange a few wavy locks on the temples.

Pretty Plate Doilies.

Plain butchers' linen or the richer damask makes the prettiest plate doilies if a pretty scallop is worked around with mercerized or the dull finish embroidery cotton. Get the plain damask, as good a quality as you can, and have several stamped or make circles by drawing a pencil around a plate and apply or adjust a single scallop to it, repeating until you come out even all the way round. Padded scallops are prettiest. If you pad with the same sort of cotton that you use for the embroidery your scallops will show off better after laundering, even if the threads separate a little in the rough handling they must necessarily receive.

Useful, but Dangerous.

The House Beautiful describes a small house where the utilization of space was an object and where the ingenious architect solved the problem by making the steps of the staircase into boxes to hold croquet sets, tennis rackets, porch cushions and other small but troublesome objects. All very well, but didn't any careless member of the family ever neglect to close the lid of a stair box? If no one in that house ever stumbled over a lifted lid and suffered a bad fall in consequence it must have been a better regulated household than the ordinary one.

Economical Soup.

Take a cold roast beef bone, pieces of beefsteak, the rack of a cold turkey or chicken. Put them into a pot with three or four quarts of water, two carrots, three turnips, one onion, a few cloves, pepper and salt. Boil the whole gently four hours, then strain it through a colander, mashing the vegetables so that they will pass through. Skim off the fat and return the soup to the pot. Mix one tablespoonful of flour with two of water, stir it into the soup and boil the whole ten minutes. Serve this soup with sippets of toast.

Children's House Shoes.

The careful house mother will see that her children have slippers or special shoes for house wear. A good pair of walking shoes will of course wear twice as long if worn only on outdoor excursions, and the saving of expense will more than pay the cost of cheaper house shoes or slippers. The constant use of heavy boots is also a bad thing for rugs and carpets.

For Muddy Skins.

A preparation that will help to bleach muddy skin is composed of buttermilk and one-third the quantity of rose water. To a cupful of the liquid add a third the amount of salt and mix. Let it stand for an hour and then smear over the face, remaining on for half an hour at least and preferably an hour. Wash off in clear cold water.

BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to your sex it will be well for you to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you feel from its use is not the delusive exhileration from a tippling beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining strength," writes Mrs. Seneth Kinny, of 68 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I doctored with our family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I knew it was good for any one suffering with female trouble. Have taken only one bottle and am gaining strength very fast. I could not eat nor sleep when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription.' Heart troubled me and I had cold and numb spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Have had one child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment am positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps the bare cost of mailing; or, send 50 stamps for cloth bound. THE USE OF RUGS.

Some Suggestions About Quality, Colors and Material.

A cheap rug, says the House Beautiful, shrieks out its pitiful price to the passing critic most unmistakably. Better bare floors or one good rug, representing self denial and economy, than a floor lavishly covered with base imitations.

And if only one or two rugs can be bought at first choose soft, rich tones, which will harmonize with everything, and patterns which are good, but not very striking, and you will never tire of them. Hardwood floors as a background for rugs are of course the most desirable, but even a cheap soft wood floor may be stained a rich dark blue, green or brown, so that the attention will be distracted from the scarcity of the rugs. There is no rug to compare with the oriental rug in beauty and durability, but for upstairs rooms, where the wear is not very heavy, there is nothing more charming than the rag rug, particularly if woven in colors harmonizing with its surroundings. The Indian Dhurri rugs are good in color and design, but have an exasperating habit of refusing to lie flat upon the floor. Perhaps no cheap rug gives more return for the money expended than the Navajo blankets, but their brilliant hues make them difficult to use. Those with a great deal of white in them are the safest purchases. While the rugs woven of bits of carpet are not beautiful, they often help cover a bare floor and if made out of soft dull colors are unobjectionable.

A FERN DISH.

An Ornament That Is at Once Artistic and Inexpensive.

Let one count up the cost of a fern dish. The clever housewife will have a fern in the center of her dining room table. When the table is not set a renaissance centerpiece with the fern in the dish causes one to remark upon the taste and artistic temperament in evidence. A fern dish of ordinary design may be purchased for 50 cents. Others range upward to $10. A dish of quadruple silver, with bowl inside the silver, is $1, and the fern is from $1 upward. These last the year round and are undoubtedly one of the little things that count. Thus by an expenditure of $2 one may possess a dish and a plant that are beautiful, adding to the ensemble of the home and encouraging the love of the beautiful.

As to the palms and rubber plants, they may be purchased at moderate prices, and jardinieres in the smallest size are 10 cents, while the larger ones are from $1.25 upward. One dollar averages the price of palms. These require but little attention, and for the sitting, reception rooms and the entrance hall the palm is capital.—Brockton Times.

The Dainty Table.

When laying the table daintiness conspires to the enjoyment of the meal. The cloth and table napkins should be spotlessly clean. By slightly dampening it and passing a hot iron over the surface the creases may be removed from a tablecloth that has been mussed in putting away. The glass and silver should shine brightly. The knives and forks and spoons must be arranged evenly. The sideboard should be covered with a snowy cloth, and the cheese, biscuits, dessert plates and such articles be placed upon it.

Floor Finish.

A good dull finish for floors is made by mixing one pound of painters' wax in a quart of crude oil. This gives a light mahogany color, and it is easy to apply with a wide, flat brush. It is a good plan to keep a can of this mixture on hand to touch up spots on the floor that show wear, as it dries quickly and gives even soft wood floors a good dark color.

The Coal Bin.

Coal should be kept in the dark. Its nature changes under the influence of strong light, especially under sunlight. It becomes friable and is less able to give out a strong heat when burned. When stored it should have salt sprinkled over it. This keeps it in condition and prevents its undue drying.

A STRONG HEART AND STEADY NERVES

Very important it is in this age of competition to have a clear cool head, a strong heart and steady nerves.

Too much rush and bustle, work and worry, fall to the lot of the average business man—his heart and nerve system will not stand it—he gives them too much work to do. Women also are doing the same thing attending to their household duties and looking after their social obligations. The constant strain under which they have to continue day in and day out, the irregularities of habits and loss of rest will soon shatter the strongest system. Before long you become nervous, starting at the least sudden sound, the heart flutters and palpitates, speaks float before the eyes, the pulse becomes weak and irregular, you have faint and dizzy spells, lack of self-confidence, rush of blood to the head, irritability of temper, shortness of breath, starting in sleep, sensation of pins and needles, sleeplessness, restlessness and finally physical breakdown or nervous prostration.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

are the remedy you require to restore your strength and health. Their extraordinary curative power manifests itself immediately they are taken. Through the medium of the nervous system they impart a strengthening and restorative influence to every organ and tissue of the body. Many have been cured, among them being Mr. Ray V. placing two uprights and a few shelves within the door jamb or against it, as the case may be. Staining or painting them to match the rest of the woodwork is a small matter, while arranging brass rods and pretty curtains is not much more. The sketch presents a bookcase thus designed, with a very useful stowaway place below for papers and the like.

Hot Water Bag Substitute.

Nothing proves better than good dry heat to quiet pain. Hot water bags and bottles are excellent if perfectly tight. Hot sand bags also are good to place beside the body and limbs. A relay of hot plates wrapped in woolen cloth will do wonders in giving relief to a patient.

In any case of serious bowel trouble it is well to follow up with relays of hot plates, lightweight earthen, or, better still, because of their lightness, are the tin plates such as are used by bakers, being always careful that they are as hot as can be borne, but not too hot, and wrapped in cloth. This remedy will allay inflammation and pain to a wonderful degree. It is also excellent in rheumatism of the hip, knee or ankle. A frequent change of hot plates, well wrapped in woolen and placed beneath or over the suffering joint as the patient lies in bed, will bring great relief.

WOMAN'S WORLD

MISS EUGENIE RAYE.

Her Career Shows What a Girl With Pluck Can Accomplish.

Miss Eugenie Raye is one of the brightest of the bright young women of Greater New York, and a brilliant future is undoubtedly to be her portion. Miss Raye was educated in the public schools of Brooklyn, being a graduate of grammar school No. 3 and of the girls' high school, where she won the highest honors in her class. After finishing her course at the high school Miss Raye, who excels in the French tongue, was anxious to obtain an appointment as teacher of that language, but she could not obtain a position because she had not taken a course in a college. She then got an appointment as a teacher in the grammar school from which she graduated, and, though teaching during the day, this ambitious young woman decided to study law. She took the course in business law in the woman's law class of the New York university and won the scholarship of $200 in a competitive examination. Miss Raye then entered the regular law school of the university and won the Elliot F. Shepard prize scholarship of $100, standing at the head of her class of men and women. Her first degree was that of LL. D., after obtaining which she took a postgraduate course, which resulted in her having the degree of LL. M. conferred upon her. In 1900 she was admitted to the bar and has been practicing ever since, her office being in her home.

Miss Raye is still teaching, but expects in a year or so to abandon that profession and devote all her time to the practice of law. Her especial branch is real estate and surrogate's practice. For the past four winters Miss Raye has been lecturing in the evening course of the woman's law class of the New York university.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Plain butchers' linen or the richer damask makes the prettiest plate doilies if a pretty scallop is worked around with mercerized or the dull finish embroidery cotton. Get the plain damask, as good a quality as you can, and have several stamped or make circles by drawing a pencil around a plate and apply or adjust a single scallop to it, repeating until you come out even all the way round. Let it stand for an hour and then smear over the face, remaining on for half an hour at least and preferably an hour. Wash off in clear cold water.

And if only one or two rugs can be bought at first choose soft, rich tones, which will harmonize with everything, and patterns which are good, but not very striking, and you will never tire of them. Hardwood floors as a background for rugs are of course the most desirable, but even a cheap soft wood floor may be stained a rich dark blue, green or brown, so that the attention will be distracted from the scarcity of the rugs. There is no rug to compare with the oriental rug in beauty and durability, but for upstairs rooms, where the wear is not very heavy, there is nothing more charming than the rag rug, particularly if woven in colors harmonizing with its surroundings. The Indian Dhurri rugs are good in color and design, but have an exasperating habit of refusing to lie flat upon the floor. Perhaps no cheap rug gives more return for the money expended than the Navajo blankets, but their brilliant hues make them difficult to use. Those with a great deal of white in them are the safest purchases. While the rugs woven of bits of carpet are not beautiful, they often help cover a bare floor and if made out of soft dull colors are unobjectionable.

A FERN DISH.

An Ornament That Is at Once Artistic and Inexpensive.

Let one count up the cost of a fern dish. The clever housewife will have a fern in the center of her dining room table. When the table is not set a renaissance centerpiece with the fern in the dish causes one to remark upon the taste and artistic temperament in evidence. A fern dish of ordinary design may be purchased for 50 cents. Others range upward to $10. A dish of quadruple silver, with bowl inside the silver, is $1, and the fern is from $1 upward. These last the year round and are undoubtedly one of the little things that count. Thus by an expenditure of $2 one may possess a dish and a plant that are beautiful, adding to the ensemble of the home and encouraging the love of the beautiful.

As to the palms and rubber plants, they may be purchased at moderate prices, and jardinieres in the smallest size are 10 cents, while the larger ones are from $1.25 upward. One dollar averages the price of palms. These require but little attention, and for the sitting, reception rooms and the entrance hall the palm is capital.—Brockton Times.

The Dainty Table.

When laying the table daintiness conspires to the enjoyment of the meal. The cloth and table napkins should be spotlessly clean. By slightly dampening it and passing a hot iron over the surface the creases may be removed from a tablecloth that has been mussed in putting away. The glass and silver should shine brightly. The knives and forks and spoons must be arranged evenly. The sideboard should be covered with a snowy cloth, and the cheese, biscuits, dessert plates and such articles be placed upon it.

Floor Finish.

A good dull finish for floors is made by mixing one pound of painters' wax in a quart of crude oil. This gives a light mahogany color, and it is easy to apply with a wide, flat brush. It is a good plan to keep a can of this mixture on hand to touch up spots on the floor that show wear, as it dries quickly and gives even soft wood floors a good dark color.

The Coal Bin.

Coal should be kept in the dark. Its nature changes under the influence of strong light, especially under sunlight. It becomes friable and is less able to give out a strong heat when burned. When stored it should have salt sprinkled over it. This keeps it in condition and prevents its undue drying.

A STRONG HEART AND STEADY NERVES

Very important it is in this age of competition to have a clear cool head, a strong heart and steady nerves.

Too much rush and bustle, work and worry, fell to the lot of the average business man—his heart and nerve system will not stand it—he gives them too much work to do. Women also are doing the same thing attending to their household duties and looking after their social obligations. The constant strain under which they have to continue day in and day out, the irregularities of habits and loss of rest will soon shatter the strongest system. Before long you become nervous, starting at the least sudden sound, the heart flutters and palpitates, specks float before the eyes, the pulse becomes weak and irregular, you have faint and dizzy spells, lack of self-confidence, rush of blood to the head, irritability of temper, shortness of breath, starting in sleep, sensation of pins and needles, sleeplessness, restlessness and finally physical breakdown or nervous prostration.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

are the remedy you require to restore your strength and health. Their extraordinary curative power manifests itself immediately they are taken. Through the medium of the nervous system they impart a strengthening and restorative influence to every organ and tissue of the body. Many have been cured, among them being Mr. Roy V. Coomier, Wellington, P.E.I., Mrs. E. Kilmer, Humberstone, Ont., Mrs. C. McDonald, Portage la Prairie, Man., Mr. Walter Cleveland, Bayswater, N.S., Mrs. Owen Martin, Alma, N.B. and thousands of others.

The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cts. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25. Can be procured at all drug and general stores, or will be sent on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

placing two uprights and a few shelves within the door jamb or against it, as the case may be. Staining or painting them to match the rest of the woodwork is a small matter, while arranging brass rods and pretty curtains is not much more. The sketch presents a bookcase thus designed, with a very useful stowaway place below for papers and the like.

Hot Water Bag Substitute.

Nothing proves better than good dry heat to quiet pain. Hot water bags and bottles are excellent if perfectly tight. Hot sand bags also are good to place beside the body and limbs. A relay of hot plates wrapped in woolen cloth will do wonders in giving relief to a patient.

In any case of serious bowel trouble it is well to follow up with relays of hot plates, lightweight earthen, or, better still, because of their lightness, are the tin plates such as are used by bakers, being always careful that they are as hot as can be borne, but not too hot, and wrapped in cloth. This remedy will allay inflammation and pain to a wonderful degree. It is also excellent in rheumatism of the hip, knee or ankle. A frequent change of hot plates, well wrapped in woolen and placed beneath or over the suffering joint as the patient lies in bed, will bring great relief.

ZEMSTVO RADICALS.

Say Decision to Support the Government is Almost Treason.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 24.—The extreme radical members of the Zemstvo who are affiliated with Socialist organizations denounced the propositions of the majority to support the Government under any circumstances as being the basest treason. The leader of the Social Democrats informed the Associated Press that if the Premier agreed to universal suffrage it would be a hard blow to the revolutionary organizations, and would compel them to employ against constitutional monarchist regime the weapons which they have been using against the autocracy.

Demand Duma Ballot.

Moscow, Nov. 24.—By a weighty majority of 30, the Zemstvo Congress yesterday accepted the first sections of the program drafted by the executive committee, but laying down as the sole means of guaranteeing the authority of the Douma and restoring order in the country to the election of representatives by a general direct, equal and secret ballot, and the formal grant to the first Douma of the power to elaborate a constitution for the Empire.

The friends of Count Witte, on the floor, made a stout fight against the provision for a direct ballot, the one concession which the Premier considers it impossible to grant, but this provision was carried over their heads by a two-thirds majority.

Disorders in Poland.

Warsaw, Nov. 24.—The Russian teachers in the surrounding towns telegraph that they are being expelled from the schools by police armed with revolvers. Agrarian disorders are increasing in Poland. Regular revolutionary bands are marching from place to place burning the spirit shops, schools and administrative buildings belonging to the Russian Government. At Radom the peasants are cutting down the state forests.

Count Witte Not Ill.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 24.—The reports published in the London newspapers, to the effect that Count Witte is suffering from a stroke of paralysis, or is otherwise ill, are absolutely false.

NORWAY'S MONARCH LEAVES.

Enthusiasm Marks the Departure of New King and Queen.

Copenhagen, Nov. 24.—King Haakon VII, Queen Maud and Crown Prince Olaf started yesterday in the Danish royal yacht Bannebrog for Christiania. Great crowds gathered to witness the departure.

King Christian and other members of the royal family were at the landing stage as well as the Cabinet Ministers, diplomats and court functionaries. The town and water side were elaborately decorated, and the occasion was made a general holiday. The enthusiasm of the populace was intense.

As the royal yacht steamed off the new royal flag of Norway was broken out at the main, and the fortress fired a royal salute. The Bannebrog was escorted by a flotilla of warships. On Saturday Their Majesties will be transferred near Drobak to a Norwegian warship, on which they will enter the harbor of Christiania.

Forger Pleads Guilty.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Yesterday afternoon Alexander J. Campbell, alias James Campbell, was arraigned before Judge Morgan on the charge of passing several worthless cheques, issued on the Traders' Bank. The cheques were given on August 4 to Adam Nelson for $40, on August 8 to same party for $10, on August 29 for $20, and on August 31 for $10, each to T. M. Boyne of the Walker House. Campbell pleaded guilty, and gave as his excuse "drink." He put up a plea for his wife and family, and promised to do better. His record showed he had been sentenced to the penitentiary in 1901 for two years, and again in 1903 for the same term, and for similar offenses. He is also wanted in Cobourg for passing a worthless cheque. Judge Morgan remanded him for a week, so that the firm he had been working for could be asked if they would employ him again, and also that enquiries could be made as to whether he had been living with his wife.

Going to the Conference.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—Henry White, American Ambassador to Rome, was yesterday selected to represent the United States in conjunction with Minister Gummere of Tangier, at the approaching Morocco conference.

Paris, Nov. 24.—The appointment of M. Revoil, former Governor of Algiers, to represent France at the Moroccan conference, has been decided upon. M. Revoil conducted negotiations leading up to the Franco-German agreement on the program for the conference.

Called to the Ontario Bar.

Toronto, Nov. 24—Sir Adolphe Caron, who was yesterday called to the bar at Osgoode Hall by the benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada, who were in conclave assembled, was Minister of Militia under Sir John A. Macdonald in 1891, and became Postmaster-General in 1892. Sir Adolphe was in 1865 called to the Quebec bar. In 1872 he went into the Dominion House as a member of Quebec. In 1879 he was made a Q. C. He sat for Rimouski in 1891, and Three Rivers five years later.

Learns of Son's Death Month After.

Brockville, Nov. 24.—Early last spring Byron Westlake, aged about 20 years, left Brockville for the west on a farm laborers' excursion and shortly afterwards died at Brandon, Man., of black diphtheria. The fact did not become known to his parents residing here until a few days ago when a letter brought the intelligence. A letter found in his clothing months afterwards told of his father, Wm. Westlake, living at Brockville.

A Hospital On Fire.

New Glasgow, N.S., Nov. 24.—Fire broke out early yesterday in the Aberdeen Hospital and caused great excitement. The fire was confined to the upper part of the building. The hospital, which is a new and modern building, was crowded with patients.

King to Visit Madrid.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the city market were large. The railways report a total of 132 car loads since Tuesday, composed of 3209 cattle, 1940 hogs, 2125 sheep, 63 calves and 3 horses. The C. P. R. had 36 cars, 834 cattle, 722 hogs, 1197 sheep, 27 calves, and the G. T. R. 96 cars, 1978 cattle, 1224 hogs, 925 sheep and 36 calves.

The quality of the bulk of the cattle was only medium, altho there were several good loads.

Exporters.

Few were offered, but plenty for the demand. One load was reported as having brought $4.35. A few export bulls sold at $3.25 to $4 per cwt.

Butchers.

Butchers' cattle were plentiful and very cheap. The bulk was of medium quality. A few good loads were offered and these were readily bought up, but the medium and common or inferior classes were slow of sale. Choice picked lots sold at about $4.30, but these were few; one or two choice loads were reported at $4 to $4.25; medium sold at $3.50 to $3.80; common at $2 to $3; canners at $1.25 to $1.75.

Feeders and Stockers.

Deliveries of stockers and feeders were large, and while buyers found it easier to get exceptional prices remained about the same. Harry Murby, the heaviest operator in these classes, bought over 400 and reports prices as follows: Good feeders, 1000 to 1150 lbs., at $3.70 to $3.90 per cwt.; medium feeders, 1000 to 1150 lbs., at $3.25 to $3.50; best feeders, 800 to 900 lbs., at $3.65 to $3.70; medium feeders, 800 to 1000 lbs., at $3 to $3.25; best yearling steers, 600 to 800 lbs., at $3 to $3.30; good stock heifers, 700 to 800 lbs., at $2.80 to $2.90; medium stock heifers, 700 to 850 lbs., at $2.60 to $2.65; common stock heifers, 700 to 900 lbs., at $2.40 to $2.70; common light stockers, 400 to 550 lbs., at $2 to $2.25.

Milch Cows.

Considering the season of the year the deliveries of milch cows and springers have been liberal and the demand extra good. Prices ranged all the way from $30 to $60 each, as will be seen by sales quoted below. Medium to good cows ranged from $40 to $55 each.

Veal Calves.

The number offered was not large, but prices remain unchanged at $5.50 to $5.50 per cwt. for the bulk, while two of extra quality sold by McDonald & Maybee at $6 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

There was a good demand as usual for sheep and lambs, which sold readily at steady prices. Export ewes at $4 to $4.25 per cwt.; bucks and culls at $3 to $3.50; lambs at $5 to $5.60 for the bulk, but choice lots of ewes and wethers brought $5.70 to $5.75 per cwt.

Hogs.

The run of hogs was fairly large, 2200. Mr. Harris reports prices unchanged at $5.50 for selects and $5.25 for lights and fats. Sows are worth $4 to $4.50 and stags $2 to $3 per cwt.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

Poor, Threatens to Do Crime.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—The city relief officer is in a quandary as to the care of the poor. Every charitable institution is full and the relief officer is unable to accommodate homeless people who ask for shelter. One man who could not get into an institution went out threatening to do some act to give him a term in jail for the winter.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—Dr. Charles A. E. Harris has been made an honorary member of the Royal Academy of Music of London, Eng., a distinction much coveted by eminent musicians of Great Britain.

A wireless message was caught at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, from the Standard Oil Company's steamer, the Maverick, which was off Porto Rico, nearly 5,000 miles distant.

Drinks Liniment By Mistake.

Niagara Falls, Nov. 24.—James Crossett, a well-known Grand Trunk engineer, who lives at No. 156 Huron street, took a big dose of liniment thinking it was cough medicine. For a long time the doctors worked with little hope of saving his life, but it is now announced that he is out of danger.

Mr. Wyman N. Thomas, Ompah, Addington Co., Ont., writes:—"My wife had congestion of the lungs and other troubles, and became very weak and run down. By the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food she was made as strong and well as ever. Of course I had a doctor, but she was weak, and it was Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that built her up."

An Assessment Commissioner Not a Necessity

At Least This is the Opinion of Correspondent —"Valuation" Believes That the Proper System is That Employed at Present—Says Good Work Was Done This Year—Evidence is Fact That There Were Fewer Appeals.

ALD. JOHNSTON'S VIEWS ARE TAKEN EXCEPTION TO

Peterborough, Nov. 25, 1905.
To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I notice in your issue of the 23rd there appears what might be called an inspiration. Ald. Johnston giving five reason why he favours an assessment commissioner.

1. He considers the assessing of property the most important because it affects the citizen personally. There is no argument in this, and I don't think it will appeal to many as a revelation.

2. He says two assessors have not time to convince a man who thinks he is wrongly assessed. I fail to see any reason or argument in that statement, because the supernatural power of convincing a number of people on matters that affect their finances has only been given to a few. Ald. Johnston may be one of the few. In that case I would suggest that he apply for the position guaranteeing to supply the convincing power, and thereby abolish the Court of Revision, which every other village, town and city in the Dominion has to have.

3. He refers to building permits which does not refer to the question at issue and contains no argument bearing on a commissioner.

4. Is that when a permit is given, the commissioner would then know the cost of building. I would ask Ald. Johnston if he would not know a great deal better, when the building was completed, and all the extras added, the value of that building? Besides, assessment is based, or should be, on the value, not on the cost, and I would ask Ald. Johnston if he does not know of houses costing more than they are worth? Think a minute, Mr. Alderman; would you assess on cost or value? Ald. Johnston also says that a Commissioner would be held responsible all the year round. Certainly he would. So are the assessors. If he had said that the City would be responsible all the year round (for the Commissioner's salary,) I might consider that a revelation.

5. Starts off with something he thinks, and winds up with preparatory work to be done which would put the system on a more equal valuation.

No, my dear Aldermanic friend, you know that the self-same preparatory work was done by the two assessors as soon as they were appointed. You were not only told by them that they were doing so, but you actually saw them do it. I would ask the Alderman to show me anything a Commissioner can do, (outside of drawing a large salary) that two experienced assessors, who have been over the ground year after year, for a dozen or more years, can't do, and who are able to consult intelligently on all difficult problems in connection with the assessment of our city.

Do you know, my orotorical friend, that there are less appeals this year before the Court of Revision than almost any previous year, and all of minor matters, due to the interpretation of the new act. Is this not remarkable when you remember that there is an increase in assessment of about $800,000, and that increase mostly in the merchantile district owned by men who are capable and willing to look after their interests, and not one appeal came from that quarter.

Is it not a fact that the Court of Revision only sat about nine or ten hours in disposing of all appeals, and that there was not one sent to our County Judge; something unusual in the history of Peterborough. And I challenge Ald. Johnston to point out where any Assessment Commissioner in the Province has made a better record. The above fact should be evidence that the two assessors for a city like ours, or even with double our population is the correct system from every point of view.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I remain,
Yours truly,
"VALUATION."

Finances Are in Good Condition

A. O. U. W. Grand Officers Visited the Local Lodge.

Last night the members of the local lodge of United Workmen enjoyed a visit from two prominent members of the Order, when Messrs. J. Nixon, of Toronto, chairman of the Laws Committee of the order, and Mr. F. H. Lazier, M.D., W.M., for Durham district, paid an official visit to the local lodge and addressed the meeting, which was attended by a large number of local members as well as those from Campbellford, Millbrook Havelock and Norwood.

The grand officers gave encouraging reports of the progress which the Order has been making in the past, and spoke particularly with reference to the advance which the Order has made since the increase in rates. During the period since the Grand Lodge decided to increase the rates the finances have been placed in a most satisfactory condition. All the debts outstanding have been paid, and the surplus has been increased by about $130,000, and the fund has now reached over the half million mark. The members expressed their pleasure at the good news which the visiting brethren brought them, and the effect of the visit will be felt in the future, no doubt.

Addresses were also given by Messrs. Dunks and Connors, of Campbellford lodge, and Mr. D. W. Dumble, of Peterborough.

After the meeting the whole company partook of an oyster supper, at which a number of toasts were proposed and some solos given.

Mrs. Jane Clark Is Located At Last in Lindsay

This morning Mr. Thos. Clark received word from Lindsay from his brother Henry to the effect that his mother, Mrs. Jane Clark, whose mysterious disappearance was recorded in these columns on Thursday, was in that town and was safe with her son. She went away about three weeks ago, telling her son that she was going to visit a friend in Douro. When she did not return her son naturally became alarmed and reported her disappearance to the police. He was greatly relieved this morning to receive word that she was with his brother.

Lilac Trees Are Budding

Mr. D. Hennessy, of East City, called at the Examiner this afternoon with some lilac boughs which he had cut from a tree opposite St. Luke's church, and upon which there were a large number of leaf buds, some of them opening out well. He believes that this is something unusual for this season of the year.

WHO IS THIS?

The picture in to-day's paper has been taken longer than any of the others that have been published, being about 40 years old. The subject is a native of County Donegal, Ireland, but came to Canada at a very early age. He has lived in Peterborough off and on for 60 years, and has been and is one of the most highly respected citizens. He has been associated with the building trades practically all his life and has also held civic positions. At one time he engaged in photography in Peterborough as a side issue during the winter, but not at the time that his picture was taken.

The picture in last Saturday's paper was one of Mr. Wm. Eyres. The first to communicate to the Examiner the fact that it had been identified was Mr. F. R. J. Mitchell, who telephoned in shortly after 5 o'clock. About 6 o'clock Mr. W. J. Green, the tax collector also telephoned an identification, and during the same evening Mr. J. Kincaid, and Ald. Johnston recognized it.

Judges Named For The Story Competition

To-day the Examiner has pleasure in announcing the names of the three gentlemen who have been secured to act as judges in the story competition now being conducted in this paper for the prize donated by Hon. Mr. Stratton. Those to whom the stories will be submitted are Sheriff Hall, Mr. J. H. Burnham and Mr. F. D. Kerr.

These gentlemen will be supplied with copies of the stories as they are published in this paper, and after the whole series has been published their award will be made. The announcement of the names of the judges is a sufficient guarantee that the award will be made according to the merits of the stories submitted.

Saw Slipped and Cut His Arm

John Lightfoot, an apprentice at the Canadian General Electric Works in the brass department, received an injury this morning at the works. He was sawing a brass casting on a marble slab, when the saw slipped and his arm was cut. The services of Dr. Young were secured, but it is not anticipated that there will be any serious results from the accident.

Murderous Attack Upon Charles Leary

Brother of Ald. R. Leary, Former Peterborough Boy, Struck Upon the Head With a Shovel in Hands of Mexican Miner—Skull Was Fractured—Gash Six Inches Long Inflicted—Has Since Been Speechless and Partially Paralysed.

ALD. LEARY WILL LEAVE THURSDAY

Reference was made some days ago in the Examiner, to a serious accident which had befallen Mr. Charles Leary, brother of Ald. Robert Leary, of this city. At that time the information regarding the matter was extremely meagre, consisting only of a brief telegram from John Leary, another brother of Ald. Leary's, residing at Cheyenne, Okla., which stated that an accident had occurred.

Further information containing details of the regrettable occurrence was received to-day by Ald. Leary, by means of a letter from Mr. T. G. Lewis, an associate in the mining business with the injured man, at Santa Anna, Mexico. The letter was originally written by Mr. Lewis to Mr. John Leary, at Cheyenne, Okla., and was forwarded at once by the latter.

It now transpires that what was at first believed to be an accident, was a case of deliberate assault upon the part of a Mexican labourer discharged from the mine, of which Mr. Leary was superintendent. The letter, which is self-explanatory, is annexed:

Santa Ana,
Sonora, Mexico.
Llanos de Oro Mine, Nov. 8, '05.

Mr. John Leary,
Cheyenne, Okla.

Dear Sir, — I now take time to write you, giving particulars as to Charlie's condition. I understand that you have been informed of his steady improvement, but not knowing as to what extent you have been acquainted, I will tell you how it happened. He was struck on the head with a shovel in the hands of a Mexican, whom he had discharged. While at cut a hole in his skull six inches long, he regained his senses in half a minute, and has been conscious ever since, excepting during the two operations which were performed to remove broken bones and other matter from the brain. He is speechless, and for a time had no use of his right arm, but now he is gradually regaining the use of that member. The doctors say at this time it is impossible to tell whether he will ever regain his speech, or not, but we all have hope he will.

He has at all times understood every word spoken to him, but don't seem to be able to read, and not having enough control of his right arm, can not write. By making signs he can convey his wishes to us. He is having the best of care, both as to doctors and nurses. He sat up for two hours yesterday, and for a time to-day, and as soon as the wound has healed sufficiently to make it safe we will take him to Los Angeles, but it will probably be two weeks or more before it will be safe to let him travel. He was here less than a month when he was hurt. He had, and will have, if he fully recovers, a permanent place with this company as mill superintendent. I have known Charlie over six years, and have been with him a greater part of that time. We follow the same line and work together when it is convenient. A neighbour of yours, J. A. Laird, is here as engineer for this company.

I remain,
Respectfully yours,
T. G. LEWIS.

P. S.—This place is 65 miles from railroad or telegraph.—Lewis.

Accompanying the letter was a short note from Ald. Leary's brother in Cheyenne. Mr. Charles Leary, the injured gentleman, will be remembered by many old friends in Peterborough and district, who will be pained to learn of the serious results consequent upon the murderous attack made upon him. He left Peterborough about seventeen years ago, and for a number of years had not been heard of by his relatives here.

Ald. Leary will leave on Thursday next for Los Angeles, California, to which place his brother will probably by that time be removed, if his condition permits.

Fine New Hotel at Bobcaygeon

Mr. P. Grant has completed plans for the reconstruction of the Rockland Hotel at Bobcaygeon, covering the whole of the old site. Mr. Grant has arranged plans that, while not unmindful of outward appearance, provide comfort and accommodation. It will be three stories high, and the upper flat will be as desirable as the second. The diningroom will be the largest in the district, taking the whole of the canal frontage. There will also be a large assembly room for hops. The entrance will be on the main street, and it is the intention to keep the bar where it is at present, which will effectually separate that part of the business from the main portion of the house, thus freeing the guests from the very objectionable element that sometimes hangs around a bar. Tenders are being made on the work and the Rockland will be itself, and more than itself again by next June. —Independent.

Many Representations Will be Made To The Royal Tariff Commission on Thursday

The present outlook is that when the Tariff Commission sits here on Thursday next there will be a large number of deputations to be heard. The Secretary of the Board of Trade has received word from five or six towns to the effect that they will send deputations, which, with those at the sitting from Peterborough, will give the Commission a pretty busy day.

The Secretary of the local Board of Trade this morning received the following telegram from the secretary of this Commission:

Hamilton, Ont., 25th November, 1905.

T. Q. Quartermaine, Secretary Board of Trade, Peterborough, Ont:

Tariff Commission will leave Toronto (C. P. R.) next Wednesday night for Peterborough. Arrange session to commence at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. If necessary evening sessions can be held, but hope this can be avoided. No objection to counsel appearing for or with applicants.

JOHN BAIN, Secretary Tariff Commission.

Manufacturers, merchants and others wishing to appear before the Tariff Commission will therefore please meet the President and Secretary of the Board of Trade in the City Council Chamber—where the Commission will sit—on Wednesday evening next, 29th inst., at 8 o'clock, to make final arrangements as to hour each applicant shall appear before the Commission.

Over Five Miles Of Sidewalk Were Laid

In spite of the fact that this year there were over five miles of granolithic walk laid in the city, the work planned for the season was not all carried out, and a large number of walks which were petitioned for and granted were not laid because time would not permit.

To-day the work on the streets is being finished, the last job being the construction of the bridge across the creek on Victoria avenue, which the residents of that vicinity have been asking for for months. The work of the city's staff on the sidewalks this year has been satisfactory, and it is expected that the cost to the city will be moderate.

In the spring five bridges will be given concrete tops, viz., Dalhousie street, Sherbrooke street, King street, Charlotte street and Hunter street. Simcoe street having already been covered. In addition, the bridge at Brock and King streets will have to have new concrete piers.

Gale Overturned The Chimney

Of the George Matthews' Co. Last Night.

A result of the high wind of last night was the over-turning of the tall steel chimney of the George Matthews' pork packing establishment, George street.

The chimney, which was constructed of steel, was about 30 feet in height, and as a result the street car line was blocked for a short time this morning by a guy cable stretching across being lowered in the fall.

Workmen are engaged to-day in temporarily restoring the lower sections of the chimney to their original position.

Rev. J. G. Lewis At Bobcaygeon

The anniversary services at the Methodist church on Sunday were well attended and excellent addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Lewis, of Peterborough. The adoption of a thankoffering in place of a tea-meeting, proved a success, the result being $111. Rev. Mr. Coon took Rev. Mr. Lewis' duties in Peterborough. — Bobcaygeon Independent.

His majesty was met at the Dauphin railway station by President Loubet and Premier Rouvier, and was escorted with imposing military honours to the foreign office, where the royal quarters have been established.

Mining Properties Are Changing Hands

Mr. T. H. Crowley returned last night from Bancroft, where he spent the last week, inspecting the mining properties which he discovered. He was accompanied by Mr. T. P. Bizland, of New York, an expert sent here by Mr. White, the capitalist whom Mr. Crowley interested in his properties. He stated to the Examiner that this gentleman was well pleased with the showing made, and his report to the gentleman, he represents, will, it is believed, be favourable, and the option agreement will be carried out.

Options will be taken on three of the mining claims, one of them being the Sodalite property, from which Mr. Crowley expects to reap considerable profit. He also showed the Examiner a letter from Mr. F. C. Norris of New York, in which it was stated that the latter had completed arrangements for an option on one of Mr. Crowley's Raisy River properties, $16,000 to be paid in cash at once, and $500,000 inside of a year.

Mr. Crowley will be in the city for a few days more.

STORY COMPETITION For Examiner Prize

Peterboro'--How It Originated

WRITTEN BY MISS LAURA SMITHSON.

Miss Laura Smithson, who is seventeen years of age, is a daughter of Mr. J. Smithson, of Otonabee. She attended the Public School in Ashburnham and is now in the Fourth Form of the Collegiate Institute. Miss Smithson intends taking an Art Course at Toronto University.

"So you have come for your story! Well, I cannot vouch that it will be an interesting one, but such as it is, you shall have it. I have no doubt I have committed myself to a well-nigh interminable task, but I never shirk a duty. How long have I been in Peterborough? Ah, my child, I was here before Peterborough existed, when the only Peterborough was the city in England of that name. It was in 1825 I first came. As nearly as I can remember the facts of my coming, and subsequent settling in Peterborough, I shall relate them to you.

How long ago, it seems, since I last stood in Ireland! And, indeed, it is a long time. I am an old man now, fast nearing the century mark, and I was only fifteen when I left Ireland.

My home was near Enniskillen, County Fermanagh. It was a small hut, built of mud and thatched with straw,—aye, rude, indeed, and in these advanced days might be considered unfit for habitation, but it was even a trifle better than many of our neighbour's dwellings. However, it contained a happy family until those dark days days of famine came. A year came when the crops were even poorer than usual. Yes, we may have been careless, too. However, our rents got sadly in arrears, and still the landlords became more pressing, until we scarce could obtain food to keep body and soul together. It meant starvation for us, while those grasping, heartless Englishmen, lorded it over us in our own Ireland.

So we thought the gods were especially kind to us, when news came of a great emigration movement from Ireland, with Canada as its objective point. The fact that there was going to be an emigration, was what caused us the joy. It did not seem to us to be a very alluring prospect to go to Canada, for Canada was to us synonymous with a barren wild, inhabited for the most part with Indians and most ferocious animals, and having a coast entirely bound by ice-bergs. However, it meant a deliverance from the clutches of the penurious landlords, and that, in itself, seemed to convert the most desolate wild into an earthly paradise.

But, I must explain how this emigration came about. It seems that in the year 1825 the Hon. Peter Robinson came from Canada to England on a visit, and was there consulted by a Sir Wilmot Horton as to the advisability of taking immediate steps to securing the emigration of a large number of the Irish to Upper Canada. For unhappy Ireland had not sustenance for nearly all its population.

Now, Mr. Robinson was strongly in favour of the project being put into execution, and was finally induced, as being the most competent man, to take charge of the whole matter, which, as subsequent events showed, he did in a most satisfactory manner.

Accordingly, in the autumn of that same year, 450 Irish families took advantage of the offers of free land, and all the necessary aid for settlement in the new country. The large and important immigration was the true foundation of Peterborough, for it was in Peterborough, and the surrounding country, that we settled. And, as you may have guessed, it was also from this, that our flourishing city derived its name—from the Peter Robinson emigration.

So, in May, 1825, we were all assembled in Cork, ready to embark for the land of promise. There were 2024 of us, all counted—and a sorry crowd we were! We had thought we were quite prepared to leave the old land. But it was a sore wrench. Never before had we realized what dear old Ireland was to us, never until the parting moment came.

Yes, she was poor, but, yet, how happy! It takes more than poverty, even the most abject, more than hunger, even the keenest, to effectually and permanently dampen the spirits of a true son of Erin. But, now, closely packed in the hold of an emigrant ship, having parted with all our loved possessions, loved, few and scanty as they were, we were in the lowest depths of despair. You know that an Irishman must be in the heights or in the depths. But now we had cause to be as we were. Were'nt we leaving, perhaps forever, our dear "auld countrhy," which, despite our misery, we loved so well? And all we now had left to us of our fatherland were the bits of shamrock which we were guarding with loving care, and jealous anxiety, our only luggage.

And to add to our miseries of mind our bodily wants were but ill-supplied. The coarse ship's fare was a great change from our simple potato diet, to which we were accustomed. So that in many ways we suffered grievously on our passage out. Fortunately for us, the voyage was accomplished in twenty-one days, which was considered particularly swift sailing in those times.

Having arrived in Quebec, we continued our journey to Kingston. By this time the weather had become intensely warm, and as a result many of our number suffered acutely from fever and ague. In Kingston we remained for about two weeks, with tents as accommodation. During this time Mr. Robinson was engaged in making a hasty survey of the part to which we were going, and in inspecting and deciding the route by which to take us there. When he had completed this we were sent five hundred at a time, by boat from Kingston to Cobourg. From Cobourg to Rice Lake, a distance of some fifteen miles, we came by a road scarcely passable, for, you know, the country was very thinly populated at that time.

When we reached the mouth of the Otonabee, en route for Scott's Plains, as Peterborough was then called, we encountered a fresh difficulty. The river was unusually low, and completely unnavigable for our boats, which we had brought on wheels, from Lake Ontario to Rice Lake. Mr. Robinson was now with us, and he it was who remedied this by having built a boat, sixty feet in length, and eight feet wide, propelled by oars, when rowing was possible, and laboriously shoved through the shoals by means of long poles. It could accommodate thirty persons, and a reasonable amount of luggage for each. Thus, by making several trips we at last reached Scott's Plains, as it was then called, in honour of the first white man who had settled there.

You want to know something of its previous history, do you? Well, the first inhabitants were wandering tribes of the Massassaugas, and other Indians. These were but transient

An Interesting Lecture By Rev. Langfeldt

Rector of St. Luke's Gave Illustrated Lecture on a Tour on the Rhine—Mothers' Guild of the Church Held Their Annual Entertainment—A Most Successful Evening—Musical Programme of Merit—A Large Attendance.

BEAUTIFUL GERMANY INTERESTINGLY DESCRIBED

The Mother's Guild of St. Luke's church last night held their annual oyster supper and entertainment, and that of this year was the most successful in the history of that organization. The school room in which the entertainment was held was crowded, and that the programme of the evening was thoroughly enjoyed, was amply evidenced. This year an innovation in the entertainment feature was tried, and it proved a much appreciated one. Instead of the usual musical programme, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, at the request of the ladies, gave a lecture on "The Rhine, Tour from Cologne to Shaffhausen, with some Peeps at the Black Forest of Germany." The lecture was a most interesting one, and his descriptions of the many beautiful spots in the fatherland were realistic and decidedly interesting. The lecture was illustrated by some fifty views, many of them coloured, and they added materially to the interest of the evening's entertainment. The ladies in the Mothers' Guild are to be congratulated upon the signal success of their annual entertainment. The dining room proved to be very popular with those who attended, and the ladies in charge were kept busy serving the well prepared oysters to their guests.

The financial results of the evening were most satisfactory, the treasury fund being augmented materially by the sale of candy and manufactured articles.

The ladies in charge of the sale tables were Mrs. George Long, Mrs. Clitheroe and Miss Hazel Clitheroe. At the candy table Miss Vivian Bennett and Miss Edna Rogers presided. Misses Beatrice Hartley, Kathleen Long and Violet Whittaker were in charge of the fish pond and did a brisk business.

The ladies who waited on the oyster tables were Mrs. T. B. Maulee, Mrs. Robt. Cox, Mrs. W. McCarthy, Mrs. T. Parker, Mrs. W. Whittaker and Mrs. John Strain.

Preceding the lecture Miss Bertha Curtis gave a vocal solo, which was much enjoyed, and the singer was encored.

Starting at the ancient and beautiful city of Cologne, Rev. Mr. Langfeldt described most entertainingly the many interesting and historic spots along the Rhine valley, to Schaffhausen, the pictures thrown on the canvas with a magic lantern, by Mr. Arthur Stevenson, being as follows:

1—Cologne Cathedral.
2—Cologne market.
3—Bonn.
4—Koenigswinter.
5—Drachenfels.
6—Castle of Drachenfels.
7—Rolandseck.
8—Remagen.
9—Erpel.
10—Andernach Castle
11—Andernach Watchtower.
12—Coblentz, with Bridge of Boats
13—Ehrenbreitstein.
14—Ems.
15—Baderlei Hill.
16—Boppart old houses.
17—Boppart.
18—Rheinfels Castle.
18—St. Goar.
20—Katz Castle.
21—St. Goarhausen.
22—Oberwesel Castle Hill.
23—Oberwesel.
24—Bacharach.
25—St. Werner's Chapel.
26—Rheinstein Castle.
27—Bingen Mouse Tower.
28—Mayence Cathedral.
29—Mayence Market Place.
30—Mayence Bridge of Boats.
31—Heidelberg Castle.
32—Heidelberg.
33—Great Terrace, Heidelberg.
34—Raft on the Necker.
35—Baden-Baden.
36—Baden Trinkhalle.
37—Baden Conversation House.
38—Strassburg.
39—Hornberg.
40—Hornberg Castle Hill.
41—Hornberg Bridge.
42—Niederwasser.

45—Bale old bridge.
46—Bale.
47—Rhine Falls, Neuhausen.
48—Neuhausen.
49—Schaffhausen Rapids.
50—Schaffhausen.

The lecturer took his hearers by easy stages along the most beautiful section of country in all Germany, and gave a description of the many cities shown. The legend in connection with the famous Mouse Tower was told, and the rise and fall of the foretresses which dot the hills on either side of the majestic river, were referred to, with their history.

BLOODLESS GIRLS.

Find New Health Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

When you see a young girl pale and ailing and wasting away, you know that budding womanhood is making new demands upon her blood supply which she cannot meet. Month after month her health, her strength, her very life, is being drained away. No food and no care can do her any good. Common medicine cannot save her from broken health and a hopeless decline. Now blood is the one thing that can make her a healthy, cheerful, rosy-cheeked girl. And Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood with every dose. That is the whole secret of how they have saved thousands of pale, anaemic girls from an early grave. Miss Alice Chaput, aged 17 years, living at 475 St. Timothee street, Montreal, gives strong proof of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to cure. "A couple of years ago," says Miss Chaput, "I was an almost continuous sufferer, and became so weak I could hardly go about. I suffered from frequent and prolonged spells of dizziness, I had frightful headaches, and my stomach was completely out of order. The least exertion would leave me worn out and breathless, and I did not appear to have a drop of good blood in my body. I consulted a doctor who told me the trouble was general debility, but his treatment did not help me a particle. To add to the trouble my nerves gave way, and I often passed sleepless nights. At this stage a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got a few boxes. The first benefit I noticed from the use of the pills was an improved appetite, and this seemed to bring much relief. I continued taking the pills until I had used six boxes, when I was fully restored to health, and I have not had a day's illness since. I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enough for the great good they have done me."

A pale anaemic person needs only one thing—new blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do one thing only—they make new blood. That is all they do, but they do it well. They don't act on the bowels. They don't bother with mere symptoms. They won't cure any disease that isn't caused originally from bad blood. But when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills replace bad blood with good blood they strike straight at the root and cause of all common diseases like headaches, sideaches, backaches, kidney trouble, liver complaint, biliousness, indigestion, anaemia, neuralgia, sciatica, locomotor ataxia and the special secret troubles that every woman knows but that none of them like to talk about, even to their doctors. But you must have the genuine pills or you can't be cured, and the genuine always have the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around the box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent direct by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Dr. Gray Loses Valuable Fowl

Dr. Gray had the misfortune to lose nineteen thoroughbred fowls this morning, two dogs being responsible for the depredation. At about 11 o'clock this morning, while the doctor was busy in his office, some of his neighbours ran in and told him that the dogs were killing his hens. The dogs were chased off the premises, but not before they had wrought the disastrous destruction mentioned. The doctor says he knows who owns the dogs, and there will probably be further developments. The entire flock numbered about twenty-five, and all but five or six were killed. Dr. Gray places his loss at about one hundred dollars.

Severity Now Called For

The only means the Police Magistrate can imply to deal effectively with James Maloney, who was recently convicted in Hastings County for selling liquor unlawfully, — to prevent this offending further—is to put him in jail. He has been a persistent offender for years, and in Belmont gave the License Department so much trouble that special detectives were needed to round him up.

Fining James Maloney is of no use. It seems that the only way to keep him from breaking the law is to put it out of his power to do so. A fine is not of the slightest use.

A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy, tired and worn out continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of Mt. No. Wabasha Street, Cokedale, Huerfano, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. 69 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Formerly sold for $1.50 to defray cost of over 1,000,000 copies. Every family should possess a copy for ready reference in case of sudden illness or accident. It is illustrated with hundreds of wood-cuts and several colored plates. Address Dr. R. V. Delightful Reunion Held Last Night

Officers, "Visitors" and Members of Home Department of George Street Sunday School Spent Charming Social Evening—Programme of Addresses and Music—Refreshments Afterwards Served—Social Features Enjoyed.

EVENING WAS MOST INTERESTING

It was a matter of determination from the individual view-point alone as to which was the most charming feature of the Re-union of the members of the Home Department of the George Street Sunday School. Combined with the pleasant social intercourse of the evening was much that was instructive and entertaining.

About ninety members including officers and visitors were present at the event which took place in the Sunday School Room, Mr. A. W. Cressman, Superintendent of the Home Department presided.

The programme of the evening included a number of addresses by prominent workers and officers, charmingly interspersed with musical and other numbers.

A vocal solo, rendered in excellent voice and musicianly interpretation was contributed by Miss Clara Bellegham.

This was followed by a pianoforte duet by Mrs. and Miss Gumpricht, executed with faultless technique; which won a general appreciation.

During the evening addresses, dealing largely with the subject of Sunday School work, were delivered by Rev. Dr. Crothers, Mr. A. W. Cressman and Mr. S. R. Armstrong. The addresses were listened to with close attention and were most interesting and profitable.

Two violin solos were contributed by Miss Maude Crothers, in which was united with a very considerable technical proficiency, musicianly and sympathetic interpretation.

A reading by Mr. J. Jeffries, gave general pleasure. His selection was "Dolly Winthrop's Visit" from George Eliot's "Silas Mariner".

The rendering by the Misses Chasty of a duet was also greatly enjoyed.

After the intellectual and musical portion of the programme followed a treat of a material nature in the serving of recherche refreshments at small tables in the church parlour. The daintiness of the menu was equalled only by the personality of the committee which provided them—the "visitors".

The accompaniments of the evening were played with artistic sympathy by Prof. Milner and Miss Crothers.

Private Service Pipe Broken

The story published in a morning paper to the effect that there was a break in the new water main being laid on Water street, is misleading, in view of the fact that there has been no water in the new main yet.

There was a leak in the private service pipe, and for some time the water flowed freely. Two ladies, who were passing, did get into the water hole, but there was no danger to these unfortunate ladies. The break was soon stopped after the arrival of the superintendent of the Waterworks Department.

To the Editor of Post Card Column:
Dear Sir,—I notice by last evening's edition of the Examiner "Roarin' Game will Flourish; enthusiastic re-organization Meeting of Curling Club". If the game is a roarin' game and is flourishing as an enthusiastic organization, why should these gentlemen ask the stockholders to wait 20 years for dividend. Should not the Curlers who enjoy the sport pay sufficient to enable those who have investments in the rink to get their dividend. This is about the only organization in Peterborough that continually refuses to pay dividend on stock. It seems to be so badly managed that it cannot. Perhaps the club might say what they propose to do about it.

Yours truly,
STOCKHOLDER.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Mr. R. H. Bradburn was in Toronto yesterday and was with Mr. A. J. Small, when a deputation of Chinamen waited on him with reference to the establishment of a Chinese theatre in Toronto. The prospects are that the project will go through.

The next attraction at the local Opera House will be in about two weeks. The Australian Opera Company, which was booked to appear here has decided to cross into the United States from Montreal instead of coming up through Ontario, and as a consequence this clever company will not be seen here.

On Christmas Day and the two following days Prof. Cracker's educated horses will entertain theatre goers. The London Advertiser speaking of this show says:—

"The show opens with a dozen magnificent black, white and bay horses on their way to school. In their play along the route they act like school boys, running, jumping and having "a high old time". Arrived at school they hang up the professor's hat and coat. One of them also acts as monitor and he gets the other scholars into trouble in true schoolboy fashion. Then the educated equines do almost every trick a horse has as yet been taught, even to distinguishing colours. The horses also ring bells, roll barrels up inclines, act as rocking horses and jump over each other's backs. One splendid animal leaps like a greyhound over the backs of five others."

In a short time he melo-drama "The Way of the Transgressor" will be seen here in the Grand Opera House.

Any young men who can assist are asked to join the choir.

BE READY FOR CROUP

AND INSIST ON HAVING THE TIME TESTED MEDICINES.

It is not a question of whether you will need a treatment for coughs, colds and croup in your homes, but the question is will you select the most effective medicine or simply be satisfied to take whatever your druggist happens to hand out to you?

Time and experience have proven that you can depend on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine at all times.

It is only necessary to remember this when the critical time comes and to insist on getting what you ask for.

Should you have children that are subject to croup you had better keep a bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house for, when the choking spasm comes on there is little time to send for doctor or medicine.

It seems scarcely necessary to dwell on the merits of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a cure for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, etc. Most of us have known it from childhood up. It is almost as familiar as Dr. Chase's Receipt Book.

Mr. G. N. Morrison, 31 Fuller street, Toronto, Ont., writes:

"Gentlemen, — If it should be of satisfaction to you to know (as it certainly has been to me in the past) permit me to say that I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in my family for years, and have found it from experience to be the best cough medicine. I suppose that I have used eight bottles this past winter; my children will have nothing else, and the best of results invariably ensue. I have also recommended it strongly. If this unsolicited testimonial be of any service to you the pleasure is mine in transmitting it."

Being pleasant to the taste, it is readily taken by the children. Because it brings quick relief to the suffering from asthma, bronchitis, whooping cough, and all the more serious diseases of the throat and lungs, it is invaluable as a household medicine. 25 cents a bottle at all dealers.

STURDY FARMERS KEEP OFF ALL CATARRHAL ILLS BY TAKING PE-RU-NA.

Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

Pe-ru-na a Necessity in the Home.

J. B. Alexander, Publisher of the "Fruit and Floral Guide, A Magazine of Horticulture," published in Hartford City, Ind., says of Peruna:

"I was afflicted with catarrh of the throat and head for over ten years. I was treated by many physicians, but grew worse until I was seldom able to go out in cold weather.

"About one year ago I was advised to try Peruna, which I did, and I am now entirely well of the catarrh.

"Peruna is a necessity in our home. With the first symptoms of a cold we use it, and are never afflicted with catarrh.

"I advise all who are afflicted with catarrh to try Peruna. There is certainly nothing equal to it as a catarrh medicine."—J. B. Alexander.

Pe-ru-na is a Systemic Remedy.

If Peruna will cure catarrh in one place, it will cure it in any other place, because it is a systemic remedy.

Pe-ru-na Always on Hand.

Mr. Fred Schnell Lakeview, Erie Co., N. Y., writes:

"I had been a sufferer for more than thirty years with catarrh of the intestines. I had used a great deal of medicine to no avail, so I decided to try Peruna.

"I have now used thirteen bottles and can give you the joyful tidings that I have no more trouble. I always keep Peruna on hand."—Fred. Schnell.

The people generally are very much misinformed as to the nature of catarrh.

Catarrh is usually believed to be confined to the head, nose and throat. Latterly we sometimes hear of catarrh of the stomach and catarrh of the bladder. Seldom, if ever, do we hear of catarrh of any other organs.

It is not because these organs are not subject to catarrh, nor that catarrh of these organs is not a very common disease, but simply because it is not generally known that affections of these organs may be due to catarrh.

Had Catarrh Thirty Years.—Pe-ru-na Cured Him.

Mr. Gustav M. Schmidt, Spring Valley, Ill., writes:

"I had catarrh of the head and throat for over thirty years. It became worse every year.

"About three months ago I commenced to take Peruna and Manalin, and now I am entirely cured of that troublesome sickness. Your medicine is surely a blessing to mankind.

"You can truly say that you have not lived in vain, Doctor, and I thank you for the good you have done me. May you enjoy a long life to help suffering humanity."—Gustav M. Schmidt.

Dr. Hartman Makes Personal Use of Pe-ru-na.

In speaking of his own personal use of Peruna, Dr. Hartman says:

"For a number of years my professional duties have compelled me to be much on the road, traveling long distances by rail, night and day, exposed to all kinds of vicissitudes, sleeping and eating in different hotels continually, and through it all I have preserved myself from any derangement of the body resulting from catching cold.

"At the slightest evidence of a cold, a few doses of Peruna invariably checked it."

Pe-ru-na a Household Friend.

Mr. Henry Schroeder, Route 2, Napoleon, O., writes:

"I suffered for almost ten years with catarrh of the stomach and all doctoring was of no avail.

"I took nine bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin and am now entirely cured.

"I recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this disease. It is my household friend." —Henry Schroeder.

A Farmer's Talk to Farmers.

Before Dr. Hartman began the study of medicine he was a farmer boy. He was brought up on a farm in Southern Pennsylvania.

He belonged to that industrial, successful class of farmers known as the Pennsylvania Dutch, the best farmers in the world.

It was here that he early learned the lesson of pulling obnoxious things out by the roots.

Dr. Hartman's Method of Treating Catarrh.

Naturally, when he began the study of medicine his mind turned instinctively toward the removing of causes. He could not content himself with doctoring symptoms any more than his enterprising father could have contented himself by pulling off the tops of weeds to eradicate them from the soil.

The Doctor turned his attention early to the science of removing the cause of diseases, believing that obnoxious symptoms would disappear if the cause of the disease was removed.

In other words, Dr. Hartman applied the common sense of the practical farmer to medicine, and after much experimentation Peruna was compounded.

The sensible farmer does not think of cutting off the tops of weeds to kill them. He pulls them up by the roots.

Dr. Hartman Interested in Farming

Notwithstanding Dr. Hartman's busy professional career, he still continues to be interested in farming. He is the owner and manager of one of the largest farms in the State of Ohio, with several thousand acres of the best tilled land in the Middle West, and with hundreds of the best blooded percheron horses ever imported or raised in this country.

Dr. Hartman relies upon Peruna entirely in case of sickness in his own family.

At Work on the Farm.—Praises Pe-ru-na.

Geo. H. Thompson, Raleigh, Miss., writes:

"I have been cured of catarrh by your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I had been affected with catarrh of the stomach about all my life, and was taken bad every spring and summer.

"I used several kinds of patent medicines, but they did me no good. I then took a treatment under an M. D., which did me but little good. By this time I had got where I could eat nothing but a little soup. I had severe pains, had lost in weight and could not do anything.

"I began taking your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I then weighed 126 pounds, but after taking 17 bottles of Peruna and one bottle of Manalin, I weighed 166 pounds.

"I am now at work on the farm and feel well all of the time. I eat all I want to and my friends say that I look better than ever before. I will ever praise Peruna for its healing power." Geo. H. Thompson.

THE TURF.

Miss Paisley, owned by Mr. Geo. Lipsett, East City, is very sick and is undergoing veterinary treatment. This is very unfortunate as this fast mare was billed to rage in the Eastern Circuit this winter and was picked by many as a coming winner. As her condition is very serious now, she may not be able to race at all this winter, at any account her speed will probably be much impaired. Miss Paisley has a mark of .24 over ice and 2.31-4 over dirt.

MORE TARIFF CONTRADICTIONS.

There was a fine irony in the position of Mr. A. E. Kemp, M.P., Conservative member for East Toronto, and one of the leaders of the high tariff agitation, when he appeared before the tariff commission to protest against any protection being granted the tin plate industry. Mr. Kemp is a large manufacturer of tinware. He demands a duty on tin products, but his enthusiasm for protection is not carried to the extreme of advocating a duty on his raw material for the benefit of a brother manufacturer. He is a protectionist in tinware, and a free trader in tin plate. He told the commission that an attempt to create a tin plate industry in Canada by means of a tariff would seriously injure the industries using tin. The canners and biscuit makers entered a similar protest. It appears that capitalists have offered to establish a tin plate industry in Canada if they can get sufficient tariff protection, and they may be excused for thinking they have as much right to it as any other class of producers.

The sitting of the commission at Toronto on Tuesday brought out a number of these contradictions. The manager of a metallic roofing company wanted no duty on copper sheets and plates, and was sure they could not be manufactured in Canada to advantage. The drygoods section of the Toronto Board of Trade wanted a flat duty of 10 per cent. on silks, instead of 10 per cent. only on silks used in making neckties, and 30 per cent. on silks imported for other purposes. One of the commissioners remarked that a tax of 10 per cent. on silks, which were luxuries, and 25 or 30 per cent. on commoner things, such as woollens and cottons, would look like discrimination against the poor man. The necktie makers asked that their protection be increased from 35 to 50 per cent., in order to offset the duty on their raw material.

The merchants handling cottons and textiles made out a strong case against an increase of the cotton duties. They pointed out that 4,000 operatives were employed in making underwear garments, and the industry was taxed 35 per cent. on its raw material, cotton goods. They denounced the Canadian cotton combine as tending to restrict competition. They wanted reductions in the duty on several lines of cotton supplies, but asked for an increase in the duty on blouses and waists, their finished products.

It was also represented to the commission that the amount paid in wages in converting woollen cloth into clothing was four times the amount paid for converting wool into cloth. The increase in the duties on woollens last year took $577,000 out of the pockets of the Canadian people. These facts are strong arguments against the further increase of protection asked for by the woollen manufacturers.

The lesson taught at every sitting of the tariff commission is that the inter-relation of industries makes any change in the tariff schedules an exceedingly delicate matter. An increase of duty in one line may mean a loss of tariff protection for several.—London Advertiser.

A COURAGEOUS UTTERANCE.

The new naval secretary of the United States, Mr. Bonaparte, has thrown a bombshell into the ranks of "the big navy" advocates, of whom the President is foremost. Mr. Bonaparte, who is a grand nephew of the great Napoleon, is a man after Roosevelt's own heart, fearless and independent, and was called to the cabinet in expectation that he would infuse new energy into the naval administration and treat abuses "with an iron hand." He now bluntly declares that the United States does not need a stronger navy. The country has not enough men for the ships it now has, and for several years the supply of officers will be short.

"Secretary Bonaparte's position in the cabinet may become untenable by reason of this utterance, as the naval department, with the enthusiastic support of the President, is committed to "a monster navy" programme. The general navy board, of which Admiral Dewey is the head, has just recommended that three 18,000-ton battleships be built, at a cost of about $9,000,000 each, and that the tonnage of two 16,000-ton battleships be raised to 18,000 tons. The German Government is also building warships at the same break-neck pace, and the financial resources of Great Britain are being strained by the effort to maintain the traditional superiority of the British Navy. The first-class battleship or cruiser of ten years ago is a back number, and the $9,000,000 leviathan of to-day may be superseded ten years hence by the progress of invention or some new teaching in the principles of naval warfare. This tremendous competition is being carried on in the name of peace, but it may be doubted whether bloated armaments foster the spirit of international good will, to say nothing of the expenditure of money withdrawn from productive enterprises while hundreds of thousands are crying for work and bread. Where is the naval rivalry to end?—London Advertiser.

THE WATER COMMISSIONERS

Everybody recognizes the good and faithful work in the public interests done by the Board of Water Commissioners. Their successful administration of their trust is generally recognized, as it must be, from the nature of the work done. These good results have not been attained without a good deal of expenditure of time and energy. This to ment whose positions make them busy men means no considerable sacrifice—loss of time and attention to their every-day duties. Under these circumstances it does not seem inadvisable to suggest that the Water Commissioners should receive some remuneration for their services—some sum which will represent an indemnity, to a certain extent—for the loss they must necessarily sustain in looking after the interests of the citizens at the expense of their own affairs. The Examiner is advised that other cities give this indemnity to their Water Commissioners, upon a moderate scale, —such as $300 per year to the chairman and $150 each to the other Commissioners. This does not seem to be an extravagant sum if regarded as remuneration: but rather a tangible recognition of services rendered, and is to be looked upon as an encouragement and incentive to continued zealous service, which such a recognition supplies. And it is desirable that the Commissioners, as public servants, should be placed in a position in which they could be held more directly to account. The proverb reminds us how ungracious it is to look the gift-horse in the mouth. If the Commissioners give their services gratuitously, we are not in as good a position to hold them to their responsibility. Ever since their appointment the Commissioners have given their excellent services gratuitously, and it does not seem that the present is any too soon to consider the question of giving them the benefit a some form of the indemnity suggested.

WHITNEY AND PATRONAGE.

Goldwin Smith in Weekly Sun: Mr. Whitney is pressed to make a party use of his patronage. A strictly party use of patronage was made by his opponent for thirty years. Sir Oliver Mowat avowed the principle and was supreme in the art of distribution. Conservatives now naturally claim their turn, and must be allowed it, provided there are no improper appointments or dismissals. But Mr. Whitney's hands are free. The great majority which carried him into power was largely made up of votes not given on party grounds. He is perfectly secure in his position, and in no way constrained, while he does right to his friends to do wrong to the public.

Mr. Smith's position is reasonable enough, but there seems not to be a fair parallel between the position, and course, of Sir Oliver Mowat, and that of Mr. Whitney. Sir Oliver Mowat, during a long course of administration, naturally made appointments from the body of his supporters — a perfectly proper course to take, for it must be admitted that he was able to find Liberals well qualified for the positions taken. But there is no record that Sir Oliver Mowat pursued a policy of wholesale dismissal of officials appointed by the preceding Conservative Government, to make room for hungry followers of his own political faith. On the contrary, there are still living examples of the fact that hundreds of the officials appointed by the Conservative Government of Hon. Sandfield Macdonald, held office under a Liberal Government, as long as that Government held office, or until they died; and there are in the service of the Ontario Government now some men who were Conservative appointees, who were appointed by Hon. Sandfield Macdonald, and held office all through the thirty-two years of Liberal administration.

In contrast, Hon. Mr. Whitney is not using the power, Mr. Goldwin Smith says he possesses, to prevent the introduction of the vicious spoils system. It is very true that Mr. Whitney owes the great majority now behind him largely to the votes of misguided Liberals, who are early beginning to see the mistake they made. In spite of all the protestations being made by Hon. Mr. Whitney, his colleagues and defenders, he is lopping off the heads of Liberal officials as rapidly as seems to him decent, and practising the odious Yankee doctrine that "to the victors belong the spoils." All governments recognize their right to make a "strictly party use" of patronage, but the doctrine is applied in a different way, by the Liberal Government of the Dominion, from that employed by others — say, Hon. Mr. Whitney. We have thousands of examples in Canada, many in this very city, of Conservatives having been permitted to retain their offices, when there has not been warning provocation for their removal. If Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government adopted the same policy of providing for his followers that Mr. Whitney is doing, there would be a great shaking up of the dry bones. It would be interesting, if the information were available, to compare the dismissals of Conservatives made in ten years, by the Laurier Government, with the slaughter of the innocents made by the Whitney Government in ten months.

GENERALLY SPEAKING

A SEQUENCE or, rather, a conjunction of circumstances and events has combined to arouse, to a marked degree, human pity for suffering humanity. We have had brought prominently to our attention, in the form of appeals to our sympathies, the sufferings of the massacred Jews in Russia. The conference of charities in Toronto has afforded another form of appeal to charitable activities. The fact that last Sunday was set apart in the Anglican church as a day of intercession for "prisoners and captives" suggests thoughts of the new commandment of Him who came to set the captive free. The appeal of the King's Daughters for means to help them relieve the wants of the destitute and suffering and the stated need of the Children's Aid Society for funds to assist in carrying on its noble work of benefaction—all these things tend to direct our thoughts to the brotherhood of man, and the duties arising out of this relationship. Wherever there is human suffering, there is created a duty to discharge on the part of those more fortunately situated—more mercifully spared the penalty of the inexorable law, that sooner or later visits, in one form or other, the disregard of divine law or of the laws of nature.

THE SEASON of the year—the approach of a rigorous winter whose keen-fanged winds pierce the thin clothing that covers without protecting the bodies of the poor and hisses discomfort through the open crevices of their crazy dwellings—creates a demand for generosity, or at least thoughtfulness upon those able to give the needed relief. It is inconceivable that any person, happily situated, surrounded with comforts, with enough and to spare, should fail to respond to the call. How can the inmates of a happy home—it only with the happiness of which bodily comfort and the absence of sordid anxieties are elements—enjoy these things knowing that some of their neighbours are pinched with want, blue with cold and lacking food and raiment? "Thou shalt love they neighbour as thyself," is no obsolete law. To love one's self is so easy; and to love one's neighbour, especially in the matter of relieving his or her suffering, is also easy for those who love rightly. In every comfortable home there is cast-off clothing given to the moths, which with a little effort and thoughtfulness, may be made a luxury to the destitute and naked, the shivering and the unclad. There are superfluities from the larder—otherwise wasted—which would be luxury to starving or half fed children. There is so much material that costs only thought, which can be used to benefit our indigent poor, if only the will prompt the hand.

TO THOSE in moderate circumstances these easy ways of doing good are at hand. To the wealthy a larger field of duty and opportunity lies spread all around them. Mr. Goldwin Smith's timely letter to the Conference of Charities, deplored the indifference of the rich, to the duty and privilege of using their wealth for the benefit of humanity, for the relief of human suffering and the promotion of the comfort and, to that extent, the happiness of their fellowmen of poor estate, thus indirectly in turn, benefitting society, the state and themselves—not only as citizens, but as purveyors of "the cup of cold water in His name.' Wealth honestly gained, gold amassed by the use of the golden rule, can be employed in doing good a thank-offering—a form of worship; wealth ill-gotten, gold coined from the groans of ruined fellow men and the tears of their widows and orphans, may be used in good works in only one way—the way of restitution. The face, of society, of the state, of the world, would be changed as by magic, if only the rich would acknowledge their responsibility as stewards of the Divine Providence.

THE EASY WAYS of doing good mentioned are not to be despised because they do not represent the Divine ideal. Dr. Symonds said on Monday night that Lord Beaconsfield could not be regarded as a great man because he lacked the great quality of self-sacrifice. The highest life, the greatest deeds are based on sacrifice. The Kingdom of Heaven is founded on sacrifice. All great and good men have sacrificed self. The more unselfish a man the nearer he reaches the Divine, the more selfish a man the nearer he approaches the brute. A grand type of self-sacrifice was Dr. Barnardo, the founder of the homes which bear his name. His successor, Wm. Baker, whose picture appeared in these columns recently, has sacrificed the comfort, the ease, the influence and the power of the large income derived from his large chancery practice, to accept, without remuneration, of a money kind, the toilsome position of President of the Barnardo Homes, whose work, however, that of the rescue of degraded children is worthy of such a sacrifice.

WHEN WE SEE such examples among the millions in the world, can we not put ourselves about a little, for the sake of ministering to the poor, or helping on the great and good work of the Children's Aid Society, which, at this very moment, is sadly in need of funds? Let the wealthy or even those in competent circumstances, put their own children in fancy—and they will shudder even at that—in the place of scores and scores of poor, starving, ill-clad, beaten, abused and suffering children, in vicious homes and surroundings, their little feet already torn with the thorny ways of vice. How quickly, if even one of these dangers threatened their little ones would they lavish thousands if they were needed to save them. Fathers, as your children prattle round your knees; mothers, as you tuck your little darlings in their cosy cribs, think of these things; think of the blighted little lives, the beaten little bodies, the soiled little souls, steeped in an atmosphere of vice, which the Children's Aid Society is trying to rescue, and will rescue if you will be one of many to help but a little with the means with which a beneficent Providence has endowed you for—among others—just such good works as this.

Water Power For Bobcaygeon

—An informal meeting of the council and Board of Trade of Bobcaygeon, was held on Wednesday evening to discuss the proposed purchase of the water power from the Boyd Company, and, after considering the estimates obtained for the contemplated work, it was agreed that a bylaw for $25,000 should be asked, payable in thirty years. The bylaw will probably be submitted to a vote at the Municipal Elections.

The Ladies' Aid Social Enjoyed

Charlotte Street Parsonage the Scene of a Delightful Entertainment.

The social held in the Charlotte street Methodist parsonage last night under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of that church was a gratifying success in every way. There was an especially large attendance and a delightful evening was spent.

The programme was a most excellent one, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. It opened with a piano duet by Misses Clarry and Campbell, followed by a vocal solo, "The Fairies," rendered by Miss Jobbit. Miss Annie Christie gave two recitations in her usual happy manner. A vocal solo, "Lindy," by Miss Florence Hill, was much enjoyed, as was also a vocal solo, "Memories," which Miss Lillian Moore favoured the company with. "The Yeoman's Wedding Song," by Miss Hasker, was much appreciated. A humourous reading by Miss Thomas, entitled "Learning to Skate," delighted the audience. Miss Alice Howell rendered a solo in splendid voice, and Miss Clara Bellegham, in her rendition of "Love's Enchantment," was exceedingly well received. A duet by Misses Hasker and Hall closed the programme.

Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies, and the gathering was brought to a close by singing "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem.

The ladies are to be congratulated upon the splendid success of their social.

Brisk Market This Morning

Offering of Farm Produce Was Large and Prices Good.

The market this morning was unusually large. All commendable varieties of farm produce were well represented in the offering. The interior of the market building was crowded at an early hour with vendors of poultry, dairy produce and eggs, and purchasers were equally in evidence.

The offering of poultry was extremely large, and all varieties apparently went at good prices. Geese sold at about $1 each. A considerable number of turkeys were offered at $1.20 and $1.25. Chickens were to be seen in every direction, many large pies disappearing rapidly to purchasers at 65 and 70 cents per pair. Ducks were also quite numerous and brought 90 cents and $1.

The supply of eggs was somewhat limited, and the offering appeared to go quickly at 24 and 25 cents per dozen. Butter was much in evidence, selling at prices ranging from 21 to 25 cents per pound.

On the outside market a principal commodity was beef, which sold at $4, and $3 to $5.50 for fore and hindquarters. Pork was 9 and 10 cents. Apples were offered in fairly large quantities, selling at from $1.50 to $3 per barrel. Potatoes were about 90 cents and $1 per bag.

Local Option Is Defended

An Interesting Debate at Baraca Literary Society Meeting.

Last night the Debating and Literary Society in connection with the Baraca Bible Class of the Murray street Baptist Church, held a most interesting meeting when a debate on the question, "Resolved that local option is the only solution of the liquor problem." The affirmative was taken by Messrs. H. McIlmoyle and J. Hardwick, and the negative by Messrs. Shiner and J. Ellis. Both sides of the question were well debated, and the speakers acquitted themselves very creditably. The decision was however, given to the affirmative.

Rev. F. J. Scott, critic, gave a short address, after the debate, complimenting the speakers on their able presentations of their respective sides.

Mr. Shiner, the president of the Society, presided at the meeting, except during the debate, when Mr. Hall was in the chair.

An Interesting Lecture Given In T.A.S. Hall

Mr. J. H. Burnham, Under the Auspices of the Ladies' Literary Society, Spoke on "Indian Women"—A Scholarly Effort—One of the Largest Crowds in History of the Society Heard Lecture—An Excellent Musical Progaamme Rendered.

AN INTELLECTUAL TREAT AFFORDED

A rare intellectual treat was afforded the Ladies' Literary Association of St. Peter's T.A.S. last evening, when Mr. J. H. Burnham delivered his scholary address on "The Indian Woman."

The very fact that Mr. Burnham was to deliver an address was sufficient to draw forth an appreciative audience to the T.A.S. hall, and the commodious hall last evening was too small to hold the large number of ladies that were in attendance.

Mr. Burnham began by pointing out that the study of the human race in America had led scientists to believe the world over that primeval man existed on this continent. The usual tests applied by ethnologists, viz., those of racial unity and differentiation, unity of language and its subsequent breaking up into dialects, the persistence of type as in shape and structure of head, colour and tissue of hair, shape and position of eyes, together with similarity of religious belief and folk-love and tribal customs, all point irresistibly to the fact that proceeding from one centre the Yellow Race in America (commonly known as the Red Indian) gradually expanded into all parts of the whole continent long before being met by the oncoming rush of the white race in the 16th century. It may best be said at this point that the success of the white race in driving back the original occupants was largely due to the utter inability of the Indian race to nationalize, to their mistaken ideas of the glories of war and of race hatred, and of their failure to meet their conquerors with their own weapons, especially those of greed and duplicity. The virtues of the Red Indian are not mythical, but thoroughly well vouched for. He neither swore nor drank. There is no equivalent for an oath in the Indian language prior to the coming of the white man. Nor had the Indian any means whatever of intoxication or of stupifying himself. You will say that this is a pretty fair foundation. Then the word of an Indian was well known to be, long antedent to beginning of his intercourse with the white man, inviolable, and it is to the everlasting shame of the subjects of Christian kings that it should be they who would introduce common trickery and deceit in making and breaking treaties, in making usurious bargains, and in the ordinary intercourse of everyday life. The Indian would come a long way to redeem his promise, and would pay out only too often all that he had for a drop of the white man's firewater. The date of the introduction of spirits marks the Indian's decline and fall. It undermined his courage and the moral virtues. It ruined him, body and soul. He was unable to resist the temptation of drinking to excess, just as he was unable to resist the smallpox when it came. In order to complete the background of my subject proper, Indian Women, it will be necessary still further to extend these preliminary remarks. In physique the Indian was, as might be expected in a product of the strenuous life, trained in the chase, physically perfect. In muscular development, grace of bodily action and natural dignity of bearing, the bore resemblance to a well-bred race horse, and considered himself just as much entitled to a pedigree as we consider that illustrious animal. The Indian's totem was his heraldic sign. He took just as much pride in it as we do in our Lord Nook. Perhaps we should not be so impatient of the coats-of-arms crests and such things of later days if they were for equally good cause and awalys as hardly obtained. But I am not here to exalt the pedigreed pig at our own expense, but merely to draw your attention to the fact that the Indian had a family and personal pride, without which, like the Greek, the Roman, the Jap and the Englishman, he would have had small incentive to conduct himself in a way befitting his name. It is time that the humble toiler, who weathers temptation and ill-fortune, should be regarded as just as good and just as great — in fact greater than any belted knight. But then do we not always say that we wish we had more like him. Who then can blame those who, by a cheap outward symbol, pretend to possess those qualities, which made their forbearance truly great. This very imitation of the original reality is, as the poet says, the homage we pay to a virtue which we long to possess. The Indian's voice was musical. Above that of all others in the known world was the musical quality of his voice. His songs, although not of great variety, were of infinite tenderness and melody. Here the speaker read a death-song, that he remarked was almost characteristically Japanesque. It was a translation from the Ojibway. "If I have been long in coming to the subject of my discourse you must forgive it, for if I am to praise, as I shall do, the virtues and beauty of the typical Indian maiden, I must prepare you to receive it. Do not think that I am romancing this evening. I have full warrant for all I say."

In cruelty, however, the Indian was a match for the witch-burning Puritan New Englander, but he was not cruel by nature. As a husband he was quite the equal of the pale-face, to say the least of it. The proof of this lies in the fact that so many white girls of the settlements married Indian husbands, and remained with them. This practice had become so general that all sorts of measures were resorted to by the scandalized white men to prevent it. Treatises were written by Bostonians and others upon the best way to fight the undue influence, but it was all of no avail. The Indian maiden had perfect liberty in choosing a husband in nearly all the tribes and the mother of the bride had the last word in the intended son-in-law's reception into the family. The wife had full care of the domestic arrangements, and was as important in the wigwam as her husband in the forest. It is characteristic of the Indian that he should decline to enter into family jars. If his wife was cross, he smiled. If she got unbearable he left her and did not return until she had cooled down. Perhaps the most picturesque of Indian customs was that of blessing the cornfields. Here Mr. Burnham read from the "Song of Hiawatha." The dress, deportment, and general character of Indian women was gone into at some length, showing how fairly, all things considered, it compared with a woman's life today. An anecdote was told of Mrs. Traill's first living amongst the Indians, in this neighbourhood, when she came to Canada in '32. Her experience of the honesty of the Indians, and of the gentleness and happiness of the Indian women, fully bore out the speaker's remarks. The general order and picturesqueness of a lodge of the well-to-do Indian was no doubt considerably enhanced by the dutiful nature of the young, who had much greater respect for their elders than in this age of fads, even the babies partaking of the stoical Indian nature. It must not be supposed that the Indian was not of a happy disposition. In peace, he was full of fun, without roughness, and of playfulness of all descriptions. A lodge of the speaker's acquaintance, even at so late a date as this, bore full testimony to the native politeness of the descendants of the Red Man. It would be impossible to give the lecture in detail, with all its lights and shades, but the reader may gather that Mr Burnham made pretty good use of his time. He closed by reading Bryant's "Indian Maiden's Lament for her Lover."

A very choice programme was presented and each number received a hearty encore.

The following is the programme:

Instrumental solo, Miss Edith Connor.

Vocal solo, Miss Mae Clancy.

Accompanist, Miss McCabe.

Vocal solo, Little Miss Marion Gorman.

Instrumental Duet, The Misses Dorris.

A hearty vote of thanks was moved by Rev. Father McCeil, who in a neat speech, spoke of the pleasure it gave him to listen to Mr. Burnham's lecture. The thanks of the Association was tendered to Mr. Burnham by Miss Kate McGrath, who occupied the chair in a most creditable manner.

The next meeting will be held in a fortnight when Miss M. E. Powers will present an essay on "Literature."

The meeting closed with "God Save the King."

Opening Of The New Shoe Store

The Toronto Shoe Company, the new boot and shoe firm, opened its doors, for the first time in Peterborough, to-day. Although somewhat incomplete in its store arrangements, and orderly details, by the unavoidable hurried opening for Saturday, the premises promise to make a very complete and commodious store. The situation has several advantages, being next to the Market Arcade, George street, formerly occupied by Mr. A. E. Micks, stove dealer, and with entrances off the arcade as well as off George street.

The new store is to be under the practical management of Mr. J. B. Douglass, who recently carried on a progressive shoe business next to Wurne's patent medicine store, and who sold out this lease for a substantial consideration. Several new features will be introduced by the new firm, which will give it extra publicity; and while the quality of the stock will be carefully watched, the prices will aim to be always below regular.

Peterboro's Drinking Water.

The recent test of the water supply in the Town of Peterborough makes it advisable that all water for drinking purposes should be boiled. To make assurance doubly sure it would be better to use for drinking some of the good mineral waters, such as the Santoris Water, bottled in Arnprior, for which A. Bountree is agent.

A Few Things That Norwood Wants to Get

Heeley Falls Power; the Proposed House of Refuge; a Registry Office and a Cheese Board Were a few of the Propositions Discussed at Mass Meeting of Citizens in the Eastern Village Last Night—Several Resolutions Passed.

WILL PETITION COUNTY COUNCIL

A large and representative meeting of Norwood citizens was held last night in the Town Hall in that village. The meeting was arranged to consider the building of the proposed County House of Refuge, and to secure its location at Norwood, if possible. As the result of considerable discussion the views of the meeting were embodied in a resolution, which is given below, providing for the sending of a delegation to present the claims of the village before the County Council at it's next meeting on Dec. 1st. A further purpose of the meeting was to consider the possibility of securing power from Healey Falls. The chair was occupied by Mr. E. P. Cuffe, chairman of the Board of Trade.

Mr. Cuffe briefly addressed the meeting expressing the opinion that some substantial effort should be made by the citizens of Norwood to secure the House of Refuge, and also, if possible to arrange for the transmission of power for lighting and industrial purposes from Healey Falls, remarking upon the impossibility of Norwood successfully competing, industrially, against other villages in the district, owing to it's inadequate power facilities.

Mr. J. L. Squire also remarked upon the same subject expressing a similar view. Speaking with regard to the House of Refuge, Mr. Squire remarked that the Government insists upon the building of a House of Refuge by the County and Norwood had a claim equally as good as Peterborough to it, in the event of it's erection. Some reasons advanced by the speaker as the advisability of building it in Norwood were the lower price of land, and the fact that it could be maintained at a cost considerably less. Labour and material would also be cheaper. These claims should be put before the County Council.

Mr. John Finlay, M.P., said that the House of Refuge had been spoken of for several years. A place should be provided for the poor of the County other than the jail. He thought it probable that the Government would grant a sum of $4,000. As to the electric power, it would not, be continued, be of much benefit to him, personally, as steam was largely utilized for manufacturing purposes in his factory. He would, however, use cheaper power in a small way, if it were available.

Mr. W. T. Buck, Warden of the County, expressed the opinion that immediate action was imperative with regard to the House of Refuge, in view of the Government's attitude. While he thought the Government would grant the $4,000, a site of forty acres of land would have to be provided. Joint action between the city of Peterborough and the County Council had been considered. Mr. Buck pointed out that the bequest made by the late Mrs. Jas. Foley was to the widows of the county, and that the city of Peterborough held a half-interest in this.

Reeve Pakenham and Dr. Robertson also expressed their views with regard to the matter. Both speakers thought that if it was considered to be in the best interests of the village, the best efforts should be put forth to secure it. Mr. Pakenham pointed out that the supplies for the proposed institution would probably be purchased by tender. If the village was required to raise a bonus, caution should be observed as to what steps were taken. Dr. Robertson thought that unless other county buildings were secured for Norwood do, personally, would not favour the proposition. A good committee should be appointed to investigate, and if the advantages to be gained were such as to warrant action, that action should be prompt.

Mr. J. L. Squire expressed the opinion that a united effort should be made by the councils of Belmont, Methuen, Dummer, Asphodel, Norwood and Havelock to advance the interests of the East Riding along these lines.

Mr. Chas. O'Reilly thought the securing of the House of Refuge would be of advantage to Norwood. The sale of supplies by local dealers would be large and profitable. He favoured a committee to wait upon the the county council.

Mr. P. W. Stephenson thought that the East Riding of Peterborough should be granted a Registry Office. The proposition appeared to be well received by the meeting.

Resolutions.

A resolution was then moved by Mr. C. O'Reilly, seconded by Mr. John Finlay, M.P., that a representative committee from the Belmont, Dummer, Asphodel, Norwood and Havelock be appointed to wait upon the county council when it was expedient to do so, to urge the claims of the village of Norwood with regard to the House of Refuge. To Mr. E. P. Cuffe was delegated the duty of secretary of the committee. The following committee was appointed: Messrs. E. P. Cuffe, J. H. Pearce, J. L. Squire, J. Finlay, M.P., and Dr. Ford, to draft a petition of claims to be forwarded to the county council at its next meeting, and that the above-named committee be empowered to advise Mr. Cuffe, chairman of the Board of Trade, as to the personnel of the representative committee of the East Riding, and that the matter of the Registry Office be also taken up.

Healey Falls Power.

A considerable discussion followed upon the matter of the Healey Falls' power, in which the manifold advantages which would be gained by securing it were pointed out.

A resolution, moved by Reeve Pakenham, seconded by Mr. J. Finlay, M.P., was passed expressing approval of the action of the Provincial Government in declining to grant the request of the delegation from Northumberland and Durham to confire the transmission of power from Healey Falls to these counties alone.

"I was eight months an invalid," says Mrs. Adams, "and no one can tell what I suffered. My doctor said I had Bright's Disease and Sciatica, but I got no relief from anything he gave me. At last a friend of my husband induced me to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. I had no faith in them, for I thought I never would get better, but after taking three boxes of them I was able to do my work. I have had good health ever since I used Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Mr. W. A. Buchanan, Formerly of This City, Writes to the Globe—Interesting Comparisons Made—Alberta's Capital to Hold the Title—Growth in All Lines—Activity in Real Estate—Rents Too High—Future of City.

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS WILL BE ERECTED

Mr. W. A. Buchanan, a former resident of this city, now living in Edmonton, Alta., writes an interesting letter to the Toronto Globe in which he gives some information about that progressive city. He says, in part:

Down east people shiver and turn up their coat collars when they think of Edmonton. To hear them talk you would imagine the capital of Alberta was about a half-mile from the arctic circle. A man here told me the other day that when he asks an easterner to come west to this city and accept a position he invariably receives a letter in reply asking him how cold it is. Somehow or other Edmonton and intense cold are synonymous.

I am not retained to boom Edmonton, but, truth to tell, as far as I have experienced it, the weather here is even better, at this time of year, anyway, than in the east. I came here on the 9th of November and have been here since. In the week it was positively too warm for a fall overcoat, the sun shone warmly every day, ladies appeared on the streets in shirt waist suits, and the man who came up from the east with a furlined coat or a coonskin wondered why he brought it. On the evening of November 8 the Conservatives held a public meeting in the open air. How many people would stand in the open air in the east on that day and listen to political speeches? True, the speeches, especially if uttered by William Findlay Maclean, would not attract them, but the atmosphere, if I mistake not, would repel them.

Growth is Remarkable.

As for Edmonton itself, it is a wonderful city. "When I came here five years ago," remarked Mr. Anderson, Manager of the Union Bank, "the population was 2,500. To-day it is, I believe, ten thousand." That is remarkable growth, especially when we consider that even at this moment Edmonton has not a railway. Lots of folks in the east may not be aware of that fact, but it is true nevertheless. However, before this letter appears the Canadian Northern will be at Edmonton. The rails are now being laid from Fort Saskatchewan west. The station, a very neat, commodious structure, is nearly completed.

Many Professional Men.

The professions are completely crowded, and new doctors and lawyers are coming in daily. At the present time there are twenty-seven lawyers practising in the city, and none of them appear to be dissatisfied. Two new banks, the Molsons and the Northern, are said to be coming in before the year closes. With these additions there will be eight banks in the place. The Merchants' Bank is building a magnificent new office of brick, three stories high. The Bank of Commerce and the Bank of Montreal are in their new quarters, and I question if they can be excelled in any city of the east.

The Hon. A. W. Morris, late Provincial treasurer of Quebec, is here at present, and it is said he represents an eastern syndicate, which proposes to erect several business blocks and a large apartment house. The latter is needed. Houses cannot be secured for rent at any reasonable figure. A "shack," with sitting room, dining room and two bedrooms, rented the other day for $25 a month. Think of that, ye people of Toronto, who are complaining of house rents!

The Oriental's Football Menu

Handsome and Original Card of The Oriental.

A clever little conceit, and typographically dainty, was the menu card of to-day's dinner at the Oriental Hotel. It was of a souvenir character, specially designed in honour of the visiting Durdins Rugbyists.

Over a delicate blue design of a rugby player in a strenuous attire, is printed the cleverly conceived legend of the card in red, as follows:—

Vegetable Soup

Olives (Lettuce

Boiled Lake Trout de Champlorship (Pommes O.R.F.U.)

Boiled Ox Tongue, Rouge Sauce

Game Saute au Touchdown

Lamb Pot Pie, Snapback Style

Corn Fritters, Punt Sauce a la Shaw

Roast Sirloin of Beef au Buck the Line

Spring Chicken a la Dundas

Loin of Veal, Quarterback Dressing

Signal Salad de End Run

Baked and Mashed Potatoes.

Green Peas Stewed Tomatoes

Rugby Pudding, Peterborough Sauce

Mince Pie, Apple Pie, Rhubarb Pie

Cameron Jelly, Nelson Ice Cream

Coffee, Tea, Nuts, Raisins

Intermediate O.R.F.U. Championship—Dundas vs. Peterborough.

Sixty rifles were seized by the police last night in a raid on a house near San Juan de Hantnez, province of Pinar del Rio, in which 50 anti-government plotters were meeting. A dozen of the latter were captured. Col. Julian Cruiz, a prominent citizen of Pinar del Rio and at present in Havana, has been arrested with the anti-government and will be taken to Pinar del Rio for trial.

Profits Earned By the New York Life Insurance Company.

DESTINATION OF THE MONEY

George W. Perkins and Andrew Hamilton Received Large Payments Which Were Not Accounted For—Queer Financial Transactions Unearthed — Where King Came In For Wealth.

New York, Nov. 25.—Startling developments were brought out at yesterday's session of the Armstrong committee on insurance investigation in the course of a minute inquiry by Charles E. Hughes, counsel to the committee, into the syndicate transactions participated in by the New York Life Insurance Co. The most important witness of the day was Milton M. Madison, a bookkeeper of the New York Life Insurance Co., during whose examination it was brought out that in the case of the United States Steel Corporation Syndicate, the managers of which were J. P. Morgan & Co., there appeared in one instance a profit due to the New York Life of $87,187, from which was deducted, no reason being given, the sum of $59,310, paid to Andrew Hamilton, who has been described in the course of the investigation as "the insurance legislative generalissimo."

Pressed by Mr. Hughes to tell whether he knew of any other instance of money due the New York Life being paid to a third party, Mr. Madison recalled the payment in 1904 of $40,000 to George W. Perkins, representing the profit on a loan of $930,000 to the Boston firm of Kidder, Peabody & Co. The profit, witness said, came in the form of a cheque on the First National Bank, which he cashed and gave the money to Mr. Perkins. What the latter did with it the witness did not know. No entry of the transaction was made on the books of the New York Life.

Gerald Brown, in charge of the bond department of the Equitable, produced a list of the tenants of the Equitable building at 120 Broadway. Mr. Hughes looked the list over and then asked the witness if he thought the rentals were adequate. Mr. Brown replied that he considered the rental of the Mercantile Safe Deposit Co. was inadequate. He also thought that the Equitable Trust Co. rental of $20,000 a year was inadequate.

Mr. Brown said, in reply to questions, that the King Model Houses on 138th street, New York, were taken by the Equitable Society under a foreclosure, sold to H. H. King, Jr., and that the Equitable Society supplied $3,100,000 for construction and improvements. The society held a mortgage on the houses and when completed Mr. King deeded them back. Mr. Brown said he supposed King "was there" to make a profit in sub-letting the contracts.

"The Equitable put up all the money and King took all the profit?" asked Mr. Hughes.

"Yes, if you want to put it that way," said Mr. Brown.

"What offices are responsible for this transaction?"

"The executive committee," said Mr. Brown.

Grocers' Actions Are Welcomed By Commission

Light Let In At Hamilton to Tariff Commission.

SENSATION AT THE INQUIRY

Grocers' Wholesale Co. Lifts the Lid Covering the Wholesale Grocers' Guild, Which They Said Controlled the Output of the Redpath Sugar Refinery—Affects Canning and Starch Industries.

Hamilton, Nov. 25.—The Tariff Commissioners spent a busy day yesterday with the manufacturers of the city. They will complete their work here Saturday at noon. The stove manufacturers put up a strong plea for more protection. They complained that there had been an extraordinary increase during the past two years in the number of stoves imported from the United States. They complained particularly of the way the Americans were cutting into the trade of the west. One reason was that the American enjoyed more favorable freight rates.

The Grocers' Wholesale Co. made the most startling claim. They said that they had been refused goods by the Redpath Sugar Refinery, which said that its whole output was controlled by the Wholesale Grocers' Guild, and that it would be necessary for the wholesale grocers to join that guild to get goods. The starch manufacturers, canners of vegetables, and so forth had been forced by the guild to decline orders from the wholesale grocers, and for this reason the grocers asked that all these articles should be placed on the free list.

A large number of individual firms preferred requests affecting their businesses, some for more duty and some for none at all.

BROKE LIFE CABLE.

Delayed Work of Rescue From Steamer Argo Aground on Sandbar.

Holland, Mich., Nov. 25.—During a terrific storm on Lake Michigan Thursday night the steamer Argo went hard aground on a sandbar.

Owing to the heavy sea which is running it is impossible for the life-saving crew to reach the steamer, and it was decided to remove the endangered passengers with the breeches' buoy. At 1 o'clock the cable used to haul the breeches' buoy parted, fortunately while the buoy was being hauled back to the steamer for another passenger. At the time this accident occurred there were seven passengers and the crew of 22 men remaining on the Argo.

The life-saving crew again took to their surf-boat, and the last man of the crew of the steamer Argo has been brought ashore. Capt. Stewart is still on the steamer, which, unless speedy aid comes, will surely go to pieces. The Argo is a steel steamer of 740 net tons, 178 feet long, and 31 feet in beam. She is valued at $80,000.

Sunday Cigar Selling.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—The charge against Thomas Skeasy, an employe of the Empire Hotel, for selling cigars on Sunday was dismissed by Magistrate Kingsford yesterday. The magistrate said that if his employer used his services in a lawful manner, he is entitled to be discharged; that a hotelkeeper does not come under the prohibited Sunday clauses; that if the hotelkeeper were charged with a breach of the act by selling cigars to his guests on Sunday the charge would fail. The bona fide guests of a hotel are as much entitled to smoke as eat. The case was instituted by the morality department at the instigation of the Lord's Day Alliance.

The deceased, who was 35 years of age, leaves a widow and three small children.

The Premier's Promise Not To Act Hastily

Will Balfour Act Since the Cabinet Council.

NO STATEMENT BY MINISTRY

Marquis of Londonderry Has Not Resigned — Collective Resignation of Cabinet Turned Down, and Ministry Will Likely Hold On Till Dissolution and Go to the Country —Balfour's Movements.

London, Nov. 25.—Yesterday's Cabinet Council, which, although not originally summoned for that purpose, had to decide the question of the resignation or temporary prolonging of the retention of office by the Balfour Ministry, was attended by all the members, with the exception of the Marquis of Salisbury, president of the Board of Trade.

The Ministers have not yet given any intimation of the actual date of the dissolution and appeal to the constituencies.

It is understood that the proposal for the collective resignation of the Cabinet was rejected and that the Ministers arrived at the decision that it would be better to dissolve Parliament themselves and appeal to the electorate. Should this course be followed it would be largely due to the well-grounded belief that the Liberals would decline to form a Cabinet before a general election places them in possession of an adequate Parliamentary majority to carry out the Liberal program.

All doubt as to whether or not the Marquis of Londonderry had consented to remain in the Cabinet was dispelled later by a statement from the Minister himself to the effect that he had not resigned.

It is officially intimated that no statement regarding the decision of the Cabinet will be issued by the Ministers, but the fact that Mr. Balfour left London last night until Monday and the additional fact that Mr. Balfour 78 the additional fact that he is not going to Sandringham to see the King is taken as a confirmation of the understanding that the Premier and his colleagues have decided against a precipitate resignation.

Change In Foreign Policy.

London, Nov. 25.—It is officially announced this evening that Sir Thomas Henry Sanderson, permanent Under Secretary of the Foreign Office, since 1894, will retire early next year, and that he will be succeeded by Sir Chas. Hardinge, now British Ambassador to Russia.

PEACE TREATY DRAGS.

Omission of Three Words Prevents Its Final Ratification.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 25.—The hitch in the exchange of the final ratification of the peace treaty is explained here as being due to the omission of three words in the French and English texts and a slight discrepancy in the translation of a phrase in one of the articles. Russia does not regard the matter as material.

Russian advices from Pekin regarding the China-Japanese negotiations regarding Manchuria indicate that Japan does not desire to relinquish her influence in the Chinese administration of the northern province, insisting on the appointment of a fiscal adviser to the Chinese Governor of Mukden.

Witte Cabinet Satisfied.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 25.—The Witte Cabinet appears to be fairly satisfied with the definition by the Zemstvo Congress of its attitude towards the Government, believing that it will produce a good impression on the Conservative sentiment throughout the country and materially aid the Premier in successfully accomplishing his task of finding a common ground between the reactionists and malcontents.

Agitation Gains Strength.

Tokio, Nov. 25.—The agitation against the Government for its non-abrogation of martial law and its suppression of the liberties of the press, is gaining strength. Many sympathizers with the opposition party can be found even among the members of the House of Peers.

KILLED WIFE, SAYS HAMMOND.

Boston Murderer Believed to Have Fled to Canada.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 25.—John Hammond, the missing husband of the woman whose strangled and decomposed body was found here Thursday wedged in a trunk in their home, is said by the police to have confessed more than a week ago to his brother-in-law, a Cohoes man named Magini, that he had killed his wife.

Magini was arrested at Cohoes yesterday morning, and under a searching examination by the police, admitted, they say, that Hammond told him of the murder on Tuesday, Nov. 14, when Hammond appeared at Cohoes. At Hammond's request, Magini says, he accompanied him to Rouse's Point, and there left him on his way to Canada.

The Cohoes police yesterday afternoon declared that they had definite information that Hammond is in or near Montreal.

Robert Hill Takes Exceptions To Letter

And a Writ is Issued Against James Dewart for Statements Contained in a Letter Published in These Columns—Case Will Probably Come Up for Trial at Spring Assizes—Some Inside History Into the Events Preceeding the Now Famous Dummer Tragedy.

As was noted in the Examiner on Thursday, a writ has been issued by Mr. Robt. Hill, of Dummer, against James Dewart, for damages for a letter published in these columns during September. The letter to which exception was taken was as follows:

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Seeing that papers are stocked with false assertions which the Hills have made, we have taken the opportunity to reply in order to not have the community misled by these absurd stories.

In order that the public may know the truth we will have to commence at an early period.

Hill bought the farm joining the farm Hill bought the farm joining the farm on which he now resides and moved into the neighbourhood. A few years later he married Ada Dewart, greatly against the wishes of all her people. During the following few years he got along fairly well with the neighbours through the influence of his wife. From that time forward Hills have been in trouble at different intervals with some neighbours and many times at law.

Hill's family were now growing up quickly and showed a disposition to follow in the footsteps of their father.

Things went on like this until about seven years ago, when Hills accused different parties of milking their cows and finally settledit on Samuel Kavanagh and Robert Golloher and wife. Now theses aid parties resided close to Hills and later on entered a suit for one thousand dollars for defamation of character.

The suit progressed and Hills saw plainly that it was going against them. He went to John Dewart, and told him he must buy the farm in order to save it for him. After much hesitation, he, on account of who they were, consented to the request (much to his sorrow to-day.) John Dewart kept the deed of Hill's farm until a year ago last July. Hill came and asked the farm back, which he gave back, without asking any remuneration. This is all the dealings John Dewart ever had with Hill concerning land and I emphatically deny that he ever wanted to buy Hill's farm.

Now for several years Hill and Henry Murphy, whose farms joined, were continually at variance. Mr. Murphy having a farm on each side of Hill. About this time troubles between Hill and his neighbours came thick and fast.

One night Mr. Murphy had six head of cattle die in a very mysterious way and when Mr. Murphy and neighbours calculated were poisoned, as were also two valuable dogs.

About this time the Dewart boys settled north of Hills. Hills had no neighbours, excepting Dewarts, and it was only through their aid that Hills succeeded in threshing.

Now the Dewart boys were on friendly terms with all parties, but Hill thought on account of having no neighbours, Dewarts should side with him, which they refused to do, and remained neutral.

Henry Murphy then stated that it was impossible to live beside Hills as he and Mrs. Murphy were alone and Hills had a large family. So he disposed of his two farms, one to Hill and the other to his son, Jas. Murphy, opposite the Dewart boys. At this time Hills were known to say that he would not stand long, which proved to be the truth, for James Murphy moved out in a year's time. Samuel Kavanagh also moved out, leaving his place vacant, and soon after Robert Gallagher left. All the neighbours emphatically declare that they would have remained where they were only for Hill.

Now, when Hills wanted to thresh that year they found it hard to get a mill, let alone hands. However, with the assistance of the Dewarts Hills managed to get the Ferguson Bros. to thresh for them. After the threshing a dispute arose about the pay, which ended in a law suit between the said parties.

Then Hills came to Dewart boys and wanted them to go down to Norwood court day and help them fight the Fergusons, which thing they refused to do, but told them to go and pay the Fergusons what they owed them. This was the beginning of a quarrel between Dewarts and Hill. In the year 1904, Hill asked permission to drive cattle through Dewart's farm night and morning all summer, which request was refused. This ended neighbouring between Dewarts and Hills. After which Hill was heard to say if Dewarts did not neighbour with them, they would not allow Dewarts to remain in the neighbourhood long. Directly after this Hill came to John Dewart to get the farm back, and John Dewart complied with his wishes. At this time the Dewart boys were, and are yet, on friendly terms with the people in the neighbourhood, excepting Hills. In less than a week after Hill got his farm back Dewart boys got a beast shot, and not a week later four or five head of cattle which were believed to be poisoned; also a dog and pig shot the same summer.

In the spring of 1903 John Murphy, who lives south of the Hill homestead, rented the farm belonging to Mr. Jas. Murphy. This left him with land on both sides of the Hills. Seventeen years ago John Murphy and Hills disagreed, and Murphy said he would have nothing to do with Hill, and he has had no neighbouring with him since. On account of now living in close proximity to him this was impossible, so since then, till the present time, Murphys and Dewarts have had to put up with what Hills did, and they have found this no slight thing, as both parties have in different ways suffered.

With regard to Hill's statement that he thought Dewart boys wished to purchase their farm, I wish to give this an absolute denial, as no such proposition was ever mentioned by us.

Two Residents of Dummer in An Encounter

An Interesting Case Was Tried in Lakefield--Edward Hamblin Charged With Assault—Case Was Tried by John Hull—Lawyers in Repartee—Mr. F. D. Kerr, of This City, Acted for Defendant—A Nominal Fine Imposed.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES ARE EXPLAINED

Mr. Edward Hamblin of Dummer, appeared before John Hull, J.P., in the Lakefield Town Hall on Wednesday morning last, to answer a charge of assault preferred by Francis Lawnsborough, also of Dummer. It appears from the evidence that these gentlemen had not been on the most friendly terms for some time past and and that the unfriendly relation culminated in a row in Richard Batten's barn last Saturday, when Hamblin proceeded to thrash Lawnsborough. Hamblin, through his counsel, claimed in court that Lawnsborough had to effect challenged him out and therefore in law it was no assault. A conviction was directed against Mr. Hamblin and he was fined $1 and costs. When the Magistrate decided that he ought to convict, Mr. Kerr, acting for Mr. Hamblin, asked that the fine be made a light one, and amongst other things the following gentle repartee was passed between the opposing lawyers:—

Mr. Kerr—"It is just such a scrape as everyone gets into sometimes. I am sure my learned friend in boyhood has had his fights."

Mr. Langley—"I never struck a man when he was down."

Mr. Kerr—"Perhaps you were never on top."

Mr. Langley—"I'm on top this this time."

Mr. Kerr—"Oh I refer to disticuffs.'

Mr. Langley appeared for the prosecution and Mr. F. D. Kerr for the defence.—Lakefield News.

Prominent Member Of The Woodmen

The Canadian Woodman in a recent issue contained the following reference to a local clergyman:—

Rev. E. Langfeldt, M.A., Rector of St. Luke's Church, Peterborough, is an enthusiastic and highly esteemed member of our order. He is one of the leading clergymen in eastern Ontario, and possesses a bright, energetic disposition which makes him popular, not only with the members of his own faith, but many other classes in the community.

Rev. Langfeldt was born in Custrow, Mecklenburg, Germany, some forty-six years ago.

Rev. Langfeldt had charge of the parish of Omemee for three years and was called to his important duties in this city over four years ago. He is an interesting personality in that any thing he has to do or say is instantly carried out. He is a man of fearless utterance, high principle and splendid ideas. He speaks from conviction, and as a preacher he is fluent, strong and impressive. Rev. Langfeldt in his sermons touches on many live subjects, and is unsparing in his denunciation of many besetting sins and evils of the present day. HERPICIDE PRODUCES MARVELLOUS RESULTS

"the original remedy that kills the dandruff germ."

THE HERPICIDE COMPANY, DETROIT, MICH.

I am sending you my photograph to show what Newbro's Herpicide has done for me. Since I first tested it thoroughly on my own hair, I have used it exclusively in giving scalp treatments, and with wonderful success. I would not think of trying to get along without it.

Yours sincerely,

Hair and scalp specialist, MRS. ANNA CONNOR,
No. 2807 Archer Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

The natural beauty and abundance of this lady's hair is a striking illustration of what Herpicide will accomplish, and this is only one of the thousands of letters that the Herpicide Company have on file from people all over the world, who are pleased to tell of the marvellous results obtained by the use of Herpicide.

The Only Positive Safeguard Against Baldness is in the use of known throughout the world as "the original remedy that kills the dandruff germ." Herpicide is a new, scientific, non-irritant germicide and peophylactic for the scalp—and positively cures dandruff, stops falling hair and prevents baldness. No one wants to lose their hair and it is a mighty serious matter to contemplate. Well, way trifle with unknown or so-called Hair Growers, when you are absolutely guaranteed that Herpicide will not only save what hair you have, but will restore it to its natural luxuriance. It is the dandruff germ, which infests the scalp, that causes the hair to fall out. Herpicide will eradicate this microbic disease of the scalp and protect it against re-infection, and your hair will then grow as nature intended. NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE has reached the pinnacle of fame as a hair preparation and enjoys a distinction strictly its own. As a Hair Dressing—Herpicide is truly exquiste on account of its dainty and refreshing odor which is characteristic—it beautifies the hair and leaves it soft, glossy, light and fluffy—it contains no oil, grease or sedimentary substance, neither does it stain nor dye the hair.

and a very serious one, for it leads sooner or later to chronic baldness, which is incurable. The disease must be treated in a thoughtful, persistent and scientific manner. The dandruff germ must be destroyed and kept out of the scalp with NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE, because it is the only remedy that will actually kill the dandruff germ.

Safety and Stability Of Canadian Life Assurance

The demand is made in some quarters for an investigation of the condition and methods of Canadian life insurance companies and for changes that will give greater security for policy holders. This is, perhaps, a natural result of what has happened in New York; though it is not noted that the New York example is being followed in other states, and does not seem to be contemplated in Connecticut, which has within its bounds in the city of Hartford one of the principal insurance centres in the world. There are several things in connection with a life insurance company into which enquiry may be made. First, as concerns the public, there is the sufficiency of its assets to meet its actual liabilities as set forth on the face of the policies it has issued. Connected with this is the nature of the investments it has made. Both these are now taken notice of by the Government through the insurance branch of the Department of Finance. The returns the companies are called on to make cover all their liabilities and include a detailed list of investments, with the cost price, the mark t value and the book value of each holding of bonds or stock. In connection with these holdings the law is fairly strict, though in some regards it might be improved, and the directors of a company are personally responsible for any loss that may arise from an unauthorized investment. The superintendent of insurance should be able to tell by a study of these returns, just what the position of a company is. He, with his expert knowledge, is better qualified to make an enquiry, where it is needed, and to recommend action, where it is desirable, than would be a parliamentary committee, the majority of whose members would be dealing with what they, at most, could only partially understand. The same remarks may be made in regard to the other likely subjects for enquiry, the integrity of the management and the expense of administration. The latter, in the case of some companies especially, seems unduly high. For this the excuse is made that the companies were compelled to meet the competition of the big United States concerns which threatened to rob them of their best agents. But in regard to this, the facts are known. Whoever takes up the insurance returns can see for himself how much each company received as premiums, how much it got from investments, how much it paid to policy holders, how much to stockholders and how much for general expenses. An enquiry in this connection would not show anything more than is now published, except, of course, as regards details, which, however, would be interesting rather than instructive. It is intimated that the Insurance Act may be revised at the coming session of Parliament. Mr. Fitzgerald, the superintendent of insurance, has twice recently in his annual reports recommended such action. Before joining in the varied demands that are being made and so adding to the confusion of an awkward situation, those in responsible positions would do well to wait the Government's action and explanations thereof. They can afford to do this, because there has been nothing shown, even in New York, to establish that life insurance policies issued in Canada have lost any of their value, that the security behind them is insufficient; or that there is any reason for shunning life insurance as an investment. —Montreal Gazette.

Why Tea Quality Varies

YOU know how the quality of strawberries from the same patch will sometimes vary from one day to another.

One day sweet, compact, well ripened, well colored, richly flavored—next day it rains, is cloudy,—following picking is soggy, sour, green, coarsely-flavored, poor.

Tea, also, on account of its volatility of flavor, after picking and during the curing process is very susceptible to weather changes. A few hours of sunshine or bad weather after picking may make the difference between good and poor tea.

So that while one picking may be first class, the next from the same garden may be very poor.

I select only the pickings which come up to the Red Rose standards of richness and strength in Indian, and delicacy and fragrance in Ceylon teas, and thus that "rich, fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea is produced and maintained.

CENTRAL PRISON LABOR.

Government Gets 50 Cents Per Day Per Man Employed.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—The Central Prison binder twine works has been handed over by the Ontario Government to the Colonial Cordage Co., a new firm. The company, it is understood, has contracted with the Government to pay 50 cents per man per day for the prisoners who are employed. This is looked upon by the Provincial Secretary as a better bargain than the old contract of so much per ton for the output. The old contract was held by the Independent Cordage Co. for several years. This company vacated the premises early this month.

Croup Absolutely Cured.

"There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup absolutely in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face with choking. It gave him instant relief and cure." — Mr. William McGee, 49 Wright avenue, Toronto, Ont.

New York, Nov. 24.—On a bid of $21,000, Cresceus, 2.02 1-4, the champion of trotting stallions, was sold Wednesday afternoon at Fasig-Tipton Co.'s horse auction in Madison Square Garden to M. W. Savage, of Minneapolis, Minn., who owns the former champion, Directum, and the famous pacer Dan Patch.

Fined $50; Made His Own Cigarette.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 24.—Patrick Raymond, aged 18, was arrested yesterday while lighting a cigarette which he had just rolled for his own use in the presence of a city detective. He was fined $50 and costs. This is the lightest penalty prescribed by the law for "manufacturing cigarettes.

Rockefeller Is Summoned.

New York, Nov. 24.—Subpoenaes were issued yesterday for John D. Rockefeller, Henry H. Rogers, Henry M. Flagler, and other financiers, to appear as witnesses in the two suits pending in Missouri to oust the Standard Oil Co. and two other companies from doing business in that state.

W. S. MANNING OF ALBANY.

"Cantankerous Friend" Tells of Some Profitable Insurance Ventures.

New York, Nov. 24.—It was late in the afternoon yesterday when Chas. E. Hughes, counsel of the Legislative Insurance Investigation Committee, called to the witness chair Wm. S. Manning of Albany, referred to in letters addressed by John A. Nichols to Senator Chauncey M. Depew at a previous session as the "cantankerous friend up the river."

Mr. Manning was the most interesting witness of the day, and was closely question by Mr. Hughes. He detailed his work for various companies for many years, and worked gradually up to the time when he took up insurance work in Albany, and, as he testified, was paid $450 a year by John A. Nichols "to protect life insurance interests, always in the interests of business, but in the interest of officers."

After several years, he said, this amount was reduced to $300. He did not know where Mr. Nichols was getting the money, said had never inquired. He denied he had ever received money from the Equitable Life. When his fee was reduced, however, he said, he understood that the Equitable, the Mutual Life, and the New York Life had each paid $150, and that the reduction was due to the fact that the New York Life had dropped out of the agreement.

An interesting part of his testimony was reached when Mr. Hughes inquired concerning the state insurance investigation of 1877. Manning said he acted as an expert then, and found that the reports of the proceedings were "garbled and untrue." He secured a corrected report of the proceedings from the official stenographer, and had a volume printed, the alleged garbled parts being printed in italics. This report was sold to some insurance companies for $50 a copy. The volume was copyrighted, but Mr. Manning declined to admit that this copyright was secured to prevent the publication of testimony contained in the work. He denied also that he had ever made arrangements with insurance companies to stop the publication of this book. "I just gave it up," he said, when Mr. Hughes inquired.

MENDING THE TARIFF.

Farmers Request That No Rebates Or Bonuses Be Given—Strong Denunciation of Manufacturers.

Chatham, Nov. 24.—The Tariff Commission opened for business here yesterday morning at a little after 10 o'clock in the civic chambers.

The commissioners were addressed by representatives of the various farmers' associations who presented certain demands and requests including ad valorem tariffs, and that no commodity be favored by rebates or bonuses. Some manufacturers, they were of belief, had too much protection, while others who stood in need of it had not enough.

"Robbers, nothing more or less," was the way in which Thomas Barnes of Ridgetown referred to the manufacturers. The difference was that their appropriation of other people's property was not done at the point of the pistol.

"Don't keep us farmers on the Indian list," pleaded Mr. Barnes. Give us a chance to buy where we want to buy. If the manufacturers are not self-supporting, it's time the country were rid of them."

Maintains Free Trade Attitude.

Even when the duty on fruits and tobacco, suggested by farming interests, were mentioned, Mr. Barnes maintained his free trade attitude.

"If business is not self-sustaining," he maintained, "it is not in the right place, or the people at the head of do not know how to conduct it."

Mr. Fielding referred to the interesting fact that the demand for highest protection yet received came from the farmers, who asked on certain grades of tobacco a protection of 300 per cent. "In speaking of manufacturers moving," said Mr. Paterson, "we must not lose sight of the fact that when an established industry fails it is not the manufacturer alone who suffers, but hundreds who have been employed by him. Any violent changes upsetting conditions have to be carefully considered by those responsible."

David Wilson of Morpeth said that the average return to the farmer in the district was 2 per cent. on the money invested.

MISERABLE NIGHTS.

Nothing so demoralizes an infant and enslaves the parents as to take a cross or wakeful baby from the bed and walk him up and down the floor during the night. The baby cries because it is not well — generally because its stomach is sour, its little bowels congested and its skin hot and feverish. Relieve this and baby will sleep soundly all night, growing stronger and better every day. Just what mothers need to keep baby healthy and make him sleep soundly is Baby's Own Tablets, which cure all stomach, bowel and teething troubles, and thus promote natural health-giving sleep. Mrs. William Holmes, Dacre, Ont., says: "My baby was troubled with sour stomach and was constipated most of the time, and was always cross and restless. I gave him Baby's Own Tablets, and found them a complete success and would not now be without them." You can get Baby's Own Tablets from any druggist or by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Peterborough Canoes On The Zambesi

Prof. Coleman, M.A., Ph. D., in a Lecture Says Africans Use Canoes Made in This City—One of the Factors in Making Peterborough Known in All the World — An Interesting Illustrated Lecture in Toronto Yesterday.

A DISTINCT HONOUR FOR LOCAL PRODUCT

The Victoria Falls of the Zambesi, in their entrancing beauty and impressive grandeur, were brought realistically before a large audience in the Biological Building, Toronto, last evening in an illustrated lecture by Prof. A. P. Coleman, M.A., Ph.D., who last summer in company with Dr. Macallum and one or two others visited the Falls.

The occasion was the annual open meeting of the Natural Science Association. Dr. V. E. Henderson, M.A., M.B., presided.

The views showed the wonderful Victoria Falls from many points, giving a good idea of their grandeur, the great volume of water pouring at times through the deep gorge and the zig-zag channel below, the luxuriant vegetation in some parts, particularly the "Rain Gorge," and the bare desert appearances of other districts, with only baobabs and shrublike trees; the deep chasm, 150 to 200 feet, and below the falls even 400 or 500 feet deep; the fine bridge of 500 feet span and 400 feet above the water; Livingstone's Island; the curtain of small streams falling over or cutting their way down over the basaltic lava ledges.

One picture was of a dozen Barotsi boatmen in a Canadian canoe, and Dr. Coleman remarked that the Africans there use almost entirely Peterborough canoes.

Comparing the Victoria Falls with Niagara, Professor Coleman said that the former can nowhere be seen in one view, as Niagara can from many points, but they were notable in their beauty and possessed the tremendous advantage of being unmarred as Niagara is in too many places—by factories or buildings of any kind, but in their natural surroundings with only a path cut to enable the traveller to go about. The river was shallow in most places, and Falls seemed rather like a placid lake; but the many streams pouring into the great abyss formed the sight of a life time. Each of the cataracts had its own unique beauty and charm, and as the Victoria was not in Canada the professor remarked that he was "glad it was still in the British Empire."

Four Bridal Parties Meet

There was a busy scene at the G. T. R. station last night on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from Toronto. No less than four bridal parties were passengers on that train. Two couples came here from the west, and two left on the train for the south. The baggageman had a pretty busy time, too. About 115 drunks were taken on that train, principally travellers' samples.

Leading Montreal society ladies, who had volunteered to act as patronesses of Miss Olga Nethersole's special matinee to-day in aid of Queen Alexandra's London poor relief fund, sent word to the actress that they would have to withdraw their patronage unless the second act of The Labyrinth, announced as part of the programme, be cut out. Miss Nethersole expressed great astonishment, but consented to substitute something else in order that nothing might interfere with the main object of the performance.

The Mainspring of the body

Health Depends On The Blood—and "Fruit-a-tives" Insure Pure, Rich Blood.

Correct time hinges on the mainspring of your watch. Gold cases and jeweled monograms look handsome—but it is the homely old steel mainspring that sends you to work on time, and prevents you from missing the train.

Blood is the body's mainspring. People lose arms and legs—eyes and ears—even the entire stomach. But you've got to have good red blood, to have good health. Fruit-a-tives give it to you.

Just see how necessary the blood is. Every organ in the body depends on the blood for its nourishment. It supplies gastric juice to the stomach to assist digestion. After food is properly digested, it takes up nourishment from the intestines and builds up flesh and strength. Prick the skin at any point, and blood will flow.

But—if the bowels don't move regularly, they keep food there until it decays—ferments. Instead of blood taking up nourishment, it carries this decaying matter—poison—all over the body.

The stomach wants clean gastric juice and gets poison.—

—indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn, coated tongue.

The kidneys want pure blood to help them, and get poison

—pain in the back and then kidney disease.

The muscles want nourishment so they can grow strong. They get poison instead —rheumatism and sciatica

The blood makes a vain effort to get rid of the poison and carries it to the skin —pimples, blotches, sallow complexion.

Fruit-a-tives clean the stomach, and make sure that food is digested properly. They go after the lazy liver—and stop those "bilious attacks." They tone up the bowels—strengthen and invigorate them so they move regularly every day. They keep the kidneys working properly. With all the impurities of the body gotten rid of as Nature intends, there's none left to taint the blood.

That is the Fruit-a-tives way of cleansing and purifying the blood—and it is the only way to get the pure, rich blood that every man and woman and child must have to be well and keep well.

—if you have not your healthy color

—if pimples and blotches mar the complexion

—if the skin is sallow

—if the head aches

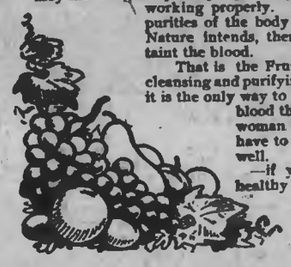
—if the tongue is coated and breath bad

—if the stomach is all upset

—if there is distress after eating

—and especially if Constipation is becoming chronic, start NOW on Fruit-a-tives.

One 50c box of Fruit-a-tives will show you how easily and quickly these troubles can be cured, now that you know the right remedy to take. Your druggist has them.



Fruit-a-tives

Purify the blood because they first of all cure CONSTIPATION, which is at the root of the trouble.

"I find Fruit-a-tives to be the best medicine I have ever taken for my trouble. I have been a sufferer from Constipation for five years, and until I used Fruit-a-tives, could find nothing that did me any permanent good. Other remedies helped for a time but the trouble always returned. I find the Fruit-a-tives pleasant to take, and instead of increasing the dose as I had to do with all other medicines, I have steadily lessened it. One Fruit-a-tives tablet every two nights is sufficient now to make my bowels move regularly each day. All my visitors now hear about my new cure for Constipation."

ALL RUN DOWN

Weak---Nervous---Unstrung.

Thousands get run down and become invalids before they realize anything is wrong. By permitting low vitality to develop, the way is paved for fevers, pneumonia and diphtheria. To put off makes it all the harder to get well. The time to repair the system is right now, before the damage gets any worse. The remedy is Ferrozone; it revitalizes, renews, builds up vitality that outlasts old age.

FERROZONE is a genuine invigorator that banishes weakness, and instils surplus force and vigor into every organ of the body. Ferrozone sharpens the appetite, produces rich nutritious blood, and thereby contributes that sense of buoyancy that adds so enormously to one's pleasure and usefulness in life.

For all forms of debility, weakness, lack of blood or nerve tone, sleeplessness, tiredness and exhaustion, there is no medicine so vitalizing and potent as Ferrozone. Even one trial demonstrates its rapidly and certainty of action.

To restore the energy of youth, to get back your vital stamina and reserve force, there is positively no treatment so certain as Ferrozone. You have only to try Ferrozone to know the enormous benefit it invariably brings to all in poor health.

FERROZONE

Miss Dorothy E. Leduc of Chester gives the following convincing evidence of Ferrozone's power:—"My work compels me to rise early in the morning and work ten hours daily as a saleslady. Last Spring I was run down, lost my color, and fell off in weight. I seemed to lack ambition and the life was out of me. A friend recommended Ferrozone, and I took one tablet after meals with wonderful results. Ferrozone brought back my complexion, and has given me new strength and abundance of energy and spirits. I would advise all young ladies to use Ferrozone."

Mrs. H. G. Wilder of Dexter says:—"My daughter was not very well last Winter, and lost her strength completely when the Spring came. I gave her Ferrozone, and am glad to say it did wonders. After six boxes were used my daughter was strong, and looked the picture of health."

Gave New Strength

It makes the weak strong, the sick well, and assures lasting good health.

WARNING—Beware of any substitute for Ferrozone; it alone can cure you. Sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine, only in 50c boxes containing 50 chocolate-coated tablets. By mail to any address if price is forwarded to N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., or Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

The Sink and the Toilet.

It seems hard to believe that many otherwise neat housekeepers, in the country especially, will allow the washing of face and hands at the kitchen sink, the gargling of throats or even expectoration, yet it is seen over and over again. If there is a place for everything and everything in its place, it must surely be conceded that the sink where dishes are washed and vegetables prepared for the meals is not the place for the performance of any duties connected with the toilet or the care of the person.

Your Silk Gown.

Before sending a foulard or light silk gown to be dry cleaned it is a good plan to let out the hems. Silk is not supposed to shrink, but the fact is that it sometimes does shrink in a remarkable manner. A blue and white foulard came home from the cleaner's a good two inches shorter than when it went. The hem was let down, but the result was not as satisfactory as it would have been if the precaution had been taken beforehand.

How glad I am that I confided in you and wrote for your free sample package. The sample tablets I got from you dissolved in his drinking, and before I had used the full treatment he was permanently cured. I gave him the remedy in his tea, and as it had no taste or smell, he never knew he was taking it. I want others to know as you can use this letter, but please not my name yet. I may say that my husband's health is better in every way than for years."

Peterborough--- How it Originated

settlers, however, remaining only for a short time on their way to their hunting-grounds, about the chain of rivers and lakes from Lake Ontario to Georgian Bay and Lake Huron.

These Indians belonged, for the most part to the Algonquin tribe, who, unlike the Iroquois, did not settle permanently in towns, but kept continually on the move from one hunting-ground to another, carrying with them their entire household effects. These consisted of a few poles and large sheets of birch-bark, their sole protection against the rain and snow. In the summer they wandered from lake to lake, ever by the water, living largely on the fish, which, at that time, abounded in all our waters. In the winter they hunted all the wild animals of the forest, the deer, especially, pursuing them into the deep snow-drifts; then, in the twinkling of an eye, ending their wretched lives, by a dexterous sweep of the tomahawk or spear.

But these Indians were never hostile to the white men who gradually began to settle along their yearly trail. So when the first white settler came to Peterborough he had no trouble on that score.

The first white man to penetrate the forest wild of Peterborough was Adam Scott, who, as early as 1820, established a mill here. His coming was quite an adventure. Mr. Scott, with a mere handful of young men, who had as venturous spirits as his own, crossed Rice Lake, came up the Otonabee, and, guided by their knowledge of woodcraft, chose this as their point of settlement. Wearied and hungry, they landed. Igniting a pile of dried leaves by a spark from the flint-lock of a gun, they cooked their meal and dined heartily. As is invariably the case with men, they felt ever so much more cheerful after entirely satisfying the wants of the inner man, and began their work of prospecting. They were delighted to find there was a large creek of await current, flowing into the river. This, they decided, was a splendid location for a sawmill, and so they built their mill, and constructed rude huts for themselves, these six young men. And that is how Peterborough was first called Scott's Plains.

But I am digressing. I must return to our own story. After our wearisome passage up the river we were at last all landed with our supplies of tools, provisions, and a little household furniture. Our first task was to construct temporary homes of some description to accommodate us until we should receive our grants of land. And rude structures they were, built largely of slabs, bark and tree branches. This finished, we sturdy Irishmen shouldered our axes and began the seemingly never-to-end task of clearing the dense forest which loomed up before us.

It is hard work chopping, at any time, but doubly so when one is unaccustomed to it, as we were. But still we were a merry clan, and sometimes forgot that it was not merely some new part of Ireland we were living in, but a country hundreds of miles from the land of the Shamrock.

Our settlement was a typical Irish village, truly a bit of the Emerald Isle transferred to Canada. On the plain beside the river might be seen the elder of our number engaged in the "discoorsin'" so dear to the hearts of the Irish, while cheerily mounting to the bright sky were the thin, blue spirals of smoke issuing from our cabins, where the pretty colleens were preparing the whole-some food (provided by Mr. Robinson) for the "b'hoys" who were then busy felling the giant timbers of the encircling forest. Then you might see them dropping gaily down to the river, their water pitchers cleverly balanced on their pretty heads; and just come let me tell you, I've never seen handsomer girls. You don't see them now. No, of course, they weren't dressed well, as you understand, the term. They were just home-made flannel dresses, spun and dyed by their own pretty hands. But think, my girls, such figures, such faces! And such merry eyes of true Irish blue! Yes, little piece of inquisitiveness, my wife was one of those very girls. And she was the prettiest among them; weren't you, Kathleen? But this is another digression.

The Government treated us most liberally. If my memory doesn't play me false, I think the supplies of rations we got were: To each immigrant over fourteen was issued a daily ration of a pound of pork and a pound of flour; to those between five and fourteen, one-half pound meat and one-half pound flour. I forget what the babies got.

This food was vastly more nourishing and wholesome than what we were accustomed to, a diet of potatoes all the year round. What! meat? No, we never tasted meat. To be sure, we always made a special effort to have a piece to hang up in the cabin where we could all see it, for we were expected to look at it while we ate our potatoes, and obtain all the relish we could by that means. As Goldsmith says, in describing a typical Irish home, and speaking of the meat,

"But as for eating the thing they took pride in, They'd as soon think of eating the thing it was fried in."

The meat in an Irish cabin is a thing to be admired from afar, and only to be touched by most respectful hands, a thing for the district-visitors to see, and an evidence of our thrift.

It was just at this time, to resume my story, that a distillery was established in our flourishing village. True to our Irish blood, we felt the need of a stimulant, of a cheering draught, of which to partake, to help us in our work. Our inward dissatisfaction in this respect was at last given vent to in words, and consequently an enterprising man started the distillery. It was a good financial venture, but oh, such whisky!

Some of us, with more foresight than the common Irishman is commonly credited with, had brought our ancient flint-lock muskets with us. But sport lost half its charm when we were confident there were no vigilant keepers around, with an eye single for poachers, but where we were free to shoot all we could see, or rather, all we could hit.

But after eighteen months of this life we were separated. Mr. Robinson had begun his most arduous task of settling us on our allotted land grants. To each family of five one hundred acres were given, and a log hut built worth $10. Building prices have gone up, you think? Well, yes. We never saw our new homes until each family, having received their horses or oxen, we were conveyed to our farms. How delighted the women were with the houses! They were so neat and clean, and furnished with everything necessary for a plain mode of living. And all this was done in the bounty of the Government. Why, we felt like lords on gazing about on our princely domains. No, true for you, we couldn't gaze very far—the stumps and trees were too thick. But what of that? Hadn't we strong hearts and willing hands, and axes besides? As I was thinking over this, collecting my thoughts, to be ready with your story, it came back to me, all the other things we got. We received a cow, an axe, an auger, a hand-saw, a hammer, 100 nails, two gimlets, three hoes, a kettle, a frying-pan, an iron pot, eight quarts of Indian corn to plant, and, joy of joys, three bushels of seed potatoes. Was surely was a land flowing with milk and honey, or rather, what is better still, potatoes and pork.

Very soon the Government took steps to securing for us the ministrations of our church, which we had sorely missed. A school was also established, and very soon I left the farm—there were seven of us, you know—and attended the school. When I had obtained a fair education, with the help of a little capital from my father, I started a small general store. It was a success, and since then I was in that same business until I retired, twenty years ago.

Well, I think you have the story complete now. Since that time, the story of Peterborough has been one of steady progress. The little Irish village has grown into a flourishing city, of which no one is more proud than I, who have seen it in all its stages of development. Yes, Peterborough owes much to the Hon. Peter Robinson, not least of which is its name."

The Campaign In Alberta

Premier Rutherford Says it Was a Pleasant One.

Winnipeg, Nov. 23.—Premier A. C. Rutherford of Alberta has arrived here on a pleasure trip. "The campaign in Alberta was a very satisfactory one," he said, "in all regards, and the victory was certainly overwhelming. I noticed an estimate to the effect that we had secured about 70 per cent. of the votes cast, and I believe that is about correct. We won," said the Premier, "because we had the best policy. We expect to be very busy during the next few years; everything must be set in operation and plans adopted for the transaction of public business. Already since September 1st 50 applications for new schools have been received. I have kept in close touch with affairs in Saskatchewan, and there is no reason to doubt that Mr. Scott will succeed in carrying a large proportion of the constituencies of the Province. The issues are the same as those in Alberta, the electorate is similar, and the issue will undoubtedly be the same."

ADDRESS ON CANCER

Sir Frederick Treves in the course of a recent address on "Disease", made the following reference to cancer: It would seem that cancer reproduces under inopportune circumstances the type of exuberant growth which was normal and opportune when the structures of the body were being formed, that it was a strange resuscitation on the declining body of a process which was normal in the young. What was the purpose of this out-of-place activity? No one could tell in the absence of any knowledge. It was conformity with custom to consider it to be malign in intention. If he were compelled to add to the list of pure surmises as to the possible lines on which a remedy for cancer might be expected, he would point out that during the period of development in childhood, there were certain glands in an active state, which would appear in some way to control, limit, and modify a process of production which might without such control run riot. It was noteworthy that one such gland—the thymus—wasted and vanished after the period of greatest bodily activity was over, and it was impossible not to wonder whether the introduction of the active principles of such a gland in the case of cancer would exert an influence late in life which it seemed to be intended to exert when growth was alert in the young. Thymus extract had been largely tried in medicine, but it did not appear that any active principle had been isolated from the gland and used.

thousands of the most obstinate cases of Coughs, Colds and Lung troubles. Let it cure you.

"Last winter I coughed for three months and thought I was going into Consumption. I took all sorts of medicines, but nothing did me any good until I used Shiloh's Consumption Cure. Four bottles cured me. This winter I had a very bad cold, was not able to speak, my lungs were sore on the side and back. Six bottles of Shiloh made me well again. I have given it to several people and every one of them have been cured.—D. Jones, St. Hyacinthe, Que." 605

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

THE SULTAN'S ALTERNATIVE

Reprisals on Christians If Powers Persist in the Warlike Demonstration For Macedonian Reforms.

Constantinople, via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 25.—The Porte's reply to the demands of the powers is not only a categoric rejection, but contains thinly-veiled threats that the pressure of Europe will possibly excite the Turkish population to reprisals on the Christians. The note declares that the Ottoman Government loyally introduced the reforms demanded by the Muerzteg program, and says that if these did not entirely succeed the fault was in the hatred dividing the nationalities in Macedonia and instigation from abroad. The communication states that the Turkish Government finds it absolutely impossible to accept financial control of Macedonia, as it would violate the Sultan's sovereignty. After agreeing to the prolongation of the mandates of the foreign civil agents, the note concludes: "If the powers increase the pressure in order to compel the acceptance of the control scheme, the Imperial Government declines all responsibility for the consequences which may arise from the discontent among the public."

Warships On the Move.

Paris, Nov. 25.—It is stated in official quarters here that the exchanges of communications between the powers concerning Turkey's answer to their ultimatum have resulted in the practical determination not to consider the answer as postponing the naval demonstration which will proceed without further parley.

It is understood that the warships of the powers are already moving from Piraeus. Their objective is not yet definitely stated, but the Island of Mytilene still appears to be the objective applicable to the situation.

ROOM AT STANLEY BARRACKS.

British Soldiers Have Gone Home—Active Recruiting at Toronto.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—There will be room for eighty more spiders at Stanley Barracks inside of two weeks. The British soldiers, who have been stationed at Halifax, sailed for home yesterday, and orders have been received at Stanley Barracks, from the Militia Department, for another detachment of the Royal Canadian Regiment of Infantry to leave for Halifax Dec. 4.

Recruiting for the regulars here is going on with some activity. A sergeant of the permanent force is visiting the places where embryo soldiers are to be found, with hopes of filling the blanks made by the draft to Halifax.

Halifax Garrison Sails.

Halifax, Nov. 25.—The Dominion line steamer Kensington sailed last night with the second contingent of the Royal Garrison Regiment and other troops to Liverpool. The troops consisted of R. G. Regiment, R. G. Artillery, R. A. Medical Corps and school staff. There are now less than 200 imperial troops remaining here, including headquarters staff, Royal Engineers, and fifty members of the R. G. Regiment.

DEATHBED EVIDENCE.

Montreal Election Worker Dies After Examination.

Montreal, Nov. 25.—Final evidence in the Gallery election trial has been taken in the examination of the three sick witnesses, Charles Myron, John Gallery and Martin Fitzgerald, who were examined at their bedside by F. J. Bisaillon, K.C. A sad feature of the case was that Chas. Myron died very shortly after his examination.

Mr. Fitzgerald said he had been chairman of Mr. Gallery's Ottawa street committee, the most important committee in the election, and had employed from seventy-five to one hundred men locating and distributing election cards. He said he got $1,500 from Mr. Gallery and used all this except $49 in paying the workers. He denied having paid any scrutineers or men for work on election day, and knew absolutely nothing about paying any carters.

H. N. Bronucker Suicides.

Boston, Nov. 25.—A man, who registered at the Hotel Nottingham Wednesday night as Harry N. Bronucker of Ottawa, Ont., was found dead yesterday by a chambermaid. The medical examiner said that the cause of death was an overdose of laudanum. Bronucker was 33 years old and was a member of a prominent family in Chester, England. He served in the English army in the Boer war. He went to Toronto, Ont., two or three years ago. Soon after his arrival in Toronto he was elected to membership in the Empire Club. While in that city he was engaged in the insurance business. He leaves a wife and child at Balmy Beach, near Toronto.

Mitchell Denies Interview.

Pittsburg, Nov. 25.—An alleged interview printed here yesterday, in which President John Mitchell and Vice-President Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America are made to say that 500,000 workmen employed in the bituminous and anthracite coal fields will strike on April 1, 1906, if the operators attempt to reduce their wages, is emphatically denied by both President Mitchell and Vice-President Lewis.

TO MANILA, 14,000 MILES AWAY.

Steel Dry Dock to Be Towed From Chesapeake Bay.

Washington, Nov. 25.—J. D. Wood, a tug master of Norfolk, has signed a contract to go out to Manila on the D. D. Dewey, on one of the most remarkable cruises of modern times. The D. D. Dewey is the big steel floating dry dock which is destined to dock the largest ships of the American navy in the far east, if it can be successfully piloted through the 14,000 miles lying between Chesapeake Bay and Manila Bay.

The dock will be towed by three colliers. The towing line will be a mile and a half long. Naval officers believe that the Dewey can be towed at the rate of about 100 miles a day and allow about three or four months for the trip, via the Suez Canal.

An Englishman's Suicide.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Nov. 25.—Fred. Youlton, an Englishman, aged 35 years, employed in the quarries at Sherkston, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a revolver, while sitting in bed at his boarding-house. He had been drinking and was despondent. He leaves a brother in Humberstone, and a widowed mother

Young High School Teacher Dies From a Revolver Wound.

Quebec, Nov. 25.—Pereman Jenner, a young man, believed to be married, and belonging to Charing Cross, Ont., but for the past four or five years a teacher in the Quebec High School, was found in a dying condition at his boarding-house in this city yesterday morning with a bullet wound through his left temple.

Alongside of him in bed was a revolver. He was taken to Jeffery Hale Hospital, where he died shortly afterwards, without recovering consciousness.

He was a professor of shorthand, bookkeeping and writing at the High School, and took a prominent part in athletics, especially football.

ST. JOHN LABOR TROUBLE.

Donaldson Line Threatens to Take Ships to Baltimore.

St. John, N.B., Nov. 25.—The strike situation is still unbroken. A carload of forty-two men arrived yesterday from Montreal, but after learning the conditions twenty-seven refused to work.

The Donaldson Line people have given out word that if the local men do not give in soon the company will withdraw its ships from the port and go to Baltimore. More men are expected from Montreal, the Allans contending they can get enough to do all their work. Two or three big ships are due here and local men feel the freight cannot be handled.

Rapid Flesh Reduction.

In a rapid flesh reduction system hot water is substituted for breakfast. A cupful is taken on rising and one every hour through the morning until lunch, which is a light meal. It must not be forgotten that heroic measures are not to be undertaken by any but strong persons.

It is a fad to have sofa pillows combine as many shades of one color as possible without introducing a foreign tone. Various shades of red which harmonize well are excellent for a couch.

Missing Windsor Bailiff Said to Be Short That Amount.

Windsor, Nov. 25.—It is now said that W. A. Millard, the Division Court Bailiff, is short about $5,000 in his accounts as bailiff. Tax Collector Cheyene is unable as yet to say what the shortage is in his department. Clerk Deziel of the Division Court will not touch his books until the arrival of an inspector from the Justice Department at Toronto.

Much surprise is expressed that Millard is in such financial difficulty, and there is much speculation as to what has been done with the money. Mr. Millard is about 60 years of age.

A PLACE OF DREAMS.

Back-gazing to my childhood home
I saw a place of fairy bowers
Glowing with sunshine. Palace walls
Towered from a fairyland of flowers
'Mid mighty pines pointing so high
Their tall tops touched the sunny sky.
After long years once more I came.
How poor the palace and how small!
Stunted the pines! The flowers gone!
I wondered, could it be the same?
For childhood saw with dazzled eyes.
The world when new the fairer seems.
Yet still, old home, I'll fancy you
A place of sunshine and of dreams.
—Victor Lauriston, in Valley Magazine.

THIS MAN MEANS WHAT HE SAYS

He Says Dodd'S Dyspepsia Tablets Cure Stomach Troubles and Gives his Reasons for Saying so.

"Yes, I mean what I say about Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets," says Henry A. Coles, of St. Mary's River, Guysboro Co., N.S., in a recent interview. "I had stomach trouble for about five years. It got so bad I was taken to my bed and the doctor was called in. He couldn't reach the trouble, however, and I was suffering very bad, and not knowing what to do, when my wife said, 'Let us try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.'

"Well, we tried them, and the result was that I used seven boxes and the stomach trouble left and has not troubled me since. Do you wonder I recommend Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets?"

If you can't digest your food don't worry. Get a box or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and they will do it for you.

Lecture At The Barracks

Splendid Illustrated Lecture by Captain McLean.

Staff Captain McLean, of the Salvation Army, Toronto, gave a very interesting lecture at the local barracks last night. Many splendid coloured views and excellent moving pictures were shown. That the Salvation Army is doing a splendid work was clearly demonstrated to an attentive and appreciative audience.

A feature of great interest were the scenes of the Salvation Army farms in England. The Army has a number of farms in England upon which they place destitute and homeless people, and instruct them in the work of agriculture thus teaching them a useful and profitable method of making a living. Many other works of charity and scenes of interest in connection with the Salvation Army were illustrated during the lecture, among which were, views of Palestine, the place that General Booth, Commandant of the Salvation Army, recently visited. Illustrations of the Zoological Gardens, moving pictures of scenes on the busy streets of London, the work of the Salvation Army people in the lowest slums of London, Salvation Army workshops, houses of refuge, and other views showing the grand work being performed by this alert religious body in the most necessary places.

The evening's entertainment was interspersed with hymns and selections by the band.

WOULD KICK AND SCREAM

Baby's Awful Suffering from Eczema —Could Not Hold Her—Tore Face and Arms Almost to Pieces —Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES SAVED HER LIFE"

"When my baby was six months old, she had eczema. We used all kinds of remedies, but nothing did her any good; in fact, she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her on the table, for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no traces of the humour left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and I should advise any one suffering as she did, to give Cuticura a fair trial.—Mrs. G. A. Conrad, Lisbon, N. H."

FIVE YEARS LATER

Mrs. Conrad Writes:

"It is with pleasure that I can inform you that the cure has been permanent. It is now six years since she was cured, and there has been no return of the disease since. I have advised a lot of friends to use Cuticura in all diseases of the skin."

SLEEP FOR BABY

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent, and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humors, from infancy to age.

QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

Interesting Extracts From The Examiner of 25 Years Ago.

The Examiner continues to-day the publication of a series of news items, taken from the files of this paper, published in the corresponding week of 1880:

• • • •

A union, either between the Toronto and Nipissing Railway and the Midland Railway, either through the lease or purchase of the former by the latter, is expected to be one of the events of the near future.

• • • •

It is announced that Rev. Mr. Hammond, who is now holding evangelistic services in Winnipeg, and meeting with great success, will visit this town in January and inaugurate an evangelistic campaign.

• • • •

The Examiner appears this week in a new form, and printed throughout with new body type, headings, etc. The old "blanket" form having been found to be unwieldly, the paper is now issued in an eight page shape.

• • • •

A regular blizzard struck the town on Saturday evening, which was followed by intensely cold weather. The thermometer went down to eight degrees below zero.

• • • •

Mr. Thos. Menzies, who has conducted a stationery business at the corner of Hunter and George streets, for twenty-two years, has been compelled by the expansion of his business to seek more commodious premises in the store to the north of his old stand.

• • • •

Another unsuccessful attempt has been made on the life of the unhappy Czar of Russia.

• • • •

Mr. Lech and Mr. Wrighton have been in Haliburton for some days buying furs from the trappers, etc., in that district. Mink skins brought 80c to $1.50; muskrats, 8 to 10c.; beaver, $1.50 and up; otter and fisher, $8 upwards.

• • • •

Cartoonist Bengough, the inimitable, has been lecturing in Peterborough and surrounding towns.

G.T.R. Busy.

For a striking evidence of the vast amount of traffic over the northern G. T. R. line, and of the big deals in live stock, crushed stone, wood, etc., one need only take note of the incoming trains. The 10.10 train from Cobourg this morning arrived as a double-header and brought three cars of live stock, two or three of wood, and about six or seven of block and crushed stone.—Lindsay Post.

SHIPPERS ARRESTED.

Employes Rob Wholesale Grocery Firm of Goods Worth $15,000.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 25.—A few days ago the firm of A. & W. Smith, wholesale grocers, discovered a shortage of stock in their various warehouses. A considerable quantity of flour and sugar was missing. Late Thursday night the police arrested one of the firm's shippers, F. C. Locke, who, it is alleged, made false shipments of goods.

A searching investigation of the books of the firm is being made, and it is expected a shortage will amount to $15,000.

Walter Kennedy, another shipper, drove up to the police station and gave himself up during the afternoon. A checker in the Intercolonial Railroad freight shed was arrested on suspicion, as was also a porter in a city hardware store.

Preliminary Survey Work Nearing Finish

Work in Connection With Trent Canal Section North of Peterboro' Approaching Completion—Four Parties at Present Engaged on Traverse Work.

WORK COMPLETED EARLY IN DECEMBER

This morning the camp of the Law survey party, engaged on "traverse" work in connection with the Trent Canal, made its last shift, removing from near Fraserville, about four miles further down the river, below Hale's Bridge. This is the last shift of the camp, because it is expected that the work will be completed early next month. The Law survey party, which began work at Port Hope, the autumn of 1904, began traverse work at Harwood, last spring, working around the foot of the lake, and up the east side of the river. It is understood that the Department of Railways and Canals were desirous of having the work in this district promptly completed, and, therefore, three other survey parties were put in the field, so that the entire ground can be rapidly covered. The Stevens party began work at Harwood, working north, and will be met by the Patterson party working southward from Jubilee Point. From Jubilee Point the Kerr party will work northward till it meets the Law party going southward from Hales' bridge. These several junctions of parties is expected to take place early next month, when the field records will be forwarded to Ottawa to form the basis of reports to the Department, which will, in turn, it is expected, form the basis of action on the part of the Department.

This is taken to indicate that an appropriation will probably be asked for construction work on the southern section of the canal.

Successful Sale Of Livery Horses

As the winter approaches livery stable keepers find themselves with a surplus of horses — the summer demand for driving purposes being much greater than in the winter Messrs. McCollum Bros., the Water street liverymen, found themselves with a surplus of good horses on hand, and decided to dispose of them by auction. Consequently a sale was held on Saturday afternoon at their barns, and it was most successful. There was a large attendance and the bidding was brisk, good prices being obtained. Mr. John Haggart, the popular auctioneer, did a "horse of a business" for an hour or two. He disposed of eighteen horses, and the aggregate value of the sale was $1800, an average of $100 per head. The sale was considered a most successful one, purchasers getting good horses, as a rule, and McCollum Bros. good prices as a rule.

The statement as given out by the York County Loan Company on Saturday reads:

"Elsewhere will appear the notice of a special general meeting of the York County Loan and Savings Company to confirm an agreement under the provisions of The Loan Corporations Act, transferring its assets and undertaking to The Dominion Permanent Loan Company.

"The transferring company was incorporated in 1891, and for some years carried on business locally as a building society. After Joseph Phillips became president and manager the company continually extended its operations until it became the largest collecting building society in Canada. The company has never issued any debentures or taken deposits, so that the assets of the company belong to its shareholders. The shares are what is known as terminating or withdrawal capital, the shareholder being allowed to withdraw his capital at the times fixed by the bylaws. A company composed of shareholders with the right to withdraw capital must, if it is to continue in business, replace with new share capital the shares withdrawn. The legislature has not looked with favour on companies so constituted, and some years ago prevented any new company from issuing withdrawable shares. More recently the legislature curtailed the power of companies still issuing such shares.

Change in Policy.

"The York County Loan had at the end of 1904, $1,760,000 of capital, after paying withdrawing members during the year $1,400,000. The company at that time was actively developing its extensive real estate in the western part of the city, and it was decided that the basis of the company should be changed so that permanent capital should replace the withdrawing shares. The members were therefore invited to convert their withdrawal shares into permanent stock. While this has been done to some extent the process was not rapid enough to permit the company to build up its real estate as well as pay off its withdrawal shares. The board of directors decided in the interests of all the shareholders to come under the amalgamation sections of the Loan Corporations Act, and transfer its assets, subject to the ratification of the shareholders, and the approval of the Lieut.-Governor in Council.

Terms of Purchase.

"The consideration to be given by the purchasing company is the entire value of the assets in permanent stock of the purchasing company, with provisions that the York County Loan Shareholder may, under the provisions of the agreement, for his share of the assets take a debenture of deposit receipt of the purchasing company. The directors of the York County Loan, it is understood, consulted with leading shareholders, who cordially approved of the step now taken. The officers of the York County Loan executing the agreement, are Joseph Phillips, president and managing director, E. J. Burt, vice-president, and Stewart Lunn, secretary-treasurer. The purchasing company was incorporated in 1890, and on the 31st of December, 1904, had a paid up permanent capital of over $1,000,000, with total assets of over $3,500,000. The company does not issue terminating shares. Its head office is No. 12 Kings street west, Toronto, and its officers are Hon. J. R. Stratton, president; Mr. F. M. Holland, managing director.

"The amalgamated assets of the companies will be, in excess of $4,500,000. The material saving in expenses by the placing of the two businesses, under one management should result in great benefit to the shareholders of both companies."

The Ketchecum Hunt Club Wants Season Unchanged

In a Letter to the Game Commission This Club Expresses Views on Game Laws—Present Season is Satisfactory—Should Not be Lengthened—Only One Deer Should be Allowed Each Hunter.

SALE OF VENISON IS CONDEMNED

The Ketchecum Hunt Club, composed of a number of the most prominent hunters in the city has addressed a letter to the Ontario Game Commissioner, giving the views of the club on the game issues as far as they relate to the hunting of deer. The letter follows:—

To the Ontario Game Commission:

Gentlemen,—The Ketchecum Hunt Club, having been requested by Mr. W. H. Casement, one of your Commissioners, to express their views on the Game Laws of the Province relating to the hunting of deer, have asked me to write stating the conclusions arrived by the Club on this important subject.

Their meeting was held at Lake Ketchecum in the Township of Cavendish, in the County of Peterborough, during the hunting season, when the following hunters were present:—Messrs. H. C. Winch, R. M. Denniston, Duncan Walker, W. G. Morrow, Vincent Eastwood, Robert Gibbs, David Johnston, George W. Bennett, W. H. Hill, William Irwin, Robert Hicks and J. M. Brooks, all experienced hunters of Peterborough, and Robert Stuart and Dr. Gentles, of Chicago.

Dogs.

The first question discussed was with regard to the running of dogs, and the decision was unanimously in favour of continuing this practice. There can be no question about the fact that the enjoyment of the hunting season is greatly increased by the sound of the chase and, in the opinion of the Club, to abolish the pack would be to deprive all but a few skilful still-hunters of their sport.

Open Season.

After a prolonged debate it was decided with respect to the protection of the game the season should be continued as it is at present, and that if any change be made the open season should be shortened and not lengthened. There are throughout this section of the country numerous hunting clubs and settlers' houses which are centres of attraction for those anxious to shoot deer for hundreds of miles around. We believe that hunting would continue without abatement for the full period of thirty days if the season were extended for so long a period; that whereas it is only possible at the present time for one member of a firm, company, financial institution or business house to be absent for the open season, relays of hunters would be able to keep the hunt going if the season were extended. Many hunters would remain in the woods for the full period of thirty days, and the proposal to issue licenses for the first fifteen or the last fifteen days would be ineffective.

Further, with regard to making the open season October instead of November, it is recognized that as a general rule it is impossible to preserve the meat in October owing to the weather not being cold enough and that great waste would result.

Deer to be Shot.

The members of this club are of opinion that the shooting of fawn should be prohibited, but that a provision prohibiting the shooting of anything but horned deer would be ineffective.

Sale of Venison.

The members of this club are of opinion that the most efficacious way of preserving the deer is to prohibit the sale of venison for a term of years. It is well known to all that it is very difficult, if not impossible, to enforce the game laws in the woods, but that they can be enforced in the cities and towns, and a prohibition of the sale of venison is one of the laws which can be readily enforced throughout the Province.

Number of Deer to be Shot.

The members of this club are of opinion that the present law which permits two deer to be shot by each hunter should be amended, and that the number of deer to be shot should be limited to one deer for each hunter. The universal practice is for each party that goes into the woods to bring out if possible two deer for each member of the party, and there is no method of preventing this from being done, hence it follows that a man who has shot two deer will continue hunting until the limit allowed for the party has been obtained.

All these suggestions are submitted in the hope that they may be found reasonable and may be acted upon by the department.

Respected Lady Died in Lindsay

Mrs. (Judge) Harding Died Suddenly on Saturday.

Lindsay, Nov. 26.—Yesterday the news of the sudden death of Mrs. (Judge) Harding came with a great shock to the citizens of this town. Mrs. Harding and her two youngest daughters had only returned a few weeks ago from a visit to her daughter in Vancouver, apparently in the best of health. Mrs. Harding was the daughter of Mr. George Stevenson, an old resident of Sarnia, and was married to George Harding in the year 1866. For eighteen years they resided in St. Mary's, for fourteen in Stratford, and since 1898 in Lindsay. Of their six children, five are living. The eldest, Robert, is a barrister in Stratford; the married daughter lives in Vancouver; the youngest son is Chief of Police for the city of Manila, P. I., and the daughters are at home. Mrs. Harding was widely known in Ontario, and only a few years ago, when the Masons of Canada were presenting her husband with a suitable souvenir as Grand Master, they made a presentation to her because of her warm personal sympathy in all the work of the order. Since coming to Lindsay she has been prominent in social and literary circles, and has taken an active interest in church and charitable work of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which she was a member.

Subject Was North West Mission Work

Earnest Appeal Upon Behalf of North West Mission Work by Rev. Mr. McLaurin at Murray Street Baptist Church Last Night Large Congregation Was Much Impressed--Discourse Instructive and Interesting.

SPECIAL OFFERING NEXT SUNDAY

Northwest missions formed the subject of a comprehensive and instructive sermon last night at the Murray street Baptist church by Rev. C. C. McLaurin, a representative of the Board of Missions of the Baptist church in this field. An earnest appeal was made by the preacher in behalf of the work, in which the various difficulties encountered were explained, and many suggestions made as to how they might be successfully met.

The speaker exhibited a wide knowledge of the subject, acquired through his personal experiences reaching over many years of active labour in the West. He prefaced his sermon with a few remarks with regard to his previous acquaintance with the Baptist church in Peterborough, making an appreciative reference to Rev. John Gilmour, the founder of the Murray street church, and who previous to moving to Canada from the Old Land, had been the means of the conversion of the grandfather of the speaker.

Rev. Mr. McLaurin chose a text from Joshua, but as usual in sermons of a missionary nature, confined his remarks almost wholly to a discussion of the subject of the missionary effort with which he was connected, giving a graphic description of the present condition of the work, as well as an interesting summary of what had been accomplished since it was begun by Rev. Alex. McDonald.

The preacher remarked in opening that while he came as a representative of the Northwest Mission Board, this was a work belonging to the Baptists of the Dominion. It should not be divided, and he came to the East to urge the people here to a co-operation with their Western brethren.

Many say that the western churches are receiving the members who leave the East. This is abundant reason why they should be carefully looked after. The opinion had also been expressed that, with their present wealth and prosperity, the West should be financially able to cope with its own work. This was an incorrect view in face of the relative differences in the size of, and difficulties presented in, the Eastern and Western fields, and also in the numerical difference in the workers in the two sections of the Dominion. West of Lake Superior we have one-third of the population of the Dominion, said the speaker. The money sent from the East goes for missionary work in the four new provinces. There is where the great growth is going to come. We propose, he continued, to lay a foundation there for future work. We have eight thousand Baptist church members there, while in Ontario there are fifty thousand.

Thirty-five years ago Alex. McDonald came down to Ontario and pleaded for Northwest missions. The appeal was not largely responded to. The growth of the country was advanced as a reason for assistance, but it was impossible to forward money at the time, the result being most disheartening.

The speaker could point to stretches of 150 miles of settled country in which not a single Baptist church was located. The people the Missionary Society were trying to reach at the present time were those recently arrived, who are going out into the newer country to locate.

The present opportunity was a great one, and if it were not grasped the Baptist church in Canada would lose one of the greatest opportunities to strengthen itself offered in many years. Many young men going out had not sufficient capital to assist in the mission work and the burden of new missions fell therefore upon the East.

There is spiritual destitution in the West. There are multitudes of settlements throughout the Northwest which have not been visited for long periods of time by a missionary. The difficulties of leading a Christian life among such conditions were pointed out. Blasphemy, drinking and gambling are sadly prevalent.

The speaker then passed on to remark upon what had been accomplished by the Baptist church in the Northwest. In 1870 Rev. Alex. McDonald founded the first Baptist church. There were now about 160 men engaged in the ministry, with about 110 churches. A college has been established at Brandon, costing about $150,000, and about 150 students have been enrolled. The cost of the building has been provided for by private funds.

Last year the churches, notwithstanding their present burden, contributed $4,000 to foreign missions. The speaker believed that the stength of the Baptist church in this country will depend upon the missionary work in the Northwest during the next ten years. The great lack was the want of men to do the work.

The preacher then spoke regarding the work conducted among the many foreign colonies in the West. The Baptist church had been the first to enter upon this feature of the work, and have about twice as many churches established among the foreigners as all the other churches together. A great many misapprehensions had arisen with regard to this. Fault had been found with the Government for bringing what was often classed as a "mass of filth" in the way of Galician and other immigrants, but it should be a matter of rejoicing that so many people were to be brought out of spiritual darkness. A report regarding the buying and selling of the daughters of Galicians had gained circulation in the newspapers and from other sources. The speaker did not doubt but some of the low Galicians would descend to this. They were, however, seeking enlightenment, and rapidly becoming assimilated to Canadian conditions. They are thrifty and industrious, and are making marvellous progress. Two churches have been established among the Russians.

The speaker concluded by outlining a few opportunities offered for work in the Northwest. $15,000 was the amount which it was hoped would be raised in Ontario and Quebec, in which Provinces the work had fallen somewhat behind last year.

BARGAINS IN MEDICINE.

A woman once wrote us that she was not going to buy Scott's Emulsion any more because it cost too much. Said she could get some other emulsion for less money. Penny wise and pound foolish. Scott's Emulsion costs more because it is worth more—costs more to make. We could make Scott's Emulsion cost less by using less oil. Could take less care in making it, too. If we did, however, Scott's Emulsion wouldn't be the standard preparation of cod liver oil as it is to-day.

Bible Reading Largely Attended

Interesting Meeting Held at the Gospel Hall.

At the public Bible reading held in the Gospel Hall on Friday evening last, there was present a large number of Bible students, some from the various religious bodies. According to announcement, the tenth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles was studied and thoroughly discussed. It was found, to the surprise of some, that Cornelius, although a "devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, and gave much alms to the poor and prayed to God always," yet lacked the one thing needful, without which no man can ever enter heaven, that one thing being, "He must be born again."

It is clearly proven by Acts 11, 14, that notwithstanding all his good works and prayers he was not saved. Verses 34 to 43 contain the message, chapter 10, contains the message God sent Peter to deliver, and he did so, not adding anything of his own opinion. It would be a grand thing if present day preachers could deliver the message of God as fearlessly and faithfully as did St. Peter; then the word would have the effect of wakening dead sinners, and bringing them to a saving knowledge of the truth. Another point, in verses 25 and 26, it says, "And as Peter was coming in Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshipped him; but Peter took him up saying, 'Stand up, I also am a man.'" Here it was seen that the great Peter recognized that no man, not even himself, was ever appointed by the Lord to be the mediator, or to hear confessions, or accept homage, or usurp the place of the Lord Jesus Himself. St. Peter said afterwards "All flesh is as grass," I. Peter 1. 24. St. Peter also said. "There is one Mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus." I. Tim. 2, 5. Another important point to notice is, while Peter delivered the gospel message he also told them how they were to receive remission of sins, verse 43. "To Him (Jesus) gave all the prophets witness that through His name whosoever believeth in Him shall receive remission of sins," not by works or prayers, but by grace through faith. Then after the whole household was saved and had received the gift of the Holy Ghost, Peter commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord.

Next Friday the study will be the 11th chapter. Here Peter is called to give an account to the Church at Jerusalem for going to the Gentiles. All will be welcomed to these meetings.—Com.

"There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup absolutely in one night. Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals, said in Santa Barbara, Cal., that his country has that for which President Roosevelt is striving—federal control of railways more comprehensive than that now exercised by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The mineral resources of the South are almost unlimited; it has more timber than any other section of the United States; in every Southern State there is water power never yet used, and there are ideal situations for market gardening on the largest scale.

The Formal Organization

St. John's Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held an enthusiastic inauguration meeting yesterday after the Sunday school, and formally completed the work of organization. Next Sunday at 4.15 the probationary admission service will take place in the church. The executive, composed of Masters John Hogan, Chas. Ray, Donald Denham, Evans Bradburn, and Belden Blackwell, from the Junior Chapter, and Rev. J. C. Davidson, Messrs. J. Bell, A. E. Walker, John Hagerman, Percy Cresswell and N. A. Howard-Moore, met after the Chapter meeting and formally organized, with Mr. Howard-Moore as chairman, and Mr. Percy Cresswell, secretary.

The boys are going about the organization of the work of "spreading the gospel of peace, and of their blessed Master," among men and boys in a manner that augurs success, and they will succeed, without a doubt, in carrying out the two-fold vow of prayer and service.

Advantages of Cold Storage

South African fruit growers are beginning to appreciate the advantages of cold storage in connection with their operations, for it enables them to keep their fruit in good condition, place it on the market at the favourable moment, and thus avoid losses caused by occasional gluts. In this connection, the Cape Orchard Company, which has extensive fruit farms in the Hex River valley, has set an example of enterprise in South Africa. It began two years ago with a 6-ton Linde machine, and, early finding expansion necessary, added a 12 1-2 ton Hercules machine, both machines being operated by electric motors, and together cooling storage chambers of a total capacity of 60,000 cubic feet.

Peterborough Churches And the Services Yesterday

GEORGE STREET METHODIST.

The services yesterday in this church were largely attended. In the morning the pastor preached on "The First Christian Martyr," and at the evening service his sermon was on temperance, his subject being "Our Personal Responsibility for the Liquor Traffic." His text was in Genesis 4:9.—"Am I My Brother's Keeper?" The speaker referred to the fact that it was an indication of the advance that the cause of temperance is making that the churches throughout the world had set one day apart for the study of this question.

His opinion was that the church was not doing all it could for this reform, and said that there were two churches in Canada, the Methodists and Presbyterians, which could, if they would, stamp out this evil, which cost Canada $40,000,000 and 3,000 lives each year.

The reverend speaker said that if we could not get prohibition he would like to take away all the licenses and let any man sell who wants to. Coming down to more personal matters the speaker remarked that he believed there was a lot of "tippling" in this city in a quiet way of which the public did not know much about. He had not gained this knowledge from personal observance, but had been told that such was the case.

The music yesterday was of a superior order. In the morning the choir sang Kipling's "Recessional," Miss Daisy Sawers taking the solo. At the evening service the anthem was "The Dream of Paradise," and the solo was again taken by Miss Sawers. For the offertory the choir rendered "At even e're the sun was set," solos being taken by Miss Chasty and Mr. Jas. Brown.

To-night at the Epworth League meeting Mr. G. H. Williams will speak on "Christ's Criticism of the Church." The Girls' Guild will hold a special meeting at 7.30 to-night.

ALL SAINTS' ANGLICAN.

There was a crowded church at All Saints' last night, when the rector preached from the text, James 5: 16.—"Confessing our faults one to another." The seats were all filled, and chairs were placed in the aisles. Mr. Jos. Legge sang a solo, "Dream of Paradise," with good effect. In the morning the text was Hebrews 2: 11.—"Stones shall cry out of the wall."

To-night, under the auspices of the Men's Guild, Mr. Burnet, of the Canadian General Electric Company, will give a lecture on "Incandescent Lights." This lecture will be open to all, and will no doubt be very interesting. A short musical programme will be given. The Senior Girls' Guild will meet to-night at 7.30, and to-morrow at 7.30 p.m. the Woman's Auxiliary will meet. The Boys' Brigade meeting will be held at 7.30. On Thursday at 4.15 the Junior W. A. will meet, and the public service will be held at 7.30 and the choir practice at 8.15 the same night.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN.

In this church yesterday the pastor, Rev. J. G. Potter, preached at both services, his morning subject being "Divine Ownership," and the text, 1st Cor., 6; 19-20,—"Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price." At the evening service the subject was "He will have mercy," the text being in St. John, 8. At the meeting of the Christian Endeavour Society to-night the subject will be on missions and the pastor will give an address on that subject. The public service will be held on Wednesday night at 7.45 and the choir will practice at 8.30. On Thursday, St. Andrew's night, there will be a Scottish concert, Mr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, will give a lecture on the subject, "At the Making of a Nation." There will also be a number of Scottish songs given, and Mr. Forsyth will give an organ solo.

The music at the services yesterday was much enjoyed. In the morning there was a quartette and chorus, "Come Unto Me," the quartette being composed of Misses Rush and Stevenson, and Messrs. Lang and Gerard. At the evening service the anthem was "God Who madest Earth and Heaven." Miss Rush also sang Wilkinson's setting of "Rescue the Perishing."

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST.

The subject of "Work" was dealt with yesterday morning by Rev. F. J. Scott in his sermon, which was a practical talk to Christians, especially.

There was a large attendance and two young men were baptised.

At the evening service Rev. C. C. McLaurin preached on the mission work in the Northwest.

To-night the regular meeting of the B.Y.P.U. will be held, and the pastor will give an address on a subject of interest to young people.

To-morrow night at 7.30 o'clock, the congregation will hold a fellowship tea, when the members of the church and regular adherents will join in a social evening. A large number of new members have been received recently, and it is largely for the purpose of making these acquainted with the older members that the tea is being held. There will be an impromptu programme.

MARK STREET METHODIST.

Special evangelistic services are being held in the Mark street church this week. Meetings will be held each night except Saturday in the church. These services commenced yesterday, when at both services the pastor preached special sermons appropriate to the occasion. The subject in the morning was "Hindrances to Entering Upon the Christian Life," and in the evening, "A Call to Active Service." The attendance at both services was large, and a good impression was created. At the evening service Mr. J. Willis, the choir master, sang a solo with good effect.

ST. PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN.

Yesterday morning in St. Paul's the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Torrance, who took for his subject, "The Young Ruler," and at the evening service, Rev. W. MacD. MacKay, occupied the pulpit.

The attendance was large and the services helpful.

To-night the weekly meeting of the Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavour, will be held, and the officebearers of the church will also meet.

On Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 the Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet.

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN.

Last night in the course of the Sermon Rev. Mr. Davidson referred in a grateful spirit to the improved condition of the spiritual interest, of the church as shown by the number of communicants for the present month of November, being double in number of those of the same month last year.

The music yesterday was marked by general excellence. At the offertory at the morning service Mrs. Eardley-Wilmot and Mr. H. Morphet sang with great success the duet "Jesus Lover of My Soul." At the evening offertory a quartette, "Come Unto Me," was sung in excellent manner and spirit by Mrs. Eardley-Wilmot, Miss Daisy Jackson, Mr. Alex. Elliott and Mr. H. Morphet.

In St. John's schoolroom to-night at 8 o'clock at the regular fortnightly meeting of the Anglican Young People's Society, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt will deliver his illustrated lecture, "On the Rhine, Tour from Cologne to Schaffhausen." There will be several musical numbers on the programme. A silver collection of 10c and upwards will be taken at the door.

ST. LUKE'S ANGLICAN.

Yesterday morning in St. Luke's the newly confirmed took their first communion. Over one hundred took communion, and the rector preached on the doctrine of the Holy Communion, as it was the last Sunday in the church year. At night the rector preached from the text, "Let us consider the whole matter. Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man."

The congregations at both services were large.

To-night there will be a meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary and the Men's Guild at 8 o'clock. The Mother's Guild will meet on Wednesday at 3 o'clock. On the same evening at 8 o'clock the regular weeknight service will be held. The W. A. will meet on Thursday at 2.30, and at this meeting the bale for the mission station will be packed. The members of the auxiliary, as well as all ladies of the church are welcome to inspect the clothing, and offerings of clothing or cash may be made.

CHARLOTTE STREET METHODIST

Last night the pastor preached a special sermon to young people, his subject being, "The Character of Josiah, the King." He drew from the story of the life of Josiah, a number of lessons on the importance of early piety, showing the great benefit upon the life of the young.

In the morning his subject was "God's Love." In the anthem in the morning, Mr. Jobbitt sang a solo and at night Miss Clara Bellegbem rendered with good effect, "Oh, Rest in the Lord."

To-night at the Epworth Leragne meeting the subject of Temperance will be taken up.

The Mission Band on Friday night will give a Japanese social in the Sunday school room. It promises to be very interesting.

PARK STREET BAPTIST.

At the Park street Baptist church last night the Gospel was told in sermon and song to a crowded congregation.

Three solos and four choruses were rendered during the sermon. Rev. William Sutherland conducted the opening services. The text chosen by the pastor was Col. iii, 15 and 16, showing the three-fold blessing filling the Christian heart.

First, singing, with grace in the heart.

Second, the word of Christ dwelling.

Thirdly, the peace of God ruling the heart.

Mr. Jas. Tranter sang a solo, "One Sweetly, Solemn Thought," the choir taking up the refrain.

Mrs. George Golleen's solo was:

"I am safe on His breast,
I have folded my wings,
On the bosom of mercy divine;
I am filled with the light
Of Thy presence so bright,
And the joy that will ever be mine."

This was sung to the accompaniment of cornet and bass violin, the full choir taking up the refrain, which made a great impression.

Mr. William Rowe sang a solo with quartette accompaniment in the refrain.

There was evidence of deep spiritual awakening on the part of the congregation, and there is little doubt that the service will result in great blessing.

An interesting programme is prepared for to-night at the B.Y.P.U. meeting. Special attention will be paid to welcome visitors.

The Dorcas Society will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mr. Henry Jewett, on Chamberlain street. There will be the installation of the new officers for the year. A large attendance is looked for.

CROWN AND COMBINES.

Attorney-General Whiting That Mr. Curry Has All Aid—Grocers' Combine Raided in Hamilton.

Toronto, Nov. 27.—"I intend to start prosecuting the combines this week," said the Crown-Attorney. "It will not be the enamelware, against whom an information was first issued, but one of the simpler combines. Some of them will only take a very short time to dispose of. I have no witnesses whatever to speak of, but I have just as good. I have evidence down in black and white.

"I saw the Attorney-General Saturday," continued Mr. Curry, "and he said that I could have all the assistance I required. I do not think I will require anybody except someone to do the clerical work, a stenographer, and possibly an accountant. I will have to do the rest of the work myself, for if a man does not know his case he cannot go through with it."

Informations against the 127 members, named on Saturday, in the supply men and master plumbers' cases, were sworn to Saturday by Detective Verney.

SEARCH GROCERS' COMBINE.

Informations Sworn Out Against Two Members and Documents Seized.

Hamilton, Nov. 27.—A sensation similar to that of the prosecution against the plumbers' combine in Toronto was sprung in this city Saturday afternoon when an information was sworn out against George E. Bristol and H. C. Beckett, charging them and others of the Canada Grocers, Limited, with combining to keep up the prices of starch, sugar and other commodities to prevent competition in the same articles.

Crown Attorney S. F. Washington, K.C., and Sheriff's Officer Stewart went to the company's office during the afternoon, armed with a search warrant to look for documents. They then went to the office of W. H. Gillard & Co. to search for books and documents. The Crown-Attorney secured some documents, but said he had not examined them.

AMBULANCE STRUCK BY AUTO.

Surgeon Killed Instantly—Blanketted Woman Patient Unhurt.

New York, Nov. 27.—Dr. Clarence Barlow, ambulance surgeon of Roosevelt Hospital, was killed while on duty Saturday night on his ambulance.

A ponderous sight-seeing automobile struck the ambulance, which contained a woman patient, the driver, and Dr. Barlow. The surgeon was thrown to the pavement, and his skull fractured. He died within ten minutes. Although the ambulance was wrecked neither the patient nor to driver were injured.

The patient inside the ambulance was protected by thick blankets which had been wrapped about her.

Peace Treaty Ratified.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Without formality the final chapter in the bloody war between Russia and Japan was enacted in the diplomatic room of the State Department Saturday afternoon, when at 4.05 o'clock Baron Rosen, the Russian Ambassador, and Mr. Takahira, the Japanese Minister, on behalf of their respective sovereigns exchanged ratifications of the treaty of Portsmouth, which was signed Sept. 5 last. The only witnesses were Prince Kudacheff, the secretary of the Russian ambassador, and Mr. Hioki, counsellor and first secretary of the Japanese legation. Their work done, Baron Rosen and Mr. Takahira shook hands and left the department.

If You Suffer

From Germ Troubles, Please Learn What Liquozone Can Do.

Thousands who were sick—like you, perhaps—are well to-day because of Liquozone. Many had doctored long. Many were discouraged because other treatments had failed. But they were treating germ diseases with remedies which do not kill germs.

We offered to buy them a bottle of Liquozone—just as we offer you. They did with it what other remedies failed to accomplish. And those countless cured ones — scattered everywhere — are now telling others what Liquozone has done.

Kills Disease Germs.

Contact with Liquozone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquozone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poisons when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so helpless in a germ disease. Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying; yet no disease germ can exist in it.

The virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. They are generated from the best producers of oxygen, sulphur dioxide and other germicidal gases. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. The object is to so fix the gases, and to combine them, as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

We purchased the American rights to Liquozone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved, again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. To-day there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquozone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In the last few years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquozone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—we offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

LOCAL OPTION.

The form the temperance movement is taking now is the local option wave, which is rolling pretty generally over the province, and the temperance people show their faith in it by their works, by taking every opportunity of procuring its submission to the electorate. They seem to regard it as the best medium available for promoting temperance reform. It seems to be preferred to general prohibition, and to vigorous enforcement of the license law. It will not be amiss to remind many zealous temperance advocates that if there is any particular merit in the local option law, the friends temperance are indebted to a Liberal government for it. In 1889, the local option law was placed on the statute books by the Legislature under the Mowat Government. The attitude of many temperance persons is not conspicuously consistent. When the Ross Government was in power these same temperance enthusiasts demanded absolute prohibition, and would not be satisfied with anything short of that; but when that Government gave the people an opportunity of having prohibition, if they desired it, these same temperance people, instead of urging the people too vote for the measure which would have insured prohibition, urged them to denounce, by a hostile vote, the Government which had provided a means of giving the province, a prohibition measure, under conditions which promised effective enforcement. When the Ross Government was retired from power, the Whitney Government, with its rigorous license enforcement policy, was hailed as the hope of a certain temperance element, and the "banish the bar" cry was sung small. Now, that that panacea has not wrought the revolution expected, except, perhaps, in the form of replacing "Grit" with "Tory" hotel licenses, local option became the cry, and is hailed as the best machinery for temperance reform available, thus emphasizing the foresight and bona-fides of a Liberal Government in providing for the people's use an effective means for minimising, if they wish to employ that means, the evils resulting from the abuse of the drink traffic.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Toronto News Conservative had this do say concerning the objections urged — fruitlessly as the event has proved against the candidature of Hon. Mr. Aylesworth: But we are not interested in the denunciation of Mr. Aylesworth as "a corporation lawyer." We are inclined to think that he has practiced his profession honourably and successfully, and that there is nothing in his professional career to unfit him for useful public service. Nor do we think the fact that he does not live in North York any reason that he should be rejected. To our mind the local cry is mischievous and tends to exclude some of the best men in the country from Parliament. Character and attainments, and not place of residence, should be the chief concern of the electors in the candidates who seek their suffrages.

The Toronto News is authority for the statement that the Conservatives of Canda will hold a Pan-Dominion convention next autumn. We have no particular interest in the Conservative party as a mere party, but as Canadians we should like to see one of the great parties of Canada become worthy of Canada, worthy of its past and worthy of it's possibilities. Our system of party Government in this country is a fixture and that means a natural rivalry between the the two parties for the possession of power. And naturally the party which shows itself best fitted by its policy and organization to win the confidence of the people, must be the dominant party. It is no surprise that the Conservative party should show a determination to pull itself tegether and make an attempt to discover where it is at. It is, no one will dispute, as it has been for some time, sadly disorganised, and in this fact Liberals have an interest, for such conditions, are bound to react upon the party in power. It is admitted that, as matters stand, the usefulness of a party in power is affected considerably by the character of the Opposition. Even a good Government may find its usefulness improved by a vigourous and patriotic Opposition.

Was Assessed Five Dollars

Jas. Bigwind, a half breed from Alnwick, a Rice Lake reserve, was taken into custody Saturday by the police, having been found helplessly drunk on Simcoe street. This morning at the police court he told His Worship that some Frenchmen gave him the "fire water," but he said he didn't know their names.

"Five dollars to be paid forthwith," said the court, "in default of payment, ten days in gaol with hard labour."

Bigwind, probably being satisfied that he had had been confined long enough, handed over the cash.

The Farmers On the Question Of Tariff Revision

Meeting Held in Peterborough on Saturday to Discuss Their Relations to and Their Interest in Tariff Revision—A Lively Discussion of These Matters.

SENTIMENT AGAINST TARIFF REVISION

On Saturday afternoon, a meeting of reprepresentative farmers was held in the city council chamber, to discuss the interests and relations of the farming community to tariff revision. After a spirited and full discussion of the matters at issue, a committee was appointed to appear before the Tariff Commission, which sits in Peterborough on Thursday, to present the case of the farmers. This committee consists of Messrs. Dawson Kennedy, retired farmer; T. D. Young, North Monaghan, Robert Hanbidge, Otonabee and J. H. Garbutt, Smith.

The general tone of the discussion indicated that in the opinion of those present, there was no necessity, nor desire for, on the part of the farmers, nor did their interests demand, any change in the existing tariff.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I went to church last night That fact is not sufficiently out of the ordinary to occasion remarks, but I want to enter a protest against something I heard there. The choir, which by the way, is said to be one of the best in the city, sang well. I was delighted with their work, but I noticed that one of the male members of the choir in the the anthem persisted in singing soprano; of course, in an octave lower than the female voices. This grated on my nerves, and to my mind spoiled the whole effect of the music, because he has a strong voice and did not sing at all softly, except in the points where the music was too high for him. I wish he would stop it. Won't you tell him?

To Enliven The Liver

KIDNEYS AND BOWELS—TO PREVENT DISEASE BY CLEANSING THE SYSTEM—YOU MUST USE

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

There's need in every home for a medicine that will promptly cure biliousness, kidney derangements and constipation.

A medicine that by cleansing the filtering and excretory organs will remove all poisonous waste matter, and by so doing prevent fevers, colds and such deadly diseases as dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease.

No medicine satisfies this need so well as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

This is no idle boast, but an absolute fact that is backed up by the testimony of a hundred thousand homes.

The reputation of Dr. A. W. Chase as author and physician is the guarantee which first made this great medicine popular.

Now it stands on its record of cures—a record which has seldom, if ever, been paralleled in the history of medicine.

As a treatment for backaches, headaches, indigestion, aching limbs, liver derangements, kidney disorders and constipation, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are prompt, thorough and effective.

Once their merit is tested they are kept in the house and relied on in cases of emergency. By keeping the liver active and the bowels regular they positively prevent serious disease.

Mrs. Geo. Lawson, Consecon, Ont., writes:—"Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills made a well woman of me, completely curing me of constipation, rheumatism, stomach troubles and a very severe kidney trouble after years of suffering. I am now sixty-eight years of age and very grateful for what Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have done for me and for the remarkable cure of my husband by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Backache Plaster promptly eradicates pain and may be used on any part of the body.

An Incident At A Tea Meeting

"He laughs best, who laughs last," is an old proverb, but as true now as ever. A few evenings ago a tea and concert was being held in connection with a city church. Among other delicacies provided, was a most luscious lemon pie, with the customary thick layer of white frosting. While it was being served, a young lady, who took the first helping, had the misfortune to have the triangular piece of lusciousness turn a complete somersault, and land on her plate with the frosted side down. Those witnessing the little incident smiled discreetly, except one young man who ungallantly, drew the attention of all around to the slight mishap by his boisterous and uncontrolled laughter. But fate soon overtook him,—for when the remainder of the pie came around to him, through some unexplained reason the pie overturned, and fell, soft side downwards, on—his best trousers! Curtain!

Surely Not In Peterborough

A correspondent writes asking to be allowed to enter a protest against the practice, which is alleged to exist in this city, of "poaching" among the ministers, or, in plain words, trying to induce members of other congregations to desert their church and join that of the "poacher." The letter is too personal in its nature to be published, but the gist of it is given above. But surely our correspondent is mistaken. Surely the clergymen of this city—high-minded gentlemen as they all are—are above indulging in the practice of "sheep-stealing," as irreverent and vulgar people call it! Surely there is enough legitimate labour for the Master to be done here, without the sky pilots doing any "dark lantern" work! Nay, nay! Our correspondent has been misled. We can't believe the story. — Belleville Intelligencer.

An attractive example of photographic art has just been turned out by the Turner studio, George street, in a large group picture of the members of the Charlotte street baseball team, Guild League champions, for two successive years.

The grouping of the picture is most artistic. A central design, done in crayon by Mr. Turner, consists of a diamond arrangement of bats, surrounding a photograph of the Examiner trophy, emblematic of the championship. Directly beneath this is the legend in relief letters, "Charlotte street Guild Baseball Club, Champions of 1904-05."

The background is artistically conceived and with fine gradations of shading serves to give a charming effect of unity in the ensemble effect.

The individual pictures, each excellent in their workmanship, are placed around the central design, and comprise the following players and officials of the club: Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, B.C.L., Chaplain; Ira Moore, official scorer; R. McWilliams, cf.; J. Squires, 2b.; E. Carr, asc.-treas.; G. Crowe, 1f.; W. Thornton, 1b.; T. Heaslip, 2b.; F. Roddy, f.; N. McWilliams, manager and ss.; N. Roddy, p.; B. Lang, catcher; R. Williams, 3b.; Ryan, rf.; W. Galbraith, Vice-President; and A. Brookhouse, President. The picture is framed in oak, and is on display in the window of Ormond and Walsh.

The Annual Concert under the Auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary, of the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday Dec. 7th., will be given by the English Grand Concert Company, not "Opera" Company, as was stated Saturday.

For the Reading Table.

That delightful sense of the "correct thing" comes with the use of the Eaton-Hulbert correspondance papers, for sale at the Peterborough Bookstore. Specially commendable for milady's use are Highland, Queen's Plate or Smooth Satin-like surface and fibre, or linen cloth finish. A. H. Stratton & Co.

Disgraceful Conduct.

—On Saturday night about 9.20 o'clock, the chief was informed of the boisterous conduct of about ten or twelve young boys and girls on Water street. The boys apparently were from fourteen to sixteen years of age, and the girls twelve or thirteen. The conduct of these young people was disgraceful, and it is very unfortunate that young girls should have so little respect for themselves as to be guilty of such conduct upon the public streets. Such misconduct will be severely dealt with in the future. Some mothers wonder why their daughters do not always keep the straight and narrow path, but if they would keep off the street a little more there would be less reason to fear for their welfare.

Lamented Death Of Mrs. Arnott

Demise Occurred at an Early Hour Yesterday Morning.

After an illness of about three weeks' duration, the death occurred at about six o'clock yesterday morning at the family residence, 53 Patterson street, city, of Hattie Tedford, wife of William Arnott.

The late Mrs. Arnott, who was twenty-six years of age, was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tedford, of Smith Township, both of whom survive to mourn her loss. Born in Harvey Township she removed with the family taking up residence in Smith Township, and was married there later to Mr. Arnott. The family is one of the most widely known and highly respected in the section in which they resided, and the knowledge of Mrs. Arnott's demise will come as a deep shock to a large circle of friends.

Surviving members of the family beside the father and mother of the deceased are four sisters and five brothers, as follows:—Mrs. W. J. Hawes, city; Mrs. Thomas Hewie, Fenelon Falls; Mrs. Byron Westway, Fenelon Falls; Mrs. J. Wilson, Harvey; Robert, John, and George, of Smith; William Henry, of Harvey, and Richard, of Fenelon Falls. One young son, Robert, also survives.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock from the family residence, 53 Patterson street, to Little Lake Cemetery for interment. The services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Torrance, of St. Paul's church, of whose congregation at Knox Church the deceased was a valued member.

Saturday's Picture Is Identified

Interest in the "Prominent Citizen" series of pictures which the Examiner is running each Saturday is increasing, and the paper on Saturday is in great demand. The picture published last Saturday was a puzzler for the majority of people, and many wild guesses were made, the first correct answer to the question "Who Is It," coming from Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell, the Hunter street grocer, who also had the honour of first giving the correct answer a week ago. He telephoned in at 5.50 o'clock, Saturday night.

Mr. J. J. Hartley was the next to identify the picture, and Mr. John G. Irwin, of the post office staff, met one of the reporters on the street, and informed him that he knew who the picture represented. It was Mr. John Kinsaid.

Dr. Poole telephoned in at 5 o'clock that he believed it was Mr. Wm. Langford.

Peterboro' Wins Intermediate Championship Of O. R. F. U.

Dundas Defeated in Fastest Game Seen Here This Season—The Visitors Didn't Have a Chance at Any Stage of the Game—Shaw's Phenomenal Punting Again Largely Responsible for Many of the Scores—Great Enthusiasm Displayed by Large Crowd—Ideal Weather Conditions.

Few towns or cities in Canada of a corresponding size to Peterborough can boast the sporting championship which this city can. In fact seldom does a year pass without a Dominion or Provincial championship of some description coming to Peterborough. This year is no exception to what has almost come to be an established rule and on Saturday the Peterborough rugby team established this right to the championship of the Intermediate series of the O.R.F.U. by defeating the Dundas team by the wide margin of 16-2 before the largest crowd that ever saw a football game in Peterborough.

In this game abundant proof was furnished of the fact that the team which wears the blue and white has a well-deserved right to the title of Intermediate Championship. After having played a tie game with Dundas on the latter's own grounds, they defeated them here by the wide margin given above.

While in the estimation of the majority of the citizens it was a pretty safe conclusion that the local team would win, there was still an element of chance in the game, by reason of the fact that the Dundas team had established a reputation for playing better rugby away from home than at home, and, taking on this, the supporters of the team from the factory town were willing to back their team. But this game was the exception, and, instead of winning out as they hoped to do, the visitors were rather unceremoniously turned down, and the result, another championship perches on the banners of the local team. The Dundas aggregation, however, were good losers and they went home perfectly satisfied that they had been treated fairly, and that the championship had been won on the merits of the play. There was the very best of feeling manifested by the members of the team towards the other.

The Dundas team ran a special train to Peterborough, and about 100 supporters accompanied them, and made their presence known on the field in no uncertain manner.

At the conclusion of the game the champions were conducted off the field to their club house in triumph by their admirers who swarmed on to the field to congratulate the players upon their splendid win. Captain Eugene Hurtubise came in for unstinted praise for the manner in which he had handled the team this year, and it was recognized that it was very largely due to his efforts both as captain and as player that this year the O.R.F.U. championship comes to the "Electric City".

Another Championship.

Peterborough 16.
Dundas 2.
Half-time score—
Peterborough 7.
Dundas 0.

Over a thousand people, representing by far the largest crowd that has witnessed a rugby match at Riverside Park this year, thronged last Saturday to see Peterborough defeat the strong Dundas twelve, who although defeated are by no means disgraced, and who are truly a close second to the Intermediate champions of the O.R.F.U. While the score would seem to indicate that Peterborough had easily the better of the play, such, however, was not the case, and every inch of ground was stubbornly contested. Peterborough's splendid achievement may be attributed in no small measure to the splendid punting of Shaw, the brilliant centre half of the champions. Shaw easily equals in the matter of punting, any half back in the O.R.F.U., and his deep kick over the bar, while the ball was in play, was one of the prettiest and most difficult feats of the day. The rest of Peterborough's backs also played gilt-edged ball. Crowley was in the game from beginning to end and his superb running was a feature of the day. He was easily the fleetest man on the field. Gillespie, who, on Saturday, played on the half line for the first time made a splendid showing. He caught the ball nicely and tore off excellent runs. His work in this game stamps him a "comer" in the pigskin chasing sphere. Mulhern at full back caught pretty nearly everything that came his way and was one of the coolest and most level headed players on the gridiron. His fine dodging runs brought rounds of applause from the supporters of the local team. Peterborough's wing line, too, had that of the opposing aggregation beaten. They gave Shaw magnificent protection and time after time the Dundas wings endeavored to break through but, although in a great many instances kicking close to the wing line, only one or two of his punts were blocked. Gilbert at outside wing did grand work, following up like lightning, and in three or four instances, saving the ball from the clutches of the Dundas man when only the quickest work rendered this possible. His tackling, as it always is, was far superior to that of most wings in intermediate, and it might be said senior rugby. Craig and Regan, at inside, made a very effective pair. When Craig tackled his man in many instances the latter bit the dust and Regan held his opponent down well. In the first part of the game when Quackenbush, the visitors quarter tried to buck, he demonstrated to that player a few of the unpleasant features of real hard tackling, and it didn't take the Dundas quarter long to find out that bucking was a little too strenously opposed to be either pleasant or effective. Hurtubise did most effective work and was responsible for the only touch-down made during the entire game. In close plays he was particularly good, and as captain he used good discretion in engineering the game. Crough put up a good game at outside and he and Gilbert made one of the best pairs of outside men in intermediate rugby. Meagher who played middle wing in former years was tried out at quarter and did good work. McDonald and Dillon at middle and inside wings respectively were in the game all the time and did splendid work. For the losers Nelson at centre half and Martin and Cameron on the wings were the most effective. Quackenbush also did some good work at quarter.

The visitors with a bunch of about one hundred rooters made themselves heard when Dundas did anything out of the ordinary. Their cheering was particularly loud when in the second half the western team made a point, thus assuring their supporters that a whitewash was not the order of the day anyway. Peterborough's backers cheered themselves hoarse throughout the entire game and no wonder considering the great showing of their favourites.

The weather conditions were indeed good and very little wind was blowing during the afternoon. The air was cool and crisp, not too chilly for the spectators, but just bracing enough to encourage the players to work for all that was in them.

THE GAME.

About 3 o'clock the teams faced each other, lining up as follows:—

Peterborough.		Dundas.
Mulhern	Full Back.	Grafton
Crowley	Halves.	Kelly
Shaw		Brady
Gillespie		Nelson
Meagher	Quarter.	Quackenbush
Hurtubise	Snap.	Smith
Craig	Inside.	Wilson
Dillon		Boucher
Regan	Middle	Smith
McDonald		Stinson
Gilbert	Outside.	Murray
Crough		Cameron

Referee—Simpson; umpire, Tope.

Dundas kicked from centre. Gilbert worked in a nice run, but received a knee and was hurt delaying the game for a couple of minutes. Shaw kicked a good one and Dundas returned; Gillespie fumbled and Dundas were on the ball. Dundas tried the bucking game but made no ground. McDonald made a nice tackle after the visitors had tried another buck and gained nothing again. Nelson kicked and Gillespie caught well making a splendid sprint. Regan was offside and Dundas was given ten yards. Nelson dashed down towards the Peterborough line McDonald and Gilbert missing him. Shaw caught him, however, downed him near the line. Crowley caught but made no ground being brought down on a pretty tackle. Shaw kicked to Kelly who fumbled. Gilbert who had followed up fast fell on the ball. Nelson caught the pigskin, but was downed. Quackenbush bucked but gained nothing. Nelson was given 20 yards when making his mark and was consequently awarded ten. Shaw booted it over the line but it was returned. Crowley made good run. Shaw kicked and Dundas was forced to rouge. Score 1-0.

Shortly afterwards Dundas got the ball behind the line and was forced to rouge again. 2-0.

Hurtubise nearly went over. Peterborough had a down fight on top of Dundas line. Shaw rouged 3-0. Quackenbush tried to get through the Peterborough line, but lost the ball, Crough falling on it. Shaw tried a run but was downed by Martin on a fine tackle. The visitors again rouged before half time. Score 4-0.

SECOND HALF.

This half saw pretty strenuous playing on the part of both teams. Men were laid out all over the field and although no one was very seriously hurt it was simply good luck that saved some of the men from being seriously injured. Peterborough kicked from centre and Cameron ran with the leather until he met Gilbert—then Dundas had a down. Nelson kicked and Gillespie sprinted for about fifteen or twenty yards. After an exchange of kicks Grafton had to rouge. Score 5-0.

Regan was hurt. Crowley let himself out a link or two and made one of his sensational spurts. Shaw kicked a touch-in-goal. Score 6-0. The next interference play on the part of Dundas was a funny "dough". Shaw punted and Cameron, who had managed to break through was hit on the nose with the ball. He was a little dazed for a moment but soon was chasing the feather again. Shaw lambasted another over the line and Grafton couldn't get it back quickly enough. Score 7-0. Mulhern ran well. Shaw's punt was caught and Dundas gained ground. The ball was dangerously near Peterborough line. Nelson punted it over the local goal line and Mulhern was brought down for a rouge. Uproarious cheers from the supporters of the red and white. Score 8-1.

Dundas again tried the bucking, but it was no use. McDonald was hurt. Shaw was forced to rouge. Score 9-2. Hurtubise bucked. Shaw punted a nice one but it went out of bounds. Dundas fumbled and Hurtubise grabbed up the pigskin and dumped over the line for a touch. Then there was cheering. Shaw failed to convert Score 12-2.

Dundas was offside and Peterborough was given yards. Brady ran for a fair gain. Gillespie sprinted for about twenty-five yards. Grafton fumbled and Crough fell on the ball. Dundas had to rouge. Score 13-2. Brady fumbled and Regan was on top of him. Meagher made short run. Shaw dropped a beauty over the bar for three points. It was a dandy. Score 16-2. Shaw passed to Crowley when tackled and the latter gained considerable ground. Shaw caught Kelly's kick and ran with the ball. Gillespie made a short dash. Nelson kicked to Shaw who tore off a nice run. Quackenbush sprinted but was tackled before he made any ground. The ball was in Dundas territory when time was called.

Final score 16-2.

PICKSHINETTES.

Best game of the year.

"They're good losers, they must be good winners"—a prominent local gentleman after the game.

The crowd might have been larger. Still, there's no kick coming. The gate amounted to two hundred and twenty two dollars.

Pretty close game at the beginning. Dundas was delighted with their treatment.

Rough Riders II. next. The chances for the championship are bright.

Hugh Hayes prognosticated correctly when he picked Peterborough to win the Intermediate championship. Simpson and Tope made faultless officials. Simpson said after the game that the locals could trim the senior Toronto Argonauts in Toronto. Now that's encouraging, considering where it came from.

After the game Shaw was dragged into the Oriental dining room and had to give a short speech. "Sorry Dach team's couldn't win", he said.

When Nelson entered the dining-room everybody yelled for the western captain.

The cast from chorus of the C.G.E. were much in evidence. Whitcroft acted as linesman, but his leadership was shown by the beautiful work of the chorus. "If was not like this last Saturday" was an appropriate parody on the "Yankee Consul" song hit.

The game was closer than the score would indicate.

Dr. "Vic" McWilliams, of Keene, the old time centre half and one of the best players that graced the gridiron in his day was an interested spectator.

Here's hoping that the ground's not covered with snow when the locals and Rough Riders II. clash next Saturday.

Dundas backed their team heavily to win taking the short end of odds ranging from 10-8 to 10-5. It is said they left about $600 in Peterborough.

• • • •

There will be a practice of the old game to-night at 7.30 in the Brock street rink.

The President of the club, Mr. A. A. Hellingshead, was presented with the ball that was used in the match last Saturday and three hearty cheers were given for this energetic and capable head of the intermediate champions.

BASKET BALL.

The Harriers and Brownies will play an interesting game on Wednesday night at 8.30.

• • • •

There will be a junior game on Saturday night at the Y.M.C.A. between the detroit boys and the intermediates. Both teams are playing good ball and the game will be a good one.

HOCKEY

"T" Howell, formerly of Paris, now in Peterborough, will be signed by the American Soo to complete the team. Howell was professionalized by the O.H.A. for playing with the Guelph Nationals several years ago, but was reinstated."—Ottawa Free Press.

BOXING AND WRESTLING.

Harvey Parker, the Little Demon, American welterweight champion catch-as-catch can wrestler of America, and Charlie Conkle, of Hamilton, will wrestle at the Hamilton drill hall to-night for the welterweight championship of America. There will be a preliminary bout between Whitcomb, the Stony Creek wrestler, and Lynburner, the "Strong Boy". Parker and Conkle met about a year ago and wrestled for over an hour, neither man obtaining a fall.

THAT OVER WORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN

There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with diseases peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have pale or sallow complexion, hollow, sunken eyes, with a lifeless look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often extremely nervous, starting at every little noise. Many are low-spirited, and some are fretful. Some are apparently bloodless, with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unequal circulation of the blood, dizziness, and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are wearied with terrible dreams.

Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, shortness of breath and the sensation of pins and needles are all indications of a weakened condition of the heart or nervous system, and should any of them be present we would strongly advise the use of

They bring health to the broken down, energy to the weakened constitution, tone up the tired, overstrained nerves, and strengthen the weak heart.

Mrs. Edward Jackson, Half's Bridge, Ont., writes: "For a year I was greatly troubled with nervousness and loss of appetite, and could neither sleep nor eat. After taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was completely cured and can recommend them to all sufferers."

HIS MOST ACTIVE CAREER

Church Financier Who Engineered the Great Presbyterian Century Fund of One Hundred and a Half Millions —General Agent of Church Since 1886—In 1901 He Was Honored With Highest Moderatorship.

Toronto, Nov. 27.—Death has at length released from suffering Rev. Robert H. Warden, D. D., one of the foremost figures of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He passed away at 4.30 yesterday morning at the Queen's Hotel. It was in May last that he was seriously seized with a painful internal malady. He went to Roche's Point, and, later on, he was removed to the Queen's Hotel, where he had been more or less seriously ill ever since.

A few hours after his death yesterday morning his body was removed to the residence of his son, 100 Spadina road. The death occurred in the presence of his wife, two of his sons, Alex. and Lyle, and one of his daughters, Mrs. (Lilla) Fairman of Montreal. His other daughter, Mrs. (Marian) Denton, also of Montreal, arrived yesterday in this city. William Warden arrived from Smith's Falls.

LATE REV. DR. WARDEN.

A private service takes place at the residence, 100 Spadina road, Tuesday afternoon. A public service will be held at Bloor Street Presbyterian Church at 2.30 the same day.

Yesterday, in all the Presbyterian pulpits, reference was made in feeling terms to the death.

Robert H. Warden was the son of Alexander J. Warden, F. S. A., of Dundee, Scotland, and was born in Dundee on Jan. 4, 1841, and was thus in his 65th year. He received his preliminary education at Madras College, and coming to Canada he entered Knox College, from which he graduated in 1866. His first charge was at Bothwell, where he remained for eight years. In 1874 he accepted the agency of Knox College, and in 1875 went from Toronto to Montreal as an agent of the church. Later he became secretary of the French evangelistic work and treasurer of the Presbyterian College, from which he received the degree of D. D. He was first secretary and later convener of the home mission committee of the Presbyterian Church. Dr. Warden was also secretary of the augmentation fund and governing director of the Presbyterian Ladies' College at Ottawa. For a number of years he was editor of The Presbyterian Record. On the retirement of Rev. Dr. Reid, in 1895, from the office of general agent of the Presbyterian Church, Dr. Warden was elected to the office, and in 1896 formally accepted the position. In 1901, at the General Assembly in Ottawa, Dr. Warden received the office of moderator. His aptitude for financial affairs in connection with church work had its crowning achievement in the management of the century fund.

Not since 1875 did he have a charge of his own, his executive and financial ability enabling him to serve his church in the direction these talents fitted him for.

His place was as an administrator rather than a shepherd, and his finest oratorical effort was made in the General Assembly, when he moved that the Century Fund be established. The idea was received somewhat dubiously, but when he sat down after delivering a most telling argument in its favor the assembly was convinced of the feasibility of the scheme. The result proved the soundness of his reasoning. Under his guiding hand the fund grew like a rolling snowball until it reached the splendid figure of one hundred and a half millions.

He became generally recognized as an authority in financial matters, and refused many tempting offers for the sake of his church. He was, however, president of the Metropolitan Bank and various other financial institutions. He had a wide circle of friends, among whom he inspired the utmost respect.

Death Comes With the Amen.

Brockville, Nov. 27.—A sensation was created during service in St. Peter's Anglican Church yesterday morning by the sudden death of Geo. A. McMullen, who came in late and, taking his place in the choir, sang the concluding verses of the opening hymn. His daughter was the presiding organist, and as the notes of the "Amen" died away and the congregation was being seated, Mr. McMullen sank in a heap and fell out upon the floor. Willing hands carried him into the vestry, a few steps away, but ere he reached the room life was extinct. A doctor pronounced the cause of death heart failure. He was born at Orillia over 60 years ago and was town clerk of this town for the past ten years. His widow and a family of three children, two daughters and one son, survive.

Mrs. (Judge) Harding Dies.

Lindsay, Nov. 27.—Saturday news of the sudden death of Mrs. (Judge) Harding came with a sudden shock. Mrs. Harding and her two youngest daughters had only returned a few weeks ago from a visit to her daughter in Vancouver, and within the past few days had been apparently in the best of health. Mrs. Harding was the daughter of George Stevenson of Sarnia, and was married to George Harding in 1866.

Sign of An Yielding Attitude on the Part of the Porte—Turkey's Foreign Minister Makes First Visit to British and Austro-Hungarian Ambassadors Since Oct. 27.—Proposes Some Modifications.

Constantinople, Nov. 27.—The fleet of the allied powers arrived at the Island of Mytilene yesterday.

A further sign, however, of the yielding attitude of the Porte is that the Foreign Minister, Tewfik Pasha, on Saturday visited the British Ambassador, Sir Nichols R. O'Connor, and the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador, Baron Von Calice, with the object of proposing a modification of the Macedonian reform scheme, by which the financial delegates of the powers in Macedonia should be appointed by the Porte and designated as Ottoman financial councillors. It is doubtful whether the powers will accept this modification, but the position is more hopeful as this is the first time any visit has been made between the Porte and the Ambassadors since Oct. 27, when the Porte refused the request of the Ambassadors for a collective audience of the Sultan, with the exception of the German Ambassador, Baron Von Bieberstein, who on three occasions during this interval visited Tewfik Pasha. The last conference between the Ambassador and the Minister was held Friday last, and it was a prolonged one.

Sultan's Assailants On Trial.

The trial was begun here Saturday of a Belgian subject named Boris, and of fifteen Armenians, on the charge of complicity in the attempt on the life of the Sultan, July 21 last.

Sixteen other Armenians are being tried simultaneously in connection with the recent discovery of bombs and explosives.

The publicity given to the trials at the present moment, and a reference made in court Saturday, to alleged foreign support received by the revolutionary Armenians lent color to the report that the authorities are trying to stir up public opinion against foreigners.

Moslems May Resist.

London, Nov. 27.—Information from Constantinople and other Islam sources indicates that the time at last has arrived when the Moslem world is prepared to resist with all its resources the encroachments of the Christian or civilized powers.

European statesmen take little cognisance of Moslem public opinion. It is a factor nevertheless which the Sultan himself dares not ignore in its present condition. Intelligent Mussulmans deeply resent the attitude of Europe at this juncture. The present movement, in their opinion, is simply a disguised plan to drive Turkish rule from Europe. That they insist is the true issue, and that issue they are prepared to meet by the desperate resistance of the whole Moslem world.

It is now certain that the selection of Queen Victoria's correspondence from 1837 to 1861 will run to three volumes. They may be expected about this time next year.

A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy, tired and worn out constantly," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 1613 No. Wahsatch Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

Russian Sailors Have Mutined At Sebastopol

But Authorities At Sebastopol Have Them Hemmed In.

BREST REGIMENT CAVES IN

Asks Pardon of Vice-Admiral Chouknin and Return to Duty—Two Ships In the Harbor Join the Mutineers, But There Were No Disorders on Sunday—An Admiral Seriously Wounded by the Sailors.

Sebastopol, Nov. 27.—Though the mutinous sailors have not yet submitted, but on the contrary have received promises of support from the crews of the battleship Panteleimon (formerly the Kniaz Potemkine) and the cruiser Otchakoff, and though they are in complete possession of the Admiralty port, where the barracks are located, there were no disorders yesterday and the situation is regaded as much improved.

The mutineers have been deserted by the Brest Regiment, which marched off under arms to a camp formed by loyal sailors, and sent a message to Vice-Admiral Chouknin, asking his pardon and saying that they were ready to return to duty.

The authorities have posted artillery and have the mutineers completely hemmed in but are awaiting the arrival of the troops from Simferopol before attempting to retake the barracks.

Disciplined Mutineers.

The mutineers apparently are in a state of excellent discipline. They have erected barricades, have placed a guard at the aqueduct which supplies the barracks and have thrown out pickets, which take regular turns at guardian duty. They declared yesterday that they had risen because their commanders had withheld concessions promised by the Emperor, and they were ready to hold out until these were put into effect.

The sailors who mutinied number about 4,000 and belong to various equipages from the 28th to the 36th. Including the sailors on board the ships, there were about 8,000 in Sebastopol when the mutiny occurred. The troops in the garrison consisted of the Brest and Bielostok regiments, with two battalions of artillery, one battalion of fortress artillery.

By the death of Sir Bryan O'Loghlen, Bart., ex-Premier of Victoria, Australia, one of the last men who took an active part in the Irish insurrection of 1848, has passed away.

Girls' Guild Scores Success

The members of the Girls' Guild of the George street Methodist church, are certainly progressive, and the latest proof of that fact was given on Saturday night, when two of the members sold candy from a stand in the Rest Stove Company's store.

During the whole evening they were kept busy supplying the wants of their numerous customers. Almost the entire supply of candy, and it was a large one, was disposed of, and, as a result, the young ladies are feeling elated over their success. It is probable that the sale will be continued each Saturday. It is expected that the proceeds will be devoted to some charitable object.

—A couple of local bank clerks had an exciting experience yesterday while out riding. One of the riders rose up in his stirrups and slashed the leading horse of the three that were pursuing them across the face with his riding strap. The horse stopped immediately, and the companions, taking "warrening" from their fellow equine's punishment, followed suit. The plunging cobs were also soon quieted by their riders, and the rest of the ride passed without further mishap.

KILLED IN A FIGHT.

Alex. Carter Held For the Murder of Fred Miller—Both Were Employed in Rosley Stables.

Toronto, Nov. 27.—Alexander Carter, 23 years of age, whose mother resides at 30 Claremont street, was locked up in No. 4 station last night, on the charge of murder. He is an employe of the Kirkfield stable. The victim is Fred Miller, better known as "Dutchy," who worked for the J. E. Seagram stables.

The scene of the fatality was in the small cottage, better known as the "Seagram's Kitchen," on the Woodbine track, at Queen street and Woodbine avenue.

The time was about 5.30 Sunday afternoon.

P. C. Dalby (129) was on duty at Queen street and Woodbine avenue at 5.45 p. m., when he heard two boys asking for a doctor in a hurry. They said "Andy" has shot "Dutchy." They took the officer to the "kitchen," where he found Miller lying on a bed, dead, with a bullet hole in the region of the heart. The body was not cold. Dr. Clark, 2,282 East Queen street, soon arrived. He said death was almost instantaneous.

After Dalby had been there a short time Carter came in and asked how Miller was getting on. Dalby did not tell Carter Miller was dead. Carter said "I'd better give myself up. Here is the gun."

After being placed under arrest, Carter admitted the shooting. He said he and Miller had a row. Miller went to his trunk and got the revolver. They fought again and while Carter was on his back and Miller on top, he (Carter) got possession of the weapon and fired the fatal shot. That is all Carter would say. He says there were only the two of them present. He refuses to say why he went to the Seagram quarters, or what the quarrel was about.

SHOT HIS COMRADE.

Tragedy at Quebec Citadel Growing From a Jocular Remark.

Quebec, Nov. 27.—An unprovoked shooting affray occurred in the Citadel yesterday morning, whereby Gunner Thomas Hall of the Royal Canadian Artillery lies at the point of death, and Gunner John Berry is a prisoner at police headquarters.

At breakfast Berry, who was on guard all night, complained of not feeling well, when Hall, who was sitting next to him, made a jocular remark. Berry immediately drew a revolver and fired, the bullet striking in the left side a little below the heart, and lodging in the intestines. Berry springing to his feet fired another shot, declaring he would clear out the room, but before he could do any more harm he was overpowered and made prisoner.

Hall was conveyed to Jeffery Hospital. He was so weak when he reached there that the doctors would not probe for the bullet. Berry is 30 years of age, and joined the battery six weeks ago. He was formerly in the Imperial Army, and is said to have suffered a sunstroke while serving in India. It is said he shows evident signs of insanity.

Hall is only 18 years, and belongs to Montreal. He joined the battery about a fortnight since.

Windsor, Nov. 27.—It has now been definitely ascertained that the shortage of William Millard, the division court bailiff who disappeared from his home here about ten days ago, will exceed $3,500. Of this amount probably two-thirds is in the shape of city taxes, which had been turned over Millard from collections.

Provincial Detective Mahoney, who has the case in charge, has been unable to secure any trace of the missing man's whereabouts.

Accused of Abduction.

Montreal, Nov. 27.—Fireman Picard was arrested Friday night on a charge of having abducted a 17-year-old girl named Helene Dubeu from Fraserville, Que. He pleaded not guilty Saturday morning.

Christiania, Nov. 27.—The new King and Queen of Norway made their state entry Saturday afternoon and were received with every demonstration of good will. Fog delayed their arrival several hours.

The members of the Norwegian Parliament greeted their majesties on their arrival at the castle.

In reply to the president's speech of welcome King Haakon said he hoped the splendid reception accorded him and his consort would be a good omen of the future relations between himself and the people.

Game May Be Played Here

This morning Mr. C. G. Graham was in telephonic communication with the Ottawa rugby team in reference to the game for the Dominion championship to be played in this city. The club is holding a meeting in Ottawa this afternoon, when the matter will be fully considered, and the local club will be notified to-night whether or not the proposals submitted to Ottawa will be acceptable to them.

The Attendance Is Increasing

Yesterday the attendance at the Clarkette street Sunday school was 394, which is the largest regular attendance ever recorded in the school. The increased attendance is due largely to the recent improvements which give greater accommodation for scholars.

Perished In Waters Of TRENT CANAL: Louis Bell's Probable Fate

Thirteen-Year Old Son of Auburn Resident Failed to Return From Skating Last Night, and Circumstances Point Strongly to His Probable Death by Drowning—Boots Were Found Upon the Ice—Diligent Search Fails to Reveal Any Trace of Boy's Whereabouts

Circumstances all point to the death by drowning last night in the Trent Canal of Louis Bell, the thirteen-year-old son of William Bell, who resides at Auburn, upon the eastern side of the river.

The boy left home yesterday afternoon at about 4.30 o'clock, stating his intention of going skating upon the canal, near which Mr. Bell's residence is situated. Before leaving the house he was cautioned with regard to the dangerous condition of the ice by his mother.

The parents of the boy becoming alarmed later in the evening by his prolonged absence, instituted a searching party, and both a thorough inquiry among the neighbours and a search of the canal failed to reveal anything concerning his whereabouts. Near the opposite bank of the canal, upon the ice directly behind the house the boy's boots were discovered. The ice in the section of the canal situated between the Golf grounds and the Douro Bridge has formed to a considerable thickness, though at both ends the water is open.

A companion of the boy's, who is an employee of the Auburn Woollen Mills, this morning reported that he had seen him last night at about 7.30 o'clock at Little Lake. At this time Bell was preparing to start for home. He had evidently covered the distance from his home to Little Lake by walking and skating as the water has been let out of part of the intervening section.

No further trace has since been discovered of the boy, and the probabilities strongly point to the view that he has perished in the waters of the canal. The ice is thin in most places, while the large areas of open water afforded, probably an even greater danger.

Through the kind efforts of Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, Mr. R. B. Rogers, Mr. J. H. McClellan and others, a searching party has been instituted which will this afternoon continue the effort to locate the boy, and everything possible will be done to locate the body if the sad fears entertained as to his drowning are confirmed.

The family consists of, besides the parents of the boy, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, two daughters and two sons, viz.,—Mrs. Lush, of the N.W.T.; Mrs. Mowry, city; Arthur, of Douro, and William, of Cleveland. Mr. Bell, father of the boy, conducts a grocery business.

John Coughlan, a student at the Separate School, who resides on Concession street, was among the last to see the boy who is supposedly drowned. Seen this afternoon he stated that he saw Bell at about 5.30 o'clock in the evening, while the latter was skating upon the canal. About 6.30 o'clock, while returning from the city Coughlan states that he saw a boy ascending the hill near the Douro bridge, who he thought was Bell. An exchange of shouts occurred at a considerable distance. Coughlan was unable to positively identify the boy, whose reply was more or less unintelligible, but was apparently a request to go skating.

Joseph Rickerby Secures Acquittal

Judge Weller Finds Him Innocent of Charge of Theft.

This morning Mr. Jos. Rickerby who was committed for trial by Police Magistrate Dumble, before the County Judge, on a charge of stealing $60 from a man named Moore, appeared before His Honour Judge Weller in the criminal court, and after considerable evidence was taken he was acquitted, the Judge finding that there was no evidence on which to convict him.

There were no witnesses for the prosecution except Moore, the alleged victim, and his story was so absolutely denied by five or six witnesses for the defence that the Judge found there was no ground on which he could find him guilty, consequently he was honourably acquitted. Mr. R. F. McWilliams appeared for the defendant.

A Romance In Real Life From Keene Recorded

Two Highly Respected Residents of That Vicinity Were Married in Hastings Recently—The Events Which Led Up to the Union—Opposition to the Wedding Only Hastened It—Drove to Hastings During the Night.

PROSPECTS FOR A HAPPY UNION

Details of an interesting little romance have been received from the vicinity of Keene. One night last week a young man living near that village, and a young lady, who has resided with relatives in the village, drove to Hastings and were married by Rev. Mr. Johnston, the Presbyterian minister there, returning to Keene the same night. For about three years the principals in this romance have been keeping company, and it was arranged that they should be married in the not distant future, and had it not been for a chain of circumstances, the prospects are that the wedding would not have taken place as soon. The young man and woman have been devoted lovers, and are among the most highly respected residents of the township.

A few nights ago they were out spending the evening with a friend, when the relative of the young lady, who was, it appears, somewhat opposed to her friendship for the young man, entered the house and wanted to take her home. It was this action which influenced the young people in their determination to be married at once.

Procuring a horse and buggy, the young man drove his young lady to Hastings, where a license was procured, and the clergyman aroused to perform the ceremony.

They returned the same night to the home of the young man, who is a prosperous farmer living near Keene, where his young wife now reigns as mistress. There is every indication that the union, though somewhat hastily arranged for, will be a happy one, and they are now receiving the warm congratulations of their very many friends in that community.

For the Reading Table.

House of Refuge Question Will Be Considered

At the Next Meeting of the County Council---It Will Continue Three Days--Deputation From Protestant Home and House of Providence to Wait on Council --Grant to the Dairymen's Convention.

PRINCIPAL BUSINESS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

On Thursday the fall session of the County Council will open at the Council Chamber. It is expected that this session will occupy the three days, and the principal business will be the closing of the finances for the year, and ratifying the payments made by the treasurer since the last session of the council.

One of the most important matters to be considered will be that of the proposal to erect a House of Refuge for the county. It will be remembered that at the time of the last visit of the Inspector of Prisons and Charities, Dr. Bruce Smith, he intimated that the county would have to carry out the provisions of the Act in this respect. Recognizing this fact the county council will, no doubt, take the matter into serious consideration at this session.

A deputation representing the Protestant Home and the House of Providence will, it is expected, wait on the council in regard to the question, and an effort will be made to arrive at some conclusion as to the best course to pursue.

A proposal has been made that the Hilliard estate should be used as a site for the proposed House of Refuge, but whether the suggestion will be carried out, or not, remains to be seen. There has recently developed some opposition to this proposal, on the ground that the House of Refuge would be too near the city, in view of the fact that the limits are constantly extending.

A deputation representing the Dairymen's Association, will also wait on the council on Friday, in reference to the coming convention of the Association, which will be held here in January.

It will be remembered that at the meeting which the Committee on Roads and Bridges held in the summer, that committee agreed, subject to ratification by the Council, to make a grant of at least $100 to the Association, in the event of the convention coming to this city.

On the strength of this promise, largely, the executive of the Association in September, decided to meet here, and on Friday, Mr. D. Derbyshire, president; and Mr. R. G. Murphy, secretary of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association, will wait on the council to ask that the grant be made.

To-day the Committee on Roads and Bridges went to the Indian River Bridge, recently erected, to inspect the superstructure manufactured by the Hamilton Bridge Works Company, of Hamilton. The committee is composed of Warden Buck, and Councillors Webster, Johnston and Maloney. Mr. Belcher, the county engineer, accompanied the committee, as well as the representative of the Bridge Works Company.

The Canadian Union of Municipalities has sent a number of petitions, affecting municipal government for which the support of the County Council is asked, and these will be considered in committee.

Former General Manager Dead

Word Received in Montreal of Death of L. J. Seargeant.

Special to The Examiner.

Montreal, Nov. 28.—Grand Trunk officials received word this morning of the death in London, Eng., of L. J. Seargeant, former general manager of that system. He resided in this city for many years and succeeded the late Sir Joseph Hickson in the management. When the Hays management took charge of the system Mr. Seargeant went to London as advisory member of the Board of Directors, residing there until the time of his death.

Hand Burned By Live Wire

Mr. Stanley Caniff Sustains Painful Injury at C.G.E. Works.

Mr. Stanley Caniff, of the Test Department of the C. G. E. Works yesterday sustained a painful injury while engaged upon a machine to which was attached a wire upon which was formed a short circuit.

Mr. Caniff's hand was rather severely burned, his face and hair also receiving a slight scorching. No serious consequences are anticipated, and it is expected that Mr. Caniff will be able to resume his duties in the course of a few days.

You have often said or thought "How could a man buy such a suit?"

You've seen men in the street wearing clothes you could'nt be hired to wear—and you wondered.

Mr. Merchant Tailor did it.

You see, they bought their suits from a roll of cloth, and were probably as much surprised as you when the suit was delivered.

A very handsome cloth in the piece often looks very ugly when made up.

When you buy Semi-ready tailored garments you first see the suit on you—can judge of its fitness to your individuality. You don't buy a pig in a poke, nor take any chances of looking ridiculous. 516

Threatens His Neighbour's Life

Patrick Heffernan, of Douro Township, Alleged to be Dangerously Insane.

High Constable Cochrane went today to Douro township, for the purpose of taking into custody Patrick Hefferman, a resident of that township, who is charged with insanity.

Hefferman's condition is alleged to be such that he is a menace to the community, having on one occasion gone to the length of threatening to take the life of the wife of a neighbour, giving distinct evidence of violent intent.

The case will be tried before Judge Edmison at the County Police Court.

Broken Shafts Caused Runaway

There was rather an exciting time this morning on George street for a few minutes. A horse attached to a covered delivery wagon came down Hunter street, and when near the corner of George street, one side of the shafts dropped from the axle, to which it was attached, and struck the horse on the heels. The frightened animal tore down George street at a rapid rate, the wagon barely escaping destruction by coming in contact with the telephone poles along the street a number of times.

Near the City Grocery Store the horse was stopped, and the actual damage sustained was found to be slight.

A WOMAN'S BACK IS THE MAINSPRING OF HER PHYSICAL SYSTEM.

The Slightest Backache, if Neglected, is Liable to Cause Years of Terrible Suffering.

No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well, and regular in their action. When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to have filtered out of the blood are left in the system.

The female constitution is naturally more subject to kidney disease than a man's; and what is more, a women's work is never done—her whole life is one continuous strain.

How many women have you heard say: "My, how my back aches!" Do you know that backache is one of the first signs of kidney trouble? It is, and should be attended to immediately. Other symptoms are frequent thirst, scanty, thick, cloudy or highly colored urine, burning sensation when urinating, frequent urination, puffing under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

These symptoms if not taken in time and cured at once, will cause years of terrible kidney suffering. All these symptoms, and in fact, these diseases may be cured by the use of

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

They act directly on the kidneys, and make them strong and healthy.

Mrs. Mary Galley, Auburn, N.S., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with a lame back and was unable to turn in bed without help. I was induced by a friend to try Doan's Kidney Pills. After using two-thirds of a box my back was as well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or sent direct on receipt of price. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

PAINFUL PERIODS

CANADIAN WOMEN FIND RELIEF

The Case of Ellen Walby Is One of Thousands of Cures Made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that menstruation is the balance wheel of a woman's life, and while no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it is not the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely?

Ellen Walby.

Thousands of Canadian women, however, have found relief from all monthly suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs menstruation of its terrors.

Ellen Walby, of Wellington Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Your Vegetable Compound was recommended to me to take for the intense suffering which I endured every month and with which I had been a sufferer for many years getting no relief from the many prescriptions which were prescribed, until, finally becoming discouraged with doctors and their medicines I determined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am glad that I did, for within a short time I began to mend and in an incredible short space of time the flow was regular, natural and without pain. This seems too good to be true and I am indeed a grateful and happy woman."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, should take prompt action to ward off serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. Thousands have been cured by so doing.

From Cologne To Schaffhausen On the Rhine

Along "The Wide and Winding Rhine"—Rev. E. A. Langfeldt's Interesting Illustrated Lecture Under the Auspices of the Young Peoples' Association of St. John's—Large Audience Present—Beautiful Germany's Many Charms.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT

There was a large attendance at St. John's School House last evening, when Rev. E. A. Langfeldt gave this illustrated lecture under the auspices of the Young People's Society. The lecture, illustrated with electric views beautifully presented by Mr. H. A. Fife, electrician, were those of the beautiful Rhine, which, made beautiful by the hand of nature, has been made the repository of the greatest treasures of their true significance and human interest of any similar area in the world. The beautiful views were clearly explained by the reverend lecturer, and the historical, religious and legendary interest associated with them were briefly but clearly expressed. The lecture throughout was most interesting and the lecturer well deserved the very cordial vote of thanks tendered him at the close of the entertainment.

The proceedings began with a hymn and during the evening two beautiful duets were splendidly played by Misses Mulholland and English, whose sprightly music was as greatly enjoyed as it was excellently given. At the conclusion of the entertainment a very largely attended business meeting of the Association was held.

A Sad Affair In Port Hope

Yesterday the news spread about town that a suicide had been committed at the British Hotel, and upon investigation it was found to be only too true. The circumstances leading up to the affair are rather peculiar. The victim became entangled in the fringe of the tablecloth, and all his efforts to free himself were in vain, and the result was suicide by hanging. Such was the fate of Mr. Wm. Britton's two weeks' old Spaniel pup. Coroner Rishmond decided that death was due to strangulation and an inquest was unnecessary.—Port Hope Guide.

Zutoo

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

Boy Was Caught Hiding in Stack Near Reaboro

An Exciting Chase for a Ward of Mr. J. J. Kelso--Was Living With a Farmer Near Reaboro--Proved Incorrigible and Was to be Taken to Industrial School--Lindsay Authorities Gave Chase --An Interesting Case.

WAS RETURNED TO MIMICO SCHOOL

A ward of Mr. J. J. Kelso, Supt. of the Neglected, Homeless and Dependent Children of the Province of Ontario, was placed some years ago in a foster home with a highly respected and well-to-do family living near Reaboro, says the Lindsay Post. Hopes had been entertained all along of his being a good and useful boy until lately, when he commenced behaving himself in a most regrettable manner. His guardians returned him to those who had control of him, and when reprimanded he appeared penitent and willing to return to his former home if given the opportunity. He was taken back and did well for a short time, when he again sneaked away. The matter was at once reported to Mr. Kelso, who advised that he be reclaimed, taken before the Magistrate, and committed to the Victoria Industrial School at Mimico, filling in Sault Ste. Marie as the municipality for his maintenance.

These instructions were on Thursday last carried out to the very letter. The proceedings were as follows:—Early in the morning of the 23rd inst. two persons, with a fleet-footed livery horse, set out in search of the missing boy who was supposed to be with a Mr. Jackson, about seven miles south-east of Omemee. On arriving at the home of Mr. Jackson the party learned that the boy, who had been there two weeks, had received one dollar for his services and was told on Saturday morning to leave, which he did. The family had heard that the boy had gone to a Mr. Carew, some distance away. On going to Mr. Carew it was found that the boy had been there a short time and left on Wednesday morning of the 22nd. Arriving at Mr. Carley's next, he stayed for dinner and then left to look for employment with men who were chopping in the woods nearby. When these men were asked about the boy they had not Seen or Heard of Him.

As all traces of the boy seemed to be lost in this locality the searchers decided to go to another section of country, where there were farmers who might be in need of help. After a rapid drive on rough and smooth roads, over the hills and dales of Emily, through the fields when necessary, somewhat like a steeplechase in the old country—and, by the way, a hunter, was seen on an elevation standing with his gun ready waiting for the hound to bring up a fox—several families were interviewed without avail until the home of a Mr. Morton was reached, and there the welcome news were received that the boy had slept there on Wednesday night, had breakfast and was only a little while gone to a farmer named Hall, with whom he had hired in the morning. In a very short time the search party reached the home of Mr. Hall, and when the driver went in to enquire he was told that the boy was there, but as soon as the boy was told that he was wanted in Lindsay he was not there for a little while. Then the search began in earnest — the lad, who had not yet been there two hours, had escaped to the outbuildings, and was not to be found.

Very soon, however, he was dragged from his hiding place in the strawstack by Driver Lloyd and taken back to Omemee at mid-day. He was then taken to Lindsay, where he arrived about 2 p.m., and brought immediately before County P. M. McSweyn, who heard the case and committed the youthful offender to the Industrial School. As a speedy delivery of the prisoner was necessary the earliest out-going train was boarded and the undertaking completed in the brief space of 72 hours time, while the distance of over 100 miles was travelled in doing so.

Public Schools Are Endorsed In the Debate

Philomathean Literary Society Decide That They Are Superior to Private Schools --An Interesting Debate on This Question at the Meeting Yesterday--The Regular Meeting of Collegiate Institute Literary Society.

BRIGHT STUDENTS OF THE INSTITUTE

On Monday afternoon a meeting of the Philomathean Society of the Collegiate Institute was held in the Y. M.C.A. hall. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. As there was no business the programme was commenced at once with a recitation by Miss Maud Oliver. She showed an entire absence of embarrassment and self-consciousness that was very commendable.

Miss Lenore Sanderson next treated the audience to a violin solo, which was much appreciated.

The principal event of the evening was now reached, a debate,—"Resolved, that private schools are better than public schools." The affirmative was taken by Mr. Frank Austin, Miss Elsie Pollock and Mr. Ross Stewart, and the negative by Mr. Fred. Brown, Miss Emma Kells and Mr. Ernest Kidd.

Mr. Austin pointed out that in private schools the methods can be changed to suit the pupil. Also, they are obliged to keep up a high standard, being directly responsible to their patrons.

Mr. Brown said that public schools are much superior, as they are visited yearly by inspectors. In a private school the teacher is indifferent about the progress of the pupil, as it matters little to him if he stays there year after year.

Miss Pollock made a good point for the affirmative in showing that in public schools the pupil is one of a large class, and it is therefore impossible for him to receive much personal attention as he would in the smaller, private class.

Miss Kells enumerated several important advantages of the public system, the regularity and order of the work, the discipline and competition.

Mr. Stewart thought that the private schools are superior in that it is not found there the case of the teacher unable to handle the children, who then shirk their tasks, as the schools would soon become unpopular.

Mr. Kidd condemned private schools as being beyond that class of people from which we later really get our best business men.

The affirmative leader made a brief reply.

When the judges had withdrawn, Miss Ruby Fitzgerald gave an enjoyable piano selection.

The judges returned their decision in favour of the negative.

One of the new members, Miss Edith Connor, of Form II., gave a well-rendered recitation entitled "My Bad Little Boy."

Mr. Herbert Mowat, from Upper I., now delighted the gathering with a vocal solo, which won him much applause and a demand for an encore.

Mr. Fosenden gave a very able and kindly criticism of the evening's and kindly criticism of the evening programme, praising some of the speakers in particular for the care and preparation displayed in their speeches.

Mr. Jeffries moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Mowat, who had accompanied Mr. Herbert Mowat, and thus made possible this pleasing addition to the programme. The motion was seconded by Mr. Hodgson.

After singing the National Anthem the meeting closed.

The Spanish minister for war has set aside $600,000 to defray the cost of a punitive expedition against the Cuanhamas, in Portuguese West Africa.

The skeleton of a Roman soldier, a helmet and two spears have been unearthed at Dietzen, Hesse, Germany, at a depth of thirty-six feet below the surface.

Damage Claims Were Considered

At Meeting of Legal Committee Last Night.

The Legal Committee met last night at the City Clerk's office. Two cases, in which recompense for damages resulting from accidents by reason of defective corporation work, were considered.

The first case was that of Mr. Coleman Blewett, whose horse, the City Engineer reported, had stumbled into a hole on Lonlon street, west of Rothune street, on the evening of November 9. The horse, and buggy to which it was attached, were both considerably damaged.

The hole in question was caused by the falling in of sewer work constructed at that point in May, 1903, having recently been washed out, leaving a depression of from six to nine inches deep. Mr. Blewett asked to be recompensed for damages sustained to the horse and rig through this accident. The matter will go before the Council.

In the matter of Mr. P. Grady's claim for damages sustained last spring, when his horse fell into a mud hole in the centre of the road on Park street north, the committee will, on advice of the City Solicitor, that the city is not liable, report that no action be taken.

CHRISTMAS CAROL.

Suggested Greeting From Friends in Canada to Friends in the Old Country.

BY ALEXANDER BERTRAM.

Canadian lands are fertile
On prairie, wood and lea
Atlantic to Pacific
They stretch from sea to sea
Canadian homes are building
With hammer, saw and nail
Throughout our fair Dominion
By railway, land and trail.
Canadian wheat warms golden
Beneath the autumn sun
On virgin soil prolific
By sweat and labour won
Canadian ships and railways
Are freighting to the sea
Food for the British Islands
Where food is entered free
Canadian handicraftsmen
Are raising chimneys tall
A nation in a nation
Employment for all.
Canadian men are working
Like beaver and like bee
To build a mighty nation
From war and famine free.
Canadian sons and daughters
Are trained in church and school
To worship their Creator
And learn the golden rule.
Canadian flags are flying
O'er wave and mountain crest
O'er human tides incoming
From south and east and west
Hosannas to the highest
Rise from a Christian land
In peace and concord dwelling
With love the golden band.

THE air in an ordinary oven is stagnant. It becomes saturated with the odors of the different dishes cooking—the strongest odor impregnates all. That is why you sometimes get pie with a flavor of onions and roast beef with a taste of fish.

The air in the oven of the

is constantly changing. Fresh air is drawn in from outside the range by our patent oven flue, superheated and forced into the top of the oven. It circulates throughout the oven, keeping every corner at a steady, even temperature. The air is then drawn off through the oven ventilators carrying with it the fumes of the cooking dishes.

The Imperial Oxford Range cooks your food with pure, fresh, dry heat. Would you like to see this range? Call at your dealers. If he can't show you the Imperial Oxford, write to us and we'll send you full particulars and tell you where you can see it. 17

"Could I live my early life over, this testimonial would not be necessary, though I was no more afraid than thousands of other young men. Early indiscretions, later excesses, prepare to contagious diseases all seized to break down my system. When I commenced to realize my condition I was almost frantic. Doctor after doctor treated me but only gave me relief—not a cure. Hot Springs helped me, but did not cure me. The symptoms always returned. Mercury and Potash drove the poison into my system instead of driving it out. I tried the dry plan, but never Treatment recommended to me. I investigated what you were doing, and finding you had over 25 years' experience and responsible financially, I gave you my case under a guarantee. You cured me permanently, and in six years there has not been a sign, ache, ulcer or any other symptom of the blood disease."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Aylesworth is finally launched on his political career. He brings, says the Ottawa Journal, (Independent,) notable intellectual powers to the performance of his new duties. He is of a temperament to learn the new game quickly, as Sir John Thompson learned it before him under exactly similar conditions. Doubt as to his point of view in respect of the great corporations must be confirmed or dispelled by his actions in the government. If he serves his new masters, the people, with the same faithfulness, industry and ability which he has lent to the advancement of his former clients' interests, he should be a power in the land and there seems to be no reason to believe that he will do anything else.

Indications of the financial and industrial expansion of the country are found in the Canadian chartered bank statement for October. The volume of bank note circulation never previously reached anything like what it is at present. In one day last month the thirty-three Canadian banks had among them issued notes to the amount of $72,104,548, as compared with $72,716,817, the high level of 1904, and $71,339,051, the top notch for 1903. The moving of the crop and the general trade of the country therefore required $6,000,000 more in bank notes this autumn than last. Another evidence of the country's advancement is found in the increase in bank deposits in Canada from $393,000,000 in October, 1903, to $500,000,000 in October, 1905; while bank loans in Canada to-day total $498,000,000, as compared with $421,000,000 two years ago.

THE SPOILS SYSTEM IN PRACTICE.

A revision of the list of Justices of the Peace on some intelligible principle would be a task worthy of a progressive Government. In rural districts the office is of considerable importance, and much could be done in the way of removing ignorant, prejudiced or indolent men, and appointing men who would possess the confidence of the community. No such intention can be detected in the changes made in Toronto. The job might just as well have been left to the various Conservative ward associations, according to the statesmanlike suggestion which came from Hastings the other day; no charge of incompetence or misconduct is made against the justices who were removed. Their sole offence appears to have been that they were appointed by a Liberal Government.

The Government must be prepared to face the question whether it regards the position of a justice of the peace as an important one, involving the performance of serious public duties, or merely a piece of patronage, enabling it to reward its friends with the title of J.P. and the right to collect some petty fees. If the latter view is taken the people will be entitled to demand a reform in this part of the administration of justice. In other courts the principle is established that appointments must be made by merit, must go to duly qualified persons, and must be for life or good conduct. We do not see why this principle should not apply to justices of the peace. If the spoils doctrine is applied here the system will become a public nuisance instead of a public menace.

The News must be deeply moved at the iniquity of the spoils system practiced by its political friends when it thus kicks over the traces and denounces its party. If the News is so deeply moved by the heinous chance of the spoils system applied to honourary positions like justices of the peace, what will its wrath be like when it summons enough independence to attack the spoils system in reference to offices of emolument, which the Whitney Government is practicing with an energy and persistence worthy, as a side line orator would say, of a better cause.

TERRIBLE JOHNNY CANUCK

(Hamilton Herald.)

So seldom do American poets tune their harps to sing of Canada or any Canadian theme that when they do so the products of their muse deserve special attention on this side of the border. The latest poem about Canada by an American poet has seen light in the Buffalo News. Its author, whose identity is only suggested by the initials E. E. F., is more than a poet; he wears the mantle of the prophet—the patriotic political prophet. He is a watchman upon the gates, faithfully warning his countrymen, in ringing verse, of coming danger. The danger which looms before his prophetic eye comes from the north. It takes the form of Johnny Canuck.

Johnny Canuck, says the poet-prophet, is "of all boys the queerest." He is remarkable for his egotism. He actually believes that he is a fine fellow. Therefore, says the poet to his countrymen, "the time has come for you to smile and laugh across the border." But Johnny Canuck is objectionable for other reasons than his egotism. It seems that he hasn't as good an opinion of his neighbours as he ought to have. "He thinks men of Columbia's land are advocates of wrong," and that Columbia's women are too much given to 'wine and song." For these erroneous opinions Johnny must be punished; wherefore, sings our bard:

Then polish up your whips, my boys,
and get your lash in order;
The day may come when you must flog this boy across the border.

But this is not the worst. Johnny Canuck, says the patriot-poet, is "dontifying all the line that draws its cord between;" likewise he is "bringing warriors 'cross the brine and thinks his work unseen." These fortifications along the line must be those the construction of which the Toronto Globe accused Lord Dundonald of recommending. As for the "warriors" whom Johnny Canuck is smuggling 'across the brine," it is more difficult to identify them. We have heard of "Yankee soldiers" that came into Canada in millions last summer; but they didn't come across the brine—they came across the fresh-water lakes from the Buffalo fool's country; and they were not smuggled over—they just blew over. Evidently the poet does not refer to these soldiers, for the soldiers he refers to are intended to be put to a very reprehensible purpose. The purpose is succinctly stated as follows:

He hopes to sink our ship of state,
Our noble freedom kill—
A monarch he would reinstate
To crush us at his will.

His nefarious scheme having been exposed, Johnny Canuck would do well to drop it for the present. The programme outlined above is rather too big a one to carry out in haste; it would take time. Johnny had better go slow for a while and wait for a more favourable opportunity of driving the Strenuous One from the White House and installing King Edward in his place. Now that the plot has been brought to light the guard will probably be doubled. And so we trust that there will be no immediate need for the fellow-countrymen of the Buffalo bard to follow his advice thus stirringly given:

So polish up your swords, my boys,
and keep your guns in order,
The day may dawn when you must fight this boy across the border.

Really, though, we don't see that there is any occasion for the poet's alarm. When the "boy across the border" starts in to make things unpleasant on the bard's side of the border, are there not hordes of immigration officials to stop him and deport him and make him pay a head tax of $2? Why fear?

ALBERTA AND THE SCHOOLS.

The recount in Calgary gives Minister Cushing a majority of thirty-seven over Mr. R. B. Bennett, and the latter is out of politics. It is reported that even had the recount resulted favourably for Mr. Bennett he would have resigned the seat and allowed Mr. Cushing to be elected unopposed. The so-called "coercionists" carried every seat but one in the Province and polled seventy per cent. of the votes cast.

Premier Rutherford is in Winnipeg, and he predicts that the result in Saskatchewan will be very similar. There are, in that new Province, seven hundred schools, of which only three are Roman Catholic Separate schools, although the people of that religion comprise nearly one-third of the population. Need anyone wonder that the people of the West refused to become excited about the perpetuation of a school system so harmonious in its workings?

It has been said that the school question was side-tracked in Alberta, but that was impossible in a new Province, where, at the time of the election not less than fifty new school sections were being organized.—Toronto Star.

Successor To The Archdeacon Is Appointed

Rev. Geo. Warren, of Lakefield, is Made Archdeacon in Successor to Late Archdeacon Allen—A Popular Appointment—New Archdeacon Was Formerly a Resident of Peterborough—Has Been Eighteen Years in Lakefield.

REV. J. C. DAVIDSON MADE A CANON

The Toronto News of last night contained the following article:

"Rev. George Warren, of Lakefield, has been appointed Archdeacon of Peterborough, in succession to the late Archbishop Allen. His Lordship Bishop Sweatman, of Toronto, who made the announcement this morning, also stated that the Rev. Rural-Dean Davidson is appointed to a canonry in St. Alban's Cathedral."

There was a report on the street here yesterday to this effect, and the Examiner telephoned to Lakefield, to ascertain if Mr. Warren could confirm it. At that time he had not received the letter from the Bishop making the appointment and knew nothing of the matter.

Rev. George Warren has been rector of Lakefield for the last 18 years, and from 1900 to 1901 was Rural Dean of this Deanery. Prior to his appointment to the rectorship of Lakefield he was incumbent of St. Luke's for some months. He was formerly curate at Bowmanville, where he was married.

His appointment is a very popular one with his fellow clergy in the Archdeaconry, by all of whom he is most highly respected. He is an earnest and devoted clergyman, and will fill with dignity the exalted position to which he has been appointed by the Bishop.

Rev. J. C. Davidson's name had been mentioned in connection with the position, but he requested that the honour be given to Rev. Mr. Warren, and in recognition of the former's long and faithful service he was made a Canon.

Both of these appointments are popular ones, and the two clergymen thus honoured are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

Former Peterboro' Man's Good Luck

Mr. T. E. Pearse Interested in a Valuable Mining Property.

Mr. T. E. Pearse, of Newport News, Va., city engineer of that city, and formerly of this city, a son of the late county treasurer, is the gentleman referred to in the following article from the Newport News Times-Herald. This paper says:

"T. E. Pearse, of this city, who is a candidate for the directorate of the Buckskin Gold Mining and Milling Company, this morning received a telegram from William J. Brewer, president of the company, who is now at Goldfield, Nevada, which was very gratifying to him.

The telegram stated:

"Have secured valuable twelve months' lease for Buckskin on Silver Pick within three hundred feet and in direct line of rich strike made last week on ore running up to one thousand dollars per ton. Have started work down twelve feet; expect to reach same ore body at eighty feet. Have let contract for one hundred foot shaft on Buckskin group now sinking. Hoff says Desert King is now a mine."

"Mr. Pearse is interested in all of the above properties, as are a number of persons in this city, and they are very much elated at the information contained in the telegram."

Mr. Pearse has interested a number of his friends here in this property, which, according to reports, promises to be a very valuable one.

Badly Beaten In a Fight

A young man received a bad battering at the hands of a companion last night. It appears that, the two were out walking with a couple of young women, when a difficulty concerning one of the girls arose, with the result that a mix-up ensued in which one of the youths received a pretty severe trimming. He was cut up around the head and badly shaken up. His assailant was arrested by P. C. McGinty last night, but was subsequently given his freedom.

The victim of the assault claimed that he was robbed of twenty-nine dollars and his watch. His coat and watch were afterward found in a wood yard on King street.

THE CHRISTMAS CANADIAN MAGAZINE

Packed full of good things is the Christmas number of our national periodical, The Canadian Magazine. The illustrations are wonderfully well done, and are over fifty in number. These include full-page plates of such famous pictures as Correggio's "Holy Night," Del Sarto's masterpiece, "Madonna of St. Francis," and his "Apostle James," and Sir J. E. Millais' "A Disciple." There is also a splendid series of full-page plates showing the harbours and ports in Canada—Victoria, Fort William, Sault Ste. Marie, Depot Harbour, Toronto, Montreal, St. John and Halifax. These pictures indicate Canada's marine resources in a most graphic manner. The two leading articles are "Andrea del Sarto," by Herbert M. Vaughan, and "Canada, After Twenty Years," by Sir Gilbert Parker. The stories are excellent, and are by Nellie L. McClung, Jean Blewett, Alice Jones, and Virna Sheard—all Canadian women. The description of "A Prairie Fire," by Douglas Robertson, is a vivid bit of word painting, and its vividness is increased by the illustrations. The book reviews are especially good this month, and the departments of comment and criticism are thoroughly interesting. The cover is a beautiful piece of work, with the Sistine Madonna as the centre-piece in the design.

An Interesting Lecture by Mr. H. D. Burnett

The Incandescent Lamp Was Explained Most Interestingly Last Night at All Saint's—Very Instructive Programme Under the Auspices of the Men's Guild—The Mode of Manufacture —Edison's Great Discovery

THE LECTURE WAS MUCH ENJOYED

The following has been handed to the Examiner, with a request for it's publication:—

Last evening there was a very successful meeting of All Saint's Men's Guild. Mr. G. L. Maughan was in the chair.

There was a short address by the chairman on the subject of the evening, "The Incandescent Lamp."

The first item on the programme was a solo by Miss Marion Elliott, "In Sweet Killarney," which was very charmingly rendered.

The next was an able and instructive lecture on the "Incandescent Lamp," by Mr. H. D. Burnett, of the lamp department of the Canadian General Electric Company. He said: "I know of no article of manufacture anywhere in the world that involves in so high degree the following elements:—

1. Great precision and care required in its manufacture.
2. Its sensitiveness to minute defects in manufacture.
3. Simplicity in its application to industrial and domestic uses.
4. Its low cost.

There are many articles made that excel the incandescent lamp in one or more of these particulars, but none of them in all.

To the casual observer unfamiliar with the manufacture, the incandescent lamp looks like a simple combination of glass, metal and carbon. No less than twenty different materials enter into its composition, and about seventy-five different operations. As to the precision in manufacture and sensitiveness to small defects I shall have more to say further on.

Simplicity in Application.

Take, for instance, a kerosine lamp requires the chimney to be cleaned daily, also to be kept filled with oil, and wick to be trimmed and the soiling of the housewife's fingers and continued grease and smoke, whereas with an incandescent lamp a child install in a socket and nothing further is required, but to turn the switch on or off when required.

As to Cost:

Incandescent lamps that cost $1.00 in the earlier days can now be bought for less than some high grade lamp chimneys, which is only an ordinary piece of glass with a hole in each end.

The essential elements of the incandescent lamp consist of:—

1. Glass bulb, closed absolutely air tight to exclude the air.
2. Metal wires running through the walls of the bulb to carry the electricity to the filament.
3. Filaments of very high resistance.
4. Vacuum within the bulb.
5. The base to facilitate attachment to the electric circuit.

The Bulb.

Special glass is required for the manufacture of the incandescent lamp bulb.

The glass used in the manufacture of the incandescent lamb bulb is what is called lead glass, and contains about 23 per cent. of lead oxide. There are about twenty different kinds of ordinary glass unsuited for the manufacture of these bulbs, such as window glass, plate, cut, bottle, flint, German, Bohemian and Crown glass. With probably one hundred or more glass manufacturing concerns, but five or six, to my knowledge, can make glass suitable for the incandescent lamp.

The thickness of the glass is about 1-32 of an inch, as may be seen by breaking.

It is marvellous the pressure this thin glass will stand. After a vacuum has been created by exhausting the air contained in the the bulb all the pressure is on the outside, and amounts to about 15 pounds to the square inch, or 350 pounds on a 16 c.p. lamp, but it is not easy to break.

Here Mr. Burnett threw a bulb forcibly to the floor several times, before it would break.

Metal Wires.

To carry current electric ciruit outside bulb to the filament inside of bulb. The current is carried up to the glass by means of two copper wires, and there connects with the platinum through the glass. Platinum is as expensive, or nearly so, as gold, which is worth about $320 per lb. avoir. You may be assured that we would not use platinum in this day of keen competition if it were possible to use any other metals; but there is no other metal which would do as well. Other metals have been tried, such as iron, nickel, silver, film, copper, but none of them have been successful. Platinum is used because of the expansion, as its expands the same as the glass. There is very little platinum used in the lamps to-day—less than one cent's worth in the 16 c.p. lamp, while in the old lamp twenty times as much platinum was used. So you can understand why a lamp is so much cheaper to-day than it was a few years ago.

The Filament.

The word filament originated in connection with Edison's incandescent lamp. The method of making a filament is from cotton wool. The first incandescent lamp was of platinum and was made by Frederick de Molyns, in the year 1841; then in 1845, by Starr, of Cincinnati, which was called the King, through its being patented by Mr. King, J. W. Starrs, agent in England, in 1846. Gronmer & Stark made a carbon lamp, 1849. Petrie, 1873. A Russian by Ladiguine, carbon lamp in 1876. (Bouliguine, French, 1879. Lawyer, American, 1878. Mr. Edison again made a lamp of platinum, thus taking up the theory of the first lamp in 1841. Edison sent men all over the world to find a bamboo which could be carbonized and used. In 1879 he made one of paper carbon; in 1880 one of bamboo carbon; in 1880 Swan, in England, exhibited one made of cotton thread. The necessity of vacuum was illustrated by breaking the tip off a lamp which burned about ten seconds. It is very difficult to thoroughly exhaust a lamp, as the air passes through the very smallest openings (which are not visible to the eye. A few years ago the time taken to exhaust a bulb was ten hours; then to five hours. Finally, at the present day they are exhausted in one minute. Mr. Burnett illustrated by putting a lamp in a pan of mercury and braking the tip off of lamp and showing the amount of air left in the lamp. One lamp contained a small bubble about one-eighth of an inch big, and the other two very small bubbles, hardly visible. Mr. Burnett went on to explain how a lamp was burnt out sooner than it should be by the various voltages given by the electric companies. Also as to the safety of the lamp if broken after covering lamp with tissue paper. The lamp was broken, but paper was not scorched. Also the danger of having paper or anything of inflammable material near the lamp. Mr. Burnett, to illustrate this, covered the lamp with tissue paper, and after a few minutes began to scorch and would have caught fire. Mr. Burnett closed his lecture by showing the night lamp and explaining that no matter what the condition of one's eyes, they can make a lamp that will suit them, either a very bright or a very dim light. After the lecture Mr. Burnett invited everyone to inspect or ask questions in connection with the lecture, also to experience a shock of electricity if they had never had one.

At the conclusion it was moved by Mr. Frank Wise, and seconded by Mr. W. Edwards, that a hearty vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Burnett for his very interesting and instructive lecture, which was heartily enjoyed by all present.

PETERBOROUGH TEAM,

SAYS HAMILTON PAPERS,

WON ON THEIR MERITS

Herald and Spectator Gives Champions Credit for Defeating Dundas on the Square—Back Division Was Much Superior to Dundas—Great Praise for Shaw—Game Not Specially Scientific—Walter McMullin's View of It.

The Hamilton papers, two of which had reporters at the game here on Saturday give the Peterborough team credit for winning the Ontario championship from Dundas on their merits. The Herald, of which Mr. Walter McMillan, formerly of Port Hope, is sporting editor, says in part:—

"Football of a ruthless nature was in evidence at Peterborough on Saturday, when the Dundas rugby team was defeated in the final game for the intermediate O.R.F.U. championship by a score of 16 to 9. At half time the score was 4 to 0. The best team won although the difference between the two was not as great as the score would indicate. The Dundas backs began to fumble after the game had been in progress about fifteen minutes, and during the balance of the game they frequently appeared to be either nervous or careless, and the greater number of Peterborough's points were secured by the Dundas back's bad catching.

"The Dundas wings were in good form, and if anything were superior to their opponents. They followed up well and were sure tacklers. They prevented the easterners from doing any effective line bucking. Only once did the home team make the necessary gain in three downs by bucking, and that was when the play was in middle field. Several times the Peterborough team had the ball dangerously near the Dundas goal line, and attempted to buck, but the Valleyites formed the proverbial stone wall, and the new champions' efforts in that direction were lost.

The credit of the victory is due to a great extent to Shaw, the home team's centre half. He punted well, and with the exception of the fly which big Hurtubise secured all the points resulted from his punting. He kicked to the dead ball line several times, and just before the final whistle blew, he put the finishing touches on his good work by scoring a drop-kick goal. He was ably assisted on the half-back line by Crawley and Gillespie. Crowley did not play in Dundas a week previous and proved a valuable acquisition to the Peterborough team.

"Peterborough had a husky looking wing line but it was unable to check the sturdy Dundas line as well as it appeared capable of doing. Dundas bucked the line several times, and on more than one occasion secured the necessary gain.

"From a scientific standpoint, the game was a repetition of the contest of a week previous. Brawn was cast to the winds, and it was purely a game of strength. There was no fake bucks, criss-cross plays, or long passes, and the finer points of the game were not exhibited. Peterborough had what little luck there was."

The Spectator's Opinion

The Spectator says:—

"The Peterborough Intermediates are the O.R.F.U. champions for 1905.

They have gone through the entire season without a defeat, and deserve the honour, as the best intermediates in the union. The Peterborough have played pretty good ball all season, particularly in the deciding game on Saturday. They, however, had strong rivals in Dundas, which also went through the season without the loss of a game, until it met its Waterloo at Peterborough, in the final. The teams are evenly matched, but towards the end of the game the valley city boys had a bad fifteen minutes, and when they recovered, the game was lost. The Dundas back division went up in the air, and came down too late. The score was 16 to 2—rather one-sided from appearances. But with the exception of the time when the Dundas back division was off colour, there was not much to indicate who would end the game as champions of the O.R.F.U. Dame fortune did not wear her best smile, for the visitors, somehow, and several times the Dundas team was in hard luck. Notwithstanding, it is the opinion of most of those who saw the game, that the better team won, and the Dundas enthusiasts are taking the defeat with good grace. A few felt sore, but the great majority took it philosophically, and the Peterboroughs said that the Dundas people were the best losers they had ever seen. The odds were generally 5 to 4 in favour of Peterborough.

The Peterboroughs played a much better game than when they were in Dundas the week previous, having apparently practiced and rounded into fine shape. In the game in Dundas the backs muffed frequently, and tried no combination work whatever. Their game was a kicking one, pure and simple, and their star, Shaw, always kicked on the first down. The same system was followed at home, except for a few minutes towards the end of the game. Every time Shaw got the ball he punted, and generally for gains. Shaw was able to kick much farther on his home grounds, and frequently booted the ball away over the heads of the Dundas backs, and before they could get the pigskin to return, the Peterborough wings were on them. Shaw outpunted everyone on the field, and otherwise played a magnificent game. Peterborough tried but little bucking, and did not succeed in that, as the Dundas boys were able to block the rushes quite easily. Shaw several times tried drops on goal, and the last time he succeeded in getting it over. Shaw is an American, a graduate of Harvard, and has played the American game, where he learned to kick. His American training stood him in good stead, for without him the Peterborough team would never have reached the semi-finals. He caught accurately, ran well, and played scientifically. Another great improvement on the Peterborough team was the addition of Crowley, who did not play in Dundas.

Bucks won it.

Backs Won It

The Peterborough wing line had nothing on the Dundas line. As in Dundas, they were equally matched, and the game was won and lost by the back divisions. The Peterborough wings were in good condition, and they followed up in great style, preventing any very long runs by the Dundas halves. At the same time, they were no better than the Dundas forwards, who put up a rapid argument, holding their man well, and protecting the backs. Both lines have first-class tacklers on it, and there were some hard come-downs for runners.

Hurtubise, captain of the Peterboroughs, and a wrestler, was quite prominent. Jean, as everyone called him, has aroused a feeling of envy, and wonder in the minds of his fellow citizens, apparently, judging from their remarks about him. "Say, see that big fellow. Well, that's Hurtubise. Gee he's great," remarked one resident of Peterborough. Hurtubise and Kelly started a scrap in the second half, and it was hard work to keep them away from each other.

"Don't make Jean rosa," yelled the rooters in the grand stand. And then they told of the time in Midland when a policeman handcuffed him for nearly killing a fellow on a lacrosse field, and, with the strength of a Sampson, simply opened his arms and bore the menaces off, in the easiest possible fashion. After the game Kelly was looked on as somewhat of a curiosity, as the one who had actually dared to stand up to Jean in a scrap. He was a mighty husky boy to escape without being swallowed in a mouthful. Jean is a Frenchman and his temper is quick, but he gets over it like a summer storm."

BRAIN AND NERVES

DEPENDENT ON CERTAIN ELEMENTS OF NATURE, WHICH ARE FOUND IN

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The Christian Scientists are right enough, when they claim that the mind influences the body.

Worry, excessive mental toil and strong emotions consume nervous energy at an enormous rate.

Rest of mind and body is essential for the restoration of the exhausted nervous system.

But the mind is dependent on the brain, and the brain in turn is a bundle of nerve cells, which are nourished and sustained by pure, rich blood. Hence the absolute necessity of supplying the elements from which blood is made.

These elements of nature which go to form new rich blood and revitalize wasted and depleted nerve cells are found in splendid proportions in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

By using this great food cure you supply the material substances from which are found brain and nerve force.

By all means have a cheerful, hopeful mind, but do not depend on this to make you strong and well or you will be terribly disappointed when it is forever too late.

It may take weeks or even months to thoroughly restore your health with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, but you can be absolutely certain that every dose of the great food cure is at least of some benefit to you.

Mrs. J. B. Huffman, 268 Reid street, Peterborough, Ont., and whose husband is employed at the Canadian General Electric Co., states:

"For over a year I suffered with nervous headache and feelings of weakness and dizziness would come over me. My nervous system seemed weak and exhausted, and hearing of the success of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I began using it. I am now pleased to state that the headaches do not bother me any more and my system is entirely built up and restored."

The healthful complexions, the well-rounded forms, the energy and elasticity of movements characteristic of persons who have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food are the strongest evidence of its wonderful restorative influence. 50 cents a box, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

HOCKEY

Picton Gazette:—It is presumed that an effort will be made—indeed such has already been made it is believed—to organize a hockey team for Picton during the present winter. The people generally, are lovers of legitimate sport, and will be glad to see a move made in the above direction, but they will all discountenance the "scrapping matches" that have so frequently characterized this sport in the past. To gather together to witness a game where the contestants will pummel and pound each other with sticks is a species of sport which is not enjoyable to many. If we have sport let us have clean games, without any manifestations of brutality.

Mr. Roger Davidson, a former Peterborough boy and a star hockey player when the locals trimmed everything in sight, is in the city, visiting friends. He came here from Brandon, arriving in the city last Saturday night. He was accompanied as far as St. Paul by Barney Holden and Joe Hall, who were going to Houghton, Mich., with Riley Hern, former Stratford goal keeper, and now manager of the Houghton team. Hall and Holden will play with Houghton this year.

Mr. Davidson will go to Montreal, but will return to Peterborough to spend Christmas.

The Difference Between Expert and Unskilful Tea Blending

THE qualities of different teas prove that there is a distinct difference between expert Red Rose blending methods and the usual methods.

Several kinds of teas may be blended, but if unskilfully selected they will not combine to make a perfect blend; they will retain their original individual characteristics with their roughness and harshness emphasized.

Such tea is bitter, poorly flavored in the cup (and there is much of it in bulk and package form on the market). It emphasizes the result of inexperience, lack of knowledge of combining qualities of different teas, imperfect blending, poor selection, and the hundred and one other causes of poor tea.

But my expert Red Rose blenders select the right grades of strong, rich Indian teas and delicate fragrant Ceylon teas, and produce Red Rose Tea with entirely new characteristics—a tea with that "rich fruity flavor"—a tea so exquisitely different and better than any brand of Ceylon alone, that no one who once tries it ever goes back to Ceylon again.

Red Rose Tea is good Tea

A Judgement In Kingston Election Trial

Mr. E. J. B. Pense Unseated For Hiring Cabs.

CROSS-PETITION DISMISSED

In Giving Judgment, Justice Street Said: "The Evidence Did Not Afford Any Strong Hope That a New Election Would Necessarily Secure the Unbiassed and Unpurchased Votes of Electors."

Toronto, Nov. 28.—The election of Mr. E. J. B Pense, M. P. P. for Kingston, was declared void yesterday morning at Osgoode Hall by Mr. Justice Street and Mr. Justice Teetzel, on the petition of Mr. D. M. McIntyre. The charges proven were of cab-hiring at exorbitant rates, and treating. Judgment was given with costs, and the cross-petition was dismissed, also with costs.

Mr. Justice Street, in giving judgment, said the evidence did not afford any strong hope that a new election would necessarily secure the unbiased and unpurchased votes of the electors, unless a change of the law took place in the meantime. Kingston was a constituency in which the parties seemed to be very closely divided. Through the asylum, the penitentiary and the military school a large amount of patronage was available in the purchase of Government supplies. The Liberal Association existed. Mr. J. M. Mowat had stated on oath, solely for the distribution of Government patronage, which was one way of influencing the votes of the people. It was not apparent that such means were used, but it was impossible not to look at such a means of influencing the popular vote as such a method afforded. A large number of voters were willing to accept money.

Corrupt Cabmen.

The cabmen were sufficient in number to turn a majority of twenty into a minority. It was the custom of both parties to hire these men at the well-known and understood sum of $25 for each cab, the legal rate of charge being $8. The use of these cabs at all was contrary to the law, but the cabman who let out his cab on election day was not responsible, only the person who hired the cab being subject to penalty. The question of hiring teams and cabs had given the judges a great deal of trouble, said his lordship, and suggestions had been made that an alteration in the law should take place. In his own recollection it had formerly not been illegal, but this state of the law imposed great burdens on candidates, especially in rural districts, where the omission to employ their teams was apt to affect voters. This was one reason which induced the Legislature to alter the law, rendering him who hired a team liable to $100 penalty. The present state of the law, he proceeded, was undoubtedly very unsatisfactory. His own suggestion would be that the person who lets out a cab should be disqualified for the election, as well as subject to the same penalty as the hirer. Prima facie, the fact that a man received $25 for a team was bribery.

With all these things and the large amount which they had been unable to trace, boldly expended, it was almost hopeless to expect a free and unpurchased vote in Kingston.

Mr. Justice Teetzel said he fully agreed with what had been said.

Aided by Political Friends.

Mr. D. M. McIntyre, in moving for judgment on the evidence before the court, submitted an affidavit covering the facts that had transpired since the adjournment of the trial, and his unavailing efforts to procure further evidence. He had relied on the financial assistance of his friends, and they had assisted him, but they had declined further assistance, and unaided by his political friends, he was unable to proceed. Kehoe, a material witness, witness, was an employe at the Kingston postoffice. He had been absent, and would be absent, Mr. McIntyre believed, until the trial was over. He had called at his house, and Mrs. Kehoe did not know when he would be back. He had issued a subpoena, which he could not serve, and in his absence he could submit no further evidence. He asked for judgment on the five cases reserved at Kingston and on the whole petition.

Mr. Justice Street referred to charges 178, Halliday and Short, hiring a vehicle; 22 and 79, Halliday and Cummings, treating; 123 and 134, hiring cabs, Dan and Joseph Eves; 143, Wilson paid $100 for six cabs; 130, Frank Gallagher, paid $75 for cabs; 137, Wm. Christie, $25, left at house; 138, James Howland, $18 left at house; 142, Robert Wilson, $40 for three cabs, the money found in an envelope on a desk. His lordship characterized the volunteering of cabs as "an absolute and perfect farce."

Mr. H. M. Mowat, K. C., appeared for Mr. Pense. From the evidence submitted hiring cabs was resorted to by both sides, he said. He was instructed that the cross-petition was filed in good faith. The extreme difficulty in proving knowledge on the part of Mr. McIntyre led to the withdrawal of the petition, and he would not offer any evidence on the particulars submitted.

Bribery Charges Not Brought Home.

Mr. Justice Street said it had been shown without any question neither petitioner nor respondent was able to adduce further evidence. The court had no machinery to enforce the production of further evidence, and when counsel on both sides said there was no more their lordships' hands were tied. It had been proved to their satisfaction that a large amount of money had been spent improperly during the election. It was very difficult to bring home cases of actual bribery, though it was quite evident a great deal was present in the constituency. None had been brought home to the agency of the respondent. The hiring of such numbers of cabs, at exorbitant prices, was sufficient to void the election, in the case of such a small majority. General costs in the petition were given and costs on all the charges that were sustained of acts by or on behalf of the respondent. No costs were allowed on other cases, whether the evidence had been gone into or not.

TROOPS RUSHING TO SCENE

Admiral Chouknin Fears That the Artillerymen May Join the Mutineers and He Reports Very Serious State of Affairs Prevailing and the Loss of Several Officers—The Potemkine In His Hands.

Odessa, Nov. 28.—Governor-General Kaulbars has received the following despatch from Vice-Admiral Chouknin, commanding the Black Seat fleet:

"The mutineers left the Kniaz Potemkine yesterday, and the vessel is now in my hands. The sailors, together with the soldiers of the Brest regiment who mutinied, have shut themselves in the Lazareff barracks with some guns. When fresh troops arrive I shall attack, though I fear the Artillerymen may join the mutineers.

"A very serious state of affairs prevails. Several officers have been killed."

Another Tale.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 28.—Though the mutineers at Sebastopol are still masters of the situation at Admiralty Point, and though armed parties have apparently free access to the town, notwithstanding the excitement, by the authorities, roads leading to it were blockaded, despatches received from Vice-Admiral Chouknin, commanding the Black Sea fleet, present the situation in an optimistic light. These despatches declare that most of the mutineers have decided to surrender with their arms, though such action involves trial for mutiny before a court-martial.

Shot Officers at Vladivostock.

Vladivostock, Nov. 28.—The Russian prisoners returning here from Japan are in such a state of mutiny because it is impossible to Immediately ship them back to Russia that it became necessary to form a camp where they are held under guard. On Saturday there was a tragic uprising at the camp on Cape Chouknin, where a thousand prisoners from Port Arthur are confined. A drunken soldier who refused to salute an officer was sabred on the spot. His comades rushed at the officer, who escaped to the Officers' Club, where he was joined by four other officers, who made a hard fight for their lives with revolvers against the infuriated men, but before the arrival of a squadron of Orenburg Cossacks, who were hastily summoned by telephone, three of the officers were killed and one was terribly beaten. About twenty men were killed or wounded in the struggle.

Landing Arms at Tiflis.

Tiflis, Nov. 28.—A quantity of arms was discharged yesterday from boats at the north mole of the port of Poti. The inhabitants of the town assisted in the work. While the unloading was proceeding troops arrived on the scene and firing ensued which lasted for some hours. The authorities seized 54 boxes of ammunition and 51 boxes of foreign-made rifles. Several arrests were made.

The Editor Arrested.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 28.—A new pictorial, satirical paper, The Poulsmet (Machine Gun) was confiscated yesterday, and the editor was arrested. On the front page was a cartoon representing the Imperial manifesto suppressed by the bloody hand of Gen. Trepoff.

A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy, tired and worn out continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 1618 No. Wahsatch Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

Mr. McCurdy Resigns From Mutual Life

Mutual Life's President Will Lose His Position.

SON AND SON-IN-LAW ALSO

They Were All Drawing Enormous Salaries—Trustees Are Looking About For His Successor — Because It Would Have Pledged Continuance of McCurdy Control Committee Didn't Cut Salary.

New York, Nov. 28.—The World yesterday is authority for this statement:

Richard A. McCurdy, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, has resigned. The date of his resignation depends only on the time required by the trustees to find his successor. The investigating committee did not accept Mr. McCurdy's offer to cut his salary in halves, because such acceptance would have pledged them to a continuance of the McCurdy management. Quickly following the retirement of President McCurdy, his son, Robert H. McCurdy, general manager of the Mutual, and his son-in-law, Louis A. Thebaud, the general agent for New York, have resigned. Each of these three men have been drawing approximately $150,000 a year in salaries and commissions from the company, besides their indirect profits in financial transactions with Mutual money.

Says McCurdy Hasn't Resigned.

Dr. Walter R. Gillett, vice-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, denied published reports that Richard A. McCurdy had resigned the presidency of the Mutual Life, and that Richard H. McCurdy had retired from the general managership of the company.

Dr. Gillett said, however, that Louis A. Thebaud, son-in-law of President McCurdy, had relinquished the position of the company's general agent for New York.

The smoker presented at the T.A.S. hall last night was first-class in every particular. The T.A.S. intend running a number of these entertainments at different intervals throughout the winter, and if that of last night may be accepted as a standard, there is no reason why the future performances should not be witnessed by crowded houses. Bag punching, wrestling, singing, dancing, and instrumental selections composed the programme, the different numbers of which were greeted with boisterous applause by the audience. The principal and most interesting attraction was the wrestling bout between Hurtubise and Grady, the former securing the fall in eleven minutes. It is only fair to state that had Grady been in good condition he would have put up a much stiffer argument, but as it was, he had done practically no training since last fall when he wrestled in the Argonaut tournament in Toronto. Mr. W. Crowley made a very capable and satisfactory referee and Mr. Robt. Begley acceptably filled the roll of master of ceremonies. The hall was filled to overflowing, many being unable to catch a glimpse of the wrestling bout, which was held in the pit. Mr. Geo. Schneider opened the entertainment with a much appreciated piano selection, after which Mr. Begley announced that Peter Johnston would punch the bag. Peter tapped and talked to the horsehide for about five minutes much to the merriment of the audience. He was followed by Mr. Leo Primeau, another leather punisher, who lambasted the bag for about the same length of time. It is needless to comment on Johnston's ability, he has appeared in public so often. The time will be well remembered when he gave bag punching exhibitions on the market as a side attraction to a medicine he was offering for sale. Mr. Primeau gives promise of becoming a very handy jabber of the elusive sphere. Messrs. "Jimmy" Callaghan and "Buck" Quinlan next executed a splendid double buck and wing dance that fairly brought down the house. These boys have the team work down to a nicety and their efforts last night evoked rounds of applause from their admirers. Mr. Ed. Crowe then rendered a vocal solo and was heartily encored, to which he responded later in the evening. The clever bag punching exhibition by Mr. Jack McDonough was a revelation to many in the gathering who have not seen him perform before. He is a master of the bag punching art and his skillful work was worthy of the vaudeville stage. Little Willie Begley, son of Mr. R. Begley, gives promise of becoming a head one in the dancing line and he executed a nice little step that pleased the gathering very much. Mr. Ed. Hickey played two mouth organ solos that reflected great credit upon this musician.

The main bout of the evening brought together E. Hurtubise, heavyweight champion of America and W. Grady, who competed for middleweight honours with Wm. Beckman of New York, the man that afterwards succumbed to Hurtubise. It will be remembered that Grady was thrown on a fluke in this bout, Hurtubise had little difficulty in pinning Beckman's shoulders to the mat. Hurtubise and Grady are two of the best amateurs in Canada and their contest was one of the best, if not the best, ever seen in Peterborough. Considering the size of the winner, he displayed marvellous agility and both men showed a good knowledge of the game. Hurtubise got right after his man in the first part of the bout being determined to secure a fall as quickly as possible. He secured all kinds of locks and hold upon his active opponent but Grady with his admirable defensive work was equal to every occasion. After about three minutes strenuous wrestling, Hurtubise assumed the defensive himself and Grady made great efforts to throw his adversary, putting on him some dangerous looking half nelsons, but Hurtubise offered too formidable a resistance and when the first minutes was up, the time of the first bout, both men were struggling on the mat, with neither in danger.

In the second bout, which lasted six minutes, some splendid work on the part of both men was witnessed. Hurtubise repeatedly clapped a neck and crotch hold upon his opponent, but Grady's clever rolls and spins, which brought forth uproarious applause from the audience, saved him time and time again. At one time Hurtubise seemed to be in actual danger, Grady had a tenacious locked half nelson upon the big fellow and using all his strength gradually forced him over till one of his shoulders touched the mat. A fall seemed inevitable and the other point was nearly pinned when by a superhuman effort, Hurtubise shook his man and scrambled to his feet. After some fast mat work Hurtubise finally secured a crotch and neck hold upon his opponent and Referee Crowley slapped the champion on the back. The time of the fall was six minutes, the two bouts lasting eleven minutes altogether.

In reply to "Crank's" letter of this evening, I will offer a suggestion. That if he would pay more attention to his Prayer Book, and think that he was in a church, not a theatre, that it would benefit his soul. Hoping that I am not hurting his feelings, I remain,

To the Editor of Post Card Column:

I see by one of your papers of recent date that Dr. Gray lost several valuable fowls by fire. I also was present in the post office the other day when the owner of a dog was somewhat wrathy because someone gave his dog a kick. I also saw while a lady was asking for her mail, a dog come along and spoil her dress by committing a nuisance. Is it not time that the Aldermen should take some steps that prohibit the running at large of dogs. I see Ald. Begley is of the opinion that a by-law should be discussed at least—the same as some other places. If a party wants to keep dogs let them do so the same as any other animal.

VOL. XXXIX NO 126 PETERBOROUGH WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 29 1905 PRICE TWO CENTS

MR. HAVERSON'S OPINION.

Mr. James Haverson, K. C., solicitor of the Licensed Victuallers' Association, was asked this morning for his opinion of the inspectors who have been dismissed: "I am not so well acquainted with the other two," he replied, "but no man on earth could say a word against the efficiency and impartiality of Thomas Hastings. He had a wide experience, and very thorough knowledge of the work from the ground up." Do you know any instance in which hotel men have complained of partiality in the administration of the present law? "I don't know of any, and as a matter of fact, none existed." "But the License Commissioners in Toronto had no more cause to resign," he continued, "than other License Commissioners all over the Province. As a betting proposition I would wager that in connection with recent dismissals elsewhere, the Boards were in no instance consulted."—Toronto News.

THE GOVERNMENT IS CHARGED BY TORONTO LICENSE INSPECTORS WITH DELIBERATE INTERFERENCE

The Statements Issued by the Commissioners Who Resigned Accuses the Ministers of Heeding Intriguers and Rendering Abortive the Policy of the Board---No Course But to Resign---"Designed by Men Inflamed With the Passion for Office"---The Government by Their Action Approved of That Course, Say the Commissioners, Hence the Resignation.

The following statement, dated yesterday, has been handed to the press for publication by the Board of License Commissioners, who resigned office on Monday:—

"The Commissioners accepted office reluctantly as a public duty, on the personal assurance of the Premier, and the written statement of the Provincial Secretary, that the Government desired a fair, fearless and non-partisan administration of the License Act.

Sane, Fairminded and Just.

"During the period in which they have held office, they have sought to be sane, fairminded and just in the discharge of duties singularly unpleasant, and personally distasteful to all the members of the Board.

"To insure this fairmindedness, from the first they decided as a policy of the Board, for its own guidance, that they would seek only to take such action as carried their unanimous judgment. All decisions which have been reached were in accordance with this policy, and on no question has a decision been arrived at and acted upon except on the unanimous approval of the Board.

Mr. Hastings Efficient and Non-Partizan

"In the discharge of their duties they had the assistance of the Chief Inspector, Thomas Hastings. They found him efficient, honest, fearless and non-partisan. Neither by direct nor indirect means has he sought to influence the Commissioners in any matter under discussion. He has been painstaking and careful in collecting and furnishing the Board with information called for by them, and has not intruded his opinions about license holders, nor upon matters dealt with by the Board, but has acted entirely under their direction in carrying out the policy laid down for him by the unanimous decision of the Board.

Party Workers Engaged in Intrigue.

"It was known to the Board that some party workers were engaged in intrigues against the Inspector and the Commissioners, but they refused to notice the intrigues or intriguers, as they considered it unthinkable that the Government, having committed to a body of men the enforcement of the law, would act upon the advice of such intriguers without consulting with the Commissioners, who were seeking to carry out the verbal instructions of the Premier and the written directions of the Provincial Secretary.

Deliberate Purpose to Interfere.

"The retaining of the Chief Inspector for nine months, and then, without a word of consultation with the Commissioners, dismissing him at a time when his experience, fidelity and capacity were so much needed by the Board in carrying out its policy, gave such plain evidence of a deliberate purpose to render abortive the non-partisan policy of the Commissioners, and to interfere with the course of a body of independent men who had no ends to serve but an impartial administration of the law, that no course was left to them but to resign, and to place the responsibility for their action upon the Government.

Refused to Play Part of Hired Men.

"It is with no ordinary sense of regret they are compelled to say the whole episode is at complete variance with the spirit of the Premier's and the Provincial Secretary's statements, when, as Commissioners, they were asked to take office. The course followed seems to have been designed by men inflamed with passion for office or for dispensing patronage, who determined to get rid of Commissioners who refused to play the part of hired men, subject to the dictation of party followers. The Government, by their action, have approved of this course, hence the usefulness of the present Commissioners is at an end. They accepted at full value the statements made by the Premier and his responsible Minister, the Provincial Secretary, that they desired an honest, non-partisan enforcement of the License Act, and as no other administration would be possible while the office was held by the present Board, they step aside to permit the Government to secure a Board in accordance with their present policy.

"J. A. MURRAY."

"DISGRACEFUL," SAYS FATHER MINEHAN

"From the standpoint of one who has every regard for good government—not brigandage—I think the action of the Cabinet in dismissing these men purely for party reasons, apparently, was disgraceful," said Rev. Father Minehan, whose active interest in temperance matters is well known.

"The great redeeming feature of the whole affair was the stand taken by the License Commissioners," he continued. "It was really commendable."—Toronto News.

Aftermath Of South Monaghan Charivari Case

Stephen Jackson, Charged With Criminal Neglect, Was Honourably Acquitted—Gun He Was Carrying Discharged Accidentally—His Honour Judge Benson Finds Him Innocent—Case Was Tried in Cobourg Last Week.

WAS AN ACCIDENT PURE AND SIMPLE

At the County Judge's Criminal Court in Cobourg on Wednesday, His Honour Judge Benson, after hearing the evidence, honourably acquitted Stephen Jackson. Jackson was on trial, it will be remembered for criminal negligence in carrying fire arms to a charivari in South Monaghan a few weeks ago when, before reaching the scene of the charivari the gun he was carrying accidently went off and two of his companions were wounded, but not seriously. Jackson's reputable character and the good name held by his family in the township convinced the Judge that it was nothing more than an accident. We congratulate Mr. Jackson upon the result of the trial which is not only a just conclusion of the unfortunate affair but is in keeping with what everybody in the township says, is only reasonable and right and leaves no tarnish on the name of a respected family. A Generous Contribution By Mr. Mulholland

Former Peterborough Citizen Places $10,000 at the Disposal of Trustees of Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives--A Forward Step is Made--Child Patients Will be Cared For--Also Outside Patients.

EFFORT TO CHECK WHITE PLAGUE

Though little more than a year since the Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives, beautifully situated near the Humber, was opened, much progress has been made.

The work has gone on quietly, and yet the interest shown in the undertaking is in evidence from the fact that within the year 5,000 visitors were registered.

One hundred and sixty needy patients have been cared for within this period, and not a single resident of Toronto who has made application to this institution has been refused.

A little more than two months ago contracts amounting to $20,000 were let for the erection of a large addition, which is now drawing to completion. This will increase the accommodation to between 60 and 70, as well as furnish new quarters for the staff.

When the new building is completed the trustees have decided to set aside a ward especially for child-patients ranging from six to twelve years of age, who are suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis.

This step will be appreciated when we say that there is not a hospital in Canada to-day that makes provision for the little ones stricken with pulmonary consumption.

The work has been strengthened in the generous proposition of Mr. R. Mulholland, of Toronto, formerly of the private banking firm of Mulholland and Roper, Peterborough, and well known to a large circle of friends here. Mr. Mulholland has placed $10,000 at the disposal of the trustees of the Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives for the erection of a commodious cottage, so as to make it possible to admit at least a limited number of patients in the advanced stages of consumption from outside of the city. These will be admitted under arrangement with municipalities or friends, who are willing to contribute just the bare cost of maintenance. Mr. Mulholland's offer has been supplemented by an offer from Mr. H. C. Hammond, treasurer of the hospital, who will erect another cottage at a cost of $5,000.

With the new extension undertaken by the trustees completed there will be represented in the forty acres owned by the association, present buildings and new buildings, together with furnishings and equipment, not less than $50,000. Add to this the cottages that Mr. Mulholland and Mr. Hammond are to erect, and this amount will be increased to $65,000 or $70,000.

G. W. Fitzgerald Was Stricken With Paralysis

Game Warden for Eastern Ontario Seriously Ill at Pembroke—Taken Suddenly Ill With Paralysis—Was in the East on Business When He Was Stricken—Sons Have Left for Pembroke—No Details Received Yet.

IS VERY HIGHLY RESPECTED HERE

Word was received in the city last night from Pembroke of a severe affliction which had befallen Mr. Geo. W. Fitzgerald, the game warden for Eastern Ontario. Mr. Fitzgerald was in that town on business in connection with the game wardenship, and on Monday night was stricken with paralysis on one side, his arm and leg being affected. Word was sent to his family, but no further details, other than the bare mention of the fact that he was ill.

This morning, Mr. Fitzgerald's two sons, Percy and Clarence, left on the 11.38 train for Pembroke to ascertain their father's condition and to arrange for his removal to his home if possible.

Mr. Fitzgerald had been in good health and the news of this affliction comes as a painful surprise to his many friends here, and the hope that his recovery will be speedy will be general. He was for years a member of the County Council, a prominent buyer on the Cheese Board and is very highly respected by all who are acquainted with him, and his circle of friends is a very wide one.

Since his appointment to the position of Game Warden for Eastern Ontario, he has had considerable travelling to do, and it was while on a business trip that he was stricken with this illness.

MRS. HUBBARD'S OWN STORY OF HER EXPERIENCES IN LABRADOR

Traversed Untrodden Regions Where Enormous Herds of Caribou Graze on Moss—Passed Down Rivers and Almost Came to Grief in the Perils of the Rapids—Lady Well Known Here Tells of Her Trip—Was a Native of Northumberland County.

First White Person to Visit the Nascaupee Indians in Their Homes—She Accomplished the Mission of Exploration Which Cost Her Husband His Life by Starvation.

In the magazine section of the New York Sunday World, Mrs. Leonidas Hubbard, who is known personally to a very large number of persons in this city, and who, as was stated in these columns some time ago, is a native of this community, having been born near Rice Lake.

Mrs. Hubbard has frequently visited in this city and was here when the sad intelligence reached her of the death of her husband. The World has her story as follows:—

Mrs. Leonidas Hubbard has returned from Labrador and is back in New York, happy in having accomplished the work for which her husband sacrificed his life. She experienced no serious hardships, but enjoyed her trip and feels almost inclined to go back to live in Labrador. The awful suspense of waiting for news when her husband was lost in the wilds and the shock of his terrible death from starvation have traced in lines their record upon her face, but they have not dulled the brightness of her smile nor quenched the ardour of her enthusiasm. She told a representative of the World yesterday where she had been, what she had seen and the adventures that had punctuated her travels.

"Yes, I crossed Labrador," she said, "and penetrated wilds in which no white man's foot had ever trod. My husband's fatal trip was planned for the purpose of exploring the Nascaupee and George Rivers in order to visit and study the Nascaupee Indians in their native haunts, and to observe the vast herds of caribou which, report said, lived in those regions. I succeeded. I traversed the entire length of the Nascaupee and George Rivers. I visited the Nascaupee Indians in their wigwams, and I saw many thousands of caribou.

"I left Halifax on a lumber company's steamer, which landed me at Kenemish, at the head of Lake Melville. Kenemish is a lumber camp, not a town in our sense of the word. I took almost all my supplies with me, my canoes, two of them, both of canvas, I obtained in Maine; my bacon and some other supplies in Halifax. When I spread them all out at French Post, Northwest River, across the lake from Kenemish, it did not seem possible they could be packed into two canoes. But they were, and with plenty of room for George Elson, the three Indian half-breeds and myself.

"We were two months in crossing the peninsula, dependent throughout upon what we carried and what we could shoot and catch. We could have managed with less with much less than we carried, which proves that the outfit my husband took with him was sufficient, and that but for a chain of unforeseen and fortuitous circumstances he would have succeeded. I would take no more than I did were I to make the trip again. I discovered that Mr. Hubbard had been misinformed as to where the Nascaupee River entered Grand Lake. He had been told that it entered just at the head of the lake, so when he reached this spot and found a river there, he supposed it was the Nascaupee, whereas the latter river was really five miles away, and he had actually passed its mouth. He went up this wrong river, and it was several days before he discovered his mistake. Then, again, there was scarcely any game, and the weather had been so bad that the fish would not bite. He had expected to be able to get nets at Northwest River, but had not been able to get the right sort.

Found Mouth of the River.

"I had no such evil fortune. I learned the true mouth of the Nascaupee River, found it, and ascended it without difficulty. There were no serious rapids entailing long and difficult portages, and while there was not much game, there was enough to supply our table. We spent no time in hunting for amusement, and killed nothing we could not actually use. We got one caribou, a porcupine, some rabbits, partridges, ducks and geese.

"We reached Lake Michekamau on Aug. 8, and there we found the caribou crossing at the height of land. We saw one herd that numbered well up in the thousands, and after that for several days we saw many large herds grazing."

'What were they eating, Mrs. Hubbard, grass?" asked The World representative.

Mrs. Hubbard laughed gently. "There is no grass there," she replied; "there is nothing but moss, and this is what the caribou eat."

"Are there many trees?"

"Only a few. Most of the country is a barren wilderness of bare mountains, snow-capped on the northern parts, utterly wild and desolate."

"And ugly?"

"Not at all, but beautiful! There is something majestic about those rocky solitudes, and though the mountains are not high—perhaps not more than 2,000 feet—they are grand in a rugged way that has a great charm. There are eagles and hawks and ducks and geese there, and if it were not for the flies and mosquitoes I should have enjoyed it even more than I did."

"Where the flies so very bad?"

"People who have never been far north cannot imagine how bad they were at times. On the Nascaupee River the black flies and on the George River the mosquitoes were so thick that I am almost afraid I shall not be believed when I describe them. But it is no exaggeration to say that they covered the heads and shoulders of the men so thick as to make them look brown. One of my half-breeds remarked of the mosquitoes that it felt like going out into a snow storm. I wore a veil constantly and my men had what they called "fly-dope." This was a preparation which they sometimes rubbed upon those parts of the body which were exposed, but it was effective only for a few minutes, seeming to evaporate quickly. The flies and mosquitoes would very rarely touch a man when the 'dope' was fresh on them, and when the adventurous insect did try to bite them it was killed instantly, but it was necessary to rub it on fresh about every fifteen minutes.

Flies Make Life Miserable.

"But the flies were not bad in all parts. I was told that they were nowhere so bad as they had been the year my poor husband lost his life. Still, at the best, they made travel in the interior anything but comfortable."

Returning to the voyage itself, Mrs Hubbard went on to tell of the Indians she met.

"After turning down the George River," she said, "and about fifty

LICENSE INSPECTORS WERE DISMISSED; COMMISSIONERS SEND RESIGNATIONS

Messrs. Hastings, McConvey and Hacker, the Toronto Inspectors, Supplanted by Messrs. Purvis, Burrows and Spencer Upon an Order of the Ontario Government Issued Monday Afternoon--- The Commissioners Refuse to Remain.

(Toronto News.)

Messrs. Thomas A. Hastings, Chief License Inspector; James J. McConvey, and A. E. Hacker, his assistants, were summarily dismissed yesterday afternoon by an Order-in-Council of the Ontario Government, which appointed the following new Board; Messrs. W. L. Purvis, 107 Amelia St. Chief Inspector, and Messrs. Robert Stuart Burrows, 138 Lansdowne avenue, and Matthew J. Spencer, 81 Shuter street, assistants.

As a result of the action of the Government, the Board of License Commissioners held a meeting last evening, and forwarded a communication to the Hon. W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary, apart of which is as follows;

"We view with deep regret the course the Government has decided upon taking. We are unanimous in our judgment that the proposed action is a direct reflection upon the work of the Commissioners, and we are compelled to refuse to continue in office when we have lost the support of the Government in the impartial and non-partisan administration of the law."

This letter was signed by Mr. J. W. Flavelle, Col. John J. Davidson, and Major Murray.

At the Cronet meeting, at which his summary course was adopted, there were present; Hon. J. J. Foy, K.C., Hon. Dr. R. A. Pyne, Hon. W.J. Hanna, Hon. A. J. Matheson, and Hon. Frank Cochrane. Hon. J. P. Whitney, Premier, was absent. He is spending a few days at his old home, having left the Hon. Mr. Foy in temporary charge of the administration.

This action on the part of the Provincial Government, whether taken after mature deliberation or not, was evidently a course in which the License Commissioners had not been consulted. Although rumors have been current upon the street during the past few days that some changes in this department would be urged upon the Cabinet by the zeal displayed of the party patronage, the appointments made yesterday came as a distinct surprise both to the present inspectors and the public in general.
